

Moguls Win Over Roscoe By 20 to 6 Score

Tidwell, Moore, Cude Outstanding Players

The Munday Moguls, charges of Coaches Perryman and Woods, entered the 1941 football schedule by a thrilling victory over the Roscoe eleven last Friday night.

A muddy field and a wet ball slowed down both elevens, but did not check the brilliant forward passing as the Moguls pushed over the Roscoe Plowboys for a 20-6 win in the season's first battle for both elevens.

James Cude and Ray Moore of the Mogul backfield, with Tidwell, a lineman, combined talents to manufacture three touchdowns during the evening. In the first quarter, Cude took a Moore pass for 30 yards and a touchdown. Cadwell booted the extra point neatly.

In the second quarter a sustained drive put the ball near the Plowboy line again, and Cude went through the line for a counter. Cadwell again converted.

In the closing quarter, Tidwell blocked a Roscoe punt, after which Cude took a 25-yard pass from Moore for the third Mogul score. Later in the same period Kennedy of Roscoe climaxed an hour of brilliant passing by tossing one to Browning for the Plowboy touchdown.

Rain which had fallen all day checked before game time, but attendance was small.

Every man on the Mogul team played exceptionally well, but Tidwell, Moore and Cude went outstanding on offense. Munday's starting lineup was as follows:

Munday led the host team in first downs gaining 14 during the game to only 4 by Roscoe. The Moguls gained 38 yards by the aerial route, while Roscoe chalked up 68 yards passing. Munday gained 210 yards running and lost 7, while Roscoe managed to eke out only 7 yards running, losing 10. Officials of the game: Russell, referee, and Moore, umpire.

County Garden Project Closed

Foods Distributed To Schools Operating Lunch Rooms

The canning and garden project which has been in operation in Munday during the summer was closed out on August 30, Mrs. Ulic Lea, district lunch room supervisor, stated.

The project employed 18 people during the summer, and produced 7,792 cans of fruit and vegetables most of which were raised on the 10-acre garden plot. In addition, the workers dried 840 pounds of vegetables.

These products have been distributed to the 5 schools in Knox county that had lunch rooms last year. These schools paid into the project 25 cents for each child, the amount based on the number of children which they expected to feed this year. The food was proportioned to the schools on the basis in which they paid and was distributed as follows:

Cans of Food	Lbs. Dried
Munday	2,420 261
Sunset	2,178 234
Knox City	1,549 167
Goree	1,160 125
Union Grove	585 53

All goods will be used at the lunch rooms to make better balanced and more attractive meals for the children this year.

A good fall garden has also been grown, and the produce from the garden is being gathered and used fresh in the lunch rooms, Mrs. Lea stated.

BILL SWAIN LEAVES TO VISIT FATHER

Bill Swain left last Saturday for Robbins, Calif., for a visit with his father, W. H. Swain, a former resident of this county. Bill made the trip by train and stated he would likely visit in California for about 30 days before returning home.

MISSED AUCTION SALE FOR FIRST TIME

J. C. Elliott felt kinda out of pocket last Tuesday—he missed his first livestock auction sale in Munday since the Munday Livestock Auction Co. was started here three years ago.

J. C. has served as assistant bookkeeper for the auction sale, and last Tuesday was the first time he missed a sale. He is the only person who has been connected with the auction who had not missed a sale.

But there was a reason! J. C. is bookkeeper for the Pendleton Gin in Goree, and he was too busy last Tuesday to make the sale. Anyway, he hated to break his good record.

Jack Perryman Has Operation

Mogul Coach Submits To Appendectomy In Wichita Hospital

Coming on the eve of his first gridiron victory as coach of the Munday Moguls, Coach Jack Perryman suffered an acute attack of appendicitis early Sunday morning and was taken to a Wichita Falls hospital where he submitted to an appendectomy.

Reports from the hospital are that Perryman is doing nicely, and he expects to be returned home in the near future.

Activities of the Moguls are under the guidance of Assistant Coach Woods during Perryman's illness. Mr. Woods stated the boys are going through their regular workouts and are doing their best for their coach while he is recovering from the operation.

No game is scheduled this week, Woods said, but the Munday team is working out strenuously in preparing for the remainder of the season's schedule. Woods is being ably assisted in the training by L. M. Palmer, principal of the elementary school.

Knox City Leads In Defense Bond Sales In County

$19,750 in Bonds Are Bought by Citizens

Although a total of $19,750 in U.S. Defense Bonds have been purchased in Knox county, the county is still running below par in bond sales, according to information received here.

In his regular weekly report for Washington, W. E. Braly, chairman of sales in Knox county, stated that the bond sales had reached the above figure on September 1, while only $788.70 has been spent for stamps.

The report was made by communities, and it was explained that Gilliland and Vera are not authorized to sell bonds. These two places only received the stamps to sell on September 1 for the first time, therefore they are not included in the report. The sale by communities is as follows:

Stamps	Bonds
Knox City	$254.10 $13,393.75
Munday	199.45 5,100.00
Benjamin	84.65 318.75
Goree	93.80 243.75
Truscott	156.70 693.75
Total	$788.70 $19,750.00

It is believed Knox county people want to do their part in the U.S. defense program, and those who have not yet purchased their bonds or stamps are urged to do so at once.

ATTENTION DOVE HUNTERS

While out hunting doves and enjoying this sport, please be considerate of the rights of your farmer friends, on or near whose property your are hunting.

Farmers wish to grant you every privilege possible, but several complaints have been made recently about hunters shooting too near their homes. The unexpected noise of a shotgun disturbs and excites members of the family, and shooting close to homes might endanger lives of someone you love.

It is believed this practice is done unthoughtfully upon the part of hunters and this request will cause them to be more considerate of their farmer friends.

Twenty-three had defective brakes, 13 defective lights, 13 no fire extinguishers, 16 no first aid kits. Nearly all of them had mechanical defects.

The local advisory committee for the national defense course is composed of J. A. Caughran, E. W. Harrell and C. R. Elliott.

CONTROL BY STARVATION

Something terrible is going on in Europe—far more terrible than the slaughter on the Eastern front.

Gradually the realization is dawning upon the world that Adolph Hitler is deliberately, scientifically, diabolically weakening the people of a dozen nations to a point where resistance against his rule will be difficult. His technique of weakening the spirit through terrorism is universally recognized.

A program has been worked out by Nazi dietary experts whereby the peoples of occupied countries are permitted enough of certain foods for subsistence, but not enough to prevent gradual debilitation. Under the rationing system, a strict control of calories and vitamins has been instituted. Highly nutritive foods are gathered up and sent to Germany, where the Nazi "super race" is being developed, leaving the husks for the slaves-to-be in the conquered lands. The Poles, the French, the Norwegians and the Belgians, particularly, are being subjected to this planned program. They are being scientifically starved to a point where they will resist disappears.

This development was touched on yesterday by Wilson Cowen, regional FSA director, in his talk to the Amarillo Kiwanis Club on food and the war. Several news commentators have discussed it. Adolph Hitler, himself, has hinted at the scheme in "Mein Kampf."

Terrorize them, then starve them. That's the "new order."—Amarillo News.

SIX MILLION MORE

Six million Americans will pay federal income taxes next year for the first time if the lowered exemptions of $750 for single persons and $1,500 for married persons are retained in the tax bill now under consideration in Congress.

At the present time federal government expenditures average $52,000,000 a day, and, as the defense program gains momentum, that figure will undoubtedly increase. To help meet such huge expenses, everyone must contribute his share. Rates on higher incomes are being sharply increased, but, even so, no one group can possibly pay the entire sum. There are not enough rich people in America for that. As a matter of fact, the total incomes for a year of all Americans earning $10,000 a year and over would meet government expenditures for only two months.

While paying an income tax will be a new experience for the low income group, actually they have paid direct federal taxes on cigarettes, gasoline, theatre admissions and other items in the past and have also paid hidden taxes in connection with every loaf of bread, pair of shoes and almost every other article they buy. Such revenue, however, no longer produces sufficient funds for regular federal expenditures, plus defense, and so income taxes must be used to take care of the rising costs of government.

How much those costs have risen is evident from the fact that at the turn of the century a man with a wife and two children, earning $100 a month, paid only $5 of his salary in taxes, direct and indirect. Although he may earn $150 a month now, even before the huge armament program was launched his taxes had risen to the equivalent of $25 a month and they are still going up.

It is because of this rise that the demand is growing for greater economy in non-defense spending. Now that 6,000,000 more voters will have to pay an income tax, perhaps that demand will become even more insistent. In the past their taxes have been hidden to such an extent that many of them failed to realize how directly they were affected by federal expenditures. The income tax should serve to emphasize the fact that they pay a share of the cost of government and that, the lower that cost is, the lower their share will have to be.

THEY ARE NOT GOOD CITIZENS

A letter came to our desk recently which said: "There are yet landlords in Texas who will not permit a tenant to have a garden without paying rent for the land used." There are probably others who will not permit a tenant to keep a cow or a hog without receiving pay for a small pasture.

If such is the case, the mildest thing we can say is that landlords of that type are not as good citizens as they might be. Many of our most prosperous landlords insist that their tenants have a garden, a cow and chickens. They find it to their advantage to help the tenant make a living on the farm he occupies. Any man thus encouraged makes a better tenant. He will take better care of the property in his charge and will be less inclined to take advantage of the landlord when opportunity presents itself.

In many states one of the considerations in the rental contract is that the man who operates the farm can secure as much of his living from the farm as possible. The only thing divided is when sales are made. The family's needs of the farm products come first. We ought to adopt that kind of a contract in every southwestern state.—Farm and Ranch.

The most effective help which a civilian can give to Uncle Sam is to buy Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps as often as possible.

BACK TO SCHOOL

Although the average American boy who returns to school after the summer holiday may not consider himself lucky, he is one of the most fortunate youngsters in this troubled world today.

The truth is that there are not many countries left where young folks have an opportunity to acquire unbiased information, free from censorship and enslaving propaganda. There are not many countries left where they can grow in freedom and prepare themselves for the kind of work they want to do.

Yet such freedoms are but part of the liberty that has been traditional with us Americans—so traditional, indeed, that we tend to wear it as casually as our familiar clothes. To appreciate its real value we need only compare our way of life with that in many other countries. The want, the misery, the degradation of human beings that characterizes them is as alien to us as the languages they speak.

As we see our children return to school we need to remember that and to be grateful for it. Although we can not go back to classes with them, we can—and should—reflect on the value of our freedom and consider how we may best preserve it from destruction.

WHO PULLS THE STRINGS?

Millions of good citizens in this country have watched the various government investigations of Harry Bridges, alien Pacific Coast labor leader, and alleged communist.

Deportation proceedings against him have been hanging fire for years. The Federal Bureau of Investigation has completed its job of presenting evidence to the Department of Justice for deportation, and yet no action has been taken.

If Mr. Bridges wants to stay in this country, why has he remained an alien citizen for 17 or 18 years? Should aliens guide the destinies of labor in our nation?

How many more years will those responsible for the conduct of this case, play horse with the American people, the FBI has done excellent work in unearthing alien activities, and with Mr. Bridges himself?

How much longer will this farce continue?

HERE COMES WINTER

Fall and winter are on their way. Many parts of the country are still enjoying clear, warm days—but the months of rain and snow are not far off.

The winter season brings with it some of the greatest fire hazards—hazards which are responsible for thousands of deaths and the destruction of millions of dollars worth of property each year. Yet those hazards can easily be corrected.

Winter hazard number one is your heating plant. Before long, it will be subjected to maximum load. Any defect, any weakness, may result in a disastrous fire. That is true of furnaces, stoves, fireplaces and everything which has to do with creating and conveying heat. Don't be your own inspector—that is not an amateur's job. Call in a qualified repairman. It won't cost much—and it may save a life, a home, or a factory.

Another hazard is exposed electric wiring. Cords fray, and fixtures get out of whack. Short days involve heavy use of light. Here again, a qualified expert should make all repairs. And keep a stock of fuses on hand—the more or less common act of using a penny to replace a burned-out fuse is an invitation to disaster.

Now is the time to get ready for winter—not when it is here and you must use maximum heat and light. Do it today.

181,482, KNOTS

Forty miles of continuous cotton cord hand-tied with 181,482 knots were required to manufacture a gigantic net for use in assembly of new patrol ships for the Navy, under construction at Goodyear Aircraft Corp., Akron, Ohio.

The huge net, 235 feet long and 192 feet wide when laid out flat, will be used to hold blimp "envelopes," or gas bags, during original inflation, preparatory to flying. Weight is provided by hooking sand bags to the net while the blimps are being inflated.

ADDED EMPHASIS PLACED ON TERRACING

College Station.—Terrace your land now and pay later when you yet your AAA payment is the new device Texas farmers will have available under the farm program in 1942.

With the program placing still greater emphasis on soil-building practices in 1942, terracing has been added to the conservation materials and service program to enable more farmers to terrace their land. Fred Rennels, assistant administrative officer of the AAA in Texas, has announced.

This phase of the AAA program, designed to assist cooperating farmers in carrying out more soil-building practices, already makes it possible for them to obtain phosphate, Austrian winter peas and vetch during the planting season and the costs of materials are being deducted from the AAA payment. Similar arrangements may be made in those counties which adopt the terracing program, Rennels explained.

County AAA committees, in counties where there is sufficient demand for the terracing program, will let bids on a 100-foot basis to contractors who will be paid by the AAA after the terraces are completed, the AAA officials said. Since the expanding conservation materials and services program throughout the nation may result in difficulties in securing necessary seeds and supplies, terracing is being added to help farmers make the maximum use of the AAA's soil-building assistance. Future AAA payments no doubt will be contingent upon carrying out more soilbuilding practices, Rennels said.

Under this program, farmers may use 70 per cent of their total farm payments for terracing.

RATE REDUCTION FOR STOCK SHIPPERS

College Station.—According to information from Washington, railroads have granted a rate reduction designed to benefit livestock shippers. The rate concession, which became operative August 1, is experimental for one year. Sale-in-transit privileges will be accorded to shippers of stocker and feeder animals at the central markets at the through 85-per cent stocker and feeder rates from origin to destination.

The rate adjustment is important to Texas cattlemen because this state is the largest shipper of livestock in the United States, said Paul G. Haines, of the A. and M. College Extension Service.

"The privilege of sale in transit means that when a shipper finds a more favorable market during transit he can unload his cattle and sell them without rate penalty," Haines said. "This does not mean elimination of certain rate differentials affecting the southwest, but it is a step in the right direction."

The railroads announced that continuation of the new schedule would depend upon whether increased traffic justified it.

Deficits in the state's general revenue fund amounted to $28,737,677 as of September 5, State Treasurer Charley Lockhart reported last week. This figure compares with $29,103,524 at the last semi-monthly report, and $23,297,331 a year ago.—The State Observer.

Here in our community, two men last week gave their lives for the cause of democracy. But for Hitler's mad attempt to enslave the world, Cadet Stanley A. Siegel and Flight Instructor Luois C. Cearley would not have suffered horrible death, each in early manhood. Siegel was in the armed service of his country and Cearley already had started a number of young men on their course as army pilots. Both were serving their country in the most vital branch of our defense. They are casualties of war just as much as if their plane had crashed in flames behind the German lines. To them we pay the tribute of heroes who died in the defense of their country.—Stamford American.

At a club meeting the other night, when members were asked to write down their hobbies for the information of pals one woman wrote her hobby was collecting, not dogs or children or vases, but oil wells. She confessed she has yet not acquired a single one.—Vernon Times.

Responding to the announcement made in last week's Democrat that the subscription price is to be increased September 15, a number of subscribers extended their time during the past few days. The yearly rate of $1.50 for Hall and surrounding counties will be raised to $2 a year. The $2 rate now prevailing on subscriptions outside this area will be hiked to $2.50. Recent increases in the cost of production and materials essential to publishing a newspaper were given as reasons for the raise in the subscription price by the publishers.—The Memphis Democrat.

Army maneuvers this year in the United States, as vitally necessary as they are, will cost the U.S. government almost $24,000,000 before the end of 1941. The government, through the army, has a tough job on hand in trying to take new recruits and make, almost overnight, seasoned army men out of them. The army is also planning, in order to bolster morale, to cut down on the service requirement time

Living costs are scheduled to advance this year and next. Advance in living costs is inflation by whatever name it is called. If living costs advance 25 per cent, a dollar then becomes worth only 75 cents. If prices advance 50 per cent, a dollar becomes worth only 50 cents. In other words, it would take two dollars to buy one dollar's worth of commodities. This is inflation.—Foard County News.

After hearing other members of the family discuss sights on and around San Angelo's Lake Nasworthy, our little niece wanted to know the difference between a houseboat and a boathouse. The answer her six-year-old brother volunteered was a masterpiece in conciseness and precision: "A houseboat is a boat with a house on it, and a boathouse is a house with a boat in it."—Haskell Free Press.

Ward School's Football Team Is Drilling Daily

The Munday elementary school football team under the direction of Coach Clyde Kenamer is working each afternoon after school, and the activity period.

Much interest is shown, with about 30 boys reporting for practice each day.

Coach Kenamer is not certain who will make the first team as there are several capable boys at each position.

The Spann twins, Joe and John, seem to have two of the backfield positions sewn up; but they are being pushed by Chas. Cude and James Hogan. Probably the two fastest players are Willis Pippin and Rex Voyles who are slated for backfield positions also. Other players that have attracted the eye of the coach are John Edgar Beavers, Merle Weaver, Louis Washburn, James Cadwell and Charles Roden.

A schedule is being arranged, any elementary team in this section wishing to match games, write to Coach Kenamer.

Senior Report

The Seniors seem to have quite a bit of excess energy this year—evidently they all had a good summer.

It seems the class rings are down at the depot now and the money isn't all in yet—but at the anxiety they are causing it won't be long now. If by any chance you see a boy or girl holding one of their hands out extra far, please don't hesitate to tell them how pretty you think their rings are, because that will be the only purpose of the extra energy.

'At Your Service, Madam.'

Everyone is about to get in the swing of things now and that is something.

We Seniors have let our hair down and are really getting down to business. To tell you facts, we are studying and translating Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales." We have finally run across somebody who spells about like some of us. See you next week.

Sophomore Report

The Sophomores are enjoying the good old school days again. We always consider school days, happy days here in Munday High.

We are sorry one of our sponsors, Mr. Perryman, is ill and hope to have him back soon.

Junior News

We Wonder Why... Angelina isn't wearing her blue dress any more?

Betty likes a tall, dark, and handsome boy. Stephen likes to go to Anson but William prefers Goree?

Syble and Lois don't like where they sit? Aubrey likes history so well. Is it because of a certain blonde?

Letters from Grand Canyon are gladly received by Maxine?

The Juniors are sorry to report that Mr. Perryman, their history teacher, is in the Wichita Falls Clinic Hospital, due to an appendectomy. (Maybe he overdid himself at the skating rink Saturday night.) We all wish him lots of luck in recovering and hope he is back with us soon.

We have some new pupils this year: Nadine Lemley from Pickwick, Rita Jo White from Midland, also Johnny Gaines and Jane Campbell are back with us. Nearly all the Juniors, we are happy to say, are building up school spirit by being in the pep squad, on the football team and the band.

In English we have already started improving our speech by giving talks before other students.

Junior Business Class Gets Utility Report

All the freshmen are getting down to business now. We are getting our first taste of what real high school life is.

Last week in Junior Business Training we had a report from the West Texas Utilities, telling of the agencies that they do business with; it was interesting.

In English we are having radio talks about food; some have had to be rewritten but otherwise much improvement is being made.

Beaty Heads High School Choral Club

Mary Lois Beaty was elected president of the high school choral club at a meeting last Wednesday. The choral club meets daily at 3:15 under the direction of Miss Jessie Merle DeLoach. Florene Pippin was elected vice-president, Flora Alice Haymes, secretary-treasurer, and Jonell Barley, reporter.

Homemaking Elects Officers

The Homemaking III girls met and elected Helen Williams president for the ensuing year. Benton Snelson was selected secretary, and Jerry Stevens new reporter.

We plan to study foods the first semester and study clothing the other semester. We are doing this so we may make our spring formal for the Junior-Senior banquet and any other occasion we might need them. At present we are studying community problems. We are glad to have Miss O'Donnell for our new Homemaking teacher, and plan to do much hard work for

Civics Report

The Civics Class received sad news today when Mr. Hardegreed walked into class and informed us that he would no longer be our Civics teacher, but we are happy to have Miss Stewart to take his place. We are sure we will enjoy having her even though we are losing Mr. Hardegreed.

It has been a very interesting class as we have been studying the forming of the Union. We are sure that Civics will become much more interesting as we study more concerning our government.

First Grade

The first grade now has an enrollment of 34 children, 22 girls and 12 boys. The children returned to school Monday morning happy and ready for another enjoyable week at school.

Some of the children enjoyed week end trips to grandfather's and grandmother's and various places.

Our main theme of interest the last few days has been an interesting study about "Safety" on the way to and from school. The children have learned songs, heard stories, poems, and rhymes. They feel like they will be more careful each day.

We plan to have an aquarium in our room. Some of the children will bring gold fish, fish food, water plants.

Stallard Wayne Bradford celebrated his seventh birthday, Monday, Sept. 15. Wayne felt happy and pleased when the children sang "Happy Birthday."

The first grade selected the following children to serve as helpers in the room for this week: Room hostess, Sue Hallmark; Librarian, Shirley Jo Patterson; Paper monitor, Tommie Powell, Jr.; House keeper, Myra Sue Iljng.

Second Year

We were glad to have another new second year classmate this week, Roger Gilmer.

Our class decided to have a birthday party each month for the children who have birthdays during the month, and those which occur during the summer months will celebrate theirs during a school month.

For our room duties the following children were selected for this week: Don Killian, Velma Jones, Dorothy McDonald, Herbert Ford, Roy Dykes, Bobby John Jones and Peggy Walker.

Third Year

All of the third year children had a good time over the week end. Some of the children went to nearby towns to visit relatives and friends. Those who didn't get to go had fun playing at home.

Joyce and Eddie Yarbrough's mother has returned from the hospital. We are so glad she is back at home.

There was a new boy in our room today. He is Lynn Lemley. We are very glad to have him.

Elementary Choral Club Meets

The elementary choral club, under the direction of Miss Holcomb, met Monday afternoon with 35 members present. A number of patriotic and folk songs were sung.

The club plans to have a girls' trio and sextet. They also plan to work up an operetta some time during the year.

Miss Jean Collins of Duncan, Okla., spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Harrell.

LIVESTOCK SHOW

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

Some folks can get away with anything. There's one in our neighborhood that does.

Morals don't mean a thing to him. He's unmarried, and lives openly with a woman he's crazy about; and doesn't care what the neighbors say or think. He has no regard for truth or law.

The duties of the so-called good citizen are just so much bunk as far as he's concerned. He doesn't vote at either the primaries or the general election. He never thinks of paying a bill.

He won't work a lick; he won't go to church; he can't play cards, or dance, or fool around with musical instruments or the radio. So far as known, he has no intellectual or cultural interests at all.

He neglects his appearance terribly. He's so indolent he'd let the house burn down before he'd turn in an alarm. The telephone can ring itself to pieces and he wouldn't bother to answer it. Even on such a controversial subject as the liquor question, nobody knows exactly where he stands, because one minute he's dry, and the next minute he's wet.

But we'll say this for him, in spite of all his faults he comes of a darn good family.

He's our neighbor's new baby.

Even in Fort Worth, where something of a model ordinance has been in effect since 1937, the high rate lenders are exacting a toll from thousands of persons, according to J. L. Pritchett, Better Business Bureau manager.

Surprising, too, are many of the borrowers who are in the toils of loan-sharks, for their number includes firemen, policemen and school teachers. Many are wives who have borrowed without the knowledge of their husbands and are forced to stint on the household budget for food and clothes for their families in order to pay 100 per cent interest or more.

The ordinance requires that the loan companies take out a license, give bond and keep records which can be inspected by the city. Some features were held unconstitutional, however, and this leads many who have studied the problem to believe that only through a Constitutional amendment and through State regulation can the situation be controlled.

There are some 35 concerns lending money at usurious rates in Fort Worth. Most are chain-owned with the management conducted by remote control from Memphis, Tenn., New Orleans, Atlanta or some other out-of-state city and the local manager is able to shift responsibility and, in the rare instances of legal steps, relief is difficult to obtain.

Some of the companies will pay $1 to persons turning in a name of a new customer. To entice a prospect, they will make a loan absolutely without interest if paid in 30 days. There's the catch, of course, because in most instances, the borrower can not pay off the

It's Funny How

Folks Still Call it the "Light" Bill

"WELL, Mary, here's the light bill for last month. Funny, isn't it, how we still call it the light bill! Remember when it really was the light bill?"

"U-u-m-m. Yes, sirc. We were mighty proud to have just electric lights . . . and in those days we paid about as much every month as we do now, and all we got was light. And they were off in the daytime, too, and we weren't too sure of 'em at night."

"It's sure different now. We get darn good service. For about what we used to spend for lights alone, we're lighting the house a lot better and washing and ironing clothes, cleaning the rugs, toasting the bread, running the radio, using the refrigerator, and shaving my face. I'd say we're getting a lot more for our money."

"Why not call it the 'Service' bill?"

Yes, the old-time "light" bill today really is for "electric service," which has taken away a lot of old-fashioned drudgery and added a lot of pleasure and enjoyment. Electric service has been doing these things for less and less money. The thousand men and women in this organization have had the training and experience to serve you more economically. You profit from the business operation and management of the company which has but one aim—to keep on giving you better service at lower cost.

Letters from the People:

"Our present low electric rates, cheaper appliances, and unsurpassed service are indeed a joy when we look back to the old days of frequent interruptions and part-time service. . . . We often resorted to the kerosene lamp, stored away handy. And we paid 15 cents per kilowatt-hour and 50 and 60 cents for bulbs . . ."

TEXAS OUT-O-DOORS

Austin.—Antelope, which in the years past have been successfully live trapped and transplanted to better ranges in lower West Texas and the Trans-Pecos region, will be trapped next in the Panhandle, the Executive Secretary of the Game Department announced today.

The project, scheduled to begin within a few weeks, will be centered in Oldham county, where a considerable antelope herd has developed, and animals will be trapped and distributed to thousands of acres of suitable range in that portion of the Lone State State.

Details are being worked out in conferences between the Executive Secretary, the Director of Wildlife Restoration of the Department, and the Game Manager who has been in charge of such work in the past and is most familiar with it.

The purpose of the work, the Executive Secretary explained, is to remove surplus antelope from over-crowded ranges. Under such conditions the Texas antelope herd, a few years ago, was slowly starving to death. There was not enough food on the ranges to withstand the tremendous competition for subsistence among cattle, domestic sheep and antelope, it was explained.

Success of the antelope trapping work instituted by the Game Department already has been indicated, and this year the director of Wildlife Restoration estimates the total antelope population of the State at 10,000 head, on the basis of reports from field men who check the various areas where seed herds of the animals have been released.

One of the most cheerful reports this year came from the Game Manager of the Trans-Pecos region, who said there had been an excellent fawn crop of antelope this year, and that owing to rains earlier in the year, the food supply over most of the antelope range was much better than average.

If the North Texas project is as successful as the lower Plains and Trans-Pecos antelope programs have been, pronghorns should be much more abundant in the future in the Panhandle of Texas.

If you're a white-wing hunter and bring down a bird with a band on its legs, don't throw either the bird or the band away!

It's not unlawful to kill a white-wing or any other bird that has been banded.

Take the band off the bird's leg and send it to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, Austin, Texas.

The bands are used for purely scientific purposes. Assistance of sportsmen in getting the bands returned to the Commission will be greatly appreciated, the Executive Secretary of the Commission said.

Birds are banded so that wildlife research scientists may check accurately on migrations and other life habits of birds, and recently hundreds of whitewings were banded in the lower Rio Grande Valley. Please help the Commission help the birds by returning any bands discovered!

It is not uncommon for robins to nest and raise their young in parts of Texas but such practices have been seldom seen in the Lufkin region. So Watt Avery of Lufkin has been watching with growing curiosity the antics of a robin couple that "settled down" in a tree in his yard. So far they have brought off two sets of young.

Oh! Johnny

Wee Donnie Baker, reviver of Oh Johnny, Oh, Johnny, and other popular songs of the past, will be featured with Orrin Tucker's Band at the Cafe Esplanade in the Automobile Building, it has been announced here by George T. Smith of Fort Worth, who will operate the huge dine and dance place.

In addition to Miss Baker and Orrin Tucker, Mr. Smith will present a complete floor show three times daily.

Included in the floor shows at the Cafe Esplanade will be such stellar acts as Buster West and Lucile Page; A. Robbins, "The Banana Man," Hibbard Bird, and La Rue; the Nelson Sisters; Wilfred Du Bois, and Bud Hughes and his pals, and a line of twelve of Sam Rose's girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen of the Allen ranch spent last Sunday here, guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Williams.

not announced anything to date.

Last night at 9:30 the Commanding Officer of this battalion, Col. Mallonee, was ordered to the Philippine Islands. He called the officers together at 12:40 today, bid them goodbye with a tear in his eye—stepped in his car and drove away. He must leave his family in the U.S.A. He sails from San Francisco on October 4. It came as a very sudden surprise to him and to the organization.

He was well liked by his officers and men. That is the way things go in the army. No one ever seems to know the why of things.

The food is excellent and I am well pleased personally. I hate to see some of the trucks mounted with wooden guns in place of .50 calibre machine guns and 37 mm anti-tank guns. It looks that the defense program should step it up some because soldiers can not train without guns and other equipment.

This Division is short on trucks and some other equipment. To date I have seen no modern tanks. The men seem to be in good spirits, with very few complaints.

Please give my regards to everyone.

Walter Rice Tells Interesting Story Of Army Maneuvers Held in Louisiana

Somewhere in Louisiana,
September 11, 1941.
Mr. Aaron Edgar,
Munday, Texas.

Dear Aaron:
I am just wondering how The Munday Times is getting along without me to write up the "news" for you. As you know, I always considered myself the assistant editor that had to do all the work, but got very little credit for my efforts.

Now I want to make a true confession. I always liked Knox County, and after seeing this section of Louisiana I can appreciate Knox County more than ever. You understand that I think it is certainly a privilege to live in Knox County after I have seen so much of this worthless country.

The rural people—not farmers, but workers in woods cutting timber, etc.—are surely under-fed, sickly-looking. Of course the maneuvers are being held in the timbered sections and we are avoiding the farming sections—but I have seen only one farm tractor, and not one pair of good work horses or mules. The razorback hogs are everywhere, like jackrabbits in Knox County.

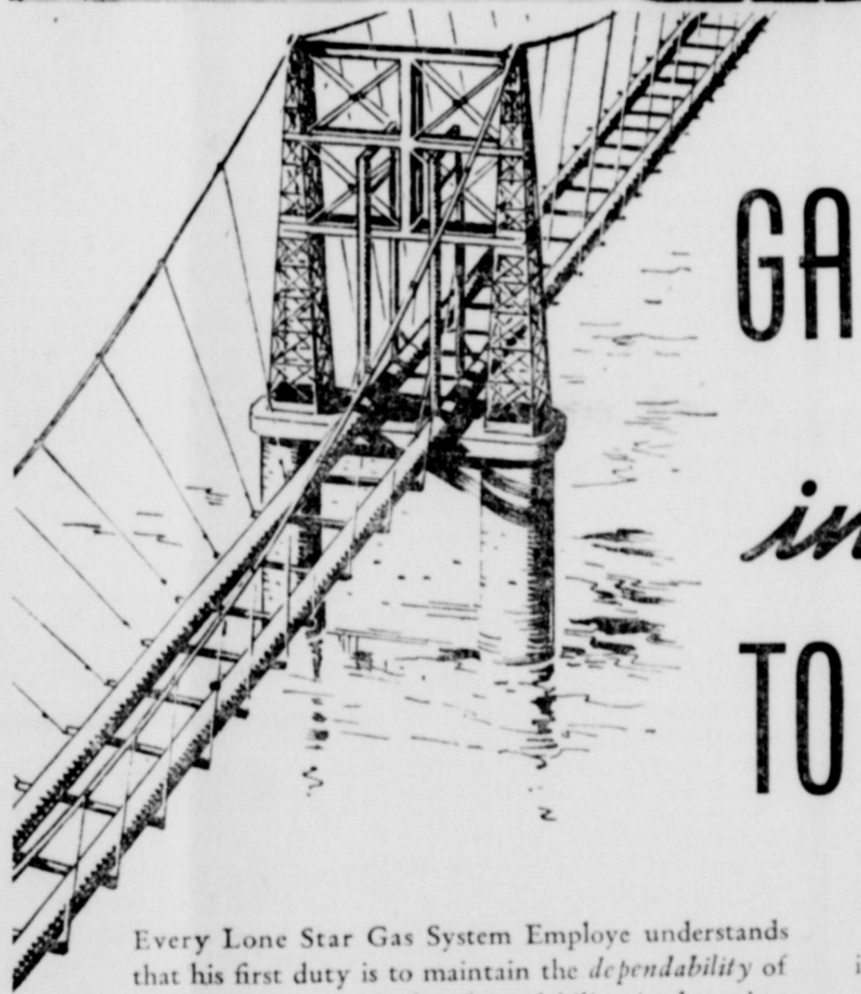

We are required to bury our kitchen garbage and cans—and we must put it three feet under ground to keep the hogs from rooting it up. Their noses can dig a hole faster than the average farm hand can dig with a posthole digger. They are specialists in their line.

We are camped near Singer—which is near DeQuincy—and the men caught an alligator from a little creek about 25 yards from camp. It was about 7 feet in length. They saw a smaller one but were unable to catch it.

We entered Louisiana at Mansfield and have dragged our gun batteries thru every thicket from there down to DeQuincy and back to near Alexandria. I know every pig trail in this entire area, and the Kisatchie National Forest.

I am the ammunition officer for our battalion, and must haul the ammunition from some railroad or dump up to the firing gun battery position. There are 3 batteries of 4 guns each, and they can use a great deal of ammunition. Incidentally we must haul sandbags in lieu of actual ammunition. There are umpires scattered everywhere to see that we do not cheat in this game of war. Everything during a "battle" or problem is carried out just as if we were in a real war. We wore our helmets until we took to growing corns on our heads, now we can carry them on our person—and carry also our gas masks. We have encountered only one small attack of tear gas. The 155-mm guns are pulled around by 4-ton Diamond-T trucks and the men and supplies are hauled in our battalion by 2½-ton GMC trucks. The officers have 1-ton 5-passenger Dodge cars, especially built for their use.

During a battle we keep going for fairly long periods. Last Sunday I started out at 6:30 p.m., hauled infantry troops up to the front line all night, returned to my battery at 5:00 a.m. and moved up to our own position at about 1:30 p.m. I got about 2 hours sleep that night in my car, about 2 that afternoon, and kept going until midnight that night and was up the next morning at 4:00 a.m. on my way again. I personally recommend the above schedule to any of the so-called "windshield farmers" in Knox County who feel that they have sore feet and are getting old. It definitely cured me of all ailments. I forgot to say sleep in your clothes and not wash your hands and face.

GAS MEN invent CHAIR TO PAINT BRIDGE

Every Lone Star Gas System Employee understands that his first duty is to maintain the dependability of Lone Star Service... for dependability is the prime factor in establishing the value to you of your gas service.

MEMO to Lone Star Customers:
The past few months have been the busiest season for Lone Star Employees in putting the system in shape to meet the coming winter's demands. Why not take their work as an example and put your own equipment in good operating condition?

In performing his duty, whether at a desk analyzing maintenance costs or in the field overhauling a piece of machinery, a Lone Star Gas Man meets problems which are a test of his skill, a challenge to his ingenuity. For instance, in keeping pipeline suspension bridges in ship-shape condition, painting the suspender rods has been a problem. Now the job is easy and done twice as fast because of a boatswain's chair invented by the paint crew which permits the painter to move from rod to rod in complete safety.

This is only one example of how a Lone Star Gas Man goes about the important job of maintaining Lone Star dependability. In improvising special tools for special jobs he increases the organization and operating efficiency which are reflected in Lone Star's low rates.

Rhineland Wins Second Game Of Final Series

Munday & Rhineland Evenly Matched In Play-Off Games

Behind the masterful 7-hit pitching of Thomas, brilliant little right-hander, Rhineland emerged victorious last Sunday over Munday, 2-1, in the second game of the post-season playoff, thus evening the count at one victory each. It was a thrilling, well-played, stiffly contested tilt and a pitchers' battle throughout, with Thomas gaining the upper hand through his remarkable control, not having issued any free transportation to the initial sack.

Ratcliff, Munday's star moundman, turned in a splendid bit of mound work as he limited the visitors to only 4 hits and whiffed 10; but his inability to keep Shorty Kuehler, Rhineland's canny little manager, off the base paths led to his downfall. Kuehler incidentally was the star of the day, collecting three safeties and tallying both of Rhineland's runs, one of which was the result of a home run. His four-ply smash, which proved the margin of victory, together with his daring play on the run-ways was the deciding factor in the triumph. A luminary on defense was Dutch Kuehler a crafty vet, who made several spectacular catches to stifle threatening rallies.

An estimated crowd of between 750 and 1000 people, which would do credit to many professional baseball clubs, particularly those in financial distress, witnessed the tilt and were liberal in praise of the high calibre play displayed by the contestants.

As previously stated, the third and deciding tilt will also be staged at Rhineland. As both clubs will be in there striving with everything at their command in an effort to annex this game, most assuredly this contest gives promise to outdo all previous ones in thrills and excitement. Softball enthusiasts need only to consider the closeness of recent games and the 32 to 2, 13-inning encounter of earlier in the season, to convince themselves of the proximity in style of play delivered by the two contestants. Unless something unforeseen develops, Rhineland for once will be at full strength for this game. Then also let us remember with the passing of this contest we bid farewell to the game for 1941 which has for a few hours at least lifted our wearied minds from the terrible conditions beyond our shores and which at this very moment is threatening the quietude and security of our own land. Locally it has eased our minds during excessive rainfall and more recently the threat of a serious insect infestation. Let us also be reminded of the fact that both clubs have been operating in the red throughout the season. So in passing through the gate let us be more generous with our nickels and dimes, because after all bats and balls and other paraphernalia vital to sustenance of the game cannot be grabbed out of thin air, nor is either club backed by a rich philanthropist. Where can we find such good and wholesome entertainment for a thin dime?

The Benjamin Mustangs of 1941 will open their football campaign Friday afternoon with the Vera Pilots at Vera. The Mustangs, under their new coach, Pat Wyatt, are expected to do well.

They will journey to Knox City September 23, for a game with the Greyhounds, and then to Mattson September 30, for their first conference game.

The Pep Squad and the High School students will hold a pep rally and bonfire Thursday night and cheer the Mustangs on.

Senior Report

The Seniors planned a party for Saturday night, which was to be sponsored by the room mothers, Mrs. Louis Cartwright and Mrs. A. N. Russell, and our sponsor, Miss Cole. The party, however, was postponed, due to an injury received by Perry J. Stark, in a car accident. Perry's hand was crushed. We wish him a speedy recovery and hope to see him in school again soon.

The Senior class is composed of 11 members and we hope to "go places" with Alonso Cartwright as president.

Alonso Cartwright was born near Goree, and is 17. He moved to Benjamin in 1937, where he finished grammar school. "Lonnie" has a grand personality and is liked by the students and teachers. He is six feet tall, weighs 150 pounds, has black, curly hair and blue eyes. His favorites are:

Appreciation Of Defense Guard Is Shown Thursday

With a representative number of Munday business people and other citizens present last Thursday night, the Munday Chamber of Commerce and business firms showed their appreciation of Company C., the Munday unit of Texas Defense Guard. This had been designated as "appreciation night" for the local company.

When the company personnel was assembled for the regular drill period, their commanding officer, Capt. John Ed Jones, gave them "at ease" so they might hear the message of President Roosevelt over the radio. After the president's speech the company was again called to attention, and C. R. Elliott, president of the Munday Chamber of Commerce, presented the guard with a company flag as a gift from the chamber of commerce and a check for $35 which was a gift from the business firms of Munday. Capt. John Ed Jones accepted the gifts in behalf of the company.

In his short talk which followed the company's passing in review before the U.S. flag and that of the defense guard, Mr. Elliott expressed Munday's appreciation for this organization which is preparing to serve the State of Texas should it be called out in case of emergency. He paid tribute to the two former members of the company, Capt. Walter Rice and Sgt. W. R. Moore, Jr., who are now in army service. "Our appreciation does not end with these ceremonies tonight," Mr. Elliott said, "but shall continue on through the days and weeks which are to follow. We shall always be grateful to you for your loyalty and service and for your readiness to serve your country in case of emergency."

Capt. Jones replied to Mr. Elliott's address with a timely talk in which he again expressed his thanks in behalf of Company C for Munday people's expressions of appreciation and backing.

Following the ceremonies, the personnel of the company continued with their regular drill activities.

Capt. Jones stated that the local company has its entire quota of 72 men and had on an average of between 60 and 65 present for drill periods each Thursday night. They range in age from 18 to 63 years.

The Knox County Land Use Planning Committee met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Dunkle at Benjamin Thursday night, September 11 for the purpose of planning their work for the coming year. In the absence of the chairman, Mr. Dunkle, county agricultural agent, presided.

The group checked on the progress which has been made toward carrying out this year's objectives before making new plans. Reports were given on the following phases of work:
Building frozen food locker plant.
Extension of REA lines.
Encouraging home garden for every farm family.
Improve quality of wheat.
Carry on one-variety cotton program.
