

Kracker Krumb's Odd Bits Salvaged At Random

We did it without pomp or ceremony.

In fact, we plumb forgot about it at the time.

You probably noticed—or did you?—that in the datelines of last week's paper, we pulled out the words "Volume 44," and inserted "Volume 45, No. 1."

Which means that the Munday Times is 44 years old, and last week we started on that forty-fifth year.

We usually run a whole batch of stuff about how we've enjoyed publishing a paper and "serving you" during the past year and will try to do a better job next year and the usual blah-blah, which you may or may not believe.

To tell the truth we worked like the dickens during the past year. Not because we especially enjoyed it, but because we needed to make a living and keep on paying off that note.

Lots of you helped, on that note, by way of subscriptions, etc., and we paid off a bunch of them, too.

But we still have them coming due so take a gander at your expiration date, and if it reads 7-15-49, or 8-10-49, or something like that you could help us again.

Some of our friends have mentioned that we must have gotten that note paid off, since we had not mentioned it lately but 'tain't so, 'tisn't so.

So just shell out the kale. We'll issue you a receipt if you want one, tell you much obliged, and put the money where it's needed most.

Which doesn't have anything to do with our birthday.

As we indicated, we believe that putting out the paper last year kinda bordered on work, but we won't say we didn't enjoy it.

We didn't run the Munday Times—it ran us. It caused us to run here, there and yonder in search of ads and job printing and business and news, etc.

And that, in our language, runs into work.

But we enjoyed it more than picking cotton, or digging a ditch or grubbing stumps.

But we kinda worked at the job. We didn't take a vacation, except for three full days the shop closed during Christmas, and we got fussed at then because we weren't here to turn out some job printing that needed to be done.

We didn't even get to go fishing. We usually get to go fishing once every two years. Last year was our year, and we lost out.

But we enjoyed writing about a bunch of you fortunates who did get to go.

We didn't get to go hunting. But we enjoyed writing about those who did—and then appreciative boys who came by with a mess of venison, or elk, and thinks like that made the job more enjoyable.

We did take off two days and go mingle with the press and radio boys at the Dallas fair. But when we got back we had to work for four straight Sundays to catch up.

Guess we got to thinking along that line because a lot of you boys and girls have taken vacations this year and we don't see how we'll get one.

And to rub salt on a raw spot, we've gotten a few of those cards, saying: "Having a wonderful time, wish you here"

But as we said at vacation time last year, a vacation is something to look forward to and rest up from, and we don't have to do either one. Ain't we fortunates!

Doodlebug To Cease Tooting On Local Line

The toot of the Doodlebug may soon be heard no longer, as presser indications are that passenger service on the Wichita Valley Railway between Wichita Falls and Abilene is passing.

Only two representatives of towns served by the Doodlebug, little gas-electric motorcar, met in Wichita Falls on Tuesday of last week to talk over the railway's application to abandon hauling of passengers. Both of them were from Seymour, and neither opposed to the move.

Ben Blanton manager of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, has arranged the meeting and letters were sent to all towns served by the Doodlebug requesting them to send representatives to the meeting.

Mayor S. A. Mitchell of Seymour and D. M. Daniel, secretary of the chamber of commerce, spoke briefly, expressing regrets at the passing of the Doodlebug's service but not opposing it. Letters were read from other towns served, indicating there won't be any fight when the application is heard on August 30 at Seymour.

Robert L. Hoyt, general passenger agent, said the line steadily has been losing money. He stated that mail service will be impaired along the route, since star route deliveries will be accumulated from Wichita Falls and Abilene.

Hoyt stated that a system of handling express will be worked out to the satisfaction of everybody.

Mary Frances Laws Named To Attend 4-H Encampment

Mary Frances Laws, of Vera 4-H Club, has been selected to attend the State 4-H Conservation Encampment. This camp is held August 22-26, at Lake Trinidad, and is provided for through the courtesy of the Texas Power & Light Company, which furnishes the camp grounds and the Western Cartridge Company, which furnishes the food.

Three girls and three boys from each district, composed of twelve counties, are selected by a committee. Also representing District III will be a 4-H Club girl from Archer county and Wilbarger county. They will be accompanied by Miss Joy W. Riley, Wilbarger County Home Demonstration Agent.

The program this year is on Conservation in Every Day Living. Conservation is worked into all of the phases of the program. Time is provided for games and recreation, for swimming, life-saving, and safety instructions, picnics, and outings.

Supervision of the camp is by the State Extension Service Camp and one home demonstration agent and one county agricultural agent who will accompany the delegates from each of the 14 Districts.

Mrs. Bardwell To Get B. S. Degree

ABILENE—Mrs. Irene Bardwell of Munday is one of the more than 275 students who will be graduated from Hardin-Simmons at its summer commencement, August 19. It is expected to be the largest group of students ever to have been graduated, making this year's class equal 551.

Mrs. Bardwell is the wife of James H. Bardwell and the daughter of Mrs. D. S. Carson. She is receiving a bachelor of science degree with a major in elementary education.

Dr. Raymond Foy, for 26 year sales manager and advertising director of The Dallas Morning News, will give the commencement address.

Mrs. Conrad Link of Lubbock came in last Sunday to spend several days in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Spann, and with other relatives and friends.

Cracks Russian's World Speed Record

EUGENE STILES, 17, of Alameda, Calif., received a special invitation to Plymouth Motor Corp.'s Third International Model Plane contest at Detroit Aug. 22-29 from R. C. Somerville, general sales manager of Plymouth, after breaking world's model plane straight-line speed record. Stiles flew his plane 81 MPH, beating a 9-year-old Russian-held record by 15 MPH. Russian model plane fliers, who had monopolized records, still hold championships for endurance, altitude, and distance. Stiles is first American title-holder for straight-line speed.

Youngsters, Grown-Ups Flock To Tennis Courts; Lights Are Needed

Youngsters and grown-ups, boys and girls, men and women are flocking to the newly completed tennis courts located on the school grounds, and the grand old game of tennis is being taken up by large numbers here.

The new concrete courts, a school and community project, were completed last week, all but the lighting project.

The concrete was cleared off, and youngsters came out with their tennis rackets before the backstops could be installed. Since that time, the courts have been used by large numbers from early in the morning until late in the evening.

They'd be used up into the night if lights were provided for players.

No rules have yet been worked out as to the use of the courts. The backstops have just been completed, and they are of a type that will last for years to come.

According to those in charge of the project, a system of rules will be worked out whereby the school, which has priority over the courts at all times, will use them during school hours, then at least one of the courts will be made available for townspeople and those who are employed in the stores and cannot play until after working hours.

At present a drive is being made to secure lights for the courts. All the work that has been done has been paid for, but those in charge of securing funds state that around $750 is needed for lighting the courts.

Lights would make the courts useful until late at night. They would be installed on a meter system, whereby those who use the lights will pay the expense by placing their quarters in the meters for a given period of light.

If you haven't contributed to this worthy cause, or if you want to make an additional contribution toward the lights, get in touch with some member of the committee. Your check made out and mailed to the Tennis Court Fund will reach the proper authorities.

This is a worthy community project, which, having advanced thus far, needs to be completed in grand style. Your help will do it.

Lowry Wilson Home Destroyed By Fire

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowry Wilson and daughter was destroyed by fire early Friday morning. No one knows how the fire started as the family had spent the night away from home. This was the second time for the Wilson home to be burned.

Mr. J. A. Hill was the owner of both the homes and the pickup that burned. He does not know of the fire as yet as he and the family are all on vacation.

Roxy Theatre To Take Part In Polio Drive

P. V. Williams, owner of the Roxy Theatre, Monday announced that the local theatre will participate in the Texas Theatres Polio Fun with audience collections during the week of August 11 through 18.

Under the slogan "Texas Takes Care of Its Own" the drive was planned to meet the emergency when Texas polio cases totalled one-fourth of all cases in the United States. The state had had 1,123 new cases through July 23 this year.

L. M. Rice, Dallas attorney, heads the campaign committee. Money collected in the theatres will be used to treat Texans suffering with polio. While several polio reception centers have been set up at strategic points to handle the acute or isolation period the facilities of post-acute treatment to restore the use of limbs is limited, Rice said.

Among the polio alleviation agencies to benefit is the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, near Austin.

Local residents may contribute at the theatre collections or may make checks payable to the Texas Theatres Polio Fund and mail them direct to headquarters at 801 Mercantile Bank Building, Dallas, Texas.

Revival Opens August 19 At Goree Church

The annual summer revival meeting will open on Friday evening, August 19, at the First Methodist church in Goree, it was announced this week by Rev. S. Y. Allgood, pastor.

Rev. R. L. Butler, pastor of the Munday Methodist church, will do the preaching for this meeting. Rev. Butler is widely known throughout the Northwest Texas Conference as a pastor and an evangelistic preacher, and large crowds are expected to hear him during this revival.

Services will be held twice daily, at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. The meeting will continue through Sunday, August 28, and the entire public is extended a cordial invitation to attend each and every service.

Legumes And Soil Building Crops To Be Planted In '50

County agricultural agents report that farmers are beginning to figure on what they'll plant on the land to be taken out of cotton next year because of the acreage allotments. These same reports indicate that many are planning to plant legumes and soil building crops and others expect to put some of this cultivated land into pastures.

The Texas Extension Service has just released a new bulletin, B-168, Clovers for Texas Pastures, and it is available to you. Your local county agent can supply you with a copy and he can also give you other information that may be helpful in getting the new pasture started.

"Clover for Texas Pastures" was prepared by R. R. Lancaster, extension pasture specialist of Texas A. & M. College. He says every grassland needs a clover and every clover needs a grass. They just go together most everywhere, and it takes a variety of good grazing plants to make a real pasture.

VACATION IN COLORADO

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Shannon are spending an enjoyable vacation in Denver and other points in Colorado. In Denver they are visiting Mrs. Shannon's sister, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde O. Pierce, Jr. returned to their home in Dallas after spending several days visiting in the home of Mrs. Pierce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Speck. They were accompanied to Fort Worth by Kenneth Speck, where he will have an extended visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Savage.

To Hold Revival

Rev. R. L. Butler, above, pastor of the First Methodist church of Munday, will do the preaching in the revival meeting which opens at the Goree Methodist church on Friday evening, August 19, continuing through Sunday, August 28.

Request For Baskin Dam Is Sent To Capital

The Bob Baskin dam project on the Brazos river, which has been talked for over ten years, is now up before the officials in Washington, with twenty-five towns in the Brazos watershed sending their requests to the Bureau of Reclamation.

Manager D. A. Bantson of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, who recently prepared a report on the West Texas water shortage damages and application of the Hoover Commission's domestic water recommendations, took the official resolution from the Haskell city council last week, asking for the appropriation. Haskell is acting as agent or other towns in the area.

A request was also sent to Washington by John Couch of Haskell, president of the Bob Baskin Dam Association, for a resurvey by the Reclamation Bureau. Mr. Bantson said this request was made in line with the criteria proposed by the WTCC which would give domestic water priority in all multiple dam construction.

Haskell's move to secure water rights from the dam received a blow last week when Mayor Courtney Hunt and Engineering Consultant Homer Hunter were advised by the State Board of Water Engineers to take their request to the Brazos River Authority in Mineral Wells.

E. B. Spence chairman of the board, told the applicants the proposal came in the province of the Brazos river Authority and predicted that the authority would join in the move to build the project.

Hunt protested that the dam has been sidestepped by the authority while eight other dams had been constructed on the Brazos but Spence replied that under the new plan the authority would probably help build the dam. Hunt plans to present the plan to the authority as soon as possible.

W. E. Braly of Munday is among those who have written Senator Tom Connally of Texas, seeking his help in getting the project under way.

Among area towns which would possibly be benefited by the proposed dam are Knox City, Benjamin, Goree, Munday, Peacock, Aspermont, Rochester, Rule, Wehnert, Haskell, Hamlin, Stamford, Anson, Guthrie, Truscott, Leuders, Roby, Rotan, Jayton, Seymour, Throckmorton, Fort Griffin, Albany, Girard, Clairmont, Spur, Rhineland, O'Brien, Sagerton and Avoca.

Mr. Stalcup stated that a faculty list and other information concerning the schools will be released at a later date.

Plans Made For Farm Bureau's Queen Contest

The Knox County Farm Bureau will sponsor its annual queen contest the latter part of August. The exact date has not been set, but plans are already under way and a committee has been appointed to secure nominations.

The committee will meet Monday, August 15, to submit nominations and discuss plans for presenting the queen contestants to the Farm Bureau members. The contestants must be between the ages of 16 and 22 years, unmarried, and belong to a Farm Bureau member family.

"The queen contest should be great fun for the girls and a real enjoyment for the Farm Bureau members," says W. M. Ford, president of the county organization.

A social is being planned, with the queen contest as the main event, at which time the contestants will be judged by out-of-county judges. The queen contest is one of the highlights of the Farm Bureau's yearly activities, and a complete turn-out is expected.

LOCAL NEEDS FOR 1949

We're pulling for these needs in 1949. What will the year bring?

1. A modern street sweeper. Our paving cost us money, let's protect it!
2. Paving of road through Rhineland, and definite progress on Throckmorton road.
3. Completion of our drainage system. It's gonna rain one of these days.
4. An adequate waterworks system. This is a must for the continued growth of Munday.
5. Building of more housing projects. There continues to be a housing shortage.
6. Recreational facilities for our youth of today—our citizens of tomorrow.

"ROBOT MEDICAL CARE"

The president of the Medical Society of Kings County, New York, reflected the point of view of many thoughtful men that profession when he said that "revolutionary" schemes for promoting medical security, which are now being advocated by some government officials, would tend to create a "robot system" of medical care. He said that this group is opposed to nationalized health insurance because "we are fully cognizant that in countries where medical care has been regimented the medical care is not as thorough, that initiative and incentive for medical research has been stymied, and that setting up a costly regimented system will jeopardize the personal relationship of the patient and the physician."

This is simply not a matter of opinion. It has been factually supported time and time again by the records made in various countries where regimented or socialized medicine has been tried. Science does not flower in a political climate. The case for government health insurance is without a sound foundation. Through the voluntary prepayment plans, millions of people are financially prepared for illness should it come and millions more have this protection available if they wish it. The problem of caring for the fraction of the population which is actually indigent can be handled without creating another bureaucracy, and without taxing us billions a year to pay the cost. Nothing is ever "free" about government medicine—it is always excessively costly, as well as inefficient. The bill which is now being urged would be no exception to that rule.

The taxing powers of the Federal government and the so-called economic powers of organized labor are both used beyond their justifiable limits to exact too great a toll from operation of the properties, and thus fritter away large sums which would otherwise be utilized more judiciously in the economy."—Fred G. Gurley, Pres., Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway.

GOOD NEWS—BUT!

We have scored a small, but encouraging, victory in the endless war against fire. Loss for the first six months of the year, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, was almost 10 per cent under the total for the same period in 1948.

That is good news. Every fire that is prevented means that the nation saves jobs, materials, resources and other tangible and intangible assets that would otherwise be lost. And, far more important still, it means a saving in lives and injuries.

However, we have only begun to do the job. Despite the decline, the waste for the first half of this year was nearly $350,000,000. The indirect waste—which cannot be measured in terms of money—is estimated to greatly exceed that figure. All in all, values of one kind or another totalling an inestimable amount went up in smoke during that brief span of time.

Why did this waste occur? People were careless—they took chances with smoking materials, heating plants, and other hazards, and they lost. Committees failed to provide adequate fire protection. Businessmen didn't trouble to educate their employees in the simple technique that will prevent most fire before they start. So it goes, down the sorry list of failures.

Let's really go after fire—and beat it to the punch.

A BEE'S LIFE

Total government looks upon people in the same manner a beekeeper looks upon his bees. The people and the bees must produce for the hives in order to earn a living, of a sort, and a "hive" for shelter. But the government and the keeper get the honey.

The reason people do not thrive upon the beekeeper plan is because they are individuals. They demand more than the privilege of producing for political overlords, at the expense of their profit and freedom.

Many revolutions and civil wars have occurred over resentment at dictatorial government acting as a keeper of the people's honey.

Eventually men will balk at a government that plays the part of the beekeeper?

Opportunity doesn't knock these days; it rings the phone and asks a silly question.—Sunshine Magazine.

Patricia Krause and Jack Coffman Wed In Ceremony Held At Graham

Miss Patricia Krause became the bride of Jack Aubrey Coffman of Goree in a formal twilight ceremony Tuesday evening, July 26, at the First Presbyterian church in Graham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Krause, 1122 Fourth street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orb Coffman of Goree.

Rev. Robert F. Jones of Fort Worth read the double ring ceremony before an altar of triple candelabra twined with greenery.

The church was decorated with marconia daisies, gladioli, and stock arrangements against a background of twined greenery along the altar rail. Pew ends were accented with ivy, stock, and white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Will Gruby was organist. Miss Gillie Ann Thornton soloist, sang "Yours Is My Heart Alone" and "At Dawning."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white lace and marquisette. The bodice was of lace with a round neck and petal-point sleeves. The full skirt extended into a formal-length train. Around her neck she wore a single strand of pearls, that was a gift of the bridegroom. An illusion veil fell from a lace cap trimmed with seed pearls and satin. She carried an old-fashioned round bouquet of baby breath centered with tuber roses, lilies of the valley, and white satin shower streamers.

Miss Frances Morrison, maid of honor, wore a dress of white patterned marquisette over white taffeta with a taffeta girdle. The bodice had a rounded high neck collar and self covered button down the front. # Wonderful New Comfort

The Beautiful Chrysler | Silver Anniversary Model

New Convenience! Easiest car ever made to get into and out of. Women enter and leave with dignity. Common sense engineering of wider doorways, and natural step-in entrances make it seem absurd ever to have to wrestle your way in and out of a car.

New Yorker 4-door sedan with PRESTOMATIC FLUID DRIVE* TRANSMISSION—drive without shifting

New Wider Chair-Height Seats! We don't fold you up like a "jackknife." You sit comfortably in seats the height of your easy chairs at home. We've more headroom, legroom, and shoulder room for you. And no other car has ever been so completely engineered from the fundamentals up for your comfort, your convenience, your peace of mind.

New Easier Steering! In one of the great advances since the war, we give you new "center control" steering. For the first time, tie rods of equal length give you balanced control. There's no wheel light. There's greater road stability, easier handling, less road shock. Yes, and greater safety, too—for everything about this car is designed for safer driving.

New Smoother Driving! Chrysler's mighty Spitfire engine now has still higher compression for faster acceleration, smoother response. And along with its better all-around performance goes an amazing new Waterproof Ignition System that's exclusive with Chrysler. You can drive through high water but it won't stall. You get quicker starting, even in dampest weather, smoother idling, longer life.

AMERICA AT PLAY

VACATION! They've picked time and place, and they've planned and saved for months.

That's the American way—the way of free choice—so familiar we take it for granted. A man picks his job, leaves it freely for a better one. He chooses the town he'll work in, the house where he'll live. He saves or spends as he wishes.

It's not that way everywhere. In some countries, the government puts a man in a city, a house, a job, with no choice in the matter. He can't quit, leave town or move around the corner without permission. If he gets a vacation, he is told where and when to go. The government runs everything, the people nothing. That's what happens when a free people turn over their responsibilities to their government. They also turn over their freedom of choice. Socialism is the result. How does Socialism happen? Not overnight. It is woven slowly, a thread at a time, into the bonds of slavery. Little by little the government assumes powers other than governing—until it finally assumes all power.

You, here in West Texas, would be astounded by the various ways and means that some formerly good statesmen in Washington have been politically jockeyed and pressured into succumbing in many instances to the Socialistic planners that have infected our government and good old-line political parties.

Through acquiescence against the better judgment of some of our statesmen, our Federal government has already embarked on political, bureaucratic duplications and the taking over of private businesses with your tax funds.

This is true not only in our industry in some eastern locations, but the bureaucrats are now openly aiming at banks, insurance, steel, railroads, mines, forests and many other private businesses that have so helped this country to grow, produce and prosper. This is how Socialism got its political wedge and hold in such non-producing countries as England is today and it is why such countries are not producing but are leaning on us.

Talk to your friends and neighbors; see how they feel about this Socialism and other political "isms" in Washington that are threatening your American way of life, decreasing your liberties and increasing your taxation.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30, 1949—Three years ago Congress passed a Reorganization Act. Among other things, this act provided that Congress should adjourn by the end of July "except when the country is at war . . .". Yesterday the Speaker of the House held that we were still technically at war and that such an adjournment was not required by law. Apparently this session will drag on for at least another month. The House is up with calendar of legislation that had to be enacted, that is, appropriation bills. The Senate, however, is far behind. The House cannot complete action on measures passed by it until the Senate has acted.

In my opinion, it would be best for Congress and for the country if matters could be brought speedily to a close and Congress adjourn. It has always been my contention that a Congressman should spend not less than three months out of every year in his District. This, of course, is impossible unless Congress has adjourned for at least that length of time.

I have been selected as a member of a committee of nine Congressmen to go to Europe, leaving on August 27, for a six weeks study of immigration problems and of population problems principally in Germany and Italy. However, I have declined making the trip since I think it more important that I spend this time at home.

A number of us here have been urging the Department of Agriculture to announce a cottonseed program. Cottonseed has dropped from around $100 a ton a year ago to around $30 a ton in certain sections as of last week. Day before yesterday the Department of Agriculture announced they would support cottonseed so as to assure the farmer a return of not less than 90% of parity. This will amount to around $50 per ton. While very much under last year's price, this will nevertheless be of considerable help to the cotton farmers of our section.

This week I received a sheet issued by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics showing the wholesale commodity price index during major war periods. This index shows how prices rose and fell during the Napoleonic War period of 1812, the Civil War period from 1860 to 1865, the World War I period from 1914 through 1918, and the World War II period from September, 1939, through August, 1945. There is an amazing similarity in the graphs shown. The lines of inflation and deflation run almost parallel during these four war periods. However, one cannot help but wonder if the deflation line of this date will continue downward on a comparative basis with deflations following other wars. The tremendous size of our national debt, together with comparatively high wage and salary schedules, may halt the deflation cycle which would normally occur. Following the War of 1812, our national debt was only $1,488,000. In 1864 our national debt was $1,815,813,000. In 1920 our national debt was $24,299,321,000. On June 30, 1948, our national debt was $252,308,770,000.

Loading a newsletter with statistics is bad policy. However, a life insurance factbook, just reaching my desk, is filled with interesting data. Under a column entitled, "Life Insurance in the World", one notes that total life insurance throughout the world amounts to 275 billion dollars. Of this amount 202 billion dollars is in the U. S. A. Our closest competitor is England, with only around 20 billion dollars in force. In 1900 there were some 14 million policies outstanding in the U. S. A. Now there are almost 200 million such policies. In addition to those carrying life insurance in this country we have 79 million persons in 1948 who had wage credits to their account in the United States Social Security System. 50 million of them were employed during all or a part of such year in positions covered by Social Security. Life expectancy in 1900 for men was 48.2, while now it is 65.2. For women the figure was 51.1 in 1900, compared with 70.6 at this time. However, these figures are deceiving since the tremendous increase in life expectancy is due largely to the towering of infant mortality rates.

One interesting sidelight on the workings of the Marshall Plan, (ECA—Economic Cooperation Administration) is the program of "Mules for Greece." ECA has promised to deliver to the Greeks, 7500 mules. The contract has been given to a Turkish importer who lives in Greece. ECA is to pay such Turkish importer $263.50 for a mule delivered in Greece. However, the top price being offered for mules in this country on such contract is $60.00 per mule. So far, few mules have been purchased at such a price. Officials trying to buy these mules say they can't pay more, because commissions and transportation will eat up the rest of the delivery price, i. e., $263.50. Perhaps a $60 mule wouldn't be worth anything when he got to Greece anyway.

Specs And I See Eye To Eye

Asked Specs Allen to go hunting last week. Known him all my life, so I wasn't surprised when he showed up with no gun. Specs doesn't like to kill anything.

Couldn't ask for a better hunting companion, though. We tramp around the woods, and whenever the dogs flush a bird, I blaze away while Specs just watches.

Told him once I was surprised he went along . . . feeling the way he does about shooting anything. "Well, Joe," he says, "you do what you think is right and I'll stick to what I think is right. I've no call to dislike you for not seeing everything the way I see it."

From where I sit, open-mindedness is a wonderful quality. There are plenty of things Specs admires that I don't care for. Like his fondness for buttermilk. I'd rather have a glass of beer anytime . . . but Specs Allen and I don't let little differences get in the way of something big like friendship.

Local Banker Writes Plea For Baskin Dam

W. E. Braly, president of the First National Bank of Munday, and ardent supporter of the Bob Baskin dam project, has written Senator Tom Connally asking him to try to get the proposed dam on the Brazos river approved by Congress, it was revealed last week.

Braly, a director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, said the Bob Baskin Dam would provide greater benefits per dollar invested than the proposed Canadian River development program in the same general section of the state.

The Bob Baskin Dam would cost $12,800,000 and serve 25 towns and cities with a population of 45,000, Braly said, while the Canadian Dam and aqueduct project would cost $5,000,000 and serve 12 towns and cities with a population of 280,000.

Although the Canadian development program would be larger and serve more people, the Bob Baskin Dam would render greater benefits per dollar proposed to be spent, Braly added. He asked the senator to press for a re-examination of the Bob Baskin project to see if it can get favorable consideration before a congressional committee as received by the Canadian proposal.

The house public works committee recently approved a bill by Rep. Worley, Democrat, Texas, authorizing the Canadian undertaking.

The Bob Baskin dam proposal previously had been reported as uneconomical as a purely flood control project. Supporters now want it restudied to see if municipal water usages might not make it justifiable.

Later Connally received a telegram from John Couch of Haskell, president of the Bob Baskin Dam Association, who said that the Baskin Dam "on same basis of appraisal, has equal or greater potentialities both for enhancement of the general welfare and recoverable returns to the government, than the Canadian dam."

While Connally was transmitting these communications to Interior Department officials, Worley and Rep. Mahon, Democrat, Texas, continued their efforts to obtain enactment of the Canadian River development bill. Late in the day they met with officials, seeking speedy submission of a Budget Bureau report on the project to congress.

BOYCE HOUSE

David Seabury once visited in Fort Worth. At that time, he had two books on the best seller list simultaneously, an almost unheard of achievement. One was "How To Work Successfully"; I've forgotten the title of the other. Seabury had the knack of applying psychology to everyday problems in language which a non-technical mind could understand.

The reporter assigned to interview him said, "Mr. Seabury, I'd like to write—books, I mean; but I seem to be making no headway."

The celebrity said, "You are living, aren't you?" When the reporter conceded that he was, Seabury made this point, "Every person met, everything which an individual experiences or sees can be grist for the man or woman who wants to write."

To show how the mind of a psychologist works, Seabury said, "Look around the room and name any object and I'll tell you what it suggests." The reporter said, "Chair." Seabury closed his eyes and said, "I can take one particular chair. It is in the Vatican. No one but the Pope has ever sat in that chair—except one man and that was I. The chair was on a little platform and had a gold rope around it and there was a guard nearby. I climbed under the rope and sat in the chair. Of course, it was just a moment because the guard, after recovering from his astonishment, rushed over."

Then becoming more serious, Seabury said:

"Chair: It is conducive to thought—sitting in a chair is. Standing is too uncomfortable and if one lays down, he soon goes to sleep but a chair is just right. Not until the chair was invented or devised, did human thought really begin."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Henslee and daughter of Arkansas are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Layne Womble and other relatives for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jot Tynes and children of Big Spring came in Wednesday to spend several days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowley and other relatives. Mrs. J. O. Tynes, who has been visiting in the Jot Tynes home, accompanied them to Munday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jungman and children, Ida Jo and Mike, of Vernon visited with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Michels and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jungman last Sunday.

from the County Agricultural Conservation Committee

Wheat Growers Urged to Cooperate With Allotments
Marketing quotas on future wheat crops will largely be determined by wheat growers, B. F. Vance, chairman of the State Production and Marketing Administration Committee, said today.

"If growers this year plant within their wheat average allotments, they will produce in accordance with expected requirements and we won't be saddled with more wheat than we can sell. In this way, it wouldn't be necessary next year to consider using quotas, which provide marketing controls through penalties on excess marketings."

Mr. Vance pointed out that quotas must be approved by two-thirds of the growers voting in a referendum before they may be used.

Quotas will not be used in marketing the 1950 wheat crop, according to a recent announcement by the Secretary of Agriculture, because the total indicated wheat supply is below the level at which the law says quotas must be proclaimed. At the same time, the Secretary announced a 1950 national wheat acreage allotment of just under 69 million acres. This would be a reduction of 14 million acres, or almost 17 per cent, below the wheat acreage seeded for harvest this year.

The cut in acreage is necessary this year, Mr. Vance explained, because the U. S. has reached the point where there simply is not a demand for all the wheat our farmers can produce. Even though exports may total several times the prewar level, adjustments are still needed in the amount of wheat produced. During each of the past 6 years, wheat production has exceeded a billion bushels. Before 1944 only in 1915 had the U. S. produced a billion-bushel crop. Farmers will be notified of their individual wheat allotments in the near future. Mr. Vance said that an important point to remember is that only those growers who cooperate with their allotments will be entitled to Government price supports on their 1950 wheat crop.

Price Supports to Be Based on Wheat Allotments
Farmers were put on notice today that compliance with wheat acreage allotments will be necessary if they want the protection of Government price supports on their 1950 wheat crops.

According to Emmett Partridge, chairman of the County Agricultural Conservation Committee, an "eligible" producer for price support on the 1950 wheat crop generally will be "any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other legal entity that has an interest as landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper in a farm on which the acreage planted to wheat for harvest in 1950 is not in excess of the farm acreage allotment."

If such a producer has an interest in more than one farm in a county, he will be eligible for wheat price supports if the total of his share of the 1950 wheat acreage seeded for harvest on all of the farms does not exceed his total share of the wheat allotments or "permitted" acreages.

If the producer has an interest in farms in more than one county or State, he would not be eligible for wheat price supports if the total of his share of the 1950 wheat acreage seeded for harvest on all of the farms exceeds his total share of such allotments or permitted acreages, regardless of where such farms are situated.

ation out here, and probably not with some of you fellows in town.

Last March, with Johnson grass just beginning to come through with a promise of a bumper crop, I bought three Jersey steers for 19 cents a pound. All spring and summer they been doin fine, gained weight and fillin out, but I checked up yesterday and found out that the price of Jersey steers is now down to 14c, and the way I figure it is if my steers can gain fifteen pounds apiece before my grass plays out I can just about get back what I paid for 'em, whereas I had counted on doubling my money.

As I say, I don't like to dispute a banker, but there ain't nothin beneficial or orderly in a price drop like that, as far as I'm concerned. It already had the money and the profit to spend, even promised my wife a new churn, but the way it looks now I spent the whole spring and summer worryin with them steers for nothin. This may help the national economy but it sure played thunder with mine.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

And that doesn't have anything to do with our birthday either.

So we've started out on our forty-fifth year, and we hope to close it out in about fifty weeks from this week since this is the second week on Volume 45.

We did enjoy our forty-fourth year, too. We enjoyed printing the news and ads, receiving your subscriptions, and associating with you in many ways.

We tried to share your joys and your sorrows, your good fortunes and your misfortunes with you.

We've seen some of you in the happiness of marriage; others happy in the arrival of that first bundle from heaven; others in the deep sorrow of death.

We've laughed with you in your happiness. We've wept with you in your sorrow. We expect to keep on doing so in the forty-fifth year of this paper.

With your friendship and good will—and your subscription money—we expect to be reasonably happy in so doing.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—Among a certain and extensive group of self-centered persons symptom hunting unfortunately is rather popular. Because of a too detailed study of so-called health literature of the alarmist type or on account of a recent death in the family, introspection develops to a morbid degree. The result is an entirely unfounded fear of all sorts of disease possibilities. Many becoming victims of this warped psychology develop brain and nerve exhaustion and in extreme cases even become affected mentally, stated Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Of course, it is entirely proper to have a normal regard for personal well-being. To maintain vitality and to prevent disease is a logical pursuit for every one. But it most decidedly must be kept within reasonable bounds. When one becomes obsessed with the subject, concern for health has overstepped the limits.

For all practical purposes, after giving reasonable attention to diet, personal sanitation, sleep and exercise, and assuming that one's bodily limitations as defined by the family physician are appreciated, the average person can dismiss the subject of health. This, plus the annual physical examination should adequately cover the situation.

On the other hand, conditions are bound to arise where actual disease symptoms manifest
