NO. 32

Kracker Krumb's Odd Bits Salvaged At Random

Munday needs a fire truck for fighting rural fires.

This need is being pointed out this week by members of the Munday Volunteer Fire Department, with the hope that others will see the need, too.

It means nothing to the fireboys, either, other than that public spirited thing of helping to save the citizens' property from destruction.

It would be an investment—one that would pay big dividends even in the saving of one rural home from being destroyed by fire.

It would give Munday three fire-fighting units that would be ready to go at the sound of the fire alarm.

It would be a great help to our present equipment, in that it would be immediately available for use while firemen were making a hookup with our present equipment.

Our firemen have been called to a number of rural fires. Some few months ago, they went to Welnet and watched a gin burn to the ground. They feel that some of this property could have been saved had water been immediately available.

Fireboys are "feeling the pulse" of Munday's citizens in regard to the purchase and equipping of such a truck.

They know that one is needed in Munday. They believe that Munday's citizens will see that one is secured.

The truck would be purchased, they say, by contributions of people who see the need of such fire-fighting equipment. Here's some data they have secured:

By getting a good used truck, equipping it with power take-off pump and a tank, they believe the cost would run around $2,500.

It would be equipped with a tank holding 500 to 750 gallons of water. Water could be started on any fire just as soon as the truck arrives at the scene.

Our present fire trucks have booster tanks. One holds 350 gallons of water, the other 140 gallons. A third would give us between 1,000 and 1,200 gallons of water that could be used for fighting fires if no other water was available.

The truck would be here at Munday, but it would be available to fight any fire in the area where its services are needed.

Munday has secured an additional 5 percent insurance credit this year, we understand, for its good fire record during the year. Another truck, equipped as this one would be, might be the means of an additional credit in the future.

An insurance credit benefits everyone who carries fire insurance on their property. Most any fire originating within a reasonable distance can be checked if water is put on it in time.

It's a pretty helpless feeling to rush to a fire and see someone's house burn to the ground because there's no water to fight the fire with. This was expressed by some of our fireboys who've had this experience and who see the need of such a fire truck.

"What do you think about it?" they ask us.

"We think one is needed," we reply. "We think it can be secured, but it's gonna take lots of talking and 'laig work' to get it done."

The boys allowed they didn't mind that part, if they could just get the cooperation of the people. If a rural fire truck can be secured, they feel that a wonderful thing has been accomplished.

WHAT TIME IS IT?

This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of self, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers (profane speech concerning God) disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholly, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers—fierce despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady highminded (arrogant) lovers of pleasure more than of lovers of God. Having a form of Godliness but denying the power thereof. From such turn away. 2nd Tim. 3:1-5.

DON'T SHOOT THE PIANO PLAYER

An old Western saloon once displayed a sign which said, "Don't shoot the piano player—he's doing the best he can." That homespun philosophy can be applied to the retailers of America in these days of soaring prices.

Probably it is a natural vagary of human nature that a great many consumers should select the retailer as their prime target when it comes to complaining about inflation. It is the retailer, after all, who sells the goods and takes their money. They are in day-to-day contact with him. And when they see his price tags changed to higher figures, it is a simple matter to reason that he's profiteering at the expense of all the rest of us.

Natural as this attitude may be it has absolutely no foundation in the economic facts of life. Actually, in a great many cases covering both chain and independent merchandising, the margin of profit earned by merchants has declined as the total volume of business substantially increased. The increases in prices at retail have often lagged behind the increases in prices at the wholesale level. That is the result of today's intensive retail competition—and also of the desire of retailers to mitigate the pains of inflation to the best of their very limited ability, as one means of encouraging trade.

That inflation is the greatest domestic danger this country faces goes without saying. But it serves no purpose to put the blame in the wrong places. When the price of a can of beans soars, look for the real cause—which, primarily, is the wasteful, inflation-breeding monetary policies of your government.

A MATTER OF PHILOSOPHY

Mark Twain, the great American humorist, was often a philosopher in disguise.

Once, asked by a group of young church people for advice on conduct, he penned on the back of a postcard:

"Always do right. This will gratify some people and astonish the rest."
Such statements as this one might give us reason to believe that Mark was a philosopher disguised as a humorist, instead of the other way around. But be that as it may, he did point up a situation which is undoubtedly true. Unfortunately, most people are astonished and even suspicious when somebody does what he ought to. They automatically start looking for the hook concealed in the bait.

The State Government of Texas has astonished a good many of its citizens since it met in January. Governor Shivers recognized, in statesmanlike manner, that state expenditures cannot continue their flaring course in the face of national emergency. Reuben Senterfitt, the Speaker of the House, had his committees ready to function when the Legislature convened, and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey quickly appointed his in-the Senate. Then the Legislature buckled down to responsible work. One of its first acts was to postpone all "single-shot" appropriations until the major appropriations had been made, thus paving the way for a new era in state budgeting—and possibly taxation.

The Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker, and both houses of the Legislature have gratified many citizens of Texas by their actions. Let us hope that this encouraging trend continues. We look for the day when the people of our state will be gratified often and astonished rarely by our government in Austin.

Let's Talk LIVESTOCK

(By Ted Gouldy)

FORT WORTH, Feb. 28—Unless all signs fail, there will be considerable fireworks in the livestock news within a very short time.

Price ceilings for livestock, long threatened by the Office of Price Stabilization, appeared to be in the cards within two weeks on some species of livestock at least.

The livestock trade in general feels that the Black Marketeers dream will be one step nearer fulfillment when this happens.

Some question as to the timeliness of the discussion is cast on the matter by the fact that all during the week, pressure was applied at all points and most classes of livestock have lost ground in the past week or two.

After last week's dizzy run-away market at Fort Worth cattle and calf prices slumped from the outset of the week and one of the sharpest breaks in years was suffered by calves and yearlings.

Most classes of cattle and calves suffered $1 to $2 per hundred losses, and in the case of some calves and yearlings which last week found buyers in the stocker ranks, and this week sold for slaughter, the reduction was $1 to $5 per hundred pounds.

This was about the same amount these fleshy calves had climbed the week before, at which time packers were virtually sent to the sidelines as stocker buyers bid in the bulk of the receipts.

Reports from over the Southwest indicates that this last week's drop in prices resulted in severe financial reverses for cattle speculators. Many of these livestock traders, caught with "high" cattle and calves, unloaded them for heavy losses.

During the week, butcher hogs dipped lower each day until near the close Cornbelt receipts slacked off and some ground was regained, but hogs on the whole were off $1 or more at Fort Worth and most other markets. Sows shared the decline. Feeder pigs, however, sold steady.

Clipped lambs were weaker some sales 50 cents to $1 off at Fort Worth this week but the woolled varieties sold steady to strong. Old sheep brought strong prices also. Feeder lambs in the wool equalled the all time record of $37.50.

Jesse George Smith, who is attending Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, spent the week end in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith.

Mrs. Ruby Keithley of Abilene visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Williams over the week end.

PRODUCTION GUIDES POINT UP NEED FOR CONSERVATION

Production guides calling for substantial increases in cotton and wheat emphasize the need for conserving farming, says J. C. McGee, chairman of the Knox County PMA Committee.

If increased production is needed this year, it is quite probable that even greater production will be needed next year. Since no one knows how long the emergency will last and just how much will be needed, provisions have to be made for building up reserves as well as supplies to meet current needs.

This means that, in producing what is needed this year, the farmer should continue the good farm management and conservation practices needed to maintain the productivity of the land for the next year and on into the future. It should not be overlooked that good pastures may do as much to give the nation the needed production of livestock as land in feed grain. Of course, where the pasture is not fully productive it may be better to plow up the land and put it into a feed grain.

But farmers should keep in mind that grasses and legumes are soil-building crops. They not only help to give the production needed now but they aid in building up soil fertility. Likewise, lime and phosphate and potash, when used on rotation pasture, forage, and cover crops not only increase the growth of these crops but they build up a reserve for the crops that follow.

According to Mr. McGee, a farmer should make his plans—especially this year—with an eye to both present and future production. The farmer will be better off, the land will build up, and the nation stronger if he conserves his soil while producing the abundance needed for defense.

AUSTIN—Millions of flies help to cause illness and death of thousands of children and adults each year in the United States. Hundreds of these casualties may be in Texas this year if residents fail in their responsibility for developing the best possible sanitation measures in the are awher they reside. Typhoid fever, summer complaint and other intestinal diseases can be traced to the common housefly as the carrier of the infection.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, speaking in this connection recently said, "Be sure that windows and doors are tightly screened so that stray flies from a careless neighbor will no tendanger your family. Be sure that flies are kept away from food, drink and utensils used in the preparation of food. Make sure, if you live in rural districts, that outside privy vaults are tightly covered until collected or buried. Eliminate all breeding places for flies and you will be helping your community in its work of controlling communicable diseases and preventing unnecessary illness."

Now is the time to do away with the winter's accumulation of trash. Clean up and stay clean is a good slogan for communities and individual citizens.

Mike Bruckner and Homer Edrington were business visitors in Wichita Falls last Friday. They also visited Mr. Bruckner's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Gurley were one of the many who visited at the opening of the Whitney Dam the past week.

DON'T SHOOT THE PIANO PLAYER

An old Western saloon once displayed a sign which said, "Don't shoot the piano player—he's doing the best he can." That homespun philosophy can be applied to the retailers of America in these days of soaring prices.

Probably it is a natural vagary of human nature that a great many consumers should select the retailer as their prime target when it comes to complaining about inflation. It is the retailer, after all, who sells the goods and takes their money. They are in day-to-day contact with him. And when they see his price tags changed to higher figures, it is a simple matter to reason that he's profiteering at the expense of all the rest of us.

Natural as this attitude may be, it has absolutely no foundation in the economic facts of life. Actually, in a great many cases covering both chain and independent merchandising, the margin of profit earned by merchants has declined as the total volume of business substantially increased. The increases in prices at retail have often lagged behind the increases in prices at the wholesale level. That is the result of today's intensive retail competition—and also of the desire of retailers to mitigate the pains of inflation to the best of their very limited ability, as one means of encouraging trade.

That inflation is the greatest domestic danger this country faces goes without saying. But it serves no purpose to put the blame in the wrong places. When the price of a can of beans soars, look for the real cause—which, primarily, is the wasteful, inflation-breeding monetary policies of your government.

A MATTER OF PHILOSOPHY

Mark Twain, the great American humorist, was often a philosopher in disguise.

Once, asked by a group of young church people for advice on conduct, he penned on the back of a postcard:

"Always do right. This will gratify some people and astonish the rest."

Such statements as this one might give us reason to believe that Mark was a philosopher disguised as a humorist, instead of the other way around. But be that as it may, he did point up a situation which is undoubtedly true. Unfortunately, most people are astonished and even suspicious when somebody does what he ought to. They automatically start looking for the hook concealed in the bait.

The State Government of Texas has astonished a good many of its citizens since it met in January. Governor Shivers recognized, in statesmanlike manner, that state expenditures cannot continue their flaring course in the face of national emergency. Reuben Senterfitt, the Speaker of the House, had his committees ready to function when the Legislature convened, and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey quickly appointed his in-the Senate. Then the Legislature buckled down to responsible work. One of its first acts was to postpone all "single-shot" appropriations until the major appropriations had been made, thus paving the way for a new era in state budgeting—and possibly taxation.

The Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker, and both houses of the Legislature have gratified many citizens of Texas by their actions. Let us hope that this encouraging trend continues. We look for the day when the people of our state will be gratified often and astonished rarely by our government in Austin.

APOLLO, PA., NEWS-RECORD: "Workers in a field are always entitled to share in increased productivity of their work, even though that productive increase may be chiefly due to labor saving machinery. But the capital which makes such labor-saving devices possible . . . is also entitled to a fair share."

SHAWANO, WIS., JOURNAL: "The memory of Abraham Lincoln has a very special meaning in this fateful year. Today this nation is threatened by those who are determined to substitute for the Lincoln philosophy of government of the people, by the people and for the people, a new and dangerous philosophy of government over the people."

REINBECK, IOWA, COURIER: "Glaring headlines are that prices have been pegged . . . the miners got their pay raise since pegging, and the coal men boosted coal . . . the railroad men will get their raise and up will go freight rates, and that in turn will raise prices on many commodities . . . what does the government mean . . . pegged?"

Uncle Sam Says

Andrew Jackson, our seventh President, said: "Save your money and thrive or pay the price in poverty and disgrace." Ten years ago millions of Americans started buying U. S. Defense Bonds. The money invested in those Bonds helped to finance the greatest war in history, and it helped finance the owners in carrying out many needed projects. Let's Talk LIVESTOCK

(By Ted Gouldy)

FORT WORTH, Feb. 28—Unless all signs fall, there will be considerable fireworks in the livestock news within a very short time.

Price ceilings for livestock, long threatened by the Office of Price Stabilization, appeared to be in the cards within two weeks on some species of livestock at least.

The livestock trade in general feels that the Black Marketeers dream will be one step nearer fulfillment when this happens.

Some question as to the timeliness of the discussion is cast on the matter by the fact that all during the week, pressure was applied at all points and most classes of livestock have lost ground in the past week or two.

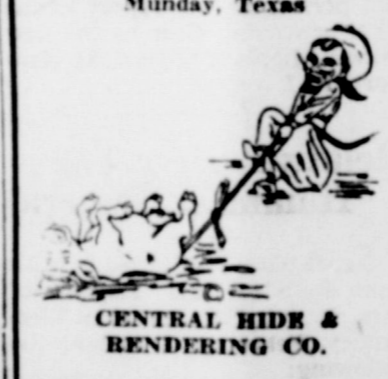

After last week's dizzy run-away market at Fort Worth cattle and calf prices slumped from the outset of the week and one of the sharpest breaks in years was suffered by calves and yearlings.

Most classes of cattle and calves suffered $1 to $2 per hundred losses, and in the case of some calves and yearlings which last week found buyers in the stocker ranks, and this week sold for slaughter, the reduction was $1 to $5 per hundred pounds.

This was about the same amount these fleshy calves had climbed the week before, at which time packers were virtually sent to the sidelines as stocker buyers bid in the bulk of the receipts.

Reports from over the Southwest indicate that this last week's drop in prices resulted in severe financial reverses for cattle speculators. Many of these livestock traders, caught with "high" cattle and calves, unloaded them for heavy losses.

During the week, butcher hogs dipped lower each day until near the close Cornbelt receipts slacked off and some ground was regained, but hogs on the whole were off $1 or more at Fort Worth and most other markets. Sows shared the decline.

Feeder pigs, however, sold steady.

Clipped lambs were weaker some sales 50 cents to $1 off at Fort Worth this week but the woolled varieties sold steady to strong. Old sheep brought strong prices also. Feeder lambs in the wool equalled the all time record of $37.50.

Hall And Yandall Vows Are Read In Lubbock Ceremony

At a double ring ceremony read at two on the afternoon of February 9, at the home of Mrs. H. Weise in Lubbock, Miss Betty Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hall of Olton became the bride of Lyndel Yandell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Yandell of Munday.

Rev. A. Hester performed the service before the fireplace, decorated with palm and basket arrangements of white gladioli. White tapers on the mantel lighted the scene. Miss Elva Joy Clark, niece of the bride, lit the candles.

Mrs. H. Weise, pianist, played "Indian Love Call". The traditional wedding march was used.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a brown silk crepe dress with navy and brown accessories and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Cooper Rutherford, matron of honor, wore a beige lace dress with navy accessories and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. G. C. Brockett served as best man.

At a reception following the ceremony, the table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of iris, flanked by white candles. The crystal punch bowl occupied one end of the table and the wedding cake the other. Mrs. Dub Hall and Mrs. E. G. Clark presided over the service. Home movies were made of the wedding party and reception. Wedding guests were from Lubbock, Olton and Munday.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a two-piece navy wool dress with navy and red accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Yandall is a graduate of Olton High School. Mr. Yandall is a graduate of Weibert High School and attended Hardin-Simmons University for two years.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Has New, Different Idea On Limiting Expenditures Of The Candidates

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek has a wrong-end view of a vital matter this week, his letter reveals: Dear editor:

I picked up a copy of the Dallas News which my neighbor had half-covered up with his plow. I tell you reckless plowing like that is wasteful, believe I'd just as soon rest under a tree as run the risk of buryin good readin matter of any kind of readin matter, includin that paper, and shook the dirt off, that is, the dirt my neighbor had put on it with his plow, not the dirt that was printed, and took it home and sat down in a protected spot south of the barn, which is a spot protected from the wind and my wife's voice, and read where there is some more agitation for puttin stricter limits on the amount of money a can-

Tom McCahill, featured automotive writer for "Mechanix Illustrated" (center), receives trophy emblematic of the 1951 official unmodified stock-car record from Bill France, President of the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing. The record of 100.13 miles per hour was made at Daytona Beach, Fla., in a Chrysler New Yorker four-door sedan, powered by the new 180-horsepower V-8 FirePower engine. McCahill entered the trials on the spur of the moment with a car that had been driven only 400 miles and that had been given no special tune-up. W. Brewster Shaw, Jr., Chrysler dealer in Daytona Beach, shown standing at the right, loaned him the vehicle, taking it off the showroom floor.

didate can spend to get elected.

As I understand it, the law limits the amount of money a man can spend to get elected but it's so full of loopholes a man can spend about all he or his office-hungry friends can lay hands on. It seems like it ain't nothin to spend twice as much gettin elected as the office pays, which ain't preposterous to me, as many a year I've worked twice as hard on my Johnson grass farm as I got paid, until I caught on and learned if I wasn't gonna make anything anyway I might as well do it comfortably.

But spendin big money to get elected, accordin to the thinkers is bad, and the Legislature ought to camp down with stricter laws.

Now I take a different view of this. It seems to me they have got the cart before the horse.

What we need ain't so much a law sayin how much a man can spend before he's elected, it after he's elected that counts. That's where the real damage comes from.

I say, turn em loose before they're elected, but clamp down with all you've got after they're

Rufus Higgs, publisher-editor of the Stephenville Empire-Tribune, got to thinking about th "good old days" and wrote this: nearly 10 years ago:

Cotton production in the old days was a simple matter of calculation—forty acres was good for 15 or 20 bales, some times more. Taxes were low, living expenses at a minimum and a good horse would sell for more than $100.

A span of mules 16 hands high would easily sell for four or five hundred dollars.

Everybody went to church in those days; prayer meeting was an event rather than a formality. A political rally attracted elected.

I will appreciate you taking this up with Representative Gosssett or Senator Connally and see what can be done about it. They'll probably be home this week-end. That is, Wednesday afternoon.

Yours faithfully,

crowds from far and near while an ice cream supper was tops in attendance. School and church picnics would ordinarily bring out 100 per cent cooperation, while a "badge fight" created a sensation.

The man who worked all spring and summer—as they did at the turn of the century—would seek a place of diversion after he had laid his crop by. He would either go to see his relatives in East Texas, hunt up a camp meeting where horse and feed and tie ropes were furnished, or take off on a fishing trip.

If he had been provided with modern-day attractions such as movies, he more than likely would have been far more contented to spend a few hours listening to Clark Gable than he would have driving a spavined team back to Hunt County for a visit with his wife's kinfolks.

Many other comparisons could be drawn, of course. Yet old-

It's A Honey Of A Bunny - This Ginger Bread Cooky

The whole family, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and all the little Harveys add a timely and very decorative touch to that Easter party. You can make them quick like a bunny, too, with a handy package of Duff's Ginger Bread Mix. All you do is pick up a cut-out cooky pattern from a tear-off pad at your favorite grocer's and paste it on cardboard. For your dough just add 1/4 cup water to one package of Duff's Ginger Bread Mix and roll out 1/8 inch thick on a lightly floured board. Place the bunny patterns on your dough and cut around with a sharp knife. Bake them on a greased cooky sheet in a moderate oven, (350° F.) 10-12 minutes. When cool, outline the Harvey whiskers and tail with white frosting. You can use a pastry tube for this, or a little cornucopia made of waxed paper. That's all you do for a new and completely different Easter table.

When Nasty Colds Leave You WEAK AND RUNDOWN HADACOL CAN HELP

If Your System Lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron, Which HADACOL Contains

When a nasty cold leaves you in a weakened and run-down condition, HADACOL can help build you up if your system is lacking in Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and iron, important elements contained in HADACOL. Many folks have found that this fine family formula helps overcome these deficiencies and soon they feel good again.

Mrs. A. Jiminez, 141 East 13th St., Fort Arthur, Texas, gave HADACOL to her young son, Floyd, after he had recovered from a bad cold when she heard how HADACOL was helping folks suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and iron. It helped him so much in regaining his strength and energy that Mrs. Jiminez says she is always going to have HADACOL on hand for Floyd.

Here is Mrs. Jiminez's statement: "My son Floyd was very subject to colds. He's eleven years old, and he was run-down, didn't seem to have an appetite at all, and just simply lacked energy. I heard about HADACOL on the radio, and it was about this time that Floyd was just recovering from a siege of a bad cold.

He was very run-down, lacked an appetite, and I started giving him HADACOL. After about a bottle and a half I could not notice an improvement. His appetite picked up and he had increased strength. I think HADACOL has done wonders for Floyd, and can't praise it enough. I have continued to give him HADACOL and intend to always have it on hand for Floyd."

Men, women and children of all ages are praising HADACOL for supplying Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron which their systems lacked. Don't let that "After-Cold Run-down Feeling" drag you down—HADACOL can help you, too, if you suffer such deficiencies. Sold on a strict money-back guarantee. You'll feel great after the first few bottles you take or your money back. Trial size, $1.25; large family economy size, $3.50.

KITCHEN MEMO BY JEAN CLARKE

Your Home

By Frances Ainsworth

GREAT grandmother was right when she fed her family old fashioned Molasses Pie for the iron and calcium in molasses are important daily needs in anybody's diet. Combine 4 slightly beaten eggs, 1/2 cup molasses, 1 cup corn syrup, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. vanilla, 1 cup melted butter or margarine. Mix well and pour into a 9-inch un-baked pie crust. Bake 35 mins. in a gas oven set at 350° F. For Molasses-Pecan Pie, add 1 cup chopped pecans to mixture before pouring into pie crust.

Grease may splash onto the wall behind your range. Cut a sheet of plastic to fasten on the wall. Then a quick wipe with a soapy cloth will keep it clean.

Quilted coverlets are precious possessions and need to be washed and dried with care. The sagging weight of a wet coverlet causes uneven drying on the line and distorts its shape. If you haven't an automatic gas dryer, borrow the use of one for drying your coverlets. Set the dial at high temperature to completely dry for 20 to 25 minutes and the coverlet will be soft, fluffy and perfectly shaped.

To prevent the flowerettes from breaking off as you lift cauliflower from the pan, put the vegetable into a clean cloth tied to form a bag. Cook, of course, over a low gentle simmer flame.

Spill your pins and needles? A dime-store magnet in your sewing box will pick them up in a flash.

If food is burned on the bottom of a pan, soak with baking soda and water overnight. When you're in a hurry to use the pan, bring cold water and soda to a boil over a high flame until burned residue falls off.

Isn't it amazing how quickly some furnishings become soiled in the winter time? My white glass curtains in the living room, for instance, seem to absorb all the fireplace smoke—actually get grey. Well, this week I decided to get an early start on Spring cleaning and washed all my curtains, blankets and slipcovers, and when I dried them, I almost cried—the curtains were yellow—and so were my beautiful white woolen blankets! Luckily, though, a neighbor dropped in just then and saved the day with a package of a really wonder bluing called "Whitex." It's one of the six related products put out by the famous Tintex dye concern. It isn't an ordinary bluing or bleach, and it works on all kinds of fabrics—even nylon, rayon, silk and wool. You'd never believe what that little package did for my furnishings—restored the original whiteness in a jiffy! And imagine, being able to use it on wool blankets and nylon curtains—to say nothing of my white nylon blouses and slips.

I think you'll be as excited as I am about another budget-soother made by the same house. It's a fast-acting color remover that needs no boiling and works on all fabrics, including the man-made fibers. If you do tintexing as often as I, you know that taking out the old color first is advisable when the article is unevenly faded or spotted. And it's a "must" when you want to get a lighter shade on a dark-colored article or when you want to re-dye the wearable or home decoration an entirely new or different color. Like the wonder bluing, you can get the color remover at all-fabric dye counters for fifteen cents to a quarter a box.

Cub Scouts Hold Blue-Gold Party On Friday Night

Munday's pack of Boy Scouts held their "blue and gold" birthday party last Friday night at the school lunch room. The Cubs and their parents were present, and special invitations were sent to local Boy Scout Committeemen and teachers in local school.

The regular monthly pack meeting was held, and this was followed by a banquet in the lunchroom, according to J. W. Massey, Cub master.

Games were enjoyed, and the Cub Scouts displayed specimens of the work they have done so far this year. Ladies who are doing a wonderful work with the boys who had a part in the "blue and gold party are:

Mrs. C. E. Fox and Mrs. Paul Pruitt, den mothers; Mrs. H. C. Cunningham and Mrs. J. E. Jackson, assistant den mothers. H. C. Cunningham is serving as assistant cub master.

Those present enjoyed a talk by Gene W. Harrell, finance officer for the Boy Scouts, who told of the importance of scouting and told the Cubs some of the things they can look to when they become of scout age.

So this is HOUSEKEEPING

To put it politely—I'm disturbed. To put it honestly—I'm peeved! The objects of my anger are those speechmakers and writers who now say the washing machine is a luxury and that, accordingly, its production should be halted in favor of defense production and the continued output of certain "essential" civilian products.

I am perfectly willing to give up the luxuries of peacetime life if it is going to help our nation in these perilous times. But I strongly disagree with anyone who says that washing machines are luxuries. I'm sure that you, as homemakers, will agree with me. You will, if you're like Mrs. Richmond, who lives in our block and is a very busy young mother of three small children. When I asked her what she'd do without a washing machine, she replied:

"I'd just have to throw in the sponge."

Then I began thinking: "Just why is the washing machine so necessary?"

The most important reason is to keep our families and homes clean. Cleanliness is the foundation of health, and good health is a prime requisite for high morale, a vital ingredient for personal and national success either in peace or war.

At least seven out of every 10 American housewives do the family washing at home, where they have no choice but to use a washing machine. That is, unless you can possibly consider a return to grandmother's scrubboard as an alternative.

The fact that I have a new washing machine doesn't serve one bit to cool my indignation over statements that production of the "luxury" washing machine may have to be discontinued.

Recently I read that more than 40 per cent of the washing machines now in use are 10 or more years old and in need of early replacement. In still another article I read that each year an average of 1,180,000 washers are becoming useless and are being junked. It is important to everyone that these machines be replaced, for the health and cleanliness of the people with whom we associate is as important to us as the health and cleanliness of our own families. It's my own opinion that it's of vital importance, too, to the entire nation. History proves that one of the surest ways to weaken a nation is to first weaken the unity and strength (and that means health) of the family.

I, for one, am going to write my congressman!

Letters From The People

The following letters have just been received by Mrs. Nancy Hamilton from her two sons who are now serving with the armed forces. Thinking they would be of much interest to relatives and friends of these service men, it was requested that they be published.

Dear Mother,
They let us off yesterday, and I went to Washington, D. C.—I went through the capital and to the top of Washington's monument, and through the Smithsonian Museum. It took all day for this tour; but it was very enjoyable and educational. I saw everything you could think about, all kinds of animals, people and guns. I saw the first train ever built, and the Wright Brothers first airplane. Tell grandmother I saw dresses like they used to wear when she was a girl.

Love to all,

L. V.

Dear Mother,
Don't worry about me, as I am stationed just 75 miles from Hollywood and see a lot of interesting things. Next to home I had just as soon be here as any place. It is beautiful here; pretty scenery; grass and trees green and the weather mild.

Love,
BOBBY JACK

(Bobby Jack Hamilton is with the Army Air Force and is now stationed at March Air Field Base, in California.)

H. M. Michels, H. M. Michels, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hertel were business visitors in Fort Worth the first of this week.

YOU MAY DECIDE!

Following in the footsteps of its sponsor, a famous granulated soap which "does everything" for its users, "The Guiding Light," one of radio's leading daytime serials, has set out to do something unparalleled for its listeners. The CBS show shortly will give them the opportunity actually to participate in the development of the plot. For what is believed to be the first time in radio history, listeners will be asked to act as members of a jury to decide the fate of a leading character, on trial for murder. Meta White (above) is being tried for the murder of her husband.

Listeners have been urged to follow the Duz-sponsored radio serial each day in order to hear the testimony of witnesses and weigh the evidence. At the end of the trial, probably late in February, the case will go to the jury—which means the listening audience. They will be asked to send in their verdict, after having heard all the details of the case, as if they were actual jurors. The final verdict will depend completely on a majority vote of the "impaneled" listeners.

Oil Activities

The Strawn pool in Knox County was indicated by Thomas D. Humphrey No. 1 Mrs. Mattie Davis, eight miles west of Knox City. Two hour drill stem test of the formation from 5117 to 5127 feet recovered 100 feet of clean oil.

Drilled to 5,175 feet, another drill stem test for three hours and 15 minutes recovered 540 feet of clean oil, 60 feet of oil-cut mud and 2,600 feet of salt water, with bottomhole flowing pressure of 1,499 pounds and 2,055 pounds of shut in bottom-hole pressure. There was no report on the formation interval between 5,127 and 5,169 feet as drilling continued.

The Palo Pinto reef lime pool, northeast of Knox City, was defined on the southeast by the abandonment of the Stanolind Oil and Gas Company No. 1 Mabel Wilson at 6,475 feet in the Ellenburger. Markers reported were Palo Pinto 4,174 feet, Caddo 5,580 feet, Mississippian 5,854 feet and Ellenburger 6,130 feet.

Three Names Filed For City Council

Three names have been filed at the office of Harvey Lee, city secretary, for places on the ballot in the city's April 3 election. There are for aldermen, and they will replace E. W. Harrell, Winston Blacklock and J. Welton Smith, whose terms expire and who did not file for re-election.

Filing for places on the ballot were Wallace Reid, Joel Massey and L. W. Hobert.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Yeager and children, Billy and Lois, and Mrs. J. D. Nelson and daughter, Carolyn, all of Fort Worth, visited in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Yeager, and other relatives and friends over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gulley, Mrs. Thurman Gulley, Mrs. Effie Gulley and Miss Audrey Gulley were in Duncan, Okla., on Monday of this week. They attended Mrs. J. D. Green's funeral. She is a sister of Mrs. Effie Gulley.

Mrs. W. M. Mayo visited in Haskell Tuesday of this week.

NEW HOME LAUNDRY AID NOW BEING MANUFACTURED IN TEXAS

The new household product being produced in the Southwest is being manufactured at the Procter & Gamble Dallas, Texas, factory, shown below, it was announced by this company, one of the country's largest and oldest manufacturers of cleaning materials.

Called Cheer, the new all-purpose detergent is guaranteed, due to its patented formula, to get the family wash cleaner and whiter than any known soap. It is being introduced to homemakers in the Southwest after extensive laboratory tests and practical use in millions of homes in test areas for nearly a year. The new product is so effective that when it is used no bleaches, bluing or chemical water softeners have to be added, it was pointed out at demonstrations in key Southwestern cities. The new product, Cheer, works equally well in hard or soft water. Because it does not react to the minerals in the hard water to form chemical scums, it leaves no cloudy deposits on clothes or rings around tubs.

While it's recommended that canned foods be kept from freezing, there is no truth to the notion that freezing makes them unwholesome. According to Good Housekeeping magazine some canned foods of creamy consistency look curdled after freezing, but heating usually restores their normal appearance. However, repeated freezing and thawing injures the texture of delicate fruits, berries, and vegetables.

J. D. McStay of Vernon spent the week end in the home of his mother, Mrs. S. E. McStay.

County Council To Be Presented On March 15th

Knox County Home Demonstration Council met Friday, February 23, in the Assembly Room, Benjamin.

The chairman asked the Recreation Chairman to have charge of the recreation at the next meetings.

The club reports show that the clubs are doing good work, and that more interest is being shown.

The chairman has asked the committees to meet at 2 p. m. and have the recommendations ready to present to the Council, and to take to the clubs for approval. The Finance, Yearbook, and Recreation presented their recommendations, the other committees will report in March.

On Tuesday, March 13, at 2 p. m., in the Assembly Room, Mrs. W. C. Solomon, Truscott Club, will give a demonstration on the making of belts and buckles. Each club is to have representatives there.

In the THDA meeting, Mesdames Carl Patterson, Benjamin, H. R. Hicks, Sunset; and Richard Winsted, Gilliland; were elected delegates to the District meeting in Wellington, April 12. Mrs. J. R. Brown, Truscott, was elected alternate. Every member enjoyed a short visit with Judge J. B. Eubanks, Jr., in his office.

Refreshments were served by the Benjamin club.

The next Council meeting will be held March 23, in the Assembly Room.

There are some 900 farmer cooperatives in Texas. About one-third of these are cooperative cotton gins. Local cooperatives with an average of about 200 members each make up 95 percent of the total number.

Texas cooperatives last year borrowed more than 22.8 million dollars from the Houston Bank of Cooperatives and much of it was invested in modern equipment and facilities for handling farmers' crops.

Mrs. Nora Broach was a business visitor in Haskell Tuesday of this week.

Most Housewives Polish Furniture Once Every Week

A spot survey conducted in Austin, and seven other widely scattered American cities indicates that 92 percent of the urban American housewives clean their living room furniture each day.

The survey was conducted by Johnson's Wax on behalf of "Pride", a new liquid furniture polish that needs no rubbing.

Strangely enough, it was the housewives over 50 years of age who racked up the highest score for once-a-day cleaning. Housewives in the 40-50 bracket had the lowest score.

The largest percentage—48 percent—clean their living room furniture on an even weekly schedule, the survey showed.

7-Step Cotton Program In '51

Cotton will be planted in 226 counties in Texas this year. Indications are that the acreage planted will be stepped up greatly because of reductions in flax, sorghum, vegetable and small grain acreages. These reductions are due largely to adverse weather during the last fall and winter says F. C. Elliott.

Elliott, who is cotton specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says farmers have shown a big interest in varieties of cotton adapted to the use of machine strippers and pickers.

Our records show that definite progress is being made in the 7-Step Cotton Program, Elliott states.

He lists seven steps in the program as (1) fit cotton into balanced farming, (2) take care of your soil, (3) act together on the best variety, (4) make your labor count, (5) control cotton insects and diseases, (6) pick and gin for higher grade, and (7) sell for grade, staple and variety value.

In 1948, the program assisted in fitting cotton into balanced farming on 28,043 farms in Texas. This number was increased to 31,115 in 1949, and to 48,181 last year.

Although little increase in soil improvement practices occurred during the past two years, over the 1948 figures, Elliott says farmers have indicated that they will fertilize about 20 percent of the cotton acreage in 1951. Eleven percent is the most that has ever been fertilized in the past.

The number of spindle type cotton picking machines increased from 92 in 1948 to 335 in 1949. Due to reduced cotton acreage, there was a reduction of machine pickers in 1950. However, Elliott says farmers have indicated that they want to buy 588 new strippers this year.

From a total of 4,732 in 1948, the number of stripper type harvesting machines increased to 7,003 in 1949. Little increase occurred in 1950. This year, farmers want to buy 7,491 new strippers—if they are available. If these new ones are bought, there will be more than 14,000 strippers on farms in Texas in

Mrs. Joseph Borden was a business visitor in Wichita Falls last Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Markward, of San Antonio spent the week end with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ehlers and family spent the week end with friends in Levelland.

Miss Margie Lou Campsey, who is attending Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Campsey, over the week end.

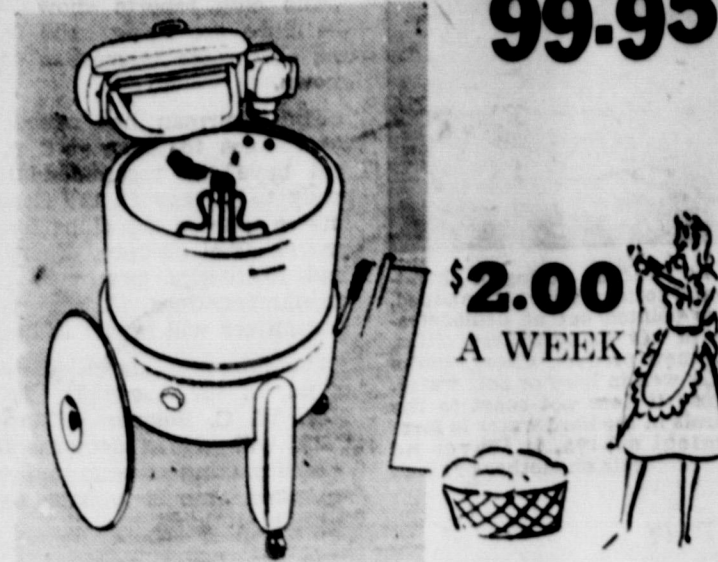

1951. Elliott reports that machine strippers were used in 84 counties last year, while machine pickers were used in 63 counties. He says that machine harvesting is bringing about an increase in the number of one variety cotton communities.

The number of rotary hoe equipped tractors increased from 6,966 in 81 counties in 1949 to 10,004 in 97 counties last year. Elliott points out that the use of the rotary hoe cuts the hoe bill by 60 to 65 percent.

Thirty-three million pounds of insecticide were used on cotton in 1948. An increase of about 50 percent occurred the next year with 49,563,948 pounds being used in 1949. Last year, about 60 percent of the cotton acreage was treated for insect control. On nearly five and a quarter million acres of cotton, 97,708,044 pounds of dust and 3,091,123 gallons of spray were applied.

The wide use of the recommended practices under the 7-Step cotton program, says Elliott, have resulted in increased yields per acre, more efficient production, higher quality cotton, better ginning and more income for the farmer.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 3—The District of Columbia is governed by commissioners appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate. Both House and Senate have District committees to recommend laws for the government of the District of Columbia. In other words, the District of Columbia is in effect governed by Congress. Each session certain organizations within the District of Columbia urge upon Congress then enactment of so-called Home Rule legislation. During the last session of Congress, such a bill was passed in the Senate but was not passed in the House. This week the Senate again started hearings on the bill. The Washington Board of Trade, similar to a chamber of commerce, and made up of hundreds of leading business men of the city of Washington, oppose Home Rule. They realize that they now get better government at smaller cost than any major city in America. A great many people in Washington are happy not to be plagued by the election of a Mayor, City Commissioners, and other municipal politics. Another thing that complicates the Home Rule picture is the growing negro population in the city of Washington. Ten years ago, roughly 27% of Washington's population was negro. Now the percentage is approximately 38. More than half the children in Washington public schools are negro children.

Engel, executive secretary of the American Jewish Committee told the meeting that "to a large extent there is no equality in the District of Columbia" and "segregation would largely disappear" if the District had Home Rule.

For the last several years a big controversy has been going on between the officials of Arizona and the officials and the people of the State of California over a proposed Central Arizona project. The Central Arizona project would require the building of a dam and power plant 120 miles above the Hoover Dam. Installation of a pump or lift to take irrigation water from the Colorado river, lift it 985 feet and run it through a 300 mile installation of canals, pipes and tunnels for the purpose of irrigating some 200,000 acres of arid land in Arizona. California opponents say this would cost the government $1838.00 per acre to irrigate. The Secretary of the Interior estimates the total cost of the project to be $2,075,729,000.00. California opponents say that not only would this gigantic project take water away from California but that it would never pay for itself and that it is fantastically uneconomical.

Mr. Lindsay Warren, a former congressman from North Carolina and for the last 10 years Comptroller General of the United States, recently made a fine report to the Congress. Two paragraphs from Mr. Warren's report are as follows: "During recent years, when it seems the Government has been expanding beyond all reasonable comprehension, the G. A. O. (General Accounting Office) has proved that it is possible to reduce employees. In April 1946 the number of employees reached a peak of 14,904. There were 7,063 employees on January 1, 1951, a reduction of 7,841 in the last five years, of whom 779 were transferred to the Post Office Department. This has been accomplished through constant surveys of our work and the elimination of procedures which serve no useful purpose under present conditions."

"A few statistics on our work in the last year: 25,300,000 vouchers audited; 492,000 claims settled; 318,000(200 checks rec onfiled); 12,400 decisions rendered to departments, agencies, claimants, and others; inspections made of 645 different government offices; 34 comprehensive audits submitted to Congress (for the first time since the Government Corporation Control Act of 1945 audits and its committees; and 3,500 replies made to inquiries from individual members of Congress."

Many of us are about to despair of the Administration's efforts to control inflation. Apparently the labor bosses will continue to push the Government around. Seemingly the Administration is going to control everything except inflation.

Last Tuesday night, I made a speech to a Methodist Brotherhood meeting in Arlington County, Virginia. To give it local color, I cited from statements of man renowned Virginians of past generations, finally reminding the audience that one of their famous early-day native sons the Honorable Patrick Henry was revered because he cried, "give me liberty or give me death" while his present-day descendants simply cry "gimme."

More Acreage In Hybrid Corn Is Justified

Expanded acreage of hybrid corn in Texas is justified by the convincingly proved ability of adapted Texas corn hybrids to outyield the best varieties of open pollinated corn.

Corn yields can be increased from 20 to 30 percent, and in some cases as much as 50 percent, by planting adapted corn hybrids. This has been shown by tests conducted on Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations and by many farm demonstrations.

On 3,847 demonstrations conducted by 4-H club boys and adults in 1950, average corn yields were increased nearly 11 bushels per acre, says E. A. Miller, agronomist for the Texas A. & M. Extension Service. He says that most of this increase was due to the use of corn hybrids.

Miller says the acreage planted to corn hybrids in Texas is too small, being only 57 percent of the total corn acreage.

The newer hybrids, including Texas Yellow Hybrids No. 20, 24, 26, and 28, have demonstrated their ability to outyield the other hybrids, and tests show that they are widely adapted. In the Gulf Coast Prairie, except in the river bottoms, Texas White Hybrids No. 9W and 11W have outyielded the yellow hybrids.

Miller recommends that farmers plant hybrid corn this year and suggests that they consult their local county agent for the best hybrids to plant in their areas.

Larry Don Hammett of Odessa spent last week visiting with Roger Dale Bell of Munday.

Watch Out For The "Blind-Spots"

Stopped by Squint Miller's farm the other day and saw a vinegar bottle in his kitchen with an oversized cucumber inside it. The cucumber filled the whole bottle.

"What's a cucumber doing in there?" I asked him. "That's my 'blind-spot' reminder," says Squint. "My grandmother kept one in her kitchen to remind her to take stock of herself now and then."

"I slipped that bottle over the cucumber when it was just starting to grow on the vine," he went on. "And like certain viewpoints, not noticed, it just grew and grew—now it's there to stay."

From where I sit, we could take a cue from Squint and watch for our own "blind-spots" and prejudices before they grow too big to get rid of. We've got to respect our neighbor's right to his preferences... preferences for a certain make of car, a favorite movie star, or a temperate glass of beer after work. We won't be tripped by any blind spots if we keep our eyes—and minds—open!

Recent photograph of a Texas primary highway

Damaged highways, such as the Texas highway shown in this picture, are a hazard to the safe operation of automobiles, farm trucks and other motor vehicles.

It costs three times as much to build roads that will withstand the loads of big trucks now being operated over them than it does for the smaller trucks and automobiles.

Latest records show $115,282,344 was spent on Texas highways for the year ending August 31, 1950.

A bill sponsored by the big truck operators is before the Texas Legislature. This bill proposes . . .

- (1) to increase the load limit from the present 48,000 pounds to 72,000 pounds, and
- (2) to increase the maximum truck length from 45 feet to 50 feet.

Recent official highway tests at La Plata, Md., sponsored by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, the highway departments of eleven states and the District of Columbia, effectively demonstrated that as trucks increased in size and loads, roads cracked up and "died" more quickly.

We need to safeguard our highways for Civilian and Military use. "Increased heavy loading might seriously disrupt the effectiveness of essential routes in the event of an all-out war," according to T. J. Kauer, director of the Ohio Highway Department and Chairman of the La Plata road test committee.

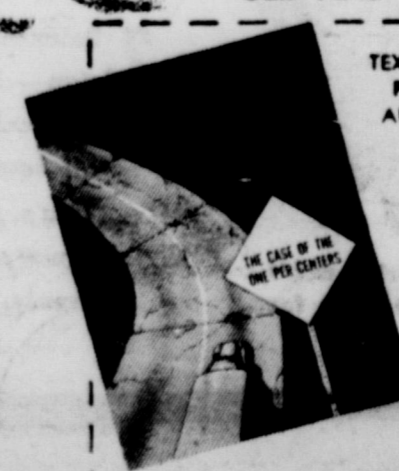

The big truckers want the taxpayers to continue providing expensive highways for them to use as "rights-of-way" for their own, selfish, personal gain.

THIS IS A TUG-OF-WAR BETWEEN THE BIG TRUCKERS AND THE TAXPAYERS OF TEXAS!

Automobiles and small trucks do not require extra strong, extra costly highways. The truth is, that the big truckers are putting the "pinch" on the pocketbooks of the Texas taxpayers.

Whitworth And Johnson Team Up For Demolition

Tuck Whitworth and Ed Johnson went on an "operations demolition" job the other day and disposed of some 16 sticks of dynamite.

The explosives were found under a culvert of the drainage ditch in the southeast edge of town. N. E. Hosea, who was cleaning out the ditch, found the dynamite and reported his find to officers. A check was made, but it was proved to be a part of the huge stock stolen near Archer City several days ago.

So Whitworth and Johnson set out to destroy the dangerous stuff.

They prepared material for a bonfire, placed the dynamite on top, poured gasoline on it, poured a trail of gasoline several feet away from the "job" and Johnson had Tuck start his auto while Ed lit the gasoline trail. When Ed struck the match, Tuck started driving away—and it was a "hoss race" between Johnson and the car for some distance!

They drove off over the hill and waited for the explosion, but none came. Gathering courage, they drove back and found the dynamite burning neatly on the bonfire.

And another demolition job was completed!

Certified planting seed comes from fields that were inspected during the growing season and were properly handled at harvest time. They have been cleaned, tested for purity and germination and properly stored. The extra cost is cheap insurance so far as stands and yields are concerned.

Son Of Bomarton Couple Named For Promoting Safety

Lee Reagan of Loveland, Colorado, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Reagan of Bomarton, was one of two Loveland citizens who were named honorary "Moose of the Year" by the Loveland Moose Lodge. Although he is not a member of the lodge, he was picked because of outstanding service to children of the community." Robert Moore, chairman of the civic affairs committee, said.

Reagan was chosen, according to Moore, "for his important job of driving children from rural areas to Loveland schools and for the fine sense of regard held for him by both children and parents."

Moore added that "while taking them home from school, Reagan remains at stops until each child is safely across the road and often he will escort some of the smaller children

More than 10,000 Texas cotton farmers last year used the rotary hoe equipment on their farm tractors to reduce the cost and amount of labor needed for hoeing their crops.

First choice for 2 reasons!

1. Deeper soil penetration — greater pull. Goodyear's open center tread has straight deep-biting lugs. They cut cleanly into the soil, penetrate full depth, full length. Straight bars closer together at the shoulders wedge the soil for firmer grip — don't "plow out" soil at the sides.
2. Balanced straight lug tread design — longer wear. Goodyear open center lugs are all straight, all equal in size and spacing. That's why every lug works equally, pulls fully, wears more evenly.
