Appropriation is Made On Drainage Work For Munday

P. S. Bailey of Childress, district engineer for the Texas Highway Department, informed The Times this week that the highway commission has appropriated $18,000 for the repair of the Brazos bridge on State Highway 222 near Rhineland.

This repair work will consist of an entire new floor system of treated timber and asphalt surface, a steel guard rail, and painting of the entire structure.

The highway commission has also made an appropriation of $2,500 for the improvement of drainage conditions in and near the city of Munday. This money will be spent in cooperation with the city and county, Mr. Bailey said, and should alleviate to a large extent the flooded condition of Munday during heavy rains.

Moguls Travel To Archer City Friday Night

Outcome of Game Is Doubtful, Perryman Said Tuesday

Still holding top position with Chillicothe in the district 9-A standing, the Munday Moguls will journey to Archer City next Friday night for their fourth conference game.

For the first time this season the Mogul coach, Jack Perryman, has gloom on his countenance, and this gloom is spreading throughout the squad. Coach Perryman says he has a tired, sick bunch of first stringers who face a strong possibility of dropping their first conference game to the Archer City eleven. Some five or six of the boys are almost down with colds, and they're worn out from their hard schedule, he said.

Meanwhile, the Archer City boys, the team that has been playing in hard luck this season, will have had three weeks of rest by Friday night, two of their conference games having been postponed because of rain. Having lost only one conference game, the Archer City team's record stands at two wins, one loss and a tie for the season.

"They're a tough bunch of boys," Perryman said, "and it will be a hard game even if the Moguls are playing their best football. With the locals off par this week, there is a strong likelihood that this game will be our Waterloo." We are hoping for a dry field when we play Friday night."

Local football fans are expected to join the trek to Archer City next Friday to back the Moguls.

SEE PULPWOOD SHORTAGE

Patrolman E. W. Green, a member of the Texas Public Safety Department, was here Tuesday for the purpose of issuing new drivers licenses and assisting in the renewal of old drivers licenses.

This was Mr. Green's first trip to Munday for this purpose, and the issuing of drivers licenses here comes as a result of work upon the part of a number of Munday citizens who requested this service in order to save local residents a trip to Benjamin for this purpose.

Mr. Green will be here every Tuesday morning from 9 until 11 o'clock to issue licenses.

Examination for the issuance of operators, commercial operators or chauffeur's licenses to applicants who have never before been examined and have never been issued a license will be held at these hours.

Mr. Green will also issue renewal licenses to those whose old licenses are expiring. As a means of making the issuance more efficient, the patrolman requests that only those whose licenses are expiring ask for renewals at this time. This will facilitate the renewal of all those whose licenses expire.

The date of expiration of operators licenses are as follows:

Licenses numbered from 1 to 450,000 expire December 31, 1941; Nos. 450,001 to 900,000 expire March 31, 1942; Nos. 900,001 to 1,350,000 expire June 30, 1942, and from 1,350,000 up expire November 1, 1942.

Aid Is Needed For China

An urgent appeal for Knox county to do her share in contributing to the China relief was voiced this week by W. E. Braly, chairman of the United China Relief organization in this county.

Local Midgets Lose 7-6 Game To Holliday

The Munday elementary school football team, the Midgets, playing under Coach Clyde Kennamer, lost a close game to the Holliday Eaglets last Monday at Holliday, the final score being 7 to 6.

Both teams scored a touchdown in the first half. Munday marched 50 yards for her counter the first time the Midgets got possession of the ball. In the second quarter the Holliday safety man ran a Munday punt back 40 yards for a touchdown. On the try for point Munday batted the ball up and into the arms of a Holliday player for Holliday's one-point margin over the locals.

The Midgets tried desperately to score in the second half, but they bogged down on the 15-yard line.

The two teams meet at Munday on November 18. Games remaining on the Midget schedule are: November 6, Olney there; November 10, Olney here; November 13, Haskell here, and November 18, Holliday here.

OIL IN WAR

Grady Roberts in Munday Times: At the end of the last war, a leading British statesman made this significant observation: "The Allies sailed to victory on a sea of oil." In World War II, thinks many an expert, the decision will again be largely determined by the petroleum assets of the antagonists. And that is where Germany is weak—and Britain and the United States are strong.

Oil has become more important than horses in modern war. The old warriors would never believe such a thing possible. Modern war is machine made. It is a mechanical activity, but deadly none the less. Old-fashioned horse cavalry has given away to the new-fashioned tank cavalry. Tanks were first used in World War I, on the Somme front, in France. The British built the tanks and at their first use they astonished and intimidated the Kaiser's men. Gradually the tanks became more and more used in that war but never largely. The Germans recognized their value immediately. The French didn't. The French built a line of excavations and fortifications, and relapsed into politics, while Hitler after he came along, built tanks and panzers. The French were more interested in politics, self-assured that the Maginot Line could not be broken. When it was outflanked through Holland and Belgium it was too late to do much about it, so France today is little more than an unhappy appanage of Germany. The generalissimo of the French forces is to be tried for losing the war. Very likely he was an inept commander but it was the politicians and politicos who lost France. Now as long as the oil holds out to burn war will be made with machines. We have the oil and are building the machines. We can defend ourselves from Cape Cod to the death of Satan, but we can not do much in the defense of countries far distant from us.—State Press in The Dallas News.

THE ETERNAL WAR

In the laboratories and hospitals of America, doctors and scientists are engaged in a never-ending war. That war is against disease, illness, death. The battle is being fought for you.

All of us are familiar with some of the victories that have been won. Typhoid, scarlet fever, yellow fever, rabies—a long list of such once-great scourges as these have been defeated and shorn of their terror. But the war must go on. For there are other enemies, still powerful, which must be beaten.

The medical men are rarely given medals. Their names rarely appear in the headlines. For the most part, the financial rewards are small. Theirs, basically, is the least selfish of all callings. They know disappointment and heartbreak. They see the work of years go for nothing. But they have no time for regret. They can't give up. A thousand experiments may seem in vain—and the thousandth-and-first may bring success with it. Twenty years of labor may have seemed in vain, but the work done tomorrow may open the door to a vital new discovery. That is the kind of thinking, the kind of spirit, that drives the scientist.

The work private medicine has done in the past has given us the present longer, fuller, happier, lives. The work medicine is doing today will give our descendants of the future even finer, healthier, lives. The doctor labors for us all.

MILITARY MILEAGE IN TEXAS

Texas needs the "access" roads provided in a bill just passed by the lower branch of congress, to serve defense industries and military establishments. But Texas, more than any other state, needs the federal improvements program for the strategic network of military highways. Of this network, designed by the army as of strategic military importance, 10 per cent of the mileage is in Texas.

The United States senate, in passing a revised form of the bill, after President Roosevelt vetoed the original measure, carried money for the military highways. The house bill is an amendment to the senate plan, so there remains a chance for conferees to work out an agreed form restoring some or all of the money for the main strategic highways.

In this case, it is to be hoped the house will yield and support the same type of bill it earlier had given overwhelming approval. The present senate bill differs from the vetoed measure in two respects: It cut down the total somewhat, and it took out the objection that caused the veto—the attempted allocation of the money to the state instead of leaving the president and his defense organization free to use it on military highways where it is needed.—Wichita Falls Record-News.

MENACE

Today America is face to face with many dangers. Not all of them carry machine guns or fly in dive bombers, but just the same, they imperil our safety and our happiness.

We are arming to protect our way of life from aggression. Yet the truth is that the entire force of Hitlerism, great as it is, constitutes a less tangible threat to our American standards of living than a careless method of financing the defense program. Unwise taxation can be as destructive as torpedoes.

Taxes are going up at such a rate that America must take stock of its entire tax situation—must enforce non-military economies and raise additional revenue in a wise and equitable manner. Already the average man here pays more to his government than the average Englishman does. High as our taxes are today, however, indications are that they are only the beginning of what we shall have to pay in the years to come.

The 100 billion dollars that are currently reputedly scheduled for defense are only a down payment on the final total, whatever it will be. Additional expenditures, interest charges, factors like these may well double that figure!

No one questions money spent for defending our freedom. But we must make sure that that money is raised wisely. Congress must bear in mind the problems of post-war adjustments, and particularly the future needs of business enterprises to meet payrolls and provide working capital in the years ahead. New taxes must be levied, but they must be levied in such a way that they will not halt production and throw men out of work.

Great economies must also be made in non-defense spending. Before putting one dollar for defense, we are hogtied to an 18 billion dollar structure of federal, state and local non-defense expenditures, and this must be reduced. For, unless we can finance the defense program wisely, we may find that economic disorganization at the end of this emergency may destroy the very things we are arming to keep.

Add Defense Savings Bonds to your investments. Serve your country and conserve your earnings.

The war in Europe may not be our affair, as some people assert, but if Hitler ever manages to control Europe we will know the difference.

The cost of national defense indicates that, unless the world becomes stabilized, the chief burden of government will be armaments.

Queen Coronation Climax To Hallowe'en Activities

Last Thursday evening after everyone had enjoyed an evening of entertainment at the Hallowe'en Carnival in the elementary school auditorium, something still more important was enjoyed. You know that I refer to the Coronation of our High School Queen, Maggie Searecy.

The color scheme of red, white and blue was carried out. The stage was beautifully decorated with red, white and blue strips of crepe paper hanging from the ceiling to the floor. The throne was white. Each girl either wore a dress of red, white or blue. This made the color scheme much more impressive.

After the trumpets were sounded by Joseph Borden and Lyndal Smith the Queen's Court marched down the aisle and was announced by Charles Baker. Then they marched up the steps and on the stage. They were assisted by Dixie Atkinson and Dick Harrell.

First came the Duke and Duchess of the Freshman Class who were Latrace Johnson and Dick Owens, followed by the Duke and Duchess of the Sophomore Class, Jerry Chamberlain and Aubrey Roden. As the Junior Class representative was Queen, Maggie she had the privilege of selecting her attendant. She selected Patsy Ruth Kirk; therefore the Duke and Duchess of the Junior Class were Patsy Ruth Kirk and Wayne Blacklock. The last Duke and Duchess, the Senior Class representatives, Cora Jean Martin and Ben Bowden, followed. Next in the procession was the crown bearer, little Joan Harrell.

The trumpets sounded again and out on the stage came none other than the King—Harmon Sessions. Queen Maggie at that time was coming up the aisle with her train bearers, Sue Hallmark and Lee Anell Bowden. The King, Harmon, crowned Maggie Searecy Queen of Munday High School. Then she sat on the throne for a few minutes and this was followed by the recessional.

The coronation was very pretty and I am sure it was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.

Ward Chorus Learns New Songs

The elementary choral club, under the direction of Miss Holcomb, has learned a "Song of Home" and "Cribiribin," and are now working on "Love Divine." Work will be started on "Kentucky Babe" this week.

The octet is composed of Charlotte Ann Williams, Carolyn Hannah, Mary Tom Kirk, sopranos, Janie Spann, Eloise Gray, Rosalee Pippin, second sopranos, and Oleta Norman and Bobby Boggs, altos.

Also a sextet has been formed, consisting of: Mary Alice Beck, Martha Ann Reynolds, sopranos, Carolyn Bowden and Lola Faye Cumba, second sopranos, and La Rue Johnson and Joy Guffey as altos.

Indian Unit For Fifth in Progress

The 5A class and the teacher are very happy that the Indian unit will be completed before long. This unit has been constructed by the students with little assistance from the teacher.

Last week Hallowe'en posters were made and displayed in the room. Thanksgiving posters are to be made during the next week.

The pupils of room 5B have been working on an Indian unit for the past two weeks. An Indian village is being constructed in the sand table and booklets about the customs and characteristics of various tribes of Indians are being made.

The class and teacher are happy to have Bonnie Joyce Kitchen back in school again after being absent for quite a while because of an operation.

Several interesting ideas for Thanksgiving posters and window decorations have been discussed in class and everyone is anxious to begin work on them.

Playhouse Used by First Graders
The children in the first grade are enjoying their playhouse. They purchased a linoleum rug which is large enough for most all the children to play on at one time. They brought their trucks, cars, building blocks, airplanes, dolls, etc., to play with. There are several little red chairs for the dolls, also a table for the little dishes, doll clothes, etc.

The playhouse is very nice on rainy days when the children have to play inside. They are learning to take turns while playing, also to put their toys away when the time comes for work.

We celebrated Hallowe'en with a very nice party given by the room mothers. The tables were decorated with orange and black crepe paper. Jack-o-lanterns were placed in the center of each table. The jack-o-lanterns were very attractive, due to the lighted candle in each. The window shades were drawn to give the room a spooky effect.

Attractive plates of fudge cake with white frosting, decorated with black and orange jelly beans, and orange punch were served to the children. Suckers and balloons were given as plate favors.

The children played games on the playground while the mothers were decorating for the party. Then they came in quietly and found their name on an attractive place card at their table, then the fun began, with noises from the balloons, laughter, etc.

After refreshments were served a short program was given by the children, consisting of songs and readings.

Guests for our party were Charlotte Hannah, Jack Colley and Kenneth Patterson.

Eighth Year News

The eighth year class has some pot plants. They have ivy and jute. The pot plants are very pretty and thank Oleta Norman very much for bringing them.

Since it has been too cold to play outside, the eighth year girls have been playing volleyball in the gym. They find it is fun as well as a good indoor game.

Many of the eighth year girls have joined the Girl Scouts.

The Hallowe'en Carnival thrilled the eighth year pupils very much. They enjoyed the ice cream and they thank the room mothers very much for bringing it.

Every class in the departmental grades is busy. The Language Arts classes are making new accomplishments. The Sixth Year plans to have their Reading grade improved by the end of the six weeks; therefore the Library is being used constantly. In class they do silent reading and oral reading, at home they read at least one story aloud every night.

If great actors and playwrights are seen running about they will be from the Seventh Year. This is the semester for writing plays. Of course the 7B class would write a play on football, since their play involves "Sportsmanship." The 7A class will write a play using "Manners" as their theme.

"Now the house will please come to order..." Yes, the Eighth Year class has written a constitution for their own class as well as the Girl Scout organization. Their parliamentary law will come from the book, "Mr. Chairman." They believe any club or any organization should be carried on according to parliamentary form. The class thinks the writing of a constitution has been one of the most helpful lessons they have ever done. "If in doubt," they say, "ask 'Mr. Chairman,'" by Oveta Culp Hobby."

Speech Students Learn Fundamentals of Speech

"I could hear them nail the coffin lid."

"They tell us sir, that we are weak, unable to cope with so formidable an enemy, but when shall we be stronger? Will it be when we are totally disarmed and a German guard is stationed at every house?"

The above may be heard any day now when the speech students under the direction of Mr. Colley practice on the fundamentals of speech in preparation to read every-day practice. The short quotations give the proper speed, emphasis, inflection and other fundamentals necessary for speeches.

The class has just finished a unit on personality, etiquette, which included business and social conversation, learning the proper table etiquette and manners. A large portion of it was based on self-testing, Dale Carnegie's "How to Win Friends and Influence People," and "Sizzlegrams," which gave the tested answers for a number of questions everyday in nature.

Freshman News

Tuesday, English I class will have an all-important English test. Monday the general math classes took up meter reading. We had a test over it and quite a few of us failed.

The Junior Business Thrift club had a meeting Monday. We decided to have a theatre party on coupon night.

There was some discussion as to whether we would have a tacky party or theatre party, and theatre won by a majority of votes.

We are happy to have an old classmate, Grace Scroggins, with us again.

Students Participate in Health Program

The last period of our school day in Munday High is given over to what is known as the "Activity" period or the development of youth along physical lines. Every student attending school takes part in some kind of activity giving more or less violent exercise for 45 minutes. The exercise for girls is rather time of course compared with that taken by some of the boys.

The girls may play volleyball, play an instrument in the band or they may sing in the choral club for the period. The boy may participate in football, band, or attend our health class on the school ground where we play baseball, "touch" football, or other games and exercises. Two days each week the pep squad girls go through their formations and yell preparing for the Friday night football games. If a program of this sort is carried on in every school we feel that in a few years Uncle Sam will not have to reject 50 per cent of the youth of our country when they are called for service.

Odds and Ends Around Munday High School

The high school received certificates from the University Interscholastic League office showing that this school won places in boys declamation in the regional meet held at Abilene last spring. Munday was represented by Jimmie Silman, Jr., and McCelvey Jones.

There is a familiar ring about the high school corridors that has been absent for the past several weeks. We are all glad to have the "Old" clock giving out its "Tick tock, tick tock," again.

The Hallowe'en carnival is over but we still find no place to rest or let up. It is Holland's sales, Senior plays, class parties, football or something else. Such is school life.

The Senior Class voted to publish an annual this year and have really started to work in earnest that they might have one we will all be proud of.

Little or no damage was done about the school and grounds during the Hallowe'en season. Most students feel that this is no time for destruction of property and are thinking more about our National situation at this time.

The Moguls are still tearing opposing football teams to pieces. Archer City will be the foe Friday night.

Cottonpicking along with illness, has caused an absence of about 20 per cent of the students of Munday high school the past two weeks.

Did you see Miss Stewart get that cigar at the cat stand in the carnival? And could she handle it? (In her shirt pocket.)

The Munday band and pep squad joined with the Seymour band and pep squad on Friday night at the football game for their action between halves of the game. If you missed this you missed a big show and plenty of color.

Better luck next time Midgets of grammar school. We will beat Holiday the next time we play.

7A News

At the Hallowe'en carnival 7A pupils ran the bingo room, test your wind, and sold chances on the cutest little dog, that Mrs. Boggs won. We took in about four dollars and thirty cents.

Joe Frank Boley, a well known student of 7A, had his tonsils removed the past week end.

Seymour Visits Munday

The Munday pep squad and band entertained the opposing Seymour pep squad and band last Friday night, October 31.

Both bands and pep squads practiced a formation together, starting at about five o'clock in the afternoon and lasting until about seven, when everyone was treated with a Weiner roast.

A huge fire was built, apparently by Mr. Hood, our bandmaster, and everyone became acquainted with the visitors, and a "swell" time was reported. The Weiner roast ended with everyone munching on the delicious red apples supplied.

The formation, which consisted of over one hundred band members and about sixty pep squad members, turned out a great deal better than expected. The bands and pep squads formed a patriotic "USA" and as the pep squads were marching off the field, single file, the bands marched into a winding circle and then off the field.

We all appreciate the cooperation of the visiting band and pep squad in helping us do our formation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mitchell were business visitors in Fort Worth the first of this week.

Mrs. W. M. Huskinson and Mrs. Robert Green were visitors in Wichita Falls last Tuesday.

"THE STORE WITH THE GOODS"

The fourth regular meeting of the Munday chapter of Future Farmers of America was held Nov. 3, 1941, at 7:30 p.m. President Charles Baker presided.

The chapter voted that we buy a pig, and one of the agriculture boys feed it until ready for market.

The chapter also voted that we buy the book "Shadow Over Windy Ranch," for our library.

Mr. Ayers, Charles Baker, Ben Bowden and Wayne Blacklock attended the Vernon district meeting, and the district program of work as suggested by the Munday chapter was adopted. Ben Bowden reported on this trip to the local chapter.

After the closing exercises a very interesting and educational talk on thrift was given by Mr.

Braly. Refreshments of hot chocolate, and cookies were served by the refreshment committee, Bobby Haymes, Herbert Stodghill, and O. H. Spann, Jr. Afterwards, for recreation, the chapter played table tennis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harpham and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Roberts attended the show, "Hellzapoppin" in Wichita Falls last Saturday night.

Hallowe'en Carnival

Our Hallowe'en Carnival was a great success. The total amount of money raised was $416.41.

The Freshman class won the Queen's race by raising $109, close behind were the Seniors with $106, and the Junior and Sophomore classes raised $30 each.

The school wishes to express its most sincere appreciation to everyone who in any way contributed to the success of the Carnival.

The money was divided in this manner: The school took $158.51 to finance the athletic program and physical education. The P.T.A. took $120.80 which will be used in connection with the lunchroom financing. The high school classes received $134.10, which will be used to finance the Senior trip, Junior day, Sophomore day, Freshman day, and other class activities.

Senior Report

The Seniors worked hard to win the Queen's race, and raised $106.27. This gives us $53.14 to put in our class treasury. We wish to thank everyone who had a part in helping us.

We are sponsoring a basketball tournament in the gymnasium November 14. Four teams are to participate. The women of the P.T.A., faculty, and two teams in high school are to play. Every one plan to come and bring your friends.

We had a grab box, duck stand, and a guessing contest; on these three set-ups we made quite a bit of money, which went to the school. We all enjoyed ourselves and we hope everyone who attended the carnival had a good time also.

Sophomore Personality: Charles Hertel was born June 29, 1926, at Benjamin. He has been with the class since his first year in school. He has brown hair and hazel eyes. He is five feet and seven inches tall. Some of his favorites are:

News From Room 7B

7B students have been missing Mr. Wood but have enjoyed having Mrs. Bowden as their home room teacher.

Many of them have been greatly worried about the future since the Hallowe'en Carnival, but they appreciate the good things that we found out when they had their fortunes told. 7B students wish to thank Mrs. Pickett of Abilene for telling fortunes for their booth at the carnival.

Mrs. H. A. Pendleton, Mrs. Paul Pendleton, Miss Mary Couch of Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Sharpe of Abilene and Hal Pendleton attended the showing of "Hellzapoppin" in Wichita Falls last Saturday night. They were met there by H. A. Pendleton on his return from a business trip to Dallas.

QUALITY LOWER, RAINS DAMAGING COTTON IN FIELDS AND GIN YARDS

The grade of cotton ginned to October 17 in Texas and Oklahoma was lower than for any recent year, and for the period October 1 to 17 about one bale in every 17 ginned in Texas was reduced one or more grades because of rough preparation, according to J. R. Kennedy of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Marketing Service in Dallas, Texas.

With continued light to heavy rains, picking and ginning are making slow progress. The proportion of the estimated production for Texas that was harvested through October 17 was the lowest in more than 15 years.

and growers are naturally anxious to harvest their crops, but if picked and ginned in a wet or damp condition further losses will result. Some cotton now being classed under the Smith-Doxey Act for organized cotton improvement groups must be reduced from strict low or low middling to below grade because of rough preparation. Losses may run as high as $25.00 per bale. Cotton is also being damaged in the bale when allowed to remain unprotected on gin yards and elsewhere during heavy rains.

Growers are urged to let the cotton dry in the field, if possible before pulling or picking, particularly if the gins are not equipped with driers, and when ginned out, put their cotton either in a waterproof building on their farms or in a warehouse where it will be adequately protected.

PHILLIPS 66 MOTOR OIL

Coach Jack Perryman's Munday Moguls proved superior in power and football ability last Friday night as they downed their tough rivals, the Seymour Panthers, 26-6, to mark up their third victory in the district 9-A conference and their sixth for the season.

The Panthers were able to do one thing no other team had done this season—cross the Mogul goal line for a counter on their home field. The Moguls began chalking up the heavy score in the first stanza of the game when Joe McGraw took the ball on a triple reverse and a lateral, edged through a group of Panthers that had him completely "bottled up" and sprinted 68 yards for the first tally. Moore kicked the hide squarely between the uprights for the extra point, and the scoring was over for this quarter.

Save for a momentary spurt in the second quarter, the ill-tempered Panthers were definitely outclassed. They recovered a Mogul fumble on Munday's 35-yard line, they quickly rushed for a first down. Thornhill then flipped a pass to Conner for 14 yards. Two plays later, Henson smashed over for 9 yards and a touchdown. Thornhill missed the try for extra point.

Following Seymour's score, Munday received the kickoff, and started the march again. A 42-yard gain placed the ball on Seymour's 25-yard line and on the 4th play thereafter Cude went through the middle from 10 yards out to score. Moore failed to convert.

Munday "rang the bell" twice in the third period. After recovering a Panther fumble on the Seymour 19-yard line, McGraw went over after three plays for the remaining 13 yards. Moore again failed to convert.

The enraged Panthers played most of the fourth quarter in Mogul territory, but a staunch Mogul line refused them the coveted touchdown.

The Mogul linemen maintained par on their performance in Friday night's game. Cadwell played his best game of the season at his right guard position. E. Lowrance, the little 145-pound left tackle, was in there to smother many Panther plays. Stevens turned in a good performance at center, and he intercepted a Panther pass that stopped their downfield march on one occasion.

Kitchens was up to his usual form at right tackle, as was Tidwell at left guard. Both ends, Denham and Cure, performed like veterans. Cure accounted for a touchdown by recovering Seymour's blocked punt, and Denham played jam-up ball until he caught a Panther knee in his stomach and was forced from the game. He was replaced by Montgomery, who made a good showing.

Although he wasn't on the score and Carden shared honors with others in the backfield by making nice punt returns and gaining good yardage when he "bugged the mail," and Coach Jack Perryman is well pleased with the performance of every man on the team. They played a nice, clean game and won the admiration of their coach and all football fans in so doing.

First and Second Grade News
The first and second grade pupils are glad to be back in school after a few weeks vacation.

We are working on a Thanksgiving unit. We plan to construct one large wigwam and a miniature Indian village.

We have made November calendars and we are decorating our room with turkeys, pumpkins, Indians, and Pilgrims, representing Thanksgiving.

Donell Phillips had her tonsils out during the vacation.

Third Grade News
We are glad to be back in school. We are happy to have three new children in our room. They are Gloria Michels, Patsy Wallace and Charles Ransom. We hope they enjoy being with us.

For our school carnival we are going to have a fish pond. We want everybody to bring his "white elephants" to school for prizes.

Fourth Grade News
Most of the youngsters are back in school after a period of five weeks in which they were pulling bolls. All seem to be very excited, and ready to get back into their school work.

The Harbers are adding to their home—Royce is happy because he is going to have a new bedroom to sleep in.

Marjorie Lou Campsey spent part of the holidays visiting relatives in Amarillo and Graham. She also reports a new addition to their home.

Other students of the fourth grade spent the weeks out of school pulling bolls (that is, what time it didn't rain.)

Vote for Jenell Smith for Queen of Sunset!

Fifth Grade News
We fifth graders are glad to be back in school, although we did not pull much cotton while we were out. Those rains came just at the right time to keep us out of the cotton fields, but we didn't mind.

We are all ready to settle down and study for a while, and of course make good grades.

To make geography more interesting, we have some build-up posters to start work on. They are made up of many bright colors which will be interesting to work with.

Vote of Jenell Smith as Queen of Sunset!

Sixth Grade News
While we were out for cotton picking one of our fantailed fishes flopped out of the bowl and died and one of our flowers wilted.

We had to do a good bit of dusting and arranging before our room even looked presentable today.

Everyone in here is looking forward to the school carnival. Our booth is going to be planned, built and managed by we sixth graders.

Most of us have grown slightly since we last saw each other, but the most grown-up little lady in

Seventh Grade News
There are not very many pupils here this week because most of them are staying out to pick cotton. Most of the pupils are glad school has started. The seventh grade has a new pupil. Her name is Francis Russell.

Vote for Jenell Smith as Queen of Sunset!

Eighth Grade News
We are all glad to be back in school again with our studying. We like it more than the first of school.

We are still hoping our Queen will be Queen of High School.

Vote for Jenelle Smith as Queen of Sunset!

Ninth Grade News
Back again from the holidays. Our school carnival will probably be the night of November 14, 1941. Most of us thought we had forgotten a few subjects, but we find they are going to be a little bit easier.

Vote for Jenelle Smith as Queen of Sunset!

Tenth Grade News
The Tenth Graders came back to school Monday morning from those (grand) holidays ready to get down to work.

In Literature the Sophs are taking up the study of the novel, and they will soon start on the novel, "Silas Marner," written by George Eliot. We are proud to report a new member of our class, J. M. Warnell, from Oakwood, Texas. We hope he likes it here.

Vote for Jenell Smith as Queen of Sunset!

Eleventh Grade News
Well, here the Juniors are, ready to begin a new term of school.

They are looking forward to November 14, to see their Queen crowned (they hope). You see, Sunset is going to have their carnival then, and are they looking forward to it?

Folks, don't forget that the girls of the Junior class are sponsoring the selling of hamburgers and drinks, so come in to see them November 14.

Vote for Jenelle Smith as Queen of Sunset!

Senior News
After working five weeks the Seniors have returned to school.

They all look natural except Jane, who acts a little touched since she received her ring.

Speaking of rings, the Seniors have been wearing their for almost a month now and they're still convinced they're the most beautiful rings (well, class rings, anyway, they've ever seen.)

The English IV class is studying Macbeth and they're beginning to understand why he committed the murders he did. The typing class is having to learn to type all over again and they have just about decided they didn't know so much about it after all. (At least The Times proofreader will agree with me on this.)

November 14, Sunset high school is going to have a carnival and the Seniors extend to everyone a cordial invitation to attend.

Miss Dorothy Campbell, who is employed in Abilene, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell, and other relatives here over the week end.

First:
My first "speech" was on a Sunday School program at Yuletide, probably at the age of 6, and it was no such "kid stuff" as "Mary had a little lamb," either. No, sir, it was:
"If I had a dollar,
A great, big, round dollar,
That someone had given to me,
I'd jump up and down
And I'd certainly holler,
For I'd buy that whole Christmas tree."
My first dollar, by the way, was made soon after that great declamation by gathering a bucket of peaches from the trees in our back yard and trudging around, selling them. A dollar (I thought) would be all the money there was in the world. Imagine my surprise when I counted up and found I had actually sold $1.05 worth of peaches. That was when one young salesman "called it a day."
The first time I ever saw my name in the paper was when I was recovering from a serious illness, not long after the peach-selling episode. In that particular issue of the paper, the editor told about Farmer Brown bringing in an extra large sweet potato and that it occupied six lines while the fact that I had been sick was given only three lines. It was a long time before I forgave the local Horace Greely.

My Grandpa used to say, "After you've done your best, the result—whether success or failure—is in a Higher Hand." But have you done your best?
To which his grandson adds, "What is failure, anyway? Buckle wrote the history of civilization but he didn't tell us what civilization is. 'What is the truth?' asked jesting Pilate, and would not stay for an answer. What has seemed a failure at the moment has off-times proved to be the turning point that led a man to greater achievement. And what the world has called failure sometimes has proved, in the light of history, to have been grand success.

One of the chief objections advanced to another special session of the legislature is that, once the lawmakers meet, the bars are down and any subject is liable to be legislated on, with consequent increase in taxes and regulations. Even at the recent special session called for just one purpose, the House passed some 30 bills on other subjects despite the fact that press and public were unanimous in insisting that nothing but the county road bond assumption problem be dealt with.

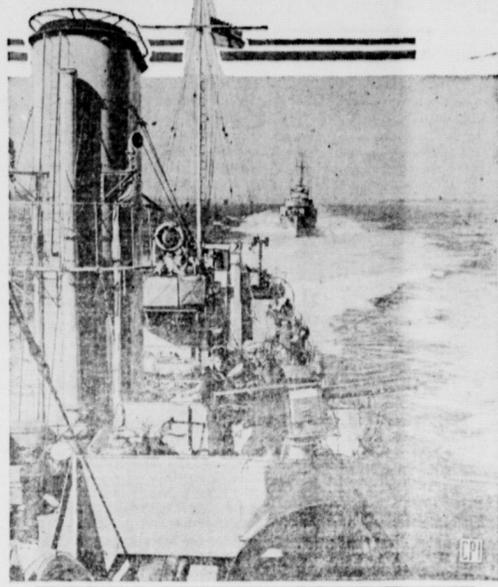

An old Quaker said to a friend, "Everybody is a liar except thee and me—and sometimes I have my doubts about thee."

A sailor, after placing some flowers on a grave in a cemetery, noticed an old Chinaman placing a bowl of rice on a nearby grave, and asked: "What time do you expect your friend to come up and eat that rice?"
The old Chinaman replied with a smile: "Same time your friend comes up to smell flowers."

With Texas the location of so many national defense industries—the bomber plant in Fort Worth and the airplane factory in Grand Prairie to name only two—thought is being given by defense industry officials as to ways and means of preventing their workers falling into the clutches of loan sharks. For loan sharks are the enemies of national defense. Such is not their intention, for even a man who loans money at 400 per cent interest can have a spark of patriotism in his breast.

But J. L. Pritchett, manager of the Fort Worth Better Business Bureau, points out that one of the worst effects of falling into the toils of a loan shark is that a borrower who is unable to meet the payments begins to worry and his efficiency on the job is resolutely reduced. National defense industry heads want to prevent such a condition among their workers and so credit unions, (whereby

SINCE the outbreak of war, the Royal Canadian Navy which is owned and maintained by the Dominion wherever it is serving, has established an enviable record. It has convoyed ships carrying more than 27,000,000 deadweight tons; it has fought in the North Sea and it has captured several enemy vessels. At the declaration of war the strength of the Canadian Navy was about 3,600 men and 13 ships. Today, it musters more than 29,000 men and 209 vessels, including 13 destroyers, several of which were secured from the United States in the destroyer deal. Following the district meeting, the county USDA defense board, working with AAA committeemen, will undertake a farm-to-farm canvass in the food production pledge sign-up. Farmers in the county will be asked to produce their share of the foods which are needed for defense and for aid to the nations resisting aggression.

"We are undertaking the greatest food production job in the history of the world," Mr. Schumacher declared. "We have the goals to meet and we will meet them. I believe the farmers of this county will go all-out in their effort to do their share in the Food-For-Freedom campaign."

Mr. Schumacher explained that the USDA defense board would announce definite plans for carrying on the campaign in the county after the district meeting, but it is anticipated that county and community meetings to explain what is needed will be held in conjunction with the farm plan and pledge sheet sign-up which will be handled by AAA committeemen.

What You Should Know About Vitamins Vitamin C

Vitamin C (or ascorbic acid) is obtained from many fruit juices, such as oranges and lemons. It is a white, odorless crystal powder, melts at 190 to 192 degrees, slightly soluble in water, alcohol and glycerine, insoluble in benzene, ether, chloroform and fat.

It is reasonably stable in dry air but deteriorates in moist air. Oxidation is hastened by alkalis and retarded by acids. The average dose of adults is 50 to 75 mg., and infants 20 to 30 mg. Larger dosage may be given by the doctor, given 3 to 10 times daily.

Scurvy, pale skin, reddish or liver spots, hemorrhages, lesions of the gums, soreness at the joints, bleeding from mouth or nose, weakness, anemia and pyorrhea are symptoms that you need vitamin C.

Some folks got excited about the new installment plan buying regulations and made a big to-do over "last chances," etc. Now that the smoke has cleared away, the fact remains that Convenient Terms are still open to buyers who meet their obligations. One-fifth down is not an unreasonable amount to pay when you recall that . . .

TEN YEARS AGO . . . An average refrigerator cost $350. You had to pay $75 to $100 down and monthly payments of maybe $20 to $30. Today a better refrigerator of comparable size costs around $165, sells for $33 down with payments of less than $8 a month on the balance. The 1941-42 electric refrigerators cost less than half as much as 10 years ago . . . and about ONE-FIFTH as much to operate!

TEXAS OUT-OF-DOORS

Austin, Texas.—The duck and goose season is on and that's swell for the sportsman, but what of the married housewife who's expected to pick the ducks and roast them in a manner pleasing in all respects to the Master of the Hunt?

The Game Department will try to be of assistance.

First, this matter of picking ducks. Don't try to pick all those dry feathers off. Pick the larger, coarser ones, and pour melted paraffin over the entire bird. Dip it in cold water. All you have to do then is to pick off the paraffin, feathers and down in big chunks, and the job's over. When the feathers are off, dry the bird and singe it, and it's ready for roasting.

One Way to Roast Duck

In case the wife of the mighty Nimrod is uncertain as to how to roast a duck, here's a suggestion: Salt and pepper the bird inside and out, place breast down in roaster or rack, roast at 360 degrees (moderate oven) 35 minutes per pound, and baste several times while roasting.

Everybody wants a good dressing to go with roast duck, and a good dressing nine times out of ten means a wild rice dressing.

Here's how you make it: Wash rice in several changes of warm water (wild rice swells more than twice during cooking). For each cup of rice add two tablespoons of butter, one-half teaspoon of salt, and cook in top of covered double boiler until done. For dressing, use two cups of cooked wild rice, add one tablespoon of minced onions, one-half cup chopped celery, one tablespoon of sage, one teaspoon of minced parsley and add cream to bind the ingredients together.

Ducks for Breakfast

Here's a duck-for-breakfast recipe from the American Cookbook that might be of interest:

"Cut the meat (from the remains of wild roast ducks from the bones, pick out all the little recesses, lay them in a frying pan and cover with water and the cold gravy left from the roast. Add a piece of butter, let all boil up once and if not quite thick enough stir in a little dissolved flour. Serve hot."

Just A Reminder

The current duck and goose season will last through December 31st. Shooting hours for ducks, geese and coot is sunrise to 4 p.m. The bag limit is 10 per day on ducks, or 20 in possession. Daily bag limit may contain 3 buffleheads or 3 redheads, or 3 of these two species together, and not more than 6 of these ducks may be possessed. Daily bag may also contain not more than 1 wood duck, and not more than one of this species may be possessed. Bag limit for geese and brandt is three per day or 6 in possession. In addition, hunters may take 3 blue geese per day and they may have 6 blue geese in possession. The original 3 or 6 geese may include or consist entirely of blue geese and it is thus possible for a hunter to take 6 blue geese per day or have 12 in possession if he takes or possesses no other kinds of geese.

Duck stamps are required of all migratory waterfowl hunters over 16 years of age. Buy them at the postoffice. Price, $1.00.

Wheat Allotments Must be Adhered To Or Lose Payments

Wheat farmers overplanting their 1942 wheat acreage allotments by any amount will be ineligible for full parity and conservation payments and wheat loans, according to August Schumacher, chairman of the Knox county AAA committee.

Under the 1941 program, farmers who exceed their allotment by not more than the larger of three per cent of three acres could dispose of the excess acreage within a prescribed length of time and qualify for maximum payments, Mr. Schumacher said in explaining that this tolerance would not be permitted under the 1942 program.

The deduction rate for excess wheat under the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program has been raised from six times the payment rate specified under the 1941 program to ten times the payment rate. The new deduction rate applies to parity as well as agricultural conservation payments.

If allotments are exceeded by as much as ten per cent, the penalty rate will wipe out the entire wheat parity and conservation payments. If the acreage allotment is exceeded by more than ten per cent, deductions will be applicable to other payments earned unless the non-allotment wheat farm option was followed, the AAA officials said.

Marketing quota restrictions will apply to producers on farms subject to quotas on which wheat acreage allotments have been exceeded in the event a marketing quota on wheat is approved in a referendum next spring. In explaining wheat regulations further, the chairman said that if wheat acreage allotments are overplanted and marketing quotas are in effect, producers will be eligible for loans on only the marketing excess for the farm provided wheat loans are available.

Leroy Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Henderson, left last week for Amarillo, where he has accepted a position with the Santa Fe Railway Company.

Sidney Johnston of Goree was a business visitor in the city Tuesday. Mr. Johnston stated that he still had plenty of good seed wheat for sale.

ONLY TURKEYS WHICH ARE "RIPE" SHOULD BE SOLD

College Station.—The year's biggest demand for turkeys is in the offing. It is timely, therefore, for producers to go over all marketable birds carefully, much as livestockmen cut out their cattle, says George P. McCarthy, poultry husbandman of the A. and M. College Extension Service. Only those turkeys often referred to as "ripe" are in best condition to go to market.

Growers can determine whether birds have developed well in flesh by feeling the keel and along the shoulders and thighs. If they are well fleshed then examine further to see whether they have put on fat. This is best indicated by layers of fat found along their thin feather tract of the breast and on the thighs. Examination should continue to see whether they have developed pin feathers.

Pin feathers, McCarthy explains, cut a turkey in grade probably more than any other thing. If a turkey has not developed pin feathers to the point where they protrude through the skin and have taken on a fanlike shape, then it can be easily classified as green. Should a turkey of this kind be dressed out a heavy scattering of pin feathers would be found over the breast and on the thigh. The degree of pin feather development easily can be determined by folding back some of the feather tracts along the breast to see whether feathers have developed well in the area, then looking on the inside of the wing to see whether the pin feathers have protruded through the web part of the wing. If the thigh is rather smooth to the touch, then pin feathers have developed and taken on a fanlike shape and the turkey will dress out as a good market bird, McCarthy says.

"I find that lots of our toms are marketed too early. If they had been kept off the market another three or four weeks they would have topped the market in quality. So, in selecting turkeys for marketing at Thanksgiving, be sure to look over the toms carefully and do not sell any which are not in top condition.
