

Defense Program Is Given At School On Last Friday

With choral singing, talks concerning Armistice, stamp talks by students and a demonstration of drill by the Texas Defense Guard the assembly in the ward school auditorium arranged by Mrs. Buel Bowden took on a patriotic atmosphere.

The Texas Defense Guard unit under the command of Lieut. Wilson Harber, composed of Sgt. C. C. Jones, Sgt. Cerveny, Corp. W. A. Spelece and Harvey Lee gave a short snappy drill showing the manual of arms, fixed bayonets and web equipment. Lieut. Harber made a short talk concerning the work and purpose of the defense guard, composed of businessmen, farmers and teachers in this section.

Lyndall Smith, Glynn Morrow and Carolyn Hannah gave short talks showing the benefit of buying defense stamps. They displayed stamps they had bought. Glynn Morrow in explaining the reason why he could buy stamps said his father had promised to buy him a stamp every day that he did not drink a soda pop. He explained that already he had saved about $20 in stamps.

The choral group in ward school led by Miss Mayme Holcomb aided in singing "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and "Beautiful Katie."

Bobby Floyd, Florene Pippin, Flora Alice Haymes, Betty Joe Morris, Mildred Smith and Mary Lois Beaty, a sextette under the direction of Miss Jessie DeLoach, sang "America We All Love You."

J. C. Harpham, past commander of the American Legion in Munday then gave a short talk on Armistice.

NO RESERVE SEATS FOR CHILLICOTHE GAME

Due to inadequate seats and arrangements for reserve seats Supt. Colley stated Wednesday that no reserve tickets will be sold for the Munday-Chillicothe football game to be played here Friday, November 21 for the championship of District 9-A.

Due to inadequate reservation sections Mr. Colley stated, much dissatisfaction was voiced among patrons who had reserve seats for the Seymour game.

"We had planned to number the seats in the middle of each grandstand but due to rainy weather all week we were unable to do so. By Friday, when it cleared off, had we numbered the seats, the paint would not have dried. Before the game, six boys were stationed at each reserved section in each grandstand, given programs and told how to seat people who had reserved seats. Evidently, some people were not told how to get to the seats, others just took seats they wished regardless of the boys. This proved unsatisfactory, and I am willing to refund the 27c to each person who held a ticket in order to rectify the situation. I felt as if a statement should be made concerning the situation and regret that some were unable to find and use the reserved seats they bought," stated Mr. Colley.

People who drive cars are requested to use both the southwest and southeast gates for this purpose as they will be open for the game. All who wish to enter afoot are requested to buy tickets at the window in the bus garage. Buying tickets at downtown drug stores may save patrons time in entering the game.

People who drive cars are requested to park away from the guard fences and grandstands to allow the large crowd free passage.

SENIOR REPORT

The senior class president, Ben Bowden, called a meeting of the class last week and they voted to produce a high school annual. This is the first time the school has had an annual.

The following are members of the staff: Editor, Dixie Atkinson; business manager, Willard Reeves; assistant business manager, Charles Baker; sports editors, Dick Harrell and Joe Morrow; calendar, Doyle Jones and Jean Martin; artist, Maurine Johnson; senior life, Ben Bowden, Juracy Jones; junior life, Jimmy Silman; sophomore life, Billie Lou Spelece; freshman life, Latreae Johnson.

The class also turned in the money they made on the Hollands Magazine campaign. Fifty dollars was made; the class keeps half of it to go in their class fund for a trip next spring. "We want to thank each and every person that took part in helping us raise this money," said president Bowden.

The class elected a new reporter, Juracy Jones, to take the place of Dixie Atkinson, who resigned.

The seniors plan to have another rummage sale this Saturday. They wish to thank everyone who gave rummage for the other sale.

Seniors in Review

Since it is an old custom and some of the members of the class asked me to interview the Seniors, I will. My first interview will be Mary Lois Beaty.

Mary Lois Beaty was born on July 16, 1925 in the grand old City of Munday. Mary Lois started to school here in the first grade and has been loyal to her class by remaining with them eleven years.

She takes active part in all school work. She has been a member of the High School Chorus, Sextette and Trio throughout her high school years.

She plans to become a stenographer when she finishes high school.

FRESHMAN NEWS

We just did beat Archer City last Friday night. It shouldn't have been that close. After what we did to Crowell and Seymour it seems as if we could have done better. But even one 'itty bitty point counts! Remember this: V... Moguls! We're expecting two more victories from our boys, and at the rate we've been going we'll make them!

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomore class is sorry that Tony Denham has a sprained ankle. The accident occurred when Tony was going on a kickoff and turned too fast. All the class will be glad when his ankle gets well.

In History we are studying Part IV of the book. Each chapter seems to be more interesting than the last one. On Fridays we discuss important things and world events and once a week we work on our notebooks.

The class is glad to have Jean Reeves back with them this week. Jean has been ill for a week and everyone missed her.

Won't Someone Tell Us

JUNIOR NEWS

The Juniors have been busy trying to keep their minds on their books instead of the football game. We have most of the football players in our class so we know we have a pretty good team. We still think, or should we say know, we are going to beat Iowa Park Friday night. Things have been happening in our History class. If you want to find out what just ask the Juniors. They know!!

The Junior girls that are taking Homemaking III are about ready to give the bones of the body a few vitamins and they think it will work. Eh, Miss O'Donnell? We think we're very good in typing, because we have been making from 18 to 20 words a minute.

ODDS AND ENDS AT MHS

And did those Wildcats of Archer City give us a scare on last Friday evening. We finally got off with the long end of the score, though.

The teachers of Munday public school attended a meeting in Knox City Monday evening of this week for all the teachers of the county. Mr. Colley was elected president of the County Association for the next year.

Munday High School students enjoyed a half holiday on Tuesday, November 11. The band and pep squad attended the celebration at Rule in the afternoon.

Munday High is the proud possessor of a number of new Texas Almanacs presented to the school by Eiland Drug Company. Thanks to the management of that institution for these books that are so valuable to us.

About 50 high school students enjoy a warm lunch each day at the school lunch room. Very few students are bringing lunches from home now.

The grammar school maintains a regular patrol force on the highway between the two school buildings. We high school students are learning safety rules and wish to thank those grammar school students for their efforts.

7A NEWS

The Munday Midgets played a double header last Thursday at Olney. The teams were split into two groups. The first game was between boys who weighed less than 100 pounds. The game ended 12 to 6 in favor of Olney. The larger boys lost 6 to 0.

THIRD YEAR NEWS

Everyone is the third year has decided that autumn is the best time of year. The cool air, and warm sunshine make the children want to run and play. Too, Thanksgiving comes during this season, which is fun for everyone.

Before long our room will be decorated with pretty autumn leaves, and Thanksgiving scenes. It's a lot of fun to decorate our rooms to fit the season.

On Wednesday, November 19th, the third year boys and girls will give a play for the P.T.A. Their part on the program will be an Autumn Festival. They hope all of their parents and friends will be present.

5B ROOM

We are planning to complete our unit on Indians this week. Everyone has enjoyed working on it and quite a bit of helpful information has been gained.

Miss Beene and the pupils of Room 5B were pleased to have Sue Carolyn Edwards enroll in their room Monday. She is from Stamford and we are hoping that she will enjoy her work with us.

Since Thanksgiving is almost here everyone has been very busy making posters and window decorations to carry out the holiday motif.

5A ROOM

The 5A room has finally completed the Indian village which has been under construction. The pupils are very proud of this project and are quite anxious to start on another.

Today has been quite a day of thrills because the pupils are so happy over the half day holiday on Tuesday. Of course the teacher, Miss Holcomb, was just as elated as the students. There was quite a discussion Friday as to the reason for our celebrating Nov. 11th and this was followed by the Armistice program given in chapel.

FIRST GRADE NEWS

We are interested in increasing our library, so several of us have brought interesting story books about animals, pets, birds, etc. The following children have brought books to add to our collection.

Joe Lynn Phillips, Julie Massey, Gene Colley, Barbara Jean Foshee, Wayne Bradford, Michael Scott, Tommie Powell, Jr.

We are very interested in good stories, so would appreciate books from any of the children.

Wencell Lee Jones celebrated his seventh birthday last Tuesday, November 4th. He is a very big boy now and doing nicely in his work.

We are studying about how animals and birds prepare for the winter, also how boys and girls get ready for the cold winter weather.

We have also started a unit on "Proper Foods and Habits of Eating." We have been watching carefully our table manners in the lunch room and at home. We think it is fun to eat quietly and to use our best table manners when eating our lunch.

Bombers Must Breathe

Today American-made bombers can fly at the unbelievable height of six miles. Here is the story of the small but all-important device that helps make stratosphere flying possible.

1. It started on Pike's Peak in 1918, where Army Air Corps engineers showed that an airplane engine could be made to run efficiently 2 1/2 miles above sea level.

2. This amazing feat was possible because a "turbocharger" developed by the Army Air Corps and G.E. engineers—pumps extra oxygen into the carburetors.

3. For 22 years these engineers have worked constantly to improve this vital device. As a result, U.S. bombers can fly above the reach of anti-aircraft fire.

4. Dr. S. A. Moss, G.E. engineer who pioneered in this work, now at 69 has the thrill of watching the supercharger help carry our fliers higher than any others!

"Five mornings a week, nine months a year, we mothers of Texas get our children ready for school. In our home and a million other Texas homes, that's one of the first and most important duties of a mother's day. Sometimes Dad finds out what a job it is when he has to do it by himself."

All of us want our children to have the best education possible. Most of us look to the public schools for this.

Fortunately, Texas has the best public schools in the South. Helping to build and operate them is the Texas petroleum industry which pays 24 million dollars a year in taxes for school purposes.

These petroleum taxes pay an average of one-fourth the cost of educating our children. Altogether, they meet the entire expense of schooling nearly 400,000 Texas boys and girls.

In addition, oil has contributed substantially to the 70 million dollar permanent school fund. Oil is also responsible for much of the 30 million dollar permanent university fund, which has made possible the expansion of the University of Texas and A. & M. College.

Furthermore, taxes on petroleum products add another 11 1/2 million dollars a year for the schools of our State.

Our children get a better education today because of the Texas petroleum industry.

Moguls Eke Out One Point Win Over Archer City On Friday Night

Munday's so-called "powerful Moguls" showed very little of their power last Friday night as they managed to eke out their win by the closest margin of the 1941 football season, winning over the Archer City Wildcats by a score of 7 to 6. The Moguls decidedly were "off form," while the Wildcats were primed for the game which they entered as underdogs.

The Wildcats scored their six points early in the second quarter, and the Moguls trailed until near the end of the third period. Munday fans agreed the game was too close for anyone suffering from a weak heart.

After several punt exchanges in the first quarter, in which each team was feeling the power of the other, Archer City took the ball on Munday's 40 yard line. They gained yardage from running plays, and a 10-yard pass from Morrison to Campbell brought the ball to the 29 as the whistle ended the quarter.

Early in the second, Morrison again contacted Campbell with a 15-yard aerial, and Morrison carried over from there on the next play. On attempt at extra point, Archer City fumbled the ball and the conversion failed.

The Moguls' touchdown drive began in the last of the third stanza when they took over on the Archer City 46. Taking advantage of a 15-yard penalty against the Wildcats, they marched the ball downfield on running plays. Carden carried over for the Moguls to tie up the ball game, and Ray Moore's toe pulled the game out of the fire when he kicked the pigskin above the crossbar and between the uprights.

Munday chalked up 10 first downs, to 4 on the Wildcats' side of the ledger. Both teams were penalized three times, Munday for 45 yards and Archer City for 35. All of the Moguls' nine passes failed to connect, while Archer City made good on 3 for 29 yards out of 13 attempted. Munday gained 141 yards rushing to 61 gained by the Wildcats.

PARTIAL UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS

Now procedures have been initiated by the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission relating to the payment of benefits for partial unemployment. Mr. Roy Epperson, district supervisor of the Texas Commission, stated yesterday that these procedures are in compliance with minimum standards established by the Social Security Board, Washington, D.C. These procedures have been required by the Board because it is believed that a considerable number of workers have failed to claim partial unemployment benefits to which they might have been entitled.

The chief difficulty, according to Mr. Epperson, has been that many people have not had a clear idea of what partial unemployment is and when benefits are payable for this type of unemployment under the Texas Unemployment Compensation law. "The simplest way to describe it," he said, "is to point out that a worker is partially unemployed when he continues to work for his regular employer but suffers a loss of earnings because his working hours are reduced below normal full-time. A man does not have to lose his job to be eligible for partial benefits. In other words, the employer-employee relationship is maintained, but the employee does not work full time. However he must be available for full time work if his employer needs him."

Mr. Epperson made it clear that partial benefits are payable only when the worker's reduced earnings are due to lack of work on his regular job. They are not intended to compensate workers, who for personal reasons, choose to work less than full time.

Mr. Roy Epperson urged both employers and workers to familiarize themselves with their local State Employment Office in initiating the payment of claims for partial unemployment benefits to all who are entitled to them.

What You Should Know About Vitamins Vitamin D

The natural source of vitamin D is fish liver oil. It occurs at white odorless crystals, melts at about 116 degrees. It is insoluble in water but soluble in alcohol or vegetable oils. The unit is equivalent to .025 microgram calciferol.

Dosage for infants is about 400 units daily and for older persons is not known precisely. Enlargement of the elbows and wrists, bowed legs, bone weakness, poor teeth, are symptoms that you need Vitamin D.

(Nine ways to kill a good town:
1. Don't attend any civic meetings and if you go, arrive late.
2. Never accept an office. It is easier to criticize than do things.
3. Do nothing more than absolutely necessary, but when others use their ability to help matters along, howl that the town is being run by a clique.
4. If you have a suggestion to offer, do not think of going to the authorities in charge—just yell it to the world at large.
5. Get sore if you are not appointed on a committee, such as the park board, cemetery board, or public relations committee; but if you are appointed do not attend committee meetings.
6. Get good and mad at some members of the organization.
7. Be pessimistic about every proposal to expand trade and promote the interests of the town.
8. Watch the proceedings of the local school board and town council, and point out the errors of their ways to everyone who will stop long enough to listen.
9. Encourage your wife and relatives to do their shopping out of town.

“Refuse to make a speech if you cannot make a good one,” says The Menard News, claiming it is better to be suspected of dumbness than to prove it.

“He has good common sense—”
“He knows how to get along with the Legislature—”

These are typical comments of citizens in a poll conducted by the Texas Surveys of Public Opinion about Governor Coke Stevenson.

The poll shows that more than 75 per cent of the people approve of him as Governor.

After getting Uncle Reuben seated at a football game between two colleges, his nephew told him, “You'll now see more excitement than you ever saw for two dollars.” “I don't know,” replied Uncle Reuben, “that's just what the license cost when I married Aunt Jennie.”

Recently when your columnist asked the one and only J. Frank Dobie who his favorite Texas characters were, the famous Southwestern writer made this characteristically forthright answer:
“I can think of several Texas characters I have been mighty of. None of them have been Ph.D. professors. One was a town scavenger but no mayor has been among them. Two or three have been goat-herders and another was always about to find the Lost Bowie Mine.

“Jim Bowie, with his bowie knife, comes close to being my favorite character. Several favorites have been old trail drivers, like George W. Saunders, Walter Billingsley, Ah Blocker and Charles Goodnight. One of these range favorites was an old Mexican vaquero.

“Just to satisfy you, I'll name for the moment Bigfoot Wallace as my favorite. He was full of vitality and heartiness. He was as cheerful as a fat mule grazing with mares and colts. He was as honest as daylight and could stretch the blanket wide enough to make it cover half a county. His heart was as big as an ox and he was as simple as a child. He loved good company.”

Those of you who heard Dobie on “I Give You Texas and the Great Southwest” at 12:45 p.m. on a recent Sunday over the Lone Star Chain found that he could talk as interestingly as he writes. Maybe your columnist can get him to visit us again soon over the radio.

A stranger applied at the police station for lodging, and when asked his name, replied that it was Smith. “Give me your real name,” he was ordered.

PEANUTS FOR OIL
College Station.—Texas farmers planning to grow peanuts for oil in 1942 will not only be meeting Food-For-Freedom pledges but should be in position to increase their volume. B. F. Vance, chairman of the Texas USDA Defense Board, has announced.

Dut to the increasingly important role peanut oil is playing in national defense, fair prices are expected to continue next year, he said.

Peanut growers are being called upon by the Texas USDA Defense Board to increase the acreage of peanuts in the state from 320,000 to 623,000 acres, or approximately 100 per cent. Of the increased production, 378,000 acres will be planted to peanuts for oil.

The production of peanuts will not conflict with the 1942 AAA program, the chairman explained, since allotments are based on edible trade and increased production is being asked for in peanuts for oil.

Get Ready For Winter, Gas Men Warn Consumers

Local gas users are being urged by officials of Community Gas Company to check their appliances and house piping now, to be sure they are ready for the winter heating season.

“It's a mistake to wait until really cold weather sets in before making sure that appliances and piping are in good condition,” the gas men point out. “The beginning of the heating season often means several accidents involving gas equipment. Stoves are sometimes carelessly set up by inexperienced people. Worn out rubber tubing is used to connect appliances to gas connections. Wall cocks may have been battered and loosened during the summer and fall readjustment of furniture. Accidents from any of these sources can be eliminated by having a test made for leaks, and correcting any possible hazards around the home.”

Through the summer months the gas company's crews have been busy extending and repairing service and main lines, replacing worn equipment, and getting their whole system in readiness for the heavy winter demand of its users.

“In the face of rapidly rising operating costs of all kinds, while gas rates remain at the same low level, the gas company is striving to keep its property and equipment in first class condition to protect the service of its users. No gas service, however, is better than the equipment in which it is used,” local gas men warn. “That's why we urge our customers each year to get their equipment in shape for winter before they need to use it constantly.”
