Often quoted quote: "We need a rain!"

What's the topic of conversation uptown? Rain? This was asked by one of our down-the-highway customers Tuesday.

"That's what they are talking about down here, too," he says.

Then we goes on to discuss: if it don't rain, so-and-so, and if it does rain, etc.

Business is slack, and if it don't rain it's going to be slack-er.

I know it's going to rain, but I don't know when.

A dry Easter means a dry year!

It'll rain in time to make a cotton crop, some kind of a crop. It always has!

Some farmers will make some plumb good wheat, if it rains pretty soon.

The boys have made good wheat crops for several years. They are kinda able to take a light one this year.

Noticed in the papers where Easter business this year topped 1949 by a big figure. Been better if it had rained.

Want to say something in the paper about water. You know, the kind of water that falls out of the sky, gives the ground a good soaking, gives life and vigor to the roots of those thirsty plants, makes mudholes in the roadways, etc.

First time I can remember it didn't rain at Easter.

If it'd rain, you never in your life have seen as many tractors in action at one time as you'll see in Knox County.

They're all ready for rain. Ground plowed. Tractors in shape, all tires aired up. All they need is a rain.

Two things I want to mention in the paper this week—things that Knox County needs. One is rain, the other is an oil well!

Hunted up that old grain bin and I ran last year. If it rains I'll want to run it again. If it don't, won't be any use to run it.

No use to set out those tomato plants until it rains. You know they won't do nay good in this wind. Just as well come on and go fishing with me.

This time last year our golf course was just as green as could be. We sure need a rain on our fairways.

Won't do much good to water anything unless it rains pretty soon. Sprinkling with this Munday water just don't do as much good as a good rain.

If you haven't ordered a rain, better do so right away. Or was it back ordered on you, like a lot of other things?

There goes an optimist, or something, he said, pointing to a fellow driving a car, pulling a trailer all covered over with a tarp. On the side of the trailer was a combine sickle.

Maybe a rain would stop some of this sand.

Well, friends, those are some of the remarks we're picked up here, there and yonder.

It seems that everybody wants a rain—or an oil well. We're pulling for both!

Prospects for oil are better than for rain, right at this period of writing. They're digging for the oil like they know where it is. Nobody knows where the rain has gone.

Our opinion is that we'll still need that drainage ditch south of town that runs on out to Lake

Grade and staple was 1 strict middling 1", 5 middling 31/32, 7 middling 15/16, and 3 strict low middling 29/32. This earned him a net return of $1636.49. He also raised two acres of corn which averaged 29 bushels per acre. ## Methodist Church Contract Signed; Ground Breaking Set For Sunday

Horse, Colt Show Booster Caravan Is Here On Tuesday

The quietness of a Tuesday afternoon was interrupted by the sound of sirens and blasts of auto horns. They barged in to town from the south, set up shop on our main street, started their music and singing and whooping and dancing. It lasted some ten or fifteen minutes. The visitors were members of the booster caravan advertising the Seventh Annual Horse and Colt Show at Paducah, which is coming off on Friday and Saturday. The program consisted of two numbers by a lovely soloist, two lovely square dance numbers, some talk over the loud speaker about the show, with a welcome to Munday folks, and the passing out of literature, both show stuff and political.

Then the highway patrol car led them out of town, amid much noise, and Munday settled down to the quietness of a Tuesday afternoon.

OUR NEEDS FOR 1950

1. Completion of our portion of the Throckmorton road, giving the farmers of that area an all-weather outlet.
2. A farm-to-market road to the north and east of Munday, possibly connecting with the Hefner road.
3. A U. S. Federal building. Munday needs a new post office home.
4. More homes in Munday. We did a good job in 1949, but there's still a housing shortage.
5. A new telephone system, giving the town adequate telephone service and tapping the rural area surrounding the town.
6. Greater cooperation of business man, farmer, and citizen toward long-range development for our community.

GRASS BECOMES HUMAN FOOD

Something like one-half the total land area of the nation—nearly one billion acres—is in range land and pasture. Most of these would be almost entirely unproductive if it were not for livestock growing. The meat animals consume the grass which the range lands produce, and so, through the alchemy of nature, this otherwise useless grass becomes steaks and chops and roasts and the rest of the meats we buy.

Here is a particularly striking example of the livestock industry's contribution to the country. And, in addition, the animals consume approximately 85 percent of all our grain crops. Millions of tons of commercial by-products, such as sugar-beet pulp and oil-seed cake go to them.

The point is that livestock growing helps the whole nation by converting products, that would otherwise go to waste, into food for people, by restoration of the soil and in various other ways. Finally, when meat animals are processed in the packing houses, they provide a long list of valuable by-products, made of horns and hoofs and hair and other inedible commodities, in addition to the meat.

Looking at the matter from the viewpoint of farmer or rancher, meat animals constitute agriculture's largest single source of cash income. The market is always there, day in and day out, ready to pay the going price. The livestock industry benefits everyone.

THREE FEET OF SPACE

The president of a retail association whose membership includes stores in all parts of this country and Canada recently said that the three ft. of space between the customer in front of the store counter and the retail clerk behind is the most important space in the country today. The maximum sale of consumers' goods, he added, is necessary to full employment.

This is a fundamental economic fact. The greater part of the personal incomes of the American people are spent in stores, for food, clothing, drug products, furniture, and a thousand and one other commodities. When retail sales fall to a seriously low point, we've got a depression on our hands.

The spokesman for the association also urged that retailers increase their merchandising efficiency, and develop better advertising and promotion programs, more attractive displays, and other such business-making activities. American retailing has made remarkable progress in all such directions in the past, and it can be trusted to make much more in the future, simply as a matter of good business. It can also be trusted, under our competitive system, to give the consumer the best possible buy for his money. It's very life depends on that.

Turning over a leaf too often may make you lose your place completely.

WHO'S CLEANING UP?

How would you like to own a company which took in nearly $134,500,000 last year? It would be a wonderful thing, of course, but the chances are that you, as owner, wouldn't get nearly as large a part of that sum as you think.

Here, for instance, is how a major utility company, with that much gross revenue in 1949, fared when it came to dividing up the money.

Of each dollar, labor received the largest share in the form of payrolls and pensions—29 cents. Fuel cost 22.5 cents out of that dollar, and materials and supplies ran to 12.7 cents.

Next came government, with a tax bill for 14.1 cents.

Depreciation—which means wear and tear on equipment that must eventually be replaced—accounted for 6.8 cents.

Finally, the stockholders came in for 6.4 cents in dividends, and interest on debt required 4.3 cents. The remainder of the dollar, a trifle more than four cents, was left in the business or spent for miscellaneous expenses.

Under the American system, the worker and the government receive much more than the owners. In the case of this particular utility, government took practically twice as much as the stockholders, and workers not far from five times as much. And a large part of the money the stockholders received also went to the government in the form of individual income taxes. It doesn't look as if the "capitalists" are exactly cleaning up!

The Federal government is spending more this year than the combined wages of a million manufacturing workers for twenty years.—Anon.

Churches Plan To Strengthen Work In Japan

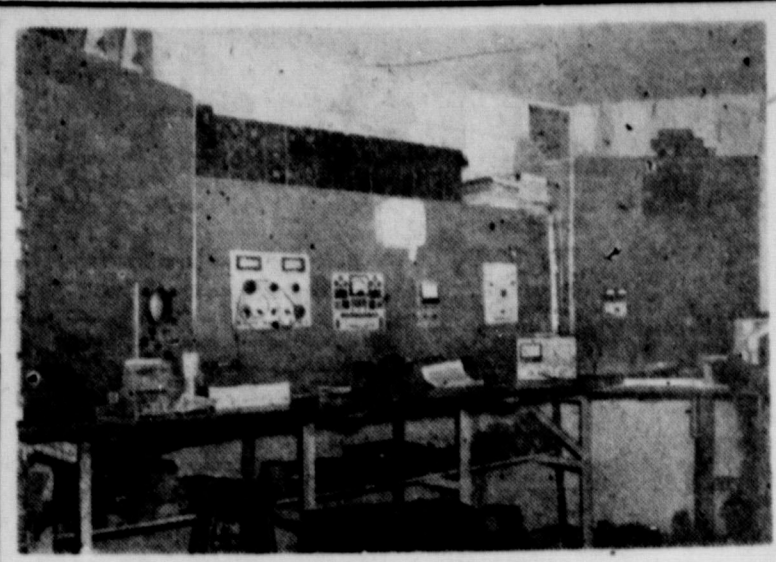

Methodists of the Northwest Texas conference are now contributing to projects which will within the next three years greatly strengthen the work of the Church of Christ in Japan and expand the Methodist program among the Spanish speaking people of Texas and New Mexico.

This missionary effort by the Northwest Texas conference is a part of an "Advance for Christ and His Church" in which all American Methodism is taking part and for which funds are being raised by voluntary gifts in all churches. Announcement of the program has been made by Bishop William C. Martin, of Dallas, head of the Northwest Texas conference and also chairman of Methodism's churchwide "Advance for Christ and His Church." Projects to which Northwest Texas Methodists are contributing are described in a colorful, illustrated booklet which has been distributed to church members.

Recognizing the great need for additional missionaries in Japan Northwest Texas Methodists are assuming the annual support of four missionary couples at a cost of $3,600 per couple. Transportation, visual-aid equipment, and operational funds are also being provided these couples.

Two missionary homes are to be built and furnished at a cost of $10,000 and a rural center costing $25,000 is to be constructed. Christian literature and 25 tons of paper for the printing of Bibles is also to be provided.

The Wesley Foundation serving students of the University of Tokyo is to be rebuilt and operated and 40 scholarships for the theological and other Christian students will be provided. The Chinzai Gakuin Boy's School in Nagasaki is to be rebuilt at a cost of $50,000 and several Japanese ministers are to be supported.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
 M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—A highly placed state official has given Texas newspapers a pat on the back.

State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox, veteran of more than 13 years as head of the State Department of Health, called the Texas press a "more potent force in mass public education," and said his department invariably turned in that direction as the first means of reaching the people with information on health subjects.

"Texas newspaper editors and reporters have consistently shown an awareness of public health problems and have given unstintingly of much valuable space to stories relating to public health," Cox said.

"I can define public health in three words—mass public education."

eral Japanese ministers are to be supported.

To aid in the building of new churches in the Rio Grande conference of The Methodist Church, composed of Spanish speaking Methodists in Texas and New Mexico, Northwest Texas Methodists plan to contribute $6,750 per year.

Expansion of the conference youth camp is also planned and $65,000 is to be spent on the improvement of its facilities.

In addition to these projects, Methodists of the Northwest Texas Conference will continue to support the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief to meet the physical need of war-torn families in Asia and Europe, aiding displaced persons to be brought from Europe for resettlement in America, and supplying food, medicine and clothing to millions of needy everywhere.

ation," the health official said. "Without newspaper cooperation, such an education is literally an unobtainable ideal."

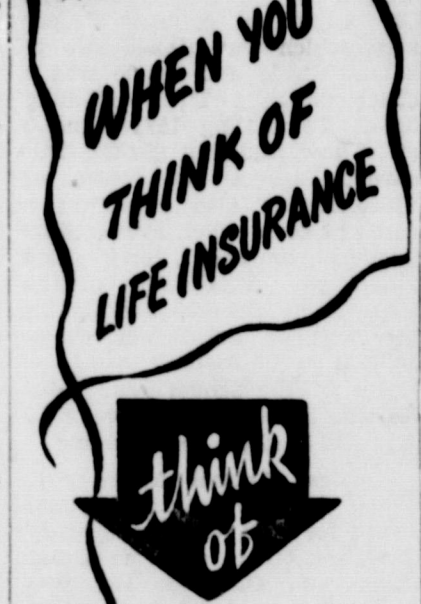

Pointing out the custom of rural people to read their local weekly or semi-weekly through-out, Cox said he was especially happy that these papers used state and local health department releases."

"It's one of the most valuable services a paper can render its readership, but then I'm a bit prejudiced," he observed.

Radio is an especially valuable outlet for information relating to general diseases, Cox indicated, because of the availability of professionally prepared recordings on the subject. More than 100 Texas stations have used the recordings during the past year.

On the same theme, Dr. Cox said well over 600,000 persons have seen the Department produced motion picture short subject "What's the Disease?" in prepared.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Wants An Insurance Policy To Protect All The People Who Don't Own A Mule

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek won't get anywhere with the insurance idea he advocates in his letter this week, but you can't blame him for trying.

Dear editor:
With Spring comin on pretty fast now, I was out in my pasture the other afternoon wonderin why the experts don't invent a stalk of corn or cotton or wheat or rice as self-reliant as say a pecan tree, one that would last a man a life-time come out every spring without havin to be planted, don't require any cultivatin, ain't affected much by weeds, don't create no erosion problem, ain't subject to acreage control... why there ain't no way to calculate how much time man has consumed since the dawn of history nursin a crop drin the spring and summer he's gonna have to plow up in the fall, although I guess if the problem was eliminated it'd throw a lot of tractor salesmen and dealers out of work and bring on another government relief program, although understand I ain't opposed to government relief and believe I'd heap rather sit in the shade and watch my crops come out like pecan trees than to go up one row and down another all spring and summer just to keep the tractor salesmen from goin hungry. They must have done something before we had tractors.

But what I started out to say was that I been readin about that Texas farmer who got sued because somebody else's mule got

Plan For Range Deferment Now

Pasture plants need a rest period to regain their vigor and to allow them to produce a seed crop. Now is the time to make plans for carrying out deferred grazing practices for this year, says A. H. Walker, extension range specialist of Texas A. & M. College.

The length of the deferment may vary from two to six months or longer depending on the rainfall, condition of the range and the kinds of grasses in the pasture. In areas of high rainfall where grasses get coarse and lose their nutrients upon maturity, a spring rest for vigor and a fall rest for seed production is best, says Walker. In north and west Texas where grasses cure well, a six months rest from May to November may be advisable.

He points out that many ranchers were surprised at the amount of grass that came back on their deferred pastures. Excellent moisture and good growing condition last year were contributing factors and many ranchmen found tall growing grasses in their deferred pastures that they had never seen before. The explanation, says Walker, the grasses never had a chance to grow up before heavy grazing got them.

More operators, he adds, are finding that there is a dollars and cents angle tied in with the deferred grazing practice and cites as an example the case of Mason county ranchman, Elwood Kothmann. Kothmann, he says, has rested one pasture for three years during the growing season from May to November and has grazed it during the winter months. Last year this pasture produced 41 pounds of beef per acre on an annual basis and did it in just six months of grazing and Walker adds the grass is early waist high.

Walker suggests that you make plans to defer at least one pasture on the ranch this year. He says demonstrators have proved that deferred grazing is also a very effective aid in

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Gabby Enjoys Going to The Dentist

One of my molars was giving me a bad time Tuesday afternoon, so I slipped over to Doc Jones, hoping to catch him free. When I arrived, Gabby Jackson was sitting there reading a magazine. I said hello to Gabby and he nodded.

Doc comes out and says I'm next. "Wait a minute," I says. (My tooth seemed to have stopped aching.) "How about Gabby—doesn't he have an appointment?" Doc smiles and says, "Gabby? Why, he's got the finest teeth in the county. He just comes up here and reads the magazines whenever he's in town!"

As Doc went to work he told me that he's glad to have Gabby come up and read magazines... they might not all be fresh off the newsstand, but if Gabby—or anyone wants to while away some time who is he to stand in their way? From where I sit, this "live and let live" spirit helps make America what it is. If I prefer a friendly glass of beer with my supper and you prefer milk—who's to say one's right and the other wrong?

Betty Jean Jones and Robert Russell Marry On Saturday

Miss Betty Jean Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Jones of Goree, became the bride of Robert Eugene Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Russell of Munday Saturday evening, April 8th, at 7:30 in the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Hampton of Goree.

Rev. S. E. Stevenson, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Goree, performed the double ring ceremony most impressively while the couple stood before an improvised altar of green and white with baskets of bridal wreath and Easter lilies flanked with branched candelabras, holding lighted tapers.

Mrs. W. M. Taylor played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Dwayne Russell of Wichita Falls, soloist, who sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Always". Candlelighters were Ross Lee Jones and Dana Bartos.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of navy blue gabardine with postal pink chiffon and lace blouse. The bridal corsage was fashioned of delicate pink carnations to match the blouse and dainty flowers on the half halo hat. For something old and borrowed, she carried a white bible topped with iris linen lace handkerchief. She also wore the traditional penny in her shoe.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Nelda Joy Jones, who was dressed in aqua with matching half halo hat. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Dwayne Russell, of Wichita Falls.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Hampton home. The table laid with a lace and cutwork cloth was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom. Mrs. T. J. Partridge of Munday served the cake. Presiding at the crystal punch bowl at one extremity of the table was Mrs. Robert Worley of Seymour. At the other end of the table was a crystal bowl of blue bonnets and iris. Others assisting in the duties of serving were Miss Jolene Hendrix of Lubbock; Mrs. Kenneth Phillips, Mrs. S. G. Hampton and Mrs. William Bartos of Bomarton.

Mrs. Dalton Jones of Seymour presided at the register, securing names for the guest book.

Following the reception, the couple departed for a short wed-

The Goree P.-T. A. met Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 in the high school auditorium for the annual style show by the home-making girls of Goree High School, with Mrs. Weldon Smith, teacher, in charge.

Each year Barton Carl, local dry goods man, gives cash prizes to the three first places in the three classes. Several choral numbers were given by the eighth grade choral girls preceding the style show.

The dresses previously being judged chiefly on workmanship by numbers of the girls, were modeled in this show on a beautifully decorated stage to the rhythm of music.

For the first year girls, Geraldine Lambeth won first place, Pauline Searcey, second place, and Mary Tucker, third place. The second year girls, Alpha Ann Coffman won first place; Jenny Howard, second place; and Doris Shackelford, third; and for the third year girls, Paula Kelley won first; Jennie Mae Rawlins, second; and Wilma Lane, third place.

Judges were Mrs. Elizabeth Cowser, Mrs. S. G. Hampton and Mrs. Mason Harlin. During a business session following the style show, with Mrs. Leslie Treat, president, of P.T. A., presiding, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, Mrs. Elkin Warren; first vice-president, Mrs. Homer Lambeth; secretary, Mrs. Buster Coffman; treasurer, Mrs. Clyde Taylor.

Baptist Circle Meets On Monday With Mrs. Reeves

Women of the First Baptist Church met Monday at 3 P. M. in the home of Mrs. W. H. Reeves for the regular Jewel Smith Circle business devotional and circle program. Mrs. Don Reynolds, chairman, presided.

Opening song, "Make a Channel of Blessings", was led by Mrs. Don Reynolds with piano accompaniment provided by Mrs. Sidney Winchester.

Mrs. Wallace Reid voiced the opening prayer and the devotional scripture found in the book of Matthew was presented by Mrs. Andy Hutchinson. This was given on "Christ Is Counting On Me."

The program was given by Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Hutchinson. During the business, special plans were made to visit members who are shut-ins and to send clothing to the Mexican orphan home.

To complete the program, Mrs. M. H. Reeves told of some of the experiences of missionaring trip before establishing a home in Munday.

Both bride and groom are well known in Goree and Munday. Mrs. Russell attended school in Goree, graduating with the class of 1947. The groom attended Sunset and Munday schools.

Approximately 40 relatives and close friends were present.

Arm To Fight The Boll Weevil, Farmers Urged

Order insecticides early, the National Cotton Council urged cotton farmers today.

The Council warned that the 1950 cotton crop is threatened with a devastating onslaught by the boll weevil and other cotton insects. Officials emphasize that preparedness is an absolute necessity for effective cotton pest control.

Poisons Are Insurance
Farmers should have on hand enough insecticides for at least one poisoning and preferably two. These poisons, the Council pointed out, are good insurance against damage such as occurred last year when cotton pest losses amounted to more than 470 million dollars.

Early ordering allows insecticide manufacturers and dealers sufficient time to set up distribution schedules which will provide farmers with insect poisons at the time they are needed most.

spread last season even in areas where these pests seldom occur. Large numbers of weevils went into hibernation. Because of an unusually mild winter the percentage of surviving weevils was high. It appears likely, therefore, that a record number of these pests will come out of hibernation to attack the 1950 cotton crop, the Council said.

Recommendations on cotton insect control have been issued for each major cotton producing state and may be obtained from county agents and other agricultural leaders.

Spring cleaning tips: Cheese-cloth and other lintless cotton cloths are useful for washing windows, mirrors, woodwork, bath and kitchen equipment, and other household furnishings. Old dish towels or cotton napkins are excellent for scouring and polishing metals.

New Provisions In Cotton Law

New cotton legislation recently passed by Congress provides for minimum 1950 cotton allotments based on one of three provisions. J. C. McGee, chairman of the county PMA committee, said today. The revised allotments are based on the larger of (1) 65 percent of the acreage planted to cotton (or devoted to war crops in place of cotton) in 1946, 1947, and 1948; (2) 45 percent of the highest acreage planted to cotton on the farm during any one of the three years; but (3) not more than 40 percent of the 1949 acreage which was tilled on the farm or in regular rotation.

Any owner or operator of a cotton farm in Knox County who believes he is entitled to an acreage and wants to be considered by the county committee for possible allotment adjustment under the legislation must file an application not later than April 28, 1950.

"We urge owners or operators who want their farms considered for revised allotments to file applications by this date," McGee said. "Farmers who

Poultry Protection Pointer

Added protection for the poultry flock now may be obtained through the use of improved building materials. The walls of this laying house, for example, have been lined with asbestos-cement flat sheets. These easily-applied sheets keep out rats and other rodents. They're peck-proof and fire resistant as well. Ease of cleaning helps promote sanitation and ward off poultry diseases.

are satisfied with their present allotments need not file applications. However, those desiring increases will be considered by the county committee after applications for such increases are filed in the county office.

Each operator of a farm for which an application is filed will receive a notice from the county committee of the revised 1950 cotton acreage allotment. When the new allotment notice is mailed it will replace any previous 1950 allotment notice already received by the farm operator.

Applications may be obtained from the county PMA office.

Sewing Tools Important As Time Savers

From needles and pins to the sewing machine, the right sewing tools are important for time saving and fine workmanship, says Margaret Smith, clothing specialist for the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture. As yardgood counters blossom with summer fabrics, home sewers will welcome some of her suggestions.

Miss Smith recommends crewel needles, especially if you have trouble threading them. The eyes are larger and the needle itself is slender. Size 10 needles are best for fine sewing and most light summer fabrics.

Dressmaker pins, size 16 are the slim kind that do not make holes in materials. Be sure pins are clean. If they're rusty or dirty, better discard them and buy new ones, the specialist counsels.

A seam side for the sewing machine is more help than most women realize. It's a small attachment that screws in place beside the needle and keeps seams an even distance from the edge. For good sewing, it's really a "must," she declares.

A couple of new items from notion counters will appeal to many home sewers. One is a folding cutting board which provides a spacious flat surface for pattern cutting and protects table tops. The board is not an expensive buy and it folds con-

A variation on the pork-apple combination will be welcomed by economical cooks who serve this inexpensive meat frequently. For Pork Patties mix together 1 1/2 lbs. lean pork, 1 cup evaporated milk, 3/4 cup rolled oats, 3/4 tsp. powdered sage, 2 tps. salt, 3/4 tsp. pepper. Put into greased cups, bake in slow gas oven (325°F) 45 mins. or until brown. Meanwhile, remove cores from 2 medium-sized apples. Cut each crosswise into three rings. Dip both sides of sliced apples into 3 tps. sugar. Brown in 1/4 cup shortening. Remove pork from cups and top each piece with apple rings. Fill center of apple slices with jelly. We suggest 6 tps. sharp jelly. Serves 6.

Egg yolks stored in your gas refrigerator keep moist when covered with oil, milk or water.

If you have a hollower in your gas oven, sprinkle salt over it to prevent smoke and odor. Allow the oven to cool, clean up immediately.

Sausage companion: Sprinkle toasted buttered enriched bread with grated orange rind and sugar. Put in broiler 4" from flame. Broil until sugar bubbles.

Three miles of laundry (16,000 ft.) are hung on lines each year by the average homemaker. An automatic gas clothes dryer saves all the lifting, pinning up and weather worry.

veniently for storing.

Dressmakers' carbon paper along with colored chalk pencil is handy for making notches and darts. With the carbon laid face up underneath, two matching pieces of fabrics can be marked at the same time. Miss Smith prefers the pencil to cutting notches with scissors. Cutting notches outward is a nuisance. And notches cut into the edge reduces the seam allowance.

Two rulers—transparent ones if possible—are helpful sewing aids. A six-inch ruler is good for measuring hems and making corners accurate. An 18-inch ruler or a yardstick is handy for laying patterns on the straight of the material.

It was in the summer of 1856 that the Reliance glided into the port of Indianola, then a striving city on the Gulf coast of Texas. That night a fire broke out aboard the ship and it was destroyed, the bell going down with the charred hulk.

tained permission from the ship's owners to try to salvage the bell, which was done, and it was placed in the steeple of the Lutheran Church.

In 1864, three Union gunboats bombarded Indianola and captured the city. Supplies were seized and soldiers climbed into the belfry and tossed the bell to the ground. Then it was carried to the beach to be shipped north to be made into bullets.

But, that night, members of the congregation, after obtaining permission from their pastor, slipped down to the beach, loaded the bell on a wheelbarrow, pushed it to a wagon and, after a journey, it was buried under the sand.

A terrible storm swept down on Indianola in 1875 and, when a second disaster struck in 1886, the survivors decided to move inland and Indianola was abandoned. Many went to Cuero and when the Lutheran congregation built a church and it was found there was not enough money with which to buy a bell, George Wasserman told of helping to bury the bell 25 years before and offered to act as guide in its recovery. He led a party to the spot and the bell was dug up, and found to be only slightly tarnished.

It was placed in the steeple of St. Mark's Church, where it remained until 1894 when a member presented the church with a larger bell and the old one was used by the Cuero volunteer fire department. New equipment was installed in 1913 and the bell was consigned to the scrap pile.

Here it was discovered, some years later, by Joe Pannen, a member of the congregation. At his suggestion it was returned to the church as a gift and the old bell now hangs in the steeple of the handsome Saint Mark's Lutheran Church.

Dee Mullican returned last Sunday from Ohio where he had been attending to business matters.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—Our House Committee on Immigration reports out hundreds of private bills each session. These bills are to adjust immigration matters that cannot be justified under existing laws. This week, we had a most interesting case; that of Mrs. Ellen Knauff. Mrs. Knauff was born in Germany. In 1934 she married a Czech and moved to Czechoslovakia. In 1936 she divorced the Czech and went to work for a leather goods firm in Czechoslovakia. In 1938, after Hitler's invasion of Czechoslovakia, she escaped to England, along with her employers, with Czechoslovakian passports. Shortly thereafter she worked for the British Red Cross. In 1941 she enlisted in the Royal Air Force as a WAAF. She was carefully screened by the British Intelligence and had the highly important duty of helping to map bomb targets in Germany. All of her people were exterminated by the Nazis. After the war she was given an honorable discharge and was decorated for her service. She then became a civilian employee of the American Army in Germany. Again, she was screened by Army Intelligence and placed in a highly responsible position. About a year ago she married an American soldier who had a good war record. After being screened by Immigration officials she started for America as a war bride with all appropriate documents. She was stopped at Ellis Island. After being questioned by an

Here's New Note in Home Beauty

There's more than meets the eye in this attractive modern home. The roofing and siding shingles which contribute so much to its external beauty also serve as a permanent fire shield. They are made of asbestos-cement, a material that cannot burn. Now available in many new colors, styles and surface textures, they are equally suitable for urban or rural homes. They may be used either in new construction or over old walls and roofs.

Immigration Inspector she was told that she could not enter the United States.

To date, she has been held for 8 months and has never been told what the charges against her are, or why she can't enter. The Chairman of our Subcommittee on Immigration, Mr. Francis Walter, of Pennsylvania, introduced a private bill to permit this American war bride to come to this country. Immigration officials and State Department officials refused to tell our Committee why they were going to deport Mrs. Knauff. On Monday we had Mrs. Knauff brought before our Committee. In the presence of the Chief Counsel for the Immigration Service and State Department officials, she made an excellent witness in her own behalf. We asked them to question her and they refused. They again refused to disclose the nature of the charges against her. Our Committee cannot compel these government officials to testify and we have no way of securing testimony detrimental to Mrs. Knauff. We therefore reported out her bill and expect to pass it through the Congress unless these officials who claim they know something, will come before our committee and talk. We have offered to let them testify off the record in Executive Session. This means their testimony would be confidential.

Still they say, in effect, "This is none of your business—we will send her back any way." We feel that an alien, specially the wife of an American veteran with a good record, has the right to know the nature of the charges against her.

Two cases were argued before the Supreme Court this week which may make history. One was the Henderson case. In this case, a negro has asked the Supreme Court to outlaw "separate though equal facilities" doctrine. The second is the famous Sweatt case from Texas. This is the case in which a negro seeks to enter the University of Texas law school. The courtroom was filled with negroes. Able negro lawyers supported by the Department of Justice are asking the Court to hold that "separation is discrimination" and violates the 14th amendment. These negroes contend that if the University of Texas had a negro law school on one side of the street and a white law school on the other side of the street, even though the negro school had better buildings and a better faculty, the mere fact that negroes were excluded from the white law school would be a violation of the law. They are asking the Supreme Court to overrule Texas laws and the decisions of Texas Courts. If the Supreme Court decides these cases in behalf of the negroes, then all segregation of races anywhere in the United States becomes illegal.

These cases grow out of hypocritical politics. They are exceedingly dangerous. Politicians in the government have succeeded in outlawing segregation in the armed forces; they have outlawed segregation in public housing; and the Department of the Interior has just announced that beginning season all of the swimming pools under their supervision will be operated on a non-segregation basis. This week, too, the Armed Services have lifted the quota provisions against negro enlist-

Mr. and Mrs. Kelton Tidwell of Stillwater, Okla., visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Campsey and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Tidwell, during the holidays.

Mrs. Sied Waheed and Mrs. Ernest Ameen and children of Lubbock visited relatives and friends here several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dutton and children of Lubbock spent the Easter holidays here, visiting with relatives.

In due time they may mongrelize and destroy the caliber if not the morale of American fighting forces. This is indeed a tragedy for all races. These things would not at this time be happening but for the political power of racial minorities in the big states and in the big cities of the big states. The Yankee politicians in both major parties do these things to get the minority votes in New York, Chicago and Detroit. This is one of the compelling reasons why I am so anxious to get the Lodge-Gossett amendment submitted and adopted for abolishing the Electoral College system of electing Presidents. If and when we can effect this reform it will take away the tremendous political advantage these minorities have and will remove most of the drive behind dangerous movements to mongrelize the American people.

TWO NEW FABRICS MADE FROM COTTON

Development of two new types of cotton fabrics has been announced by the Southern Agricultural Research Laboratory at New Orleans. One of the fabrics is common osnaburg made from short-staple cotton and treated to give it a linnen-like finish. Laboratory officials say this fabric will be an excellent material for children's play suits, beach wear, dresses, and hot weather garments. The other new fabric is a water-resistant cotton material developed by the close weaving of cotton fibers into a cloth that can be used in rainwear garments.

Miss Tiney Montandon visited her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Parnell, in Weatherford over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bill Pierce and children of Midland were week end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Williams.

Counties Go Over The Top In Cancer Crusade

COLLEGE STATION — "Two counties and one community exceeded their goals shortly after the beginning of the annual Texas Cancer Crusade, which opened April 1 throughout the state.

Texas volunteer workers are striving to raise $500,000 for support of the American Cancer Society's research, educational and service work in Texas.

Homan, Gonzales county, was the first community to report, Mr. and Mrs. George Hinton reported their collections of $30, twice their quota.

Two Panhandle counties apparently tied for the honor of first county to reach its goal, Sherman county, where O. L. McMinn is Crusade chairman, and Hemphill county, headed by Norman Magill, exceeded their quotas April 3.

Each expects even greater collections. Gibb Gilchrist, Chancellor of the Texas A. & M. College System and state Crusade chairman, said: "Solicitations of the entire counties have not been completed, and county chairmen tell us that much more to fight cancer will be turned in by their volunteer workers."

The state chairman expressed optimism for this year's Crusade.

"Volunteers of the American Cancer Society are doing an excellent job this year of bringing the educational message of cancer control to every Texas county," he said. "And they are making an all-out effort to raise funds to conquer the disease."

Creek. . . . .
Maybe we better run some of those old flood pictures again. We remember running one of them several years back, and it rained pretty soon afterwards!

That sample of rain Wednesday was plumb delicious. Now we're ready for a good man-sized portion. . . . .

H. P. Hill said it amounted to .52 of an inch, which is not to be sneezed at in times like these. . . . .

And it looked mighty good Thursday morning, with a slow raining falling at nine o'clock. To our notion, that's the best sign of rain—cloudy all over and raining straight down.
