Odd Bits Salvaged
At Random

(By Aaron Edgar)

Things you didn't know about local people you do know:

That a new arrival in Munday, Mrs. Al Williams, wife of our depot agent, is an old school mate of Jimmy Harpam. The two attended Daniel Baker college in Brownwood at the same time.

And that Jimmy was a lot better baseball player than he is now, according to the cowboy evangelist, Bert B. Crimm, who held a meeting here several years ago and who was also in Howard Payne with Jimmy.

That Joe E. Morrow shot a par 72 in his qualifying round for the tri-county tournament last week on the Seymour courses, to put him in the championship flight with Byron Shupe, who was tri-county champion last year. Joe is a comparatively new golfer, too. He didn't play long enough to enter the tourney last year.

That Mrs. Jim Reeves has put up with her husband for 25 years. The Knox County Herald ran a reprint of their wedding under their heading "25 Years Ago" last week.

That Jim's attention was called to the story, and he confiscated Emmett Branch's paper. Emmett comes over and gets ours, so we don't have a copy of the Knox City paper, now.

That Leland Hannah was a "single buck" at that time. Leland and Mrs. Hannah were present at the Reeves wedding in Knox City, but they weren't Mr. and Mrs. then.

That John C. Spann has operated the same business in the same location as long as anyone in Munday, probably longer. John's cleaning equipment when he started, better than 25 years ago, consisted principally of a wash tub and rub board.

But he cleaned clothes cheaper than he does now. Talk about inflation!

That D. E. Holder used to be a farmer, too. We got a big kick out of him telling the story about his neighbor's horse eating up his patch of cane.

That Barton Carl is probably the county's smallest cotton farmer. Even at that, Barton allows as how he's going to raise a lot more cotton than 2-acre patch than he'll ever get gathered, if it's up to Barton to gather it.

That crooked finger on Wade Mahan's hand was caused from getting it caught in a hand-cranked feed mill one time when the Mahan kids and the Edgar kids were playing with the mill out in the Mahan barn one Sunday afternoon. It wasn't but a few minutes after Wade's disaster until the same thing happened to one of the Edgar young'uns.

That Bob Hicks claims he has one of the best looking crops he's had since he's been farming, but he'd like to see a good rain on it. So would everybody else, nearly.

That everybody else out in that neighborhood have good crops, too. We took the wife's pop out that way a few evenings ago, and we saw lots of good crops.

Which reminds us, our wife's pop ate a big bait of brains and eggs one evening last week and concluded that he had more brains in his stomach than he did in his head.

That Mahlon Boggs and Reginal Walling caught more big cat fish in Throckmorton lake than in the clear fork of the Brazos on their outing some two weeks ago. We had an urgent invitation to go fishing with them, and came dang near not printing a paper.

That Chas. Mahan is a railroader from way back yonder. He used to travel the Orient all the way from Hamlin to Athens, Okla., and return. The train crew usually ate dinner in Truscott, and Charlie still remembers those good meals he used to get.

Dist. Governor To Visit Rotary Club Monday

The Rotary Club of Munday will welcome J. F. (Jim) McCulloch, Governor of the 127th District of Rotary International, which includes 64 Rotary Clubs in northwest Texas next Monday. Mr. McCulloch is a farmer in Stamford and is a member of the Rotary Club of Stamford.

Mr. McCulloch will visit the Rotary Club of Munday to advise and assist President Harvey Lee, Secretary M. L. Wiggins and other officers of the Club on matters pertaining to Club administration and Rotary service activities. He is one of the 173 District Governors of Rotary International who are supervising the activities of some 6,200 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 305,000 business and professional executives in 78 countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Munday because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Each year, this world-wide service organization continues to grow in numbers and in strength. During the last fiscal year, 418 new Rotary Clubs were organized in 16 countries of North and South America, and in Australia, Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, England, Finland, France, Greece, Iceland, India, Italy, Macao, Malayan Union, Scotland, Siam, Southern Rhodesia, Sweden, Switzerland, Trieste, Union of South Africa and Wales.

Former Resident Here Dies July 12 At Fort Worth

Mr. Mayes suffered a heart attack some two years ago, and had been in declining health since that time.

He lived in Munday in 1908 and 1909, when he was employed as bookkeeper at the Alexander Mercantile. He moved to Crosbyton, where he resided for thirty years. He was 65 years of age.

Mr. Dayton stated the firm will carry a large line of parts for all Case machinery. He invites the public to drop by and inspect the new building, which is located one block south of town, on the highway.

Reed of Goree, Texas, is stationed at Camp Drew with the 99th Field Artillery Battalion of the 1st Cavalry Div. and has been promoted to the grade of Private First Class, assigned to Headquarters Battery, he is in the Communications section as a radio operator.

Upon reaching the Theater he was sent to the 1st Cav. Div. which had won fame as being the 1st Division into Manila and also in Tokyo, and is now in control of the ten prefectures of the Tokyo-Yokohama Area.

P.F.C. Reed is still undecided as to his intentions after discharge.

New Book Added To Munday Library

"The Story of Mrs. Murphy," by Natalie Anderson Scott, is the newest addition to the Munday Public Library by its sponsors, the Munday Study Club. Few who read it find themselves believing that it was written by a woman.

It is the story of a young man who is continually at cross purposes with his family, his friends, and society; a young man with a quick temper, a faulty character, and the best of intentions. He drifts into alcoholism, and not only his, but many lives are altered.

With stark, compelling realism this changing canvas is reported in what Clifton Fadiman calls "one of the most remarkable American novels I have read in some years . . . a serious work of realistic art."

80 Club Boys Are Heading For 4-H Encampment

Eighty Knox County 4-H club boys have signed up and will go to the Knox County 4-H Encampment to be held in the Seymour Park with the Baylor County boys, on July 25 and 26th. The boys will be picked up by trucks, which will follow the following schedule:

Beginning at Truscott at 12:30 p. m., turning east to Munday at 2:45 p. m., and then to Goree at 3:30 p. m., from there to the city park in Seymour to arrive around 4:00 or 4:15.

Highlights of the planned program include swimming, open-air movies, soft ball games, educational demonstrations, track and horse-shoes.

Provided it doesn't rain the boys will sleep under the stars Friday night, and prepare their breakfast on Saturday morning.

Boys report that they are looking forward to this event and will be at the designated places on time with their equipment.

Revival Opens Next Sunday At Baptist Church

The annual revival meeting will open at the First Baptist church in Munday with the morning services next Sunday, it was announced this week by Rev. W. H. Albertson, pastor.

A former Munday boy, Dr. Joe W. Burton of Nashville, Tenn., is returning to his home town to do the preaching during this revival campaign. He has relatives and many close friends here who will hear him during the meeting.

Dr. Burton was ordained by the Munday church. For some ten years after leaving Munday, he was with the Home Mission Board at Atlanta Ga., serving as publicity director. When the new church magazine "Home Life" was started about a year ago, Dr. Burton was chosen as editor and moved to Nashville to direct that publication.

He is an earnest Christian, a forceful and outstanding preacher, and his messages will attract many people of this area.

Arthur Nelson of Dallas will direct the choral singing and will render special numbers during the meeting. Mr. Nelson was in a meeting at Haskell last year, and a number of local church members heard him. He comes highly recommended as a director, singer, soloist and church worker, and the music is expected to add much to the interest of this revival under his leadership.

Services will be held daily at 10 a. m. and at 8 p. m., Rev. Albertson stated.

Miss Joyce Jones of Midland will render a special number in the services next Sunday morning.

"We are fortunate in having some outstanding church leaders to direct us during this revival," the pastor said, "and we are expecting a great meeting. You have a cordial invitation to attend each and every service, and to help us in this great campaign. We want your presence, your prayers, and your cooperation in making this revival one of the greatest ever held at the Munday church."

Dairy Cattle Of County To Receive Tubercular Check

Doctor Ben Clyatt, of the Bureau of Animal Industry, informed the County Agent that he will make a county wide check of the dairy cattle of Knox County for tuberculosis. Dr. Clyatt began his inspections Monday, July 21, and will continue until a check is made. This service is provided by the Federal Government to aid in the prevention of tuberculosis in milk-consuming and producing territories.

Dr. Clyatt states that he will not make tests on herds above sixty head, unless requested. When requested to test herds above sixty head, he will make spot checks of approximately ten per cent of the cattle, when placed in confinement. Inspections are expected to continue through the first ten days of August.

A TREAT TO AREA RANCHERS

What is the No. 1 treat to the Southwest ranchman and farmer? The hoof-and-mouth disease raging across the Rio Grande? Not according to J. Frank Dobie, Texan rancher-author-professor. It's mesquite.

Songwriters and poets love the brush, but Mr. Dobie is worried about its spread over approximately 35 million acres of land (a lot of it good land!) in Texas alone.

"As a barelegged boy 10 years ago," writes Mr. Dobie in the August issue of Southern Agriculturist, "I used to ride horseback in southern Texas across what was then known as 'The Hay Pasture.' Somebody had at one time mowed prairie hay in it. It was several thousand acres in extent and was mostly prairie. Today only a brush band armored with leather can penetrate many of the mesquite thickets in the old 'Hay Pasture.'"

Moreover, mesquite shows amazing powers to adapt itself to the different soils and sections. In his article entitled "The Conquering Mesquite," Mr. Dobie points to the mesquite's "westward invasion, edging into alkali flats where greasewood once had no competitor; then, along the Texas coast it is stepping eastward across the salt grass prairies that once forbade it . . . it has also walked into the acid soil on the fringe of pine lands east of Huntsville . . . into Brazoria County . . . and, finally, like the coyote, mesquite has even proved that it can thrive east of the Mississippi River."

WHAT CAN STOP MESQUITE?

"The grubbing hoe and axe can," says Mr. Dobie, "but for grazing land this kind of clearing is too expensive and so slow that the mesquite will steal in behind the grubbers and gibe their heels. . . . Some giant machine operating like a super-tank on a battlefield, evicting the enemy root and branch, would do the work."

Mesquite has its virtues, however, and to Southwestern folks its beauties. "Hard things have been said about it," admits Mr. Dobie, "but to many of us born and reared in the Brush Country, the mesquite is as graceful and lovely as any tree in the world. . . ."

"I could ask for no better monument over my grave than a good mesquite tree, its roots down deep like those of people who belong to the soil."

"Dear," said Mrs. Blake, "I think I'll appear in the charity show. What do you think people would say if I wore tights?"

"They'd probably say I married you for your money," dourly replied Mr. Blake.

"Oh my! Doesn't this preacher know its time to stop now?" whispered the disgusted worshipper as the preacher went on with his sermon.

"Time!" replied his companion bitterly, "TIME! why, he's finished with Time and he's now converging on Eternity."

WHERE THE DOCTORS STAND

The charge, frequently made by proponents of socialized medicine, that the medical profession is totally opposed to efforts to improve the public health and solve the problem of the cost of medical care, is ridiculous.

The truth is that the medical profession, as a whole, has given complete cooperation to the various prepayment medical plans which bring medical care within the reach of workers and their families at an average cost of three dollars or so a month. The largest and oldest of these plans now has something like 30,000,000 members. Dozens of others have been started, have outlived the usual growing pains that attend anything new, and are on a stable basis. The scope of the service rendered has steadily been expanded.

Furthermore, the medical profession has urged Federal grants to the states for such purposes as tuberculosis and venereal disease control, maternity care, and general medical service for people who are actually indigent and can't afford to pay anything for medical service. The responsibility for activating a program such as this belongs to congress.

What the medical profession has opposed is socialization or regimentation which would make the doctor a tool of the politicians. And all the evidence indicates that the American people are also overwhelmingly opposed to that.

STRETCHING THE DOLLAR

The trend in retailing has been toward lower distribution costs and smaller margins of profit. As an example, it has recently reported that overall mark in one city for grocery, meat and produce dealers was as low as 10 1/2 per cent, while operating costs consumed 8 per cent.

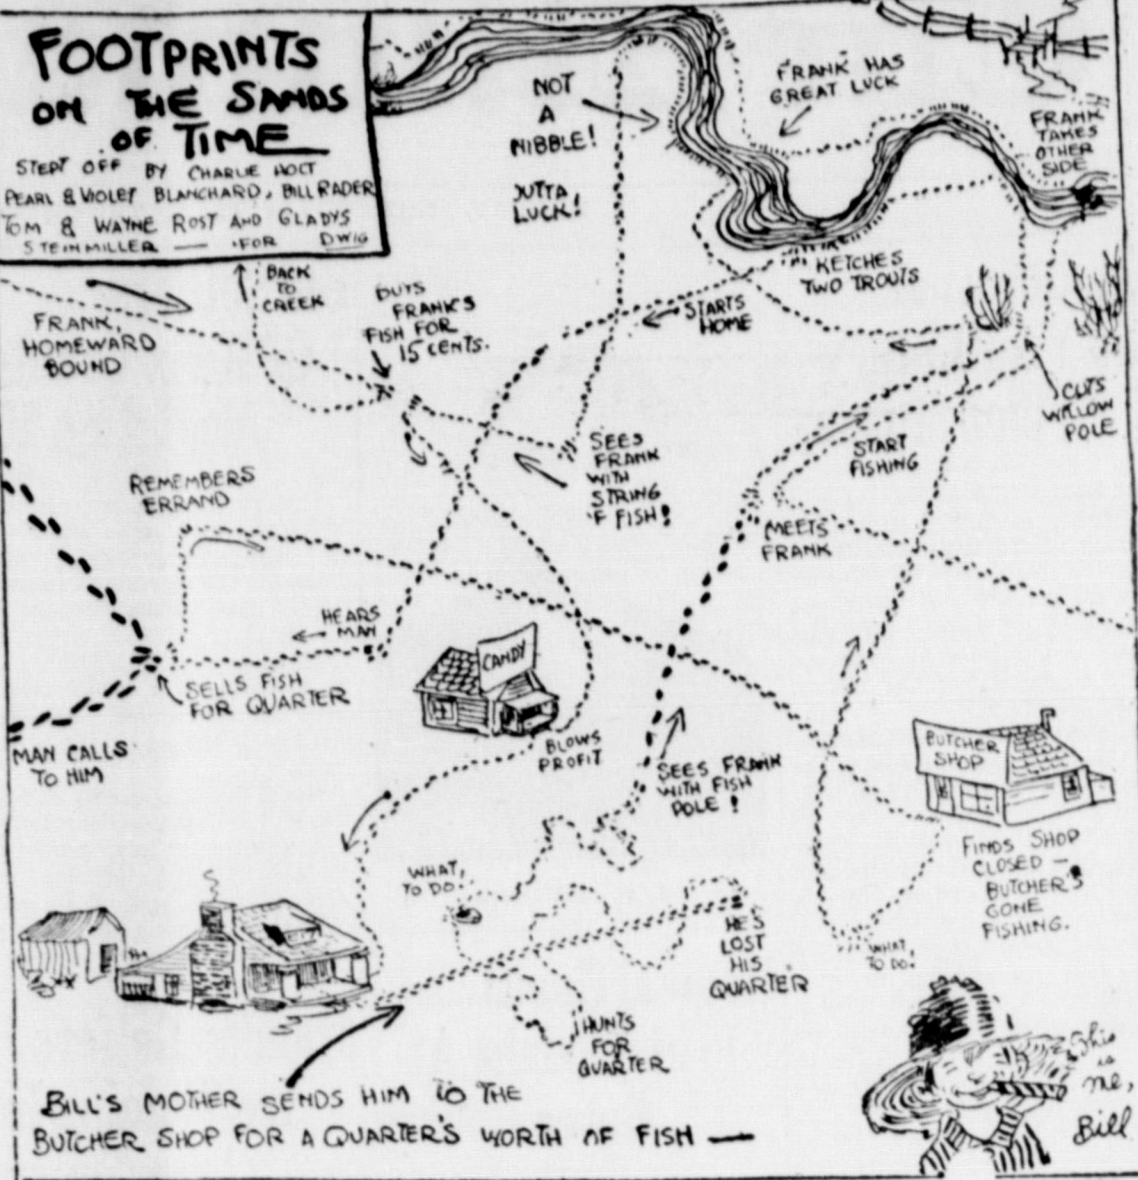

All kinds of retailers have been studying ways and means of cutting expenses and putting economies into effect. The chains have been leaders in the undertaking, and the independents have followed the trend. This is retailing's way of meeting the tough cost-of-living problem. It has no control over wholesale prices. What it can and is doing is to reduce the spread between the price paid the manufacturer and the price charged the consumer.

As a result, price increases have been less than would otherwise have been the case. That may not seem much of a service to consumers who have been struggling to make shrinking dollars buy more. But it has undoubtedly resulted in saving a great many billions of dollars for the American people. Retailing alone can't stop inflation—but it does help restrain it.

It is any man's guess when—and if—prices will come down. Recent developments indicate that there is little immediate hope for reversing the wage-price spiral. But, regardless of what may happen, retailing will give the consumer the best possible return for his money.

Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system lags when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

"Not Responsible For Wife's Debts"

A young man came rushing into the Clarion office the other day and wanted me to print an ad—"right quick"—saying he won't be responsible for his wife's debts from now on, as he's leaving her for good immediately.

I allowed as how the forms were all closed up, and it was too late to take his ad. He says: "All right, Monday then"—and we agreed on Monday.

Of course, the forms weren't closed. But I had kind of an inkling of what might happen. Then Sunday he phones me, and says, kind of sheepishly: "You can forget that ad. Me and the missus have everything all patched up. And we're having a friendly glass of beer, right now."

From where I sit, if you give folks time enough to think things over, those hasty quarrels that come so often from misunderstanding will give way to tolerance and common sense.

Veterans News

The Veterans Administration is seeking pharmacists for employment in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, VA announced this week.

Salaries for the positions range from $2,644 to $4,149 per year.

Applications forms and further information may be obtained from the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Veterans Administration, Branch Office No. 10, 114 Commerce Street, Dallas 2, Texas.

The Veterans Administration has negotiated contracts with about 130 correspondence schools in the U. S. to further veterans instruction under the G. I. Bill. Veterans are eligible for these "mail order" courses if they meet the qualifications for G. I. Bill education or training.

A veteran may get up to a total of 500 dollars worth of correspondence courses. No subsistence allowance is paid for correspondence courses.

Only schools which have a contract with VA and which are approved by the state in which they operate may be paid for veterans' courses under the G. I. Bill.

About 35 per cent of the veterans who have entered education or training have terminated their courses, VA said.

The great majority of these veterans are eligible for additional G. I. study—if they want to take it some time in the future.

There are many reasons for terminations, VA found. These include ill-health, lack of housing, financial problems, scholastic difficulties, employment opportunities and personal problems.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS
Q. I am a World War II veteran taking a school course that requires three hours per week. Am I entitled to receive subsistence allowance under the G. I. Bill?

A. If you are taking an undergraduate course at a college or university, you are eligible for one-quarter of the full subsistence allowance, but if it is a high school or vocational school course of less than 6 hours per week, you are not eligible for any subsistence allowance.

Q. I am a veteran-amputee. Am I entitled to a service card and what is the limit on repair service costs allowed?

A. Yes, if you are a veteran wearing an artificial limb, you are entitled to repairs at government expense and may obtain a prosthetic Service Card. This card enables the veteran to get immediate service up to $15 without prior approval from the Veterans Administration.

Q. I am a disabled veteran and have completed my on-the-job training course, but have not been able to get a job. Am I entitled to receive unemployment compensation under the G. I. Bill?

A. Yes, The Servicemen's Readjustment Act (G. I. Bill) provides that you can draw adjusted unemployment compensation up to a maximum of 52 weeks, "provided that you are able and available for work at the time. The number of weeks of readjustment allowance payable to you is determined by the length of your service. The service must have been 90 days or more between Sept. 16, 1940 and the end of World War II.

Q. As a World War I veteran with a nonservice-connected disability, which does not permit me to work regularly, am I entitled to a pension?

A. Your only pension relief is through the law which gives you the right to a pension of $60 per month, provided you are permanently and totally disabled and unable to follow a substantially gainful occupation. This pension is not payable if your income exceeds $1,000 if single, or $2,500 if married or with minor children.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Says Tractor Manufacturers Are Not Getting At Seat of The Trouble

Editor's note: The Knox prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek seems to be worrying over a minor problem in the midst of the world full of major problems, but he's writing his letters, we aren't.

Dear editor:
It's been so dry lately and the creek has gotten so low that I won't hardly get a float down. Take a paper like the New York Sun it's so heavy it gets waterlogged long before it gets to my place and even the Vernon Record has trouble getting by the low places and the gravel bars, although you take a light-weight paper like the Munday Times and it manages to get through all right, but on the whole the delivery of newspapers has been so uncertain out here on Miller Creek lately I been listenin to the radio to keep up with the world which is about like tryin to find out what happened in town Saturday by listenin to two women gossip about their neighbor's hat and what kind of syrup medicine their grandmothers preferred.

However, in between a growl of static and my wife's naggin and a rattlin window and a commercial can build into a piece of farmin equipment, I still ain't gonna be swept off my feet and forget that to make any of em function you still got to go up one row and down another. That's the seat of the trouble with farmin as far as I'm concerned. Air condition a tractor, streamline it, install ice water, equip it with radio, telephone, television, phonograph, upholstered seat, hydraulic gear shift, fingertip steering wheel and tie a squarrel's tail to the radiator cap, but operatin the thing still consists of goin up one row and down another, which ain't no essential improvement over what farmin consisted of to start with.

Now if they got any plows you can operate from remote control, while stretched out on the bank in the shade and holdin it in the middles and swingin it around at the turn rows by kickin a lever with your toe, than they'll be makin some real progress. All this other is just foam on the milk.

Yours faithfully,

Good Peach Crop Reported

College Station—A Texas peach crop that's expected to be of the best quality yet has started rolling into market from the West Cross Timbers area and the northeastern part of the state.

Most growers in both areas have carried out intensive spraying schedules throughout the growing season, which is producing worm and rot free peaches, says J. F. Rosborough, horticulturist of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service.

During the last half of July and well into August, the yellow freestone peaches—Halehaven, Fairs Beauty, Texberta and others—will be coming in. The Elbertas will start moving in early August.

The big crop is coming from some 6 million trees, most of which are around Weatherford, Eastland and Comanche in the West Cross Timbers area. Approximately one million of the fruit trees, mostly Elbertas, are in the vicinity of Avery, Dekalb and Omaha, Texas.

For the first time in several years, housewives will have a chance to combine this quality peach crop with unlimited supplies of sugar. The peaches will go by way of truck to every town in Texas.

The famous Texas-thru-to-New York "Sunshine Special" is one of the transfeaturing this unique post-war service which holds high approval by travelers especially since, "It's on the house."

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin, Texas—This is the season when dysentery, diarrhea and "summer complaint" are most prevalent throughout the State, and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued a warning to parents of young children regarding the prevention of these diseases.

"The chief causes of these intestinal diseases are impure milk, water and food; allowing a child to become overheated; using too much sugar and cream in the diet; and under- or over-feeding," Dr. Cox

It's Up to Us
By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

TODAY it doesn't require a genius of a Barney Baruch to look into the future and see that America faces a great crisis. It doesn't require the wisdom of Solomon to know that if present conditions continue we are headed right into a deep and shocking depression, so great that it might affect the fundamental pattern of our economy, and hence the entire future of the nation.

"We can, if only we would, prevent a serious depression for many years. To do so would require three things we now definitely lack. But these proper things will not likely be done, and the depression will likely come. In the midst of a sobering depression, we might muster sufficient courage to do the right things and thereby shorten its duration. I want to outline those necessary steps which could prevent depression if taken now, and which would shorten a depression if taken after it is upon us.

What if IN THE FIRST place, there is required a brand of bold, courageous, forthright, non-political executive leadership beyond anything Washington seems likely to display. In the second place, it would necessitate a lot of new, daring, venturesome, resourceful industrial activity, which because of unfavorable tax rates, industrial strife, and general want of vision, we seldom see.

In the third place, it would require from labor leaders in general a very genuine, honest, sincere, and effective effort to remove all practices and policies that hinder maximum production per man-hour, and that needlessly add to the cost of goods, construction, and so on, of which we likewise see but little. These three steps would bring about three conditions necessary, if we are to prevent depression, unemployment, and mediocrity.

A Simple ONE OF THE first things this formula would lead to would be real understanding and co-operation between industry and labor, which is an essential to the continued welfare of this nation. We have not fooled ourselves into the foolish belief that these two great segments of industry must ever be at cross purposes.

In the second place, these things would lead to an increase of at least 40 per cent in actual amount of goods produced without increases in labor costs. At the same time there would be no decrease in rate of wages earned. This would rapidly increase the effectiveness of competition and would bring cuts in prices ranging from 20 to 25 per cent, thus giving a real raise in standards of living for the entire public, labor as well as all others.

In the third place, these lower prices would increase demand for our goods. American industry has more nearly than that of any other nation, reached the mass markets. Our industry has produced goods that make the least of us veritable kings. And the end of this is nowhere in sight. May God raise up courageous leadership, for the sake of this nation, our posterity, and the world. May we, individually, exercise the intelligent citizenship the days ahead will require.

Soil Supervisors Of District Hold Meet At Knox City

District Supervisors of the Wichita Brazos Soil Conservation District met at Knox City Friday afternoon, July 11. Those present were Jack Idol, Benjamin; H. D. Gamill, Rochester; C. C. Browning, Truscott and H. W. Smith, Wernert. Meeting with the supervisors were J. M. Carpenter, Knox City Agent and Fred P. Mika and Charley B. Cape of Soil Conservation Service.

Legume seed and phosphate needs for another year was the main topic of discussion, and Soil Conservation technicians were requested to determine the amount to obtain for use by farmers cooperating with the District program.

Hairy vetch is an excellent cover crop on sandy land. It holds the soil in place, protecting it against wind erosion and adds a large amount of nitrogen to the soil. By analysis vetch contains 2 and one-half to 3 and one-half per cent of nitrogen, or a ton of vetch contains approximately 60 pounds of nitrogen. A considerable portion of this nitrogen is returned to the soil when the crop is harvested or grazed on the farm. Hairy vetch should be seeded from September 15 to October 15. Late seedings will not make sufficient growth for the most efficient erosion control.

Austrian Winter peas are used generally in the same manner as hairy vetch.

The importance of phosphate is being recognized and better appreciated. It is one of the essen-

RECEIVE THANKS FROM THE PHILIPPINES

Texas farm women have received word of thanks from Luzon for canned goods which they donated through the U. S. Philippine War Relief.

Gratitude for 12 cases of assorted canned foods was expressed in a letter from Leandro V. Uyguanco, medical officer in charge of the Central Luzon Leprosarium, where the food was received and used by the leper patients in that institution.

Maurine Hearn, vice director for women and state home demonstration agent of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, who received the letter, said that much food has been contributed by Texas rural women through War Relief.

"In the name of the lepers of this institution, I wish to express our most sincere gratitude and thanks," Uyguanco stated in the letter.

That gratitude and thanks, said Miss Hearn, goes directly to the farm women who contributed war relief food.

Department of Agriculture agronomists are saying that the record wheat crop in Texas and the U. S. this year is due in part to new varieties of wheat which were planted. In the past ten years, 30 improved varieties of wheat have been distributed to American farmers.

DESTRUCTION VS. REPRODUCTION

The summer's bitterest battle is raging today across the Cotton Belt—the struggle of the farmer to protect his cotton crop from the hungry boll weevil and other insect enemies. Multiplying with unbelievable rapidity, the boll weevil can heavily damage the crop unless controlled by insecticides, the National Cotton Council declared. The mule-drawn duster shows in the picture distributes insecticides over several rows of cotton simultaneously, but many other types of equipment are available to meet the needs of every size farm.

New Insecticides Get Results In Poisoning For Cotton Insects

They're still in the experimental stage, not on the market in commercial lots, and much research remains to be done—but USDA scientists believe they may have something in two new insecticides for the control of cotton insects.

They are benzene hexachloride and chlorinated camphene.

Results to date indicate that these organic chemicals may be much more effective than any of the standard dusts now in use.

A mixture of benzene hexachloride which contains 5 per cent of

All of the above property being in City of Benjamin, Knox County, Texas. TOGETHER with interest, penalties and costs, all charges and expenses of suit, which have accrued and which may legally accrue thereon.

Each party to this suit shall take notice of and plead and answer to all claims and pleadings now on file or thereafter filed in said cause by all parties therein, showing cause why judgment shall not be rendered condemning said property, ordering sale and foreclosure for said taxes, penalties, interest and costs of suit, etc.

Plaintiff and Impleaded Defendants that are taxing units also seek the establishment and foreclosure of such taxes as provided by law, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit and other pleadings that might be filed by any other parties to this suit.

Issued this the 12 day of July, 1947. Given under my hand and seal of said court, at office in Benjamin, Texas, this the 12 day of July A. D., 1947.

cluding the bollworm, are present. If the bollworm is not causing damage the benzene compound alone seems to get the job done.

The probable price of the new insecticides and the comparative costs of these and calcium arsenate, DDT and other dusts now in use are not known at present and will not be until they are manufactured in volume.

Meanwhile, say Texas Extension Service entomologists, cotton farmers will do well to go ahead with the dusting materials now recommended. The new products need further testing and, even if they continue to show up well and have no harmful effects, it may be several years before they are on the market in commercial lots.

And, they add, you're wasting your time if you try to remember "chlorinated camphene" and "benzene hexachloride." If and when these insecticides are offered on the market they'll have more simple trade names.

BOYCE HOUSE Gives You Texas

When Millard Cope, publisher of the Marshall Messenger, was a boy he lived at Sonora and used to play in "Carver's thicket", so-called from the fact that a notorious outlaw had been killed there.

The arrival of a new traveling man in the town always provided entertainment. Usually, kangaroo court was assembled and he was solemnly placed on trial for some trumped-up offense and after he had been sufficiently alarmed, he was allowed to settle the case by buying drinks all around.

Another procedure was for a merchant to engage the "drummer" in conversation at the foot of a stairway in the store, maneuvering so that the traveling salesman would be standing with his back to the stairs. Suddenly, here came a terrific noise and looking around the stranger saw a barrel bouncing down the steps toward him. The merchant, not being startled, would wait till the last instant, then step to one side but the panic-stricken victim of the prank would run wildly from the store with the heavy barrel right at his heels.

The Trot Theatre—where would it be? In Cuero of course, the home of the "turkey trot". And as I was leaving Cuero shortly after dawn with a hop halfway across the state ahead of me, just beyond the city limits I heard a "gobble" from the grass beside the highway; a big gobbler gave an appropriate farewell.

Between San Augustine and Jasper, a sign pints down a side-road "Grist mill; runs Saturday." The highway in this area offers plenty of scenery—the tallest magnolia trees I ever saw; a pool covered with water lilies in bloom; another pool covered with lavender flowers. Just east of Palestine is a lake that is the color of new steel and as one approaches San Augustine there are long, dense hedges thick with flowers—Cherokee roses.

Mrs. Irene Meers returned home Saturday from a visit with her sister in Portland, Oregon. She also went to Seattle, Wash., and Vancouver, B. C., and toured Yellowstone National Park while away.

Good News For Farmers

DETROIT—The new Ford tractor is rolling off production lines at Ford's Highland Park plant, Detroit, at the rate of 400 daily. Smooth enough for a girl to operate, farmerette Gloria Carlson handles the tractor like a veteran as she puts it through its paces on the Dearborn Motors educational farm at Clarkston, Michigan. Designed for easier, faster farming, the new model, marketed nationally by Dearborn Motors corporation, features an improved hydraulic system for implement control and four forward speeds.

Stodghill To Sales Meet For Ford Tractors

J. L. Stodghill, owner of the J. L. Stodghill Equipment, local dealer for Ford tractors, has just returned from Dallas, where he attended the one-day sales conference of Ford tractor dealers of Texas, at which the new Ford tractor was introduced.

The new Ford tractor features an improved hydraulic system permitting operation of tractor and implement as a single unit with automatic hydraulic control of the equipment, J. L. Stodghill said. Other major improvements include an automotive type steering gear, a fourth forward speed to give a wider range of working speeds, a new drawbar height control mechanism, combination running boards and step-plates, a seat that can be tilted back, and a hinged radiator grill for easy cleaning of radiator core.

While major improvements have been made in the tractor itself, farm implements now in use with Ford tractors will operate with the new model 8 N Ford tractor, J. L. Stodghill pointed out.

Meritt D. Hill, Dearborn, Mich., general sales manager, Dearborn Motors Corporation, the national marketing organization for Ford tractors, told the dealers that production of the new tractors was going forward at the Highland Park plant of the Ford Motor Company and that approximately 50,000 units would be marketed during the latter part of 1947.

Wise County's Home Coming Is Set Aug. 10th

As in previous years before the war, the home coming at Audubon, Wise County, Texas, will be held on the second Sunday in August this year. This home coming is looked forward to by many of the old timers as a day of visiting and meeting old friends of other days.

Rev. Oscar Barnett pastor of the Calvary Baptist church in Dallas for the past 26 years and who was raised in the Audubon community will preach that morning at the home coming. A program of singing will possibly be arranged for the afternoon, but it will be a day of visiting for all who attend.

Every family is to bring a basket unch, and dinner will be spread together at the noon hour under the brush arbor that is being built for that purpose.

Pupil Transfers Will Not Count On Teacher Load

Under the present rural aid law, a pupil whose grade is taught in his home district will not count on the teacher load to which student is being transferred, according to Merick McGaughey, county superintendent.

For example: A transfer from the Munday to the Goree district, would not count on the teacher-load in the Goree district. If either district should get transfers enough to necessitate another teacher, the state would not allow such teacher under the present state aid law.

"It would be of no advantage," McGaughey said, "for a district to obtain a transfer from a district, if grade is taught home, because the district, gaining this transfer would have to show his transfer money in its budget, and could not count that pupil on its teacher load with the state. From this you can see no advantage in allowing transfers when the student's grades are taught in his home district, if the school to which the transfer is made is a state aid school."

Wilbarger Farmers Report Good Start Of Hairy Vetch

Wilbarger County farmers, after their first attempt to grow hairy vetch as a soil building and seed crop, are satisfied with results.

On the sandy soils of the Rolling Plains, hairy vetch has lived up to its advance notices, as far as Wilbarger County is concerned. Frank Wendt, county agricultural agent, reports that the farmers are "elated" over the outcome of planting hairy vetch with rye. The crop has been "invaluable" as a cover crop in holding down sandy soils and has furnished good winter pasture.

The most troublesome part of the vetch-growing—seed harvest—is over now, says County Agent Wendt. After a few bad starts and some trial and error experience, the farmers harvested from 150 to 800 pounds of seed an acre.

Wilbarger County produced about 250,000 pounds of hairy vetch seed, estimates the county agent, most of which will be used in the county for fall planting.

Agriculture, with more workers than any other industry, had a death toll last year of 54 per 100, 000 workers, compared to the all-industry rate of only 31.
