County Agent Gives Formula For Hopper Poison

Some farmers in Knox county have reported to the county agent as having grasshopper trouble to the extent of some crop damage.

The county agent notified Cameron Siddall, state leader in grasshopper control at College Station. At the request of Mr. Siddall, Mr. S. H. Eckley, area supervisor, visited Knox county May 28 and made rather an extensive survey in areas of the county where damage to crops had been reported. Mr. Eckley's report was that no material damage was being done to crops.

Because of the war and shortage of chemical materials the government will not furnish bran and poison for grasshoppers; except in the case of the migratory hopper such as are found in the plains area near Lubbock.

Farmers who wish to control the hoppers will find the following poison bait mixture very effective:

- Wheat bran, 25 lbs.
- White arsenic or pairs green, 1 pound.
- Low grade molasses, 2 quarts.
- Water, 3 gallons.

Mix the bran and poison thoroughly while dry. Dilute the molasses with the amount of water as named. Mix the liquid thoroughly with the poisoned bran mixture. After an even mixture is obtained, add more water and mix until a mash is obtained that when squeezed in the hand readily falls apart. Bait material should be scattered in the fields in the late afternoon or evening as moist bait is favored by the hopper.

More Red Cross Work is Received

Another shipment of thread has been received by the local Red Cross chairman, for garments to be used by the Navy. These garments are made at the request of Army and Navy officials.

There are several garments still not placed. These are not hard to do and will not take much time to them, but with just a few women knitting, they may not be able to finish them by July 15, the time set for them to be sent in to the state department.

Call on your local chairman, Mrs. J. C. Harpham or Mrs. Oates Golden and get your share of this thread, and help get Munday's quota finished on time.

RED CROSS KNITTING NEEDLES ARE WANTED

Anyone having Red Cross knitting needles are requested to turn them in at once. Turn them in to either of the following committee members: Mrs. Oates Golden, Mrs. J. C. Harpham, or Mrs. Doris Rogers.

George Nix Announces For Commissioner

After considering the requests of the many friends who have been urging him to make the race for Commissioner, George Nix has authorized The Times to announce his candidacy as Commissioner Precinct Number Four. He needs no introduction to the voters of this area as he was reared in Knox county, and for the past several years he has served the people in the maintenance and repair of the roads and other property of the precinct.

In a statement to The Times, Mr. Nix said, "The citizens of Precinct Four may judge for themselves my ability to handle and dispatch the physical work of the office. I am quite confident that I am capable of looking after the finances of the precinct in the same efficient manner. I shall solicit each of your votes in person, and I shall certainly appreciate your influence in this campaign. Be sure and vote of George Nix in the July primary."

Eleven Boards Receive Flags

Presentations Express Local Appreciation For Services

Presentation of American flags for display in local selective service board offices, as expressions of patriotism and approval of the work of these boards, by organizations and individuals is becoming a general practice throughout the nation, according to reports reaching national headquarters at Washington.

A total of 11 boards which had thus been honored by residents of their areas was reported in the March and April issues of the Selective Service, a magazine sent to the boards. During May 11 more presentations were recorded, bringing the total to 22; and each day's mail adds to the list.

Boards receiving flags were located in the following states: Indiana, Missouri, North Dakota, Illinois, Massachusetts, Florida and Wisconsin.

Mattress And Comfort Program Closes August 15

Instructions have been received by County Extension Agents Neva Van Zandt and R. O. Dunkle that mattress and comfort program carried out jointly by AAA, the SMA and Extension Service, will close August 15.

Since the opening of this program in 1940, 927 mattresses and 1150 comforts have been made by low income farm families in Knox County, according to Mrs. Van Zandt. Although it is impossible to furnish all eligible applicants with mattress materials, there is a large supply of comfort material on hand and those wishing to make application for it should do so before August 1. Application cards may be obtained from the mattress center in Munday (old school building), or either extension agent's office.

Chas. Arnold Wins Chemistry Prize

Among the senior and undergraduate honors announced at commencement of Texas Technological College in Lubbock on Monday, June 1, was the following:

Charles William Arnold, son of Supt. and Mrs. H. D. Arnold of Goree, winner of the Mary Overton Craig prize in chemistry. This prize is given annually by Dr. and Mrs. William H. Craig to "the young man in the sophomore class who shows the greatest promise as a future chemist."

Mrs. G. H. Zachary, above, will be hostess to the cowboy sponsors from various West Texas towns and cities at the 13th annual Texas Cowboy Reunion to be held in Stamford July 2, 3 and 4. Mrs. Zachary is a daughter of Chas. Brewington of Dallas, who was a leading Stamford citizen in the early days of the town. She is an ardent golfer, rides horseback, and is active in social and Red Cross activities.

June 14 Is Set As National Flag Day

The Grand semi-automatic rifle, which is the standard issue today for the U. S. army, is superior to the old Springfield rifle in many respects. We literally need millions of these fast shooting powerful rifles to equip our army. They cost $85 each and are being manufactured at the rate of one a minute. They fire sixty 30-calibre shells a minute.

Every one of the 40,000,000 employed persons in America could easily buy one of these rifles for the army. Not that we need that many, but the reserve could go into shells and other much needed supplies. Buy more and more War Bonds and top the quota in your county by investing at least ten percent of your income every pay day.

Good Wheat Yield Harvested Recently Near Rhineland

A good yield of wheat was harvested last week by A. B. Wilde, who farms 128 acres on the Mrs. Anna Simonz place 1 1/2 miles west of Rhineland. The harvest was made last Thursday and Friday.

Eight acres of early variety blackhull wheat averaged 35 bushels to the acre, and Wilde got an average of 75 bushels per acre on a 7-acre patch of oats.

Wilde still has eight acres of Tenmarq wheat to be harvested, and it is expected to yield as much as the blackhull variety.

State Per Capita Money is Received

An additional payment for $1.50 per capita in state school money was received recently, Merick McGaughey, county superintendent, said Tuesday, and this has been distributed to the various schools. This makes a total of $20.50 in per capita money paid by the state, with only $2 per capita yet to come.

Covey Announces As Candidate For County Judge

E. L. Covey, well known Knox county resident, on Tuesday announced his candidacy for the office of county judge of Knox county, subject to the action of Knox county voters in the July 25 primary.

Mr. Covey needs no introduction to Knox county voters. When he first came to the county 25 years ago, he spent several years as a teacher in the county school. He served two terms as representative in the Texas Legislature from this district, and has been prominently connected with every move for the rebuilding of Knox county during his 25 years of residence here.

During his tenure of office as county judge of this county, Mr. Covey worked very harmoniously with the commissioners and helped put over the greatest building program in the history of the county. During that time, the bonded indebtedness as well as the taxes in each precinct of the county, was substantially reduced. Through the acquaintances made during the two terms in the Legislature, Mr. Covey was able to make contacts which worked out to the advantage of the county in a number of instances.

"My previous record as your county judge will indicate to you that I can and will serve the people of Knox county well in this position," Mr. Covey said. "If elected to this position by the voters, I will do all in my power to handle the work of the office for the best interest of all the people for my county, and with this aim and purpose steadfastly in view I earnestly solicit your vote and influence in the coming election."

Applications For Canning Sugar To Be Taken Here

In order to save local people the inconvenience of a trip to Benjamin, Riley B. Harrell, city secretary, announced Monday that applications for canning sugar will be taken at the city hall in Munday. The applications must then be sent to Benjamin, where sugar certificates will be issued by the county rationing board.

Applicants must furnish the following information when applying for sugar for canning purposes: Number of quarts of fresh fruit you expect to can; number of quarts canned last year, and the number of quarts now on hand.

Applicants must also bring the sugar rationing books for all members of the family.

The above information is necessary to determine the amount of sugar allowed for canning this year, it was stated.

Increase Shown In School Scholastics

County Supt. Merick McGaughey stated Tuesday that a small increase was reported on the common school's scholastics for the county this year. Last year's report showed 1530 children of school age, while this year's report was 1553.

Figures for the independent schools were not available at this time, and while some showed increases, others had declined, it was stated. The total for the county is expected to be about the same as last year, which was 2,687.

County Doubles Quota in Bonds

Knox county citizens more than doubled their quota of purchases of War Bonds and Stamps during May, according to word received from Frank Scofield of Austin, war bond administrator for Texas. The May quota for this county was $11,900.

During the month, Mr. Scofield stated that a total of $29,719.95 was reported from Knox county, the reports being sent in from the various issuing agencies of the county.

The county's quota for June is $20,000. This figure is increased to $25,000 for July and each month during the remainder of the year.

Larry Kimzey spent last week in Crowell visiting in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kimzey.

Local Firemen To State Meet

Four members of the Munday Fire Department were in attendance at the State Firemen's Convention in Corpus Christi the first of this week. The meeting was held from Tuesday through Thursday.

Attending were Arthur Lawson, Deaton Green, Buell Bowden and E. B. Littlefield. In order to share in the tire situation, each member furnished a tire for the trip and the journey was made in Bowden's car.

A highlight of the convention was a demonstration on combating incendiary bombs. This was given by a member of the London England, fire department, who participated in fighting this type of fire during the German raids on England. Many phases of entertainment were also offered including firemen, including fishing, boating, and a sight-seeing trip to the Corpus Christi naval aviation base.

Another Bench

Another bench—one that outclasses them all in sturdiness and beauty—has been placed on the city hall lawn for the convenience of those desiring to sit and rest in the shade. This one carries the advertisement of Terry Hotel and Coffee Shop, and was built by J. M. Terry.

EDWIN J. ALBUS GETS SERGEANT'S RATING

Edwin Albus, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Albus, has recently been promoted from corporal to sergeant. He is stationed at Lakeland, Florida.

Edwin enlisted on January 19, 1942, and is in the 415 bomber squadron. He writes it is hot in Florida, and that he is working hard to help win the war.

Must Be Attached To Vehicles July 1

The $5 federal automobile tax stamps went on sale at all post offices and internal revenue collector offices on Wednesday of this week.

The new stamp will cover the fiscal year beginning July 1 and will replace the existing stamp issued on February 1 and for which owners paid $2.00. It will be serially numbered and have spaces on the back for recording the make, model, serial number and state license number of the vehicle.

The stamp will be gummed on the face. The announcement made by revenue officials said "it is the desire of the Bureau of Internal Revenue that the use tax stamp shall be placed on windshield in a location that will not be in conflict with state requirements." The bureau noted that one exception was New Jersey where state laws require such stickers on the rear window.

The internal revenue department indicated that possession of the stamp would be necessary for getting new gasoline rationing cards in areas where motor fuel is rationed.

Information from the Office of Price Administration is "that in the issuance and use of gasoline rationing books, an important identification will be the serial number printed on the use tax stamp. In those areas where gasoline is rationed and in those areas where gasoline will be rationed, possession of the stamp evidencing payment of the use tax on motor vehicles will provide one of the necessary means of identifying the coupon book with the vehicle in the securing of gasoline."

Joe Reeder, Jr. Announces For County Attorney

Joe Reeder, Jr., whose home is in Knox City, this week authorized the Munday Times to announce his candidacy for the office of county attorney of Knox county. Mr. Reeder's announcement follows:

After due consideration I have decided to announce for the office of County Attorney of Knox County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

You will recall that I announced for this office two years ago and was ruled off the ballot because I had not then taken my state bar examination. I am happy to say during the ensuing months, I did pass my examination and am now licensed to practice law and I feel that I am qualified to fill the office which I seek.

I am 26 years of age and was born and reared in Knox County. I finished high school in Knox City with the class of 1933. After graduation I entered Texas Christian University where I received my B.A. degree. I later entered Southern Methodist University where I received my law degree.

After receiving my degree and obtaining my license I engaged in the private practice of law for several months until my induction into the U.S. army. I volunteered from this county and entered the army at Fort Sill as a private. I was later transferred to Camp Barkeley and then to Camp Swift at Bastrop where I am now stationed.

Since it will be impossible to see you personally and ask for your vote I sincerely hope that you will consider this as an earnest solicitation for your vote and influence and tell your friends for I must depend on my friends as I cannot be in the County and I assure you that if you elect me to this office I will conduct the affairs of the office in a way that will reflect credit on Knox County.

"What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him—
What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"—

RUBBER IS NATION'S BOTTLENECK

Lot no amount of wishful thinking deceive you. Next to shipping the rubber shortage is the most tragic bottleneck facing this nation today.

In one respect, the rubber situation is even grimmer than the maritime. We are on the way to solving our shortage of ships. If we have not quite turned the corner, we are about to, but the alarming deficiency in rubber remains a major problem.

Our vaunted industrial capacity depends, even more than the layman realizes, upon the use of the automobile, which in turn hinges upon rubber for tires.

Take away our tires, immobilize our automobiles, and we bring creeping paralysis upon the marvelous plant which we have builded and converted to supply the anti-Hitler world with armament and munitions.

Rubber is utterly essential to the task remaining before us of destroying the ability of totalitarianism to attack democracy.

Yet 97 per cent of the rubber we used came from Malaya and the Dutch East Indies, seized by Japan. We raise, at home, hardly enough of the gum to make a month's supply of hot water bottles.

The American people stubbornly resist these brutal facts, and grab at every item of false hope they can find.

Such items are unfortunately common. There literally scores of potential sources of rubber right at home. Day after day enthusiasts report that they can extract rubber from some hitherto unpublished source.

Sure they can. Anything that can be fermented to make alcohol is a potential source of rubber.

But that is incompetent, immaterial and irrelevant, to use our favorite legal objection. Petroleum, of which we have relatively unlimited quantities, will produce synthetic rubber better, quicker, more cheaply than the alcohol producing plants. There is no problem here.

The difficulty is one of plant. Presently we are making synthetic rubber at the rate of 40,000 tons a year. By a supreme effort, the capacity of existing plants can be tripled to produce 120,000 tons a year. The army will gobble that up and still be starved.

We have 445,000 tons in the stockpile. This can be raised to almost 600,000 tons by dilution with reclaimed, used rubber.—Wellington Leader.

THE GOVERNMENT AND INFLATION

Inflation is caused when public purchasing power goes up at a time when the supply of goods available for public consumption goes down. That rule is almost universally agreed to by economists. And, judged by it, the Federal government itself is one of the most inflationary influences in the nation. The billions the government spends for non-war purposes helps to create an artificially inflated purchasing power which competes for a restricted and dwindling supply of goods.

That is one of the most compelling reasons for maximum retrenchment in Federal non-war spending. Business and individuals must tighten their belts in order to pay for war and prevent inflation. The government, which is the greatest spender of all must do likewise. The House recently took a courageous step in the right direction when it drastically pruned six major appropriation bills. That policy must be continued and intensified if disastrous economic consequences are to be avoided.

TOO MUCH OPTIMISM

The President, Secretary Hull, Vice-President Wallace and other top-flight officials have warned the people not to become too optimistic—and to disregard the current crop of rumors to the effect that the Axis is on the verge of collapse. There is sound reason behind that warning. Nothing suits the Hitler-Hirohito combine better than unjustified optimism on the part of their enemies. Nothing is so fatal to a nation in modern war as complacency.

The newsmen who were recently released from Hitler's Europe brought some very interesting information with them. Axis morale, they say, dropped when Germany and Italy declared war on us. But Hitler had most of his people sold on the idea that they must win or perish. They are doggedly determined to fight on the very end. There are relatively few rebels—and the Gestapo is active and efficient.

It is possible, of course, that the war could end with startling suddenness. That happened in 1918. But it would be the height of folly to anticipate that. We can hope for a short war. But we must build and plan for a very long one.

YOUR CONTRIBUTION

Sugar and gasoline rationing are only the beginning—the American people are going to have to pull in their belts and more. It has been estimated that half of the nation's $40 billion armament output scheduled for 1942 must be supplied by men and machines that produced civilian goods last year.

The construction of new plant facilities has just about reached the end—except where absolutely necessary. Strategic metals and materials that go into building cannot be shot at or sent at the enemy in the form of bullets or bombing planes.

Our peacetime industries employing nearly 13 million workers are rapidly converting to war production.

A recent survey has shown that 15 weeks after Pearl Harbor eleven major lines of civilian production were already under conversion or drastic curtailment orders from the Government.

This is sharply significant to civilian consumers, who must forego more and more comforts and luxuries. It means no more refrigerators, no more radios, no more automobiles, no more vacuum cleaners. Our washing machines are now being made into bomb fins and anti-aircraft machine gun mounts. Our refrigerators are becoming searchlights. Our typewriters are becoming rifles and fire-control instruments.

The men on the firing front need weapons and more weapons—we must not let them down. To take care of their needs the shortage of consumer goods will grow, and hence the need for rationing. Cheerful acceptance of rationing is one of the things everyone can do to help win the war.

TAXES FOR VICTORY

Heavy taxes are necessary in time of war. But who should pay them and how much should they pay? These questions have an important effect on the war. Taxes are a small price to give for freedom, but they must not pay so heavy that they will interfere with victory.

The National Association of Manufacturers recently received answers to a tax questionnaire from over 3,000 corporations, indicating that corporation income available for taxes, dividends, and repayment of debt will amount to $18 billions in 1942.

The NAM has proposed tax rates that would leave business only enough money to survive and carry on its war job with complete efficiency. According to these tax schedules, the government would receive $12 billions, leaving only $6 billions for paying dividends to 11 million stockholders, meeting debt obligations, expanding plant facilities and providing for a sound financial future.

Tax rates by the House Ways and Means Committee would leave even less money to cover these obligations. For that reason, the House schedules, if enacted into law might seriously hamper war production by not permitting companies to retain sufficient money from their earnings to carry on their business.

The problem of meeting obligations incurred before the war is a serious one now, and it will probably become more serious in the future. The NAM studies indicate that many companies will not have sufficient earnings left after payment of taxes to stay in business.

Every person—every company—must pay heavy taxes now. But in formulating a new tax law care must be taken that taxes do not hinder the war effort by draining business of funds it must have to continue its vigorous battle of production.

The United States will produce 352,000 tons of magnesium in 1943, according to present indications—an enormous increase over the 2,400 tons produced in 1938.

SUGAR FOR WAR-TIME CANNING

College Station.—Homemakers canning fruit this year will save themselves time and trouble if they do some advance preparation before applying to their local rationing board for certificates.

"Be prepared to answer these three questions when you go," advised Winifred Jones, specialist in food preservation for the A. and M. Extension Service. How many quarts of fruit did you can last year? How many quarts of fruit do you plan to can this year? How many quarts of last year's fruit do you still have on hand? Another word of advice is: "Keep a record of the fruit you can with your rationed sugar because your rationing board will ask for it when you apply for more sugar."

Answering these questions will be relatively simple for the thousands of rural homemakers who have kept records and filled food preservation budgets as recommended by county home demonstration agents of the Extension Service.

Rural homemakers may stretch their sugar allowances by using thinner syrups for canning fruits and fruit juices and by using corn syrup or honey as substitutes in canning recipes, Miss Jones says. Information on their methods can be obtained from county home demonstration agents. She warns that saccharine, a coal tar product with an extremely sweet taste, cannot be used in canning because it becomes bitter when heated.

Here is the specialist's summary of the rationing regulations as they apply to sugar for canning:

"You will get one pound of sugar for every four quarts of finished fruit you are putting up, and you may can as much fruit is your family needs. You may have an additional pound of sugar for each person in your family to make a small supply of jams, jellies, and fruit butters."

"Work Will Win"

Relaxation of hiring methods based on prejudice, upgrading of workers into supervisors and foremen and employment of youths, women and white-collar workers in farm labor scarcity areas are some of the methods suggested by the War Manpower Commission to obtain all-out manpower mobilization. In a pamphlet, "Work Will Win," the commission outlines the manpower needs of industry, agriculture and the armed forces, and offers suggestions for workers and citizens not presently employed to aid in the war production drive.

"Patch and Pray"

Declaring that industry must get ready to "patch and pray" to keep existing equipment at work, William L. Batt, chairman of WPB's Requirements Committee, said recently that vital materials can no longer be used except for war and for the maintenance of those things necessary to carry on the war. Widespread use of substitutes and increased civilian cooperation in the national salvage campaign were recommended by Mr. Batt as methods of cobbling the materials shortage.

Imports Controlled

Except for commodities imported overland or by air from Mexico and Canada, the war Production Board now has taken over control of all imports for civilian use as well as strategic war materials. The new order, effective July 2, is designed to put available shipping space to maximum use in the war effort, and will require that commodities be imported in the order of their importance.

Retreading to Improve

Immediate steps to eliminate careless workmanship in tire retreading and to provide technical advice for retreaders not experienced in using reclaimed "camelback" for retreadings must be taken, OPA state directors have been advised. Names and addresses of retreaders against whom an excessive number of consumer complaints have been lodged with local boards are to be supplied to state directors, with names of their camelback suppliers. Technical difficulties then would be ironed out with retreaders through the supplying company, according to plans.

CANADA'S ARMY IN TRAINING OVERSEAS

At home and abroad the Canadian Army is undergoing an extensive program of preparation to meet the requirements of total war in what is believed to be the most critical period of the war. The army overseas, as shown in some of its many activities in the above photos, (1) Behind a tangle of barbed wire which guards their gun site, the crew of an ack-ack battery, race through a full dress action drill. (2) Men of a supply company are seen moving small arms ammunition during early morning maneuvers in England. Utilizing the facilities of the terrain is an important part of every soldier's training. (3) Here Lieut. W. A. Martin of Red Deer, Alta., uses the odd growth of a weathered old tree as a shield while taking observations during field exercises. (4) Beating to a foam the rushing waters of a small river in its path, this United States-built "General Lee" tank continues its course across a mock battlefield. (5) Deep in thought, Pvt. W. Kenney, of Newcastle, N.B., ponders the serious business of war as he washes out a pair of socks during noon recess.

WPB limitation order. Effective date of the stop order is postponed from May 31 to June 30.

Cutlery Production Cut
An annual saving of 2,000 tons of stainless steel will result from a recent WPB order curtailing the manufacture of cutlery, including tableware, pocket knives, and scissors. Only metals that may be used in fabrication of the cutlery items listed are unalloyed iron or steel, gold, and silver.

Warning on Old Tire Use
Use of wornout tires for any thing except scrap rubber is a violation of priority orders, officials of WPB's priorities field service have warned junk dealers and others. A lucrative traffic in tire liners and boots, reported in some sections of the Southwest, is in direct violation of order M-16-b and its amendments, which control the use of reclaimed rubber.

Music Instruments Hit
Manufacture of practically all musical instruments will end soon, in compliance with a WPB order which halts manufacture of instruments containing more than 10 per cent by weight of critical materials. Only violins, cellos, and some guitars are not included.

Bicycles Given Plant
Consolidated Aircraft Corp., of Fort Worth is one of several war production plants to which bicycles have been released by OPA in advance of rationing. Consolidated Aircraft received permission to buy 250 bicycles, needed for transportation of workers and for messenger service. Plans for rationing for adult's bicycles by OPA may be announced soon, but for the present all retail sales are frozen.

Scrap Must Move
Scrap metals must move promptly from dealer's yards, or the government may be forced to request steel mills to buy scrap direct and prepare it for the furnaces in their own yards, WPB's Bureau of Industrial Conservation has warned.

Salvage Speed-Up
A special industrial committee to speed up salvage of scrap metals and rubber from shops and plants has been named for the Wichita Falls, Texas, area. This committee will supplement the activities of the general salvage committee. More than 25 million pounds of scrap already have been gathered and shipped from this area.

Lumber for Housing
Procedure to exempt more than 2000 of the most essential war housing units now under construction in the Southwest from delivery restrictions of WPB's softwood lumber "freeze" order has been announced by the War Production Board. Supplies of construction lumber in local retail yards were not sufficient to allow completion of these urgently needed houses. Relief for both publicly and privately financed projects is allowed under the WPB order. The "freeze" order applies only to mills.

New Gas Rationing System
The new coupon plan for rationing gasoline in the East Coast area, to go into effect in July, will eliminate "X" cards, which provided for unrestricted purchase of gasoline. All users will be issued an "A" book, containing 48 coupons, good for one year. To obtain this basic ration, a car owner will have to satisfy his local board that the "A" book will not supply enough gasoline to enable him to carry on his occupation or work. A coupon must be detached from the book for each purchase of gasoline, and these coupons, turned in by dealers to get new stocks from suppliers, will furnish an audit control of the total amount distributed under rationing.

Because it well might be considered a tribute to doctors everywhere—and especially the small-town doctors—the following poem, "A Tribute to Dr. Thomas A. Lowery" and signed "A Friend," is reproduced from the Chillicothe Valley News:

Out of his bed at midnight;
Over a snowbound trail;
Watching a case 'til daylight;
Braving a winter gale—
Up from a meal at mid-day,
Off on a hurry call;
Miles on a lonely highway;
Out thro a summer squall—
Called from an evening's pleasure
Into the bitter night;
Lured from a moment's leisure
Into a patient's plight—

When Rip Van Winkle woke up (so we read in the Stanton Reporter) and wandered back to the old home town, he was neither recognized nor remembered. He found his wife gone, his daughter married, his native village remodeled and America independent. He had slept clear through the Revolution!

Nevertheless, Rip was a lucky man, because we'd never have known about him to this day if Washington Irving hadn't written him up.

Any industry that is contemplating hibernation from advertising during World War II might well consider the plight in which Rip found himself. For after this war, even a Washington Irving—if you could find one—might not be able to bring into public favor a once popular trade name. It always pays to advertise!

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The 155-millimeter gun is the modern version of the old "GPF" of World War I days. It has a range fifty percent greater than the old gun, leaving a 90-pound projectile approximately 15 miles. It is capable of high road speed and each one costs $50,000.

Arsenals of America are working at terrific speed turning out this long range, effective weapon for our armed forces. You and your neighbor working hand-in-hand in unity can make possible the purchase of an adequate number of these guns by buying War Bonds. Put 10 percent of your income in War Bonds to help reach your county quota, every pay day.

CANADA KEEPS 'EM FLYING

REPAIRING an engine nacelle or engine-cowling framework in one of Canada's 30 aircraft overhaul plants, this girl is employed in a program which keeps the ships of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan flying every day. At the peak it is planned to overhaul about 10,000 planes annually. The Canadian aircraft industry employs more than 40,000 workers and is turning out well over 3,500 planes annually. In order to match Canadian production on a pro rata population basis the United States would have to produce about 35,000 planes yearly. Canada has spent more than $391,000,000 on aircraft, not including an additional large sum provided by the government as capital assistance to aircraft manufacturers.

Passed by Censor every country in the Empire under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The Vacation Bible School began in a good way Monday. The rain Monday morning rather flabbergasted some, as we only had 70 in attendance. Today (Tuesday) we had 110. The entire force, boys and girls, teachers and all, are having a good time. And we are learning things that will help us throughout our lives.

Sunday, June 28th, we are celebrating the 50th anniversary of this church with an "all-day service" and dinner on the ground, and a homecoming of all former members and pastors. The program will be announced in next week's paper.

We will be happy to see you in the services next Sunday.

You will enjoy hearing these youngsters. Bring your basket lunch and come. The picnic will be on C. E. Hobert's lawn north of town.

TIMELY HINTS ON THE PREPARATION OF ONIONS

Onions—the "Victory Food Special" for June 8-15—are being featured at all local retail stores, according to R. D. Atkinson, chairman of the Food Industry Committee.

The following suggestions on the preparation of onions and onion receipts will aid local homemakers in preparing "something different" in the way of onion dishes:

Onion Cookery Notes

To peel, put onions under cold water and remove skins. Cut off root and stem ends under water. Strongly flavored vegetables, such as onions, are best boiled in an uncovered kettle. Steam or boil onions 20-45 minutes or until tender. Boil onions in water sufficient to cover. Boiled onions have a milder flavor. White onions will have a better color if salt is added the last minute of cooking. Steaming onions, instead of boiling, saves more of the minerals and vitamins. To steam onions, place in an open pan or on a rack in a large kettle partially filled with water. The onions should not come in contact with the water. Cover and boil until the kettle is filled with steam. Cook 20-45 minutes.

Steamed or Boiled Onions

6 medium-sized onions.
1 cup milk
Remove skins. Cut off stem and root end. Cook slowly 20 to 45 minutes until tender but not broken. Drain onions, quarter or leave whole, add milk, and cook 5 minutes. Season with butter, salt and pepper.

Creamed Onions

Serves 6
Drain steamed or boiled onions and cover with white sauce.
White Sauce
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Melt fat, stir in flour and heat. Add milk and salt. Cook until it thickens. Add quarters or slices of onion.

Glazed Onions

Serves 6
3 cups small onions
2 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons butter
Steam or boil onions 15 minutes. Drain. Melt butter, add sugar.

Fair Weather Breeds Trouble on Highways

Happy is the junk dealer the sun shines on, for his business will boom. The trickle of wrecked cars which finds its way into his "graveyard" on rainy days, foggy nights, or during snowstorms swells to a river of crumpled metal when the weather is fair.

Annually, for 12 years, The Travelers Insurance Company has published an analysis of the causes of street and highway accidents which invariably has demonstrated that most automobile mishaps occur under clear skies. The 1942 booklet, "The Wreck-ord," once more proves this point. It reveals that during the past year 87 per cent of all fatal accidents and 84.7 per cent of the vast number of non-fatal accidents involving personal injuries happened when the sun or stars were shining.

Fog cloaked a mere 1.9 per cent of highway fatalities. Even fewer occurred while it was snowing. A large number took place in the rain, but of the 35,300 fatal accidents which were analyzed, only 13 per cent happened in bad weather.

These figures, the booklet states, "make it quite evident that man's recklessness, rather than nature's capriciousness, is largely responsible for the tragic record of highway deaths and injuries."

FSA FAMILIES GET MATTRESSES

College Station.—Eighteen thousand families on small farms and ranches in Texas enjoyed comfortable home-made mattresses and warm comforters during the past winter, according to Miss Mattie A. Trickey, state home management supervisor of the Farm Security Administration.

"Under the direction of FSA home management supervisors, men and women from low-income farm families made 23,745 mattresses and 34,474 comforters during the past year and a half," Miss Trickey said. Cotton and cotton goods furnished by the Agricultural Marketing Administration, another agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, went into the mattresses and comforters.

Gasoline Is Fire Hazard If Stored at Home

Austin.—With indications pointing to a possible nationwide system of gasoline rationing, Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner, warns against storage of gasoline at home.

"The storage of any quantity of gasoline at home," he said, "promotes extreme fire hazards. Gasoline, when stored and handled through the regular facilities of the oil industry and kept in standard tanks, is relatively safe as a result of safeguards incorporated in the design of equipment and the training of personnel over a long period of years. However, gasoline is a dangerous explosive if kept in all sorts of cans and makeshift containers, stored in basements and garages, and poured from open containers."

Hall explained that gasoline vapor, produced when the fluid is exposed to air, is highly explosive and can be set off by electric sparks or careless smokers. The vapor, heavier than air, may flow along the ground under buildings or into basements, to be ignited and flash back from a considerable distance.

"Fire insurance can be voided under the Texas standard fire policies," Hall asserted, "if gasoline is stored on the premises without a permit of consent from the insurance company. Thus, if stored gasoline contributes to a fire destroying the property insured, policies could not be collected if the insurance company had not granted permission for storage of the gasoline."

Mrs. Nell Hardin went to Lubbock last week to take her daughter, Miss Jean, back to attend Texas Tech during the summer term. Mrs. Hardin also visited Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hardin in Levelland while away.

Regulations For Obtaining Sugar For Canning Issued

The following are regulations for obtaining sugar for home canning purposes, as explained by Mark McGee, Texas rationing administrator, and received here the latter part of last week.

"Amendment Number One to Sugar Regulations make the following provisions:

Consumers who have registered may obtain sugar for canning or preserving fresh fruits for their own use in an amount of one pound per four quarts of finished canned fruit, and one pound each year per person for use in preparing preserves, jams, jellies or fruit butters.

In no event may an individual or family unit be permitted more sugar than is necessary to can the quantity of fruit which the board thinks is reasonable, giving due consideration to the season, the practices of the individual and the community, and all other pertinent information.

Application shall be made on OPA Form Number R-315 by one adult member of a family unit for the entire family, or by a consumer not a member of a family unit. The applicant must state the names of consumers for whom the application is filed, and their War Ration Book serial numbers, the number of quarts of fruit canned in 1941, or if a previous application for canning has been made, the number of quarts of canned fruits canned since that application, the number of quarts of fruit in possession of the applicant, the number of quarts of fruit to be canned during the period for which application is made, whether sugar will be used for preserving and excess sugar supply as of time of registration, and any reduction since then.

If the application is for sugar for use in preparing preserves, jams, jellies, or fruit butters, it shall so state, and no statements about canning are required.

The local board shall fix the times and places at which, and the periods for which applications shall be made. The board may appoint qualified persons to act as deputies examining applications and issuing canning certificates.

In the case where the board approves the application of a consumer who has an excess supply of sugar, if the excess sugar is more than the amount allowed, a certificate may be issued or the excess sugar reduced by the amount allowed. If the excess sugar is less than the amount of the application, the excess shall be cancelled and a certificate issued for the difference, and War Ration Books may also be issued immediately to such applicants whose excess sugar supply has been cancelled.

Sugar allowed under this amendment shall be used only in the quantities, during the period, and for the purposes for which it was allowed.

If sugar allowed under this amendment is not used during the specified period, the applicant shall within 30 days after the end of that period report the fact to his board. If a certificate was not used, it shall be returned to the board for cancellation.

If a certificate was used but the sugar bought was not used for canning or preserves, the War Ration Book or Books of the individual or the family shall be returned to the board. The board shall remove from the Ration Book or Books stamps having a weight value equal to the amount of sugar, but, if the amount of such sugar exceeds the weight value of stamps to which a value has already been given, the book or books shall be retained by the board until stamps in weight value equal to the amount of sugar not used for canning or preserving become valid.

If the sugar was allowed against an excess inventory, the board shall revoke this allowance. If another application for sugar under amendment is granted, the appropriate adjustment shall be made.

MAX McCULLOUGH, Regional Administrator, Mark McGee, Texas Rationing Administrator.

Albert Havran of Megargel visited relatives and friends here last Monday. He also visited his father, Frank Havran, who is undergoing medical treatment in the Knox county hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Eiland and daughters, Peggy and Sarah, of Lamesa visited relatives and friends here the first of this week. They went on to Wichita Falls on Wednesday to attend graduation exercises at Sheppard Field, where their son, William, graduated in the mechanical division of the air corps.

Curtis Coates and L. M. Palmer, who are employed at Sheppard Field, visited home folks here over the week end.

Miss Louise Beaty and Miss Lavene Counts spent the week end in Abilene.

Earnest Griffith of Weibert was a business visitor in town last Wednesday.

Charles Haynie and Hal Collins, both of Sheppard Field, spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Haynie.

War-Time Canning

More than ever before, we need to conserve; not only tires, household equipment, machinery, etc., but also the food that we produce. According to Mrs. Neva Van Zandt, county home demonstration agent, Knox county women are meeting the challenge with grace. They are planning their family food budgets more carefully and will conserve the needed fruits as well as vegetables despite the sugar rationing.

Here are a few pointers on sugar rationing as it applies to sugar for canning. You are allowed one pound of sugar for every four quarts of finished fruit you are putting up. You may have an additional pound of sugar for each person in your family to make a small supply of jams, jellies, and fruit butters. You may save yourself time and trouble by being prepared to answer the following questions when applying to your local board for certificates: How many quarts of fruit did you can last year? How many quarts of fruit do you plan to can this year? How many quarts of last year's fruit do you still have on hand? Then, keep a record of the fruit you can with your rationed sugar.

Homemakers may stretch their sugar allowance by using thinner syrups for fruits and by using corn syrup or honey as substitutes. Saccharine should not be used in canning since it is a coal tar product and cooking brings out a bitter flavor.

The best way to get around the sugar situation is to can fruit without any sweetening and add sweetening just before serving. Put up more fruits and fruit juices for later use in making jelly if we have the sugar.

Fruits will taste sweeter if heated in the syrup before they are canned. Two cups of sugar and three cups of water boiled together until the sugar is dissolved will make enough syrup for four quarts of fruit if the fruit is packed closely in the jar. That's your allowance.

To can fruits with honey, use only light, mild-flavored, strained honey. Make a syrup of equal parts of honey and water for acid fruits, and one part of honey to two parts of water for less acid fruits. Boil the honey and water together two minutes then simmer the fruit in syrup until thoroughly heated.

To can with corn syrup, make canning syrup by boiling equal parts of corn syrup and water together three minutes. This proportion of syrup and water may be varied to meet individual preference in flavor.

Dr. and Mrs. James N. Walker and daughter, Barbara Lee, of Wichita Falls visited Mrs. Walker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Eiland, last Sunday. Mrs. Walker and baby remained here for a longer visit and returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. E. B. Littlefield and little daughter, Gayle, visited relatives in Stamford the first of this week.

Mrs. E. F. Cornett of Knox City visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Zeissel, the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moorhouse of Benjamin were in town last Saturday, visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

These huge 60-ton heavy tanks cost $120,000, and America's automotive and locomotive plants are turning them out on a never-ending assembly line. Our army uses light tanks, weighing 14 tons, and medium tanks of 28 tons also, but we favor the medium tank over the other two.

These heavy tanks are needed for certain phases of modern warfare, and with their thick armor and heavy-gauge guns they are almost unstopable. They are considered superior in gun power, in maneuverability and in the power of their huge tractor motors to Axis tanks. Americans everywhere are helping to pay for these monsters of war through their purchase of War Bonds. Invest at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. U. S. From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

A FEW weeks ago, I had occasion to visit some friends of mine in Nebraska.

Nebraska certainly is a great State. I like Nebraska. I like those immense cornfields that seem to stretch from horizon to horizon. (Plenty of wheatfields in Nebraska, too.)

But the thing that interests me most about Nebraska right now is the very important social experiment the beer people started there several years ago.

Beer itself is naturally a beverage of moderation. Yet, all too often, people are inclined to blame beer wrongly for any misconduct of the customer or the proprietor in a place licensed to sell beer.

So, the brewers got together to see what they could do about this. They weren't really responsible for their retailers... in fact, they're not allowed to control retailers. But the brewing industry worked out a plan by which it cooperates with the public authorities to eliminate bad conditions in the minority of places whose conduct would reflect on the law-abiding majority.

The beer people urge proprietors of retail places to conduct them properly and to obey the law. They urge consumers to cooperate, and ask the public generally to report law violations to the authorities. They send warnings to careless retailers and if conditions are not corrected they take the case up with the authorities. Naturally the authorities and the public have welcomed this as an added force in building respect for law and order.

That program is now operating in many states—and with the Nation at war, brewing industry organizations cooperate with civil and military authorities to assure good conditions in beer outlets around the army camps and naval stations.

Somewhat, to me, that's a mighty important, public-spirited effort. I don't know of anything like it ever having been tried before. If people really help the brewers with that program they'll be doing a great thing for the country.

Texans Lag In USO Campaign

Houston.—With 24 days left, the Texas USO campaign is still almost one-third short of its $1,110,000 goal, Harry C. Weiss, state chairman, reported today.

Only one of the 18 regions into which Texas is divided has reached its goal, while the others range from 8 to 95 per cent, the chairman declared.

"This situation calls for action—the kind of action for which Texan men in the armed services are justly famous," Mr. Weiss asserted. "We at home must come through as our sons and brothers are on the world's fighting fronts."

"The announcement by General George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, that the army will reach 4,500,000 men by the end of the year, instead of 3,600,000, means that the USO must go far above its quotas," Mr. Weiss continued. "Just 100 per cent contributions won't do for any part of Texas, because our goals were based on the figures which have been surpassed by American productiveness which makes possible this 20 per cent increase in expected strength."

"USO is the American civilian's pledge to provide recreation and extras for its fighting men. It must not fall down because we at home are sluggish or disinterested."

Fifty counties have completed their campaigns with over-the-top reports, but one, Chambers county, has already doubled its quota and is campaigning for a triple contribution.

Cotton Textiles By the Millions Used in Sleepers

Enough cotton sheets and pillow cases to tuck 110 times the entire population of Munday into bed were purchased last year by The Pullman Company.

Its total bed linen inventory, announced in Chicago today by Frank S. Rick, general storekeeper, would be sufficient to give clean sheets and slips to each of the 1945 men, women and children of Munday every night for 757 nights. Pullman owns 2,342,186 sheets and 1,881,387 slips, worth about $2,000,000.

This unique view into the operations of the sleeping car company, which was probably the largest users of linens in the world before the war expanded the requirements of the armed services, was offered to the cotton industry which in 1941 sold more than $260,000 worth of sheets and slips alone to Pullman.

The total estimated value of all linens in the inventory report was put at $2,571,000 and the annual laundry bill in recent years has exceeded $1,500,000.

With the price of cotton higher now than two years ago, Pullman expects to surpass its 1941 purchases, provided its increased orders are not curtailed, Rick pointed out.

Often called "the world's greatest housekeeper," Pullman plays host to more than 40,000 travelers nightly. Its fleet of cars, now numbering 7,000, has represented a rich source of income to the cotton industry since 1853, when the first sleeping car was put on the tracks.

There are nearly 8,500,000 separate pieces of linen on cars or in company storerooms and laundries, the report showed, and the average Pullman carries with it 160 sheets and 120 slips when it leaves on each two-night trip. Recent large-scale movements of troops in sleeping cars have quickened the line turnover, but Rick said that soldiers have slept in clean linen every night on their trips, without necessitating any restrictions on normal passenger service.

King County Again Votes Liquor Out

King county, who has been wet for a number of years, voted dry for the second time last Friday in the local option election. The first election on February 28 was declared illegal in district court, necessitating another election.

The drys won Friday's election by a margin of 34 votes, with one small box unaccounted for when this count was taken. The drys polled 163 votes to 129 by those who preferred that the county remain wet.

TEXAS OUT-OF-DOORS

Austin.—An increase of 13 per cent in the number of Hill Country deer placed on cold storage during the 1941 hunting season, as compared to the 1940 season, was reported today upon completion of a check of the deer kill in that region by Game Department biologists.

The turkey kill in that section also increased last year, as is indicated, the Executive Secretary of the Department said, by a jump of 144 per cent in the number of gibblers placed in storage during the open season in three of the principal cities located in the Hill Country deer and turkey range.

The scarcity of rain during the early months of this year already has been broken and if additional rains fall in abundance over the wide-spread deer and turkey ranges of Texas, a food and cover supply for these excellent game species equal to that of last year would result, and the deer herds and turkey flocks would show an additional increase. Field Biologists of the Department are encouraging hunters and farmers not to overgraze their land so that wild game will hold its own in the Hill Country, and in some instances hunters have cut down large numbers of live oak trees in an effort to produce more browse for deer. Many of the best deer hunting grounds in the Hill Country are badly overgrazed by sheep, cattle and goats, with the result that deer in some localities are lucky if they get minimum food requirements.

Heap Big Fish

J. C. McGlothlin had a lot of fun the opening day of the fishing season, the Wood County Record of Minnesota reports.

First he caught a five-pound bass. Then, with a fly rod, he hooked a nine-pound grackle that according to all the evidence put up one whole of a fight.

The evidence is McGlothlin's broken fly rod.

New Dope on Bullfrogs

In wartime all sources of food are important, and the bullfrog, never held in disrepute by food fanciers, has assumed even more importance as a vital natural resource.

For year many Texans have advocated a shortening of the season on taking frogs, which now may be giggered at any time of the year. Two local bills introduced during the last two sessions of the Legislature failed to pass, however.

The supply of frog-legs at Texas restaurants and hotels is in danger of diminishing, because, in the opinion of Game Department biologists, the supply of these cold-blooded animals is being rapidly depleted because of overhunting.

Bullfrogs will not thrive in captivity. This has been demonstrated time and again.

But if their native marshy habitat is properly managed the frogs will multiply and the landowner can get a fancy price for his product.

To assist landowners in properly managing their property for bullfrog production the Game Department recently issued a bulletin on this subject, written after considerable research by a Field Biologist.

You may obtain a copy free of charge by writing the Game Department, Austin, Texas.

One interesting fact recorded in the bulletin is that Texans are estimated to consume 300,000 pounds of bullfrogs annually.

THE POCKETBOOK OF KNOWLEDGE

Texas Assumes Support of Her Needy Blind

Have you been missing the blind beggars who once were familiar sights upon the streets of Texas cities?

Texas is now providing blind persons with regular monthly support in their own homes through the Aid to the Needy Blind program of the State Department of Public Welfare. Those who continue to solicit alms either do so because they do not meet the residence of citizenship requirements, or prefer to make their living by begging because it is more profitable or because they have learned to love the daily contacts with passers-by and the hubbub of street life.

Welfare statistics reveal that 2,999 blind persons are now receiving a total of $68,661 per month in average grants of $22.89. The Texas law specifies that no person who publicly solicits alms shall be eligible for blind aid. Of course, only a small percentage of recipients of state aid previously lived by soliciting alms. The great majority of the blind population disdained this mode of livelihood.

Welfare Department statistics have not classified prior support so as to reveal the number who previously lived by soliciting alms. Of the 2,857 cases tabulated, 809 previously lived on their own earnings or resources; 1,437 had been supported by relatives and friends; 586 were being supported by public or private relief; and the prior support of 25 was not ascertained.

In order to qualify for aid a blind person must not only be in need but he must be examined by a physician who is skilled in diseases of the eye and determined to have less than one-tenth normal vision. Economic blindness includes not only those who are totally blind but those who may require assistance because their vision may be so poor they cannot work and support themselves. To be eligible a blind person must be a citizen of the United States and must have lived in the state at least one year just before applying for aid, and four more in the last nine. Grants vary according to the amount needed in each individual case to provide the basic necessities and necessary treatment.

The Welfare Department attempts to render services to the blind such as securing Braille editions and talking book equipment. Sometimes they can be assisted toward securing employment or operating vending stands which, even though it may pay very little, frequently has a wholesome effect on their lives. In some cases state financed surgical treatment may bring back sight, especially when blindness is due to cataracts, or medical treatment may avert complete loss of vision.

This gun gets maximum power for minimum weight and cost, and the American people are providing the finance through the purchase of War Bonds. If you do your share and invest 10 per cent of your income in War Bonds, adequate supply of this efficient gun can be assured our fighting forces. Buy War Bonds every pay day. U. S.
