All qualified voters are urged to come to the polls and cast their ballots in this election.

If any candidates had filed for the office of alderman, their names were not announced this week.

Last date for filing of names for places on the city ballot is March 31, the city secretary said.

Rhineland Red Cross Fund Now Exceeds Quota

By the end of last week, loyal citizens of Rhineland had made contributions to the Red Cross membership and war fund drive that had exceeded the community's quota of $131, Georgene Glas, chairman of the drive, announced last Monday.

With several who have not made contributions yet to be seen, Miss Glas is expecting the community to almost double the quota. Miss Glas stated it would likely be impossible to see everyone, and she asked those who have not contributed to see her in person or mail their contributions to her.

These Are Winners From Knox County

BEST GROUP OF FIVE CALVES IN DISTRICT SHOW

Shown above are the winners in the class of five calves at the district show in Wichita Falls last week, and were adjudged winners in competition with calves from 17 counties of this area. The winners are from Knox county, and all were bred by the League Ranch near Benjamin. Jack Idol is manager of the ranch.

The ten calves shown at Wichita Falls brought the Knox county boys a total of almost $2,000, including the sale price and the prizes won at the show.

Club Calves Bring Prizes for District

The nine 4-H Club members of Knox County who exhibited their ten calves at Wichita Falls upheld the old tradition of being one of the top three counties of the district, which includes 17 counties.

The group of five calves from Knox County were the best in the district according to John C. Burns, the judge. The livestock judging team composed of Hardy Richards and Hope Bratcher of Vera; Charles Hickman of Trustcott; and Pat Hill of Munday won third place in the district.

The ten calves from Knox County sold for a total of $1903.63 and the premiums amounted to $86.40 making a total of $1989.40.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Wichita Falls gave a banquet to the boys on Thursday at the Kemp Hotel. T-bone steaks and all the trimmings were served to the boys. Honor and tribute was paid to Frank Sims of Haskell County, who fed the Grand Champion calf, and sold at the auction for $1.50 per pound, on Friday morning.

The Wichita Falls Record News also gave the boys a banquet on Friday the last day of the show. There will be another district show next year, according to announcement made at the banquet by the business men of Wichita Falls, and premium money will be more than doubled in 1944.

Anyone in the city having grass to burn are requested to notify the fire department, and members of the department will come out and burn the grass. With fire fighting equipment on the scene there is less danger of the fire getting out of control, Hawes said, and emphasized the willingness of the local department to help in this matter.

Red Cross Will Continue Drive To March 31st

The Red Cross membership and war fund drive, which opened locally on March 1, will be continued through all of this month, Mrs. H. A. Pendleton, local chairman, said Wednesday.

Local workers have been meeting with splendid response, as citizens realize the important work which the Red Cross is doing throughout the war areas. Soldiers who have returned from battlefronts are enthusiastic in their praise for Red Cross work, stating that many American soldiers would have died had it not been for the blood plasma which is furnished only through the Red Cross. This is only one of the many duties and services performed by that organization.

Contributions in the local drive had reached a total of $1,242.70 by Wednesday morning, which is more than double the quota set for Munday.

"Those who haven't done their part in this campaign are urged to do so before the drive is over," Mrs. Pendleton said. "We want everyone to have an opportunity to get in this worthy campaign, and a representative will be at the local bank and at other places in town to give you an opportunity to contribute."

Crop Insurance Protection For Cotton Crops

Protection from the time seed is planted until crop is weighed in at the gin is offered Knox county farmers who insure this year's cotton crop.

Cotton crop insurance, which is being written in the county AAA office for the second year, covers either 50 or 75 percent of the average yield, based on past production records.

Comparing cotton crop insurance to other kinds of insurance, Marvin Allen, secretary, Knox county AAA Committee, explained this week that farmers should view it from a protection standpoint rather than from a monetary standpoint.

"People don't take fire, health or accident insurance because they hope to collect an indemnity the year they happen to buy that insurance. They buy it for protection and that's the way cotton farmers should look at cotton crop insurance," he continued.

Cotton insurance protects farmers during the most hazardous time of production, when the crop is growing in the field, the AAA official said.

"The minute a farmer starts preparing the seedbed by gambles with his dollars. He risks money in seed, labor, fuel and wear and tear on machinery on the chances he will grow a crop," he continued and added that under cotton crop insurance, part of the gamble and risk are eliminated because either 50 or 75 percent of the yield is insured.

Closing date for taking cotton crop insurance in Knox county this year's crop is April 15, but farmers are urged to make application at the earliest convenient time.

Harold Melton Is Expert Marksman

General Easley, the world's best marksman with rifle and 45 automatic pistol, complimented Private Melton in the awarding of an expert medal.

Private Melton has been in the service since November, 1942. He was also awarded the sharp shooter's medal for a high record shooting with the rifle.

"What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him—
What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"

CREDIT AND DISCREDIT

In a democracy such as our own where all people are free to think, to speak, and to act for themselves, there is always a great variety of opinions concerning a number of vital national problems. But there is one issue now before the country upon which most of us are agreed—that this war must be won and won as quickly as possible.

On the credit side of all-out war production, so essential to the winning of the war, we have great industries which have turned from the production of peacetime products to the production of ships, planes, tanks, guns, trucks, and hundreds of other war needs with the greatest possible speed. We have millions of skilled workers who are not only performing their regular tasks but are helping the new workers to learn their new war jobs. We have housewives, businessmen, the handicapped, and even older children who spend either a part of their time or their whole time in the war plants.

There are the 100 per cent loyal Americans who, while giving up many of the things they are accustomed to having, are putting in extra time, extra money, and extra effort for the common good. They are the people who will win this war and keep its cost in lives and in dollars to a minimum.

On the debit side we have those who would make a profit of a holiday out of the war. These thoughtless or unpatriotic men and women are not only unwilling to give up the things to which they are accustomed, but actually stay away from their jobs or go out on strike because they want more leisure or more money.

Between unauthorized strikes and unwarranted absenteeism, America is losing millions of man-hours that should be devoted to the production of weapons so urgently needed by our armed forces.

The great majority of the American people who are doing their jobs have every right to expect equal effort from those who shirk by staying away from their work without good or sufficient reasons, or striking for any reason at all.

Resentment toward these strikes and absentees is rising on all sides. It is reflected in the press, at public meetings, and in the Congress of the United States. If those who are now clogging the war effort, through any one of a dozen devices, cannot see the light in time it is more than likely that effective measures will be taken to control them.

FIRE AND WAR

During the first World War, President Wilson declared that: "Preventable fire is more than a private misfortune. It is a public dereliction. At a time like this, of emergency and of manifest necessity for the conservation of national resources, it is more than ever a matter of pressing consequences that every means should be taken to prevent this evil."

Those words now ring with new significance. President Wilson knew that every home and factory, every man, woman and child were part of our national resources. The maximum strength of these resources is vital to military victory. In the last quarter century, preventable fire has destroyed billions of dollars worth of property and countless thousands of lives. We ignored President Wilson's warning. We have squandered our national resources. No one will ever know to what extent the war has been lengthened by our waste.

What is gone cannot be reclaimed. The problem now is to curb future fire waste. To do that people must learn that fire prevention is primarily an individual responsibility. Cluttered attics, piles of oily rags, faulty insulation, and inadequate extinguishing equipment are just a few of the causes of fire. Fire ordinances may outlaw fire hazards on paper, but enforcement is impossible without the help of individuals.

Civic leaders, fire marshals and fire prevention experts are striving to awaken citizens to the necessity of halting fires before they start. Their job would be easier if the truth of President Wilson's statement that "fire is more than a private misfortune," could be driven home once and for all.

SPLENDID CONTRIBUTION RECOGNIZED

The Office of Price Administration has issued a public statement thanking the thousands of newspapers in the United States for the millions of dollars worth of space they donated to the government in repeated publication of the voluminous data regarding War Ration Book No. 2. This was an incalculable saving to the government in money and man hours, and a great convenience to the public.

START SAVING

There is no longer any way of loading the tax bill "onto the other fellow." It is now in the lap of every family in the land. Taxes come ahead of all family bills. The American family will have to learn to economize as never before.

A single person with an income of $100 a month will pay the Federal government approximately $175 in 1943, and this does not include any state income tax, property tax or excise taxes. A single person earning $15 a week, with no dependents, will pay some $56 Federal taxes, not counting other taxes.

We will have to go without a lot of things hereafter to accumulate tax money. As we scrimp to meet our tax obligations, we will take increasing interest in seeing that city, county, state and Federal governments also economize; that frills and perquisites in government are eliminated for the duration, and for a long period thereafter.

Congress could ease the situation for the taxpayer by passage of the Ruml, pay-as-you-go tax collection plan.

THE "MAGINOT LINE" OF SECURITY

In a recent speech of the nation's post-war economic problems, Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold said:

"For the past ten or twenty years . . . we have been obsessed with the economics of security. We have been thinking of stabilizing profits, keeping a fool from losing his money, social security, ironing out depressions, creating a situation where anybody who remained sober and didn't run off with somebody else's wife was assured of a comfortable old age.

"I am not opposed to any of these methods of social security or humanitarian measures. I only say that if your whole thinking is obsessed with the idea of security, the same thing will happen to your industrial structure that happened to the French Army that was obsessed with the idea of the Maginot Line. We must get back to the old economics of opportunity, of taking a chance, which made America great and I think this war is going to do it for us."

THE AMERICAN WAY

Never before has the need been so great for the American Red Cross. This year it will reach into the battle fronts and into the countries where the sick and suffering lie helpless. To operate this great institution through the coming year $125,000,000 will be required, a small amount compared with the huge sums invested in the tools of war.

Let us be thankful that we have such an organization, for while it is necessary that the forces of evil be put down, the purpose of the Red Cross is to relieve the unfortunate and to spread the doctrine of a human democracy throughout the world without regard to race, color, or religious belief.

CRUX OF THE FOOD PROBLEM

The president of a leading farm organization touched the crux of the food problem when he said: "There has been failure on the food front. That failure can be traced to the failure of administrative agencies. . . . Empty store shelves, empty meat counters, disruption of production and distribution, are the inevitable result. Now these same people express great concern over food shortages. They have not yet worked out with farm organizations a sound program based on the knowledge of farmers and their organizations."

Subsidies and laws will not create food. Only the farmers can do that, and they need manpower, machinery and stability of government policies which will encourage production instead of keeping it in a constant state of confusion.

"SOLDIERS OF THE SNOWS"

In a picture it looks almost like a Christmas card, but it's a lot different after you've been out in this kind of weather for two or three days. Most of the Canadian ski-troopers trained in special courses are sent back to their original units as instructors. The course lasts about two weeks, starting off in a class room and ending up on the snows. Many troopers are already expert skiers before they join up.

WINTER training is an integral part of Canadian Army training, both in the Active Army in Canada and the Reserve. Training will be carried out on skis and snowshoes wherever conditions permit. Troops will be taught to live off the land to be tough and self-reliant. This instruction is not intended as a specialized form of training, but rather the carrying out of normal military training under winter conditions. Stress will be placed on the use of small arms and automatic weapons which are not too cumbersome to be handled by men on patrols. Bushmen, trappers and prospectors will be sought as winter instructors.

Units and training centres are being issued such special equipment as skis, toboggans, petrol stoves and snow shoes. Sufficient equipment will be available to all training centres and units to permit the training of at least one platoon at training program was laid last season at a school for instructors conducted at Petawawa Army Camp. In the army in Canada there are approximately 210,000 troops on active service in addition to 200,000 men in the Reserve Army.

4-H BOYS MAKE RECORD FOOD PRODUCTION

COLLEGE STATION—Swisher County 4-H Club boys, numbering 155, marketed food and feed valued at $29,029.75 in 1942. According to records assembled recently by County Agricultural Agent John W. Palmore, Jr., it was the biggest year in the history of club work in the county. Plans for 1943 provide for an even larger production of food for soldiers, civilians and allies.

A breakdown of the total production shows that the 120 calves fed out during the year was the largest money maker. These sold for $13,776.90, with 194 hogs marketed for $6,894.85 second in value. Third in importance was the 195 sheep fed out and sold for $2,598.64. In poultry, the boys raised and sold 431 broilers for $285.70.

One of the most constructive of the several overall demonstrations in the county is the maintenance of 26 Jersey cows and heifers by individual club boys. Six of the cows under official testing produced 2,590.8 pounds of butterfat in 1942. Warren Orr, Jr., of the Tullia Club, whose cow produced 675.8 pounds of butterfat and 12,158 pounds of milk, was top demonstrator.

Ross O'Daniel, also a member of the Tullia Club, led in beef production. One of several calves he fed out for show was judged grand champion at the county exhibit. In addition, he finished 24 head in a commercial feeding demonstration. These averaged 1,180 pounds and sold for a total of $3,495.20. He used the profit of $903.98 to buy eight Hereford cows. Bester Hall of the County-Wide Club who fed out 25 pigs was the largest swine demonstrator in the county. His hogs sold for $676.

In addition to livestock and poultry demonstrations, Swisher County 4-H Club boys engaged in such other activities as running contour lines, building storage tanks, shelters for livestock, parasite control, collection of scrap and purchases of war bonds and stamps. They gathered and sold 18,000 pounds of scrap metal, and their total purchase of bonds and stamps during the year totaled $1,800. Palmore reports.

Lecturers brought to Texas this spring by the University of Texas'

Hogg Foundation are being sent to college campuses all over the state. Dr. R. L. Sutherland, Foundation director, has announced. In addition to appearances at the University, lecturers are booked to speak to students of at least four of the state teachers colleges, Southwestern University, Southern Methodist and the College of Mines.

Look! Listen! Live!

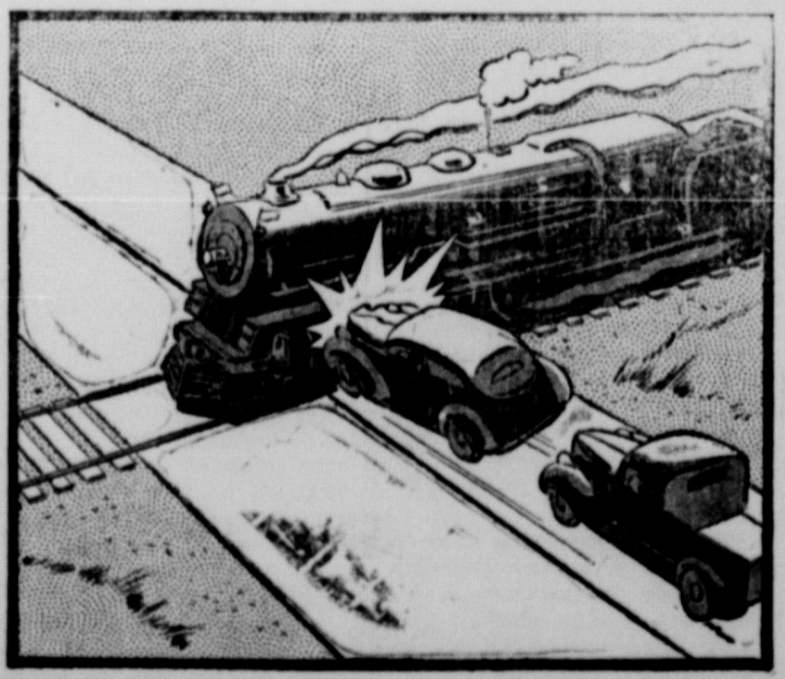

One automobile pushing another across a railroad grade crossing is a dangerous pastime, and that is the way it turned out in the accident illustrated here.

A truck was immediately behind the automobile and there was evidence that the truck had been pushing the automobile as it approached the crossing.

Whistle signals were sounded almost continuously in this case and the signals were heard by several witnesses. Regardless of whether the automobile was being operated under its own power or was being pushed by the truck, reasonable precautions would have averted the accident.

The National Safety Council is conducting a special campaign to stop these grade crossing accidents, which every day delay 38 trains a total of 22 hours—a big blow to the nation's wartime transportation facilities.

Driver carelessness is the cause of almost all grade crossing accidents, according to the Council. To help win the war—to save yourself and others needless suffering—the Council asks you to be sure the track is clear before you start across.

The farmer who sells his surplus butter and an occasional side of beef when he goes into town on market day will collect ration stamps, just like the operator of a super market, after the rationing of meats, fats and oils, cheese and canned fish goes into effect March 29.

By making such sales, he automatically becomes a distributor and must collect either the red stamps in Ration Book No. 2, ration checks or certificates and surrender the collected points to OPA.

But the forthcoming meat rationing program places no official restrictions on any of the rationed foods raised by farmers if used for their own tables.

Farmers and their families are given a full quota of points, just like the city folks, but the government doesn't expect them to use all the points. OPA is asking farm families to retain the red stamps from their family books equal to the point value of the rationed foods, including meat, produced on the farm and eaten at home. In other words, farmers are being urged to economize on their consumption of home-produced foods and to limit their purchases of the rationed foods not produced at home. Farm families sharing available supplies with city dwellers, who must buy all of their meats, cheese, butter, etc. from stores, will be making a vital contribution to the national welfare.

For the benefit of ranchers, farmers, and others who ordinarily lay in large supplies of meats, cheese, lard, etc., for use over long periods of time, OPA will allow such purchasers to use stamps in advance of the valid periods. In these cases, the purchaser goes to the local board and surrenders as many red stamps as his purchase will require, even though some of the stamps were scheduled for use weeks or months ahead. The board official, then, will give him a bulk point certificate which will permit him to make his quantity purchase.

Beginning April 1, farmers who slaughter livestock for sale will become subject to the recent order of the Secretary of Agriculture which requires them to get "farm slaughterers" permits from their County War Boards. To make it easier for them to dispose of their meat selling direct to a customer, OPA will allow them to collect all of the red stamps required for the purchase, even though some series may not have become valid for ordinary use.

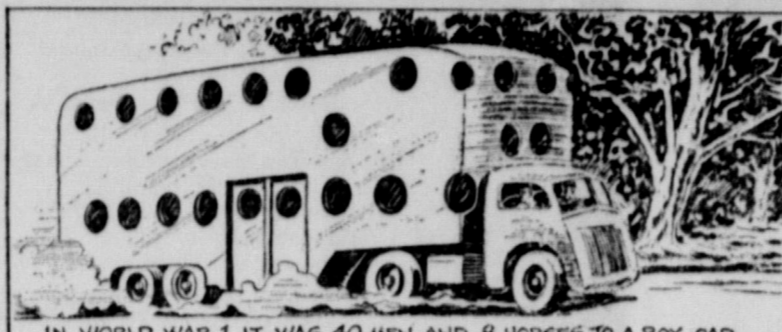

For many farmers, the shoe will be on the other foot when he goes to the nearest meat market for a Sunday roast, or a bucket of shortening. He'll have to use the red stamps in his Ration Book Two, just like his friend who runs the corner drug store in town.

But, in patronizing the retailer, he'll have access to an official list of point values, so he can tell how many points he must surrender for each purchase. The store can give him back "change" in ration stamps, too, and if he doesn't want to buy meat, he can use the red stamps for cheese, butter, margarine, lard, shortening, salad oil, cooking oil, or canned fish. Any of these can be bought with the basic allotment of 16 points per person.

The point values of the 150-odd items will be announced during the week of March 22. These points will tell the real story of how much all of us will be able to buy under meat rationing, but whatever it turns out to be, consumers will know that everyone will be getting his fair share of the available civilian supply.

OPA officials give assurance that meat rationing, as well as other phases of the over-all program, will be flexible and subject to changes made necessary by changing supply and marketing conditions. Their food specialists from this region have gone to Washington to gather detailed information about the meat program and to present the views of Southwesterners to OPA heads at the capital.

The announcement on meat rationing followed shortly after a change in ration point values for several important food items. Point values of dried and dehydrated prunes and raisins was reduced from 20 to 12 points. Dried beans and peas were dropped from eight to four points. Dates and figs were removed from the list of rationed foods.

Whip The Japs On Jap Soil, Is Sadler's Advice

FORT WORTH.—"The only way to whip Japan is to go to Japan and do it," is the opinion of Dr. M. E. Sadler, president of Texas Christian University here, who spent a year in Japan studying the economic, educational and military systems under a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation.

"The Japanese morale is not going to break and the military dictatorship is not going to collapse," says President Sadler.

"It is going to be a hard job and it will take a lot more of us and a long time—but I hope not too long."

"The Japanese military dictatorship is as ruthless with its own people as with outsiders. That's why there is no other way to win the war except by crushing this military dictatorship. You can't do business with Japan!"

"In my opinion, Ambassador Grew is exactly right when he says that the Japs are the most dangerous enemy we face at the present time."

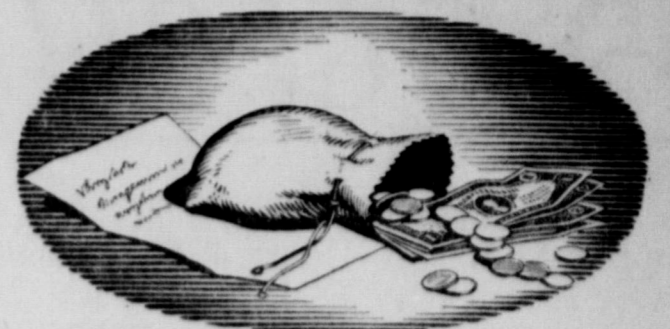

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Elland visited their children in Dallas over the week end. Their little granddaughter, Barbara Lee Walker, returned to her home in Dallas after spending several weeks here with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wren visited with relatives and friends in Seymour last Sunday.

Mrs. Don Ferris of Seymour visited with friends here over the week end. Mrs. Ferris returned to Seymour on Sunday night, and she plans to leave this week for Sweetwater to make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lawson and children, Bobby and Sue, visited with relatives and friends in Stamford last Sunday.

Mrs. Jerry Kane spent the week end in San Antonio, visiting with her husband, who is in training in the U. S. Air Forces there.

Seed Money

There's only one thing more foolish than killing the goose that lays the golden eggs. That's living up the money that has been put away to buy the seed for next year's crops.

Although G-E turbines and lamps and refrigerators don't grow from any seed you can buy at a seed store, yet any manufacturer—no matter what he makes—has a seed problem just the same. For next year's models, and improved designs, and new products—all these cost money. Money for research, and engineering, and new tools, and advertising to tell the public where a product can be obtained, and how much it will cost.

And the only place this money can come from is out of past earnings, or borrowing on the promise of earnings in the future. In other words—from seed money.

From the seed of research and engineering, planted in years past by General Electric, have come some pretty amazing crops. Incandescent lamps five times as efficient as Edison's, vacuum tubes that made radiobroadcasting possible, refrigerators for the home and electric machines for industry to make important jobs easier.

Right now the crops we're growing are all of the "Victory Garden" kind—weapons that are serving with our armed forces on land and sea and in the air.

But we mustn't neglect the seed money for the future. We're looking forward to the continuance of the industrial system that will allow us to open up and cultivate other new and promising fields. So, tomorrow, look for important developments in television, fluorescent lighting, plastics, electronics. These will be familiar words in the post-war world. GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY, SCHENECTADY, N. Buy War Bonds!

Here's a patriotic duty everyone of us can participate in — buy U. S. War Bonds and Stamps. War costs run into millions — $220,000 for a big bomber; $70,000 for a fast fighter; $20,000 for a light tank. And it takes millions of dollars more to keep on producing these tanks and ships and guns for Victory. But we can and we will, if you lend your support.

Remember! In ten years, Uncle Sam repays you $25.00 for the $18.75 you lend him today.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, M.D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN — Commenting on the unusually high incidence of dysentery in Texas at the present time, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, described dysentery as being an infectious disease characterized by diarrhea, pain in the abdomen, and toxemia. It is caused by a specific bacteria or germ. These germs cause inflammation of the lining of the intestinal tract which produces pain throughout the abdomen and the discharge of many loose stools that frequently contain blood and mucus. Toxemia results from absorption of the poisonous substances produced by the germs.

"The germs gain entrance to the body through the mouth," Dr. Cox said, "and then make their way to the intestines in the same manner in which food does. When they reach the intestines they find conditions favorable to their growth, and there they establish themselves at the expense of the person infected and produce their harmful effects."

Dr. Cox warned that dysentery affects young children more often and more seriously than adults, frequently resulting fatally; however, he said, it may occur at any age. It is usually more prevalent during the summer season, and the great number of cases now being reported are unusual for spring.

"The germ is always expelled with the excreta of persons sick with dysentery and may continue to be expelled for some time after the patient recovers from the disease. These persons who still discharge the germs after they recover are called carriers, and they occur more frequently in this disease than in the majority of other infectious diseases.

"Food protection and adequate sanitary measures are more urgently needed now than ever before if we control the potential possibilities of epidemic dysentery in this state."

Miss Maxine Lane, who is employed in the office of the tax assessor and collector at Benjamin, was a business visitor here last Saturday.

Miss Jane Campbell spent the week end in Fort Worth, visiting her sister, Mrs. Duane Johnson, and her brother, Grayford Campbell, who is a student in the Masonic Home.

Jack Johnson, who is employed at the Baker-McCarty store, was in Haskell last Tuesday to take his first physical examination preparatory to entering the service.

"More to come." This was the warning to Hitler and Hirohito that employees of the Dallas Division of North American Aviation, Inc., painted on the first B-24 Liberator bomber which rolled this week from the assembly lines of the company's second plant at Dallas. The term was borrowed from the jargon of newspaper men who use it at the bottom of a page of copy when a story is unfinished. Lucille Kelly is holding the paint jar in the picture and C. H. Williams is putting the finishing touches on the sign. North American has been manufacturing TEXAN combat trainers in its initial plant at Dallas for nearly two years. It is also in the preliminary stages of turning out the famous P-51 Mustang fighter. The company is included in the B-24 program along with Consolidated, designer of the ship Ford and Douglas.

United States' Purchase of Autos Would Aid Taxpayers, Says Ickes

CIVILIAN automobiles immobilized because of gasoline rationing would be purchased by the Government to enable the owners to use the proceeds of such sales to pay their income taxes, according to a suggestion made by Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior and Petroleum Co-ordinator for National Defense. Mr. Ickes believes that such a plan would ease the strain on taxpayers' budgets and would enable the Government to accumulate cars and rubber tires for war purposes.

Mr. Ickes' suggestion is contained in an article in the April issue of Cosmopolitan Magazine in which he analyzes the current oil crisis. "Incidentally," writes Mr. Ickes, "I have been wondering if perhaps the Government might not make some arrangement for the purchase of those cars which are forced into retirement, paying the owners the current Blue Book value thereof instead of the low prices prevailing today in the secondhand market. Payment might be made in the form of some Treasury certificate that would be accepted on account of income taxes."

"Many car owners this year will be paying income taxes for the first time. When March fifteenth turns up on the calendar many may not know where to find the money to meet their obligations to the Government. In such contingency an unusable automobile, which is a considerable capital asset to most owners, would come in handy. The strain on the domestic budget would be lessened; the Treasury would get its money, and the Government would have an accumulation of cars and rubber tires for war purposes."

Mrs. Red Leathers and daughter, Brenda Kay, and Miss Myrtice Jones of Paducah visited with friends here the first of this week.

When life hangs by a wire!

IN HOSPITALS throughout West Texas (and close up to battle lines all over the world) a blue-white light blazes down on the tense little group. ... A suction machine hums quietly. ... Skillful fingers poise an electric knife. ... A human life hangs on the smooth, even flow of electric power.

Electric equipment of many kinds serves the modern hospital. Busy doctors and nurses use it every day for diagnosis and treatment, without even pausing to think of the constant supply of electricity that keeps it operating.

But electric power didn't just happen. The hard work, training and experience of West Texas Utilities men and women have made it dependable.

They've made it plentiful, too—so that West Texas communities have not been hindered by any power shortage while joining in the Nation's war effort. And they've made it cheap—so that the average West Texas home enjoys over twice as much electricity for the same money it paid about fifteen years ago.

These are the results of practical business management under public regulation—part of the system of business freedom in which millions of Americans have put their faith and their savings.

LET US USE TOTAQUINE

The use of quinine dates as far back as 1630, though it was not known as QUININE. It was discovered in Peru when a Peruvian native, seized with a violent fever, was completely relieved after drinking water from a pool into which a cinchona tree had fallen some time before. Although not named until 1742 it was used as a febrifuge and given the name of cinchona. However the alkaloid (known as quinine) was not identified until 1820 and then given the name of QUININE. The cinchona tree grows wild in the forests of Peru but has since been grown in certain areas of Europe and Asia, more especially in the Dutch East Indies. It is estimated that 90 percent of the world's supply of quinine comes from the Dutch East Indies, which was cut off by the Japanese in the spring of 1942. Now the use of QUININE in the United States of America is prohibited by law only in the treatment of malaria.

Now we are compelled to use TOTAQUINE. (Totaquine is made from the bark of a tree that grows in South America in great quantities) which is a mixture that contains quinine, cinchonine, quinidine and cinchonidine and its anti-malarial activity is almost as good, but not quite, as quinine. So lets all use TOTAQUINE and like it.

Southwestern Life Company Enjoys Steady Growth

Despite turbulent world conditions affecting all business, continued growth over previous years is recounted in the 40th annual report to policyholders of Southwestern Life Insurance company, made public here today by C. F. O'Donnell of Dallas, president.

Mr. O'Donnell expressed satisfaction with the exceptionally good production of the local agency, which he said had made an important contribution to the company's record for the past year.

Mr. I. C. Borden is the company's representative in Munday. The report covers the calendar year 1942, during which insurance in force was increased by $16,579,325, bringing the company's total to more than $421,000,000.

Assets of the company now total $388,428,972, a gain of more than $7,800,000 over 1941, and the company's surplus account advanced from $4,350,000 to $4,750,000 for the year.

The Southwestern Life Insurance company has its home office at Dallas, and confines its business to the State of Texas. Exclusive of United States government bonds, practically all of its investments are in Texas. Since its incorporation in 1903, the company has grown from a life insurance institution with $1,773,000 of insurance in force to take its place among the leading legal reserve life companies of the nation.

The 1942 financial report discloses numerous interesting data. The rate of interest earned during the period was 3.9 per cent. The market value of stocks and bonds at the close of the company's fiscal year on December 31, 1942, exceeded the book value used in the balance sheet by more than $3,200,000.

The company continued its record of carrying no real estate in excess of its current market value, and now has 52.16 per cent of its assets invested in United States, Texas state, county and municipal bonds.

In commenting upon the company's record for the past year, Mr. O'Donnell voiced praise for the men from Southwestern Life who have responded to the company's call to military service. "Approximately 25 per cent of the agency's force and more than 70 members of the home office personnel are now in uniform," he said. "Many of these are new on foreign soil, others in training, and still others preparing to enter the nation's service. The company is deeply proud of them, and wishes them a speedy and safe return to civil life."

That Southwestern Life is making a substantial contribution to the war effort is indicated, Mr. O'Donnell reported, in the fact that the company has invested more than $15,000,000 in United States government bonds since Pearl Harbor, and has pledged 100 per cent of its new premium income to investment in such bonds for the duration.

Motor Carriers May Be Leased

Common or contract motor carriers may be required to lease or rent their vehicles to private carriers if the Office of Defense Transportation should deem it advisable or necessary to the prosecution of the war or to the maintenance of essential civilian economy or in the public interest. An amendment to General Order No. 21 today increased ODT's power to order control over commercial motor vehicles transferred from one carrier to another.

The amendment was issued to enable ODT to arrange for fuller utilization of existing trucks and other commercial motor vehicles, Richard E. Wood, District Manager, ODT division of motor transport, explained. The order is originally written specifically exempted for-hire carriers from being required by ODT to lease or rent their vehicles to persons not engaged in transporting property for compensation.

As in the original order, the amendment provides that unless the interested carriers agree upon the amount of compensation to be paid for the use of any vehicle leased or rented to another carrier at ODT's direction, the amount will be fixed by the ODT.

Nearly 500 more cars of Texas livestock moved to market last January than in January, 1942, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, has reported. Livestock shipments for 1942 totaled 114,187 cars, as compared with 83,863 in 1941, the Bureau report showed.

He Fights On the Farm Front

Like thousands of other Texas farmers, J. Y. Martin, Tarrant county farmer living near Arlington, keeps his farm in the fight by working out a plan to produce more food this year than he grew last year. Here he's shown reporting how he expects to market nearly twice as much pork from his farm in '43 as he sold in 1942, and at least 25 percent more beef. He is feeding out 30 steers that soon will be ready for market, and he has 25 cows each with a calf by her side. Using soil and water conservation practices and operating under a planned production program, Martin produces all the corn, oats and grain sorghums his livestock need.

This week, more than 418,000 farmers and ranchers of Texas were busy snapping out Food for Freedom plans with their local USDA War Bonds. On each individual plan sheet, they were itemizing specific amounts of food, feed and fiber they could be depended on to produce this year.

Heaviest increases in Texas have been called for in pork, beef, milk, eggs, poultry, soybeans and peanuts.

Prevent Fire In Chick Brooders
AUSTIN.—Fire, says Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner, can defeat the purpose of the program to supplement our meat supply with poultry unless adequate safeguards are adopted to prevent fires from chicken brooders.

Hall noted an increase in the number of fires reported as a result of carelessness in operating baby chick brooders. Not only the loss of chicks and brooder equipment has been reported, but in most cases additional property loss has occurred.

Because they must be operated continuously, the very nature of chicken brooders make them a special hazard. Therefore, he cautioned, special care should be used in their operation.

"Whatever type of brooder equipment may be used," said Hall, "it is wise for us to observe the fundamental principle of cleanliness as an aid to fire prevention. Trash and combustible litter around any brooder, whether it is an oil or kerosene burner, electric, gas, or other type, invites the outbreak of fire."

The Commissioner suggests a frequent check of heat regulating devices, as well as careful handling and storing of all liquid fuels used for heating brooders.

Lieut. John C. Rice of Camp Shelby, Miss., came in the latter part of last week for a visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rice. Lieut. Rice was F. S. A. supervisor for this area when he entered the service.

Senior News

The Seniors are certainly proud of themselves. Yes sir, they've done it again. They won first place in buying defense stamps and bonds this week in high school, with a total of $76.00. That isn't bad but neither is it good, so come on Seniors, let's make our goal higher next week and reach it. We want Johnnie Doughboy to ride down the main street of Tokio in for a good grade.

Monday morning in English IV the Seniors recited poetry. Although most of them aren't very poetical, they will try anything or a good grade.

In bookkeeping class everyone is "racking" his brain trying to figure out "what" should go "where." But with Mr. Turner's help surely some of the class will learn what a journal is.

At last the new library books have arrived. And just in time, too. Maybe some of the Seniors can spend their time reading now, instead of talking to each other

Junior News

The Junior Class gave the assembly program recently and they have every reason to be proud of it. There was a skit by Bette Morris and Keith Cartwright. The octette and "Marching Along" and "It's the Little Things That Count." Jo Ann Rummell tap-danced and was accompanied by Mrs. Rummell. Then Billy Bowden of the grammar school played an accordion solo.

Now the class is quite busy working on plans for the banquet. It seems as if the Juniors are getting a shade behind on stamp and bond buying.

It has been overheard that Stephen has been holding hands in the show! How about it, Step. Hulen has been giving a mustache a certain touch. Martha has been acting so strange lately. Is it all that important? A certain Junior is so proud because he is an uncle.

Freshmen News

Don't be surprised if the freshmen girls come up with a new and becoming "hair-do" accentuated by a shell necklace. What the necklaces are made of is strictly the girl's business. First it was hair styles, then necklaces—what next?

The change in weather is bringing out a striking variation of spring dresses and sandals. Some of the girls admit, however, that their sandals were bought last year.

We wonder—What Easter is going to mean to Bobbie and Martha? Where Noraline was Sunday? What on earth happened to Junecore's desk, Monday? Martha Hanning Elected Chairman of Junior Victory Program.

The Junior Class of Munday high school met on Wednesday, March 3, and Martha Hanning was elected chairman of the Victory Program. Every student was anxious to do his part for the war effort, and each individual has started working on a Victory Project. With every member doing his part we hope to help increase our egg and poultry production, can more fruits and vegetables and also raise our dairy and milk production. The Junior Class has joined the Victory Program one-hundred per cent. Martha Hanning will keep a record of every student's work and at the end of the school year this work will be published. Munday schools have joined another wide program. All the students are going to buy enough bonds and stamps to buy a jeep. Martha Manning, Lola Jones, and Neva Gray were elected as leaders of the Junior Class. The drive will end on April 19, 1943.

Ideal Security Life Insurance Co. Has Phenominal Growth

W. H. LITTLEFIELD

In Anson there is a business that all Anson and Jones county should be proud of. That is Ideal Security Life Insurance Company.

Mr. Littlefield, Secretary-Treasurer has special reason to be proud this week, for his company's mortuary fund, from which death claims are paid, has now passed the fifty-four thousand dollar mark, a fact which testifies to the sound business policy under which the Ideal Security Life Insurance Company operates.

Before Mr. Littlefield got into the life insurance business, he was operating burial insurance companies in Jones and Haskell counties. This experience he credits with being responsible for his present success in the life insurance business.

Mr. Littlefield believes one can mix sentiment and sympathy with the life insurance business if careful in picking his insurance risks. His policy has been from the start to accept only good physical and moral risks.

This policy, he believes has enabled his company to build up one of the strongest reserves of any company of its kind in West Texas. "I have never believed," said Mr. Littlefield, "that it was fair to a good risk to take in poor risks. This always leads to a dissatisfied membership and a weak insurance policy."

The Ideal Security Life Insurance Company has worked out several conveniences for its members which Mr. Littlefield believes has had no small part in bringing about the company's success. One of these is the policy of paying death claims quickly. The company accepts "collect" telephone calls announcing the death of policy holders.

Another convenience is the arrangement made with local banks over the company's territory for members paying their monthly premiums at their home banks, from which death claims in that particular territory are paid.

One of the chief factors for his company's success according to Mr. Littlefield, is his consistent advertising in weekly newspapers over the territory in which the company operates. Practically every editor of these weekly newspapers are policy-holders in the company and have no hesitancy in advertising the soundness of the company to their many readers.

Undertakers, Mr. Littlefield pointed out, know the prompt payment policy of the company and are always willing to accept Ideal Security Company expenses without question.

The company does not boast of the large amount paid out in death claims, as is the custom of some companies, as the company has been most fortunate in having one of the lowest death rate per thousand policy holders of any like company—perhaps holding a state record of having paid the smallest percentage of mortuary funds in death claims of any company of its kind.

Highlights of Meat Rationing, To Begin March 29, Are Listed

DALLAS — Here are the highlights of the forthcoming meat rationing program which goes into effect March 29.

1. Beginning Monday, March 29, housewives will use the red stamps in Ration Book Two to get their family supplies of meats, edible fats and oils, butter, and canned fish.

2. Point values will be announced during the week of March 22.

3. These point values will be based on weight primarily, but with differences governed by supply, consumer preferences, and the edible content of the various cuts and products.

4. The official table of consumer point-values will list 150 meat items.

5. In general, the new rationing program will include:

All fresh, frozen, cured, smoked, and canned meats and meat products derived from beef, veal, lamb, mutton and pork, as well as variety meats and sausages. Canned fish and canned shellfish.

Most edible fats and oils, including butter, lard, margarine, shortening, salad oils, and cooking oils, excluding mayonnaise and salad dressing.

6. Retailers will be permitted to give "change" in ration stamps, using only the one-point red stamps.

7. During the first five weeks, each holder of Ration Book Two will have a basic allotment of 16 points per week.

8. Red stamps bearing the letter "A" will be valid during the first week. "B" stamps will be used the second week, and so on for five weeks.

9. Consumers will not be asked to declare the amount of the newly rationed foods on hand. This exemption includes fresh meats in frozen lockers.

10. Consumers will have complete freedom of choice in using their red stamps to buy any one of the rationed foods.

11. Retailers will collect points from the outset of the program, March 29, but will not give up points to their wholesale suppliers until April 11.

12. The two-week "point holiday" extends all through the meat trades, permitting both wholesalers and retailers to maintain sizeable inventories and build up a "working capital" of points.

13. Wholesalers and retailers will register with local boards during the period May 3-14, and will be given an allowable inventory stated in points.

14. A separate table of "trade" points will be used by the retailer, with lower point values which allow for trimming, waste, and shrinkage depending upon the type of meat.

15. Cuts having a large amount of bone and fat will have lower point values than those which are more completely edible.

16. Point values of brains, kidneys, hearts, etc., also will be lower because these parts are more perishable.

17. The meat rationing program makes no provision for pet rations.

18. At least one official list of point values must be posted in each store. In addition, point values must be posted at or near the place where the rationed items themselves are sold.

Miss Doris Howell of Nocona visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Howell, and with other relatives here over the week end.

Minister and Mrs. Carl A. Collins had as their week end guests their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Bryan and Mr. Bryan's sister, Miss Sue Bryan, all of Fort Worth. They returned to Fort Worth Monday afternoon.

Mrs. W. M. Mayo and Mrs. Wade Mahan spent Sunday and Monday in Wichita Falls, attending the bedside of Mr. Mayo, who is in a hospital there. Mr. Mayo submitted to a major operation last Monday morning. Reports are that he is doing as well as can be expected.

The late Hick Halcomb, a picturesque individual if there ever was one (and a good friend of mine), used to tell about a candidate for district attorney who came to him for advice in a hard-fought campaign. Hick said, "Why don't you ask your opponent where he was on the night of March 19, 1936?" The candidate inquired, "But where was he?" Hick replied, "Thunder, I don't know—but he won't remember, either!"

Nomination for the world's worst joke:
He was a musician—but his monkey died.

The loan shark problem in Texas is nearer solution as the result of a unanimous report by a House of Representatives committee in favor of Rep. W. W. Bridges' constitutional amendment giving the legislature authority to pass a statute regulating the small loan business. Most states have enacted such a statute but a constitutional amendment here is necessary first. Then individuals needing small, personal loans will not have to pay 240 per cent interest or more to foreign-owned chains that drain Texas of $30,000,000 a year in extortionate interest. Soldiers, sailors and war plant workers are being victimized and public sentiment is strongly in favor of ending this vicious, unpatriotic racket.

Buck Bailey is, and has been for years, line coach of Washington State. When I knew him, he was a young athlete, starring as catcher of the Brady baseball team a long time ago. Managing the club was Bert Maxwell, who had pitched for Brooklyn. Naturally all the players had a profound respect for the ability of the former big leaguer—but Buck went beyond this and believed implicitly anything that Maxwell might say so long as the manager kept a straight face.

Former Rep. Bailey Jones of Austin (who was on the Brady team) relates that one day as the club came in for its last time at bat, Brady was two runs behind and Buck Bailey said, "Well, coach, it looks like they've got us." Maxwell said solemnly, "Not at all—Jack Hampton is going to lead off with a single; Bailey Jones will hit a double and then you'll bring them both in with a home run, giving us three scores and the ball game."

Buck said, "That would do it all right."

Hampton didn't open the inning with a single but he did get a base on balls, and that amounted to the same thing. Jones smashed a two-bagger and there were two runners on base, just as Manager Maxwell had said. Buck strode to the plate, swinging three bats; tossed two of the sticks aside; planted his feet firmly, swung at the first pitch—and knocked it over the fence to score three runs and win the old ball game.

As Buck completed his trot around the bases, he looked over to the bench and yelled, "Well, Coach, it worked, didn't it?"

Lee Haymes was a business visitor in Wichita Falls last Saturday.

Beans And Peas For Planting Are Ration Free

Dried beans, peas and lentils may be sold for planting purposes point-free if processors will simply package and label such seeds, W. H. Atkeison, chairman of the Knox County War Price and Rationing Board, announced today.

All beans, lentils and peas which have been treated with any substances rendering them unfit for human consumption must be so labeled and these also may be transferred point-free.

OPA regulations will be met by attaching the following label to the package: "For seed only. Not for human consumption. Labeled and packaged in compliance with applicable Federal and State seed laws."

"This label may be in the form of a tag, rubber stamps, or ink marking on the package," Mr. Atkeison explained.

"If a seller's points are depleted as the result of such sales or transfers, application may be made to the State or District OPA office for adjustment of point inventory on OPA Form R-315, stating the quantities so transferred and the names of the transferees," Mr. Atkeison added. "Applications for points lost as the result of such sales or transfers should state that these products were transferred for planting purposes only."

Products of the rice cleaning and polishing industry in Texas were valued at $11,874,619 in 1940, a study of census data, compiled by Dr. A. B. Cox, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, shows. That the industry is still gaining today is evidenced by increased acreage and rice production during 1941 and 1942, Dr. Cox has pointed out.

From the college stage to a professional role is the "leap" made by Robert Harris, February graduate of the University of Texas. Harris tried out with the company of Ethel Barrymore, now on tour in "The Corn is Green," when the show was in Austin, and a few weeks later received a call to join the company.

With the coming of warm weather, our primary duty will be to fill our storage tanks with fuel oil against the demands of next winter. This duty will be even more imperative than it was last summer. The use of gasoline save for the most essential purposes is out for some time to come!

Mr. Ickes gives a simple, lucid explanation of the oil problem and its importance to the United Nations in the current global conflict. In commenting on any possible fuel shortage, Mr. Ickes says: "I am not depending upon the evaporation of the Nazi oil supply to end the war soon, and I wouldn't advise anyone else to do so."

Mr. Ickes cautions Americans to expect a continued tightness in the gasoline situation.

"The East Coast will be called upon for more and more supplies for ourselves and for our Allies," says Mr. Ickes, "not only in North Africa, but wherever else they may be fighting like Titans against the Huns. And barring discoveries of important pools that have not yet been made, California is faced with the prospect of having to import oil in the not far distant future. This would institute a further drain upon our Eastern and mid-continent supplies."

Gasoline Rationing Must Continue, Warns Ickes

THERE will be no relaxing of gasoline rationing restrictions for pleasure driving this year.

Indeed the increasing consumption of gasoline and fuel oil by the military and war industry is draining our petroleum reserves faster than we have been replacing them.

These and other enlightening facts about the oil situation are discussed by Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior and Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, in the April issue of Cosmopolitan Magazine.

"I wish I could make a prediction with respect to gasoline that would be popular, but I cannot," writes Mr. Ickes.
