KEEP ON... Backing the Attack! WITH WAR BONDS

VOLUME 39

MUNDAY, KNOX COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 6, 1944

NUMBER 28

Throckmorton Road Again Being Planned

An effort to secure a hard surfaced road from Munday to Throckmorton is being started again here, and a move is now being inaugurated to secure a right-of-way through Haskell county. This involves securing right-of-way for a distance of approximately 4 1/2 miles.

Meetings have been held with the commissioners of Knox, Throckmorton and Haskell counties, together with engineers from the Childress, Wichita Falls and Abilene offices of the Texas Highway Department. All indications are favorable for securing the route with the view of paving immediately after the war.

A meeting has been called by the Munday Chamber of Commerce for 2 p. m. Friday afternoon at the city hall for the purpose of discussing plans for this road. Every citizen of Munday interested in this proposed road is urged to attend this meeting.

Reta Mae Bigony, president of the student body, a senior student at Big Spring, was crowned queen and was honored, together with her court, consisting of her two attendants and the class favorite.

Wacs Get Soldiers' Mail Through

"Mail Call" is music to the ears of soldiers wherever they are stationed. Here, two members of the Women's Army Corps on duty at Hondo Army Air Field, Texas, are sorting some of the thousands of letters which form a link to home for soldiers serving at the front.

N. S. Kilgore Announces For Co. Treasurer

Knox county's first political candidate for 1944 to make public his candidacy is N. S. Kilgore of Benjamin, who has announced for the office of County Treasurer of Knox county.

Mr. Kilgore needs no introduction to the voters of this county. He is a former resident of Munday, and has resided in the county for many years, being elected county judge of Knox county several years ago. He is now serving as justice of the peace at Benjamin.

If elected to the office he seeks, Mr. Kilgore promises a term of faithful and efficient service as county treasurer. He is familiar with the duties of this office, through years of experience in public office.

"I take this means of soliciting your vote and influence in the July primary," Mr. Kilgore said, "and I promise you that everything done in behalf of my candidacy will be appreciated. If elected, I will try to make you a good county treasurer."

PRESIDENT COULD HAVE GONE TO MOON AND BACK

President Roosevelt hasn't traveled to the moon yet, but he might have for all the mileage he has covered in his years at the White House. It is 238,857 miles from the earth to the moon and the President has already done 289,817.

PORT NECHES, TEXAS—Synthetic rubber for such vital products as essential tires is on the way! In these huge towers here on the Texas plains the butadiene, chief ingredient of man-made rubber, will be manufactured for 28,000,000 tires. Five oil companies are building and will operate the plant on a non-profit basis. (Approved by War Department)

When you buy War Bonds your money goes into action at once. Where, we may never know. Maybe, as shown above, to equip a company of American Rangers marching up a railroad somewhere on the Mediterranean. Whether they come back depends upon the equipment we send. Give your dollars action: Buy More War Bonds.

Machinery For Rehabilitation Of Veterans Started

The Texas Selective Service system has set up its machinery for aiding in the program of useful reemployment and rehabilitation of returning war veterans, it was announced recently by Gen. J. Watt Page, state director.

Pointing out that selective service is charged under the Selective Service Training and Service Act with the responsibility of replacing in former jobs, or aiding in securing new jobs for, all persons honorably discharged from the armed forces, Gen. Page said that a carefully studied and organized reemployment program has been put into operation in Texas. The program functions primarily through the local boards under the supervision of the new established Reemployment Division at State Selective Service Headquarters, he said.

At least one reemployment committee has been assigned to every local board to serve as agent and counsellor of returning servicemen with direct responsibility to protect their legal right to reemployment, as well as to place them in contact with available jobs.

The Knox county re-employment committee is composed of W. F. Snody, Benjamin, chairman; Roy Smith, Knox City, and W. R. Moore, Munday.

NEW SUPERCHARGER SPEEDS UP PLANES

Bursts of emergency power in critical split seconds, when an extra bit of speed spells the difference between life and death to our fighting pilots, are being given by industry's newest miracle, the supercharger.

Until recently a strict military secret, the new supercharger—already proving its effectiveness in battle over the not-so-Pacific—is a water injection device whose vaporization of water gives an added surge to the engine, increasing its climb and speed.

The aircraft company which manufactures the supercharger began its experiments only a year ago, and went ahead on its own responsibility with the production of 1,000 conversion units so that no time would be lost when military orders were signed. Today it's one of the reasons it's hard to get a good night's sleep in Berlin.

RED CROSS SEWING TO BEGIN AT GOREE

The ladies of the Goree area will begin sewing for the Red Cross next Tuesday, it was announced by Mrs. Ernest Robinson, chairman of the sewing committee. All ladies are urged to contact Mrs. Robinson for their sewing.

The ladies will meet at the assembly room in Goree park next Tuesday afternoon and sewing will be done there on Tuesday afternoon of each week.

Knox Ginnings For 1943 Show Big Decline

Cotton ginnings for Knox county in 1943 were about half of those for 1942, according to a report received Tuesday from T. W. Russell of Vera, special agent for the Department of Commerce, bureau of the census, at Washington.

In his report, issued January 1, 1944, Mr. Russell said the census report shows that 19,198 bales of cotton were ginned in Knox county from the crop of 1943 prior to December 13. A majority of the cotton was out at this time, and the yearly ginnings are not expected to go far above this figure.

The ginnings, for the same period in 1942 amounted to 38,315 bales, almost twice that of last year's crop.

Livestock Sell Steady Tuesday

The Munday Livestock Commission Co. reports a good run of cattle and hogs for the regular weekly auction sale last Tuesday. Cattle sold about steady with last week's market, they said.

Canner and cutter cows sold from $5 to $7; butcher cows, $7.25 to $8.75; beef cows, $9 to $10.20; butcher bulls, $7 to $8.50; beef bulls, $8.75 to $9.60; butcher yearlings, $9 to $10.50; fat yearlings, $11 to $13; rannic calves, $6.50 to $7.50; butcher calves, $8.50 to $10.50; fat calves, $10.75 to $12.75.

40 Men Leave For Induction In Service

Heavy Culling Of Poultry Urged For January

R. O. Dunkle, county agent, has been asked by the War Food Administration to launch a campaign of heavy culling of poultry flocks for January.

Instruction as to the proper method of culling the poultry flock will be given at the educational meetings that are to be held throughout the county in each community beginning January 3rd, and ending January 14th.

A roll-back in laying population to the January 1, 1943 levels is desired. Preliminary figures indicate this will mean the culling out and marketing of some 50 million non-layers between January 1st and February 1st.

The feed situation is moving rapidly toward a crisis which may mean that many baby chicks produced in 1944 cannot be fed unless certain prior steps such as culling of the older birds is taken to conserve available supplies.

Here is the latest on feed requirements: Just meet C, but not to exceed the 1944 food goals of 140,700,000 tons of feeds and protein feeds will be required. At present there is just enough feed to meet these requirements and provide for a dangerously small carry-over.

Alonzo Cartwright In Air Hospital At Santa Ana, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cartwright returned home several days ago from Santa Ana, Calif., where they visited their son, Alonzo, who is in the army air corps hospital there.

Alonzo, an aviation cadet at the Santa Ana Air Base, had one of his lungs to collapse during a high altitude test several weeks ago. He will be in the hospital for some two months, yet, his parents reported.

This misfortune has caused Alonzo to be "washed out" as a pilot, but after being discharged from the hospital, he hopes to continue in the air corps as a member of the ground forces.

BOB GAINES FAMILY MOVES TO MUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gaines moved to Munday last week from their farm south of Goree. They have purchased a home in the southwest part of town. "Uncle Bob" farmed his place, just in the edge of Haskell county, for almost 35 years, and he somewhat regretfully pulled up stakes and moved to town. He has rented his place for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jacobs of Fort Worth spent the holidays here with Mr. Jacobs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jacobs.

Forty registrants of Knox county left Benjamin on December 26 to go to Lubbock for their final examinations prior to induction into the armed forces. Those inducted into the army were given 21-day furloughs, and those inducted into the navy were given 7 days.

The names and the branch of service for 28 of the county men were announced Wednesday by the county board. They are as follows:

Into the Army: Frank R. Heath, Claude Franklin Green, Emory A. Darwin, Guy Robinson, Robert G. Jones, Alvin W. Norwood, Loyd M. Hendrix, Antonio R. Gonzales, J. M. Turner, Jr., Wallace W. Roberts, Charles W. Browning, Walter Mat Hertel, Bobby L. Hill, Virgil W. Dotson, Waylen H. Bratcher and Pat R. Coursey.

Into the Navy: Norman F. Lusk, Marvin C. Brown, Earl W. Duke, George Davis, Henry B. Lewis, Melvin K. Heath, Charles R. Smith, Travis I. Austin, Simon L. Rocha, and Clyde C. Jones.

Into the Marines: Meredith A. Bumpas, Jr., and James E. Henson.

News From The A.A.A. Office

The meetings that are being held by the AAA, the Extension Service Agent, and the Home Demonstration Agent are not having the attendance that was hoped for. All farmers and housewives are urged to attend at least one of these meetings and hear Mr. Doyle G. Thomas, secretary, Knox County ACA, discuss the feed, fiber, oil, lumber, machinery facts, and the 1944 AAA program; Mr. R. O. Dunkle, the county agent, discuss the saving of feed putting on a demonstration of the culling of poultry flocks by the use of three live hens; and Miss Lucile King, home demonstration agent, discuss the waste of food by giving a demonstration on the conservation of foods in the home.

Protein Feed All purchasers of protein feed are not required to get a purchase certificate unless he is buying the feed from a processor. All certificates issued prior to January 1, 1944 are of no value. Processors are asked not to honor these certificates.

All purchasers can now buy up to 500 pounds of protein feed without a purchase certificate, including buying it from a processor.

Bell Blacksmith Shop Is Moved To New Location

J. E. Bell and son are this week moving their blacksmith shop from the Stodghill building to the building owned by P. V. Williams, and formerly occupied by the Warren Gulf Station.

This move was necessitated because J. L. Stodghill, owner of the Ford Tractor Agency, will occupy all of the Stodghill building. He is remodeling the place, making it into an attractive business establishment. Further announcement regarding this remodeling will be made later.

The Bell blacksmith shop will soon be in operation at its new location.

Graduates As An Aviation Mechanic

George D. Jones, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Jones of Goree, has completed his course of studies as an aviation mechanic at the Anarillo Army Air Field.

His graduation from this technical school now fits him for airplane maintenance, and he will be sent to some air base where he will assist in keeping America's Flying Fortresses in the air for allied victory. Jones has also been thoroughly drilled in military tactics and defense and a course of physical training that has conditioned him to meet all requirements of an American soldier.

GOES TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. T. I. Phillips, well known local resident, was taken to a Wichita Falls hospital for medical treatment last Monday. Latest reports coming from the hospital are that she is somewhat improved.

AMERICAN HEROES BY LEFF

A B-25 was taking off somewhere in North Africa. It crashed and burst into flames. Private Eugene A. Ganter rushed forward with three other soldiers to aid the crew. The heat was overwhelming but Ganter and his companions, drenched from the hoses of rescue apparatus, rescued three crew members from the blazing ship. Then Ganter returned to remove loaded 50 caliber machine guns. He won the Soldier's Medal. Such are the men your War Bonds fight beside.

ONLY THE WORTHY REMAIN FREE

As the calendar heralds 1944, grim predictions of allied political and military leaders rank foremost in the minds of all people. Nineteen-hundred-forty-four is the year of decision. It is the year of total war and destruction, death and suffering. It may well be the year of military victory—thanks to the courage of our fighting men and the American production miracle.

Armament production in the United States has reached staggering proportions. In November, every five minutes saw the birth of one new complete plane. The month's total was 8,789, of which 1,000 were heavy bombers. More than 150,000 war planes have been built since the start of hostilities.

Nineteen million tons of merchant ships were launched in 1943, compared to 1,163,000 tons in 1941.

Naval and shipbuilding has outstripped the imaginations of the wildest dreamers. About a dozen aircraft carriers were turned out in November alone. Warship tonnage in 1941 was 2,132,000. Out of the ashes of Pearl Harbor it rose to 5,000,000 tons in 1943, a colossus bent on the destruction of Japanese aggression and Nazi tyranny.

Tanks, guns and supplies are being produced in unbelievable quantities.

These things were made possible by the productive genius of free enterprise. In the hands of 10,000,000 American men and their companions in arms, they are America's answer to the warped leaders of Europe and Japan who have challenged our freedom.

But we have no cause to rejoice. Tens of thousands of our men must die in 1944 to meet the challenge of the dictators. Usual year-end speech-making and editorial phrase-making are out of place. The people were told when the war started that they would have to make sacrifices. They were told that this was total war. And yet, other than those who have given their men, no one has so far made an iota of real sacrifice. It is not in the cards for such a condition to continue.

Sometime in the not-too-distant future we, at home, are going to find out what total war means, even though we may never feel the impact of bombs on our cities.

A pretty good indication of how we are going to find out can be seen in the gusts of bitter controversy sweeping through the land over strikes, taxes, subsidies and inflation. They are the prelude to the storm. When it hits in full fury, the test of our love of freedom will be upon us.

No person in this nation can ever shut from his mind the awful vision of the last days of 1943 in which 1,000 marines lay dead on the beaches of one little South Pacific island. Those men died for the right to be free. We at home have yet to prove worthy of the freedom for which they died.

TOP MEN SIT DOWN TOGETHER

The fact that the top men of U. S., Great Britain, Russia, and China have met at long last and agreed upon vigorous cooperation to defeat the common foe must have sent the cold shivers of doom down the wobbly spines of Hitler and Hirohito.

The totalitarian dictators, contemptuous of democracy's processes, had banked on the Allies never being able to get together on a unified program to crush them.

The fact that the top men of management and labor, too, have now sat down together for the first time to discuss a program of providing postwar jobs likewise will dismay dictatorial minds both at home and abroad who held that it "never could be done" in a land of individual initiative and free men.

Messrs. F. C. Crawford, head of the National Association of Manufacturers; Phil Murray, C.I.O. head, and William Green, of the A. F. of L., indeed have made history—and an even better America for all of us.

As pointed out by the N. A. M. leader, the meeting of the trio did not represent "a compromise in the basic position of either labor or management," nor did it mean "that anybody is ready to throw in the towel."

"It does mean," Mr. Crawford concluded, "that we agree that a policy of reasonableness will carry us further than a policy of conflict, along toward our common goal of a better standard of living for all."

To which every American, on the fighting fronts or the home front as well, will say a fervent "Amen!"

An invaluable tool for research engineers is a new movie camera that can photograph the split-second action of high speed war machines at a rate 160 times quicker than a wink.

TAXES AFTER THE WAR

The problem of postwar business taxation cannot longer be ignored safely. It involves the jobs, standard of living, even the freedom of the people. That it has been almost wholly ignored to date is attributed to the common assumption clearly stated by Harley L. Lutz, professor of finance, of Princeton University, "that business can and will continue to supply the goods and services upon which all schemes for the good life depend, regardless of the drag and drain of excessive taxation."

Such an assumption has been encouraged by the ability of industry to produce during the war, notwithstanding a confiscatory tax load. People are prone to forget that the business man is first and foremost a patriot. For the duration, the incentive of patriotism has, in most cases, replaced the incentive of profit as a production stimulant. After the war, business men cannot be expected to act any differently than other groups. The nation's productive talent will work best if it sees a hope of fair reward.

Vive President Wallace fully realized this when he was moved to remark recently that: "Our whole tax structure, including individual income, capital gains and corporate taxes, will need revamping to stimulate maximum production and employment."

PRICE-FIXERS PLAY OSTRICH

Competent authorities agree that while there is plenty of oil left in the United States, it is getting tougher to reach. This is one of the main factors behind the request of the oil industry for a modest increase in the price of crude oil. Even if the question of inflation had never arisen, there would still be a need for price increases to cover increased costs, as the difficulties of wildcatting mount.

In normal times cost and competition would set the price, and the country would get all the oil it needed. Today the price of oil is mixed up in the anti-inflation program. The price-fixers have refused to recognize rising costs in the oil business. As a result, in the state of Texas alone, abandonment of wells so far this year exceeds completion of new wells by more than 800.

At its annual meeting, the American Petroleum Institute adopted a resolution declaring that: "Whereas, the long delays in the Office of Price Administration and Economic Stabilization culminating in the decision . . . to deny a general price increase have permitted conditions to become progressively worse, these government agencies must assume the chief responsibility for the shortage in petroleum supplies and the consequent aggravation of the rationing of gasoline and fuel oil."

This is one of the reasons for the growing oil shortage. The people should know about it.

HISTORY A LA CARTE!

There's one dangerous sure way of getting yourself a page in the history books—and that is to write it yourself!

That's what some of the busy boys in Washington are doing these days—thus taking no chances on the historians of the future.

Word comes from the Potomac that dozens of "historians" are bustling at work in the capital's multitudinous marble halls. Historical "experts" and "units" have been quietly set up in 22 government agencies thus far—all the way from the Alien Property Custodian up through the alphabet to the War Production Board.

Well, as any unprofessional graybeard can tell you, Father Time himself has a way of evaluating any given day's bright goings-on—including those transpiring in Washington!

Remote-reading magnetic compass indicators and transmitters are being produced for warplanes which make possible compass readings from the wing or other points on the plane relatively free from magnetic influences.

THE NORTH AMERICAN LIFE LINE

In this war Canada has become a naval power third in strength among the United Nations.

As the Royal Canadian Navy was being built up all expansion was patterned to its chief purpose, that of safeguarding the North Atlantic lifeline between this continent and the United Kingdom. Now that the emphasis of the United Nations' sea warfare is shifting toward the offensive, the continuing expansion of the Canadian Navy is bringing it into the field of fighting ships heavier than those required by a largely anti-submarine force.

At the outbreak of war the Canadian Navy had only 15 ships. Its strength has since increased to more than 550 of all types, including destroyers, frigates, corvettes, auxiliary cruisers and minesweepers. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 1943, 150 ships were added, and plans for this year called for the addition of 70 fighting ships, besides others not of the combat types. Moreover, Navy Minister Macdonald has stated:

"It is my hope that after the war Canada's Navy never will be reduced to its very insignificant status of pre-war days."

All convoy protection on the vital North Atlantic route is the responsibility of the Royal Navy and the Royal Canadian Navy, assisted by escort vessels of the United States Navy and the air forces of Canada, Great Britain and the United States. The Canadian Navy's duties in this work have been expanded steadily until now it provides about half the protection of North Atlantic merchant shipping.

Ten United States Army fliers recently were saved from almost certain death at sea in the North Atlantic when they were rescued by the crew of the Canadian minesweeper H.M.C.S. Georgian. The minesweeper was on convoy escort duty, and the rescue was effected amid heavy seas, fog and icebergs. Officers and men of the Georgian were commended by both the Canadian and United States governments.

Meanwhile patrol work and convoy duty in the Pacific are being maintained also.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN — In speaking of the control of communicable diseases, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today that whooping cough is one of the hardest to control. This is because it is highly contagious and begins as an ordinary cough. It is catching during the week or ten days before it can be recognized by the "whoop." Even then a physician is not called and often children are allowed to play with others when they are known to be sick.

In children under the age of three years, and especially babies, whooping cough is dangerous and often fatal. Frequent spells of coughing and vomiting weaken a child to such an extent that the disease becomes dangerous. The majority of deaths are due to pneumonia, which is the most frequent and dangerous complication. Because this complication is so dangerous, it is advisable to have a doctor as soon as the child becomes sick.

Dr. Cox further advises, "Do everything you can to protect children from whooping cough. Often prevention and control of whooping cough, especially among infants and small children, may be accomplished through use of approved vaccine and convalescent serum," Dr. Cox said. "Keep them away from playmates who have colds, especially when whooping cough is prevalent. Teach children not to put objects in their mouths that have been handled by others and to wash their hands before meals. In spite of all precaution, if your child seems to be developing whooping cough, call your doctor at once. He can do much to relieve the patient's distress if treatment is begun early and will advise the parents about diet, rest, exercise, and fresh air for the patient."

Mrs. Sam Bird and little daughter of Lampasas visited relatives and friends here the first of this week.

TIME

There are no fragments so precious as those of time, and none are so heedlessly lost by people who cannot make a moment, and yet can waste years.—Montgomery.

The Freshmen enjoyed the Christmas holidays. We all had to start back to school because of six weeks and exams. But we will have to stick to it until after six-weeks at least.

In English, we have been writing stories. Some of them are very good. In Home Economics, the Freshmen girls are planning a luncheon which we are going to serve our teachers.

Sophomore News

The Sophs are racking their brains to recall all the biology and English they have or should have learned. We have six-weeks tests next week and mid-term the twentieth and twenty-first.

Santa Claus was good to all of us and we had a happy New Year. Everyone enjoyed the party at Naomi Hampton's house Wednesday night, December 22, 1943. It was a great success. Naomi Jean Miller had a nice Christmas present in the form of a surprise birthday party, Dec. 23. Most of the class attended.

In English, we are studying compound and complex sentences. It seems to us that almost everything is rather complex about now.

Junior News

The Juniors are all back in school, ready to start on the beam again. Everyone had a swell Christmas and old Santa saw us all, although Miss Rice had to go to Kansas to see him.

Rev. and Mrs. Griffin entertained the Juniors and Seniors with a Christmas party on December 20. Everyone from both classes were there except Peggy. All of us Juniors had a swell time and we're sure the Seniors did.

We find that we're lacking when it comes to knowledge in Plane Geometry, especially since the holidays.

Senior News

Having spent a pleasant and exciting holiday with many enjoyable experiences, all the Seniors except three are back in school. Most everyone reported a wonderful time and good results from Santa's visits. The White Christmas that some of the Seniors dreamed of for so long finally came true even though it didn't last long. The holidays would have been much more enjoyable if the weather had not been so bad and the roads so muddy. It is hard for the Seniors to get back in their ruts again, but six-weeks and mid-term exams are creeping up on us rapidly, meaning we will have to get down and dig for book reports and notebooks and above all, much needed knowledge. We are studying harder than usual, because we are trying to finish some of our books by the end of this semester. Wish us luck.

EAT, HEARTY, MATES

Canadian sailor tossing and rolling in the "bird cage" on the seickness machine at the Montreal Neurological Institute.

THE bane of seagoing men since the first canoe was launched, seasickness, can be cured in three out of four susceptible persons by means of a secret capsule discovered and now manufactured by the Royal Canadian Navy. Intensive research has been carried on in the Montreal Neurological Institute under Dr. Wilder Penfield, and by the Royal Canadian Navy Medical Research Unit under Surg. Capt. C. H. Best, RCNVR.

The new remedy is simply a pink capsule, in appearance much like an ordinary cold capsule. The formula must remain a secret and likely will not be available for civilian use until after the war.

Now it means that troops can be landed from invasion barges in good physical condition and ready for intense fighting. Most persons susceptible to seasickness develop an immunity after a few days at sea, but invasion troops are rarely in landing craft more than a few hours, during which the remedy is of vital military importance. Preliminary indications are that the remedy is equally effective against airsickness.

The remedy is taken by mouth one to two hours before sailing or in rough weather, and is effective for eight hours. Additional capsules may be taken every eight hours for two days, and may be repeated if the subject has not then found his "sea legs".

Surg. Lieut. William S. Fields, RCNVR, an American, has been actively engaged in seasickness research for more than two years with the Royal Canadian Navy Medical Research Unit.

As the result of thousands of position experiments and other research the basic cause of seasickness is now known to be a maladjustment of the equilibrium apparatus in the inner ear, caused by its inability to adjust itself to continued rapid changes in position.

The extreme importance of avoiding seasickness is indicated to the fact that about 40 per cent of all persons are susceptible to it under normal sea conditions, and this percentage rises in rough weather.

An EMPTY TIN CAN
 and a spoonful OF GREASE
 Are Mighty Weapons in this War!

Superiority in the air... the prerequisite to victory on the battlefield... can only be attained by the use of hundreds of planes, bombers and fighters. These planes must be armed. The fighter must have thousands of rounds of machine gun bullets; the bomber must have bombs, fifty pounders or block-busters.

YOU, an American housewife, can help arm these planes. The spoonful of waste grease you pour into the empty tin can is a mighty weapon of war. The grease you save and sell to your local grocer goes into the making of nitroglycerine... the basic explosive used in bombs and bullets.

Our job here at your electric service company is to furnish the power that turns the wheels that makes the planes that carry the bombs and the bullets which your kitchen helped to furnish. The job of producing planes to secure and maintain superiority of the air is a job that only American industry backed by power produced in business managed, privately owned electric companies could accomplish.

Seven-eighths of all power used in war production is produced by companies operating under the American system of private enterprise.

Best Wishes For 1944

Our greatest assets, as we enter into a new year, are the many friendships and good will of the people we serve. Your friendships, that have enabled us to have 20 years of continuous business among you, are the real things that count, the things of which we are proud.

We are sincerely grateful for your patronage, and we trust that our relations have been such as to merit your continued patronage, friendship, and good will.

At the beginning of the New Year, when merchants are taking inventory of their stocks and business, your friendship, your patronage, your associations with us are counted as the greatest item on the "inventory of our business." These have enabled us to continue serving our friends for 20 years.

As our friends prosper, we likewise prosper in proportion. Without our host of friends there could not have been any portion of prosperity for us.

At the beginning of 1944, we want to express a fond hope for your continued prosperity and happiness. And may 1944 bring universal peace, contentment, and joy to a New World.

We sincerely hope that 1944 will hold many good things for you, and at its close we can review it with the satisfaction of WELL DONE.

See you next week!

Eighth Grade News

Well it is rather difficult to start studying and working after the holidays. We have much terrible work ahead of us for mid-term is coming up. However, since we had a good time over the holidays, perhaps we need to work some.

Carlyne Jones has returned from California and we are very glad to have her back.

Freshman News

After a short vacation over the Christmas holidays most of the class has agreed to study for a little while. After all mid-term exams are only two weeks away and some of us are going to have to "dig" to get all that stuff we should already know packed in our brains in such a short time.

We were very sorry to see Mr. Wilson change his name to Pvt. Wilson of the United States Army. But we all think Mr. Hitchcock is going to be a swell teacher.

Fourth and Fifth Grade News

Christmas and New Year are past history now and our thoughts are on mid-term exams, which will be next week.

Ann Nelson spent the holidays in Fort Worth.

D. B. Jones' cousin, H. C. Chaffee, of Knox City, spent the week with him.

Willburn Harlan came back to school today. He has been out pulling bolls.

Imogene's baby sister has one tooth now.

Sixth Grade News

Today we took down our Christmas decorations and are bringing out notebooks to review for mid-term exams.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Sgt. Earl M. Kirkpatrick
 Camp Berkeley, Texas.
 For and from the boys of Munday, Texas.

The boys of Munday are everywhere, but all I'm sure will do their share. They are just the same and when they are blue, they think of Munday and think of you.

They think of Munday, everyone is so kind; and you can bet they are not behind. I and my buddies have been visiting Munday for about two months. We have a lot of friends and love them all. Everyone is so kind, and we will all be in Munday when the world is free.

So be kind with the boys and things will go swell, and when they go across we'll give them Hell.

This isn't for me or the boys so near, but for all of you and loved ones so dear.
 So think of this letter, mothers, fathers, sweethearts and wives. You give your love and kindness while they give their lives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Cousins of Seymour were business visitors here last Tuesday.

Times Want-Ads Bring Quick Results

Where is our next "MEAL" coming from?

Young calves today, milk producers and mothers of tomorrow's herds, look to the cotton growers in 1944 for their next "MEAL."

COTTONSEED MEAL is the dairymen's dependable source of rich protein for producing more milk. COTTONSEED MEAL is essential to produce strong calves and healthy herds that will be needed all over the world after the war.

Curtailed planting of cotton is responsible for the present shortage of this vital concentrate and the desperate feed situation facing the dairy industry.

Farmers in the Cotton Belt can help the war effort and themselves by planting as many acres of cotton as practical in 1944.

Production Of Lumber Boosted

AUSTIN — Southern pine mills boosted their average weekly production of lumber to 272,236 board feet per unit during October, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

This figure was almost 34,000 board feet above average output per unit during October and was almost 8,000 feet higher than in November a year ago.

Weekly shipments increased to 228,508 board feet per unit during November, or 6,327 feet more than in October, but still below November 1942.

Average unfilled orders per unit at the end of November amounted to 16,151,860 board feet, or well over half a million above either of the two comparable periods.

Sugar Ration Remains Same

Sugar rations for home use will remain the same for another two and one-half months, according to the Office of Price Administration. Sugar stamp number 30 in war ration book four becomes valid on January 16, and will be good for buying five pounds of sugar through the end of March. Sugar stamp 29, now in use, is good through January 15.

Plenty of Anti-Freeze

The nation's motorists are being oversold on anti-freeze and told of shortages that do not exist, according to the War Production Board. Production of alcohol anti-freeze for this winter is 50 per cent more than last, WPB said, and asked motorists to watch their own needs and not overload. Alcohol from which anti-freeze is made is a critical war material.

Items No Longer Rationed

Pressure cookers and feed grinders and crushers have been removed from rationing. Because the supply of pressure cookers will not meet all uses, the approval of the War Food Administration is necessary for purchases of pressure cookers for other than food preservation uses. Application should be made to the director, Office of Materials, War Food Administration, Washington, D. C.

Restrict Use of Freezer Space

To relieve the growing demand for cold storage "freezer" space, War Food Administration has excluded from such space (including rendered pork fat), cured meats, tallow, oleo oil, rendered suet, bones, lungs, udders and horse meat. Commodities that may remain in freezer space for only a single period of 10 days are stomachs, pork skins, hearts, heads, ears, tripe, fries, melts, plucks, chitterlings, snouts, hocks, pork tails, pigs feet, veal tails and ox tails, kidneys and knuckles.

Tire, Tube Supply Still Low

Tire and tube quotas for January reflect the continuing shortage. The quota of 276,629 new truck tires is 13,890 less than the

MAKE MEAT POINTS GO FURTHER!

3 lbs. 4 oz. Lost in Cooking at High Temperature

Only 1 lb. 7 oz. Lost in Cooking at Low Temperature

With wartime restrictions limiting the amount of meat available to the family table, low temperature meat cookery of beef, pork, lamb, or veal, which yields 15 per cent more servings on the average, is valuable in helping the American Housewife get the maximum from her meat allowance. These two roasts weighed exactly the same before cooking and were cooked to the same degree of doneness. The roast cooked at the high temperature (above) lost three pounds four ounces in cooking. The roast cooked at low temperature (below) lost only one pound seven ounces and provided six to eight more servings than the roast cooked at high temperature.

Whether roasting, broiling, panbroiling, braising, or cooking in water, it pays to cook all meat slowly at low temperatures. The advantages are: 1. Less shrinkage—more servings; 2. Less fuel used; 3. Meat more uniformly cooked; 4. Meat more tender and better flavored; 5. Constant watching unnecessary; 6. Spattering and burning eliminated; 7. Easier to carve.

December figure, and the quota of 250,400 new truck tubes is 27,787 under the December figure. Similarly, a lessening in demand which usually occurs during the colder months accounts for lower January quotas for farm tractor and farm implement tires and tubes. The tire quota is 27,600—lower by 4,600 than the December figure, while the January tube quota is 23,000—lower by 9200.

Cheddar Cheese for Civilians
Civilians will continue to receive about 30 million pounds a month of Cheddar cheese although manufacturers are required to set aside 30 per cent of their output during January and February to meet war requirements. In addition to Cheddar cheese, civilians receive almost all of the other types of cheese produced, bringing their total supply to about 45 million pounds a month.

Release Peaches to Civilians
Approximately 750,000 cases of canned peaches, previously set aside for government purposes, have been released for civilian supplies and will reach some retail markets within a few weeks.

Bean, Pea Allocations for 1944
Civilians will receive 11,500,000 bags (100 pounds each) or half of the supply of dry beans allocated for all needs in 1944. Twenty-nine per cent of the 1944 supply of dry peas—two million bags—also will go to civilians. This means civilians will have available an average of about 8.9 pounds of beans and 1.6 pounds of peas during the coming year. This is slightly larger than the per capita consumption of dry beans in the 1942-43 crop year and is a much larger consumption of dry peas than for any previous calendar year.

To Get More Children's Wear
To insure sufficient production of infant's and children's wear, the industry has been included by the War Manpower Commission in its list of essential activities. Also, WPB has ordered approximately 18 million yards of cotton fabrics set aside for the manufacture of certain specified items of infant's and children's clothing. Worsted and cotton yarn will be allocated for manufacture of knitted outerwear and infants' ribbed long hose, half socks, and anklets. Such goods will not arrive at retail counters until February and March.

Ration Tokens For Retailers
Retailers selling rationed foods should file their applications for ration tokens by Saturday, January 8, to be sure of having a supply when the token plan starts February 27, OPA says. The application form is being distributed to retailers by trade associations and also is available at local rationing boards.

Changes in Stove Rationing

Eligibility requirements for rationed stoves have been widened. A consumer who has a heating or cooking stove that cannot be used satisfactorily is now eligible for a stove-rationing certificate. Ration certificates also may be issued for stoves to heat premises where essential community activities, such as volunteer Red Cross work, are carried on. A ration certificate now may be issued to a landlord who wishes to buy a stove for the use of an eligible tenant.

Gas Ration For Servicemen

To aid servicemen in recuperating from illness or wounds received while on active duty, OPA has announced that they may be issued special gasoline rations for use in traveling to and from their homes or other places of convalescence. This special ration will be issued upon presentation of leave papers to a local rationing board and a letter from the attending medical officer certifying that transportation by automobile, rather than by any other means, will materially assist in the recovery of the servicemen's health.

THE HISTORY OF MAN
 —Editorial—

The history of man is simply the history of slavery, of injustice and brutality, together with the means by which he has, through the dead and desolate years, slowly and painfully advanced.

Events, like the pendulum of a clock, have swung forward and backward, but after all, man, like the hands, has gone steadily on. Man is growing grander. He is not degenerating. Nations and individuals fail and die, and make room for higher forms. The intellectual horizon of the world widens as the centuries pass. Ideals grow grander and purer; the difference between justice and mercy becomes—less and less; liberty enlarges, and love intensifies as the years sweep on.

Standing in the presence of all history, I pray, I beseech, I implore the American people to lay the foundation of the Government upon the principles of eternal justice. I pray, I beseech, I implore them to take for the cornerstone Universal Human Liberty—the stone which has been heretofore rejected by all the builders of nations—(Ingersoll.)

After an enjoyable Christmas the Sophomores are back to work again.

We are glad to have Ann Atkeison with us as we feel more care-free around her.

Senior News*

The Seniors finally wound up their holidays last Monday and are trying to force their minds to concentrate on lessons. Few realize it was just two weeks until mid-term and are now madly cramming to make up for lost time. With the examinations coming up next week it is doubtful if the class will catch up.

Unfortunately quite a few of the Seniors have been or are ill.

The rest of the class wish them a speedy recovery for they are missed.

The Civics Class has been reviewing for the last few days and they expect to pop quiz soon. It is said that we learn by experience. By now the students intend to be prepared for anything Mrs. Rogers has in mind for them to do.

Junior News

Santa Claus must have left many unpleasant surprises for the Juniors. At least one fourth of the class is absent, but those who are back report a good time.

The play is in the past and nearly forgotten. The Juniors can once more settle down to the steady drone of school. Most of them need it—we're sorry to say. The students are scrambling about writing notebooks full of illegible junk—anything to fill in those blank spaces. Lecture notes this time will be brief and quite incomplete.

The change in teachers doesn't disrupt classes to all outward appearances. Although we're sorry to lose Mrs. Kirk we're happy to have Miss Atkeison with us. She has substituted for Mrs. Kirk in the past, therefore she is not entirely new to us in the teaching capacity.

Seventh Grade News

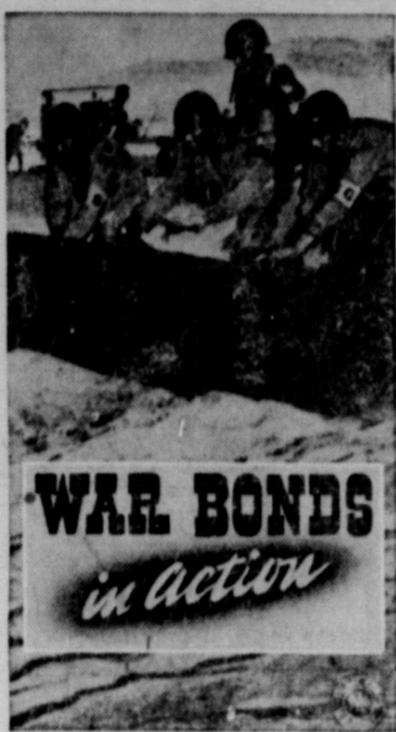

The seventh grade pupils have all had a very joyous Christmas and Santa Claus and everybody was good to everyone else.

We are sorry that Mrs. Bowden had to leave us, but we are glad that Mrs. Kirk has come to teach us.

Monday, when we first came back to school there were quite a few absent, but we had one new pupil, Edith Frost, who enrolled Monday.

Eight B News

The eighth grade is back after

On the beaches of Italy, in the jungles of the Pacific—planes, tanks, artillery must move—and fast; no waiting to build roads or airfields. That's when our soldiers must unroll these "steel mattresses," as you see them in this photo. Your War Bonds pay for them.
 U. S. Treasury Department

Christmas holidays. Santa Claus brought us everything we wanted.

We hope everyone got what they wanted. Monday morning when we started back to school we had a new teacher, Mrs. Kirk, who took Mrs. Chester Bowden's place. We're sure she will be very good.

Third Grade News

We are very happy to have six new pupils in our room. Donell Phillips and Gloria Elliott have the chickenpox. We are glad to be back to school from the Christmas and New Year holidays.

Sixth Grade News

We have three new pupils. Their names are M. J. Fields, Brance Wallace, and Preston Iseng. M. J. and Brance are from Sunset. Preston is from Gilliland. We are very glad to have them.

We have changed committees in our room. We have tried to put each person on another committee.

Eight A News

Well, I believe it now, when they say Monday is a dull day, because the eighth grade proved it Monday. Everybody in that room had something wrong. They were either sleepy, chewing gum, mad, or didn't study, anyway it was a dull day for all of us.

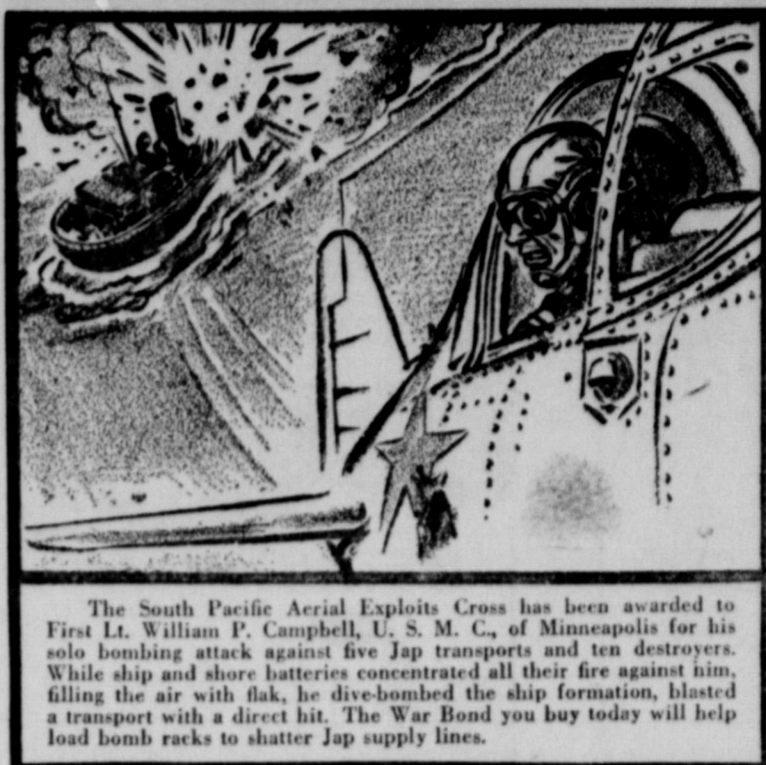

A lot of us got bonds for Christmas and we hope it will help in our "jeep drive."

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Roston, who have been making their home near Stamford, moved the first of this week to Goree route one to make their home.

Misses Truda Jane Coffman and Mary Jo Arnold of Goree visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Barnard last Sunday.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

The South Pacific Aerial Exploits Cross has been awarded to First Lt. William P. Campbell, U. S. M. C., of Minneapolis for his solo bombing attack against five Jap transports and ten destroyers. While ship and shore batteries concentrated all their fire against him, filling the air with flak, he dive-bombed the ship formation, blasted a transport with a direct hit. The War Bond you buy today will help load bomb racks to shatter Jap supply lines.
 U. S. Treasury Department

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Duke and little daughter, Jo Ann, of Paris, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hester and Mrs. J. W. Medley of Haskell visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Warren during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kirk of Littlefield spent several days here this week with their son and family, Rev. and Mrs. Luther Kirk.

SITTING HOME?
 THINK OF TRIPS?

Ever since the war started, about the only messages the railroads have had for the public have been exhortations not to go anywhere. But that's only for the duration, and railroad executives are quick to point out that everything will be done to make travel for more attractive after the war.

Already new, lightweight, streamlined trains are being blue-printed. There will be more luxurious cars to increase the fun of travel; high-capacity low fare cars and generally reduced passenger rates.

We may even permit ourselves to think now, as we speed along in our easy chairs, of one-cent-a-mile rates and trips from Boston to San Francisco that will cost only $35.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Eiland of Dallas came in Sunday for a few days visit with Andy's mother, Mrs. Dave Eiland, and with other relatives and friends.

Mrs. O. A. Green of Knox City was a business visitor here last Monday.

Mrs. Clyde Barnett of Benjamin was a business visitor here last Friday.

Charles Baker returned to his duties at A. and M. College last Sunday after spending the holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Baker.

Do You Use
 Open Flame,
 Unvented Heaters?

VENTILATION

is half the battle against wall sweating

The Window, in homes where open flame, unvented room heaters are used, has a prominent part in maintaining healthful winter living conditions. For it is the slight opening of the window which permits a flow of fresh, oxygen-laden air into the room. This is important if wall sweating is to be reduced.

All air contains a certain amount of moisture. Condensation or "sweating" that collects on cold surfaces inside the room is caused by too much moisture in the room. Water vapor is one of the products produced by burning fuel. This water vapor combines with the moisture that is already present in the air and when the room air reaches a super-saturated condition "sweating" or condensation collects on any cold surface, such as walls, windows, doors, and furniture.

The open flame, unvented heater is practical for quick heat and is used with great satisfaction when sufficient ventilation is provided by slightly opening a window.

Heat whole house for healthful living conditions. If unvented type heaters are used it is important to have some ventilation, and a free movement of warm air should be kept circulating in the house through connecting doors of all rooms.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS by BOYCE HOUSE

Official Austin is about to bestir itself with reference to seeing that Texas citizens serving in the armed forces get to vote.

This interest is a matter of special gratification to your columnist because, away back in the summer of 1942, as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor I insisted that something should be done to permit our Texas soldiers and sailors to vote. No other candidate for any state office showed the slightest concern on the subject, so far as I read or heard—in fact, about the only Austin reaction was the comment of a newspaperman (a personal friend of mine, too) that "Boyce House tries to make an issue of soldier voting."

Well, it's nice to be vindicated, even if you have to wait 18 months.

The fact that a Texas citizen puts on a uniform to fight for his country in time of war should not bar him from voting. The man who is fighting for your rights and mine surely has as much right to vote as you and I do. The man who is offering his blood and his life to preserve our government certainly is entitled to a voice in running that government.

Over in Leonard recently, I met School Supt. W. D. George, a remarkably practical and energetic man. He runs the school system and that would be enough to keep almost anybody busy—but the morning this observer was in Leonard, Supt. George had lost some workers so he got up early and built eight fires in the school buildings and then he got behind the steering wheel and drove one of the school buses on its rounds.

And how do you suppose he spent last summer? He went up to one of the big war plants and got a job of hard work—he didn't tell anybody around him that he was a school superintendent either; he just pitched in and did his part of the good, hard, physical labor.

As long as we have men in this country who lay aside dignity when there is a necessary job to do and do it, the future of America is safe. Supt. George is typical of the school teachers of Texas who love their work and are sticking to it because it needs to be done—we must train the next generation of citizens. Thousands of school teachers have turned down the chance for jobs with shorter hours and easier work and more pay, because they want to see to it that the liberties won by the bravery of our soldiers on the battlefields are placed in the keeping of trainees can be hastened, and the value of the dollar be preserved to give our returning military sons the best possible conditions under which to resume civilian life."
