

Kracker Krumb's Odd Bits Salvaged At Random

(By Aaron Edgar)

Back yonder when it was dry, who'd ever thought people would be fussing about the rain?

But that's what's being done. That rain Monday wasn't very well appreciated. It interfered with the holiday plans.

Farmers didn't want it, either. It interfered with their holiday plans, which were plowing cotton and feed, and things.

"I'm ashamed for people to see my place," one farmer remarked during the heavy part of Monday's rain. Except there's others just like him.

But the golfers were a disgruntled bunch. Here they had a Low Medal Tourney planned for the local club Monday—and might have their preparations during the week end.

They expected around five flights this event. A few of them made a practice round Sunday, but others did their "home work" such as cleaning up around the premises, cutting weeds, etc., so they'd be free for Monday.

Then comes the rain, and they gathered around the guessed about what the scores would have been.

"Don't see why it couldn't have rained on a work day instead," was the comment of some. Here they had a holiday with lots of activities all set up, no business to interfere, and along comes a rain and spoils everything!

But we got the rain, and we must make the best of it.

On this Monday morning, we're glad it rained on Monday instead of Wednesday and Thursday to interfere with our gigantic clean-up drive.

It might rain then, too, and you'll know by the time this is printed. That's the way our clean-up campaigns turn out—with a good rain on clean-up day.

Our junior baseballers are a little disappointed at the non-support they're receiving from our town-people.

Here they've worked up a pretty good team, with prospects of another Babe Ruth or Ty Cobb or some other baseball notable resulting from their activities. But their games are being played minus local support.

If it wasn't for the support given by fans from other towns, we just wouldn't have the crowds to justify continuing the game, so remarks one of the leaders. We couldn't meet the expenses.

I don't care for myself, he says, but it's those youngsters who are carrying on the game that need the support of their dads and moms, and others.

Our political neck has been slashed from ear to ear! That prediction that the GOP will win out in November has "drawn blood" from Munday's leading Democrat—Pop Davy.

"There ain't but two Democrats in Knox county," Pop says, "and I'm both of them." And we've been threatened with everything short of burning at the stake.

That was our "fly in the butter", even though we admitted we'd stay with our Democratic donkey when election time comes.

Guess our national Demo leaders got riled up, too, judging from the "draft Ike" movement is getting under way in the pre-convention plans. They're trying to find a plank that will withstand the GOP election storm.

Our "fogger" hadn't arrived Monday, and a bunch were kinda out of sorts with the firm that's supplying it. It seems they were all ready to deliver it last week, but failed to come through with their end of the deal.

And it's needed with the first dry spell. Mosquitoes are getting as big as horse flies and as blood-thirsty as a cannibal. Outdoor activities are at a standstill because of them.

Jud Giddings' Body Is Being Returned Home

Word was received here last week that the body of Sgt. Judson R. Giddings, one of the first Knox county youths to lose his life in service of his country, is being brought home for reburial.

Sgt. Giddings, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Giddings of Delhart, former Munday residents, was killed in an airplane accident in England. He was serving in the air forces, and his body was interred in England.

Sgt. Giddings' remains is among those of 5,374 Americans who lost their lives during World War II that are being returned aboard the U. S. Army transport Lawrence Victory. Date of the vessel's arrival in the United States was not announced.

A total of 260 remains are being returned upon instructions of next of kin residing in Texas. These war dead were originally interred in temporary military cemeteries in France, Luxembourg and the United Kingdom.

No official word has been received here, but it is supposed that Sgt. Giddings' body will be reinterred at Dalhart, home of his parents.

Flower Shop At Knox City To Be Opened Saturday

An invitation has been extended to the citizens of Munday and surrounding towns and communities to the formal opening of the Knox City Flower and Gift Shop, Saturday, July 10th.

Mrs. Laura Perry and Mrs. Ernest Hughes, who have operated the shop for the past six weeks, announced that many gifts will be on display in the gift department of the shop. Included in the new equipment which has been added is a new refrigerated floral display case which arrived last week.

The owners of the shop announced that corsage will be presented to the oldest grandmother who registers during the day and another one will be given to the youngest grandmother.

The Flower and Gift Shop will be open for inspection Saturday, July 10, at 9:00 a. m. and will remain open until 7:00 p. m. Refreshments will be served during those hours.

Pineapple Order Arrives In County

The pooled pineapple order for Knox County Home Demonstration Clubs was combined with that of Wheeler, Childress and Collingsworth Counties, this year, since Knox County did not order in sufficient quantity to send a truck. The order arrived in Truscott late Sunday night, June 27, in the rain, and was delivered Monday and Tuesday.

Since the pineapple were small this year Mr. Garcia, of Tropical Fruit Company, sent 13 per dozen in order that each woman would get the right poundage.

Part of the coconut order did not arrive since shipping supplies were short, due to the floods at that time. The other coconut will be received later, and it will all be distributed at that time.

Mr. Guinn was actively engaged in the development of Knox county for a number of years. He settled in Knox county in 1901 and had resided at Truscott since that time.

There were no children in the family, and Mr. Guinn is survived by his wife, of Truscott.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church in Truscott last Monday afternoon, with Rev. J. P. Patterson, pastor, officiating. Burial was in the Truscott cemetery.

Mr. Guinn was a member of the Masonic Lodge for many years, and Masonic services were held at the graveside with the Benjamin lodge in charge. Among members of the local lodge to attend were M. T. Chamberlain and Lee Haymes.

Clean-Up Drive In Full Swing, And Everywhere You Look It Looks Better

Stockholders Of Stamford P.C.A. Meet July 16th

A large attendance from among the 1,600 members of the Stamford Production Credit Association is expected at the 14th annual stockholder's meeting to be held in Stamford, Texas, on July 16th. Registration is to start at 11:00 at the Texas Cowboy Reunion bunkhouse. From 11:30 until 1:00 a chuck wagon dinner will be served to members of the Association and their families.

Following the chuck-wagon dinner a brief business session will be held in the Grandstand of the Arena. This business session, beginning at 1:00 P. M. together with the entertainment program at 2:30 is open to the general public in addition to Association members and their families.

In the business session, reports from the Board of Directors and the Secretary-Treasurer will be given. The Association and its members will be honored by the presence of C. R. Arnold, Production Credit Commissioner, from Washington, D. C., who will make an address.

Other business matters will be the election of two directors. The directors whose terms expire are J. F. McCulloch of Stamford, Jones County, and Clark Forbis, of Atton, Dickens County.

At the end of the business session at 2:30 attendance prizes will be awarded to PCA members and their wives. As an added feature the Rev. Jas. W. McClain, the original Dr. I. Q. of radio fame, will have charge of this part of the program.

The final event of the program will be a matched calf roping contest between two widely known ropers, Fred Albright of Benjamin, and Tince Williams of Mobeetie, Texas.

The general public is invited to the afternoon session in the arena beginning at 1:00 P. M.

J. L. Stodghills To Hold Open House

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stodghill have moved into their new 6-room brick home, which has just recently been completed, and they announced Tuesday that open house will be held next Sunday.

Visiting hours will be from 2 to 8 p. m. Sunday, July 11, and the public is cordially invited to come and see this new home during the above hours.

Funeral For Mrs. Decker Is Held Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Lawrence Decker, who passed away Wednesday, June 30, at 11 a. m. at Jackson, Montana, were held Sunday afternoon, July 4, at four o'clock at the Catholic church at Decatur. Father Edward Devers officiated. Interment was in Oak cemetery at Decatur.

Opal Nora Harrison was born January 27, 1914, in McClellan county, Texas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harrison. She moved to Knox county with her family at the age of 10.

She was married to Lawrence Decker of the Rhineland community on August 7, 1928, and to this union were born three children, Allen, Bernard and James, all of whom survive. They resided in the Rhineland community for several years.

Surviving, besides her husband and children, are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harrison of Knox City; three sisters, Mrs. H. P. Huntsman, Knox City; Mrs. Dee Powers, Thalia, and Mrs. Leon Wimberley, Abilene; one brother, Clarence Harrison of Jackson, Montana, and several nieces and nephews.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Jot Tynes of Big Spring are the parents of a boy born June 21. John David, as the boy has been named, weighed six pounds and ten ounces. Mr. Tynes is a brother to Mrs. A. E. (Sappy) Bowley and are formerly residents of Goree.

Oh, boy! Ain't it nice? Did you ever see such spirit of cooperation? Munday was good and ready for a clean-up drive, as evidenced by the cooperation given by local people this week, and by the amount of cans, trash, pasteboard boxes, dirt and filth that's gone out to the dump ground.

They made a good showing Wednesday, and the drive was scheduled to go on through Thursday. And it won't stop there, probably. Those in charge are going to give the town a cleaning up, if it takes an extra day or two.

Six-wheel trucks, bob-tail trucks, pickups, jeeps and trailers, rakes, hoses, shovels and brooms, the maintainer and a scoop assembled on the square Wednesday morning, ready for action. They saw action, and plenty of it.

Soon the trucks, trailers, etc., headed for the dump ground, loaded with a messy accumulation that collected through the years. The six-wheeler was loaded to capacity in less than two blocks of alley in the business district; other trucks couldn't get two blocks down alleys in the residence district without being filled to capacity.

"I didn't realize the town was so dirty until this drive started," were remarks made by citizens Wednesday.

But she isn't so dirty any more; she's getting a cleaning up, good and proper. And Thursday isn't the final chapter, unless the job has been completed.

Then the job of regular garbage collecting will begin. A man has been employed for this purpose, and he's ready to start work. New garbage cans are already decorating the alleys, as citizens begin getting ready for cleanliness.

With daily collections in the business district, and weekly visits in the residence section, she won't ever get so dirty again.

Hoo-ray for us! Brother, we're going places now!

County Council Meets Friday At Benjamin

The Knox County Home Demonstration Council had its regular meeting Friday afternoon, July 2, in the assembly room of the court house at Benjamin. All clubs had representatives present.

Reports were given on the pineapple which came in last week.

Mrs. Gillispie, marketing chairman, asked that tomato orders be turned in so she could send in the order as soon as possible.

The Women's Encampment date had been changed back to the 25th and 28th of July due to a mix up in dates at Leuders. Women working in the encampment committees will have an all day meeting at Benjamin July 12 beginning at 9:30 a. m.

Miss Butler reported that Colleen Jamison, 4-H Club girl from Gilliland won first place in the senior division of the girls' dress revue held recently at Knox City.

She also reported that due to the spread of polio, the girls probably would be unable to have their encampment.

Mrs. Bowley, finance chairman, reported she had heard from the Gainesville Circus and due to the fact that their time was all taken, they would be unable to come to Knox County this year.

All clubs are to elect their candidates as delegates to the State Meeting this month.

Friday was Munday at Council. They had sixteen visitors present.

THEY'RE GRANDPA AND GRANDMA HAYMES NOW!

They've been Grandpa and Grandma Lee Haymes since Wednesday. That's when their first grandchild, a little girl named Cynthia Lee, arrived.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Nobles of Big Spring. Mrs. Nobles is the former Mary Alice Haymes. Mother and little daughter are doing nicely, and Grandpa Haymes was about his duties at the post office Thursday, although he got a new hair cut to celebrate the occasion.

Mrs. J. O. Tynes returned home this week after a months' visit in Springtown visiting relatives. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Alton Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Robertson of Fort Worth.

MUNDAY'S NEEDS FOR 1948

1. A modern and up-to-date high school building, to care for the present and future educational needs of our children.
2. A waterworks system that meets all requirements of health, sanitation and supply.
3. A street sweeper that will keep our pavement clean enough to be recognized as pavement.
4. A clean-up campaign of lasting effect; yes, one that extends even across the tracks.
5. Completion of our drainage and paving program, which will probably be accomplished this year.
6. More activity among our civic organizations, looking forward to, and planning for, a better Munday in the future.

IT CAN BE DONE

From the point of view of fire loss, last year was the blackest in American history. The total destruction was about $700,000,000.
 At the same time, however, it was a year of progress in fire prevention work. According to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, there was material improvement in the delivery of new fire fighting equipment. The number of cities adopting the Board's model fire prevention ordinance increased by 48 per cent. Many cities made progress in strengthening their building laws. The President's Fire Prevention Conference initiated a long-term program which has been felt to some degree in most of the states. And the Spring Clean-Up Weeks attracted an unusual degree of cooperation and eliminated many hazards.

It may seem strange that we should have record fire losses along with such intensive prevention work. That simply indicates the extent of the fire danger. The total number of fires has been on the increase, and in these days of high prices the average fire does much more dollar damage than before the war. And due to the building shortage, many homes and businesses are housed in substandard structures where the risks are abnormally great.

Last April was the first time since March, 1944, that monthly losses declined below the same month in any preceding year. If that continues, we will make a dent in fire's ravages. It can be done if we keep the fire prevention campaign going and intensify it.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES

Every now and then, consumer groups draw an unflattering comparison between the price of beef on the hoof, at wholesale, and the price charged for table cuts at retail. The difference is large. And that leads many people to a totally erroneous idea of the costs involved in processing and marketing.

Some time ago one of the meat packing companies explained, in full detail, where the money goes to. At that time, choice cattle were selling on the Chicago market at an average of 32.5 cents a pound—yet steaks were selling in New York for as high as $1.00 a pound. And here are the reasons why.

For a thousand pound steer, the farmer received $325. By the time it was dressed and chilled, that steer weighed only 625 pounds. After adding

A TIMELY WARNING

The following editorial is reprinted from the Astorian Budget, Astoria, Oregon:

"It was a timely warning the house appropriations committee gave the Federal Reclamation Bureau, accompanying a slash in the bureau's budget for next fiscal year, when it reminded that agency its main function is irrigation, not power.

"Every Federal Bureau in the Northwest seems bent on only one object—the conversion of almost every stream in the region into a power plant or series of them.

"The Reclamation Bureau is one agency that certainly seems to have little or no business conducting power promotion. The appropriations committee picked the best method of curtailing its activities by cutting it off at the pockets.

"And the committee's warning about the urge of Federal bureaus to 'sovietize' the administration of power projects in the Northwest was also timely.

"The Bonneville Power Administration has been the worst offender in this respect. It has assigned itself a holy mission to convert the whole Northwest to public power, with itself handing out the power supply to whomsoever it wills. It has fought at public expense to put the private power companies out of business. The time was ripe to sound a note of warning to the Northwest not to sell its birthright of economic independence for a mess of Federal power pottage."

plant expenses, and deducting the value of by-products, the packer had little more than $307 invested in 625 pounds of beef—which works out to 49 1/4 cents a pound.

By the time the beef reached New York, the packer's cost per pound had risen to 51.9 cents. It was sold to the retailer at around 52 cents, leaving but a fraction of a cent per pound for the packer.

By the time the retailer prepared the beef for sale, his investment was over 60 cents a pound. His selling cost, plus a small profit, averaged about 12 1/2 cents. Consequently, all the cuts had to move at an average price of 73 cents for each and every pound. Some of the less desirable cuts had to be sold for as little as 40 cents a pound. And that simply means that the price of the choicest cuts, such as fine steaks, had to approach a dollar.

What is true of meat is true of all foods. All along the line, production costs and retailing costs are held to the minimum. Profits are minuscular. And the consumer gets the lowest price possible under today's economic conditions.

Police: "Did you knock down this pedestrian?"
 Motorist: "No, I pulled up to him, stopped the car so he could cross the street, and he fainted."

An opportunist is one who gets a haircut and a shampoo then he had a bad cold, because it always gives him a bad cold anyway.

Life is full of ups and downs. But the most difficult of all is keeping appearance up and expense down.

The Veterans Administration has prohibited the expenditures of any government funds for veterans' training courses of a recreational or avocational character after July 1, 1948.

The new VA policy is in compliance with the Independent Offices Appropriation Act for 1949 in which Congress directed that VA provide no further payments for courses of this type.

These include, generally, such courses as photography, dancing, gliding, personality development, entertainment courses, sports and athletics, bar-tending and certain music courses.

Training veterans to fly or related aviation courses will be paid for by VA only where the veteran establishes that the training is in connection with his present or contemplated business or occupation and can pass required medical examinations.

Veterans presently enrolled in courses of this type will be allowed to finish.

But no future enrollments will be authorized by VA unless veterans completely justify that such training is in connection with their present or contemplated business or occupation.

Courses of education in approved public or private elementary or secondary schools or institutions of higher learning are not affected by the new VA policy. Neither has there been any change in the status of recognized vocational training, institutional on-the-job farm training or other training-on-the-job.

"The prohibition of the Appropriation Act of 1949 is in accord with, and reemphasizes the underlying spirit and intent of the educational and training provisions of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act," a VA spokesman pointed out.

"Therefore, veterans should not seek to pursue courses for avocational or recreational purposes but only courses which will contribute to the veterans' vocational or occupational advancement or educational objective."

Questions and Answers
 Q. I have been drawing $57.50 each month from my $10,000 War Risk Insurance since my discharge from the Army after World War I. Are such payments discontinued after the $10,000 is exhausted?

A. No. Payments may be continued for the remainder of your life, provided your total disability remains unchanged.

Q. I would like to appear before the Rating Board to explain my own claim. May I do this?

A. Yes, but definite appointment should be made and you should be there at the time for which the hearing is designated. Expenses incidental to going to or from the Rating Board hearing must be borne by you.

Q. Why do I have to pay the two monthly premiums instead of one when I reinstate my lapsed National Service Life Insurance policy?

A. One premium is for the 31-day grace period following the date of lapse, during which the insurance was continued in force without payment of premium; the other is for the current month of your insurance policy's reinstatement.

Will's Hospitality Isn't "Cracked"!

Ever since January, Will Dudley planned to give his living room that "new look"—planned to carefully refinish the woodwork and replaster the walls.

Every time Will got out the putty to start filling in the cracks, a neighbor stopped by to pass the time of day—and first thing you knew, there was a group of us helping Will do the job up right. After Will called a halt to the evening's work, we'd sit around the fire enjoying a friendly argument and a sparkling glass of mellow beer.

So Will's living room doesn't look like it did a year ago—but it's by far the most "livable" living room I know: A place you can always drop in for good talk, good beer, and a warm welcome.

From where I sit, so long as Will puts that atmosphere of hospitality and good fellowship ahead of everything else, we'll all be happy to help Will change the looks of his living room any time he wants.

A. Yes, if his condition permits such visits. All Veterans Administration hospitals have special hours set aside each day for visitors, the same as civilian hospitals.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Atkinson attended the Cowboy Reunion rodeo in Stamford last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Haymes of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Mac Haymes of Fort Worth spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haymes.

Miss Ida Jo Jungman returned to her home in Vernon last Saturday after two weeks visit here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Michels, and with other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Boyles left Tuesday morning for the Rio Grande valley and Corpus Christi to spend several weeks. Mr. Boyles will buy cotton at these points.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Scores City Paper Thats Arguing In Favor Of 18 Hours Of Work Per Day For Him

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is a little riled up this week, his letter reveals.

Dear editor:
I don't know where it came from, as I blamed sure ain't gonna exert myself by gettin up off the bank and reachin out into the water for a paper in these hot summer days, but I was sittin out here Monday mornin thinkin about the world situation when my thinkin and dozin was interrupted by a rustlin sound and I opened my eyes wide enough to notice a copy of a newspaper flutterin down beside me and I debated awhile and decided to go ahead and open my eyes the rest of the way and picked up the paper and settled back and read where a city was braggin on a farmer who has made a rip-roarin success of farmin.

At least, the city editor claims the farmer was a success. Accordin to the editor this farmer don't "sit on the porch or whittle at the store. He works eighteen hours a day, from 5 a. m. to 10:30 p. m."

"We have always contended," this paper goes on, "That a man can make a go of farming if he'll keep his eye on the land and not on Washington, work, farm his particular farm as nature and progressive research dictate, and raise his own living before he thinks of commercial produce."

As I understand this, the city paper wants us farmers to keep our eyes off of Washington, but do you know of any city keepin its eyes off of that place? It has been my experience that farmers already has spent so much time goin up one row and down another and keepin their eyes off Washington that the cities has gotten practically all the Washington money for diggin ship channels and building dams and medical centers and airports and highways and so forth, and when some farmer suggests a little government help for farmers, maybe a gravelled road or electricity or a stable price on cotton, the city papers throw up their hands in horror and tell us it'll undermine our character. I guess they got stronger characters in cities because most cities I know anything about not only keep their eyes on Washington but also hire high-powered men to help them keep their eyes there and get what's coming.

Now I ain't goin into the argument of whether a farmer ought to sit on the porch or whittle at the store, with or without the consent of the city papers. Been arguin that point with my wife for years and while I don't know who has won I'm still sittin on the porch and whittlin when I please, and I ain't never found a farmer who could work 18 hours a day and still have time to learn how to farm his farm like progressive research dictates, but I would like to ask you who them city papers is kiddin when they come out with a program of workin us farmers 18 hours a day and leavin Washington to them? If them city editors want somebody to farm eighteen hours a day, let em come out here and climb on my cultivator and start out, but as for me I'm gonna sit and whittle and keep a eye on Washington.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Thirty Million Farm Hazards

Safety program is the elimination of 30,000,000 farm hazards. "Agriculture ranks third among industries in the number of people per thousand workers killed each year by accident." "Farm people of the 25 to 44 age-group—the most productive group—are most often killed in farm accidents." "Motor vehicles are the cause of the largest number of accidents on the farm." These statements were made recently at a meeting of the Texas

State Farm Safety Committee when it met on the campus of Texas A.&M. College to make plans for Farm Safety Week, July 25-31, and to formulate a year-round farm safety campaign. "With a record like this," E. C. Martin, chairman, told the group, "It's imperative that farm safety be emphasized 52 weeks of the year. It's not a one-week job." Mr. Martin is assistant state agent of the Texas Extension Service. Accidental deaths on farms are caused by falls, machinery, animals, motor vehicles, burns or shocks, improper handling of equipment, and falling objects, the committee pointed out. Most of these could be eliminated through "safety consciousness" on the part of every member of the family. Representatives of the Texas Extension Service, Production and Marketing Administration, Farmers Home Administration, State Board of Vocational Education, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Soil Conservation Service, Texas A.&M. College engineering department, Texas Forest Service, Farmer-Stockman Magazine, Progressive Farmer, and Farm and Ranch attended the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Detro Trammell of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Woodie Woodall of San Antonio visited here several days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trammell, and with friends.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—Reported cases of polio in sixty-five Texas counties reached the alarming total of 580 during the first six months of the year, according to Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer. For the same period in 1946, the total number of cases reported in sixty-six counties of the state was only 292.

"This staggering increase in polio in a brief two year period evidence a need for drastic measures in all communities to combat the disease," Dr. Cox asserted. "It is the responsibility of the people of the State to report themselves to their doctors whenever they recognize symptoms of polio. It is also their duty to give wholehearted co-operation to clean-up drives in their communities."

Dr. Cox urged immediate medical attention, especially at this time of year, for such things as headache, fever, stiff neck, pain in the legs, irritability and drowsiness. These, the health officer stated, are symptoms of polio.

"It is well to guard against polio cases," he said, "for complete recovery is not impossible. Even in the more severe cases, when the germ has penetrated the nervous system causing paralysis of one or more groups of muscles, some remarkable recoveries have been made."

Dr. Cox indicated his belief that the first line of defense against polio is a carefully conceived and thoroughly executed clean-up campaign in all communities.

"Local police power should make such clean-ups mandatory," he said.

Take it from me ...there's nothing like Ford Hydraulic Touch Control

Maybe I'm lazy or maybe I'm smart. Anyhow, when I'm on a tractor, I don't want any tugging at stiff levers to raise heavy plows, cultivators and whatnot. I'll take Ford Hydraulic Touch Control every time. I can sit on this new Ford Tractor and lift or lower and set an implement by moving the Touch Control lever.

Say! Maybe you are like me... lazy or smart, take your choice. Anyhow, if you want easier, faster farming tell me to bring out a new Ford Tractor for a free demonstration that you'll enjoy...without obligation.

By the way...my good service on all Ford Tractors and equipment for them has a lot of folks talking.

Auto Count In Texas Higher Since 1944

Cincinnati—Texas, with its automobile population up 30.2 per cent since 1944, ranks eleventh among the states in recovering from the wartime low in car registrations, Powell Crosley, Jr., pioneer light-weight car manufacturer, pointed out here today.

"Such a gain in the Lone Star State is partly traceable to important shifts of population in recent years from the industrial east, midwest and grain states to the by this trend but also to have in-south, southwest and Pacific Coast," Crosley said. "Texas appears not only to have benefited proved the economy of its people."

Motor vehicle ownership in this state rose from 1,553,574 in 1944 to 2,023,501 last year. Continued progress in this direction, Crosley said, is reflected in the growing demand for small cars which provide economical transportation for many families who have hitherto been priced out of the automobile market.

Based on a recent census figures, there is one passenger car for every 4.48 persons in Texas, the state ranking twenty-sixth in the nation in this respect.

Reign of The Bureaus

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

"BUREAUCRACY" is a mosed-over but not outmoded term. Its popularity may have faded lately because politicians seem to use the term less and less. I fear that all too many folks have assumed that government by bureaucracy is here to stay, that no matter what brand of national administration you have, the emphasis will still be on Washington. Yet, to welcome an increasing reign of bureaucrats is to invite totalitarianism.

The battle against political encroachments upon the lives of our people still can be won. When the facts are carried straight to the bar of public opinion, I believe informed Americans will repudiate this reign of bureaucrats. For a generation, the scope of government's power has extended outward from the federal center. People are tired of abuses that come in the wake of bureaucracy.

Beyond DO YOU realize that The Law some 1,200 federal bureaus now exist to dominate, control, and restrain every manner of human activity? Back of these bureaus eleven government agencies function as corporations. The majority of these have little constitutional justification. Compliance with constitutional law is not important to these bureaus and agencies. Neither is the spirit of individual enterprise, which is so much a part of American tradition.

These agencies feel they are beyond the law and the spirit of the constitution. While competing with the private enterprise of citizens, these federal corporations indulge in wasteful, extravagant, and corrupt practices. A screen of bureaucratic confusion, with the help of garbled records and false accounting methods, hides them from public view. These methods resemble those of the monarchies of old.

No Rent, FEDERAL corporations that compete with the enterprises of private citizens have rare advantages. They pay no rent, and decline to refer to this in their bookkeeping. They are simply "operating government property." They pay no taxes, like the corporations with which they compete. They are "the government," and their purpose is to consume taxes. Tax money is grist for their mills.

Despite having to pay no rent and no taxes, federal corporations are estimated by one source as having used up $5,500,000,000 more than they earned in the year ending last June. Moreover, they have a free rein on costs. Losses added to well-hidden costs are estimated to make up a full third of the annual federal budget. All this cost is a huge burden on the productivity of our citizens. Such wastefulness has no place in this people's republic!

Consider the effect on our nation now, if we could eliminate one-third of the tax requirement! Not only would we have needed money for world rehabilitation and for retiring the national debt. While establishing a sound federal economy by eliminating these needless government costs, we would increase the standard of living for everyone. But most important, by ending the reign of bureaucracy, we would halt the march toward totalitarianism!

delagation said, "All of you come over to the cafe and have coffee with us." It was a cold and gloomy day and a cup of coffee was welcome and the opportunity to visit with Garland citizens while having the coffee made it doubly pleasant.

That was the first time I ever met Bill Bradfield, publisher of the Garland News, by the way.

Another time, or it may have been on that same trip, our bus rolled into the picturesque little city of Palo Pinto. Just as we stepped off the bus, there was a series of sharp, crackling explosions. Gib Abernathy had given our arrival an appropriate touch of the Wild West by setting off a string of firecrackers. At least, they told me it was my friend, Gib, who is a former sheriff and former Texas Ranger.

You see, I still remember the visit to those towns because somebody did something that showed they were glad we came.

I wonder how an old pioneer who wore a coonskin cap and fired a muzzle-loading rifle would feel if he could return and see a beautiful high school named for him?

Or how Jean LaFitte, the pirate, would feel if he could re-visit Galveston Island and see a hotel bearing his name?

One of fate's greatest ironies is exemplified by Austin, a lovely city name for "the Father of Texas," with a beautiful hotel there, the Stephen F. Austin, with air-conditioning, steam heat, paintings and swift elevators.

Stephen F. Austin died from pneumonia contracted from working for the advancement of Texas in a log house in the winter time without a fire.

"TEARING DOWN A PLOW IS HARD WORK—"

— WHY DO IT NEEDLESSLY? Krause factory equipped One-Way Plows now have Timken disc bearings and self-sharpening, long life discs. Put these modern improvements on your Krause One-Way and you will enjoy trouble-free dependable service. No tearing down to reroll discs. No tearing down to repair worn-out bearings. Your plow will be ready every day you want it to work.

KRAUSE BEARINGS ARE BEST Krause Timken disc bearings are heavy duty, self aligning, double dust sealed for rugged service.

Krause self-sharpening discs wear three to five times longer than ordinary discs. A hardfacing alloy is scientifically applied to the inside edge of the blade, making it wear resistant and self-sharpening through the abrasive action of the soil. . . . More plowing with less power.

FOR THE Legislature

Our District is made up of Knox, King, Foard and Hardeman counties, and Jack is from Quanah, in Hardeman county.

The race for our legislature job is between two boys from Quanah, and it is a good, clean fight. Both are good men, but we have picked Jack, and ask you to vote for him because we know him plenty well enough to say this:

He is a practical young man who knows about farm and livestock problems of our district because he has worked as a farmer and livestock man, and we mean work; he made his own way the greater part of his life; like millions of other young Americans, he did a fair and honorable part in the war, serving with a crack combat unit in Europe from D Day on Utah Beach to the end of Czecho-Slovakia; he is a sober-minded young citizen now, progressive in his way of thinking, but with his feet on the ground; he promises fairly and squarely to really apply himself to the study of Texas legislative problems, and to put full thought in representing all FOUR counties depending on him. Let's send him to the legislature—we need his kind.

How Draft Bill To Effect Boys Of Knox County

Here's what the draft bill passed recently by Congress means to Knox County boys 18 through 25 years of age:

Registration—All men 18 through 25.

Drafted—Men 19 through 25 as needed to bring armed forces up to the authorized strength.

Service—21 months.

How soon—No inductions for 90 days unless President or Congress declares national emergency sooner.

Termination—Act expires two years after signed, unless ended sooner by Congress.

Number—Army estimates it will need at least 225,000 men the first year. After that, it depends on volunteers. Navy and Air Corps hope to keep up strength with volunteers.

Volunteers—18-year-olds can sign up for 12 months service and then join the reserves. That clears them from the draft later.

Doctors—No special registration for doctors and dentists as originally proposed. But those 25 or under must register.

Job Rights—Same as in World War II.

Veterans—Those who served 18 months from Sept. 16, 1940 to date act becomes law are exempt, also those who served 90 days or more during "shooting war"—December 7, 1941 to September 2, 1945.

Draft Boards—Like World War II but fewer will be needed.

Date of Registration—To be fixed by the President.

Exempt—Ministers, National Guard members, conscientious objectors, most public officials and industrial workers covered by regulations the President can make.

Family Men—The President, through the selective service director, will decide about deferring men with dependents.

Students—High school students deferred until they graduate, drop out or become 20, whichever comes first. Collegians can finish the current year—the school year during which he received his induction call.

Military Justice—Army system overhauled to let enlisted men and Warrant Officers serve on court martials; penalties reduced for many offenses.

Enlistments—Men 19 through 25 could volunteer for 21 months as could enlisted reserves. General classification score cut to 70 points for volunteers.

Reserves—Draftees go into inactive reserve for five years after discharge, unless they volunteer for another year in service or join an organized reserve outfit for three years.

Draft Dodgers—Can be fined up to $10,000 and given five years in jail.

GI Bill of Rights—Would not apply to these draftees and they would get no mustering out pay.

Industry—Government can take over industrial plants which refuse orders at "fair profit." Courts would decide disputed cases of what is "fair profit."

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Thompkins of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McMahon of Vera visited Mr. and Mrs. Holman McMahon over the week end.

Texas Buyers Find Furniture More Plentiful

Dallas—For the first time since re-war days, buyers from retail furniture stores in Texas are finding a plentiful supply of home furnishing goods at the summer markets now in progress in Chicago and Grand Rapids. According to Bob Lindey of Berger, president of the Retail Furniture Association of Texas, there is an abundant selection of merchandise in all price ranges.

About 800 furniture executives, buyers and wholesale salesmen from Texas are attending the markets, which extend from July 5 to 17.

With the return of a competitive market new lines are being shown, although the period and modern styles that gained good consumer acceptance during the first half of the year are still prevalent. Badly designed furniture is rapidly becoming extinct, and the luxury of fashion is now available, even in the lowest price brackets.

Another important development of the summer markets is that the furniture industry is fighting a winning battle to keep prices down. Reduced margins, for both manufacturers and retailers, are being maintained in order to insure firm consumer prices.
