What is a youth center?

We found out lots of things about one Monday night. Principally, one is all right for the town and for the youth if it's operated right.

Then how should one be operated? That's the $64 question that's got to be answered by Munday, if and when a youth center is operated here.

The Community Development Association realized the need of a youth center, and it's directors invited a group of people to the meeting Monday night to discuss the proposition.

We found different and varied opinions. We found most everyone highly in favor of a youth center, but it had to be kept on a high plane. The entertainment provided at such a center had to be good and wholesome, and not anything that tinged of the questionable type.

Present for the discussion were men and ladies, ministers, scoutmasters, school teachers, school administrators, a mother who is interested in youth, and others who wanted Munday to do what is right about our youth.

The discussion was as it should be—orderly, good naturedly, with everyone expressing his, or her, honest and sincere opinion.

Some thought play equipment, such as tennis courts, ping-pong tables, and the like, would be a good starter.

Others thought we ought to have a building which would be open to the youth on certain nights of the week, and there would be recreation would be carried on.

But who would supervise it? Would someone be hired to devote full time to the center? Would volunteer supervision do the job?

Most everyone agreed that the form of recreation had to be of the highest type. But would those things of questionable nature gradually creep in?

If they did, then there was opposition, and strong opposition to the youth center.

One thing was determined—that we could in no way operate a youth center without the churches having an important part in the program. Entertainment must be such as to build young people, to mould character, to direct lives in the right paths.

Then how should it be governed? The youth council idea was favored to a large extent. Let the youths govern their activities, but with adult supervision.

Who should sponsor it? Directors of the C.D.A. doesn't feel that it was within their province to sponsor it. Should the churches sponsor it? Should the Moms and Dads do the sponsoring? These questions weren't answered to a very definite degree.

When will we have a youth center? We'll have one when the dads and mothers get a youth center upon their hearts so strong that they'll be willing to do some supervision, to cooperate, to work and think, that their children may have a place to go, something to do.

What is a youth center? Here's a definition that came out of the meeting: "It's a little wildcat that we've reached out and taken by the tail!"

Where would they meet? It would be possible to meet in the school gymnasium if conducted like a youth center should be conducted, if supervised, if damage to school property would be promptly repaired or paid for.

We could have a swimming pool. But young people couldn't go swimming, then dance in their bathing suits on the area surrounding the pool. Mixed bathing would be sort of frowned on.

These ideas and many others were brought out by those who

Moguls Drop Game Friday To Crowell Team

The Crowell Wildcats invited Munday last Friday night and set the Munday Moguls back with a 19 to 6 defeat in the first home game of the season for the locals. The Moguls rang up their tally in the first five minutes of play, but it wasn't long until Crowell began to show her superiority on the field.

Munday recovered a Crowell fumble on the second play from scrimmage to gain possession of the ball on the visitors' 30-yard line. Durwood Scott passed to Royce McGraw for a gain of 29 yards, then Scott plunged left tackle for the remaining yardage and the touchdown. The try for extra point was blocked.

The Wildcats pushed across their first counter in the second quarter after intercepting Scott's pass on the Munday 35. Biggerstaff ran for 15 yards, and a series of line plays carried to the 1 foot line. Biggerstaff went over from that point.

Two more Crowell markers came in the fourth quarter. Hollenack circled right end for 18 yards and the 2-yard line, then scored on the next play. With three minutes of play remaining, Todd skirted through right tackle for 51 yards and the final tally.

New Man Takes Charge Of Local Country Club

Fred Adkins, formerly of Wichita Falls, has been employed as golf instructor and keeper at the Munday Municipal Country Club, it was announced this week by the club membership.

Mr. Adkins arrived here on Wednesday of last week, and he has been busy placing the local golf course in tip-top shape for the players. The green has been gone over, and other work is being done on the course. The greens were in better shape Sunday than in many years, local players stated.

With constant care and upkeep, the local course is expected to be the best sand green course in this section of the state.

Mr. Adkins, who is a real golfer, holds the present city championship at Wichita Falls, where he has been serving as assistant instructor. He can tell the boys how it's done, and show them how to do it.

He plans to begin instruction of local golfers some time next week, and those interested in golfing lessons are asked to get in touch with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Adkins and their three children have established residence at the keeper's home on the club grounds. Mr. Adkins will also handle a high type of golfing equipment, clubs, balls, etc., at the country club.

Moguls Tangle With Panthers Friday Night

Talk about tough! The Moguls hadn't seen any tough workouts until this week. Coach Billy Cloud had them going through the grille last Monday and has continued this strenuous practice every day since.

Two losses behind them, and a tough game coming up next Friday night, the Moguls just had to be in shape, so they could take it.

So practice continues, as the Moguls prepare to journey to Seymour next Friday night for their annual tangle with the Seymour Panthers. It will be the first game of the season for the Panthers, so the Moguls might have the edge from that standpoint.

Many Seymour fans were here for the game with Crowell last Friday night. They had a double interest in this game. The Moguls were their next gridiron foes, and Seymour will play Crowell later in the season in conference play.

This will be the Moguls third non-conference game of the season. They will open conference play on September 24, with Throckmorton coming here.

Despite their two early season losses, the Mogul fans are still behind the team, and many of them will see the locals in action at Seymour.

ADVERTISING RATES TO BE INCREASED

Effective October 1, there will be a slight increase in advertising rates for the Munday Times—the only increase in the past ten years.

Increasing production costs and costs of materials have made this imperative. The Times management had hoped to maintain the present low rates, but finds it impossible to do so, and your Munday Times is among the last newspapers in this area to make an increase.

Display advertising rates will be increased five cents an inch, while the classified word rate will be increased to two cents. We hope that our customers will understand that this has been made imperative, in that we can no longer absorb increasing costs at the present rate.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Broach, Jr. and son, Bill, of Bakersfield, California are on an extended visit here with Mrs. P. B. Broach. Expecting to locate temporarily in Texas, Bill is in school in Breckenridge until the home is established.

Youth Drive Slated To Open Next Week

Set to coincide with the annual Boy Scout drive for funds, Munday is slated to stage a community youth drive next week.

Unless plans are changed, the drive will open next Tuesday morning. This is the time set for the "kick-off meeting" for raising funds for the Northwest Area Council of Boy Scouts.

Discussion of the drive was held last Monday night at the regular meeting of directors of the Community Development Association, when a number of people who are interested in Boy Scouts, Girls Scouts, and youth of Munday met with the body.

The drive next week, if carried out as planned, will combine both the Boy Scout and Girl Scout drives, with a portion of the funds being set aside for development of youth activities in Munday. This move was made because of criticism upon the part of local people who didn't think all of the money raised locally should go out of town.

Under the plan, 50 per cent of all the money raised will go into the Boy Scout movement and the remainder will be kept locally for Girl Scouts and to be used as seen fit for youth activities.

Death Claims Mrs. M. S. Stanley On Wednesday

Stanley, Jr., of Pecos, Paul Stanley of Stamford, Virgil Stanley of Richardson and Mrs. Lonnie Kidd of Hamlin; Shirley Scott, a niece, who has made her home with her since 1940; her husband, C. H. ### MUNDAY'S NEEDS FOR 1948

1. A modern and up-to-date high school building, to care for the present and future educational needs of our children.
2. A waterworks system that meets all requirements of health, sanitation and supply.
3. A street sweeper that will keep our pavement clean enough to be recognized as pavement.
5. Completion of our drainage and paving program, which will probably be accomplished this year.

FIGHTING FOR YOU

"Safety is hard to advertise," says the New York Times. "Most people think they have it, like common sense. Many hazards become contemptible because they are as familiar as the loose wire in the kitchen . . . Who sees the build-up of static electricity in the dress you clean with gasoline? Even the shock of a big hotel fire wears off and false security exerts its age-old drug."

That is why fire prevention work must never slow down—and why every medium of communication must constantly be employed to keep the menace of fire before the American people. Today fire is costing us some $700,000,000 a year in direct waste alone—and the indirect waste is two to three times as great. Worse still, it is taking more than 10,000 lives. And fire is the cause of about one-fourth of all accidental deaths to children.

According to the best authorities, about 90 per cent of all fires are preventable. They are the product of human carelessness, ignorance or forgetfulness. That goes for the rundown heating plant which sets a home afire—or for the cigarette butt thrown from a car which leads to the ravage of millions of acres of fine timber and the destruction of wild life. The fire which cannot be prevented is rare indeed.

The war against fire is being fought for you—and for everyone else.

IF PRICE CONTROL CAME BACK

Every argument in favor of price controls falls flat when it comes up against this fact: You can't make a man produce at a loss, or sell goods for less than it costs him to buy and handle them.

Most price control schemes call for rolling all prices back to the level of some specific period—last year, for instance. Yet, since that time, we have had another round of wage increases. We have had continuance of gigantic spending by the government, which is one of the surest of all ways to keep inflation going. We have had a tax reduction, which means that there is more money available to compete for goods.

If price control were to go into effect tomorrow, what would happen? The manufacturers of most commodities make a profit of around six per cent—so if they earned nothing at all the cut in prices would be too small to be noticed. The retailers from whom you buy earn, as profit, two to five cents out of each dollar you spend with them. All the rest goes for stock, payroll, rent, taxes, and so on. So, if they worked for the love of the game alone, your budget would be cut very little. The worker certainly isn't going to take a pay cut in order to bring prices down. As a consequence, we would have fewer goods and goods of poorer quality—and more and more items would be siphoned off into the black market where the price charged is every penny the buyer will cough up.

THE SAME OLD STORY

Dr. E. L. Henderson, of Louisville, recently attended the sessions in Rome of the International College of Surgeons—his third European trip in 14 months as a delegate from American medical groups. On his return from the latest journey he said that if the members of Congress could see how state medicine works abroad they would never think of introducing it in this country. In every European nation where socialized medicine is practiced, he added, there has been a decline in the standards of medical care.

More evidence to the same effect has come from New Zealand, whose government medical program was much praised in this country when it went into effect. The bill for tax-paid medical service rose nearly three times between 1942 and 1947. Even though the politicians had promised unlimited benefits to the voters, they were forced to ask the doctors to restrict services to their patients—a request which the doctors have refused to follow. The burden on the doctors has become so great that in many instances appointments have to be made four months in advance. Patients queue up in the doctor's office whether they need attention or not, on the theory that they have it coming. The whole New Zealand plan has been pretty much of a fiasco, and is now in the process of revision.

The story of what politics does to the practice of medicine is always the same. It can be summed up in a phrase—poorer service and more costly service.

A man is rated by his accomplishments—not by his dreams.

The working parts of freight cars—wheels, frames and springs to support the body, couplers, draft gear and brakes—have been so standardized as to enable repairs to be made regardless of the distance from the owner's headquarters.

There are 15,000,000 farm implements operated by more than three million tractors now in use in American agriculture. Each tractor on the average runs five tools, one of the reasons for the ever-increasing use of oil.

Today there are 9,000 farm airplanes, an increase of 8,900 per cent since 1941. The increase is symbolic of the growth in oil-powered farming in the war and postwar years.

"Farming" Versus "Ranching"
Talked to some editors who run my column in their papers—in states where there's mostly cattle and sheep raising—about the differences there might be between farming and ranching.
And they told me: "Joe, there's no real difference between cattlemen and farmers. We make our living from the land like your folks do; we have the same 4-H Clubs and Granges; the same problems of prices and marketing."
"When it comes to recreation, we have the same liking to get together now and then for a barbecue and a friendly glass of beer."
And from where I sit, that about sums it up. Ranchers may have different names for things or grow different crops. But all over America folks who work the land share those common traits of hard work, sober moderation, and good fellowship, whether they're growing cattle for beef, or barley for good American beer and ale.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Worried Over Prediction By Experts That No Depression Is Likely To Come Soon

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is off on economics this week, which is as good as anything else for him to be off on.

Dear editor: If I was likely to be affected either way, I would be concerned about a recent survey which has revealed the experts was pretty sure we was gonna have a depression, or maybe a recession, or a slight dip, during 1948. Wasn't no way I found it. Had charts to prove it. Printed em in the papers.

J. A.

But 1948 arrived and got underway and people easily taken in tightened their belts and got set, but nothin happened. Prices kept right on goin up and people forgot all about the experts and kept makin money and spendin it at the same rate or a little faster. Now though the experts is positive we're gonna have good times for another year at least, which is a good sign we ought to be on the alert. The road to a depression is paved with predictions by the experts that we ain't got nothin to fear and good times is here to stay.

However, as I say, the matter don't affect me none. People talk about the economic situation and financial conditions and so forth, and they get up in the mornin feelin good or glompy, dependin on whether times are good or bad, but me, I have risen above economic conditions. I don't get ahead don't make no difference whether times are good or bad. I'm just as short of money now as I was in the last depression. Have just as hard a time meetin my bills or dodgin my creditors now as I did then, but still lack just as much makin ends meet and ain't got no more credit at the bank now, don't make no difference if the bank has got twice as much money on hand. And I have heard there is other folks in the same boat with me. You acquainted with any?
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Uncle Sam Says

Can you keep on the "up" side of life's see-saw? The bumps come when you are on the "down" side and they aren't funny. For most of these bumps are financial ones and they hurt, unless you cushion the shock. Millions of Americans have discovered the safe, automatic pillow against financial bumps. That pillow is U.S. Savings Bonds. By allotting only $2.50 a week, you will accumulate $1440.84 in ten years. There are two convenient methods for the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds—the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or, if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan where you bank.

U.S. Treasury Department

More memories of a columnist's sojourn in California for a few months, nine years ago:

Of amusements, there is no dearth in Hollywood—(isn't that sentence a dilly, by the way?) At least, there was plenty to see when I was out there—a Pacific Conference football game every Saturday afternoon, a "pro" grid game Sunday afternoon, two athletic clubs, each of which presented one card of boxing and another of wrestling each week, and two theaters that showed a combination of top-notch motion pictures and flesh-and-blood performers. Think of seeing a feature picture and also seeing, in person, Frances Langford, Kenny Baker and Ken Murray, all for only 50 cents!

They were always introducing notables at the ringside at the fights—such as Rochester, who was managing a heavyweight, and the old-time Olympic champion, the Indian, Jim Thorpe.

Then there were big road shows, such as "The Man Who Came to Dinner." The principal character was supposed to have based on Alex Woolcott and the famous critic and writer played the role himself. But the night I went, he was sick and they had to make a substitution. Some of the people didn't stay but got their money back at the box office. I remained however and the substitute was wonderful. He made a better Woolcott than Woolcott did. I didn't know until I read the paper next morning who I had seen. He was Kaufman, the man who wrote the show.

Life has embarrassing moments. Here is one of many I've encountered:

Back in the early 1920's, a reunion of Texas Rangers was held in Ranger. They were men who had served on the frontier, 10 years after the Civil War. I was the rather young editor of the Times and I invited half dozen of them to go into the drug store and have something to drink. After the sodas had been served, handed the young lady attendant a dollar bill but she pushed it back with the remark as she looked right at me: "We're not charging you old Confederates anything."

New Twist In Biscuits

Orange twisters are made from strips of biscuit dough, with orange rind and sugar rolled into the dough. After baking, the twisters have a pebbly surface with a glisten of sugar.

Once a bride has learned to make good biscuits—and that skill is by no means as difficult as the cartoons would have us believe—she's ready for an advanced lesson that includes making orange twisters. These crisp curls of biscuit dough have an orange flavor accented by a crust of sugar, and the shape is enough to turn them into a culinary triumph for the cook.

To form twisters, first roll an orange rind-sugar mixture into the biscuit dough. Then cut the dough into strips, double each strip over and twist with one motion. For a variation, you might try braiding three shorter strips together, pressing the ends together firmly.

Orange twisters may be served wherever biscuits would be proper, and they may also accompany afternoon cups of coffee or tea.

ORANGE TWISTERS

2 cups sifted enriched flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cut or rub in shortening. Add milk to form a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead one-half minute. Pat or roll out into eight-inch square about one-fourth inch thick. Roll

2 to 4 tablespoons shortening
2/3 to 1 cup milk
Orange Sugar

Orange Sugar into the dough. Cut into strips about three-eighths inch wide. Double each strip over and twist. Place on baking sheet. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Yield: About 18 three-inch twisters.

Orange Sugar

2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
Blend sugar and orange rind together.

Cherry Filled Coffee Cake

Mid-way through this quick coffee cake is a filling of juicy cherries to lend appetite appeal to a good breakfast.

For a hot bread that features so much good eating, this cherry filled coffee cake is exceptionally easy to make. Into the baking pan goes a crunchy layer of streusel, then a coffee cake batter, then sweetened cherries, finally more batter. This layered cake bakes in 25 minutes. Then it puts in an appearance at the breakfast table to give that meal style and sparkle.

Uses for such a coffee cake need not be limited to breakfast. Because it contains enriched flour, it is rich in B-vitamins, food energy and iron. With this splendid nutritional value, it is a mid-afternoon treat for callers, a supper dessert, a brunch special. Enriched flour products are good menu-balancers, since all their food values add up on the credit side of the meal. This coffee cake is given in the list of such products.

CHERRY FILLED COFFEE CAKE

Topping
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup enriched flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 cup butter or margarine

2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 egg
1/2 cup milk
1/2 tablespoons melted shortening
1 #2 can cherries (1 1/2 cups drained)

Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) 25 minutes. Yield: 1 coffee cake, eight by eight inches.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—An interesting sidelight on public health in Texas was revealed in the morbidity report of the Texas State Department of Health for the week ending August 28th, which showed a total of 2 cases of smallpox for this year, while in the same period there were 588 cases of diphtheria.

Commenting on these comparative figures, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer stated that diphtheria is a readily controlled by immunization as is smallpox, but that apparently the public has failed to recognize this fact, or to act upon it.

"Smallpox, which is highly contagious, is no longer considered a major health problem in Texas," Dr. Cox said, "and this is due to widespread vaccination against the disease. Diphtheria, equally contagious, can also be reduced to the point where a single case is a rarity, but only when parents awake to the fact that every child should be immunized in infancy. The baby's doctor will recommend when this should be done, and if all children were given this protection, there would be none susceptible to contract this killing disease.

Ordinarily the immunity provided by diphtheria toxoid lasts a child until he is of school age, however a Schick test should be given before the child enters school. If needed, an additional shot of toxoid should be administered.

"When all children are routinely immunized against this dreaded disease, it can be virtually eliminated as the health hazard that it now is, to the boys and girls of Texas", Dr. Cox declared.

The sum total of all the small amounts of fat in the average American kitchen adds up to quite an amount. When the kitchen grease is no longer usable as food, strain it into your fat salvage container and sell it to your dealer.

A good jelly should be bright, of good color and clear. And when taken out of the glass, it should keep the shape of the mold.

It's only good, common sense to take time out to keep equipment in the best of shape. The time spent repairing and replacing parts is only a small part of the cost of careless handling, and the dangers of such equipment are even more.

All Texans have been urged by Governor Beauford Jester to attend the sixty-third annual State Fair of Texas in Dallas, October 9 through 24, "where the youth of the farm, the ranch and the city find the inspiration for fine citizenship and happiness."

FARM NEWS

from the County Agricultural Conservation Committee

United States food consumption has increased substantially. On the average, each person eats 1,650 pounds of food in a year—17 per cent more than before the war. The population of the United States has increased 13 million since 1940. Only about 350 million acres of cropland are harvested in the U. S. each year, or about 2½ acres per person. We lose ½ million acres of crop-land a year, which is equal to the 2½ acre share of 200 thousand people.

Unless we stop this loss and start rebuilding our soil, we cannot hope to maintain our present standard of living.

Around 2½ acres of land can still be harvested per person, if we keep what we have and add what we can. But, we lose by erosion alone ½ million acres a year. The aim of the Agricultural Conservation Program is to help and encourage farmers to make widespread use of conservation practices that stop unnecessary soil and mineral losses, maintain the quality of the soil, and make full use of available moisture.

Although accomplishments under the Agricultural Conservation Program are usually given in tons of phosphate spread, pounds of seed, number of dams built and rods of terraces constructed, the real measure of accomplishments is in what these practices do to conserve soil and water.

The construction of a single terrace may protect from erosion hundred of acres of land back of the terrace. Uncontrolled, erosion "eats" back into the land and spreads like cancer. A stock-water dam and the water back of it may occupy less than a quarter of an acre but the benefits in getting better distribution of livestock on the range may effect 1,000 acres. The application of phosphate increases the growth of Legumes and grass, making those plants more effective in holding soil and water. The improved cover on one part of the farm may protect the whole farm and may be the means of saving soil on other farms.

With assistance furnished by the Agricultural Conservation Program, Samuel Watson, Clyde Yost, A. A. Smith, Jr., Sam L. Shipman and others are building terraces to stop erosion and conserve water. S. E. Williamson and W. P. Denton are constructing stock water dams.

Knox County farmers are beginning to make plans for seeding Winter Legumes. Claude E. Reed, Clifford Roberson and others have reported good results from the application of Phosphate to Winter Legumes. Why not talk to them about this.

More Farm Storage Needed
Effectiveness of government price support programs depends on adequate storage for the grain. Farmers need the price protection, which is possible only with adequate storage. The grain is needed both as food for an increasing national and world population, and as feed to expand the production of livestock as a means of making more meat available.

With the record-breaking grain crop this year, it will be up to farmers to provide the extra storage needed. Expecting country elevators and terminals to take care of the extra bushels may be disappointing, as storage at these points is not being increased.

Question of Cotton Quotas up for Decision
Whether or not marketing quotas must be proclaimed for the 1949 crop of American upland cotton will be decided by Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan within the next few months. The Secretary has called on all interested parties to submit their views for consideration before the official determination of facts as to the cotton supply and demand situation. Such views must be submitted by September 10.

animals faster; and helps sows to breed regularly, produce larger litters and produce more milk to nurse the litter.

Cottonseed meal and cake have been tested by many Experiment Stations, as well as through years of extensive use on farms and ranches. Their value has been proved by such results as:

In balanced fattening rations, 100 pounds of cottonseed meal saves 250 to 300 pounds of grains.

At the Kansas Experiment Station, recent work indicated that one pound of cottonseed cake produced 3/4 of a pound of additional gain when 1 1/2 pounds of cottonseed cake were fed daily to steers on range grass that was plentiful but dry and mature (deficient in protein).

Supplemental feeding, principally cottonseed cake, to range brood cows at the California Experiment Station materially increased the size of the calf drop and calf weights.

Full Feeding Is Encouraged By Price Outlook

Supply of Protein And Grain, Meat and Dairy Demand Favorable

Plentiful supplies of feeds at prices much lower than a year ago, and the continued relatively high prices of meat and milk should encourage feeding for maximum production, livestock authorities agree.

Extremely small livestock numbers, large feed production and expected demand for meat and milk greatly exceeding the indicated supply are conditions indicating that it will be unusually profitable to feed for fast gains, good finish and maximum production. Full feeding of rations containing adequate protein will take advantage of early marketing during the current shortage of fed animals.

Careful management and feeding are essential, however, to take full advantage of this situation, A. L. Ward, Educational Director of the National Cottonseed Products Association, points out. Costs of feeder animals and breeding stock, labor and equipment make it necessary to use sound judgment and reduce expenses to a minimum.

Proper use of protein concentrates, such as cottonseed meal, pellets or cake, is one effective way to increase production and reduce costs. Adequate protein in fattening rations makes faster gains, more gain per pound of feed and higher finish.

Milk production of the dairy herd and beef cows is increased through liberal feeding of cottonseed meal or cake to supplement gains, dry roughages and grasses. Protein also helps the herd to breed regularly and produce healthier, heavier offspring. Cottonseed meal in the concentrate mixture for dairy cows not only increases production, but also reduces costs by increasing efficiency of other feeds and grazing.

With swine, balancing the ration adequate protein produces more pork from less feed; fattens

Child Safety Month Observed In September

Austin—Governor Beauford Jester has proclaimed September as "Child Safety Month" to focus attention on the need for protecting children from traffic accidents as they start back to school.

A statewide program reaching into every community that has an American Legion Post is being sponsored jointly by the Legion and the Texas Safety Association. Motorists are being urged to "watch out for the kids—give them a brake." Parents are encouraged to help teach safe habits to youngsters. The kids themselves are reminded not to play in the street or road and always to look before crossing a thoroughfare.

Governor Jester in his proclamation pointed out that 218 children below the age of 14 were killed in Texas traffic accidents last year, while 1826 boys and girls were injured.

Veterans' News

World War II veterans still can reinstate their National Service Life Insurance, the Veterans Administration says.
Some veterans are under the impression they can no longer obtain this government insurance. World War II veterans who can pass a physical examination may reinstate their lapsed insurance at any time.

The deadline for reinstating NSLI without a physical examination was July 31, 1948, VA explained. Prior to the deadline, a veteran could reinstate lapsed insurance by certifying that his health was as good as it was when the policy lapsed.

This deadline confused some veterans who feel that they cannot reinstate lapsed insurance since the deadline passed. That is not correct, VA said.

Veterans may reinstate their insurance at any time by passing a physical examination. If the policy has lapsed less than three months, it still can be reinstated without taking the physical examination.

The average age of World War II women veterans is slightly higher than that of their male fellow-veterans, VA reports. The feminine average is an even 30 years, while the average age of the men is 29 years and 9½ months.

The number of veterans of all

THE CENTRAL planners are at it again. They are getting set to try to push housing legislation through the special session of congress. There is hardly a bill to be considered that the "planners" and socialist-minded experimenters will push harder than a public housing bill. They realize that government housing, and the huge and wasteful spending that goes with it, would put the federal government right in business.

What is the origin of the idea that our government should subsidize housing and pass the costs of it to the taxpayers? Where does the idea come from that the government of a nation is obligated to furnish houses and lodging to its people? These ideas did not originate in America, the land of the free. They came from Europe and from Russia. These ideas have never turned out any results, except colossal failure.

Promise THE ONLY lasting and spend effect of European public housing has been public debt. Their projects did not give them more houses, nor eliminate slums, nor provide homes for the poor. However, their experiments did give the Socialists and Communists a free ride to power. Time after time, these political gangs rode to power on public housing programs—so easy was it to promise and spend, promise and spend. Now, their people continue to pay heavy taxes for projects long since dead.

It is amazing that lessons of history are thus ignored, and the American people are asked to turn over their housing problems to the government. Our nation is great today, and our land a land of plenty, because we Americans have had the initiative to do things for ourselves. We have not been willing, in the past, to turn our everyday lives over to an expanding government. Our fathers did not stand back and beg the federal government to do everything for them.

Freedom THE BRITISH people have had unhappily times with public housing and subsidies. During the thirties they tried public housing on a large scale. But it was only after government had failed, that private industry came in and produced a real boom in housing. The present Socialist government in England is interested in public housing. It is routine there to interfere with the liberties and freedoms of the people.

The New York Times on May 5, carried a short dispatch from a small English town. It said that a carpenter had used his life savings and his own hands to build himself a small cottage, only to have government wrecking crews come in to tear it down because he did not have a permit to build. Demolition crews were called off only after neighbors had petitioned the Prime Minister and considered appealing to the King.

The news story indicated that the "Ministry of Town and Country Planning" would have to decide whether the carpenter would be permitted to live in the house he put up with his own hands. Thirty years ago no Englishman could have thought that his rights and liberties would ever be subject to the whims of a government bureau, like that. It takes centuries to win freedom and liberty, but it is possible to lose the same freedoms almost overnight.

wars reached 18,744,000 on May 1, 1948, VA says. Of these, 14,887,000 served in World War II. The remainder were veterans of World War I and other wars.

When the nation's population of veterans and members of their families reaches its expected peak of 60,000,000 in 1965, VA predicts that the number of veterans of all wars will be 17,200,000, and the number of persons in their families, 42,900,000.

Questions And Answers
Q. I intend to be a bartender and would like to know if I can take a course in bartending under the GI Bill?
A. First, you must submit to VA complete justification that the course is in connection with your present or contemplated business or occupation. Then you must receive VA approval before you start training.

Q. May I complete my last year of grade school and take a commercial course under the GI Bill?
A. Yes.

Q. What does VA supply to the disabled veteran if he is enrolled in a school, or if he is enrolled in on-the-job training?
A. For each disabled veteran in school, VA will furnish tuition, fees, books and equipment, provided they are required of all other trainees taking the same course.

Q. Does Veterans Administration lend money to the veteran for the purchase of homes or businesses?
A. VA does not lend money to the veteran for homes or businesses. He makes his own arrangements for the loan through the usual financing channels. VA then guarantees the lender against loss up to 50 percent of the loan, with a maximum guarantee of $4,000 on real estate and $2,000 on non-real estate loans.

Q. Who is eligible for a Federal grant to purchase or remodel a home?
A. Any veteran of war or peace-time service who served in the armed forces since April 21, 1948, and who has a permanent and total service-connected disability due to a spinal cord disease or injury, resulting in paralysis of the legs and the lower part of the body, is eligible to receive a Federal grant for the purpose of purchasing or remodeling a specially adapted home.

are interested in providing something for the youth of the town. The whole idea wasn't threshed out to a successful conclusion, but lots of threshing was done.

It requires more study, more thought, more planning, more talking and more threshing.

A committee of townspeople was appointed to give the idea more thought. It is composed of Rev. W. G. Barr, temporary chairman; Rev. Haron A. Polnac, Minister D. L. Ashley, Mrs. D. C. Eiland, Mrs. Swindall, Sgt. W. C. Cox, Mrs. Mauryse Blacklock and Dr. J. M. Croley.

When this group has completed its findings, we'll have more discussion as to whether Munday will have a youth center, or whether we'll let the youth seek their own entertainment.

The first observance of Labor Day in the United States was held in New York City in 1882 by the American Federation of Labor. In 1948, some 68 millions of you wage earners will join in the 66th annual celebration of that day. Congratulations are in order. Millions of you workers are now guarding against any future emergencies by allotting a portion of your weekly wages to the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. You like it because it is automatic, it is sure. If not enrolled you can sign up today where you work for the Payroll Savings Plan, or, if self-employed, see your banker and ask to be enrolled for the Bond-a-Month Plan to purchase U.S. Savings Bonds. An allotment of $3.75 a week will bring you $2163.45 in just ten years. U.S. Treasury Department
