Odd Bits Salvaged
At Random

See what we mean!

This is a picture of a building the type of which are far too numerous in Munday.

In case you don't recognize it it's an exact reproduction of one of Munday's open privies.

This is one of the many eyesores of our town; one of the town's health hazards.

Yet, if you'll examine the picture closely, this building is in a pretty fair state of preservation—much better than lots of open privies decorating the corporate limits of our town.

It's door will open and close; it's still on its hinges.

But part of the boards are missing; some of them are warped, giving it a sort of open air effect that invites disease-breeding insects to its interior.

Men who come here to inspect our newly constructed homes, for federal aid loans look for buildings the type of this.

And when they find one pretty close to a new home or building site, he raises all manner of Cain.

Some requests for federal aid have been rejected because too many of these buildings were found near the building sit.

An Abilene physician remarked recently: "Why in the name of heaven don't the people of Munday and these other small towns clean up their towns?" He had reference to buildings such as the one above.

Munday's governing body, the City Council, has ordered a survey made to determine the extent of Munday's needs toward extending its water and sewer systems.

The boys don't need a survey to know the need is there. This survey is for the purpose of determining the extent of the need, its cost, its possibilities of completion, etc.

We hope the survey is followed up by action!

It may mean spending quite a bit of money. It may mean—and likely will—another bond election, which some may think we cannot afford.

If your child becomes ill, you will spend everything you have and can get if necessary, to restore you loved one to health.

Why not spend some to safeguard its health, while it is yet a healthy, happy, and growing youngster?

We're happy to report the building pictured here is on its way out.

Its owner reported when the picture was made that it has served its day, and that soon it will be replaced with a modern sewer system.

Others are taking the same steps. We showed the picture to a friend, and he said: "I have one for my servant's quarters. As soon as I get a little cash it's going to be eliminated, too."

Boy-Made Boats in Speed Tests

Outboard motorboat racing has taken a unique turn at Algonac, Mich., whose waterfront used to echo with the roar of "Speed King" Gar Wood. High school students build their own trim little craft in a shop class as part of the curriculum, then race them on the St. Clair River in the summer. This year, 18 student-built boats "graduated" from school to the water and here Pilot Dick Rex makes a hairpin turn in front of a Chevrolet station wagon which his friends drove to the water's edge.

Sunset School Opens Sept. 4th

The 1950-51 term of the Sunset Rural Consolidated School will begin on Monday morning, September 5th, it was announced recently by M. G. Hannaford, school principal.

Mr. Hannaford urged all students of the Sunset school to be on hand for registration on that date, with class schedules opening on the following day.

The faculty has been completed for the 1950-51 term, Mr. Hannaford said.

New Law Office Building Soon To Be Completed

The new office building which will house the law offices of M. F. Billingsley and Tom Bullington is in the final stages of completion, and the law firm will soon be able to move into its new quarters.

Erected by Mr. Billingsley, the office is located just north of the Sharp Motor and Equipment Co. It is constructed of Texcrete tile and has all steel windows.

The interior is being made into five rooms, one of which will be the reception room. There will be three offices and a large library room.

The walls have been completed, as well as the roof work, and there remains only the finishing of the interior before it is ready for occupancy.

The new structure will be an attractive addition to Munday's business district.

An automobile trip which was begun in Montana in anticipation of a joyful family reunion in Munday ended in the tragic death of six persons last Friday in Nebraska, and because of the tragedy the reunion here was postponed.

The group was enroute to Munday for the annual reunion of the family of Mrs. E. P. Bridges, who is making her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Goolsby, teachers in the local schools. The reunion was set for Sunday, August 27.

Killed in the accident were H. Perry Bridges, 45, and his wife, Billie, and their son, Jimmy Bridges, 14; Jack New and his wife, Mary Lea, and their three-month-old son, Michael. Mrs. New was a daughter of the Bridges.

Perry Bridges was on vacation from his work in Nebraska, and the group was coming here for the reunion. Members of the two families were killed when their car struck a bridge abutment near Broadwater, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Goolsby and Roy Bridges of Lubbock went by plane to Broadwater, Neb., Friday night upon receipt of the news of the tragedy.

Looking forward to the annual reunion were four other sons and five daughters who were planning to attend. They are Warren Bridges and Mrs. I. N. Wheat, both of Grand Prairie; Odie Bridges of Cooper; Claude Bridges, Clovis, N. M.; Mrs. Goolsby; Mrs. Nathan Goolsby, Beaumont; Mrs. Irene Crigger, Fayetteville, Ark.; Mrs. Evelyn Williams, Muleshoe, and Roy Bridges of Lubbock.

Funeral services were held in Madill, Okla., where Perry Bridges worked for the Pure Oil Company for about 15 years before moving to Billings, Mont. The News were also former residents of Madill.

City's Business Section Lined For Parking

The business section of Munday is being decorated with a whole batch of white lines!

And they're designed to serve a very practical and useful purpose.

Following the job of cleaning our streets, a crew of workmen started lining off the streets for parking. They're parking stalls, parking bins, parking lines, or something.

The idea is to park your car between two of these white lines, and at a 45-degree angle. And if your car straddles one of these white lines, then you're parked plumb wrong!

It is believed the parking lines will simplify Munday's parking problems to some extent and will provide more parking space if everyone will park between the lines.

OUR NEEDS FOR 1950

1. Completion of our portion of the Throckmorton road, giving the farmers of that area an all-weather outlet.
2. A farm-to-market road to the north and east of Munday, possibly connecting with the Heffer road.
3. A U. S. Federal building. Munday needs a new post office home.
4. More homes in Munday. We did a good job in 1949, but there's still a housing shortage.
5. A new telephone system, giving the town adequate telephone service and tapping the rural area surrounding the town.
6. Greater cooperation of business men, farmer, and citizen toward long-range development for our community.

THE COUNTRY PRESS SAYS

GREAT FALLS, MONT., LEADER: "Senator Paul Douglas of Illinois is engaged in his annual effort to save the country some money. As usual, he isn't getting anywhere. Except, of course, that he is proving once more that the nation's lawmakers who shout so loudly for economy don't really mean it."

"For this embarrassing persistence, Douglas is not rewarded, either by success or the love of his fellow Democratic senators. But he is honored by people outside of congress who welcome his display of energy and integrity."

SOMERSET, PA., DAILY AMERICAN: "President Truman says the government has been the salvation of private enterprise, although the record shows that time and again private enterprise has been the salvation of the government."

OAKLAND, CALIF., VOICE: "The president of a Kentucky bank implies that bankers are getting soft. The reason that's happening, he argues, is that banks don't take the risks they used to. More and more, government is guaranteeing credit, underwriting risk, and subsidizing losses."

"In the last two decades, the bank president pointed out, government loan guarantees have increased from only a few hundred million dollars to more than 20 billion. Bankers, he maintains, are well on the way to becoming mere middle-men for government agencies."

OSKALOOSA, IOWA, DAILY HERALD: "The end comes when the government is forced to repudiate its promises, to destroy the bulk of the money supply it has created. It differs from the bankrupt private citizen only because it doesn't have to ask a court to wipe out its unpayable debts. It can do that job itself."

PRICE DANIEL

In the recent Democratic primary Attorney General Price Daniel for the second time polled the highest vote in the state races. Daniel received 1,113,823 votes, 8,350 more than the nearest other unopposed candidate, according to the official returns released in Austin. In the first primary in 1948, in which more votes were cast, Daniel polled 1,231,881 votes, the largest number ever given a candidate in a Democratic primary in Texas.

Texas once had a conflict known as the "Archives War"—and one of the leaders was a woman. It was in the days of the Texas Republic.

From Washington on the Brazos, President Sam Houston wrote to Land Commissioner Ward, directing him to remove the archives—the records of the Land Office, stating:

"They are certainly in a very precarious and unsafe situation. What the Mexicans or Indians might not do, I am led to believe from various threats that have reached my ears might be accomplished by the irresponsible, unprincipled and lawless among our citizens. I am told that their destruction by fire has been frequently denounced by some of those opposed to their removal. Such an event would produce not only incalculable but irreparable injury to the people of Texas which must not, if possible, be permitted."

As President Houston's letter indicated, Austin citizens already had heard of the contemplated removal and they felt that, once the records were taken away they might never be returned and that some other city would become the capital of Texas.

Land Commissioner Ward turned the boxes containing the Land Office records over to the officials whom Houston sent. But that was by no means the end of the matter for Ward reported:

"Much excitement prevailed here; a howitzer loaded with grape was discharged at my residence after I heard the cry, 'Blow the old house to pieces'; eight volleys perforated the old building and, had the mob continued their fire, I could not

Draft Status of World War II Is No Longer Existing

AUSTIN—Some men registered under the World War II draft act, now past 40 and 50 years of age, are attempting to advise local boards of changes of address and status, although these draft boards have been out of existence for years.

As a result, these cards and letters are flooding present local boards and Selective Service headquarters here.

Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state director of Selective Service, advised today

answer for the consequences as I undoubtedly should have defended myself to the last.

"The wagons took the upper route by McKinneys because the people living on Brushy not being as violent against the removal as those living below or on the road to Bastrop; and to prevent violence to the papers, I sent two of the Land Office clerks in charge of them to take special care of the boxes and their contents."

His report continues: "The archives were forcibly taken from them and lodged in Mrs. Eberly's house, since which the boxes have been removed to a house on Pecan Street."

This incident is known in Texas history as the Archives War. For months, the records were stored in boxes and kept in a private home in Austin, then were returned to the Land Office, and so ended one of the most interesting incidents in the history of that romantic, old State department.

that "these men no longer have to advise of any change of address or status, as the law under which they registered was terminated by Congress in 1947."

"The only men who are obligated to keep local boards advised are those registered under the Selective Service Act of 1948, which became law on June 24, 1948, to state director pointed out.

"Any man who has registered with Selective Service in 1948, 1949, or 1950 is obligated to advise his local board of address and status changes," General Wakefield said. "Any man who registered with local board prior to those years is not required by law to do so."

The state director said that every man ask himself the question: "Should I be registered under the Selective Service Act of 1948?"

The answer, says General Wakefield, is simple. If the man was born on August 30, 1922, or after, he is required to be registered, provided he is not under 18. If he was born prior to August 30, 1922, he is not required by law to be registered under the Selective Service Act of 1948.

Males are required to register on their 18th birthdays or within five days thereafter.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

HEALTH LETTER—City fathers in three Texas cities, by artificially adding fluoride salts to their municipal water supplies, are making the dream of fewer tooth cavities come true.

Corpus Christi and Marshall have fluoridation systems working now. Austin has in the installation process.

If things go according to plan, children in these towns will be spared easily half the visits they now have to make to their family dentist, because they'll have fewer cavities.

State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox describes the fluoridation process as a "tremendous step forward in the fight against dental diseases. It's simple and inexpensive, as well as effective."

"It won't be a cure-all," cautions Dr. Edward Taylor, director of dental health at the State Health Department. "It won't give children complete protection against tooth decay, but it will reduce decay from 23 to 47 percent."

He said that range of reduction percentage has been established in departmental experiments with artificial fluoridation in Marshall.

The addition of the chemical to drinking water in the ratio of 1 to 1.5 parts per million parts of water now has been recommended as a decay control measure by the United Public Health Service, the American Water Works Association, and the Association of State and Territorial Dental Health Directors.

Recommendations are subject to approval of state and local health departments, which has been granted in the case of

Giant Midway To Be Attraction Of State Fair

The Sky Wheels—highest thrill ride ever seen in Texas—will be the "top of the Midway" attraction at the 1950 State Fair of Texas Mid-Century Exposition, Oct. 7-22.

The fantastic double ferris wheel, towering 90 feet into the air, cost $135,000 to build and is the first new major carnival ride to be developed in 50 years.

The ride can carry 48 people at one time on a dizzy journey through space. The two giant wheels, on each end of a long beam, turn majestically while the entire mechanism also revolves.

The greatest Midway in State Fair history will be a fitting fun center for the Mid-Century Exposition, which will be the most spectacular State Fair ever held in every respect, James H. Stewart, executive vice-president and general manager, pointed out.

The Deiamond Garter, new refreshment center on the Midway, will take State Fair visitors back 50 years with a Mid-Century performance of "The Drunkard's Daughter," nostalgic and comical preachment the three Texas cities.

Marshall began artificial fluoridation in 1946 in a controlled experiment, and was a leader in the field both nationally and locally. Corpus Christi began the water treatment in October last year.

Austin City Manager Walter Seaholm indicated that orders for equipment have been placed, and treatment will begin as soon as delivery and installation are complete.

License Renewals Due September 1

AUSTIN—The Chief Clerk of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission said today all but eight of their thirty-nine licenses issued by the Commission, including those for hunting and fishing, will be renewable September 1.

The license revenue provides a substantial part of the funds for Commission activities.

The Game Department staff now is busy readying the license sales are made generally by game wardens, county clerks and licensed deputies mainly in retail stores throughout the state. Only nine of the thirty-nine kinds of licenses are sold at the Austin headquarters.

Considerable Commission revenue comes from the $1.85 individual fishing license and from the $2.15 so-called big game hunting license. The $2.00 resident hunting license represents only a small part of the collections. This is because the comparatively new big game hunting license covers all kinds of hunting, except antelope which calls for a special $5.00 fee.

The Chief Clerk explained that processing the license supplies represents a sizeable assignment because they have to be distributed to between 1800 and 2000 agencies.

The licenses range in cost from 50 cents for a duplicate individual fishing license to $200 for a wholesale fish and oyster dealer permit.

The marriage vows will be exchanged in the home of the bride-to-be's parents on Sunday, September 3, at 6 p. m. Musical selections for the occasion will be provided by Miss Carolyn Hannah, pianist, and Miss Charlotte Williams, soloist. The ceremony will be read by Rev. Luther Kirk of Perryton, Texas.

Tackitt Family Reunion Held Here Saturday, Aug. 1

Saturday night, August 19, climaxed the annual gathering held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tackitt of Munday. Almost fifty persons were present for the affair, which is for the purpose of seeing as many members and friends of the family as possible.

A delicious picnic supper of barbecued chicken, beef stew, salads and cakes, with punch, coffee and cold drinks, was served. After the meal, those present enjoyed music and singing, cards and dominoes, and in the back yard was organized an inexperienced but energetic square dance. Both attended Medwestern University at Wichita Falls, where the groom-elect graduated. He is now employed with the Reno Oil Company at Wichita Falls. The couple plan to establish residence in Wichita Falls.

Panelled Rayon Swim Suit

For figure flattery on the beach, sleek elasticized rayon satin is always popular. This one-piece Sea Nymph bathing suit features diagonal panels in which the fabric, made with Avicel yarn, is reversed to the dull side to give an interesting fabric contrast to the satin on the front of the suit.

Forced Air Central Gas Heating makes summertime out of Winter

Winter preys on your children's health. Its dangers lurk in drafts... on chilly floors... in unheated rooms. Now, with the many new types of forced air central gas heating systems, any home can be as healthful in winter as in summer.

Through a system of ducts and registers, forced air central gas heating delivers fresh, warm air to every nook and cranny... and returns cold, stale air to the out-of-doors. There are no chilly floors or drafts which cause discomfort and may cause dangerous colds. No heat hangs at the ceiling or wastes itself when you are asleep or away. There's no overheating when "just a little heat" will do.

Forced air central gas heating gives your children the health protection at home that authorities insist they have at school.

You have only to talk to a heating contractor or a Lone Star Gas Company heating specialist to see how practical and how little it takes to put one of the new forced air central gas heating systems in your home. See him—won't you?

Why not, today?

FARM NEWS

From the County PMA Committee

FARMER-COMMITTEE ELECTIONS NEARING

J. C. McGee, chairman of the Knox County PMA committee, reminded Knox County farmers that community elections will be held beginning in October or November.

He urged that all farmers who are eligible to vote in these elections make sure they do vote and that they vote for the farmers they want to administer the 1951 Agricultural Conservation and other PMA programs.

This year elections will be held in the following communities in Knox County: Benjamin, Truscott, Gilliland, Vera, Rhineland, Goree, Munday, Sunset, and Knox City.

Under current regulations, delegates to the county convention will be eligible to be elected as county committeemen. This is a change from 1949 when a delegate to the county convention could not be elected a county committeeman.

At the community elections, farmers are to elect a community committee and delegates to a county convention. The delegates to the county convention elect the county committee.

"The situation in Korea and the constant shifting food needs picture, will require the best committeemen that can be found to administer the 1951 PMA programs," says McGee. "Although elections are weeks away, it is not too early for Knox County farmers to give serious consideration to the selection of the best possible leadership to administer farm programs next year."

IS YOUR FARM READY?

Since the production of food is so important in the current world situation, E. P. Haman, Secretary of the Knox County Production and Marketing Administration Committee, urges every farmer of the county to ask himself, "Would my farm pass a physical?"

"If all the farms of Knox County were given notice to report for service, how many would be in Class A-1 and how many in 4-F?"

"Are they physically fit or are they anemic, washed out, gullied and unfit for either military or civilian service?"

With these pointed questions, the Secretary calls attention to the vital part the Nation's farms have in any program of national mobilization. On the reassuring side, he calls attention to what many of the farmers of Knox County have been doing through cooperation in the Agricultural Conservation Program to keep their farms prepared. This year 480 of all the 1161 farms in the county are "signed up" to carry on soil conserving and soil improving practices.

According to the chairman, the program has been in operation in Knox County since 1936. From 1936 through 1949, farm-

New Dishwasher Has Whirling Water Tower

There's a "big squirt" in this new, automatic dishwasher. It's a Jet Tower that throws powerful sprays of water from every angle. The machine is said to save two-thirds of the time housewives normally spend cleaning up after meals. Dishes need not be pre-rinsed; the water used is booster heated and the jets are so directed that they clean dishes, glassware, silverware and pans with a shearing action. The washing and rinsing cycle takes less than 10 minutes.

ers of Knox County have carried out the following soil and water conservation practices as a means of keeping their farms "prepared" and "physically fit": Terracing, Tanking, Seeding, Winter Legumes, applying phosphate, eradicating mesquite, deep plowing and subsoiling.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

IT'S TIME for BROOKS!

Because...

Something must be done now about the runaway cost of our state government—a cost which has increased more than 500 percent in the period between 1935 and 1950. Aside from the cost of World War II, the cost of the Federal government did not increase that much during the same period.

With the State plunging wildly towards a financial crisis, the Lt. Governorship is a business rather than a political office. It needs a business man with a business viewpoint.

Only by the election of a business man can the people of Texas be assured of a direct and vigorous attack on this runaway cost, useless waste, and needless extravagance in our State government.

Only a business man who has not been a part of the system which spawned this era of waste and extravagance can give the problem that searching inquiry and impartial analysis needed now. Pierce Brooks is that man.

The next Lt. Governor of Texas should be above any internal friction, beyond all cross currents of politics, and completely judicial when clashes of personalities arise among members of the Senate. He must be in a position to treat them all alike, to be fair to each, and also to be true to his obligations to the people. Pierce Brooks meets these tests.

Pierce Brooks is the only candidate completely free from the entangling alliances, political obligations, cliques, clans and groups which grow up when men stay in office too long.

The Lt. Governor to be elected in 1950 should not come from the confused atmosphere of the State government, but direct from the people with a program for the people. Pierce Brooks is such a man.

In these crucial times the next Lieutenant Governor should be answerable to the people of the State and not to any group of special interests that has made millions of dollars off the taxpayers.

Pierce Brooks for Lt. Governor

Knox Prairie Philosopher Tries To Stampede Neighbor Of His Into Buying Up All His Surplus Towsacks

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek won't get any where with his plan this week, and we hope he doesn't.

Dear editor: I don't listen to the radio very much as it's too long between news casts and besides when

I'm learning the news I like to pick out the parts I'm interested in, while on the radio you have to take it all in or risk dosing off right when something you want to hear may come on, it's like having to listen to your wife, while with a newspaper you can skip over the news you ain't interested in or dodge the editorials on matters you already got your mind made up about, but I was listening to the radio the other night and heard a program about more of this scare buying.

As I understand it, the buyers is not the only ones guilty, some of the stores is sort of promotin the idea too, urgin their costumers to buy this or that, especially the things they ain't having much success in movin or things they can get plenty of, and I decided to try it out on one of my neighbors.

I run into him in his field yesterday and we got to talkin about the war and shortages and I casually mentioned that I understood there was going to be a shortage of towsacks, looked like towsacks was gonn be on the critical list, might be years before we had enough to go around, but it just happened that I had a whole stack of em in my barn and while I probably could get twenty five cents apiece for em if I tried, I'd let him have em for twenty cents on account of him being my neighbor, provided he wouldn't mention it to anybody.

But he apparently hadn't been keeping up with the news, said he didn't have any use for any towsacks and if he did and they wasn't available when he needed them he'd do without and figured he'd keep on livin about as well. You could see he wasn't keepin up with the news and was out of touch with times. That's the trouble with some people, they don't keep up with things.

If you know anybody short on towsacks, let me know. There ought to be somebody around here I can unload on. Look what they've been doin with pillow slips and sheets.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Business Leader With Great War Record Tells How Hadacol Has Rebuilt Him Physically

Was run-down, weak, after service in South Pacific due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin

Mr. Donald Hedburg, who resides at 1812 Parker in the fashionable Riverside District of Wichita, Kansas, has been an up-and-coming executive member of the staff of the great Wichita Eagle newspaper for over four years.

Mr. Hedburg has an enviable record of combat with the U. S. Army in the South Pacific in World War II. He is very active in civic affairs. And just as he was anxious to pitch in and do a job during the war—he now wants to help his fellow citizens who (like he was once), are physically run-down and weak due to lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron, and Niacin in their systems.

Here is Donald W. Hedburg's witnessed statement: "When I returned from service, I faced the problem of rebuilding myself physically. I was in a general run-down condition.

"In my present capacity of advertising salesman for Kansas' greatest newspaper, The Wichita Eagle, it's absolutely necessary that I have plenty of vitality—'get up and go.' I had real cause to worry. Nothing seemed to rebuild me constitutionally. Then a friend of mine on the national staff told me about HADACOL—he asked me to try at least five bottles. I'm on my fourth bottle and already I feel like my old self. I look forward to a day's work and go home—play with the children—work in the yard—fish until midnight! Thanks again to HADACOL, energy and vitality once again course through every fiber of my body. You bet, I too, am now a missionary for this great new HADACOL.

Get That Wonderful HADACOL Feeling Everyone is Talking About

HADACOL gives such wonderful results because it not only supplies deficient, weak run-down systems with more than their daily needs of important Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron, and Niacin—but also helpful amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

If you are a victim of neuritis pains, certain stomach and nervous disturbances, constipation, insomnia or a weak, run-down condition due to such deficiencies, HADACOL will start you on the road to feeling better often within a few days. Thousands upon thousands of records of grateful men, women and children proved this to be so.

Many Doctors Recommend It HADACOL is recommended by many doctors not only to their patients but to members of their own families who have such deficiencies. Before giving up hope—you owe it to yourself to at least give HADACOL a chance to help you. Why keep dragging yourself around feeling "half-alive" when it's so easy to have that wonderful HADACOL feeling that everyone is talking about! Trial-size bottle, only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. Refuse substitutes.

How A Convector Heats

Gentle circulation of warmed air by natural convection is the secret of comfort with modern convector-radiator heating. A compact, finned heating element within the convector is the "heart" of the unit. As this element becomes hot, either from steam or hot water as the heating medium, it heats the air within the convector. This air is discharged into the room through the outlet grille and cooler, floorline air is drawn in through the opening at the bottom. This air movement helps counteract air stalesness within rooms. As shown, convectors also supply mild radiant heat from the front panel as a valuable "plus" feature.

Women Can Save 2 Million Minutes

American homemakers will save two billion minutes a year because federal laws now permit margarine to be colored in the package, the National Cotton Council said recently.

The repeal of federal restrictions against colored margarine effective July 1, will save the women the time that it has taken in the past to mix yellow coloring into the white table spread.

Although the federal government has removed all taxes and barriers on the vegetable oil product, the Cotton Council pointed out the 40 percent of the U. S. population still cannot buy yellow margarine. Fifteen states ban the manufacture and sale of margarine in either its colored or uncolored forms. The cotton organization urged consumers in these states to demand that their legislators flo-

Draft Boards Cannot Answer Many Questions

AUSTIN—Two of the most prevalent questions which men are asking state draft boards now are: "When will I have to take my physical exam?" and "When will I be drafted?"

"These are two questions that local boards cannot answer," Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director, said today, in commenting on queries which are coming in to the draft boards.

"These two questions can't be answered," the state director continued, "because there are too many intangible factors involved."

General Wakefield listed some low the federal example and repeal legislation prohibiting the free sale of margarine.

States retaining margarine restrictions include Vermont, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, South Dakota, Montana, Wyoming, Washington, and Oregon. A 20 cent per pound tax in North Dakota virtually bans the product in that state.

of the reasons why local boards can't answer these questions:

1. Local boards do not know whether calls will be for an increased number of men or not.

2. Local boards cannot tell how many of their registrants will be found acceptable for military service or how many will be rejected.

3. Local boards cannot tell how many men enlist for service in the armed forces now and in the future.

"All these things have a bearing on the numbers which will be called for physical examination and induction," General Wakefield said. "Therefore, the local boards cannot say with any degree of certainty when a man's number will be reached in the Selective Service process."

The state director urged men not ask these two questions. At the same time he called upon registrants to be alert and advise of changes of address and status.

Cotton lintners are pure cellulose, an important component of such varied products as lacquer, dynamite, camera film, and phonograph records.

Annual T. H. D. A. Meeting Slated For Big Spring

The annual state convention of the Texas Home Demonstration Association will be held at Big Spring this year, August 23-25. According to Mrs. H. L. Campbell of Wildorado, president of the THDA, the theme of the meeting will be "Better Homes Make For a Better World."

Eight or nine hundred people are expected to attend the meeting. Guest speakers will include Dr. L. D. Haske, dean of the College of Education, University of Texas, and Beverly Runnels, 1950 winner of the Maggie W. Barry Scholarship. Miss Runnels will speak on "What 4-H Work Means to Me."

In order that each county may have delegates to all of the workshops, two workshop sessions will be held for each of the five committees—4-H, Recreation, Legislative, Education, and Marketing.

New officers for the THDA will be installed on Thursday evening, August 24, following the election on Thursday afternoon.

A skit, "United We Stand", showing the relationship of the THDA and the home demonstration clubs to the Extension Service, will be included on the program. Mrs. Bob Potter, Legislative Committee Chairman, will direct the skit.

At a meeting of each district, a report of the work done in carrying out the committee recommendations for the past year will be given in panel discussion.

During the business session of the convention, the program of work for 1950-51 will be adopted.

Local arrangements of the convention are being made by Mrs. Fred Gibson, District 6, vice-president; Mrs. L. A. Groene, District 7, vice-president; Mrs. Sam Armstrong, Howard County Home Demonstration Council Chairman; and Mrs. Edward Simpson, Howard County THDA Chairman.

Former Knox 4-H Clubber Wins Colorado Honors

Donald Ray Pultz, ex-Knox County 4-H Clubber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pultz, who won many honors and awards with his calf feeding programs while living in Benjamin, is still winning honors; only this time in Colorado.

In the recent Pueblo County 4-H Calf Show, Donald Ray carried off several top honors. He entered five calves; one short horn steer in the Fat Beef Class placed 1st in his class, and also champion of the shorthorns. He had a shorthorn bull and heifer in the breeding class; both placed first in their classes and both were champions in their divisions. The bull showed for Grand Champion of the show, and placed third. He also had two Angus bulls in the breeding class; one placed first and the other second. The first place Angus bull also won champion in his division.

BEAVERS WELL IS RATED AS PRODUCER

Completion of the first oil producer in northwestern Knox County, three miles north of Benjamin, was under way as the Sinclair Oil & Gas Company was rigging pumping equipment for its N. I. G. H. Beavers, section 224, block 44, H&T C survey.

A lower Pennsylvania limy was treated with Hydrafrac through perforations from 5,920 to 5,932 feet, after which the well swabbed 72 barrels of oil in 22 hours, practically the same rate of production before the Telegram.

Knox City Boy To Be Lineman For McMurry Indians

ABILENE—Richard Buckley of Knox City is among the McMurry Indians featuring to play football this season.

McMurry, smallest school in the Texas Conference, will be seeking its fourth straight championship. Coach Wilford Moore's Indians face their toughest schedule in history.

Besides the traditional Texas Conference rivals, the Indians meet Tulsa University, Midwestern University, West Texas State, and Mississippi Southern.

Last year, McMurry enjoyed its best success to date. After finishing the season with a 7-2-1 record, the Indians went on to Galveston's Oleander Bowl to down Missouri Valley 19 to 13. They trailed 13 to 0 with less than four minutes to play in the first half but tied it up before the intermission.

McMurry's running attack led the state and was fifth in the nation.

Buckley, a squadman in 1948 did not play last fall. In spring training, however, his aggressive play at tackle position was one of the bright spots of Redskin play. Buckley can also play center.

The two largest users of cottonseed oil are shortening and margarine.

carried an article that the city requests elimination of open toilets. We quote two paragraphs from this article:

The City of Munday requests the cooperation of everyone in eliminating open toilets. The City feels that any open toilet where sewer facilities exist should be immediately abolished; that where such facilities do not exist open toilets should be made sanitary under the prescribed regulations.

"We urge groups of citizens where any unsanitary conditions exist to file complaints in writing, thereby enabling the City to declare such conditions a nuisance. The City feels that an emergency exists within its corporate limits and begs the cooperation of all." We hope that cooperation will be forthcoming, and that those old landmarks will disappear in large numbers.
