Texas League Curtails Events Among Schools

AUSTIN — With more than a thousand Texas rural schools out of business "for the duration," the few hundred which can muster sponsors and contestants for competition in the University of Texas Interscholastic League have been merged into Conference B, League Director Roy Bedichek announced here this week.

War conditions have made necessary a drastic revision of the League's set up, Bedichek pointed out, in order to curtail travel for the 350,000 school boys and girls who are starters in the 1943-44 tournaments.

District meets have been abolished this fall, following the elimination of county meets last year, and instead a pattern of "conference meets" and—in some cases—"area meets" has been substituted. Grade schools have been set up in a separate "grade school conference," and will plan their own conference meets close to home.

The new set-up calls for 21 conference meets in which each school will compete with other schools of its own size in a small compact geographical locality for AA schools (those with more than 500 scholastic population), 32 for A schools (200-500 enrollment), and 62 for B schools (less than 200 enrollment).

Winners of the AA conference meets will go direct to the regional meets, but in the populous regions, one or more "area meets" will be interposed to weed out contestants. No area meets will be held in the thinly-populated sections of the state, such as region 7 centering at Kingsville and region 8, centering at El Paso.

Team games such as volley-ball, playground baseball, junior track and field will be emphasized this year, while music memory, picture memory, Three-R and rural pentathlon contests have been dropped.

In recognition of the new wartime stress on mathematics, the "number sense" contest has been opened to high schools, and a few new slide-rule contests have been created.

The Texas League—largest in the nation—is now entering its 34th year under sponsorship of the University of Texas Division of Extension.

Dist. Masonic Meet Is Held At Goree Tuesday

Sixty-one Masons, representing 12 Masonic Lodges, gathered at the school gymnasium in Goree last Tuesday night for the quarterly meeting of the 91st District Masonic Association.

A Christmas dinner, consisting of chicken and dressing and all the fixings, was served at 6:30 p. m., by members of the Homemaking Class of Goree high school. Following the dinner, a Master Mason's lodge was opened by officers of the Goree lodge, and the meeting was turned over to R. J. Paxton of Haskell, association president, for business of the association. The program consisted of conferring the master's degree upon D. E. Whitworth of Munday, with the degree team being selected from lodges over the district.

Goree, Seymour and Munday lodges were hosts for this meeting. Lodges over the district which were represented at the meeting are Benjamin, Knox City, Rule, Haskell, Woodson, Seymour, Goree and Munday. In addition several visitors were present from lodges outside the district.

Benjamin, Knox City and Rochester will be hosts for the March meeting, the place of meeting to be decided by the host lodges.

Lowell Patterson Tells Of Few Hours As Prisoner Of Germans

Lowell Patterson, who is serving in the U. S. forces in Italy, tells a story of his capture by the Germans in the fighting in Italy. The following letter was written his sister, S-Sgt. Johnnie M. Patterson, who is serving the WAC at Daytona Beach, Fla. Lowell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Patterson of Munday.

Italy, Nov. 13, 1943.
Dearest Johnnie:
I just received a nice letter from you. It's the one you wrote while you were home. You said that I had all in suspense; well, I just couldn't write in combat. I've had very little time to write since I was pulled back out of the front lines.

Johnnie, maybe you would like to know what combat experience I've had. Well, to begin with, the first morning on the beach I was captured by the Germans. I guess I had been on the beach an hour before I was captured. Some German tanks came through where I was, with a lot of German infantry soldiers behind. I was lucky enough to not get run over by the tanks, as some of the boys were. After the tanks went through, I was captured by the Germans behind the tanks. I was then put at the rear of the Germans, dodging the fire from my own troops. I was out there on my own, under our own navy fire. The navy's big shells were landing within ten to twenty feet of me, and that is too much for me. I don't know how I stayed there without getting hurt.

I was captured about six o'clock in the morning, and I returned to my company about four that afternoon. The navy's fire finally ran all the Germans and tanks away from the spot where I was.

I saw more combat after that, but it didn't scare me as bad. I have a lot more good stories, but I'll tell them later, maybe when I get home. They only let me talk of my own experiences now, anyway.

Johnnie, as soon as you hear from Lee G., please let me know his address. I just hope he never has any combat experience. It is bad on clothes.

Johnnie, I don't know much more to say. Oh, yes, since I'm not where I can get even a Christmas card, don't expect anything from me. I don't think you did anyway. I know I don't expect anything from you. But here is hoping you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Love,
Lowell

WAR WORKERS—BUT

It was rather discouraging to learn last week, from the Gallup Poll, that though the great majority of workers in war industries are willing to work at least 48 hours a week most of them want overtime pay for anything over 40 hours.

This attitude contradicts the familiar contention that the reason for paying time and a half for hours over forty is to discourage longer work weeks. That may have been a plausible reason some years ago, but there is no question in anybody's mind today of the need for a longer work week.

Now it becomes evident, from war workers own statements, that the issue involved is merely the demand for larger wages and nothing more.

INDUSTRY CONSOLIDATES ITS FORCES

Just as military parades constitute a show of strength, so does a gathering of the "generals" of the production front present to this nation and others, both for and against us, proof that American industry, like the Army and the Navy, is unified and strong.

The War Congress of American Industry, meeting in New York this week under the auspices of the National Association of Manufacturers, is the largest gathering that has ever been held of the men who help guide the destinies of the war by giving their country the benefit of their skill at a time when it is most needed.

These men and women came armed; but it was not with guns, it was with ideas and questions. They gathered to prove to Hitler and his "prophets" that their customers, the American public, can do without pleasure cars and washing machines. That these manufacturers are engaged in war production—most of them employing the mass-production methods so typically American—is a sign that one phase of the battle has been won.

Industrial management gathered, not to haggle over terms or to seek selfish advantages, but to pledge itself to greater efforts and sacrifices so that in the end that free enterprise system which Hitler ridiculed, will, after the war, be restored.

"PEACE IN OUR TIME"

When the late prime minister of England, Neville Chamberlain, returned home from a conference with Hitler which sanctioned the dismemberment of Czechoslovakia, and brought with him the famous "peace in our time" message, a few people were not fooled. It was the prelude to war. Justice and the government of a great nation had bowed under the threat of brute force. A day of reckoning was inevitable.

Those who criticized the course of Britain in these dark days can now observe a parallel right here in our own country, relative to our domestic affairs. For years our government has failed to squarely face inflation and labor problems, just as Britain failed to face the growing might of Hitler. Our government, after a long record of silent encouragement of labor lawlessness, delegated to a single agency, the War Labor Board, the responsibility of restraining labor organizations that had learned the effectiveness of brute force—strikes. How closely this parallels the action of the British government, when after years of bungling it expected one man to stop a roaring tiger, with an umbrella.

The War Labor Board could not stem the tide. The coal miners struck and compelled the government to seize the coal mines and give in to their wage demands. In the expediency of the moment, the rights of the coal mine owners were sacrificed, even as the rights of small nations were sacrificed at the whim of Hitler. The War Labor Board confirmed a "peace in our time" wage contract made under a threat of force with which the government was unprepared to cope. In approving the contract, the industry members of the WLB warned: "We know that the circumstances of the last several months have raised around this contract many far-reaching questions of government policy. These larger questions of government policy, the solution of which unhappily has been too long deferred, will now, we hope, be faced and solved."

One public member of the War Labor Board, Wayne L. Morse, dissented from the position the Board took with the comment that: "It is contrary to sound public policy for the War Labor Board to approve this agreement, which was negotiated under the duress of a strike." Here again our temporizing with tyranny ominously parallels that of England in her dark days when a few courageous souls bucked the tide of popular sentiment—when peace at any price "in our time" was more valued than the maintenance of justice and national integrity.

The milk production problem began when the government began to bait farm and dairy hands with "easier living" jobs with the WPA and other so-called reforms of the new order. It grew worse when the military draft authorities paid no attention to farm needs and took countless thousands of farm and dairy helpers into the service. It got worse when the wage and hour authorities permitted wages and short working days in war plants to go beyond reasonable bounds, while nothing was done to induce the remaining few trained hands to stay on the farm. The problem became still more severe as the OPA put its finger in the milk business.—Oklahoma City Times.

THE GOAL IS THE SAME

About the only good things that can be said for any war, were said last week at the National Chemical Exposition in Chicago. There was exhibited at this wonderland of industrial development a wide variety of "war babies," war-opportunity products which will alter drastically the economics not only of the chemical industry but of the many industries dependent upon chemical research.

It is significant too that improvements and inventions have not been wholly confined to arms and armament although most of our efforts are in that direction. Products are being produced more cheaply, as industry, working with large war orders, carries to new heights the miracles of mass production techniques. Time is at a premium during a war, and industrial research, meeting the requirements of the day, must accelerate its pace as never before.

Many civilian products have come forth in industry's tireless search for substitutes as priorities curtail regular production.

Most things are best judged under duress, and American industry has proved in these trying times that, although burdened with war orders, its aim is still to make life in the American home and office and factory as easy and pleasant as possible for all people in good times or bad.

CALL US MONDAY

The following is an episode from the book, "That None Shall Die," as related in Nation's Business. It vividly portrays what happens when political red tape, which is inherent in socialized medicine, is allowed to infringe on the medical profession:

"A young doctor has been called late at night to see a patient with lobar pneumonia. The family tells him candidly they have no money. It proves to be a desperate case. He calls the city hospital.

"Is the man a resident?"

"No, he's an unemployed worker here on a visit."

"Then, that rules him out. We're not allowed to take out of town cases."

"Next, the doctor calls the director of the socialized welfare service, asks if she can hospitalize his patient.

"Perhaps we can arrange it. If you'll give me the name and address, I'll put an investigator on it Monday."

"Monday! He'll be dead by Monday!"

"Back at the bedside the doctor decides that pneumonia serum combined with sulfapyridine is the one chance of saving the sick man. But they cost money. He dials the social service director again, 'I've typed this patient and find it's Type I pneumococcus. Can you arrange to finance the purchase of serum for him?"

"I'm sorry, doctor," the impersonal voice drones, "the Government makes no provision for the purchase of serum by our department. Besides, we cannot consider helping any case without the proper investigation. Perhaps if you can call us Monday. . . ."

"The doctor cut the Gordian knot of social medicine by buying the serum himself and administering it."

(3) This close-up of the mine shows the "booby-trap" underneath, consisting of a brass pull-igniter attached beneath the mine, and staked to the ground with fine wires. (4) Skilled hands remove the pull-igniter and go to work on the wire attached to the stake.

(5) Harmless now, the mine is held up for display. About 350 pounds of pressure are necessary to set off such a mine as this.

CANADIANS and German forces have fought, thus far anyway, a "battle of engineers." Canadians spearheading the Eighth Army's advance have been slowed down, but never actually stopped, by the clever work of the Nazi demolition experts and by clever mine-laying. The series of pictures illustrates how a mine is first discovered, then removed and finally dealt with. Spr. Louis Gillescuttee and Spr. N. Paasch are shown as they detect and handle these deadly souvenirs which retreating German troops leave. Units such as these two men precede the advance of infantry and tank corps.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN — With the tremendous drain on the medical profession in response to the needs of the armed forces, there is a greater necessity now than ever before for maintaining good health and avoiding any risks which might result in needless calls on the services of doctors.

The shortage in medical attention which is now available to the public will be even greater before the end of the coming year, since more and more doctors are being taken into the service and many of those remaining are not in active practice due to advanced age, teaching, or public health activities, or full-time employment in industry. This situation develops a problem for the practicing physicians who will remain at home, the solution of which to some extent will be in the hands of the general public, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"There is no desire to imply that the family physician, now or later, not be summoned except in dire need," Dr. Cox said. "In fact, there is a greater reason than ever before to seek his advice on living habits, to have him give a thorough periodic check-up, and to have him treat conditions promptly, which, if disregarded, are apt to cause more serious trouble later on. The only point being emphasized is that one should not attempt thoughtlessly to consume the doctor's valuable time and energy by insisting that he make a home call when an office visit or suggestions over the telephone might suffice.

"While in cities, lack of medical service has not as yet reached an acute state, there are already rural sections feeling the pinch. It follows that everyone, both for his own and his country's sake should live sensibly to the end that maximum health may be attained, and avoidable home medical service be eliminated.

"In this connection, the following rules, among others, may be suggested: Eat nutritious foods. Obtain sufficient rest at night. Shun debilitating and exhausting habits. Keep the use of stimulants of all kinds within sensible bounds. Exercise daily. Detour worry as much as possible."

Mrs. Lanny Melton of Benjamin was here one day last week, visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

Gems Of Thought

CHRISTIAN BROTHERHOOD

The brotherhood of man is an integral part of Christianity no less than the Fatherhood of God; and to deny the one is no less infidel than to deny the other.—Lynman Abbott.

For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one; for which cause he (Jesus) is not ashamed to call them brethren.—Hebrews 2:3.

The scientific unity which exists between God and man must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be universally done.—Mary Baker Eddy.

The only hope of avoiding war is to accept Christianity as a way of life, not only in our private affairs, but in all public and international contacts.—Cannon Sheppard.

Our doctrine of equality and liberty and humanity comes from our belief in the brotherhood of man, through the fatherhood of God.—Calvin Coolidge.

The crest and crowning of all good, Life's final star, is Brotherhood.—Edwin Markham.

Food Wasted In Homes of County Would Feed Army

Knox county's 2,555 housewives could feed 694 soldiers for a year with the food wasted annually in homes of the county, an official of the county's leading food distributor estimated today.

This amazing figure is based on accurate government statistics which indicate that at least 1,350, 155 pounds of food are wasted annually in 347 county homes, according to Harvey A. Baum, head of A & P Tea Company's produce-buying operations.

"Food is a munition of war and everyone must fight waste of it now," Baum pointed out. "Efficient food producers, processors and distributors have worked for years to reduce waste. Our company, for example, has cut waste and spoilage on perishable fruits and vegetables by 50 per cent during the past 20 years," he added. "Now the government is urging a similar war on food waste in the home."

Secret Service Warns To Watch Check Forgers

Chief of Police E. Y. Johnson announced today that the United States Secret Service at Dallas again warns persons in this vicinity who receive or cash checks to be watchful for mail thieves and forgers, as many allowance and allotment checks are going astray and are being cashed on forged endorsements. Chief Johnson and the Secret Service urge that the following rules be observed:

To Those Who Receive Checks
 1. Have a good, deep mail box. Have your name clearly printed on it. KEEP IT LOCKED.

2. Whenever possible, have your mail carrier deliver checks in person rather than to your box.

3. Never endorse a check until you are actually in the presence of the person who will cash it.

4. Cash your check at the same place each month. Cash it yourself! Don't send children to cash checks! This encourages juvenile delinquency.

5. If you change your address, notify the Post Office immediately.

6. Do not fold, pin or mutilate allotment or allowance checks!

To Those Who Cash Checks
 1. Know your endorser!

2. Ask for positive identification. Before you cash a check, ask yourself this question—"If this check is returned, can I find the person who gave it to me?"

3. Never cash a check already endorsed. Have it endorsed again in your presence.

4. Require that all employees who cash checks shall initial them.

The Secret Service has for some years been engaged in a program of Crime Prevention. In 1938 they began a campaign known as "Know Your Money" and since then counterfeiting has dropped 97 per cent.

In addition to the great reduction in counterfeiting, the campaign has helped a great deal to keep down juvenile delinquency. Since many offenders in check cases are juveniles, the Secret Service is not only hopeful that their present campaign of "Know Your Endorsers" will save the taxpayers money in reduced investigative time, and expense of keeping prisoners in penitentiaries, but will help keep juveniles out of trouble.

Also, because of the effect on morale of the armed forces, the government is extremely anxious that no allotment or allowance check be delayed even one day, and Chief Johnson states that every effort will be made to make this effort successful here.

OCD Directors Meet

State directors of Civilian Defense of 30 states are meeting in St. Louis this week to formulate a policy shifting the emphasis on civilian defense activities from defensive to offensive operations for the duration of the war. These directors will determine specific programs to be adopted.

Mrs. Barton Carl spent the week end, visiting with relatives and friends in Baird.

Most Cottage Cheese Rationed
 Practically all creamed cottage cheese is under rationing because brown stamps now are required for this type of cheese containing 4 per cent or more butterfat, OPA pointed out. Previously, only creamed cottage cheese with a butterfat content of more than 5 per cent had been rationed under the meats-fats-cheese program.

Misses Evelyn McGraw and Patsy Ruth Mitchell, who was home from Spar, were visitors in Haskell last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Claburn were business visitors in Fort Worth over the week end.

SECOND CHRISTMAS AFTER BATAAN...

Make it a War Bond Christmas

They are hoping for... praying for... FREEDOM not "four freedoms" or "five freedoms" or even "seven freedoms" but for the freedom of the American way of life. The freedom to go and come as they please. The freedom to work and the right to enjoy the fruits of their labors. The freedom to save, to invest, and to accumulate the rewards of private enterprise, of personal endeavor in order that they and their posterity may continue the American way of life.

An extra War Bond this Christmas will hasten the day when their prayers will be answered. A War Bond for Christmas helps three ways... it buys the material necessary to liberate those who fought for us... it is a present which will increase in value until the time they come home... it is a present which will help to conserve the freedom they suffer for.

 How many EXTRA War Bonds are YOU buying this Christmas?

These ladies had just returned from Austin, where they attended the 46th annual convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Susan Mahan Is Honored Thursday On Her Birthday

By Wade T. Mahan

Susan was two years old Thursday, December 9th. Susans Mother arranged a birthday party in her honor on that date, and I believe she was almost as excited as I was on the same date two years ago. Her little friends who called and brought gifts were John Walter and Julie Massey, Melissa Lee, Sandra Sue Blacklock, Gayle Littlefield, and Sharon Turner of Goree.

The birthday cake, made by Mrs. W. A. Baker, (and wouldn't it be interesting to know just how many Munday youngsters have thrilled to the savor of her cakes, cookies and delicacies down through the years) was frosted in white, with that pink toothpaste-looking stuff on it making the words, "Happy Birthday Susan." I would like to have kept it always as a reminder of my daughter's second birthday and her first party, but the kids didn't seem to feel much sentiment toward it. In fact, I would say that their sentiment was far excelled by their appetites.

Punch was served with the cake and from the second helpings I wouldn't be surprised if sundry Munday youngsters were treated for tummy-ache during the night of the 9th.

Wade Tanner Jr. (that's our youngest child) was also present and he doesn't know until yet that the party was not entirely in his honor.

Those present for appeasement purposes, had any difficulties come up among these Tom Thumb socialites, were the mothers of the above named youngsters, and Miss Elizabeth Turner and Miss Sarah Reeves of Dallas. The party began at 4:30 p. m. and ended when the mothers decided that enough of a good thing was enough.

Hefner H. D. Club Meets With Mrs. D. Jones Tuesday

Members of the Hefner Home Demonstration Club met on Tuesday, December 7, in the home of Mrs. Dibriel Jones for their regular meeting.

After all old and new business were discussed, arrangements were made for the annual Christmas tree and party, which will be at 2 p. m., December 16, at the home of Mrs. J. T. Murdock.

All members are requested to be present at this last meeting for 1943.

SOLDIER RECEIVES JOYOUS WELCOME HOME

A joyous welcome was given Pvt. and Mrs. J. C. Floyd of San Francisco, Calif., last Monday evening when they arrived at Knox City, in the home of J. C.'s mother, Mrs. Bee Frazure. Those to greet the soldier and his wife were his mother, grandmother, Mrs. Jess Snelson; Mrs. Loyd Kilgore and family of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hodges and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lorance Robinson and family, all of Lamesa; Mrs. Edward Burns and son, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Bowen and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lain and family, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Stubblefield and family, of Munday; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Floyd and daughter of Benjamin.

Christmas Party Held Monday By Guild Members

Members of the Wesleyan Service Guild held their annual Christmas party last Monday night in the home of the president, Mrs. L. L. Womble, with Mrs. O. H. Spann and Miss Merle Dingus as co-hostesses. A delicious Christmas dinner was served.

An interesting Christmas program was given, with Mrs. C. P. Baker and Mrs. Spann taking parts, and the members singing several Christmas carols.

Names had been drawn prior to the meeting, and during the social hour gifts were distributed from the beautifully decorated Christmas tree.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. J. W. Roberts and Mrs. Travis Lee. Members included Meses. Luther Kirk, M. F. Billingsley, C. P. Baker, Aaron Edgar, Joe Bailey King, O. H. Spann, L. L. Womble, Joel Massey and Misses Merle Dingus and Ruth Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell Burton and Nina Sue of Hamlin and Lieut. Billy Joe Burton visited W. T. Burton and other relatives here Sunday. Billy Joe received his wings and commission as second lieutenant on December 5 at Foster Field, Texas.

Methodist W.S.C.S Meets Monday At Local Church

Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service met last Monday afternoon at the Methodist church, at which time Rev. Luther Kirk had charge of the installation of officers for the new year.

The colored women and girls helped with the program by talking of their work and singing a quartet. The colored children sang a quartet, Fanny Johnson told of their work, and the teacher, Mabel Wellington gave a talk on colored education.

Others on the program were Mrs. R. L. Kirk, Mrs. G. R. Eiland, Mrs. Oscar Spann, May Downey and Mrs. E. E. Lowe.

Mrs. Ben Guinn returned home last Friday from Fort Worth, where she visited her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Burnett and children, for several days. Mr. Burnett, who is serving as a pharmacist in the navy, received orders to report in San Pedro, Calif., for service aboard ship. He left Fort Worth on December 7th.

Mrs. Helen Snallum came in Tuesday after spending six weeks with her husband who is stationed at Corpus Christi and serving in the navy.

Our reporters seem to have been a little forgetful last week and we failed to have an article in the paper but we hope you will all enjoy it this week.

The Editor.

Freshman News

The Freshman girls made cookies in Home Economics last Friday. They certainly were good; if you don't believe us ask the Sophomore class.

Our class had a theatre party Tuesday night. We all enjoyed the show and we wish to thank the owners of the cars we used.

We were sorry that some of our class were absent last week because of the rain. We are glad to have them back this week. We hope Jennie Jones got to see Santa in Wichita although we missed her very much.

Sophomore News

The Sophomores certainly are glad they can hear Christmas bells again. We are all good boys and girls and study hard so we know old Saint Nick won't forget us; do you think Bro. Griffin?

In English, we are studying sentence punctuation which isn't so very hard. In history, we are studying the rise of Christianity which we find rather intriguing.

All the Sophs are here this week except Wanda and we hope she will be here soon.

Junior Report

The Juniors were pleased with the results of the ball games with Munday last Friday night. Three of our volleyball boys were members of our class.

We've been working hard this week and last on the "Short Story" in English. By the time this comes out we will have handed in some very interesting short stories of around fifteen or sixteen pages. Where do they get the name short stories?

Senior Report

Since exam week is over and the Seniors have received their report cards and peeped at them with hesitation, we are ready to settle down in our old rut and—study??

In English, we are studying poetry and writing limericks and ballads. Here is a sample of our work:

By Ellen Williams

There was a young man named DeWightly,

Whose wife flirted morn, noon, and nightly,

The poor man said dear, dear,

I would feign interfere

If I knew how to do it politely.

By Emogene

There was a young lady from Cheyenne,

Who decided to look for a man,

She found a lad

Like a cowboy clad

And now he goes to "Shot-em-ups"

with Johnny Spann.

We are now taking up the study of the parts of the sentence.

Our chemistry class has been studying elements and trying to concentrate on assembling them in families. So far we have studied about the Chlorine and the Nitrogen-Phosphorus group. We have learned more facts about the periodic table and how to interpret and use it. The periodic law is really helpful in time of need. This week we are working in the laboratory on some interesting experiments.

In government, the Seniors have learned all about the presidential office and the president's powers and duties. Believe me, some of our class members may have the honor of being our future president. How about that, Preacher? The Senior class is very excited about the planning of a Christmas party and drew names Monday. We haven't completely decided upon the date of this social but it will probably be in full swing sometime next week at Clydeen's home. Further details will be planned and decided upon this week.

Senior Life

Another of our Senior classmates, Billie Felton Hendrix, was born at Hefner on February 4th, 1927. He started his schooling there but only went one year. Bill joined our class here in the second grade and has continued his education as a faithful member.

Billie is rather industrious, always willing to help or do anything for kindness. He takes an active part in school activities and has been a member of the 4-H Club several years. He is also a popular member of the younger set, especially around Munday.

Outstanding favorites are: Color—Blue. Hobby—Drawing airplanes. Teacher—All of them. Song—Chattanooga Choo-Choo. Name—Sue.

Although Billie is rather uncertain about his future at the present, we take for granted that he will join the Air Corps, but whatever his plans may be, the Senior class wish him the best of luck.

Sports Report

By Cieta and Bobbie

The sports of Goree high school opened with a bang in the previous week. The basketball and volleyball teams both have been lucky. Their first basketball game was played at Bomarton December 3, with a victorious winning. On December tenth a game was played with Munday with Goree winning in both volleyball and basketball. We hope we can keep this luck up for the rest of the season. We are entering in a tournament at Sunset Friday and Saturday. Let's all hope for the best.

Social News

Thursday, December ninth, the Junior class was entertained with a party in the home of Miss Mary Jo Arnold. Monopoly and other table games were played and then the entire party tried their luck at skating. Immediately following the skating session they returned to Mary Jo's home and delicious refreshments, ice cream and cookies, were served to Misses Radene Hutchens, Barbara Jean Barger, Irene Vaughn, and the hostess; and Messrs. Toby Lane and Dalton Jones.

Due to bad weather there was only six present but everybody reported a nice time.

Dearest Santa: We are two blonde headed, blue-eyed little girls who go to school and study very hard—result—a straight A card.

Don't forget our service men and most of all don't forget us. Thanks, Emogene and Neoma.

Mrs. J. A. Wiggins and Mrs. L. A. Jungman were business visitors in Abilene last Wednesday.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

BILLY MITCHELL WRITES FROM THE PACIFIC

The following is a letter which Pfc. William R. Mitchell, who is serving in the Marines, wrote his family recently:

In the Pacific, Nov. 25, 1943.

Dearest Family:

Just to let you know I am alright, I thought I would write you a few lines. The last letter that I wrote you were on our way to the Gilbert Islands. The islands belong to us now, and we are on a crowded troop transport. But it isn't so bad, and we had a swell Thanksgiving dinner here today, and it was really something extra.

The taking of the Gilberts was a very rough campaign, and it was a hell of a battle. But I guess you have already read about it in the newspapers. I didn't get a scratch out of the thing, but I consider myself very lucky, if you know what I mean.

I would certainly like to see all of you, but I guess it will be quite a while before I get home. I haven't received any mail in quite a while, but I imagine the next mail call I will get my watch and several letters, also.

I was at (censored). I got the letter from Daddy wanting to know where I was and I told you where I had been previous to that, but I cannot tell you where we are going now, but it won't be a bad place, I am sure. I sent you and a few others around home some Christmas cards, and I hope you will like them, even though they are typed.

I haven't received the pictures yet, but will probably get them when I get my watch. Well, I will sign off now and try to write more often even though it is about the same thing every time.

Love,

Pfc. William R. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith, Jr., are in Temple this week, where Arthur is undergoing treatment at the Temple hospital. They expect to return home the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lawson and children, Bobby and Sue, visited with relatives in Stamford last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Eiland visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Eiland of Lamesa over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Qualls of Benjamin were here Saturday to visit with friends and attend to business matters.

Mrs. Carl Jungman and Mrs. Aaron Edgar were business visitors in Abilene last Wednesday.

P. S.—I am from New York, and they are doing their part also. Keep up the good work.

Activities of Colored People

Rev. L. L. Taylor of Stamford was here the first Sunday at the Church of God in Christ, of which he is pastor.

We wish to thank Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. Buell Bowden for the things they gave in the rummage sale for our church.

Rev. Meadows was in his post last Sunday at West Beulah Baptist church. The mission moves along nicely with Mrs. Fannie Johnson as president.

The hen given away by the P. T. A. was won by Mrs. Effie Lewis. Simon Williams sold the most tickets for the P. T. A.

John Word Jr. left last week for Los Angeles, Calif.

NOTICE

CITY ASKS FOR COOPERATION ON PARKING

The City Council is asking the cooperation of everyone in solving parking troubles. In order that there may be more space available for customers to park, all merchants and clerks are asked to park their cars in the alley (or upon vacant lots, on Saturdays or busy days. Everyone is asked not to double park.

Nothing is so aggravating as to start to back out from the curb and find that a car has been left behind you with the brake on and the car locked and the owner gone. Of course it is permissible to park long enough in front of a store to get goods which you have bought, but if possible leave someone in the car that can move it in case another car wishes to back out.

Soldier Thanks Mrs. Holler For Soldier's Kit

Following is a letter which Mrs. Earl Holler of Munday received from Sgt. A. F. Rocca, expressing his thanks for the kit bag which he received:

Somewhere in New Guinea.

Dear Mrs. Holler:

You don't know me, but still since I received the bag of toilet articles, I can't help wishing I knew you better. You will never know how much us fellows really used the gifts we received from the women of the Red Cross. This paper isn't long enough for me to express my thanks, Mrs. (Mom) Holler, now I know how my mother feels when she does her part making soldiers feel like the people back home appreciate us.

I will close this letter with many, many thanks, and God bless you for all your worthy deeds.

Yours,

AL

P. S.—I am from New York, and they are doing their part also. Keep up the good work.

Senior News

As the holiday season comes nearer, the excitement of planning socials and buying of gifts is getting into the blood of everyone. The Senior Christmas dinner is to be Friday night and the class is quite thrilled over the prospect. It will be the last Christmas social for the Seniors as a class and it makes everyone a shade thoughtful.

The students have almost a book report fever these days and no wonder with the warnings from Mrs. Dowell that midterm is slowly creeping up. Required points have to be made and there has been a scramble for the classics. Shakespeare's writing are certainly coming in handy. The unusual thing is that the classics are not so dull and dry after all. In fact, they prove to be amusing compared even to modern comedy.

Last week the Civics class had an unexpected quiz and some of the grades weren't quite up to par. Consequently, Mrs. Rogers threatens to let the pupils do some outlining each day if improvements are not made.

Junior News

The most important activity in the Junior class these days is the play. Everyone's schedule is upset and hurriedly passed.

Lessons are becoming more and more depressing. Perhaps that is because the subjects are getting deeper. No one seems to be getting much out of discussions. The students are either nodding in sleep, writing notes, or catching up on yesterday's assignment for some other subject.

Everyone remember—the Juniors are presenting "No Bride for the Groom" Tuesday night, Dec. 21. Don't miss it!

Sophomore News

The Sophs are in high spirits this week. We are all planning for the party Friday night which is to be at Lyndol Smith's home. The Sophs are all hoping that Santa Claus will be very good to our teachers and maybe—just maybe—they will give us all "A" next year. We would be very thankful to Santa if he did this.

Junerose is back in school after a week's visit in Dallas. She reports to have had a nice visit.

Society News

At last the parties have started. Last Friday night the Junior class enjoyed a chicken dinner in the Homemaking Cottage.

Next Friday night the Seniors plan to have a party in the Homemaking Cottage and everyone is

A WARNING TO PIG BOATS

CANADA, a nation with virtually no shipbuilding industry four years ago, celebrated the launching of her first home-built Tribal destroyer by sending 12 ships down the ways on the same day, a record in Canadian shipbuilding history. The multiple launching dramatizes the Dominion's newly-attained position as one of the world's most important ship-producing nations. In addition to the destroyer, vessels launched were two frigates, two freighters, an Algerine minesweeper, a corvette, a patrol boat, a tanker, and three large tugs. In Halifax, Mrs. Macdonald, wife of the Minister of Naval Services, sponsored the Micmac.

One of the most colorful ceremonies was held at United Shipyards in Montreal, where Commander Adelaide M. Sinclair, the new Director of the Women's Canadian Naval Service, christened the S.S. Fort Esperance, one of the two 10,000-ton merchantmen sent down the ways during the day. Taking part in the ceremony were a WREN guard of honor from the R.C.N. musical "Meet the Navy," the male sea chanty chorus from the same show, the Toronto R.C.N.V.R. band, and a detachment of fifty ratings. An outstanding economist, Commander Sinclair is a former president of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, which has more than 27,000 members in the United States and Canada. Commander Sinclair is shown at top as she cut the ribbon which released the champagne bottle. At right below, the destroyer Micmac is seen as it slides into the water.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

by BOYCE HOUSE

One of the subjects we used to argue about in school: "Was the boy in the wagon when he fell out?" Well, he was bound to have been in the wagon or he couldn't have fallen out of it. On the other hand, he wasn't in the wagon when he fell out—he was out of it.

So serious is the loan shark evil that a nation-wide investigation is being launched by federal authorities and Texas was selected as the starting place, which shows that this state is worst of all.

The illegal toll—amounting to many millions of dollars in our state and to hundreds of millions over the entire country—which sharks are collecting in the form of 240 per cent interest and more, is slowing down the war effort. War workers are being bled white and so can't buy war bonds, officials declare, and, in many cases, worry—caused by trying to keep up the heavy usury payments has reduced the efficiency of workers in turning out planes, guns and ships.

More power to authorities, federal, State and local, in their effort to end the sabotaging of the war effort that loan sharks are guilty of!

Readers enjoy pointing out typographical errors but when one considers that the newspapers of America print 500,000,000 words a day, he can readily see that mistakes will be made. Several newspapers recently printed this account of some amusing slips:

Lack of a "b" gave this item a preposterous swing: "An employe was accused of having stolen a small ox from the mail. The stolen property was found in his vest pocket."

The linetype operator hit the "i" instead of the "n" and this appeared: "Following the business session, the club members were entertained by Mrs. Edgeworth's little son, Richard, at the piano."

The "g" at the end of "sing" failed to fall and here's what was printed: "Miss Blank is scheduled to sin By the Waters of Minnetonka. She will be dressed in Indian costume and special lighting will be used for the performance."

Sometimes the humor is not the result of a typographical error but is due to the phrasing, as in this ad: "For sale—Baker's business, good trade; large oven, present owner been in it seven years; good reason for leaving."

Bill Johnson of Weinert was a business visitor here last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cerveny and daughter, Josephine, were visitors in Stamford last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jungman were business visitors in Wichita Falls last Thursday.

Miss Patsy Ruth Mitchell, who is employed by the West Texas Utilities Co. in Spur, spent several days here last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Holder visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Holder, Jr., in Wichita Falls last Sunday. D. E. is stationed at Sheppard Field.

Mrs. W. R. Moore and daughter, Mrs. Ralph Bernard, and Mrs. A. H. Mitchell and daughter, Patsy Ruth, were business visitors in Wichita Falls last Friday.

Acts On Livestock Feed

As part of the government program to conserve livestock feed and make the best use of available supplies in producing the maximum volume of livestock products, WFA has taken the following steps: (1) Elimination of the subsidy the Commodity Credit Corporation has been paying on corn moving from surplus to deficit and southern deficit areas; (2) An increase of 20 cents a bushel in the price of feed wheat on and after December 6; (3) An offer to buy corn during the remainder of this month at the old ceiling price in approximately 150 counties on the fringe of the corn belt where the new ceiling on corn (effective December 5) represents a reduction in price. OPA raised the maximum price of corn 9 cents a bushel at Chicago to correct inequities in the previous regulation. At the same time, the prices of oats, barley, and sorghum grains were "frozen" at the highest prices of the five-day period, November 29 to December 3, pending issuance within 60 days of a permanent regulation on these feeds.

Farm Help for Lumber Supply

Because of the critical over-all lumber and pulpwood shortage, which directly affects farmers, who are large users of lumber and pulpwood products, Marvin Jones, War Food Administrator, indicated that farmers should help by: (1) Increasing production from woodlands during the winter and (2) Providing labor for forest industries during the slack winter season on farms. Lumber used on farms for the construction and maintenance of farm buildings requires three and one-half billion board feet of lumber annually, Jones said.

Seed Prices Under Control

The 1944 program for winter cover crop seed will support prices on hairy vetch, common vetch, crimson clover, and ryegrass seeds at levels from 5 to 40 per cent higher than last season, through purchases by the Commodity Credit Corporation. Fourteen types of vegetable seeds, including about 200 domestic and improved varieties, have been placed under ceiling prices by OPA. Seeds included are bean, pea, corn, beet, cabbage, carrot, cauliflower, Swiss chard, cucumber, lettuce, mangel, onion, rutabaga, and turnip. All alfalfa seeds, including all state certified improved varieties, have been made subject to control of the price regulation government legume and grass seeds by OPA. This regulation now includes the following domestic and Canadian seeds: alfalfa, medium red clover, mammoth red clover, alsiko clover, sweet clover, timothy, and all mixtures of those seeds.

Plan Victory Gardens Now

Although victory gardeners exceeded their goal of 18 million gardens for 1943 by about 10 per cent, they are asked for another 10 per cent increase in 1944. Arrangements should be made now for the use of vacant land, and considerable preparatory work can go on through the winter. Hard coal ashes can be sifted and stored on plots. Compost pits and supplies of manure can be accumulated, and either turned under wherever ground is not frozen or stacked

More and more our armies are landing our fighting troops by parachute, disrupting enemy lines, enemy communications, but paying a heavy price in casualties. Silken fineries and their substitutes are fast passing from the market to provide safe landings for our distant fighting men. We can still buy silk and nylon for them with War Bonds and Stamps.

Syrup Prices Are Higher

Retail prices for cane syrup have been increased by OPA as a result of refiguring the parity formula, which resulted in increased returns to sugar cane growers. Increases in No. 10 cans—slightly less than one gallon—are about 10 cents for country cane syrup, formerly known as Louisiana cane syrup, and 4 to 5 cents for commercial cane syrup, formerly known as Georgia cane syrup. Accumulators, mostly country store operators, have been granted an increase from 1 to 2 cents a gallon for their handling charge.

Gift Packages Point Free

Gift packages of jams, jellies, fruit butter, preserves, and non-citrus marmalade that were packed before October 23 for sale as Christmas gifts may be bought point-free through January 8, OPA said recently. Because the packages were made up before these foods were rationed, and because they are often assembled in packages with such highly perishable products as cakes and cookies, it is necessary to sell them speedily to prevent waste.

Lift Restrictions on Binder Twine

Farmers may now use binder twine where needed in growing, harvesting, or shipping agricultural products. Previously, use of binder twine was restricted to mechanical self-tying binders.

Packed Food Products

Exempted from price control are sales by home canners who sell less than 1,500 quarts a year of packed fruits and vegetables. OPA reported recently. OPA also announced that consumers will pay more for canned sweet potatoes, brined cherries, Maraschino cherries, canned mushrooms, and processed dried prunes and prune products.

Catsup Released to Civilians

Nearly a million cases of tomato catsup soon will be released to civilians. The catsup is being released from specific reserves held and owned by canners, but set aside by them for government use.

Hogs May Be Killed On Farm

R. O. Dunkle has just received notice that until next February 17, farmers can slaughter on their farms any hogs owned by them and deliver the meat. And they will need no permit or license to do this. This is a step by the War Food Administration to simplify the handling, slaughter and distribution of this year's record swine supply. Hogs killed on the farm won't clutter up packing plants.

According to information from the WFA to the A. and M. College Extension Service, this means that the former limit on the amount of pork a farmer could kill on his farm without a slaughter permit is lifted. The number of pounds of meat and lard made from home slaughtered hogs which can be sold or given by a farmer to people not living on his farm during this period will be limited to his capacity to produce.

Lifting the limit, however, does not mean that the government has put the farmers into the black market. Slaughter permits still are needed for other types of livestock. . . And farmers still are required to sell within ceiling prices. Also, they still are required to collect ration stamps for farm-sold meat, including pork, and they are required to turn these stamps in to the OPA.

The temporary removal or the need for a permit or license for farm slaughter does not change the necessity for orderly marketing of hogs in November, December, January and February. It was mainly to open another channel to relieving the congestion in disposing of the nation's bulging pig crop. WFA officials caution, however, that before sending hogs to market, farmers should find out from their market agency whether they can be handled.

Ensign Parramore is a primary instructor. Others injured are Lt. Joseph H. Waldrop, student officer, and Yeoman (1st) Robert A. Nusker, enlisted flight student.

Nusker was flying solo when the accident occurred. Ensign Parramore was giving Lieut. Waldrop his second instruction hop. All three men were reported seriously injured.

Ensign Parramore is the son of Reuben Parramore, who was reared in this county. His home is in Dallas.

AAA Program 1944 Announced

The Agricultural Adjustment Agency program for 1944 has been announced according to Doyle G. Thomas administrative officer of Knox county. In discussing the provisions of the program Mr. Thomas said, "The 1944 program again calls for an increase in the production of food and feed crops needed in the war effort. While asking for all-out production to meet tremendous wartime requirements the 1944 program also emphasizes the importance of balancing production so there will be enough of the essential commodities needed to shorten the war and establish a sound peace."

With average weather, the suggested schedule of production should yield the largest food crop in the nation's history, which would be the eighth year in a row that American farmers have exceeded the previous year's record-breaking food production. As a backbone of the Food Fight for Freedom Campaign, the nation's farmers this year are surpassing their 1942 total food production by 5 percent and the 1918 production which was the banner year of World War I by almost 50 percent. It has been possible to make these big increases because of the large supplies of feed stored in the ever-normal granary prior to the beginning of the war but most of this surplus has now been withdrawn.

When asked about other changes in the program for 1944, Mr. Thomas said, "There will be no restrictions or penalties on what the farmer plants in 1944. Marketing quotas which limited the amount of cotton and wheat a farmer could plant without a penalty have been withdrawn. There will be no crop payments on cotton and wheat in 1944. Payments will be available to assist farmers in carrying out production practices needed to maintain and build up the productivity of the farm and ranch lands of the nation. This is not a profit making proposition for the farmer for he receives from the government only about what he spends in carrying out the practice. The purpose of these payments is to protect our greatest national resources, the soil, and keep it producing food at maximum capacity."

The practices selected for the 1944 program are those which are needed most to conserve and improve soil fertility, improve range and pasture land, prevent wind and water erosion and promote conservation and better utilization of water.

Payments with respect to practices are classified as limited and unlimited.

The limited practices are carried out according to the allowance set up for the individual farm. This allowance is the sum of the following figures: 75 cents per acre for each acre of cropland on the farm, plus, $1.50 per acre for each acre of commercial orchards on the farm, plus, $1.00 per acre for each acre of commercial vegetables normally grown on the farm, plus, 6 cents per acre for each acre of pasture or range land on the farm. The practices to be used for earning this production practice allowance are about the same as those used in 1943. Some few 1943 practices have been eliminated and two new practices have been added. Payment will be made for establishing a satisfactory cover of rye grass or small grains, except wheat, seeded in the fall of 1943, provided the small grain is not harvested for grain. The other new practice payment is for the harvesting of much needed legume and grass seeds. The new program year starts on December 1, 1943 in Knox county. The unlimited practices are regarded as very essential to war production and the government proposes to pay the farmer for all of these practices to the extent that they are carried out on his farm, in addition to the payment earned on limited practices. The unlimited practices are terracing, drainage ditches, pasture mowing, elimination of prickly pear, cactus, mesquite, cedar and underbrush, and the construction of one tank or dam on each farm not in excess of 2,000 cubic yards of material moved.

When Mr. Thomas was asked if he thought the farmers would take advantage of the provision of the practice program in 1944 since they are going all-out for production of needed food and feed crops of the war effort, he said, "The average farmer is a most patriotic fellow but he is in business to make money and he has found that these production practices get more production per acre with the same amount of labor and machinery and he is certainly going to take advantage of the provisions of the 1944 production practice program."

Many of the rates of payments for carrying out practices have been increased above the rates paid in 1943 to partly off-set the increased cost of labor and seed.

In order to be of further assistance to the farmer in carrying out the production practice program for 1944 the AAA will furnish certain materials and services, the cost of which, will be taken out of the farmer's payment that he earns. This makes it possible for the farmer to carry out these practices with very little immediate cash according to Mr. Thomas.

Indications are that there will be an adequate price support program to assure the farmer a fair return from the crops that he is being asked to produce but this phase of the program has not been announced. Everything possible will be done during 1944 to assist the farmer to get the needed machinery, labor and fertilizer.
