

Kracker Krumb's Odd Bits Salvaged At Random

We are very weak in the prediction department. Developments during the past week have shown that conclusively.

And so we apologize to all Democrats, and both of our readers!

We are reminded of our prediction last Wednesday. Mrs. G. L. Pruitt called us on the telephone, and she was plumb happy to let us know she remembered it.

You see, Mrs. Pruitt is a Democrat of the first class. And when the Democratic victory was coming over the radio, she just calls the fellow who perpetrates this column on the general public and says: "What do you think, now?"

It all started back yonder in the summer when the Republicans had complete control of Philadelphia. They "conventioned" with so much enthusiasm that it appeared they would have control of the nation.

So we summed everything up, including their enthusiasm and the "do nothing" Congress—and stuck our neck out.

We predicted a Republican victory, come November 2nd. All the arrows seemed to point in that direction.

But we explained along with the prediction that we'd vote the ballot straight—Democratic—like we'd done all our life.

Then along comes the primaries—and we had a big stink in Texas about the senatorial election.

The campaigning didn't stop with the second primary. A big squabble was instituted about who was really elected, and it gets into the courts, and out of the courts and into the state Democratic committee, and most everywhere else.

The candidate who seemed to be defeated couldn't take it. Despite the fact the Democratic, prior to this time, had given him about every office he asked for all his life, he comes out with the fact that he's going to "split the ticket" and vote for a Republican senatorial candidate.

That kinda' threw things into another mess, but we always believed that Texas would stay in the Democratic column, despite the senate squabble, States Righters, etc.

So, as we went to the polls, we stayed with the Democratic ticket, but even then we doubted if we were voting on the winning side.

But we did—and so did all you other Democrats. We're glad we voted 'er straight. Bet you are, too.

So, as the returns began coming in, we decided right quick that our first political prediction had turned out to be wrong.

We decided we'd better apologize—and we do, here and now.

It's the first time we ever made a wrong prediction about politics—publicly. It's the first time we ever predicted.

And so we are wrong. And folks began reminding us about it. Several met us on the streets and brought the matter up. Mrs. Pruitt called. Marvin Reeves seemed to remember something about it. Pop Davy shook our hand vigor and reminded us that he's the best Democrat in Texas.

But we had lots of company in being wrong in our belief and having to take "back water".

Lots of local people admitted they were also wrong in their beliefs. Lots of people over the nation were wrong.

Lots of political "poll takers" were wrong, and they haven't yet figured out what went wrong with their straw votes.

Newspaper reporters were wrong. Noticed where some of them already had the Republican victory all written up, then had to rush back to their desks when (Continued on last Page)

Haskell Gin Has Loss Of $15,000 In Fire On Saturday

Fire of unknown origin razed the cotton house of the Duncan Gin in Haskell late Saturday night and early Sunday morning, causing an estimated damage of $15,000.

The Haskell fire department, handicapped by having only one available truck, was credited with saving the gin. Members succeeded in putting out the fire within an hour and a half after the alarm sounded at 11:35 p. m.

Lost in the fire was about 15 bales of cotton and a trailer loaded with cotton that had been left under the suction pipe. The gin was closed for repairs at the time of the fire.

Bond Election Set December 6th For Voting On Bonds For Drainage Project

Local Baptists To Begin Drive On New Church

Making a concerted drive on their building program, members of the First Baptist church of Munday have set aside Sunday, November 14, as the day for a public contribution toward the new church.

It is the hope of the pastor and church officials to have at least $50,000 in the bank by January 1, 1949, as a good start toward the new church edifice. With this amount paid in, they will have the definite assurance of beginning construction on the building by early spring.

The goal for next Sunday has been set at $8,850.00.

"We realize that none of us could give this amount alone," those heading the drive stated, "but through concerted action by all of us, this goal can be reached. We urge all Baptists to do their part in this drive."

Bicycle Rack Is Presented School

The Munday grade school was the recipient of a very welcomed and valuable gift on Tuesday of last week, when W. E. Braly and C. P. Baker presented the school with a bicycle rack.

This rack accommodates 60 bicycles and is one of the most modern and best obtainable. Not only does it provide adequate parking space for students' bicycles, but it is constructed to permit owners of bicycles to lock them to the rack for safe keeping. In addition to these features, the rack is an attractive piece of equipment, which adds to the well-kept appearance of the school grounds.

Both patrons of the school and the faculty join the student body in expressing their grateful appreciation to Mr. Braly and Mr. Baker for their thoughtfulness and generosity.

Mrs. Thompson Of Knox City Dies Saturday

Mrs. E. E. Thompson, 40, of Knox City passed away Saturday morning at the Knox county hospital after an illness of over a year.

She was born Sallie Lou Sorrells at Pittsburgh, Texas, on October 7, 1908. She was married to Mr. Thompson in 1924 at Anson and moved to Knox City in 1942.

Surviving her are her husband and four children; two sons, Earl and J. E., two daughters, Armita and Anita, all of Knox City.

Funeral services were held from the First Baptist church in Knox City at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Floyd V. Bailey, pastor of the Four-Square Church in Knox City.

Junior Moguls Are Downed By Rochester Team

The Munday junior football team played the Rochester team last Tuesday night at Rochester. As the football season is fast drawing to a close, the juniors lost to a score of 35-13. Two players of the main team, Leon Johnson and Bobby Killian, were unable to play on account of illness.

Substitutes were Joe Howeth, Ralph Hargrove and Palmer Campsey.

The Munday juniors will play their last game of the season next Tuesday night when they meet the Haskell team on the local field.

The Commissioners Court of Knox county, at a hearing held at Benjamin last Monday, called a $61,600 municipal bond election for December 6 at Munday.

The purpose of this election is to determine if the people of the town want to finance a drainage system for Munday. The bonds, if approved, would finance construction of a drainage system to divert flood waters from the south and southwest areas, which waters flood the town during heavy rains.

The city's Knox County Drainage District No. 1 was created several months ago, and engineers have been working on the approximate cost of the project.

Mayor W. R. Moore headed a delegation which presented the report of Joe E. Wood, Wichita Falls, consulting engineer, on the proposed drainage project. No one protested the plan or asked for revision, according to William Griffith, county judge.

Munday's first drainage proposal, which embraced some farms to the south and southwest, was opposed by a number of citizens. The application was then withdrawn for revision which would include only properties within the city limits. This plan was approved in creating the drainage district.

Plans include a drainage canal in the southwest and south part of the town to divert the waters to the southeast edge of the city limits. Then another ditch, beginning at Main street just west of the Wichita Valley railroad property, would extend southeast to Lake Creek, it was said.

Maintenance, it was shown in the engineer's report, would run around $600 a year.

Citizens are urged to vote in the election. Whether the bonds are approved or disapproved, it was pointed out, it should be done by a vote of a majority of the people.

Local Boys Named Color Guards For Armistice Parade

Two Munday boys, Kelton Tidwell and Delbert Montgomery, have been selected as color guards in the Armistice Day Parade at San Antonio, according to word received here this week.

The two boys have been in training at Camp Hood, and all during their basic training their squad has been picked as honor squad each Saturday, parading before the general.

It takes a crack troop to merit the color guard position in the San Antonio parade, which will feature the 41st Armoured Infantry and the 81st Airborne Infantry in a three-mile long parade.

The local boys are to be commended upon their training which merits this honor.

Special Films To Be Shown Sunday At Methodist Church

There are three special sound films in the showing. In title they are as follows:

"Sing, America", giving words and music to some of America's best loved songs; "Pilgrimage Through Palestine", featuring a good travelogue of the Holy Land symbolic for any age group, and "For Times Like These", treating the Bible as news in a dramatic march of time.

The public is cordially invited to attend the showing of these films.

MUNDAY'S NEEDS FOR 1948

1. A modern and up-to-date high school building, to care for the present and future educational needs of our children.
2. A waterworks system that meets all requirements of health, sanitation and supply.
3. A street sweeper that will keep our pavement clean enough to be recognized as pavement.
5. Completion of our drainage and paving program, which will probably be accomplished this year.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF ARMISTICE DAY

The significance of Armistice Day goes deep into the heart of this country. It marks our victory in the two most destructive wars the world has ever known. Of comparable importance, it should remind every American of the enormous human and economic wealth we have been forced to spend to maintain our liberties, and to defend those principles upon which the dignity of man depends.

Armistice Day should bring us another thought as well. This nation has never provoked a war. No people on earth is more peaceful in intention. None will do more to achieve a just and lasting peace for all countries. If ever we are forced to engage in war, it will be because we can find no other means of maintaining those rights and freedoms which make up the American tradition.

The United States must build and conserve its strength. That means, on the surface, that we must have a strong military force capable of dealing with aggressors, and a mighty industrial structure to back it up. But these things, vital as they are, represent a reflection of our strength rather than the substance of it. For the core of this nation's strength and power lies in the spirit of its people.

That spirit is the spirit of freedom. It is based on the knowledge that every American has inalienable rights which cannot be abrogated. The right to speak our minds, the right to own property, the right to engage in a business of our choosing, the right to be free of dictation by government—these and other rights constitute our strength. And that too is the significance of Armistice Day.

COMPETING WITH WAR

If—even during the height of the war—an entire division of men had been killed, and more than a corps had been maimed, the nation would have been shocked with horror.

Yet fire does that every year. It does it on a piecemeal basis, of course. But that does not make the total any less terrible. Close to 11,000 lives a year are now given to it through carelessness and ignorance. And the toll of the maimed and burned and crippled is about 50,000. Its depredations are especially great among small children, many of whom become lifelong invalids.

Early in October, the nation celebrated Fire Prevention Week, as it does each year. A vast amount of work was done during the week to awaken the country to the menace of fire, and to teach us how fire may be prevented. But if the public works on the "out of sight, out of mind" the week will not bear full fruit. Fire Prevention, to be successful, must be carried on day in and day out. It must become a routine part of living in all homes and all places of work. It must be as automatic as eating and sleeping.

When that is accomplished, fire's toll of death and injury will be cut enormously—to say nothing of a property loss which has been costing us more than $700,000,000 a year.

NEW VICE-PRESIDENT IN BEST TRADITION

In January, for the first time in nearly three years, the United States will have a Vice-President. Alben W. Barkley will be no stranger to the Senate, over which he will preside. One of the veteran members of that body, he was an advisor to Woodrow Wilson as well as to Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman. Though known for his party loyalty, he has a mind of his own and is no mere yesman, as Roosevelt once learned to his dismay.

Barkley, an amiable Kentuckian who has kept his seat in spite of machine opposition, was not President Truman's first choice for his post. He is older than most Vice-Presidents—he will be seventy-one this month. But he is a remarkably level headed man who is not likely to be swept off his feet by socialistic proposals which may emanate from leftist advisors in the White House. He keeps his ear at the grass roots and does not go off on theoretical tangents.

Barkley's influence likely will be that of a balance wheel in the new administration. That is something for which many people may have cause to be thankful.—Dallas Morning News.

Orators don't coin phrases like their predecessors did in the good old days.

For example, the one who referred to a political party with its motley groups as "held together by the cohesive power of plunder."

And Tom Corwin's phrase that if his native land were invaded, "We would welcome them with hospitable hands to bloody graves."

A man who had just listened to a speech said it reminded him of "the peace of God" because "it passes all human understanding."

All that a Texan wants is what is coming to him—not any less but not a bit more. But some are receiving more than they are entitled to because of the greater growth in population of some parts of the State in comparison to others.

To Dunk or Not To Dunk?

Dunking doughnuts is Sober Hopkins' favorite morning pastime... and for a long time Ma Hopkins has been trying to break him of the habit. Feels it sets a bad example for the children.

So one morning she puts a heavy frosting of chocolate on the doughnuts... figuring that will stop him. Sober thinks it over for a while and then: Dunk! Taste! Smile!! And Sober compliments the missus on the lovely mocha flavor!

I guess there'll always be two schools of thought: to dunk or not to dunk. But from where I sit, it's a matter of personal choice and taste—like some folks prefer beer to cider, ale to beer. And the less we criticize those differences of taste, the better.

In fact, Ma Hopkins got so curious about the flavor of chocolate-covered doughnuts dunked in coffee that she tried it herself. Now—you've guessed it—she's a daily dunker, too!

ture is not based on today's population as it should be—but what the population was, 28 years ago. The State Constitution calls for redistricting after each census but there has been no redistricting since 1921. A few members of the legislature have blocked redistricting because they might have to run against each other.

They put their own political interests above their oath to carry out the Constitution. They place their selfish individual ambitions above doing justice to 7,500,000 Texans.

The folks back home do not share any such selfish view. Texans believe in a square deal; they are fair-minded.

That's the reason why Constitutional Amendment No. 2 should pass in the general election; it provides a sure way of bringing about redistricting every 10 yrs.

Evelyn Huddleston,
Lloyd Zack Gray
Wed In Big Spring

Evelyn Grace Huddleston, daughter of Mrs. Lillie Howerton of San Angelo, and Lloyd Zack Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zack Thomas Gray, were united in marriage in a formal candlelight ceremony in the First Baptist Church in Big Spring, Saturday evening.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor, read the double ring service as the couple pledged their vows before the altar banked with baskets of pink and white gladioli. Green plumous fern interspersed with small pompon chrysanthemums comprised the decorative background and tall cathedral tapers in bronze candelabra illumined the chapel. Green fern with white mums arranged on the chancel rail completed the chapel decorations.

Kent Howerton gave the bride in marriage.

Mrs. H. M. Jarrett, organist, played pre-nuptial wedding selections including a group of Love Songs and during the candlelighting service, she played softly the "Kashmiri Song," by Finden. For the processional, Mrs. Jarrett chose "Lohegrin's Wedding March," by Wagner and as the recessional, she played Mendelssohn's, "Wedding March." Katherine Beam sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Jarrett.

The bride was attired in a white slipper satin formal dress, fashioned with a fitted bodice and midriff. The neckline of the dress featured a lace yoke, with off-the-shoulder effect and capelet design. She carried a white prayer book, topped with an orchid

In carrying out the traditional something old, the bride carried a lace handkerchief, belonging to her mother, Mrs. Howerton; something new, was her wedding gown; something borrowed, a string of pearls belonging to Mrs. Stewart Womack and something blue, a garter, made by Dolores Sanderson.

Bobbie Green acted as maid of honor and bridesmaids included Nancy Hooper, Ellen McLaughlin, Jenny Miller and Dorothy Pursler.

Dee Thomas was best man. Groomsmen included J. T. Anderson, Jr., Ray Dunlap, Pete Cook and A. D. Harmon, Jr., R. L. Heath and Bernard Bevis acted as ushers.

The bride is a 1947 graduate of Big Spring high school and attended Howard County Junior College. She is a member of the Nu Phi Mu sorority and was recently employed by Cowper clinic.

The bridegroom also graduated from the Big Spring schools and from the Junior college, where he served as president of the student body. He is now employed by Phillips Petroleum company in Amarillo.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor.

The receiving line was composed of the bride and bridegroom, members of the wedding party, the bride's mother, Mrs. Howerton and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Gray.

For traveling, Mrs. Gray chose a rust dressmaker suit, with black accessories and her orchid corsage. Her hat was fashioned with halo effect.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Amarillo.

Texas has 394 entries in the Egg Laying Contest representing nearly 122 thousand birds. If each bird lays 150 eggs during the year of the contest, there will be over 18 and a quarter million eggs produced in the contest.

Discounting the possibility of war and adverse weather conditions, the 1949 prices of most commodities from Texas farms and ranches are expected to average slightly lower than the prices of 1948.

Miss Ruth Ford
and D. L. Bullock
Wed In Haskell

Miss Ruth Ford of Munday and Mr. D. L. Bullock of Haskell were united in marriage last Saturday night at 8 o'clock, in the First Methodist church in Haskell. The Rev. V. N. Henderson, pastor of the First Methodist church in Haskell, officiated the simple ceremony.

The bride chose a tan wool suit with black accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. She also wore the traditional "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue", and a penny in her shoe.

Mrs. Bullock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ford of Munday and attended the Weinert schools.

After the wedding, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bullock, brother and sister-in-law of the groom. The first piece of the three-tiered wedding cake, with a miniature bride and groom, was cut by the newlyweds after which Mrs. Bud Bullock served the cake and punch.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Haskell where Mr. Bullock is employed with the Texas Sheet Metal Company.

Guests to attend the wedding were: Miss Wilma Tuggle, Munday; Junior Cooper, Carol Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bullock of Haskell, Mrs. Morris Ford, June and Nancy Ford, mother and sisters of the bride, of Munday; and Mrs. Bullock and daughters, mother and sisters of the groom, of Haskell.

If you have trouble with the fruit product rising to the top when you're canning, there's a reason for it. Fruit may float because the pack is too loose or the syrup is too heavy. Another reason may be that all the air in the fruit tissues may not have been cooked out.

FARM NEWS

PROGRAM
from the County Agricultural Conservation Committee

SHAME ON YOU, MR. FARMER

Well, the farmers have been blamed for everything now. It is not unusual for the farmer to be blamed for the high cost of groceries, but now comes an authority on agriculture who blames the farmer for the high cost of automobiles. Louis Bromfield released an article in the Dallas News recently entitled "Government Regulation Ideas Called Imbecilities." In this article he blames the Government agricultural programs for all our economic ills. Speaking of the potato price support program Mr. Bromfield, after saying the program brought about high priced potatoes, says: "Meanwhile in order to buy these potatoes (and other foods) the worker must have higher wages and in turn the wage raise is passed right back to him (in addition to the price he has been paying for potatoes) in the prices of automobiles, radios, shoes, clothing, and other commodities which he is forced to buy."

There you are, Mr. Farmer. Shame on you for causing the prices of automobiles to go up. Just think how much the price of these commodities would have fallen if you had just been patriotic enough to give your potatoes away!

COMMITTEEMEN CHARGED WITH IMPORTANT RESPONSIBILITIES

Committeemen and delegates in the community elections to be held from December 6th through December 18th will have much to do with the progress made in farm production and soil conservation as well as price supports and marketing programs in 1949. At these elections a community committee will be elected to administer the Agricultural Conservation Program and in carrying on price support activities in the community. At this same election delegates will be elected to attend a county convention for the purpose of electing a county committee.

These committeemen represent the farmers in their communities and the county in making recommendations on farm programs. The county committees are charged with the responsibility of administering farm programs having to do with soil and water conservation, production goals, price supports and other programs dealing directly with farmers.

Since all farmers are concerned with what they get for their crops and what crops to grow and how to keep up the productivity of the land, all farmers should be interested in who administers farm programs having to do with these problems.

Every farmer who has participated in the 1948 Agricultural Conservation Program or the Sugar Program, who is eligible for a commodity loan or other price support, or who has a contract with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation is eligible to

FLIGHT OF BUSINESS

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

WHAT SHOULD a business firm do when it finds that wage demands have put its expenses up higher than the income it can reasonably expect? This is the plight facing many businesses today. Some of them are taking flight to fairer climes. Perhaps you have heard of the big textile factory that is leaving New England. No, it didn't decide to go to the South. It will leave the States entirely and go to Porto Rico. It had to go somewhere. It had to stay in the black, or close down.

Our industries will not all go to Porto Rico, but this incident is a handwriting-on-the-wall message addressed to all of us. When a business reaches the saturation point, where it cannot collect more income (in the form of new business, increased sales, or higher prices), then something's got to happen. If it cannot cut expenses, then it may go broke. This situation is tough on little businesses especially, but it's dangerous, even to big ones.

A Mutual MAYBE THIS thing interest explains our increasing rate of business failures. When the break-even point is so high and so close, even a little drop in income or a step-up in expenses can put a company in serious danger. It doesn't make any difference, either, that the volume of business today is so big. Most of our companies have to do two to five times the amount of business they did before the war, just to break even.

American workers are smart. Their good sense is needed today as never before. They can do a lot to help industry get on a sound footing. They know we can avoid misunderstandings that are so common if everybody sees that industry's problems are also America's problems. Labor can seriously consider the important things. Labor can help work out solutions that are to the best interest of both industry and the general public, knowing that these are also very important to labor.

Our Own TAKE THIS inflation, for example. That old spiral, that always catches you right between the pay-check and the grocery store, can be scotched. One solution is greater production. Labor knows a lot about production problems. Are workers any less interested in higher output, because high output is something that also interests the management and the public? No, they still want production to be high. Increased production, if it delivers goods to the public, softens the danger of runaway prices. High output also makes it possible for the company to pay continued high wages.

Some American workers have had experience with businesses that couldn't pay. A company that is in danger of folding up is no good as an employer. Therefore, the problem facing the boss in his effort to show more income than expense is also the problem of the workers. Labor may have some of the answers.

A lot of Americans may be fooled by the seemingly endless bounty of business. Government, also, is expected to give and give. Yet, it doesn't make sense to expect either of them to keep on giving forever. Neither government nor business ever actually creates a dollar of wealth. Each can give benefits only out of that which it receives. By the same token, our high living standards are actually the products of our own intelligent work and continued high production.

vote in these community elections.

The decisions which farmers make at these elections may have far-reaching effects on the future of agriculture. The effectiveness of this farmer administration may well determine the future of farm programs. And what happens to farm programs may have much to do with the security and prosperity of the Nation.

A NITROGEN FACTORY FOR EVERY FARMER

Now's the time for every farmer to start his own nitrogen factory.

He won't need to buy a surplus war plant or hire a contractor to do it. He won't need to learn brick-laying, pipe-fitting, or welding. All he will need to start his own nitrogen is a good supply of winter legume seed, properly inoculated, a supply of phosphate and a seeder.

That's how every farmer can start his own nitrogen factory—by planting winter legumes. They will grow through the winter months, take nitrogen and store it in their roots. When they are turned under next spring, they will add all this nitrogen to the soil, along with large quantities of organic plant food. There is no cheaper or better source of fertilizer or any better way of keeping the soil in good condition.

Winter legumes are in a fair way to become one of the most important crops grown in Texas. We don't eat them, and they don't supply any fiber to make shirts or anything like that, but they contribute to the production of almost every food and fiber that is grown in the South. As one of the best sources of nitrogen and organic plant food they contribute to greater production of corn, cotton, and almost every other important crop.

A pretty good acreage of winter legumes is grown in Texas—but not nearly so big an acreage as could be grown by Texas farmers. Winter legumes will feed the crops that come after them. They will protect the soil from spring rains. They will keep the fields green the year around and make them greener than ever in the growing season. With winter legumes, every farmer can manufacture his own nitrogen.

It is not too late to seed sweet sudan grass.

Milk production in Texas ranges from a high of 143 percent of average in early summer to a low of 62 percent by early winter.

Pre-planning a part of any meal is a wise precaution when you're busy. Banana Cream Torte is an interesting dessert and can be prepared the day before to save time at the regular meal-hour rush. Combine 24 graham crackers (2 cups) rolled fine with 1/4 cup softened butter or margarine and 2 tbsp. sugar. Blend well. Press 1/2 of crumb mixture firmly against sides and bottom of well-buttered pan. For the filling prepare 2 pkgs. prepared vanilla pudding with 4 cups milk following directions on package. Cool and pour into crumb-lined pan. Slice 2 bananas over top of pudding. Beat 3 egg whites stiff but not dry, adding 6 tbsp. sugar gradually. Spread meringue over bananas. Sprinkle remaining 1/2 crumb mixture on top. Bake in gas oven (350°) for 20 mins. Chill overnight before removing from pan. Serves 6 to 8.

In most Japanese homes, a small stove under the tub heats water for bathing. In this country, an automatic gas water heater holds the hot water to the necessary 105° for a refreshing hot bath.

When broiling grapefruit halves top them with apricot jam, spiced sugar, or Brazil nuts and brown sugar. Add dots of butter before putting them about three inches under medium flame.

Winter weather doesn't bother the owners of gas laundry dryers. All they have to do is put the wet clothes into the dryer and sit back while the clothes dry to a soft fluffiness.

New flavor for pudding sauce: To basic recipe add 2 tbsp. orange juice, 2 tbsp. grated orange rind. Beat until smooth. Sprinkle with orange rind just before serving.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Says Our Next President Will Have Little Effect On The Conduct Of His Farm

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is taking a philosophic view of the presidential race, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

By the time Mail Carrier W. O. Lewis gets this in to you and you get it set into type and may be get part of the errors corrected and the thing printed, the country will have elected a new president, but I don't look for the event to, make much difference out here on the creek.

J. A.

Presidential elections are great things, cause lots of excitement, bring out the prejudices, sell lots of newspapers and radio time, they're wholesome for the country, but it'd suprise you how little effect they have on the amount of Johnson grass I'm gonna have next year. Johnson grass is absolutely non-partisan, can be as rank as any party.

New president or a old president, I don't figure on havin any better crop next year than I had this year, which wasn't no better than the one I had last year. I expect the rainfall to be about the same, that is, it rarely ever rains accordin to order, only when its gets ready, don't make no difference who's in the White House or whether you're behind or ahead with your plowin. I figure my gates will continue to sag, the tin roof to flop when the wind blows, the hens to lay about a third what they would if I attended to em better, the cow to give just as much bluejohn, don't make no difference who's president.

Also, I don't look for the president to have much effect on the price of cotton or cattle, and I doubt if there's a single boll weevil aware we even got a president.

And also, I doubt if inflation is gonna end or keep goin because of anything the president says or does, in fact, he'll be as surprised as you or me which ever way it goes.

Understand though I ain't discountin the job, Bein president is a big job, maybe even too big for any of the men who was after the job this year. But it ain't my worry, I got more than I can do out here. At least it's more'n I'm gonna do.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
 M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—In a statement on controlling communicable diseases issued by the Texas State Department of Health, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer states that if every case of suspected communicable disease were seen promptly by the family physician and definitely diagnosed, thousands of susceptible persons would be protected from these disabling diseases.

"The theory that it is a good thing for children to have these catching childhood diseases and get them over with, has long since been proven an error which may actually endanger a child's life," says Dr. Cox. "The longer he can avoid having these diseases, the better it is for him. Every child should be protected by immunization against all diseases where an immunity can be established."

Prompt diagnosis, isolation and good medical care give the patient the best chance for a satisfactory recovery without the serious complications that sometimes accompany even the milder forms of communicable diseases.

Dr. Cox emphasized that obeying the public health laws regarding isolation and quarantine protects not only the patient, but helps to prevent the spread of the disease to other persons.

"The State Health Department", Dr. Cox said, "does everything within its power to protect the health of the people of Texas, but the cooperation of every individual in protecting his own health and that of his community will do more than anything else to successfully check the spread of communicable diseases among our people."

Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Williams and daughter, Charlotte, and Mrs. Ruby Kethley of Abilene, were visitors in Denton and Dallas over the week end. They attended the A&M-SMU football game in Dallas Saturday.

Joe Lane and Herbert Cunningham were visitors in Vernon last Saturday.

REMINISCENT RUFFLE

A ruffle reminiscent of Gay Ninety days adds a gay air to a brand new 1948 cotton fashion. The modern young miss goes every bit as feminine this season as her grandmother was a half century ago in ruffy, frilly cottons. Though this skirt and blouse designed by Justin McCarty of Dallas in striped plaid cotton and matching broadcloth is old-fashioned, it's up to the minute, too!

American Art Week Observed By Study Club

The Munday Study Club observed American Art Week, sponsored by American Arts Professional League and General Federation of Women's Clubs, on Friday, November 5, 1948, at the Club House.

A lecture and art exhibit of paintings, wood carving, metal and china arts was given by Miss Suella Lacy, Art Instructor of Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene. She stressed how to understand art and how to look at nature.

"The modern movement in visual art offers a new approach to pictures. It demands that a distinction be made between qualities whose purpose it is to convey ideas or human emotions.

"It calls for the development of the sense of sight—The Power of Pure Vision. For every person who sees the line, forms and spaces in a picture as ends there are multitudes who see around them or through them to related ideas. The interweaving of Art with life may not be denied—but the modern movement of the day is laid open for those who care to allow it. "Musical tones are related to each other in respect to time and pitch—art lines are related to each other in relation of space, movement, and color values.

"The work of all artists is either representative or creative based on this type of vision". The program, "Give Art a Chance", was directed by Mrs. I. V. Cook. "Pale Hands I Loved" was sung by Hattie Ann Phillips, accompanied by Mrs. Al C. Williams.

Following the program, guests and members observed the artistic display before being served refreshments from a table appointed in autumn decoration. Mrs. A. A. Smith, Jr., president, presided at the silver service.

Out-of-town guests were members of clubs from Haskell, Stamford, Weirert, Knox City, Benjamin, Seymour and Goree.

TURBOTS OF FISH WITH TOMATO SAUCE

Meatless days aren't worry days at all—not if you'll dip way down in your bag of tricks and come up with eye-appealing, appetizing fish dishes like this.

Turbots of Fish

- 6 filets (haddock, perch, cod, flounder, as desired)
- salt, pepper
- 2 rusks, crushed to crumbs
- 1 small onion, minced
- 6 stuffed olives, sliced
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- juice of 1 lemon
- 3 tablespoons fortified margarine, melted
- 1 cup snappy mushroom tomato sauce

Sprinkle filets with salt and pepper. Make a light stuffing of remaining ingredients, excepting the tomato sauce. Spread the stuffing over surface of the filets. Roll each and tie. Place in well greased muffin tins. Slip this pan of tins into a brown paper bag closing top with string. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) ¾ hour. If desired, when pan is removed from paper bag, tops of fish rolls may be browned under broiler heat. Remove to serving platter and serve with tomato mushroom sauce.

Seismic Methods
Make Cheaper Oil
Tests In County

A charge of dynamite, set off in the bleak region near the South Pole during the Byrd Expedition of the early '30s, set off a train of events which today gave promise of making the search for oil in Knox County quicker and cheaper.

The explosion was set off during the Byrd Antarctic Expedition of 1933-1935 by Dr. Thomas C. Poulter, second in command and scientific advisor of the expedition, as part of some seismic measurement experiments.

Dr. Poulter, nationally known scientist who now is the associate director of Stanford Research Institute, Palo Alto, Calif., last year presented his new method of seismic exploration to the Institute of Inventive Research, San Antonio. Dr. Poulter then was on the staff of the Armour Research Institute, Chicago.

The Institute of Inventive Research is a non-profit public service organization endowed by Tom Slick, Texas oil producer and rancher, to provide aid for inventors. The Institute agreed to underwrite further research on Dr. Poulter's new development, provided he would conduct the experimentation.

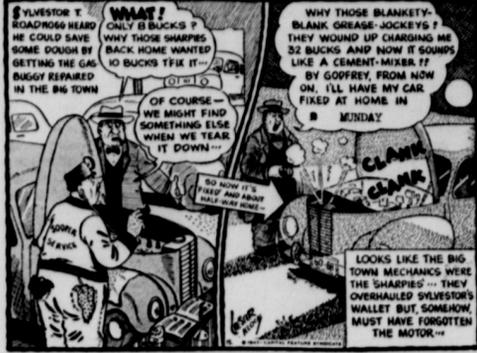

On Thursday, Nov. 4, at Essar Ranch near San Antonio, the new way of making seismic tests for oil was unveiled. Dr. Poulter and Dr. Harold Vagtberg, president of the Institute, held a press conference.

Then newspaper men were taken into the mesquite brush on the ranch for a demonstration. Light charges in the explosive pattern were set up on stakes above the ground, spread around the area to be tested, and all were exploded together.

The new method contrasts with the present system of firing a single, large charge in a hole of considerable depth. The Institute staff sees the principal advantages of the Poulter method over these currently in use as being the elimination of shot holes and their attendant costs, and the greater speed with which areas may be mapped.

Seismic recording equipment identical with that now generally in use is employed by the new method. Tests have shown, Dr. Vagtberg said, that the above-ground method reduces danger of damaging nearby structures of concrete or other solid material.

AIN'T IT THE TRUTH

BY CHESTER KLOCK

It also eliminates the dangers of falling stones. Applications for patients on the method have been filed.

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smarting and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder.

A Harvest Party for Lots of Fun

Remember those old time harvest suppers? Lots of fun, lots of good food but no fuss—no frills. Your friends will like this kind of entertainment, particularly if they are city slickers. Use your buffet or side table as the graining board. Give the surface a good protective waxing before the party and you'll be able to dispense with all but the most essential mats or coverings. Your Morning Star silverware by Community is beautiful arrayed on a polished wood surface. And be sure to use those extra-special wedding pieces of hollow ware in the background, they all add to the beauty of your table. A centerpiece of fruits and vegetables in season, heaped in a wooden bowl and set on a bright mat, is all you need for decoration. If you have a favorite piece of pottery, or bright ceramic figure, add it for extra color. China-ware in a floral or fruit pattern carries out the general harvest effect. Serve a hearty menu of favorite casserole, toasted french bread and coleslaw. End with a generous portion of hot gingerbread or apple pie a la mode.

Veterans' News

the veteran actually acquired the dependent.

Veterans who have received benefits from the Veterans Administration and have been assigned "C" (claims) numbers should place certain public records in their case folders if they think their beneficiaries might be entitled to compensation and pension benefits after they die.

To establish claims for payments, veterans' widows, children and dependent parents must submit public documents to VA as proof of dependency, age and relationship.

If necessary records were filed in the veteran's claims folder, his dependents would be spared the delays involved in obtaining them from other sources.

These include a certified copy of the public record of marriage; certified copies of previous marriages and copies of court records of divorce and annulment; copies of birth certificates of all children under 18, and a copy of the veteran's birth certificate. The veterans claim number should be written on all papers to insure positive and ready identification.

Questions And Answers

Q. When a veteran secures a loan under the GI Bill, does the Government make an outright payment on it without charging the veteran anything?

A. Yes, VA pays the lender, for credit to the veteran's loan, an amount equal to 4 percent of the guaranteed portion of the loan. For example, if the guaranteed portion of the loan is $4,000, the lender will receive $160 from VA to credit to the debt of the veteran.

Q. I am a World War II veteran and wish to go in business. Must I have experience in the business in order to get a GI loan?

A. Experience is an important element in the success of the average business. You should be able to show a reasonable expectation of success in your venture in order to get your loan.

Q. Must a disabled veteran go to a vocational school or may he go to a liberal arts college, a high school, or similar institution under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act?

A. He may enroll in any VA-approved educational institution or training establishment offering the course of training which VA has found he needs to insure his proper rehabilitation in line with his own desires.

Q. My brother, a disabled World War II veteran, is being rehabilitated under Public Law 16. Must he find his own job or will VA do this?

A. Veterans Administration will help your brother look for a job after he finishes his training.

Student veterans who acquire dependents or additional dependents while in training under the GI Bill should notify the Veterans Administration as soon as possible in order to qualify for increased subsistence allowance payments.

Notice of dependency change should be sent to the VA regional office in which the veterans' records are kept. The notice should be accompanied by legal evidence of the dependency, such as certified copies of public records of birth, baptism or marriage.

Reeves Winner Of Two Prizes At Goodyear Meet

Recently declared a district winner in The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company's 50th Anniversary Midsummer Sales Contest held during July and August, J. E. Reeves of Reeves Motor Company, Goodyear dealer in Munday, was further honored by the company when he attended a dinner for the winners, given October 28th, at the Roof Garden of the Baker Hotel in Dallas. A total of 125 dealers were present, each of whom received a handsome "Quota Maker" plaque, signifying his sales accomplishments, in addition to an attractive desk pen. Mr. Reeves also won one of the attractive door prizes as given to dealers in attendance.

The dinner was one of a series held by Goodyear in each of its sales districts in connection with its 50th anniversary celebration marking the company's half-century of progress.

Another highlight of the anniversary program was the showing of the film—"A Letter From America"—a picture that dramatically portrays the opportunities offered both individuals and businesses in this country as compared with dictator governed nations.

Dealer Reeves, who set a new sales record in his district in winning the recent contest, credits the company's low-pressure Super-Cushion tire with being a big factor in helping him to make his excellent showing. The superior riding qualities and greater safety features of this product, most outstanding single development in the tire industry in a quarter-century, has made the Super-Cushion tire the most wanted tire in America, he said.

TWIGS OR BRUSHES?

CHICAGO—Noel Pierce, who teaches charm and modeling, shows that clean teeth are an important asset to personal appearance. The brushes, at right that Noel is holding, however, were typical of those received in a recent survey conducted in cooperation with the American Dental Association which showed that four out of five toothbrushes now in use are so badly worn or are in such an unsanitary condition that they are no longer usable for oral hygiene.

At the top of the pile of brushes are two "toothbrushes"—twigs which are tufted at the end—which were in use by members of a Georgia family! Dental authorities believe that persons should replace their toothbrushes at frequent intervals to maintain good oral hygiene.

Moguls Drop 43-7 Battle To Albany Lions

The Munday Moguls dropped a lop-sided battle to the Albany Lions, 43-7, last Friday night at Albany, although the locals battled courageously throughout the game.

Albany is boasting one of the strongest teams in several years, while the Moguls are weak and inexperienced.

The Albany attack began in the first quarter with Ronnie Miller scoring after a 50 yard gallop, Claude Knight with a 20 yard scamper and A. V. Jones with another 20 yard run.

In the second quarter, Clovis Reiley carried 55 yards for the Lions' fourth tally.

A. V. Jones began Albany's scoring again in the third period with a 90 yard trip goalward. Maccon took the next score, carrying from the 10 yard line. Miller kicked the only extra point for the Lions.

Durwood Scott plowed over from the five yard line to take down the zero on the Moguls' side of the scoreboard in the latter part of the fourth quarter. He also converted for the extra point.
