Odd Bits Salvaged

(By Aaron Edgar)

"There's no excuse for a mosquito or a fly being in this town."

We heard a man say that not long ago—and he was none other than a member of our city governing board—if those words are right for a city council form of government.

What he meant was that with all the new discoveries of insecticides, etc., et cetera, that flies and mosquitoes can be almost completely eliminated. And that if the townspeople want to get rid of them bad enough, they can be almost absolutely done away with.

Yet, the mosquitoes and flies, especially mosquitoes, are waxing strong and multiplying rapidly and growing bigger and bigger in the little town of Munday.

They're getting worse every year. Time was when we came to Munday, that one could sit out on his lawn quite frequently. Now that act of leisure home living is almost a rarity.

You can't sit out, or be out after sunset, unless there's a strong wind blowing the mosquitoes away. And this year they're almost big enough to blow their breath against the wind and almost bring the wind to a standstill.

Why! Barton Carl was out at the golf course a few Sundays ago, using that little "caddie cart" which he won in last year's tournament. The mosquitoes were so bad that they inspired Barton to tell this story:

"Directly I saw my cart moving along, and I thought it was hoodooed. I got to investigating, and I found that two of those large mosquitoes had taken charge of it and was pushing it off. I had to run after them and take it away from them!"

And the mosquitoes are no larger, nor more vicious, out at the golf course than here in town.

Now, back to our "city father." He says they can be eliminated up to around 90 per cent—and it's getting to the point where it's almost a "must" in our town living.

Only hitch is, he says is that the city can't do the eliminating because of lack of funds. It's just a hustle and a bustle and a squeeze, he allows, to keep money in the various funds needed for operating the city. They can't spend any on the mosquitoes.

But the citizens can! Some contributions from business houses and individuals, and the funds "earmarked" for that purpose, can make money available—if people want that done bad enough.

We're informed that one of those commercial sprayer do-dads cost $600.00. Then there's the cost of insecticides, and salaries of men to operate the outfit. An outfit of approximately $1,500.00 would bring our fly and mosquito crop down to ten percent of its present size. Then about two more sprayings during the summer will bring us "up to snuff" in regards to the whole situation.

These are figures from one who, through study, seems to have some knowledge of how to go about the situation. "We just need the do-re-mi," he says "and we can keep this town spic and span and practically mosquito free."

Some people have been wanting us to "crumble some crackers" along this line of thought. Now, there they are, all crumbled up and ready for your duffle-bag!

Do you want to rid the town of those little insects whose bites cause big whelps to rise up on your body? Think it out, talk it over, consult your city council!

We repeat what we once said before: It's a marvel that a little town that can get as dirty and filthy and maintain as many health hazards can be as healthy as this town is.

Bond-A-Month Plan Sponsored By Local Bank; Aids People's Savings

With a concerted effort to show every citizen the advantages of systematic saving and the importance of U. S. Savings Bonds in the management of the $258 billion national debt, the U. S. Treasury has launched a national and local drive beginning June 1 and continuing through July. This June through July promotion will center on the theme: "Where you work . . . where you bank . . . buy U. S. Savings Bonds."

In emphasizing the importance of U. S. Savings Bonds in the Treasury's national debt management program, John W. Snyder, Secretary of the Treasury, states that "Widespread ownership of debt is essential to a sound debt structure. It is toward this objective that we must continue to utilize and emphasize the Savings Bond Program. The sale of Savings Bonds does not increase the national debt and the money from their sale is not used to finance a deficit. The primary purpose besides the advantages to the individual from systematic saving, is to spread the debt among the greatest possible number of citizens."

The June-July sales promotion campaign will introduce nationally the Bond-A-Month Plan for bank depositors. Under this plan, which is intended to reach professional men and women, self-employed persons and small businessmen, the depositor authorizes the bank to issue bonds to him monthly, charging the purchase price against his checking account and delivering the bonds to him.

The promotion will also center on revitalizing the Payroll Savings Plan, a means by which employees enjoy the advantages of systematic savings and thrift. The Bond-A-Month Plan is a lump sum payment plan for Savings Bonds in regular denominations. The Payroll Savings Plan is a partial payment plan that accumulates from payday to payday. The Payroll Plan has the active endorsement of such national industrialists as Richard R. Deupree, president of Procter and Gamble; Paul G. Hoffman, president of the Studebaker Corporation; Charles E. Wilson, president of General Electric Company; Charles Hook, president American Rolling Mills, and Clarence Francis, Chairman of the Board, General Foods Corporation.

Banks throughout Texas have instituted the Bond-A-Month Plan, which has been endorsed by the leading bankers' associations of the nation.

Mr. W. E. Braly, Knox County Chairman of the Savings Bonds Committee, urges full cooperation from all civic and business groups in the county in the Treasury's June-July promotion. "This is a community matter that effects each citizen of our country," he said. "Savings Bond sales are an important part of our national economy. The way the debt is managed will effect our lives for years to come, for it will affect the money supply, the price level, business conditions, employment and what a dollar will buy."

Miss Louise Speigelmier of Abilene visited in the Lee Haymes home over the week end. She left the first of this week for T. C. U., Fort Worth, where she is attending summer school.

Combines Are Busy In County Wheat Fields

Combines which have been coming into the county and being adjusted for wheat harvest really got into high this week, harvesting Knox county's largest wheat crop.

Wheat harvest started the latter part of last week, and Sunday was a busy day in lots of the fields. Thirteen cars of wheat were loaded out at Goree Sunday.

The first of this week saw Munday's elevators rushed to capacity, trying to unload the trucks and get them back to the wheat fields in record time. Reports were that the elevators ran all night Tuesday night, and then didn't get caught up.

N. W. Baird, local depot agent, reported that 20 cars of wheat were loaded out in Munday last Tuesday, and a like number on Wednesday.

Farmers are reporting a good yield in most instances, the average being around 30 bushels to the acre. Lowest report received up to Thursday morning was 16 bushels, while a large portion of the fields are yielding between 22 and 25 bushels.

An Injustice, Yes That's What It Is!

Well, the donkey ball game was played! and, we guess, too much publicity was given the donkeys and not enough was given the players. We go to the bank Saturday, and M. L. Wiggins hops us out strong.

"I've been discriminated against! Some of the truth was withheld," he cries in a loud voice.

"I didn't tell anyone I was going to ride a donkey! All I said was that it'd be worth the money to see me try to ride one—and I tried, didn't I? Who was it brought in that first run? I did, 'cause I was on that donkey and couldn't get off! Who was it come the nearest to taming old Frank Sanatra out there in center field than anyone else? Old Mose, that's who!"

Well, we realize the first run had to come in before the third and winning run did. And we couldn't watch the antics of Frank Sanatra all the time, or we'd have missed the entire ball game.

Gee whiz, Mose, we apologize! You did as good a job, maybe better, than most of them—except Frank Sanatra!

CAN'T DO THE IMPOSSIBLE

Endeavors to make across-the-board price cuts based on the idea of the Newburyport ten per cent price reduction plan, have considerable news value. They show a laudable desire by retailers to do everything possible that might help solve the price problem. They are not, however, a permanent solution.

First of all, it is physically impossible for a store to cut prices ten per cent on many basic, low-profit items, without subjecting itself to a net loss. Therefore, cuts of substantial size are likely to be restricted to higher-profit merchandise whose influence on the cost of living is relatively small.

Secondly, it would be absurd to say that all the items you see in your retail store are overpriced. Many of them are priced as cheaply as they can be in the light of present-day manufacturing and retail costs. The overpriced item is gradually disappearing as a result of consumer resistance, the refusal of retailers to stock goods for which there is a poor market, and the inexorable processes of competition.

A number of large retailers, including chains and metropolitan department stores, are now engaged in consultations with manufacturers on the related problems of price and quality. Progress, it is reported, is being made. The results achieved will be felt throughout the entire industry in the form of the lowest possible price for good merchandise. But the consumer must remember that the cost of production will largely determine the price. When it falls, prices will drop accordingly.

REASON TO BE GRATEFUL

The contributions of medical science to the welfare of the American people have occurred gradually over many years. Some of them have been little-publicized, and are not known as widely as they should be.

The New York Times recently ran an editorial on the Centenary of the American Medical Association. It observed that it had disagreed with some of the Association's policies. But, it pointed out, "during the long decades when the government was indifferent to the quality of food and drugs and the patient medicine man was in his heyday, the Association was a bulwark of protection. Quacks were pursued, educational standards were raised, drugs were appraised, hospitals and schools were approved or disapproved, a dozen first-class medical publications. . . were made indispensable purveyors of knowledge, nostrums were exposed as the frauds that they were, fads were ridiculed. For all these blessings the public has reason to be grateful."

The Association, as the principal and oldest medical organization of its kind, has been the leader in this work. Many groups have aided. The results is the high standard of health enjoyed by the American people. Medicine has fully realized and accepted its grave responsibilities to the country. Its work is never ending—and its achievements grow with the passing years.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS in '47

Opportunity knocks for the cotton grower to cash in on cotton in a big way in 1947. The acute shortage of cotton goods, livestock feed, vegetable oils and fats can be remedied only by greater production. This means a vast market for cotton and cottonseed products. It means strong prices for a long time to come. Farmers will do well to plan a substantial part of their farm program around cotton for high returns.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

Washington, D. C., May 31—On Monday of this week I was invited to address the convention here in Washington of the National Society of the Daughters of 1812, on the subject of national defense. I was pleased to have this large and responsive audience applaud my plea for stricter immigration laws. Millions of dollars are now being spent to bring pressure on Congress to lower immigration barriers.

The House this week passed the Agriculture Department Appropriation Bill for the fiscal year of 1948. The bill was most controversial. It reduced a budget request for $1,188,571,318 by more than $383,000,000. As finally passed the bill represents a cut of some 32 per cent in the funds requested. The bill now goes to the Senate where a good many changes will doubtless be made and some appropriations restored. The bill completely eliminates funds for the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Purchase Program. I was anxious that this program be carried on for the benefit of veterans. It is a loan program and the government has lost no money on it. A letter from J. A. Wheat of Seymour gives figures on this program for Baylor, Knox, and Throckmorton Counties. The Seymour office opened in 1938. These are 40-year loans. Judge figures follow: 31 loans in Baylor, 11 now repaid; 28 in Knox County, 5 repaid; 14 made in Throckmorton County, 2 repaid. Six farms were bought in Baylor County in 1938, the first year of the program. Of these, four have paid their loans in full and the other two are well ahead of schedule.

In this bill, Production and Marketing Administration funds, generally referred to as the AAA, were cut approximately in half.

Conferees between the House and Senate have not agreed upon the important and controversial labor bill and tax bill. Both these reports will be up before House and Senate for agreement next week. The main change in the labor bill as it passed the House is the elimination of a band against industry-wide bargaining. The main change made in the tax bill as it passed the House is to make it effective on July 1 instead of bringing it back to last January 1. I was pleased that the conferees left in the labor bill, with only minor changes, an amendment written by me denying federal employees the right to strike and outlawing such strikes.

John L. Lewis has just issued another demand for another wage increase for miners in the amount of 35 cents per hour. In 1939 miners averaged working 26 1-2 hours per week for which they received $19.58. Now miners average working 42 1-2 hours per week for which they receive $62.37, plus health funds, paid vacations, guaranteed annual wage, and survivors benefits. Unless Congress passes the Hartley-Taft Labor Bill, and unless the President signs and enforces it, John L. Lewis will doubtless soon call another nationwide strike and will enforce his demands.

Numerous complaints have been reaching me concerning the widely publicized dumping of potatoes in Alabama. There has been a lot of screaming about this apparent wanton destruction of food. Still the Department of Agriculture has an answer. The law as passed supports the price under potatoes just as it has under corn, cotton, wheat, rice and tobacco. The Department of Agriculture tried in vain to sell or even give away the potatoes in question. They were off-grade potatoes for which there was no market. They were offered at a price of $5.00 per car f. o. b., for use in making alcohol or starch. They were offered for export at 4 cents per hundred pounds. They were offered free to any person or agency for charity or relief. There simply were no takers.

Further, experts point out that it is cheaper to buy wheat at $3 per bushel for relief purposes than to ship potatoes free of charge.

This is due to the spoilage and cost of refrigeration in the case of potatoes. Someone said if the government had not poured kerosene on these potatoes and burned them, nothing would have been said. This destruction was necessary however, because of the terrible stench of rotting potatoes, and damage to the area in question.

While I have condemned the Department of Agriculture on many occasions, for various things, they apparently were not at fault in this instance. There are always two sides to every question and the Department's side of the present case has not been told.

Kracker Krumbs -

No, we're not running down the town. We like it—or we'd move! We're just calling attention to some of the things that are allowed to exist, but can be eliminated.

As we said, we like the town. But we don't like the flies, and the dirt, and the rubbish and the mosquitoes, and the barrels and barrels of empty cans that we can't get hauled off.

Yep, we like the town. It's a pumb good town to crumble crackers in!

If all those things outlined by our city father could be done, we wouldn't need an annual clean-up drive. A spic and span town all the time. Holy cow! Wouldn't that be wonderful.

If he's right on his estimates, the cost—based on our latest census—would be a little less than $1.00 per person. Personally it would be worth $5.00 out of our pocket and another bat-wing or two or three out of the cash drawer to get it done. What's it worth to you? Think it over.

And that's the latest news on that situation—as they say on the radio.

SACKS GO FORMAL

Smiling and charming in their feed sack formals are Norma Joy Deloit (left) and Carmen Atkinson of Red Hill, Alabama. The cotton bag formals worn by the girls were both made at the cost of a few cents and 35 cents for dye and thread. Practicing the thrifty habit of sewing with cotton feed and food bags, the womenfolk of the 49-family community have made more than 14,000 garments and household articles at little cost, the National Cotton Council reports.

They will leave shortly for Perryton, where Mrs. Anderson has the home economics department, and Mr. Anderson the department of mathematics in the Perryton high school.

FIXING UP the HOME

By Diane Greeter

How to Select a Refrigerator
IF YOU ARE BUYING a new refrigerator, be sure to get one that is right when you buy it and one that will last a long time. Figure out exactly where you will use it, so that the door hinges will be on the proper side to cut down your kitchen steps.

Then, be sure to consider your needs before you decide what size to buy. Too small a refrigerator, while it may seem to offer initial economy, may actually be wasteful of food, since proper cooling is impossible unless there is adequate space for free circulation of air. In this connection it may be worthwhile to remember that manufacturers of gas refrigerators are unique in that the capacities quoted indicate only usable space and do not include the area occupied by the freezing unit. Thus, an eight cubic foot gas refrigerator has as much room as any other type of refrigerator of nine cubic foot capacity. Gas refrigerators operate equally well with utility gas and with liquefied petroleum gas—"tank" and "bottled" gas—which is supplied by local dealers to homes beyond the gas mains.

Another thing to be said in their favor is that they operate by means of a small flame instead of an elaborate arrangement of moving parts. Hence, they function with little or no friction; therefore, never need repairs. It is said that every gas refrigerator ever made is still giving good service.

A. C. P. Program Is Insurance

An average of about $2 per person a year for insurance against a shortage of food—that's how the Agricultural Conservation Program adds up for the consumer, according to Dave Davidson, Assistant Administrator for Production, PMA "The ACP program costs each person in the nation an average of some $2 yearly," he says, "but it's impossible to arrive at the tremendous profit realized on this investment because taking care of the soil amounts to taking care of life itself—and who can estimate the worth of life?"

On a national basis more than three times as much lime is being put on the land annually than prior to the start of the Agricultural Conservation Program in 1936, and in the case of phosphate the yearly application is approximately 12 times as great as when the program started. Even with the increased use of these materials our estimated needs for lime are twice what is being put on the land and in the case of phosphate estimates show a need for eight times as much.

In Texas ACP program records show the use of limestone has increased from none used in 1936 or 1937 to 59,342 tons in 1945 while the application of phosphate in 1936 was 45 tons and in 1945 it was 33,295 tons.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued the following statements and suggestions concerning the control and prevention of poliomyelitis which is now occurring in certain sections of the State.

At one time it was generally believed that this infection was transmitted primarily by discharges from the respiratory tract. It is now believed that poliomyelitis may be another of the several gastrointestinal infections. Therefore control measures must include clean-up campaigns and improvements in sanitation.

Stringent efforts should be made to eliminate house-flies, mosquitoes, and rodents to destroy their breeding places. Every effort should be made to institute approved garbage collection systems, and secure safe water supplies. Where adequate municipal sewage disposal systems are not in operation, it is necessary to install and maintain sanitary septic tanks and outdoor privies.

All swimming pools should maintain those standards approved by the Texas State Department of Health. This includes maintenance of proper chlorine level. Where such standards are not maintained, these pools should be closed to the public.

All raw foods and vegetables should be washed thoroughly before use and protected from filth and insects. All food handling establishments should adhere strictly to the State law concerning the sterilization of dishes and utensils. Those restaurants with insufficient personnel to maintain approved sanitation, should close one or two hours a day so that employees can assist in maintaining cleanliness and high sanitation standards.

Approved milk supplies, rodent control measures, high sanitation standards, and strict personal hygiene are all important. Polio cases should be quarantined for 14 days and excreta from cases and contacts should be handled and disinfected with the same scrupulous care as in typhoid fever or bacillary dysentery.

Over-exertion in children should be avoided. Children should not visit homes where there is illness. It is advisable to reduce to a minimum all human contacts, especially in children during an outbreak of this disease. It is not advocated that schools, churches, and theatres be closed.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis are headache, fever, vomiting, drowsiness, followed by stiffness in the neck and back. When

Griffin Named Area Manager Of Prudential Life

Appointment of Loren E. Griffin as manager of the Wichita Falls Office of the Prudential Insurance Company of America was announced today by J. A. McCalvey, manager of Prudential's Fort Worth office.

Located at 422-424, Staley Building, the Wichita Falls office will serve an 11-county area, including Wilbarger, Montague, Young, Hardeman, Knox, Clay, Jack, Archer, Baylor, Foard and Wichita.

"Wichita Falls position in the heart of a fine ranching, trading, oil, and commercial area makes it an excellent field for Prudential's activities, which this year are being expanded throughout Texas," Mr. McCalvey said.

The Wichita Falls office will be headquarters for a staff of full time agents and necessary clerical personnel who will be selected by Mr. Griffin.

A native of Hamlin, Mr. Griffin was educated at Hamlin high school and North Texas State Teachers College. He received his B. S. degree in business administration in 1942 and shortly afterwards entered the U. S. Marine Corps. A veteran of more than three years duty with the first marine division, he saw action at Peleliu and Okinawa and was discharged as a first lieutenant in April, 1946.

During the past year, he was working as special agent for an insurance company in Lexington, Ky.

He is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He and his wife, have two children, Philip and Barbara. They are moving to Wichita Falls in June.

Of $26 billion insurance in force throughout the nation, Prudential has more than $50 million in force in Texas, and has invested more than $25,000,000 in Texas mortgage loans. The company reentered the Texas Life underwriting field in 1946 after an absence of 39 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hendrix, Mrs. J. A. Hendrix and Mrs. Otis Simpson visited relatives in Fort Worth and Parker county over the week end. They attended an old settlers' reunion while there.

IRRIGATION FOR PLAINS

College Station—What does agriculture on the High Plains of Texas need in order to stay permanently on an even keel?

Many Hockley County farmers think the answer is irrigation, says Hockley County Agricultural Agent A. B. Forehand. They believed that irrigated pastures, hay crops, cotton and grain sorghums will keep Plains agriculture on its feet, and tend to prevent the livestock industry from folding up in the future.

Since equipment and labor have become more plentiful, Hockley County farmers are becoming irrigation conscious. County Agent Forehand says that by the time the year is out thousands of acres of dry cropland in the county will be fed by irrigation wells.

Some of the problems to be worked out in putting a farm under irrigation are: separating types of soil on one farm into different plots or fields, so the use of water will be most efficient; laying out rows which will have the proper slope and still be spaced so they may be worked with four-row equipment; building elevated ditches and sub-ditches to carry the water; and locating well sites. The county agent says all these points must be considered if a farmer puts in a proper irrigation system.

Mrs. P. L. Ferguson, who taught in the local schools last year, left Wednesday of this week for Bryan, Texas, where she will spend the summer months.

Misses Louise and Betty Walker, who are employed in Fort Worth, spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore were week end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bernard and children in Dallas.

Dick Owens left Tuesday for Austin to resume his studies in Texas University, after spending the between-term holidays with his grandfather, R. B. Davy, and other relatives.

The Cows In The Cotton Patch

National Dairy Month, June, 1947, is a welcome opportunity to pay tribute to one of the most essential and valuable industries of our community—Dairying.

Dairy producers have established an almost unbelievable record of efficient production and progress in herd improvement in recent years, in spite of many serious handicaps from shortages of labor and supplies. They're due a vote of thanks from all of us.

Cattle and cotton are going hand in hand in building a more prosperous agriculture and community. They're a "natural" combination in a balanced farming program that makes efficient use of this community's agricultural resources. Cotton farmers need dairy cattle to balance their crop program—and dairy producers certainly need cotton to supply their essential feeds, COTTONSEED MEAL and HULLS.

Serving both the cotton grower and the dairy producer, our firm is proud to be an important link between these two essential farm enterprises.

KRAUSE

PLOW CORPORATION

10% PRICE REDUCTION
Effective June 1, 1947

THIS step is being taken because we believe it is the obligation of every industry to reduce prices when it is possible to do so. We think it is one way we can help cushion the effects of a possible recession and increase the purchasing power of our customers. In one year's time, this reduction will save our customers about $600,000.00.

There is no "sale" necessity involved in this price cut, for we now have the largest backlog of orders in our history and are entering our best selling season. Sales are increasing every day and many of our customers are in desperate need of plows which we are unable to deliver.

Production Efficiency is Enabling Factor

In our case, production efficiency and sales volume have increased to the point where we are now able to offset the increased costs of labor and material. Our labor rates have increased approximately 110 per cent and our materials costs approximately 112 per cent since 1942. But our sales volume has increased 2490 per cent and our productive efficiency 374 per cent in the same period.

Balancing these things, we find that we are able to cut back our retail plow prices to a level approximately that of 1942. Modern equipment, improved manufacturing methods, our incentive wage system, and above all the unusually high type of hard-working, independent Middlewesterner who builds our plows, have combined to bring our factory to a high peak of productivity. We are passing the benefits on to our customers, who during the past 23 years have enabled us to become the nation's largest producers of one-way disc plows.

This price reduction is simply the execution of what we think is sound policy, that of producing a better and better plow to sell for less and less. To this end we pledge our future efforts.

Sincerely,

Henry Krause

Almost 230,000 disabled veterans of World War II now are in training under the provisions of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16), the Veterans Administration has announced.

As of May 1, approximately 56 percent of these in training—or 128,877—were enrolled in recognized colleges, universities, and other educational institutions.

The remaining 44 per cent—or 100,769—were taking on-the-job training in business and industrial establishments. To date, approximately 169,000 such establishments have been approved for this type of training.

Since the inception of the vocational rehabilitation program in March, 1943, upwards of 8,500 disabled veterans have been declared rehabilitated, VA said.

Disabled veterans in training by states included: Texas, 14,306; Louisiana, 3,248; and Mississippi, 3,987.

The Veterans Administration estimates that the number of living veterans and members of their families will reach a peak of 43 percent of the nation's population within the next five years and decline in percentage thereafter.

VA defines a veteran's family as a family unit, living together and headed by a veteran. On the basis of this definition, VA computes the following estimates of the number of veterans and members of their families for 1947, 1952, and 1957:

Jan. 1, 1947—46,000,000.
Jan. 1, 1952—62,300,000.
Jan. 1, 1957—62,500,000.

The veteran family population is expected to show a rapid growth in the next five years, compared to the total population, and then to level off between 1952 and 1957 while the total population continues to rise.

VA made the projections to study the importance of their implications to various VA programs during the next 10 years.

B. F. Goodrich announces a big reduction in the price of the famous Silvertown tire!

Yes, you can now buy all popular sizes of the tire that outwears prewar tires at actually less than prewar prices! And despite higher manufacturing costs too.

One of the things that makes possible this huge price reduction is the tremendous demand for the new Silvertown—greater than for any tire B. F. Goodrich ever produced. In fact, more miles have been driven on this new tire than any other tire introduced since the war.

For safe, trouble-free driving this summer—week-ends, holidays, and vacation—equip your car now with B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns at these new reduced prices.

Flynn Retires After 50 Years On Burlington

Included in an announcement today from Burlington Lines' headquarters, Fort Worth, of new official appointments effective June 1st is notice of the retirement on that date of Edward Flynn, executive vice-president, after fifty years of continuous service.

Mr. Flynn's conspicuous ability, energy, and sound judgment, devoted to the interests of the railway companies he served for half a century, gained for him recognition throughout the country as a leader in the railway industry. He retired as executive vice-president of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, The Colorado and Southern Railway, Fort Worth and Denver City Railway, and The Wichita Valley Railway Companies.

In the announcement of Mr. Flynn's retirement, Mr. Ralph Budd, president of these railway lines, commented that "these companies are proud of the splendid record which Mr. Flynn has made for them and for himself, and extend to him their appreciation of his outstanding service."

It also is pointed out by Mr. Budd that Mr. Flynn will continue to serve on the Burlington Lines' Board of Directors and executive committees.

Y. E. Juge, who has been general freight agent for Fort Worth and Denver City Railway and the Wichita Valley Railway Companies since November 1, 1941, is promoted to the newly created position of assistant freight traffic manager for those companies effective June 1st. He will be succeeded as general freight agent by W. A. Blank, who has occupied the position of assistant general freight agent since July 2, 1926.

E. O. Walker, car accountant, will become superintendent of transportation succeeding J. L. Gorhitt, who retires on June 1st. Walker will fill both posts.

I. L. Roach, formerly master mechanic, is appointed superintendent of motive power with headquarters at Childress, Texas, succeeding John Pfeiffer of Denver, who retires on June 1st.

At meetings of the Boards of Directors of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad and The Colorado and Southern Railway, May 24th, Karl Fischer, assistant to the president of those companies, was elected to the position of vice president-executive department. His headquarters will remain in Chicago.

TEXAS CITY GETS FIRE FIGHTING EQUIPMENT

Lansing, Mich.—Mayor J. C. Trahan of Texas City today announced that official presentation of an F. M. C. High-pressure Fog Fire Fighter was made at Texas City June 3 by John D. Crumney, San Jose, Calif., Chairman of the Board of Directors of Food Machinery Corp.

The Fog Fire Fighter is a gift from Food Machinery to help replace fire fighting equipment lost by Texas City during the recent disaster.

Demonstration of how the new unit extinguishes many types of fires, including oil fires, will also be made at the time of the presentation.

The new unit is a duplicate of the Pasadena, Texas fire fighter that worked for 60 hours immediately after the April 16 disaster, saving thousands of dollars worth of property. More than half the members of Texas City Volunteer Fire Department had been killed in the explosion, and all Texas City fire fighting equipment destroyed.

Mayor Trahan said, and was concurred by Texas City Fire Chief Fred Dowdy: "After having seen the Pasadena Fog Fire Fighter in action, we decided that we must have this piece of equipment."

POULTRY AND EGG SHIPMENTS AND RECEIPTS

Austin—Rail shipments of poultry and eggs from Texas stations slumped from March to April to remain below the April 1946 level. The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

Shipments of chickens sagged 24 per cent for the month and 12 per cent for the year to total only 8 carloads. Turkey shipments reversed the general trend to rise 20 per cent over March but slid 80 per cent below April 1946 shipments.

X-raying Oil Fields

A new advance in petroleum research is this X-ray machine, which takes pictures of how oil, gas, and water flow thru rocks thousands of feet underground. The X-ray focuses on samples of oil well rock, into which fluids found below ground are injected. The resulting X-ray pictures reveal in miniature how oil behaves in various earth formations. An engineer in Gulf Research Laboratories, which pioneered the development, is shown adjusting a cylindrical rock sample, while a secretary prepares to record X-ray findings. The machine is expected to lead to greater percentage of oil recovery.

Egg shipments showed a 4 per cent March to April hike but fell 58 per cent during the year. Shell eggs remained steady during the month, shipments of frozen eggs rose 22 per cent and shipments of dried eggs declined 4 per cent. All were well under the April 1946 totals.

Interstate receipts of eggs by rail at Texas stations soared 400 per cent for the month to recover the sharp losses incurred in March. However, receipts remained 80 per cent below April 1946 receipts.

Mrs. Thurman Guley was a business visitor in Knox City last Tuesday.
