

Last Rites For Lamar Searcey Held Sunday

Tragedy struck at a Munday home early Saturday morning, when Lamar Searcey, well known local farmer, died from a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Mr. Searcey, according to reports, became despondent over ill health and an impending operation. His wife found him shortly after six o'clock Saturday morning in a room of their home after getting up to investigate a disturbance. Mr. Searcey was dead when found, a bullet wound over his heart and a .22 calibre rifle nearby.

An inquest was begun by Justice of the Peace John Rice, who announced Monday he had not completed his investigations and would render a decision Wednesday. There was some thought that Searcey's death might be accidental.

Mr. Searcey was born at Munday on February 2, 1916, and was 30 years, 9 months and 14 days of age. He had resided in the county all of his life, having been engaged in farming for several years.

He was a member of the First Baptist church since 1934. Immediate survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ruth Searcey, and two children, Wayne and Marilyn; his father, A. M. Searcey, Munday, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Brice Dobbs, Mrs. A. C. Womble, Mrs. Gilbert Dunklin and Mrs. V. C. Snyder, all of Dallas; Mrs. Harold Funk, Hemet, Calif.; Floyd Searcey, Thaxton Searcey, Richard Searcey, Fred Searcey, Clarence Searcey and L. G. Searcey, all of Munday.

Funeral services were held from the First Baptist church in Munday at two o'clock last Sunday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. W. H. Albertson, pastor. The body was laid to rest in Johnson cemetery, with the Mahan Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Palbearers were Otis Simpson, Alvin Reid, Andy Hutchenson, Joe Patterson, Carl Booe and Earl Foshee.

Jurist Dies At Brownwood

Brownwood—Edward Joseph Miller, 68, who was elected associate justice of the 11th Court of Civil Appeals in November, died in a Brownwood hospital early Monday.

He was to have succeeded Courtney Gray, also of Brownwood, on the court at Eastland. Gray was appointed by Governor Stevenson last year to fill a vacancy in the court.

Miller was born in Sabine Parish, Louisiana, and had been a farmer, rancher and teacher, as well as a member of the bar. He attended Simmons College and attained a degree from Sam Houston State Teachers College. He served here as judge of the 35th District Court for 12 years. The court was closed for his funeral, which was held at 4 p. m. Tuesday at the First Baptist church.

Active in Boy Scout work, Miller was president of the Comanche Trail Boy Scout Council, a member of the Odd Fellow lodge and a Baptist.

Survivors are his widow, the former Willie Jenkins, whom he married in 1911, and a daughter, Mrs. Anna S. Beck, Brownwood.

Vocational Teachers Attend Meet Held In Lubbock For Vet Instructors

Capt. Bonner Baker Takes Up Position School Supervisor

Captain Bonner Z. Baker resigned his position as Coordinator of Distributive Education in the Wichita County Vocational School for Veterans at Hardin College this week to accept a position with the State Board for Vocational Education as Supervisor of such schools.

In accepting his resignation Mr. Dowell, director of the local school stated that it would be a distant loss to the program here, and he did not know of anyone who has the ability to replace him. However the State Director insisted that Captain Baker would be worth more to the program as a state supervisor than he could be in any County School and that it would be a decided promotion for him.

In the words of Mr. Dowell, "Captain Baker has only been in Wichita Falls a short time but has been going to town with his part of the program. I have been giving him orders for some time but from now on I'll take orders from him, and I know the efficiency of the program will be increased because of his promotion."

Postal Employees Meet At Goree; Officers Named

B. C. Anderson, Knox City postmaster, was elected president of the Brazos Valley Postal Employees association last Monday night, when its members met in Goree for the regular monthly program. Anderson succeeds S. G. Hampton of Goree.

Other officers elected are: Mrs. Claude Norman, Rule, first vice president; Mrs. Pearl Monk, Weinert, second vice president; Buster Chamberlin, third vice president; Jeff Graham, Knox City, secretary; Miss Merle Dingus, Munday, reporter.

The association met in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. George Crouch, and the hostess served refreshments at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Pearl Monk of Weinert led the discussion on postal problems and postal rules and regulations.

Twenty-two members attended from Goree, Munday, Knox City, Rule, Weinert and Haskell.

CITIZENS INVITED TO VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

J. A. Jolly, co-ordinator, and members of the teaching staff, as well as the vocational board, cordially invite local citizens to visit the local Vocational Agricultural School for Veterans at any time.

Five classes are being conducted each Monday night here, with 115 students in attendance. Two agriculture classes, one business, one carpentry and a mechanics class are held. Classes are held other nights during the week, but it is believed the Monday night classes will be more interesting to those who would like to visit the school.

Knox county's vocational agriculture teachers attended a recent meeting held in Lubbock for all instructors in veterans' schools of this region. Mr. St. Clair, Mr. Kelly, Mr. Penick and Mr. Jolly attended this meeting. Several important matters were discussed.

It was pointed out that the main objective of the agriculture program is to re-establish the veteran on a family size farm, and give him the newest proven methods of farming. The subsistence the veteran draws is to be used to buy livestock and equipment so at the end of his training he will be an independent farmer, able to compete in the agriculture field on an equal footing with older and well-established farmers.

A committee of six men have been appointed by the vocational board to determine the eligibility of each veteran going into the agriculture program. This committee also passes on tools needed by each veteran-farmer.

The local committee consists of Claude Richardson, Clay F. Grove, August Schumacher, Ben B. Hunt, Ted Russell and Jake Cure.

Any veteran planning to take up agriculture should see the committee in his respective community for qualifications and advice.

Mesquite Killing Experiments Done On Hamilton Ranch

Charlie Hamilton, prominent rancher of Knox County, is conducting a very interesting experiment in the killing of mesquite, according to the county agent.

Mr. Hamilton has secured the services of a large caterpillar equipped with a steel V shaped blade in front which breaks and pushes the trees to one side. Attached to the rear of the caterpillar are two steel arms operated by a hydraulic system. These arms are attached on each side of the caterpillar, and are connected by a strong steel blade. This blade is forced into the ground from 8 inches to 18 inches, thus cutting the stumps as it is pulled through the ground. The grass turf is allowed to pass between the two steel arms. Mr. Hamilton is having the machine clear a half section of land in the same manner as if he were plowing it. It is believed he will be very successful in killing the mesquites and preventing much water run off by the deep sub soiling.

GET 6-POINTER

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stodghill and Herbert Stodghill returned home last Monday night from Mason county, where they had been on their annual deer hunting trip, being the first of local hunters to return. They brought home one 6-point buck, which Lyle and Herbert shared honors in getting. They reported deer in Mason county as being scarce this year.

Bi-District Game Is Set For December 6th at Seymour

Moguls Take Easy Victory At Albany Thurs.

The last obstacle down "triumph trail" for the Munday Moguls was taken in easy stride on Thursday night of last week when they defeated the Albany Lions, 26-0, on the Albany field. With this game, the Moguls closed their 1946 schedule and are now preparing for the bi-district game with Seymour.

Munday's championship of District 11-A was "in the bag" when they defeated the Pied Pipers of Hamlin, but they realized that an upset was possible in the scrappy bunch of Albany Lions. This possibility was taken care of in easy fashion last Thursday night.

Coch Latham played his second string team most of the time, and Roy Bouldin accounted for three of the four touchdowns made by the Moguls. At no time was the entire first string in the play.

Bill Smally was the standout for the Lions, which had a scarping but light team. It was Albany's best game of the season, and first downs for the two teams were even.

The Moguls have gained strength throughout the season, closing out with only one tie in conference play, as they proudly received their first district pennant.

Grub Worms Are Killing Grain In Knox County

Grub worms are inflicting heavy damage to some fields in the north part of Knox County. Carl Haynie, of Truscott, reported to the County Agent that he has fifty acres which will have to be re-sowed. This grub worm which eventually turns into what is commonly known as a "June Bug" is hard to control because of its life cycle. The pasturing of hogs and poultry on the infested ground helps more than other method at the present. Frequent plowing exposes the worms to wild fowl, also.

It takes four years for the grub worm to become a "June Bug."

The "June Bug" lays eggs in the spring, which hatch into a small worm and grows during the year. When the first winter comes it goes deeper in the ground. The second spring it comes out to the surface and begins to work on plants again and does its most serious damage during the year returning to deep earth the second winter. The third spring it comes out, feeds until around July, and then goes into a pupae stage, according to entomologists studying the bug.

This pupae spends the third winter deep into the ground and comes out to form a "June Bug" the fourth spring. June Bugs themselves do very less damage. They sometimes attack oak and other trees which can be protected with arsenical sprays.

Houston—J. B. Pumphrey of Old Glory, Texas has been unanimously re-elected to the board of directors of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston, it was announced here this week upon completion of balloting among the 36 production credit associations in Texas to select their representative on this board.

Mr. Pumphrey was elected to his second 3-year term, beginning January 1, 1947. As such director he will serve as a director of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, the Production Credit Corporation of Houston, and the Houston Bank for Cooperatives. He is a well-known Stonewall County farmer and ranchman and has been president of the Stamford Production Credit Association since its organization in 1934.

Other directors of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston are: S. A. Lindsey of Tyler, B. L. Sanders of Corsicana, Jake Schwartz of Uvalde, D. B. Denney of Greenville, Charles C. Thompson of Colorado City, Ide P. Trotter of College Station.

Hoyle A. Sullins of Vera, special agent for the Department of Commerce, bureau of the census, Washington, Wednesday submitted the following cotton report for Knox county:

Time To Write To Santa Claus!

As in the past, the Munday Times will publish letters which Knox county kiddies write to Santa Claus this year, telling him what they want for Christmas.

These letters will be published around December 19, but it is important that you get them to us as soon as possible. By getting your letters in early, it will give us time to set them in type and then forward them on to Santa Claus.

We want lots of letters, so we can invite all kiddies to write their letters now!

Champions Prepare For Bi-District Game

Seymour had the privilege of setting the time and place for the "battle of champions" between the Munday Moguls, winners in district 11-A football, and the Seymour Panthers, finalists of District 12-A. So the game will be played at Seymour on Friday, December 6, to determine the bi-district championship.

This came about by reason of the fact that Seymour played at Munday in the last game that affected district standings of the two teams, and Interscholastic League rules gave the Panthers the site for this bi-district game.

With larger seating capacity in Seymour stadium, it is believed the large crowd expected to attend the game can be more easily accommodated.

Interest in the game is increasing because, despite the fact the bi-district champions will be decided, it is also renewing the football rivalry between the two teams which have met each year in either district or inter-district contests.

The two teams met in a non-conference game earlier in the year and battled to a 6-6 tie.

Time for the game will likely be at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Admission price for the concert will be 15 and 20 cents, and this will also be the regular meeting night for the band parents organization.

District Masons Meet At Goree

The 91st District Masonic Association held its regular meeting last Tuesday evening at the Goree school gymnasium. The Goree and Munday lodges were hosts.

A delicious chicken dinner was served at 7:30 o'clock, opening the meeting. The dinner was prepared by the home economics department of Goree high school, and was served by the freshmen home ec. class.

Following the dinner, J. J. Collier, of Vera, association president, took charge of the meeting. The address of welcome was given by Orb Coffman of Goree, and Rev. McGuire of Knox City made the response.

Rev. Don Davidson of Munday was the principal speaker, bringing a forceful and inspirational message upon the meaning of the Masonic apron. Between 90 and 100 Masons were present, representing lodges of Seymour, Haskell, Rule, Knox City, Benjamin, Munday and Goree.

Rule and Rochester lodges will be hosts for the next meeting, which will be on the third Tuesday in January.

THIS PARTY RETURNED WITH ONLY EIGHT BUCK!

It was a successful deer hunt from which O. V. Milstead and L. D. Reeves and their party returned last Tuesday night. They went to Mason county and were accompanied by two of Mr. Milstead's brothers.

Milstead bagged a 4-pointer and a 11-pointer; Reeves got a 9-pointer; Milstead's two brothers got four, and one of their wives also got her deer. This is the biggest haul reported thus far.

"What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him—

THEY WORK, THEY BUY, THEY LEAVE

Several thousand cotton pickers are temporary residents of Haskell County during this season's busiest season ever year, and these people are most disinterested observers believe. There are many local folks who think the farm laborers are in here for a few thousand fast dollars who take most of this money to South Texas and Old Mexico with them.

A few minutes in almost any Haskell business establishment on any Saturday will convince even the most critical that the people who gather Haskell County's crops every fall are worth more to the businesses of this section than a casual thought would indicate. Usually the cotton pickers come here during warm weather and stay until cold weather has hit, and they don't bring enough clothes along to ward off Old Man Winter. Dry goods stores sell thousands of dollars worth of clothing and bedding material; hardware stores sell them great quantities of small implements and other supplies that go with camping, cooking, working and living in the open; grocery stores sell them food orders that run quickly into hundreds of dollars every week; drug stores sell them medicines and other items that are required by anyone in normal everyday living; garages and filling stations profit by supplying gas and oil, tires automotive equipment and service; cafes do business in big volume with them; theatres entertain hundreds of these workers every week; and other businesses make money supplying needs of folks who make good money and are ready to spend it.

Several years ago there were people who came to this section during harvest season who were of questionable character. Let us not penalize those who come here now by classifying them with former transient laborers. Most of the workers who gather Haskell County crops now are of unquestionable character and are so organized in groups that they are highly efficient and are easy for farmers to deal with. They are intelligent and clean and establish friendships here that last through the years. Many groups return year after year to work for the same farmers. They truly are an asset to Haskell County.

The above editorial appeared in a recent issue of the Haskell Free Press, but it applies so strikingly to Knox county that we are reproducing it in The Munday Times.

"Excuse me," said the mild little man in the crowded cafeteria, who had returned with a cup of coffee, "but you have my seat."

"Oh, yeah," growled the big man. "Can you prove it?"

"I think so, Sir," the little man murmured timidly. "I left my pie and ice cream in the chair."

BUY YOUR EXTRA SAVINGS BOND

When did you buy your last extra United States Savings Bond? In the final bond drive, the victory Loan, a year ago? Last week? Yesterday? Today? You may be like one of the old horse traders and answer a question by asking a question: "Why bring up the question of savings bonds now?" Or you may have the answer by pointing to your continued investment in savings bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Whatever your reactions to our savings bonds editorial questionnaire, all of us can agree that any savings bond you ever bought was the best "buy" you ever made for yourself and those you hold dear. During the war these bonds linked you with your fighting men. Today—as always—they link you with the future.

There was never a time in history of the sale of these savings bonds by your United States Treasury Department when it was so urgent to invest in them. This is the time of year when human nature urges us to buy something extra for ourselves, relatives or friends. As a nation we haven't got around yet to producing enough merchandise to meet demand. If you as an individual scramble for what goods are available here, you will help to force your own cost of living still further upward. If you spend for merchandise and services which you really do not need now, you are hurting yourself, your community. On the other hand, every extra savings bond today represents a patriotic extra step as well as a personal self-interest gain. Buy an extra savings bond today. Buy every pay day.

WHICH WAY?

We can keep up public spending at the present this country can afford a $300,000,000,000 debt. We have got it. The real point is what we are going to do about it. Only two courses are open to us.

Costs to the limit, start regular debt retirement rate, let the budget remain unbalanced and further depreciate the dollar. This will make a future depression inevitable and imperil the war bonds, savings accounts, and insurance policies of all the people.

Or we can tighten our belts, cut government costs to the limit, start regular debt retirement procedures—and eventually pull out with a sound dollar and a solvent nation.

Veterans' News

Dietitians arranging meals for the 7,500 veteran-patients in the 17 Veterans Administration hospitals of Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi can sympathize with housewives about rising food prices.

It now costs VA 14.9 per cent more to buy food for a patient than it did in April of this year, a survey by the VA dietetic division shows.

Nine of the hospitals reported increases in per-patient food costs since April. One hospital reported its food costs up 50 per cent. Two of the larger hospitals showed reductions in food costs, but the decreases were slight.

GI Joe and GI Jane have gone back to school in a big way.

Veterans Administration says nearly as many veterans have applied for World War II education and training as served in the armed forces during World War I.

By September 30th a total of 4,499,654 of the nation's World War II veterans had asked for school, college or job training benefits.

This is an increase of more than 133,000 over the August 31 figure. More than 18,700 veterans of the Dallas branch area have financed home loans with the aid of government guarantees provided under the GI Bill.

Slightly more than 1,200 have financed farm loans and 2,527 have gone into business via VA-guaranteed loans.

Total value of all three types of loans is $111,437,062.

Currently, veterans of the Dallas area are consuming GI loans at the rate of 1,000 per week, compared with 174 per week in January of this year.

Boyce House Gives You Texas

Back in the days when, outside the South, the country was almost solidly Republican (in the Coolidge era), Amon Carter was riding on the train with his friend, Will Rogers. The cowboy philosopher met another passenger, who had recently made the race for Governor of a Mid-Western state as the Democratic nominee. That day, Will wrote in his column, "On the train today, had the pleasure of meeting the man who ran for governor of Iowa on the Democratic ticket. Also on the train were the two men who voted for him."

J. M. North, Jr., editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, speaking of the enthusiasm of anyone who has made up his mind to run for office, said, "If one man asks you to run, you have been solicited; if two ask you, there is a great public demand; and if three ask you, you have been drafted."

He told of an early-day citizen of Fort Worth who ran a boarding-house. This citizen decided to run for mayor and received 11 votes. The ex-candidate put a notice in the paper that if those who voted for him would come by, he would be glad to have them as his guests for Sunday dinner. So many came that it took three hours to feed them all!

AAA FARM NEWS

AAA VOTING CHANGES

This year Texas farmers will have an opportunity to vote for farmer-committeemen in all Texas communities by mail. B. F. Vance, State PMA Director at College Station announced this week. The election will be conducted during the period November 18 to December 14.

Official ballots will be sent to each eligible voter, Vance explained. On this ballot, there will appear the name of one candidate for each position who was selected by a nominating committee of farmers in the community and also space for the farmers to write in the name of any farmer he wants to represent him as community committeeman if he does not want to vote for the nominee. Each farmer will vote for three regular members of the community committee and two alternate members.

At the same time, voters will elect a delegate and an alternate delegate to represent their community at the county conventions. At that county convention the delegates from all the communities within the county will elect three farmers to serve as the county conservation committee for 1947. Delegates may or may not be the same persons selected as committee men.

The ballots are to be sealed, secret ballots, Vance said. Voters may mail the ballots to their county ACA office, or bring them to the ACA office and place them in the ballot box in person, or they may take them to the polling place in the community on the day set for the election in that community.

Any person participating in the 1946 Agriculture Conservation Program or the Sugar Program or any person who has a contract with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation is eligible to vote in the election. This includes owners, operators, and tenants on farms where the conservation or sugar program is being carried out. The wife of every eligible voter is also eligible to vote. Any eligible voter who does not receive a ballot may secure one by calling at the ACA office or may go to the polls on election day and vote.

Vance said that the voting procedure was changed to assure a greater participation in the elections, so that the men who are elected truly represent the choice of the farmers in the community. He stresses the point of electing men with good judgment to the committeemen jobs. He explained that the farmers elected as committeemen will be called on during the next year to perform many responsible duties. They will make important decisions about soil conservation, about crop adjustments, about government price supports, and other Federal farm programs. He urged that every eligible voter cast his ballot, and give his support to the men he wants to represent him as his committeemen for 1947.

Farmers Reminded of Cotton-Loan Protection

Cotton farmers are reminded that they need not market their crop at just any price. Government programs are available which afford both price and orderly marketing protection.

Producers who take out government loans on their cotton crops—at 92½ per cent of parity—not only can promote the orderly marketing of the crop; they also keep title to ownership of the cotton, and may dispose of it later, as they wish. Actually, U. S. cotton is in a statistically favorable position. On August 1, of this year, the national carry-over was 7½ million bales, compared with 11 million in 1945, and record 13 million bales in 1939. Large stocks of cotton previously held by the Commodity Credit Corporation have been sold.

On August 1 of next year, the carry-over is expected to be less than 4 million bales, the smallest in 17 years. All of which means price protection and a strong probable demand for cotton.

Praying For Rain Is Not Enough

Rainfall is mighty important in determining yields of cotton and other crops. On the average, lack of moisture reduces the U. S. cotton crop yield about 8 per cent, annually.

Other things are important, too. Boll weevils, for example, reduce our cotton yields, on the average, about 7.7 per cent—Almost as much as deficient moisture.

We can't control the weather; but cotton farmers can control many factors that influence their yields.

Good planting seed, plenty of fertilizer, control of diseases and insects, and other sound practices will make more cotton per acre in 1947.

They will help you "cash in" more on every acre of cotton you plant. And higher yields multiplied by more acres will mean more cash and more livestock feed for you, and more cotton and cottonseed products needed by everyone.

Vernon Women Are Guests In Salem Home For Interesting Talk On Syria

Mrs. George Salem was hostess to a group of Vernon high school teachers and a few local women last Saturday at 2:30 p. m. in her home, at which time, at the request of the Vernon women, she gave a very interesting and educational travelogue of the years she spent in her native country of Syria. Vernon women had asked her to come to Vernon, but she decided to have them in her home so she could use various Oriental objects in connection with her talk.

Guests were greeted by the hostess and Mrs. J. D. Crockett. A profusion of autumn flowers added cheer as well as beauty to the entertaining rooms. Throughout the house numerous Oriental objects were on display. They were materials of silver, ivory, copper, cloth, carved and inlaid wood, mother of pearl China.

After the guests had admired these, they were invited into the dining room, where they were served punch by Misses Peggy Dee Clough and Gwendolyn Smith. They were then seated in the living room, and Mrs. Salem began her travelogue.

She told about her ocean voyage going over, the people of Syria and their customs and mode of dress, interesting facts about her home in Beyrouth, conditions in Syria during the war and other places of interest which she visited.

While there, Mrs. Salem became a member of the British Red Cross, and was chairman of the health committee under the Arab Women's Federation at Beyrouth. She also worked on the child welfare committee, was president of an orphan's home in Beyrouth, and active in day nursery.

She said there were 300 American families living in Beyrouth at that time.

At the close of the travelogue, the hostess served, and her refreshments were also in keeping with the general theme of her talk—a very attractive Oriental refreshment plate of angel kisses, anise seed cookies, chicken salad with pomegranate seed, individual meat pie with pine seed, coconut petti-fore, samsen nut bread, followed by delicious hot coffee.

The guest list included the following from Vernon: Mmes. W. R.

Newsom, Walter Hofmann, B. K. Norwood, Helen Powell, A. N. Bryant, R. A. Brand, Jr., Ruth Parson, Homer D. Jones, J. K. Stuckey, Roy Hughes, Ola Watson, and Misses Ruby Smith, Ola Haynes and Mary Alice Newsom. Munday ladies who attended are: Mmes. J. W. Roberts, Don Davidson, W. C. Cox, P. V. Williams, S. E. McStay, W. H. Albertson and J. D. Crockett.

Messages are brought with the purpose of giving strength and guidance to those who want to be of service in Kingdom Building. Visitors are always welcome and there is more time for visiting and fellowship in the evening hour than in the Morning Worship.

This program is the effort of our church to minister to you and your spiritual life. We can do only this much and the use you make of it is your responsibility. With us you can have help and grace and blessing. If you want it we will be happy. If you do not believe enough in our ministry to avail yourself of its values even at some trouble and cost we can but pray God's Spirit to stay with you until the day when you can somehow "believe" in the ministry of the Church by the life you live.

Western Auto Associate StoreState Tractors Seen Numbering 200,220 By '50

Texas may have as many as 200,220 tractors rumbling over its farm lands by 1950 under the impetus of a vigorous nation-wide drive toward complete agricultural mechanization.

This number would be the state's quota of the 3,000,000 tractors expected to be in use on all U. S. farms by 1950, according to a study by SKF Industries, Inc. This full total is dependent, however, upon the South mechanizing to the same degree now prevailing in the Middle Atlantic states.

"The demand for farm machinery, particularly tractors, is the heaviest in history," said C. W. Moore, market analyst for the ball and roller bearing company. "Tractors are sorely needed to help the farmer to offset lost manpower and increased acreage and to continue to meet high food production goals."

Texas farms had an estimated 138,066 tractors on July 1, the study disclosed, of these, between 26,307 and 26,981 are past their normal junking period and 7,009 more are wearing out annually.

"The farmer is in the best financial condition he has ever known," Moore said. "The demand for, and supply of, farm equipment are expected to continue a profitable relationship for some time," he added, pointing out that the state had a record gross farm income last year of $1,189,301,000 from crops and livestock.

Moore said tractors and other farm machinery now in production or on drafting boards would enable the farmer to stretch his income dollar.

"Not only will this equipment be lighter in weight, but it will have better resistance to wear and corrosion," he said. "It will be equipped with anti-friction bearings that require fewer repairs and less frequent lubrication, and it will be easier and less expensive to operate."

Teachers Invite Governor Jester To Dallas Meet

Dallas— Governor-Elect Beauford H. Jester has been invited to attend the annual meeting of the Texas Teachers Welfare Association, Inc., in Dallas on Saturday, December 14, to discuss his program for increasing the pay of Texas Teachers. The Governor-Elect is pledged to raise the pay of teachers.

The recently chartered Texas Teachers Welfare Association, a militant organization of teachers pledged to work for the general improvement of the teaching profession, is now conducting state-wide campaign to inform the public of the grave shortage of teachers in Texas schools and to bring about an increase of pay which they declare is necessary to halt the wholesale exodus of teachers from the school-rooms of the State.

Dr. Joe P. Harris, Dallas county School Superintendent, Secretary of the Association, and other members of the Executive Committee are arranging the program for the Dallas meeting, at which a legislative program will be discussed.

Amendment of the Rural Aid Law lifting the ceilings which this law imposes on teachers in Rural Aid Schools is first on the program now being sponsored by the Texas Teachers Welfare Association. A minimum of $2,400 a year for beginners, instead of the $1,215 maximum for beginners now allowed under the Rural Aid Law, is proposed by the association.

Dr. Harris pointed out that Soviet Russia, which patterned its public school system after that of the United States, now spends the equivalent of $13,000,000,000 (billions), or 20 per cent of its national income, for education, while the United States, richest nation on the globe, spends less than $3,000,000,000 (billions), or less than 2 per cent of the national income.

Texas ranks 33rd among the states in per capita expenditure for education, far below the national average. The figures cited by Dr. Harris were compiled by the National Educational Association, which has taken a strong stand in favor of higher pay or teachers generally.

Miss Helen Haymes, Miss Louise Speigelmier and Donald Jolly, all of McMurtry College, Abilene, spent the week end with Helen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haymes.

First and Second Grade

The second grade is selling tickets for a large bottle of bath salts and perfume, and also a little baby sweater. They will put the money in on the queen's race which is coming along nicely.

Jo Ann Argo reported having a very nice time at Hollis, Oklahoma Sunday.

Betty Jean and her sister got an accordion for their birthday.

Essie Lefevre says her uncle has a new jeep.

Nancy Harber came to see Carol last week end. She is from Dallas.

Jerry Johnston got a red monkey that will climb a string. He likes to watch it a lot.

The first and second grades will play "John Brown Had a Little Indian," at the carnival.

Third Grade

We are happy to have Carlene Morgan back after being absent for two days because of her cold.

Mrs. Stone visited the third grade Friday.

We have several pupils out today because of cotton gathering.

The little children in here that are to be the white mice in the Cinderella play are having their costumes made.

Fourth and Fifth Grade

Roy and Wayne Butler visited friends in Munday the past week end.

Claude Larry Hill's aunt from Fort Worth visited his family Sunday.

Loretta Floyd's uncle returned home from Waco.

Mrs. Wilcox, Pansy's mother, visited in Wichita Falls and talked over radio.

We are still rooting for our queen, Nell Johnson. The Festival will soon be here.

Jimmie Burl Morgan's grandparents from Weatherford are visiting in his home.

Shirley Orsak is the Fifth grade queen. Let's all work hard the next few days.

Sixth and Seventh Grade

Take a peek at our cooky jar in the seventh grade room and buy a ticket for ten cents.

We are reviewing today for six weeks examinations which will be Thursday and Friday.

Pauline Wheeler, Joy Minchew and Frances Johnson are absent from school this week.

Eighth Grade News

We are all working hard to get in our book reports by Wednesday. Gladys Nell Simmons visited her sister in Wichita Falls over the week end.

Jeanette Hawkins visited her cousin, Wynelle Stephens over the week end.

Doris June Walling's brother, Weldon Walling was here last week.

We all had our pictures made Friday for the annual.

We are selling ice-cream today, to make money for our queen.

D. B.'s friend Oscar Mangis, Jr. visited him Sunday.

Freshman News

The girls are very sorry to report losing the game Friday night, but we plan to beat them when they return the visit.

Billie Lambeth from Las Vegas visited Helen last week.

We are selling tickets on a nice all wool blanket. We would like for everyone to buy several tickets. The money goes in on the queen's race.

Mrs. Partridge is having a hard time trying to teach us the uses of the apostrophe. The other night she had a night mare seeing Patricia Johnson in a cave hollering, "Mrs. Partridge, save me. The apostrophe is getting me." We all enjoy eating in the lunchroom, and we hope that it can continue.

Sophomore News

This is the week every one is supposed to study. The teachers tell us it is time for the second six weeks test. We also have our book reports on prose to give and our poetry to say. If everyone is not busy this week it will not be because he hasn't anything to do.

Everyone is holding his breath, hoping to be the lucky one to win the bright red platform rocker the seniors are selling tickets on. What an enjoyable night one could have, settled in that chair with an efficacious book.

We are immensely enthralled with the story, "Ivanhoe." Miss Cash has been reading to us in history class.

We are patiently awaiting the verdict we are to hear about our choral club. Everyone is very much sold on the idea of having one.

Junior News

We juniors entered alphabetically into the study of Macbeth. We were determined to dislike the masterpiece of the great English writer. But as each act was read and we began to visualize a mental picture of each character, our interest roused to a greater height. We found the philosophical soliloquies of Macbeth to be the most interesting passages in the drama.

As Armistice Day was last week our essay assignment was on "The Unknown."

Senior News

We are publishing an annual this year that every student in Sunset high school will be proud to own. This annual will be much larger and better than it has ever been before.

The queen's race is in full swing with the seniors and sophomores leading.

The seniors are selling tickets on a $57 platform rocker which will be given away the night of our Harvest Festival, Tuesday, Nov. 26.

"B. F. Goodrich users have been telling their friends about the wonderful tire mileage they are getting from the broader, flatter Silvertown

Why Bert Won First Prize

Folks weren't surprised when Bert Childers won first prize for his corn at the county fair.

Yet the judges admit it wasn't just because Bert had the finest ears of corn. He knew how to display them: neatly arranged, with the husks cleanly trimmed, and the teeth white and spotless.

"Trimming" sure make a difference no matter what you're offering—as Andy Botkin, keeper of the Garden Tavern, well knows. Andy doesn't just sell good beer. He sells it in a place that's clean and attractive...in nice surroundings that belong with the enjoyment of a wholesome beverage of moderation.

And Andy, of course, is a wholehearted supporter of "Self Regulation." That's the system by which the Brewers and tavern keepers themselves make sure that taverns selling beer are clean and orderly.

From where I sit, people like Andy also rate a "First prize." Not just for the quality of the product—but for the "trimmings" too.

Young Pullets Are Favored For Egg Production

The all-pullet flock for egg production is the thing for most general farm and even for many specialized poultry farms. Disposing of mature hens and keeping only the pullets is particularly practical and profitable for the small flocks kept in town and suburban areas for supplying eggs and meat for the family, says T. C. Byerly, poultry specialist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Pullets are the best fall and winter layers.

Older hens are most valuable on breeding farms that specialize in the supply of hatching eggs, according to Byerly.

Health and feed costs are the main reasons behind the all-pullet policy. The all-pullet flock is not exposed to danger of diseases that the older birds are likely to transmit if the two groups are mixed. "Chickens," says Byerly, "lay about 20 per cent more eggs during their first year of production than during their second year."

Some poultrymen favor keeping Leghorn hens for a second season because of replacement costs. Byerly points out that feed is the main expense item in replacement. It takes about 25 pounds of grain to rear a Leghorn pullet. But it takes about 18 pounds of grain to feed a Leghorn hen during the period when she is producing few eggs. "A half dozen added eggs in winter," Byerly points out, "will pay for the 7 pounds differences in feed."

By clearing out the older birds each year the poultryman gets the maximum supply of meat from the cockerel and pullet roasters surplus to the rearing of the annual replacement pullets.

On farms where hens are kept for a second year, Byerly emphasizes that it is good health policy to keep the flocks separated with the hens housed in one building and pullets in another.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—The first Thanksgiving Day in this country was proclaimed for the purpose of expressing thanks not only for the bountiful harvest which the colonists had reaped but for the sturdy health and endurance that had permitted them to survive the hardships and exposure, that first rigorous year in America. On the occasion of this Thanksgiving Day the State Health Officer, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, is appealing to every citizen of Texas to give serious thought to the preservation of his own health and that of his community.

"We have much to be thankful for in that our national health level has remained high despite the nervous tension, the sacrifices, the deprivations of a post-war period," Dr. Cox stated. "Our people have maintained a remarkable high health level and even under existing conditions, Texas has shown a continued decline in maternal and infant deaths."

"The people of Texas have reason to be thankful for the steadily increasing interest and cooperation being shown in matters pertaining to general sanitation and control of communicable diseases," Dr. Cox asserted. "Responsibility for advancement of the public health program lies not with the State Health Department primarily but with the people who support and encourage the local community efforts exerted and who apply in their own individual lives the health rules with which they have become acquainted through public health education."

D. Cox pointed out that one direct result of public health efforts in this nation has been the lengthening of the normal life span by more than 15 years.

"Certainly this is something to be thankful for and it should lend incentive for further efforts to promote and maintain community as well as statewide public health programs."

In 1940, more than 11,250,000 acres had been placed under forest fire protection of the Texas Forest Service.

Venison Sausage Makes Use For Less Tender Deer Cuts

Opening of deer season in Texas in the immediate future is certain to bring to wives of successful hunters the problem of using less tender cuts of venison. Edith Lawrence, specialist in food preparation for the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, offers venison sausage with its variety of uses as a solution.

The shoulder, neck and lower portion of the ribs when boned make good sausage, says Miss Lawrence. Here are the directions: Grind the meat, using three parts deer meat to one part of flesh pork fat. If a drier sausage is preferred, use four parts deer meat and one part of pork fat. Season with one and one-third cups of salt and three-fourths of a cup of black pepper to 50 pounds of meat. About three-eighths of a cup of sage may be added to the seasoning mixture, according to taste. (Three-eighths of a cup equals one-fourth of a cup plus two table-spoons.)

If the sausage is to be kept for some time, stuff it in a casing or muslin bag, Miss Lawrence suggests. She adds that the sausage may be smoked, depending on family preferences.

Ground venison may be used as any other ground meat—in meat loaf, with spaghetti or chili, for instance. Sometimes even the choice cuts from an old animal prove difficult to cook tender, and in this event they should be ground. In addition to adding seasoning, add some fat, too, the specialist advises, for venison usually contains insufficient fat. That is sometimes a reason it remains tough after long cooking.

Deer season east of the Pecos River is from November 16—Dec. 31. West of the Pecos it is November 24.
