BAIRD WILL BE SUB-STATION

In Big, High Voltage Electrical Energy Circle Which Will Center At Abilene Plant

"Baird will shortly be an important, high voltage electrical sub-station in a great 'juice' distributing circle, centering at the West Texas Public Utilities big power plant in Abilene," declared Earl Morley, President-Manager of the Baird, Light, Power & Ice Company, in conversation with a Star representative last Saturday, "and District Manager George W. Fry is responsible for having engineered this big proposition to a triumphant completion.

"Within the next twenty days," continued Mr. Morley, "our electric power will be 'stepped up' from 13,000 volts to 36,000 volts, supplied by three high power wires, and these will insure continuous electric energy day and night. There has been some complaints of 'breaks' in our service since we began tearing down, removing, enlarging and rebuilding the sub-station at Baird, at an estimated cost of something like $17,000. While these extensive alterations and improvements were underway, we have been obliged to use the local plant here to manufacture both light and power, and despite the fact that it was much overloaded and the 'bright lights' have not been so dazzling bright, we've had but one partial night of darkness."

Manufacturers of commercial electricity long ago discovered that perfect electrical distribution could only be obtained by placing the main power station upon a circle or "loop," and this has been secured at Abilene, where the central power station, equipped with two monster dynamos to manufacture electric "juice", is located.

From Abilene, three three high-power wires to Clyde, Baird, Putnam, Cisco, Albany, Stamford, Haskell, Hamlin, Aneon and on back to Abilene. When this "loop" is completed and efficiently functioning, there is a very remote possibility that there will ever be a "break" in the electric service in any of these towns or cities.

Not satisfied with having electrically conquered this small world, Division Manager Fry is already stretching his wires on another loop out of Abilene to the south and west. In the latter direction the wires have reached Merket; toward the south they will soon reach Lawn, supplying enroute Tuscola, Buffalo Gap and Ovalo, a sub-station the duplicate of the one at Baird, having just been completed at Tuscola. How large this new loop will be and how soon its wires will circle back into Abilene is problematical, but it is safe to say that under the vigorous impetus of Mr. Fry's hustling push, every town and city in the whole length and breadth of that imperial domain known as West Texas will be electrically joined, and the company he so ably represents will be not only in name but in fact, The West Texas Utilities Company, Hot! hotter! hottest! Thermometer 100 plus in the shade and still rising.

ICED AIR BATH IS GOOD FOR YOU THESE HOT DAYS

These sweltering days, with the thermometer around the 100 degree plus notch, it's mighty refreshing to step out of the torrid and arid outside atmosphere into the cool, moist air of the Baird Light, Power & Ice Company's refrigerating room, where the temperature is kept constantly around the freezing point. Try one of these iced air baths. It will jazz you up physically and mentally for the balance of the day.

President-Manager Earl Morley started out to make the very efficient plant over which he has supervision a thing of beauty and a joy forever. But he didn't reckon on the possibility of a scarcity of water, and the beautiful garden, with its beautiful flowers and its ornamental shrubbery has suffered cruelly. The hackberry trees, the cactus, the dagger plants, the Mexican "burning bushes" and the cannas are the only ones that still hold up their heads proudly, and these, with the exception of the "bushes," are not so alford pear at that.

"I didn't want to be a hog on the water question," explained Mr. Morley, "and I instructed the boys to use it very sparingly and then only when a full head of water was running. But as the drought increased and my pretty plants and flowers began to droop and wilt I even melted ice and used the resultant water to try and save them. But I found that too expensive. So they'll have to take their chance, and I'll take a fresh start when Mayor McWhorter and his Aldermen get the purposed new water system in full running order, and we have water to—irrigate."

EX-CONFEDERATE SOLDIER CELEBRATES 78th BIRTHDAY

One of the Texas pioneers and ex-Confederate soldiers, J. D. Boydston, celebrated his 78th birthday last Sunday at the End of Trail Ranch, five miles northwest of Baird. For twenty years this veteran has been connected with the extensive mercantile enterprises of his son, B. L. Boydston, here in Baird, and for forty years was in the same line of business at Rockwall.

The old pioneer had a big time on this 78th anniversary of his natal day, with about thirty of his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and near and dear friends. The crowning feature of the anniversary celebration was the dinner—the sort or banquet that West Texas people know how to prepare and serve, the piece de resistance being a monster birthday cake, in the crust of which was planted seventy eight candles, one for each year of the honoree's busy life. The menu included turkey, chicken, all sorts of vegetables, cake and ice cream.

These were Mr. Boydston's dinner guests: Mrs. J. D. Boydston, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Boydston and children, of Brawley, California; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Boydston, Misses Dorothy and Myrtle Boydston, Messrs. and Meadames B. W. Boydston, J. C. Barringer, E. D. Driskill, Lanham Stokes, C. S. Gee and daughter, Ben L. Bassell, Jr., J. O. Moore and children, of Clyde, Mrs. Edna Taylor, of Binghamton, New York; Mrs. Kirkland and son; of Denton; Mrs. Bill Work and daughter.

MR. OUSLEY IS ABLY FITTED

To Represent The Lone Star State In The National Senate Says This Editor

The editor of The Bridgeport Index declares that at a time when oratory and buncombe have failed to bring to the South the consideration at the hands of Congress which it deserves and should receive, even from an administration not in partisan sympathy with it, Texas needs to strengthen its representation at Washington by sending as its Senators and Representatives men of character, ability and honesty, and men who will work practically and effectively.

We want men who understand Texas thoroughly, who are imbued with the aspirations and conversant with the needs of this great State. We want men who can use that understanding and that sympathy in the highly practical business of getting those aspirations fulfilled and these needs attended to. We want workers in Congress. There are enough orators there, already.

And we must not forget that the men we send to Congress are not only there in the interests of the State they represent, but they are Senators and Representatives of the United States, and as such should have a broad national viewpoint as well as have the interests of their own State at heart.

Clarence Ousley is increasingly impressing the voters of Texas with his ability to fill the position of United States Senator from this State. As a newspaper publisher and editor for many years, he was not only a leader of public thought, but was closely in touch with the people and understood their aspirations and needs. He knows Texas thoroughly, and has already demonstrated his ability to use that knowledge for the benefit of the State.

He has a broad vision and sympathy. His important work at Washington as Assistant Secretary of Agriculture demonstrated his ability in the national field of service. He understands the problems of the Nation to a particularly thorough degree, both from his study and contact with affairs as a newspaper editor and from his experience as an important national officer of the government during one of the most acute crises in the world's history.

Clarence Ousley is a man whose honesty of purpose has never been impeached. He does not cover up past opinions or apologize for his friends or those whose support has come to his cause. He is not running on issues dead and gone, but living questions whose answers will affect vitally every one of us. He has raised a standard of public service and set forth a program of action to which, in many fashion, he invites the people of Texas, irrespective of previous affiliations or opinions. What is to be done is the important thing, and Clarence Ousley is the candidate with a practical program and the ability to do.

MANY HAVE ANNOUNCED A FEW WILL BE CHOSEN

In tomorrow's primary election candidates will be voted for all over the imperial State of Texas by Democrats, for national, state, district, county and precinct officers, from United States Senator down to Public Weigher. Where there are more than two candidates for any office, the two receiving the largest and the next largest number of votes will be compelled to hazard their political fortunes in a second or runoff primary.

There are many candidates, six for United States Senator, four for Governor, five for Lieutenant Governor, six for State Treasurer, three for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, four for Congressional Representative in this the 17th District, four for District Attorney in this the 42 Judicial District, four for Sheriff of Callahan County, six for County Tax Assessor, three for District Clerk, three for Tax Collector, four for Commissioner in Precinct No. 2, three for Commissioner in Precinct No. 3 and three for Public Weigher in Precinct No. 5.

There are but two candidates each for the offices of Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, Railroad Commissioner, Comptroller, Commissioner General Land Office, Justice of the Peace Precinct No. 1, Constable Precinct No. 1 and Public Weigher Precinct No. 8.

There is but one announced candidate for the offices of Congressman-at-Large, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of Court of Criminal Appeals, Attorney General, Commissioner of Agriculture, Chief Justice Court of Criminal Appeals Second Supreme Judicial District of Texas, Representative 107th Representative District, County Judge, County Attorney, County Clerk, County Treasurer, County Superintendent of Public Instruction, Commissioners of Precincts 1 and 4, and Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 2.

There are no announced candidates for the offices of County Surveyor, Justice of the Peace in one Precinct, Constable in one and Public Weigher in one and for Chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee.

Taken by and large these candidates—particularly those in the county—are pretty good. Vote for the candidate for each office whom you believe to be best fitted to fill it and perform its duties to the best interests of the public weal. Having done this you have performed your full duty as an American and a Democrat, and can go to sleep tomorrow night with a still and quiet conscience.

Elsewhere in The Star you will find a specimen ballot, a facsimile of the official ballot to be voted tomorrow. The officers of the Election Board, instead of being domiciled in the Court House, as heretofore, will, for the better accommodation of the Lady Voters, set up their election machinery on the stage of the Tabernacle.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION

BAIRD STRIKING SHOPCRAFTS

Appeal To The People Of Callahan To Judge Their Action Fairly and With Justice

To the Fair Thinking People of Callahan County:

We, the committee representing the six shopcrafts of Baird, working for the Texas & Pacific Railroad Company, wish to state here a few of the causes of the strike which is now in effect on all railroads and in all Pullman shops in the United States.

The Liberty Bell rang out in tones clear as on Independence Day, in 1776, when, at promptly 10 o'clock a. m., July 1st, the "Minute Men" of Organized Labor in the American Railroad Industry quit their work en masse, as the only recourse left after two years of negotiation and "buck passing" on the part of the railroad managers and a series of injuries and usurpations on the part of the United States Railway Labor Board. This is the first nationwide strike of federated shopcrafts in the history of our movement, and the solidarity shown at the beginning, should assure a clean-cut victory at its termination.

The present strike centers around three issues: First, the establishment of unjust wages by the recent decisions of the Labor Board; Second, the establishment of unjust working conditions through the amendment by the Labor Board of certain rules of the national agreement; Third, the contracting out of shops and work by a large number of the railroads, as a means of evading the application of the law to their properties.

First, The Wage Question: On July, 1st, 1921, we received a wage reduction of eight cents per hour; again, on July 1st, 1922, we received a reduction averaging eight cents per hour, making a total reduction of sixteen cents per hour in a period of one year.

Second, The Rules Issue: In decision No. 222 the Labor Board modified certain rules of the national agreement. The modification of these rules was not justifiable. Especially important is the fact that this decision took away one rule which we had enjoyed for more than thirty years. This rule was the time-and-one-half for Sundays and legal holidays. In losing that rule we lost 29 1-2 days a year.

Third, The Issue Involved in Contracting Out Work: The railroad companies closed their shops and contracted out their work to dummy contractors financed by the railroad companies, who reduced the wages even lower than those set by the Labor Board and took away transportation rights of the men. When this was done the railroad companies notified the Labor Board that they had no men working in their shops that came under the jurisdiction of the Labor Board.

More than ninety different railroads have violated Section 301 of the Transportation Act, and decisions of the Labor Board one or more times. In every instance it has meant lower wages or less favorable working conditions for the

D. 1922, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 538, wherein Earl Morley is Plaintiff, and W. E. Kulton is Defendant, and said petition alleging:

Plaintiff represents to the Court that heretofore, to-wit: On or about the 6th day of January, 1922, this Plaintiff and G. W. Fry, as the special instance and request of Defendant, loaned him the sum of $256.00, in consideration whereof the Defendant then and there promised to pay to Plaintiff and G. W. Fry the said sum of $256.00 in two or three days from said date.

That thereafter, for a valuable consideration, the said G. W. Fry transferred and assigned the interest he had in said $256.00, so loaned by the Plaintiff and G. W. Fry to Defendant to the Plaintiff herein, Earl Morley, and that the whole of said $256.00 is now due and payable by the Defendant to the said Earl Morley. That said sum of money is long past due and unpaid and the Defendant, though often requested, has hitherto failed and refused and still refuses to pay the same, or any part thereof, to Plaintiff's damage $300.00.

YOU CAN WIN $1,000

A LARGE PICTURE PRINTED ON ENAMELED PAPER SENT FREE ON REQUEST

How Many Objects In This Picture Start With Letter "C"?

That is what you are to determine. Easy, isn't it? You can readily pick out "Cow," "Calf," "Cigar," "Cup," etc., can't you? The rest are almost as easy to see and name, and of course the object is to see who can find and list the greatest number. Twenty-five cash prizes will be paid for the twenty-five best lists of words submitted in answer to this puzzle.

YOU CAN WIN $1000

No money need be sent with your answer. If your answer wins a prize, and no money has been paid on a subscription, then you would be awarded one of the prizes shown under Class C in the prize list; BUT, if you send in one six-months subscription to The Houston Chronicle, new or renewal, with your answer, then your answer wins a prize, and you would be awarded from the prizes shown in Class A.

RULES YOU MUST FOLLOW

1—WHO MAY PARTICIPATE: Only persons who reside in the States of Texas and Louisiana.

2—WHO ARE BARRED: Employees of The Houston Chronicle, members of employees' families and persons who do not reside in Texas or Louisiana.

3—HOW TO PREPARE YOUR WORD LISTS: Write lists of words on one side of paper only; number words consecutively, beginning with number 1; write your name and address on the upper right hand corner of each sheet used in listing your words; use separate sheets for any other communication.

4—HOW TO SEND IN SUBSCRIPTIONS: Use blank printed below for sending in subscriptions. State specifically if yours is a NEW or RENEWAL subscription, and if you want your paper sent to you by mail or delivered by carrier boy or agent.

5—WORDS THAT MAY NOT BE USED: Do not use obsolete or hyphenated words, or words that are made up of two or more separate words. For example, the word "cowboy" is made up of two words, but is spelled as a single or joined word and would therefore be permitted, while "cocked hat" would not be permitted, because it is spelled as two separate words. The singular or plural may be used, but if one is used, the other may not. The same spelling can not be used more than once, even to designate different objects. An object can be named but once. Any part of an object can be named that is visible in the picture, even though the object itself has been named. Only words found in Webster's International Dictionary may be used.

6—THE WINNING LISTS: The persons sending in the largest and nearest correct list of objects which appeared in the picture will win first prize; the next largest and nearest correct list will be awarded second prize, etc., until 25 prizes have been awarded. One credit will be given for each correct word in a solution; one demerit will be given for each incorrect word used, and one demerit will be given for each correct word omitted from a solution. There is no predetermined correct list of objects in the picture. The correct list of words will be compiled by the judges from the word lists submitted by contestants.

7—NO PAYMENT NECESSARY: The prizes will be awarded, regardless of whether a subscription payment has been made or not. The judges will not know whether a payment has been made until after the winning lists have been selected.

8—ONLY ONE PRIZE MAY GO TO ONE FAMILY: Only one prize will be awarded to members of one family or group who have cooperated in making up word lists.

9—TIES: Any prize tied for will be paid in full to each party tied.

10—WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY: The word lists submitted in this contest will be judged by three registered school teachers, using Webster's International Dictionary as their guide. The prizes will be awarded by them. Participants in this contest agree to accept the decision rendered by these judges as final and conclusive.

11—THE JUDGES: The judges will meet immediately following the close of the contest and the names of the prize winners and the winning list of words will be published in The Chronicle just as soon thereafter as the judges can complete the checking of the list.

12—PICTURE GAME CLOSING: This puzzle picture game closes on July 25, 1922, at midnight, and no lists will be entered in this competition that are not mailed on or before midnight of that date.

13—ADDITIONAL TWO WEEKS TO QUALIFY: After the contest has closed, parties who have sent in word lists without subscription payments will be given two weeks additional time to make subscription payments if they so desire, but no word lists can be submitted or changed after midnight of the date stated above.

14—THE PRIZES: If your list of "C" words is awarded a prize by the judges and you have made no subscription payments, then you would receive the prize as listed in Class C; if you have sent in one six months paid in advance subscription, then you would receive the prize as listed in Class B; if you had sent in two six months subscriptions, or one subscription for one year, either new or renewal, then you would receive the prize as listed in Class A (see prize list).

15—SUBSCRIPTION RATES are as follows: Daily and Sunday, one year, $2.00; six months, $1.00. Daily except Sunday, one year, $6.00; six months, $3.00. Great Britain is preparing to make the first interest payment on the war loans made her by the United States. One million pounds in gold, approximately $5,000,000, is being collected for shipment to America in the near future.

The Evening News says arrangements for the payment of the British loan to America in a lump sum in the near future are in advanced stage. It declares repayment will be made by means of a loan to be raised jointly in England and America.

Germany will pay 32,000,000 of the 50,000,000 gold marks due to the al-of the balance of this payment through deliveries of dyes to the textile alliance and through deliveries of coal to Luxembourg.

Japan has warned the Peking Gov-dispatch troops" to the affected territory.

Rebels raided farmhouses in West
Donegal and kidnapped twelve girls, rushing them off in automobiles to the concentration camp at Glen parents' homes in fright.

By an almost unanimous vote the Reichstag passed the second reading of the first paragraph of the Government's bill for protection of the Republic. A large number of the deputies representing the German National and the Bavarian People's parties participated in voting, which establishes the main principles of the bill.

Details with regard to the nature and quantity of munitions supplied by Great Britain to the Irish P-- visional Government were denied to questioners in the House of Common by Winston Churchill, the Colonial Secretary. He pointed out that the Provisional Government authorities were engaged in warlike operations against the insurgents who hold large districts in Southern Ireland and that there was no reason why the Irregulars should receive military information which would be of great value to them.

The Government faces a net deficit of $425,000,000 for the current fiscal year, President Harding informed the second annual business meeting of Federal executives. Receipts for the year, the President said in addressing the meeting, were estimated at $3,074,000,000 and expenditures at $3,771,000,000, leaving an apparent excess of expenditure amounting to $697,000,000, reduced, however, by the general balance of $272,000,000 in the treasury on June 30.

If we only had some way to store up all that flood water that went to waste in the Spring, all the valley streams could head off the dry spells and keep the crops growing. Some day this will be done, but why don't the land owners on our water courses begin now? Why wait for the next generation to do what we ought to have done twenty-five years ago?

Barry Miller, who is campaigning for Senator Culberson, gives the names of only three Texas Congressmen who are willing to vouch for Senator Culberson's ability to attend to his official duties. Two of the Congressmen quoted are new members and very likely know little about the Senator's physical condition. There are eighteen Congressmen from Texas. Why are the other fifteen silent? And again, if the Senator is able to attend the sessions of the Senate every day, why is it that he has been unable to visit Texas for the last ten years? The people of Texas are entitled to have two Senators at Washington who are physically able to attend to their duties.

There are several men in the race to succeed Culberson that are amply able to discharge the duties of the office, but among all them we regard Clarence Ousley as the best qualified man in the race to represent the varied interests of Texas. Farming and stock raising are considered the most important industries of our great State and stand more in need of laws to enable those engaged in these callings to secure square deals before the law.

Clarence Ousley, is a graduate of of the Agricultural College of Alabama and, for more than twenty years, has made a special study of farming and stock raising in Texas. He is worthy, capable, clean in his private life and would be an honor to Texas in the United States Senate. The editor of The Star has known him for nearly thirty years and can and does unhesitatingly recommend him to the voters.

Governor Jim Cox, last nominee of the Democratic party for President, has gone to Europe to study the workings of the League of Nations. Jim Cox is about the shortest horse the Democrats ever entered in a National race and here he is pluming himself again for the nomination. The idea of Jim Cox taking up the question of the League of Nations at this late date, with a view to making it an issue in the next campaign is ridiculous.

The Democrats made the League the main issue two years ago and we got the worst kicking we ever had as a party, and here is this sawed off dummy seeking the nomination on a League horse.

If the Democratic party expects to have even a ghost of a chance in '24, it must sidetrack Jim Cox and the League. Either one would defeat our party, and both combined, would bust any party.

Barry Miller admits that sentiment is largely the cause of his entering the campaign for Culberson, who is too ill to leave Washington. This is admirable in Miller and we honor him for it, but how much sentiment did Charley Culberson show John H. Reagan when he entered the race against the Grand Old Man for Governor. Then have his friends revoke the two-thirds rule to secure his nomination. How much sentiment did Culberson show the gallant old Confederate soldier Roger Q. Mills, one of the ablest men Texas ever sent to Congress?

Culberson did not hesitate to enter the lists against these two old gray haired veterans of the Civil War, and who, in their day and even today, rank among the ablest men in Congress. Culberson never showed any sentiment for any man who stood in his way. Perhaps that is alright in politics. He had a right to defeat Reagan for Governor, a man who spent his life in the service of his people. He had a perfect right to defeat Colonel Mills, who, after serving twenty years in the House, had only secured one term in the Senate; but does he deserve any sentimental consideration in his unfortunate physical condition now?

Certainly not. Senator Culberson is independent financially and he ought not to ask the people, whom he has not visited in ten years, to vote for him any longer. His friends ought not to expect the people to longer retain a man in office who is either unable physically to visit the State, or so indifferent that he spends his vacations elsewhere than among his own people.

MR. OUSLEY ON THE TARIFF

Clarence Ousley, candidate for the United States Senate, favors a tariff for revenue on all imports, including raw materials. Barry Miller, spokesman for Senator Culberson, speaking of Mr. Ousley's position on the tariff said: "If I were going to advocate Republican doctrines I would go over to the Republican party." The inference being, of course, that a tariff on raw material is Republican doctrine. What humbuggery is this?

Senator Mills favored free raw material and Senator Culberson went before the people of Texas favoring a tax on all imports and won against Mills in his contest for the Senate twenty-four years ago. But let Senator Culberson answer his own spokesman, Barry Miller. In his first address to the voters in this campaign, dated March 4, 1922, Senator Culberson reaffirms his doctrine of twenty-four years ago, as follows:

"I favor the levying of revenue duties on practically all imports, whether raw material or the finished product, and I am opposed to the levying of protective duties on any imports, whether raw material or the finished product."

The trouble with Culberson is that he voted against the Fordney Bill, that imposed a tax on raw material. The Senator's explanation was that he opposed the bill because it was a protective measure.

Clarence Ousley stands today exactly where Culberson stood twenty-four years ago on the tariff. He advocates exactly what Culberson advocated in the above extract from Culberson's platform, March 4th, 1922. Ousley does not favor a proective tariff any more than Culberson or his spokesman, Barry Miller, but he is opposed to a tariff that discriminates against his own State, and free raw material does discriminate against Texas and the entire South and West.

Mr. Ousley's theory is that if we must have a tariff, levy a tariff on all imports. Who can say that he is wrong? The Democratic theory is, or used to be, to levy a tariff for revenue only. That being the case, the only course is to levy a tariff on all imports.

Is Mr. Ousley out of harmony with old-time Democratic principles on the question of the tariff? He is certainly standing by the old time-tried theory of Democracy: "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

MADE 600 HUMANS HAPPY—MAYBE

Justice of the Peace, Reverend and Candidate for Tax Assessor G. E. Printz, whom, because of the facility and frequency with which he causes two human hearts to harmonically and synchronically "beat as one"—maybe! has been quite frequently mentioned in these columns as "The Great West Texas Matrimonializer," has practical demonstration that he can wear this title proudly and with honor.

During the twenty-two years that the sacerdotal authority to perform the marriage ceremony has been vested in him, he has united in the holy bonds of wedlock more than three hundred couples and very, very few of these nuptial "sealings" have failed to stick.

His latest "union of hearts and souls" was consummated last Monday night, at about 10 o'clock, when an ardently eager, young and very handsome couple from Cross Plains, Mr. G. H. Taylor and Miss Eura Edwards, called at his home and gladly placed their necks in the marriage yoke. May it prove to be a loving burden, gladly worn, is the hope of The Star.

THE "OLD RELIABLE" THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

White Haired Alabama Lady Says She Has Seen Medicines Come and Go But The "Old Reliable" Thedford's Black-Draught Came and Stayed.

Dutton, Ala.—In recommending Thedford's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors here, Mrs. T. F. Parks, a well-known Jackson County lady, said: "I am getting up in years; my head is pretty white. I have seen medicines and remedies come and go but the old reliable came and stayed. I am talking of Black-Draught, a liver medicine we have used for years—one that can be depended upon and one that will do the work."

"Black-Draught will relieve indigestion and constipation if taken right, and I know for I tried it. It is the best thing I have ever found for the full, uncomfortable feeling after meals. Sour stomach and sick headache can be relieved by taking Black-Draught. It aids digestion, also assists the liver in throwing off impurities. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, and do, to my friends and neighbors."

Thedford's Black-Draught is a standard household remedy with a record of over seventy years of successful use. Every one occasionally needs something to help cleanse the system of impurities. Try Black-Draught. Insist upon Thedford's, the genuine.

NEW INJUNCTIONS IN RAILWAY STRIKE

HEAD OF MAINTENANCE OF WAY UNIONS LEAVES FOR WASHINGTON.

WALKOUT IS ALMOST SURE

Stationary Firemen, Engineers and Oilers Are Expected to Strike At Once.

Chicago, Ill.—Additional outbreaks of violence and new appeals of violence and new appeals for Federal and State protection, departure of President Grable of the Maintenance of Way Unions for Washington, a strike order affecting 8,000 stationary engineers, firemen and oilers, new injunctions against strikers, a few minor sympathy strikes and renewed conferences between Chairman Hooper of the Railroad Labor Board and representatives of both strikers and railroads, were the outstanding developments Friday in the railroad shopmen's strike.

Grable, whose unions are threatening a sympathetic outlaw strike and have in some instances already walked out, was said to be en route to Washington for a conference with President Harding, but whether this was the President's request or at Grable's own volition could not be learned.

Grable declared that a strike of the maintenance men could be brought on only by coercion of the men by the roads into performing work outside their class.

The stationary firemen, engineers, and oilers, numbering about 8,000, are scheduled to strike, according to announcement of Timothy Healy, international president of the organization, who said this was in accordance with an 88.6 per cent strike vote recently taken.

Sympathy walkouts by 100 trackmen occurred at Hammond, Ind. All the baggage handlers, mail truckers and common laborers at the Toledo union station and 150 New York Central shop employes at Cleveland were reported out.

ARMY COUNCIL BEING FORMED IN DUBLIN

Movement Against Republicans in Southwest Ireland Is Being Planned.

London.—Formation of an army council in Dublin and the re-organization of the general staff of the National army are believed to presage important movement against the Republicans in Southwest Ireland. The military censorship has been clamped down tightly in the Irish capital and nothing authoritative has reached London regarding plans for the campaign.

It appears that a good deal of work in clearing the irregulars from the middle and western counties may be necessary before the main operations can begin.

A Belfast report tells of a strange conflict at Timahoe. When National forces from Mullingar arrived last week hoping to persuade the irregulars holding the barracks to surrender, they found the place strongly defended. The National commander, Captain Conlon, issued an ultimatum and about half, numbering fifty, resolved to yield, and marched out toward the Nationals.

The remaining members of the garrison fired at their late comrades who responded, and the Government forces became the interested spectators of a sharp fight of two hours, ending in the capitulation of the Republicans inside the barracks.

1,000 Planes Ready to Carry Mails.

New York.—One thousand commercial aircraft in aviation centers throughout the United States were ordered held in readiness after Postmaster General Work had accepted by telegraph an offer of aid in maintaining mail service made by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America.

Cowboy Roundup At Vernon.

Vernon, Tex.—Arrangements have been completed here for the presentation of a "cowboy roundup" at the Fair Park Friday and Saturday, July 21 and 22. There will be the usual assortment of Wild West performances, and those participating will be drawn from the best talent in this section.

Youths in Melon Patch Are Wounded

Fort Worth, Texas.—J. W. Coplin, who lives north of Handley, was charged with assault to murder Friday and made bond in the sum of $1,500 in each of two cases growing out of the alleged attempt of four youths to rob his watermelon patch.

$9,000,000 COTTON LOAN HAS BEEN APPROVED

Details of Plan for Texas Farmers Remain to be Worked Out

Washington.—The War Finance Corporation has tentatively given its approval of the application of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association for advances aggregating $9,000,000, for the purpose of financing the orderly marketing of cotton. Details of the transaction would be worked out, it was said, following which the advances would be completed.

It is expected that only a portion of the amount approved, according to a statement from the corporation, will be advanced, however, and that the banks in the interested district will do considerable part of the financing for the association. The application was presented to the corporation recently by John T. Orr, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association, and T. M. Edwards, manager of the cotton division of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation.

Application of the advances for Texas makes the total advance by the corporation $25,500,000 for handling wheat and cotton of Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, the other advances having been approved two weeks ago. Oklahoma cotton growers will receive $6,000,000, the wheat growers of that State $2,500,000, the Arkansas cotton growers $7,500,000 and the Texas Wheat Growers' Association $500,000.

Production of Corn Shows Increase

Washington.—Production of corn, the country's most valuable farm crop, was forecast for this year at 2,850,000,000 bushels by the department of agriculture in its July report. That is 29,000,000 bushels more than produced last year. The country's wheat crop was forecast at 817,000,000 bushels, having been decreased by 38,000,000 bushels as a result of conditions in June.

Vera Cruz Citizens Rebel

Vera Cruz, Mexico.—"Down with the military! Down with Obregon!" was the cry as 20,000 members of the Tenants' Union marched through the streets bearing the bodies of twelve men killed by the soldiers in the "black massacre" of July 5.

NO NECESSITY NOW FOR STATE TROOPS

Would Require Calling Special Session of the State Legislature.

Austin, Texas.—The Texas National Guardsmen will not be called out for strike duty until necessity for their services demands, Adjutant General Thomas D. Barton said in answer to an inquiry as to what action would be taken on the appeal of J. L. Lancaster, receiver of the Texas & Pacific Railway Company, for troops to protect workmen in the employ of that company.

Mr. Lancaster's appeal was contained in a telegram addressed to Governor Neff and received at the executive office. Governor Neff has left Austin for Stephenville, where he will resume his speaking engagements in the interest of his campaign for re-election. The Lancaster telegram was referred by R. B. Walthall, the Governor's private secretary, to Adjutant General Barton.

General Barton expressed the opinion that the occasion does not yet demand the services of the National Guard, and that troops will not be called out until the situation reaches a critical stage.

The Adjutant General said that the matter, of course, would be referred to Governor Neff, and in the event the Governor gave instructions for calling out the guard, they would be promptly complied with. The Adjutant General further stated that if an emergency suddenly arose he would not delay a moment in getting the military forces to the scene of trouble.

The appeal from Mr. Lancaster is the first request for troops to be received at the Governor's office since the inauguration of the strike, but there have been requests from various parts of the State for the rangers.

Adjutant General Barton declared that if it becomes necessary to call out the National Guard a special session of the Legislature to make appropriation to maintain the troops can not be avoided, for the reason, he said, that there are no funds available at this time for such purpose.

ANTHRACITE MINE OWNERS IN FAVOR OF ARBITRATION

Formation of Commission for Investigation and Report by Aug. 10 Is Demanded.

Washington.—Anthracite mine owners have submitted a response to the Government's offer of arbitration in the coal situation that President Harding was said to regard as a complete acceptance.

Meanwhile, the miners' union and to a degree, the bituminous coal operators, continued to pursue a policy which high officials declared was intended to evade or delay an immediate response and in which officials saw a disposition to reject the Government's settlement plan if public opinion would approve such a course.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, and other officials of that organization called on Secretary Davis and were understood to be endeavoring to induce the president to make the arbitration proposals apply to all the partially unionized territory as well as the mining area shut down by the bituminous strike. So far as the willingness of anthracite operators to settle was concerned, Mr. Lewis said: "Arbitration in the anthracite fields would be considered by the mine workers along with the bituminous arbitration proposals at the general policy committee meeting."

COMMISSION RULES GERMANY MUST PAY

REQUEST FOR SUSPENSION OF INSTALLMENT DUE JULY 15 IS DENIED.

STUDYING THE TEUTON NOTE

Reparations Body Promises to Act On Moratorium Within One Month.

Paris.—Germany must pay without delay the $2,000,000 gold marks now due as an installment on her war indemnity, the Reparations Commission has decided.

This is the answer made Thursday to the tearful plea of the German representatives here that the payment be suspended because of the serious financial situation in Berlin. The Reparations Commission took under advisement the German request for a moratorium on further reparations payments until 1924, promising a decision within a month. While the Reparations Commission promises the Germans to study their note with all the care which the gravity of the situation described demands, they add that they are convinced that the reparations payments constitute only one and not even the most important of the causes of the present depreciation of the mark; and that nobody can definitely establish a stable situation except by the immediate adoption of financial reforms which the Reparations Commission has for a long time demanded.

Germany is reminded that the installment due July 15 has been already reduced by 18,000,000 gold marks through credits which were applied to her account for delivery of coal and dyestuffs. In view of this reduction, the commission says, prompt payment of the balance is expected.

INSURGENTS DEFEAT G. O. P. AMENDMENTS

Basic Yarn Schedules Reduced and Lower Rates Probable, Is the View of Many.

Washington.—The first real split in Republican Senate ranks over the administration tariff bill came during consideration of the cotton schedule with a result that ten committee amendments proposing increased rates on various kinds of yarns and on silver and roving were rejected as fast as they were reached. The majority opposition was led by Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, and reached its maximum strength on the first roll call, twelve Republicans opposing the committee rate on a roll call by which the amendment was rejected, 32 to 24.

The twelve Republicans were Borah, Capper, Cummins, Jones of Washington, Lenroot, McCormick, Nelson, New, Norbeck, Sterling, Townsend and Willis. The lowest Republican vote against any of the amendments was nine with the average running at ten. With a single exception on each roll call, the Democrats voted solidly against the proposed increases.

Mount Vernon, Texas.—The peach growers are loading the first car of Elberta peaches here. They were sold to Farrier Bros. of Omaha. Mr. Henderson says he expects five or six cars for this place this season, as compared with 150 to 200 cars the previous year.

B. Y. P. U. Meeting Successful.

Palacios, Texas.—The State Espiritu Young People's Union State convention closed its twenty-first annual session Thursday with the large delegations from over the entire State practically intact. Secretary T. C. Gardner of Dallas says that this has been the most successful and satisfactory convention and encampment he has ever attended, that class instruction has been given in a real school manner and examinations were taken after the courses.

Consider Harding Coal Strike Plan

Washington.—Representatives of bituminous coal operators' associations went into conference with Secretary of Labor Davis after conferring with Hugh Kerwin, chief of the Bureau of Conciliation of the Department of Labor.

CLYDE SCHOOL ELECTION WAS IMPORTANT EVENT

Clyde, 7-19-22

We are needing rain around Clyde, still cotton is not hurting and feed crops will make fairly well without more rain. Fruit still continues to move from here. Lots of apples are being sold now and pears will begin moving next month.

A. F. Thurman, of Chillicothe, is holding a protracted meeting for the Church of Christ, at the Tabernacle.

Candidates are rounding us up this week, on the home run.

Our election here last week to determine whether or not our school tax should be raised from fifty to eighty-five cents, carried by 58 majority. It was the most spirited election Clyde has had in a long time. The school people feel like they have won a victory which puts our school on rising ground and in a condition to be talked up instead of talked down. We are now assured of a nine month's school and will be in a position to secure affiliation that will make our big school worth something to those graduating from it. "Onward and upward" is our school slogan. XXX

MRS. HEARN THANKS HER FRIENDS

The necessity of supporting myself and my little children renders it inexpedient for me to neglect my work in the Home Telephone office, and this being the fact, I have found it impossible to make a house-to-house canvass of the county, but have seen as many of you as possible and I thank you one and all for your encouraging promises of support and suffrage at the polls tomorrow.

Many loyal friends, however, have worked for me and to these I give my grateful thanks. I am thoroughly competent to intelligently and satisfactorily perform the duties of the office to which I aspire, that of Clerk of the District Court, and your vote tomorrow will be gratefully appreciated.

I promise, in case you honor me by making me your next District Clerk to concentrate my best efforts on the faithful performance of the office, and for your support at the polls, I will ever hold you in grateful remembrance, now remaining,

Very faithfully yours,
Mrs. J. W. Hearn.

NOTICE TO SCHOOL PATRONS

All school patrons desiring to have their children transferred to another district should have their application in by August the first, as the law specifies that no transfers shall be made after that date.

In a recent ruling by the Attorney General the word "may" is construed to mean "shall", thus making the transfer of children mandatory upon the County Superintendent and not directory.

Heretofore, the transfer of children from one district to another has been left to the discretion of the county superintendent.

B. C. Chrisman,
County Superintendent.

BAIRD STRIKING SHOPCRAFTS

Concluded from first page

men.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is the best known example of this attitude. It has secured from the courts an injunction restraining the Board from issuing a decision in regard to its violation of the Board's previous decision protesting the right of the employes to deal with the management through their own organization.

The Board made no effort to compel this railroad to comply with its decisions, but stated that it was without authority to enforce its decisions and could only act in an advisory capacity.

Yet when the Shopcrafts could not, in common decency, accept the last ruling of the Labor Board, they outlawed the Shopcrafts and declared that they were striking against the Government. We leave it to all fair minded people whether the Labor Board has been consistent and fair with the Shopcrafts.

The total number of employes involved in the shopmen's strike, including helpers—number given out by Railway Employes' Department, is as follows:

Mechanists, 120,000; carmen, 211,000; boiler-makers, 42,000; blacksmiths, 25,000; sheet metal workers, 17,000; electrical workers, 15,000; total, 430,000.

Respectfully submitted,

J. R. Wilks,
T. V. Anderson,
R. E. Hall,
O. L. Fewell,

IT PAYS TO BELIEVE SAYS MCCREA

John P. McCrea, in The Gideons' Magazine for May, declares that the United States of America, is the grandest country on which the sun shines.

That this Government is the most perfect known to man.

That in our land, as in no other, the greatest good to the greatest number is a verity.

That the best time the world has ever seen is with us now.

That the people you meet every day are the very best people on earth.

That pessimism will never make the world one bit better than it is.

That adversity and sorrow are God's tried and sure remedies for the most serious of human ills.

That the greatest obstacle in the way of your own success is yourself.

That the most glorious earthly victories are achieved through peace rather than conflict.

That nothing so surely tendeth to poverty as does the grouch habit.

That the best things in life can not be bought with money.

That whoever thinks as you do not is just as honest as you are and perhaps more nearly right.

That there is nothing comparable with the happiness of home and the love of little children.

That your largest blessings may lie in the things which are graciously withheld from you.

That you can not draw from others their best, except by giving to them your best.

That only being willing to be a daily learner, can the great lesson of life be thoroughly mastered.

That you owe it to the world to be the radiant sun of gladness you can be.

That your mission will not be fulfilled unless you do some little each day to make others happy.

That piety and patriotism are of infinitely greater moment than theology and partisanship.

IT IS CHEAPER TO BUY AT HOME

The other day in Oklahoma, a man went into a hardware store to buy a saw. He found the kind he wanted and asked the price. It was $1.65 the dealer said.

"Goodness gracious!" cried the shopper, "I can buy the same saw exactly from Rears-Sawbuck, the catalog house, for $1.35."

"That's less than I paid for it," replied the dealer, "but I will meet catalog competition, so I'll make you that saw for $1.35 also."

"Alright!" said the customer, "send it to my house and charge it to my account."

"Not on your life!" cried the dealer. "No charge account on this. The mail order house don't trust you. I am simply getting their price and I give you their terms. Fork over the cash."

The customer complied.

"Now two cents for postage and five cents for a money order," demanded the dealer.

"What?"

"Certainly. You have to send a letter and a money order to a mail order house, you know."

The customer, inwardly raving, handed over the money.

"Now twenty-five cents for expressage," continued the dealer, bidding out his hand.

"Well, I'll be d—d!" cried the customer; but he paid it and said: "Now hand me that saw and I'll take it home myself and be rid of this foolery."

"Hand it to you!" bellowed the dealer. "Where do you think you are? You're in Oklahoma and I'm in Chicago. You'll have to wait two weeks for that saw!"

Whereupon he hung the saw upon a nail and put the money in the cash drawer.

"That makes $1.67," he concluded. "It has cost you two cents more and taken two weeks longer to get it then if you had bought it from your local hardware store in the first place."
