Odd Bits Salvaged

The No. 5 "plank" in our needs for 1949 will be realized some of these days.

That is, in case you don't want to turn over to page two and see, is "Building of more housing projects. There continues to be a housing shortage."

It seems that building now going on, or about to be started, should eliminate the housing shortage to some extent. However, just last week we had several people inquire about apartments, etc.

But every time a local couple decides to build a home, it should release a house or apartment for someone else. And building they are.

For instance, we can sit here and recall the following homes that are started, or are about to be started:

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Haynie, Jr., is under construction, and has been for some time. Looks like there's going to be some Austin stone on it.

And most of you know the home of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Lindsey is completed and is now being occupied. A lot of you went out to see it during their open house a week ago last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Voss are constructing a new home, just south of the school grounds, and it's getting along toward completion.

All that time-killing work of planning and getting plans ready and approved, etc., has been completed and Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Ratliff started construction on their new home.

It'll be completed some of these days—a new home on a piece of land in the west part of town that has been farmed all these years.

Another brand new home that is beginning to take on form is that of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wiggins. The foundation is laid, and last Sunday we noticed some timber pointing skyward, so it'll begin to look like a house before long.

This new home is located across the street from the P. V. Williams home. A right nice location for a banker, we'd say.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morrow have started construction on their home, north of the business section, on Munday avenue.

We drove by a week ago Sunday, the plumbing had been started, and by next Sunday we expect some more progress being made.

Our favorite pastime on Sundays is driving around and seeing where new homes are being built and just what progress is being made on them.

Why all this interest in other people's homes? Well, you see, we'd like a home, too—but!

Another couple—practically newcomers to our town—see are building are Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sharp.

They've moved a house in and are taking on the job of remodeling it. They expect to get it ready to move into in another month or more.

These are the homes that are under way now. Others will be started soon, including the home for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pendleton and Jan.

These are the ones we can sit here at the typewriter and think of. There are probably others—some of which have been moved in and remodeled, like the one W. R. Moore moved in and fixed up for Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bardwell.

At that rate, the housing situation will be remedied to some extent pretty fast.

But while we're on the sub-

Worth, that this District had won second place in Region 5 of their "Save the Soil and Save Texas" Awards Program. Region 5 takes in thirty soil conservation districts in north and Central Texas, and something like fifty counties.

Mr. Idol says that the District will receive $200.00 for winning this award. He also says that the farmers and ranchers cooperating with the District are actually the winners of this award for the amount of conservation work that they did last year.

Mr. Idol is highly pleased with the progress the District has made, and has high hopes of winning the State award next year.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McCullum has held a civil service job with the schools in the Hawaiian Islands, while her husband has been connected with a newspaper in Honolulu.

They spent two nights in the home of C. R. Elliott, and several local people were invited into the home for an informal visit with them. They spent an enjoyable time, listening to the couple tell of their work on the islands, of the various races of people there, and other interesting details of their experiences.

Mr. and Mrs. McCullum are visiting many points in the United States on this trip, and stated it was likely they wouldn't return to Honolulu, but spent their remaining years "on the mainland."

Mrs. McCullum is a former teacher in the Munday schools.

Word was received here Tuesday that W. A. Short, former resident of Goree, passed away in Stephenville, where he had been making his home for some few months.

W. A. Short Dies In Stephenville

In 1916 he invented and patented the drag-type stalk cutter. Altogether, it is said, royalties from this invention netted him more than $10,000.

Another invention which he patented was a wire tightening device back in 1893, but never was able to market it to any great advantage.

The body was taken to Rule, his former home, for burial.

Interest Shown In No. 1 Joe Voss Wildcat Test

Will Knox county get a paying well?

That is the question that's being asked as local people, as well as oil operators, watch with interest the progress being made on Humble Oil Company's No. 1 Joe Voss wildcat since drilling was begun last week.

Reports are that the well, in section 71, block 2, D&W survey, four miles northwest of Munday, is now drilling below 1500 feet. It is scheduled to be a 6,000-foot test.

Reports also went out by grapevine that a drillstem test was taken at a depth below 1500 feet last Monday with a showing of oil, although this did not come from an authoritative source. The showing, reports were, that the showing was light, and drilling continued toward the 6,000 foot mark.

Sewer Plant Is Being Cleaned

A much needed move for the town of Munday is being undertaken in the cleaning up and improving of the sewer plant facilities of the town.

A one-man project has been carried on for several months, in that L. W. Hobert volunteered to try to take care of excess water and making other improvements.

J. Weldon Smith, new member of the City Council, has been placed in charge of sewer facilities. He and Mr. Hobert, and Harvey Lee, city secretary, have started the job of cleaning up the sewer system. It will be plowed and made into a system of lagoons. The arrangement will be that water can be shifted from one lagoon to another and not be allowed to become stagnant.

LOCAL NEEDS FOR 1949

We're pulling for these needs in 1949. What will the year bring?

1. A modern street sweeper. Our paving cost us money, let's protect it!
2. Paving of road through Rhineand, and definite progress on Throckmorton road.
3. Completion of our drainage system. It's gonna rain one of these days.
4. An adequate waterworks system. This is a must for the continued growth of Munday.
5. Building of more housing projects. There continues to be a housing shortage.
6. Recreational facilities for our youth of today—our citizens of tomorrow.

GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL

It has become very popular to talk about the importance of saving our American way of life. As a matter of fact, the only way we can lose it is for the American people themselves to become so negligent in exercising the rights and privileges they have under our form of government that the liberties they take for granted will go by default.

We have to work at being Americans if we wish to perpetuate the blessings left to us by our forefathers. American parents must strive to help develop character in their children, which is necessary to combat enemies both from within and without our borders.

The essential qualification for the perpetuation of our representative form of government is character, and that is developed on a foundation of religious teaching.

National Sunday School Week is sponsored by the Laymen's National Committee, a non-sectarian, non-profit organization created to bring about a better understanding of the important part religion has played in creating and maintaining our government. Helping develop character in children through some form of religious training cannot be delegated by parents to someone else.

A good time to reawaken old-fashioned ideas is to go to Sunday School with the family, and thereby help counteract the teachings of alien, godless ideologies.

THE BUYER'S MARKET

According to a U. S. News survey of current business conditions, "Merchants are finding . . . that goods will not move very rapidly unless price concessions are offered. Consumers are proving to be as hard customers as business purchasing agents."

To put the matter another way, in most lines the buyer's market has returned with a vengeance. Retailing—as it has many times in the past—is facing a challenge. That challenge is to offer what the customers want, and to sell it at a price which the customers believe to be right.

Modern retailing, in fact, has been developed with that basic idea in mind. The best merchant who ever lived can't please everybody. But no other retail system in the world has come as close to the goal as ours. The successful merchant is an expert in many fields. He must be able to anticipate well ahead what people will want—the road to failure is lined with stocks of goods that don't move off the shelves. He must be a very and intelligent buyer. He must keep a constant eye out for waste and inefficiency. He must pare his overhead costs whenever possible, otherwise a more alert store down the street will undersell him. He must be something of a psychologist, in that he is constantly dealing with human foibles, prejudices and desires.

The trend of retail prices has been downward, as a general thing. Many think that trend will continue during the year, though no sharp breaks are expected. Regardless of what happens, the main task of the retailer, whether he runs a chain or an independent outlet, a big store or a small one, will be to sell at the lowest cost consistent with safety. Price is not the only consumer inducement, but it is the biggest one to millions of people. The retailer's search for greater efficiency and economy must be endless.

A student was living in a boarding house which was anything but clean. He was surprised one day to find a card tacked on the front door. "Clean Your Feet," it said in big letters.

The student took a pencil and on the same card, immediately underneath, he wrote, "Before Going Out."

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30, 1949—The House continues to debate the Lesinski bill which would repeal the Taft-Hartley Act. This bill and amendments will probably be debated most of next week. All kinds of pressure is being brought on members of the House to make them vote for the Lesinski bill, sponsored by the Administration and for the repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act. The President's threat to withdraw patronage from Democratic members who didn't support the Lesinski bill has had little or no effect. It is hoped that members will vote their honest convictions without fear of punishment or hope of reward. When Congressmen can be bluffed or bought, Democracy will then indeed be in peril.

During each session of Congress there are introduced approximately 10,000 bills and resolutions. It might be interesting to note bills introduced in a typical day. On one day recently, there were introduced the following bills: H. R. 4226, to amend the Civil Service Retirement Act to provide coverage for certain legislature employees; H. R. 4227, to provide for national cemeteries in Georgia; H. R. 4228, (Connecticut Valley Authority) to establish a Connecticut Valley Authority to provide for unified water control and resource development on the Connecticut River, its tributaries, and watershed; to prevent floods, encourage agriculture, stimulate industrial expansion, develop low cost hydroelectric power, promote navigation, increase recreational possibilities, protect wildlife; and for other purposes; H. R. 4229, to amend District of Columbia Alcoholic Beverage Control Act; H. R. 4230, (Federal Aid to Schools), to provide Federal aid to elementary and secondary schools for transportation, library facilities, textbooks, visual aids, recreation facilities, school health programs, etc.; H. R. 4231 to reserve certain land on the public domain in Utah for addition to Goshute Indian Reservation; H. R. 4232, relating to Osage Indians of Oklahoma; H. R. 4233, issuance of stamp commemorating 60th anniversary of American edition of Izaak Walton's Compleat Angler; H. R. 4234, to amend the National Service Life Insurance Act of 1940; H. R. 4235, naming veterans' hospital at Fresno, California; H. R. 4236, to promote economic recovery of Blackfeet Indians and better utilization of resources of Blackfeet Reservation; H. R. 4237, to amend act regulating practice of optometry in District of Columbia; H. R. 4238, regarding unclaimed animals in District of Columbia pound; H. R. 4239, to amend the Federal Airport Act to reduce from 75 percent to 60 percent the amount of appropriation available for grants for projects; H. R. 4240, (School Health) to provide for development of school health services for prevention, diagnosis and treatment of physical and mental defects and conditions; H. R. 4241, to authorize Secretary of Army to make allowance in lieu of markers for certain graves; H. R. 4242, to give former owners of certain Government real property a right to purchase such property if and when it is offered for sale; H. R. 4243, to provide annuities for certain remarried widows of certain persons engaged in construction of Panama Canal; H. R. 4244, (School Health) (identical with H. R. 3942); H. R. 4245, (school health) (identical with H. R. 3942); H. R. 4246, to raise the limit on individual postal savings accounts to $6,000; H. R. 4247, to amend section 2136 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to drawback on the exportation of tobacco, snuff, cigars, and cigarettes; H. R. 4248, to permit partially disabled World War II veterans to re-enlist in a regular force, including Coast Guard, for limited duty; H. R. 4249, to transfer the trawlers Alaska and Oregon from RFC to Fish and Wildlife Service; H. R. 4250, relating to promotion of World War II veterans in postal field service; H. R. 4251, to amend the Communications Act to allow the FCC to purchase land for radio monitoring stations; H. R. 4252, identical with H. R. 4249; and H. R. 4253, and H. R. 4262, private bills.

This is just an average days quota of bills. Multiply this by the number of days Congress is in session and you get some idea of the legislature case load with which each member of Congress must struggle.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Gulley and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gulley visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dixon in Bowie over the week end.

Guest Speakers
Talk To Students
On Current Topics

Several guest speakers have accepted invitations to speak to various classes of the high school this year. This is done in order to make the subjects more practical and more interesting, and to bring the school in contact with the town as a whole.

Mr. McMurry of the State Highway Patrol talked to the safety Education class. Mr. Boyles told the class in Economics how cotton was bought and sold, and Mr. Wiggins explained how banks operate. Mrs. Paul Pruitt gave a most interesting book review on Tite Big Fisherman to the junior and senior English classes.

The students and teachers wish to express their appreciation for these speakers who took time from their own occupations to spend an hour with the school.

Dave Waldron, who is employed in Austin, spent a while here last Sunday, visiting with his uncle, J. F. Waldron.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Hutchinson of Knox City were visitors in the home of T. L. Thompson last Sunday.

Knox Prairie Philosopher's Up In Arms Over The Threat Of Plumbers To Come Out And Inspect His Plumbing

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek probably is over-exercised about the matter he discusses this week, but we're publishing his letter to keep him quiet.

Dear editor:
I was out here the other day enjoyin spring unfold for me, watchin my Jersey steers gettin fat for me, listenin to the bees makin honey for me, watchin the grass come up of its own accord, which is the ideal way to farm, eliminates machinery - breakdowns, worries, ulcers, over-production, etc., and wasn't bothered about anything when I stumbled on a copy of a newspaper and while ordinarily I don't let a newspaper, a politician, or my wife's naggin interfere with my peace of mind, I read something in that paper which has me disturbed.

Accordin to it, the big city plumbers are tryin to get a law passed requirin country plumbin to be inspected by licensed plumbers, settin up minimum standards, etc. They want to do this, they say, to protect the health of the people who live outside cities and towns, the fact that it would increase the plumbin business not enterin in to it at all.

Now while I appreciate the fact the city plumbers is interested in my health, and while still and at the same time I ain't noticed plumbers bein any healthier than farmers or city folks bein healthier than country folks don't make no difference if they do drink out of inspected faucets, what worries me is the trend. Everybody wants to license somebody, then hire somebody, maybe their relatives, to come around and inspect em. Thunder, you don't hear farmers arguin for the right to come around and inspect city people. The way we look at it is, if we grow the stuff and you city folks ain't got enough sense to handle it, you can just choke on it. Ain't our business. And if I want to try to run water up hill or draw it out of a well with bailin wire and a leaky bucket, I ought to be able to attempt it without a city permit. I imagine there's lots of plumbin in the country which a licensed inspector would jerk out by the roots, but on the other hand there may be lots of plumbers for example who ain't takin care of their teeth properly, but who wants a law tryin to make em go to the dentist? I may feel sorry for a plumber with a tooth ache, but I don't want a law passed makin him do something about it.

It ain't that I got much plumbin to be inspected and it ain't that I'd do anything about it if somebody came out here and said it was put in all wrong, but if they can even try to make me change my plumbin, they might decide they could make me change my method of farmin, and then as far as I'm concerned all h— has busted loose. First thing you know, somebody will want to require a license to shoe a horse, fix a flat, change a plow point, crank a tractor, milk a cow, slop a hog, hang a gate, patch a roof, open a bottle, doubt a politician . . . there ain't no limit to this sort of thing. You got a license to edit?

You can tell them city plumbers my plumbin suits me and if they're bustin to inspect somebody, try Russia. Understand the plumbin over there is awful.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

KITCHEN MEMO
BY JEAN CLARKE

The men, bless 'em, love any food with chocolate flavoring and it's the thoughtful wife who keeps chocolate cookies on hand in the cookie jar for between-meal nibbling. For Chocolate Meringue Cookies sift together 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar, 1 tsp. flour, ¼ tsp. salt. Beat 3 egg whites until stiff. Add sugar mixture 2 tbsps. at a time until thoroughly blended. Fold in 3 squares unsweetened chocolate (melted and cooled), ½ cup shredded coconut, and 1 tsp. vanilla. Drop from teaspoon on lightly greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate gas oven (375°F.) for 10 mins.

A two or three-burner gas hot plate is inexpensive to operate and a helpful addition in the laundry when starch must be cooked or handkerchiefs boiled.

If your family likes pork chops, try simmering them in pineapple juice over a low flame. Then place in a 400-degree oven for about 20 minutes.

Colored clothes that can be safely washed with white laundry can also be dried with white clothes in your automatic gas dryer. It holds approximately the same amount as the washer so that each load can be dried immediately after washing.

Save the juice from cooked dried fruits to make a flavorful chilled fruit drink.

To peel tomatoes easily and quickly, spear them on a long fork and hold over the gas flame while turning. The heat loosens the skin.

Terraces Completed For Farms Of Area

Several cooperators of the Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District have recently completed terraces on land which is to be farmed in row crops this year.

Calvin Frierson of Haskell has completed 9.4 miles, M. G. Po-teet, whose farm is 7 miles north of Haskell, has completed 2.1 miles, League-Davis Ranch near Benjamin has completed 5.4 miles, C. M. Conner, whose farm is 4 miles east of Rochester, has completed 3.7 miles. All of these lines were run by Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service assisting the Wichita-Brazos SCD.

Now is the time to plant summer legumes such as blackeye peas. League-Davis Ranch has already planted approximately 15 acres of Madrid clover, and plan to plant 150 acres of Chinese Red peas, and approximately 5 acres of Guar. All of these are summer legumes which enrich the soil in nitrogen and organic matter.

It is also time to start thinking about pasture management for this summer growing season. With three summer droughts in this area limiting grass growth, and with over-use of the pastures, the grass in the district is badly in need of some summer rest. Cattle can be increased above the normal stocking rate at this time to utilize annual grasses and weeds, but should be decreased in number on about May 15th, and either grazed lightly or taken entirely off until November 1st. At that time they could be taken back in the rested pasture to utilize the grass. Resting a pasture does not mean loss of pounds of beef, but means deferred profits for the year to come. An orderly rotation of pasture use with deferment of each pasture very few years is sound management and necessary to maintain a pasture in a high state of productivity.

Munday Club Sponsors Cancer Film March 29th

March 29th, the Munday Home Demonstration Club sponsored a moving picture show in the Roxy Theatre at Munday, about cancer from the American Cancer Society.

It was not a picture of horrors and sores as most people would assume. The cells of tissues of the body were represented by showing pictures of little men who were over worked and fell out of line, and how hard the task of supplying the body with vitamins and minerals were on the live cells that remained in the body.

Another important feature of the show, the parts of the body that was most susceptible to cancer, was shown in a circle.

Perhaps you think that cancer always means death. That is not true. If you have any reason to believe you or any member of your family have a cancer, go immediately to your doctor for a check up.

You may have an idea that only a trained specialist with elaborate equipment can detect cancer. Any careful physician can detect conditions which may mean cancer by using his eyes, ears, hands and a few simple instruments and probably ask a number of questions to find out or not if you yourself have noticed signs or symptoms that may mean cancer.

Cancer is no respecter of age. Cancer is no respecter of time. A few danger signals of cancer are:

- (1) Any sore that does not heal,
- (2) a painless lump,
- (3) persistent indigestion,
- (4) irregular bleeding or discharge from any natural body opening,
- (5) change of color or size of a wart, mole or birth mark,
- (6) any change in normal bowel habits,
- and (7) persistent cough or hoarseness. Surgery, X-ray and radium are the best proven methods of treatment of cancer.

If you have an opportunity to see an American Cancer Society picture, by all means go for future health and happiness for yourself, your family and loved ones.

Shirley Jo Patterson Selected As Nominee On Talent Club Program

The Producers Grain District No. 7, comprised of Knox, Baylor, Foard, Hall, Hardeman and Wilbarger Counties, have invited each county to submit a nominee for the Talent Club Program of 1949. The girls eligible for this nomination are the 1948 Gold Star Winners.

The winners of each District will be guests of Producers Grain on a 4-day tour of Texas, June 6-10. Beginning at Lubbock, the group will be supervised by Extension Service, and will see points of interest such as the State Capital, the Alamo, take a boat ride on Bay, go to the Breckenridge Park, visiting successful cooperatives and farming projects. The group will go in a chartered bus and have planned recreation each night.

Knox County nominee is Shirley Jo Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Patterson, of Munday, 1948 Gold Star Girl. Shirley, a 4-H member for 4 years has participated in each phase of the program. She has served as a leader in her club by holding the offices of Vice-president, has presided as president, served as secretary-treasurer two years, and reporter one term.

In accordance with provisions of said House Bills, the State Highway Commission has ascertained the wage rates prevailing in the locality in which this work is to be done. The Contractor shall pay not less than the prevailing wage rates shown in the proposal for Group 3 for each craft or type of "Laborer," "Workman," or "Mechanic" employed on this project.

Legal holiday work shall be paid for at the regular governing rates. Plans and specifications available at the office of H. T. Cunningham, Resident Engineer Munday, Texas, and Texas Highway Department, Austin. Usual rights reserved. (SEAL) 40-2tc.

er this year to learn re-upholstering. Out-of-door work comes in for its share of Shirley's time. She cleans yard and has her own flowerbeds. She enjoys working with chickens, and helps in the field each summer.

Shirley helps out on all phases of Food Production, Preservation and Preparation. This year, she has planted beans and peas and other vegetables in the garden, and does the weeding and cultivating. She is learning about canning and marketing by helping her mother. Last year she assisted in canning 262 pints of corn, peaches and grape juice for the family. She cooks and serves meals for the family occasionally and prepares cakes and other dishes each week, as well as washing dishes, changing linens, cleaning house and doing part of the ironing. Shirley's main interest in the 4-H program is clothing. She was selected from her club as a nominee to model dresses in the Simplicity Style Show given by Miss Jane Gibbs in Knox County in County Dress Revue; a cotton chambray school dress, a blouse and a skirt, winning first place on the first two, and second on the skirt. This gave her the highest score of any dress revue entrant. She spends her spare time sewing, and has made the following articles: 5 skirts, 4 dresses, 4 blouses, 1 pair pajamas, 9 aprons, a play suit, 8 pairs pillow cases, 3 cuptowels and curtains for 2 rooms.

Shirley studies her wardrobe carefully and finds ways to re-use all good materials. This year she has remodeled two dresses one blouse and two skirts, and put in nine hems. She has dyed two blouses, one skirt and tied-and-dyed two head scarves. When she could not find lace and pearly buttons the desired shade of yellow to trim her yellow blouse, she dyed 3 yards of lace and nine buttons. She learned glove making when her mother's home demonstration club had the demonstration, and has made one pair.

Her outstanding work as clothing demonstrator, along with her well-balanced interest in the whole 4-H program, her active participation in all phases of the farm and home life of her family made Shirley Jo the Gold Star Girl for Knox County in 1949, and made her eligible to compete in the Producers Grain Program on a District Level.

Letters From The People

A. W. HUNTER FEELS OF EARTHQUAKE ON THE PACIFIC COAST

Editor's Note: The following is a portion of a letter from A. W. Hunter of Seattle, Washington, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hunter:

Everything is back to normal with us now. We had no damage to our home, etc., but the city as a whole took an awful shaking up. Damage ran high among the store buildings and hotels and apartment houses.

Yes, you know me. I had to be in the middle of the downtown section when the quake started. Yes, I was frightened—who was not? Standing there, rocking back and forth as you would in a row boat at sea, just watching to see which tall building was coming down first and trying to make up my mind which way to go.

But there was no way to go, no place to go, just plenty to see. I stood there in the middle of the busy intersection at 5th and Union street and looked at the buildings swing and sway back and forth as if they were mounted on rubber foundations.

It just makes you stop and think just how small and how helpless you really are. There is nothing you can say or do for a few moments, and these are long moments, too.

Watching the movements of the tall buildings, and the rolling of the earth under you is a feeling you can't be explained. Ruth and I both had an upset stomach for a couple of days afterwards.

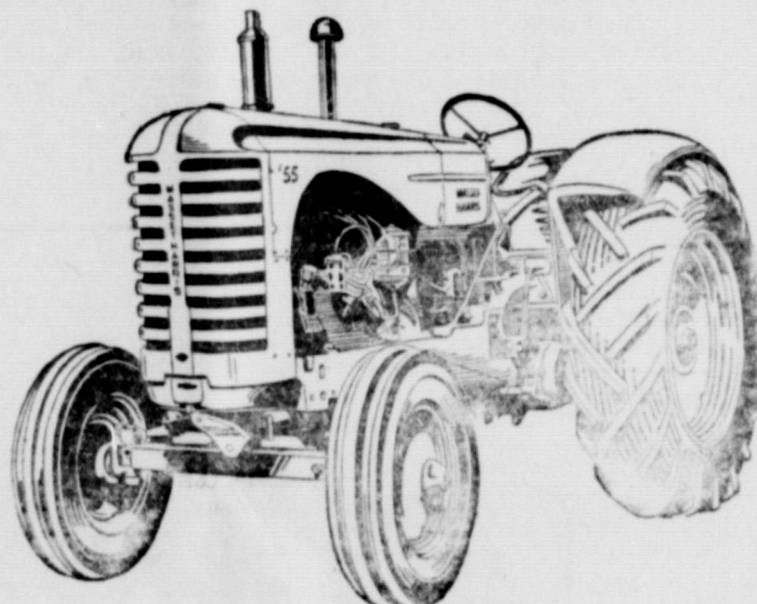

I had just loaded my truck, drove downtown and made a delivery in one of the hotels on the 6th floor apartment and came down, was sitting double parked in front of the hotel in my truck, waiting for my helper when my truck started doing the Charleston dance in the street. Ah! It is a bit funny at things, the way they happened at times, but not in this deal.

Yes, we have a section of older part of Seattle that 60 percent of the business houses will be condemned. The garage that we store our trucks in is damaged so bad we are having to abandon it for our safety.

No, the store, Sears and Roebuck, is damaged to a great extent, also one building where I load out every morning crumbled at one end, leaving bricks all over the parking lot.

Streets and walks are blocked off for blocks at a stretch in the downtown district.

They are having to tear down buildings for fear of them falling on the people in the streets.

FARM NEWS

PROGRAM
from the County Agricultural Conservation Committee

Total Crop Allotments Suggested.
Now that acreage allotments and marketing quotas seem likely on a number of major crops in 1950, the problem is one of keeping acreages taken out of allotment crops from piling up surpluses of other farm commodities. According to Emmett Partridge, Chairman of the Knox County Agricultural Conservation Committee, this is one of the big problems—if not the biggest—facing farmers of this country today. As surpluses of one crop pile up there will be a tendency if past experience can be used as a guide—to shift production to other cash crops. This, in one year, may mean surpluses and ruinous prices for these commodities.

Mr. Partridge said that it has been suggested that there be a total allotment on the farm to cover all these crops. This would mean that in addition to the allotments on individual crops there would be a total farm allotment that would cover all cash crops, or crops that may cause marketing troubles. To be eligible for price supports, the farmer would have to be within this total allotment as well as all the allotments for individual crops.

On a farm where a farmer may have a normal acreage of 60 acres of wheat, 30 acres of corn, and 10 acres of potatoes, he may have individual crop allotments of 50 acres of wheat, 25 acres of corn, and 5 acres of potatoes. But he may have 20 acres in other cash crops, which if increased, would help to build up surpluses. This idea suggested would be to set up an overall allotment as well as allotments for individual cash crops. He would have to be within the individual crop allotment and the total allotment to be eligible for price supports on any crop. The suggested proposal would help farmers to work together instead of against each other, the chairman said. And as to what to do with the land taken out of these cash crops, he suggested that there is room for expansion of grass and legume crops both to increase livestock production and to conserve the soil.

Turkey Numbers Down in 1948.
Growers produced fewer turkeys in 1948 than the year before, reports the Department of Agriculture. Turkeys produced totaled almost 32 million, 8 percent less than in 1947; turkeys sold totaled nearly 30 million, 17 percent fewer than in 1947.

The average price received for turkeys in 1948, however, was 46.7 cents per pound live-weight, a record high, compared with 36.4 cents in 1947. Growers' cash receipts from the sale of almost 546 million pounds of turkey meat amounted to around $255 million in 1948—7 percent more than in 1947. A 25 percent increase is indicated for 1949 in farmer "intention" reports to the Department of Agriculture.

Are Farmers Getting Rich?
Although almost everyone knows of farmers who have "made money" during the past 8 or 10 years, most farmers have not been "doing as well" as the people in town or city.

Emmett Partridge, Chairman of the Knox County Agricultural Conservation Committee, backs up this statement with the fact that the average net income of farm people in 1948 from all sources was only $909 per capita, including the value of home-produced food and income from non-farm sources. This compares with the non-farm average of $1,569.

Mr. Partridge said that consumers are often misled by the prices they have to pay for groceries and other commodities produced on the farm. Too often, they are not aware of the prices actually received by farmers.

According to Mr. Partridge, figures show that for the wool in a $50 suit, the farmers received about $5.70; for $10 worth of meat, the farmer received about $5.10; for the tobacco in a 20-cent pack of cigarettes, the farmer received about 2-2/5 cents; for the wheat in a 14 and one-half cent loaf of bread, the farmer received about 3 cents. And if the farmer had given away the hide for a $10 pair of shoes, they would still cost

Too often, Mr. Partridge said, this spread between what the farmer gets and what the consumer pays and the difference between farm and non-farm incomes are overlooked when farm programs and price-support measures are being discussed.

Broiler Producers Urged to Reconsider Plans.

Broiler producers are being urged to review their production and marketing plans for the next few months. Marketing from farm flocks during this period are expected to be heavy and storage demand uncertain.

The Department of Agriculture points out that broiler raisers are producing about 50 percent more broilers than at this time last year; farmers generally have stated their intentions to raise about 7 percent more chickens this year than last; storers may hesitate to put substantial quantities of chickens in storage this year because of uncertainty as to eventual selling prices. An excessive market supply of chickens in late summer would bring about less favorable price conditions. Further more, no price support for broilers will be available this year, according to the Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Boggs, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Merchant and family of Haskell left last Monday for the Lano River in Junction for several days fishing trip.

Mrs. W. V. Tiner, who underwent a major operation recently at a Wichita Falls hospital, returned to her home in Munday last Thursday. She is reported to be doing nicely.

Weekly Health LETTER of Texas Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox M. D., State Health Officer

AUSTIN—During the first seventeen weeks of 1948 there were only 55 cases of poliomyelitis reported to the State Health Department, while in this same period for 1949, there have been 142 cases reported from different sections of the State, according to Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer. 7 cases were reported in the past week, with three from one county.

"Poliomyelitis is one of the most dreaded of all diseases", Dr. Cox said, "and justly so. It is more often a crippler than a killer, but in either case it takes a heavy toll among young Texas citizens, and is a health menace against which our children should be carefully guarded."

Immaculate cleanliness of person and homes is urged as a precautionary measure against polio, and community hygiene assumes a place of major importance when the disease makes its appearance. Clean communities, clean homes, and strict personal hygiene all play a part in helping to prevent the spread of diseases, and Dr. Cox advises close inspection of home screens for keeping our flies, and unremitting efforts in rodent control, and the extermination of roaches.

"Until it is definitely understood just how polio is transmitted, it is well to guard against all household pests and eliminate all insanitary conditions", Dr. Cox said. "We do not know with certainty how polio may be spread, and filth, which affords a breeding place for germs, should not be tolerated."

BOYCE HOUSE

Dr. Arthur H. Compton is doubtless a great atomic scientist—but no great shakes as a grammarian if we are judge by a recent press dispatch which quoted him as telegraphing an acceptance of an offer to receive an honorary doctor of laws degree from Texas Christian University:

"I will be delighted to become an alumni of Texas Christian." Maybe Dr. Crumpton are the Siamese twins.

There was an old-time rancher who was so parsimonious that he fed his cowboys the poorest kind of food. One range-rider complained but without effect. The "old man" rode up to this cowhand's shack and, a storm coming up, he stayed for the night. Next morning the rancher bit down on a biscuit and yelled, "This is weevil-y." He clamped down on the bacon and then angrily said, "This meat is too tough to chew." He started to shove his plate back but the cowboy whipped out a pistol and announced:

"You said that flour and bacon was good enough for me; now turn you, eat every bite of it." Which the cattlemen did.

So far from firing the nery cowboy, the ranchman sent over a supply of good grub and always liked him thereafter. He would refer to the cowpoke as "that kid from Arkansas."

In El Dorado, Ark. (visited in the late 1930's), they told of a banker whose advise was so

A MOTHER'S PRAYER
 Dear God on high who rules the world
 And judges like no other,
 Look down into our humble home
 And make me a better mother.
 Keep critic hands from off my heart
 And help me when I falter,
 Forgive my sins, and help me guide
 My children to the altar.
 And when I err some times, dear God
 For no one is quite free,
 Make my children good, dear Lord
 In spite of me.

ject of building, we want to mention the home which Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bowden are building west of town.

This couple have lived "close to the soil" ever since they've been in Knox county, and they want to continue living close to the soil.

No "Town Home" for them, and we understand they're building a country home that will be a credit to the Munday area. Work has been going on for some two of three weeks.

We haven't seen this home, yet, but we intend to drive out and take a look.

We're for all you home builders—strong. We'll give you all kinds of "backing" we can, except financial!
