

Kracker Krumb's Odd Bits Salvaged At Random

"Oh, show me the way to go home!"

We've always thought that song silly enough, but with the latest handling of it—getting the words all mixed up—has made it even more so—in our opinion.

Not until last Saturday did we ever think the song would apply to us as effectively as it has.

Not that we were in the inebriated condition as the song suggests, but we got mixed up, anyway.

We've always had a weakness for getting our directions mixed up.

Like, for instance, we sometimes say west when we mean east, or south when we mean north.

Rev. Butler lays acts like this on his typewriter, saying his typewriter does not always say what he tells it to say.

Which is a pretty good manner of passing the incident off. But we have caught ourself in the "direction type" of error even when speaking. Perhaps that's because our speaker does not say what our mind tells it to say, or something.

Maybe, too, it's because one of our cerebral cogs has skipped out of time—or maybe there's a cog missing entirely. We never was much hand at making a diagnosis.

Howsoever and regardless, we will get back to our story.

In an article last week, "The Editor Moves," we committed that error for which we said we had a weakness.

We said we lived a block south of the Methodist parsonage, which is not the case. Our true location is a block north of where our pastor lives.

The street name, house number and telephone number were, we believe, correct, but the location wasn't.

We're indebted to the law firm of Billingsley and Billington for setting us right. That firm "showed us the way to go home."

Receiving a letter from that firm, we thought it was just a little late in getting its monthly remittance to us, since their bills are usually paid by the 10th of each month.

We hurriedly opened it—but we didn't find a check!

Instead, there was a neatly drawn map, or sketch, of the area where we live.

The usual architectural arrow was there, pointing to the north, with each of the directions plainly indicated with the letters N, S, W, and E.

In one square, which we take to indicate a city block, was a smaller square which was labeled "Methodist Parsonage."

One square was not labeled, but directly to the north of it was another containing a similar square in which was written "Editor."

An arrow pointed to the "Editor" square, and at the tail end of this arrow were the words "Here is where you live if you cannot locate."

As we aid, we're indebted to the above law firm for setting us aright. And we think we know which member of the partnership to which we are most indebted.

We've placed the map in our office window so we can refer to it when we start home each evening.

We have one further explanation, other than those offered in the preamble to this effort.

When one goes through a house financing, house planning

Program On Farming To Be Held Here

Farmers, agricultural and civic leaders, and their families are invited to participate in an inspirational program, "We Salute American Agriculture," which is being presented on Tuesday, March 27 at 8 p. m. at the school auditorium, under the sponsorship of J. L. Stodghill. The program will be highlighted by a Technicolor motion picture, "Waves of Green," which will be exhibited for the first time in this community.

"Waves of Green" tells the story of how American farmers and American farm industries have worked hand-in-hand with scientists and educators of the nation's land-grant colleges to make this the greatest agricultural nation in the history of mankind. It was produced by Dearborn Motors Corporation as a non-commercial documentary film to pay a mid-century tribute to the men and women who have contributed so much to American agricultural progress since the Morrill Act, establishing land-grant colleges, was enacted in 1862.

"We Salute American Agriculture" programs are planned for three groups: Farm people and agricultural leaders, members of community service and civic organizations, and school children. The dates and places of these meetings will be announced within the next week. Showings for school students will be presented in the schools. Showing for adults will each be limited to 400 persons. Complimentary tickets for reserved seats may be secured by phoning, writing, or calling on Mr. Stodghill or any member of the firm's personnel.

Pallmeyer On Duty As County Agent Here

The position of County Agricultural Agent for Knox County was filled Friday, March 16, 1951, by W. C. (Bill) Pallmeyer, replacing Kenneth Lewis who was called to active duty with the Air Forces.

Pallmeyer comes from Wichita County where he has served as assistant county agent for the past two years. Previous experience with the Extension Service was Assistant Agent in Training at Memphis, Hall County, Texas, for a period of 9 months.

Pallmeyer is a 1948 graduate of Texas A. & M. College with a degree in Agricultural Engineering. Prior to the war, he attended Texas Tech at Lubbock, and John Tarleton at Stephenville.

The plan of work that Pallmeyer plans to follow in Knox County is as follows: Continue the work that Kenneth Lewis had started plus any new programs that the people of the county are in need for, keeping in mind that the job of County Agent is to assist the people of the county with their problems, and strive for better agriculture and livestock in the county.

A Sure Enough Fish Story

When W. E. Braly, president of the First National Bank, started to Lake Kemp last Thursday after banking hours to run his routine, he asked about half the fishermen of the town to go with him. All had excuses.

He is shown above with real proof of his success—a 11-pound bass which he gathered in off his line. One look at the fish, which local fishermen declared is the largest they've ever seen, made them wish they'd joined M. Braly on the trip. The fish was displayed Friday morning in the market of Holder's Grocery, and we think Doss went fishing that afternoon!

The Rexall drug store was almost "cleaned out" of watches and jewelry by a burglar or burglars, who entered the store on Thursday night of last week.

Entrance to the store was gained by breaking into the glass in one of the rear doors. The burglars were particular to remove jewelry from the cases, leaving the cases. They must have worked swiftly and dilligently, as most of the jewelry was in show cases near the front of the building.

Officers were working on the case early Friday morning, taking fingerprints and making other investigations. No definite clues have been announced.

An attempted burglary of Munday Truck and Tractor Company was thwarted early Sunday morning when discovered by Nightwatchman D. R. Donoho. No arrests were made.

PRICE-CEILINGS AND SCARCITY

In a revealing editorial on the problems of price-fixing, the magazine The Freeman observed, "A legal price-ceiling arbitrarily establishes a lower price than the free competitive offers and bids of sellers and buyers would establish in a free market. . . ."

"But to say that a price-ceiling would make a price lower than a free market would make it, is only another way of saying that it would make demand chronically greater than supply. It would do this in two ways. Because it is a 'bargain', and because they can afford to use it more wastefully, buyers and consumers will demand more of the price-fixed article at the lower fixed price than they would have demanded at the higher free price. And because they can make less of a profit-margin from it . . . producers will make less and sell less than they would if the price-fixed article at the legal price-ceiling than they would have produced and offered at the higher free price-ceiling. In short, the effect of price-ceilings is almost inevitably to bring about a shortage of the price-fixed article."

The vast majority of producers and retailers are doing their utmost to make price regulations workable. Indeed, long before the government stepped in, the retailers of the country were voluntarily doing everything possible to hold prices down as is witnessed by the fact that price increases at retail lagged well behind price increases at wholesale. However, as The Freeman editorial intimates, no one can afford to make an article if it will not return him some profit—and no store can afford to sell an article unless its sale will bring some profit.

Sound administration of the pricing laws must take these basic facts into consideration.

MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

A very small number of services and commodities have not changed in cost since the pre-World War II area. Fire insurance is on that limited list.

The price of $1,000 worth of fire insurance on an average home in a typical location in the United States is now about the same as in 1940. In the intervening years, real estate values have almost doubled. A home which cost $5,000 in 1940 is worth around $9,950 today, and prudent policyholders have naturally increased their insurance coverage accordingly.

However, in terms of wages and commodities, the real cost of fire insurance on this home which has doubled in value is down, not up. The average factory worker, for example, needs 16 percent less hours of work to insure his $9,950 home today than he did in protection for the value of only eight bushels.

In the long run, of course, the cost of fire insurance is determined by the amount of the nation's fire waste. If destruction by fire insurance,

BRISTOL, R. L., PHOENIX: "With taxes steadily increasing on all levels, local, State and Federal, it becomes more necessary than ever that we choose wisely those things for which we shall and shall not spend our money . . . . The average tax load per family today is equal to about $2,137 as compared to $360 in 1939."

ABILENE, KAN., DAILY REFLECTOR CHRONICLE: "A personal visit to England by a competent correspondent gives a rather grim picture of life over there under socialism. The state now runs banks, utilities, the railroads, the coal mines, iron and steel industries, controls land sales, medicine and generally runs the country. Nobody can get a job except working for the government . . . . Living is costly!"

PALM BEACH, FLA., POST: "There is no end but ruin when dealing with inflationary spirals, except they be dealt with summarily . . . . The politicians have demonstrated in this field, as they have almost universally in other fields, a freakish incapacity to grasp what happens."

SOMERSET, PA., DAILY AMERICAN: "The 'un-freezing' of prices set upon various lines of merchandise and commerce recently stabilized merely attests the discovery by the price fixers that their task is among the impossibles."

MARION, ALA., TIMES-STANDARD: "The people of this country, while devoted to the ideal of individual liberty, understand that they can delegate authority to officials for a limited time and for a particular purpose without endangering the performance of their free institutions. ### Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16—The House this week approved one Administration proposal but defeated two others. The House approved the President's recommendation for reorganizing the RFC. This plan sets up a one-man Administrator in the place of a five member board of directors which now runs the RFC. It also sets up a loan policy board and a review policy board. The Review Policy Board would have to give particular study to all loans in excess of $100,000,000.

The House defeated a reorganization bill under which the President could create new agencies or shift old ones almost at will. I voted against this bill, because the President now has authority to reorganize agencies. I do not want him to have authority to create any new and unnecessary boards such as the FEPC. If he needs to set up some defense agency not already authorized, he can ask for the specific authority, which is deemed necessary by the Congress would of course be granted.

Another Administration proposal which 8 of us Texans opposed, while 12 favored, was a so-called 3 billion dollar defense housing bill. This bill would give the Administration the right to spend 3 billion dollars in building government defense housing and community facilities wherever the planners and spenders might desire. The measure would have been extremely inflationary. Preserving the value of the dollar is now one of our most important problems, and if defense areas become crowded, that is one of the sacrifices and in conveniences necessary. Some defense housing may become necessary, but most of us are not willing to authorize 3 billion dollars worth of same at this time. We already have provisions for military housing and FHA financing of private housing.

The current issue of United States News has some interest-

Conqueror of Breaded Wheat Rust

The first successful transfer of the rust resistant qualities of feed wheat to the bread wheats was accomplished by Prof. E. S. McFadden, agronomist at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. The development of his Hope wheat halted wheat rust which threatened much of the crop in the nation's bread basket, the Middle West. Prof. McFadden appears in the new motion picture, "Waves of Green," which is to be shown here soon as part of the "We Salute American Agriculture" program.

ing statistics on the value of the dollar. If a dollar was worth 100 cents in 1900, it was worth 77 in 1915; 46 cents in 1930; 44 cents in 1945, and 31 cents today. The following table shows comparative prices of some defense items:

	1945	Now
Fighter plane	$ 53,000	218,000
Medium bomber	185,000	2,500,000
Big Bomber	629,000	3,500,000
Transport Plane	85,000	514,000
Heavy transport plane	260,000	1,800,000
Light tank	39,652	126,029
Medium tank	47,339	200,000

Thus, it becomes evident that this country must resort to drastic expedients to restrain inflation and to hold costs down from further skyrocketing.

The Armed Services Committee of the House has at last completed writing and has reported to the House, a Universal Military Training and Selective Service Act. Four amendments adopted in the Committee would (1) Allow any registrant to demand the right to serve in a segregated unit. (2) Authorize Congress to stop inductions without the consent of the President. (3) Terminate the Selective Service program after three years. (4) Require the release of recalled reservists after one year of service if they are veterans of World War II. I especially hope that we will be able to retain the amendment giving an inductee the right to serve in a segregated unit if he pleases. Sometime ago, at the behest of the leftwing groups in this country, the President issued an executive order abolishing all segregation in the Armed Forces. Even most negroes would doubtless prefer serving in colored units. Social and morale problems would be best served by segregation.

Hampton Cherry In 32nd Year At Local Oil Mill

The following article regarding Hampton Cherry, local colored man, appeared in the March issue of The Paymaster, publication of the Western Cottonoll Company.

It's not many men that have worked 'round the clock three weeks-shift at any mill without once leaving the grounds, but Hampton Cherry did just that at the Munday mill a few years ago.

The reason? Because of his sense of company loyalty, coupled with the fact that both superintendents were ill with pneumonia and someone had to stay on the job and look after things.

And that is the reason they think immediately of Hampton Cherry when they think of company loyalty here. One of the superintendents who was ill at the time of his three weeks here.

But that is just a small part shift was D. D. Clough, who is still superintendent at the mill of the record set by Cherry at Munday. He started his oil mill career there when he was 14 years of age, back in September 1919, when he was put to work as a sack sewer by H. A. Pendleton, who owned the plant at that time. Pendleton later sold out and Cherry stayed at the mill. Pendleton, too, is still with Western Cottonoll Company.

Cherry was born December 11, 1897, at Wolfe City, Texas. His parents were Will and Sophia Cherry. The first job the youngster held was with a flour manufacturing company, where he was employed for five years. At the present time he is a retail tradesman.

It was in Munday that he married his wife, Carrie Lee, on December 23, 1930. She is active in church work, as a member of the Church of Christ.

He can be found every day on the job—and this is his 32nd year at the mill!

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cluck and son, Gary, of Fort Worth visited with homefolks here over the week end.

Brannon Payne went to the Stamford Hospital Tuesday of this week for medical treatment.

State Auditor For Selective Service Dies

AUSTIN, Texas, March 13—John W. Schultz, 58, widely known among local board members and clerks of the Selective Service System in Texas, died Monday at 5:45 p. m. in Memorial Hospital, Cleburne.

Mr. Schultz, who had been a local board inspector and auditor for Selective Service most of the time for the past ten years, had been in the Cleburne hospital for about five weeks.

Mr. Schultz began work for Selective Service as clerk of the local board at Alvarado, his birth place, on October 17, 1940, and was promoted to clerical audit supervisor on December 1, 1942.

When the Selective Service Act of 1940 expired, Mr. Schultz was made supervisor in the Texas Office of Selective Service Records on July 1, 1947.

With the advent of the 1948 Selective Service Act he was appointed clerical audit supervisor on August 15, 1948, position in which he was serving at the time of his death.

Mr. Schultz was a veteran of World War I, having served in France from February, 1918, through June, 1919.

Funeral services are scheduled at the First Methodist Church Alvarado, Wednesday, March 14 at 3 p. m.

Mr. Schultz is survived by his wife, Mrs. Jeffe Turner Schultz, Alvarado; five brothers, V. E. and Harry Schultz, Austin; C. Y. Schultz, San Antonio; Dr. Frank Schultz, Dallas; Ed A. Shults, Hillsboro; and a sister, Mrs. C. P. Craig, Austin.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our thanks to all dear friends for their cards, flowers, and other expressions of kindness during our stay in the hospital.

Your thoughtfulness shall always be remembered.

ARMY WILL ADOPT NEW COTTON SATEEN

A new type of cotton sateen cloth eventually will replace the traditional herringbone twill as the material for Army fatigue clothing, the Department of the Army has announced.

The new fabric has been found to have much better wear qualities than herringbone twill. It was developed by the Army Quartermaster Corps in cooperation with the textile industry and has been extensively tested.

The Quartermaster Corps plans to purchase 15 million yards of the cotton sateen during the next several months. It will be manufactured into jackets and coats for use as work garments. However, the new fatigue clothing will not be issued to troops until present supplies of herringbone twill uniforms are exhausted.

The new sateen was tested in laboratories, at the Quartermaster Corps combat course in Fort Lee, Va., and by troops in the field. The so-called reverse to have the greatest resistance to abrasion with a wearing quality equal to nearly twice that of herringbone twill. side of the material was found

Farm Bureau Gives Support To Road Bill

Representative Jim Sewall of Navarro county has introduced a rural road bill, (H. B. No. 669) that will have the full support of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, J. Walter Hammond, president of the organization, announced today. The bill embodies the federation's philosophy for a rural road program that will meet the needs in Texas, Hammond said. Sewall's bill has five co-authors, namely: Representatives D. B. Herdeman, Bert Hall, Johnson county; Henry Lehman, Milam, Burleson and Lee counties; Douglas Crouch, Denton county; Cloyd Young, Cass County.

The Sewall bill proposes to raise approximately $30,000,000 a year by placing a "Gathering Tax" of one cent per 1000 cubic feet on natural gas. The money will be divided 1/4 to public schools, 1/2 to the counties for building and improvement of rural roads, and 1/4 will be distributed among every incorporated city, town and village on the basis of population according to the most recent federal census.

Signers of the bill specified the tax levy as a "gathering tax" patterned from the one cent per thousand cubic feet "gathering tax" which Louisiana has levied in recent years. The bill, Hammond said, will accomplish three primary aims:

(1) It will allow the continuation of the direly needed farm-to-market and rural road program. One-half of the estimated $30,000,000 which provisions of the bill will provide, will be sent to the counties for the building and improvement of rural roads starting with school bus and rural mail routes. County judges and commissioners will authorize the spending of the money, with specifications to have the approval of a licensed engineer or the Texas Highway Department.

(2) One-fourth, or about $7,500,000 will go to some 700 incorporated cities, towns, and villages that are facing serious financial difficulties. They will be allowed to use the money for the building and maintenance of streets.

(3) It will insure that people of Texas, living both in town and on the farm, will get more benefits out of vast resources of natural gas which are rapidly being expanded.

Strong opposition to the Sewall bill may be expected from the powerful natural resources lobby, Hammond predicted. He called on county Farm Bureaus throughout the state, county judges and commissioners, and the folks in the cities to lend support to the measure.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

The Knox County Commissioners Court urgently requests your cooperation in protecting our lateral roads, especially those traveled by rural carriers and school buses, from being damaged by plowing. We refer to a letter received from the Post Office Department, Washington, D. C., as follows: Gentlemen:

It has been reported to the Department that some roads on the lines of rural routes in the Knox County area have been made impassable for travel by the rural carriers due to the plowing of these roads by tractor-farming patrons of the routes.

In order that efficient and satisfactory service may be afforded, it is essential that roads on the lines of rural routes be maintained in such condition as to be easily and safely passable for the carrier. When a road traveled by a rural route carrier becomes impassable or dangerous to travel, the Department has no alternative but to suspend service over the neglected road temporarily or withdraw it permanently, as the circumstances may warrant.

"But the cause is not hopeless, he declared. "The weapons are at hand with which to beat this insidious enemy."

It is earnestly hoped that sufficient interest will be taken by the persons benefitted to keep the roads in good condition so that it will not be necessary to withdraw service. Sincerely yours, V. C. BURKE, First Assistant Postmaster General. 33-21c

Shivers Calls For Hard Fight On Inflation

DALLAS—Inflation is everybodys business, Gov. Allan Shivers declared recently in an address before the Dallas convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

"Inflation is adding something every day to your Federal, state and local tax bill," the Governor pointed out. "Inflation makes it more expensive to build roads, run schools and universities, to buy office supplies, to safeguard the public health and safety, to make even the most modest provisions for civil defense—in short, to carry every phase of your state and local government."

"To all of you who have saved up some money for old age, or have put your money and your faith in retirement policies or annuities, inflation has a particular personal application."

"We are all in this thing together. When the little man suffers, eventually all suffer." The American economy can not stand another big dose of inflation on top of that already experienced since 1939, Gov. Shivers said. Fortunately, he added, something can be done about inflation. Everybody can do something, he said, explaining:

"The laboring man can help by increasing his individual production."

"The banker can help by going back to conservative credit practices."

"The cattleman and the farmer can help by making more food available."

"Just any citizen can help by doing without the things he does not really need."

"The businessman can help by playing the game fair and square, both with the government and with his customers."

"The Federal Reserve Bank can help a great deal by asserting its authority and its duty to protect the dollar from excessive and progressive devaluation."

"We can all help by demanding, and practicing economy in government."

"We can all help by being willing to sacrifice a little for the good of all."

The Governor warned that Stalin's great hope is that the United States will undergo an internal collapse as a result of runaway inflation.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a navy gabardine balero suit with which she wore a white blouse and navy and white accessories, with a corsage of carnations. For something new was her suit, blue was a handkerchief given by her mother, several screws belonging to her sister. She wore the traditional penny in her shoe for good luck.

Her only attendant was Joyce Melton, her sister, who wore a winter white suit dress trimmed in navy with navy accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Fred Searcey of Munday.

The couple left for a short trip to Abilene. They are now making their home at Fort Benning, Ga., where Mr. Grantum has been stationed with the U.

Easter Sunrise Service Slated At Wichita Falls

Easter Sunrise Services in the beautiful out-of-doors, which are now a tradition in many localities throughout the country, are known to have an inspirational value beyond estimate. To begin Easter Day in this manner—peaceful and natural outdoor setting—is a source of profound satisfaction to Christian people.

This year, such a service is being initiated near Wichita Falls, and all persons are cordially invited to attend. Reverend Earl Crawford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Wichita Falls, will offer an opening invocation at the moment of sunrise; Dr. James B. Boren, President of Midwestern University, will read the scripture; Reverend James H. Landes, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Wichita Falls, will deliver the brief sermon; and the congregation will participate in hymns, with organ accompaniment.

A garden setting for the service is provided at Crestview Memorial Park, located about five miles southwest of downtown Wichita Falls, on the Archer City Road, half a mile off the Jacksboro Highway.

The only embellishment to the natural beauty of the site, in which an atmosphere of peaceful quiet will prevail, will be a barren cross, beyond which the rising sun will be in view.

The service is designed as an inspiring supplement to regular Easter Day observances in the various churches.

Methodist W.M.S. Holds Meeting On Monday Morning

The Woman's society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met Monday morning from 10 till 11 in the Presbyterian Church.

The Spiritual Life Committee, chairman Mrs. Rice, had charge of the pre-Easter "Day Apart" program.

The principal that was Jesus' influence on society.

R. L. Butler and Mrs. J. C. Rice presented parts on the program. Mrs. R. M. Almanrode led the singing with Mrs. Weldon Smith at the piano.

Mrs. R. M. Almanrode sang a solo, "If You Knew My Savior", which is a beautiful message in song. A large percent of our members were present to enjoy the spiritual lift this most interesting hour together.

The pastor met them and prayed the closing prayer. They extend an invitation to the women of the Methodist Church to meet with them. "We need you and you need us."

Aera-Wide Easter Sunrise Service

You are invited to join those who will gather at sunrise this Easter Day, in a beautiful outdoor setting near Wichita Falls, to engage in an area-wide service of worship.

Religious leaders of various denominations will conduct the service, which is cordially open to all residents and guests of this area, as a supplement to the regular Easter observances in your church.

Crestview Memorial Park, where the service is to be held, is located on the Archer City road approximately half a mile from the junction of that road with the Jacksboro Highway. To reach the park from Wichita Falls, one drives out the Jacksboro Highway, which begins at the south end of Scott Street, and turns right on the Archer City cut-off.

It is suggested that you arrive just prior to sunrise, which will occur at 6:31.

As you approach the service, you will enter an atmosphere of quiet, filled with soft organ music conducive to meditation.

The horizon, as the sun appears, will be broken only by a barren cross, erected for the occasion to invite reflection upon the event which commemorates the day.

There are many who have expressed the desire for Easter Sunrise Services in this area, similar to those which have proved so inspirational and significant in other localities. It is the purpose of this service to fulfill that desire, and, as we celebrate the triumph of life over death as exemplified by the Resurrection, to help deepen our faith in the ultimate realization of the will of God in these troubled times.

3,112 Texans To Be Inducted During May

AUSTIN—Call for induction of 3,112 Texas men into the army in May was received today by state Selective Service headquarters, it was announced by Lt. Col. Morris S. Schwartz, deputy state draft director. This compares with a call for 4,150 men for April. Colonel Schwartz pointed out. The May call of 3,112 is the state's share of a national quota of 60,000. The national quota for April is 80,000.

Colonel Schwartz also announced that 7,726 draft registrants have been called for pre-induction examinations during April. These examinations will be in preparation for anticipated inductions in June.

"Some of those qualified for induction in April may be available for May inductions, where necessary," Colonel Schwartz said. "We like to stay ahead of the game as much as possible and give the local boards and the men all the time we can between examinations and inductions."

Colonel Schwartz revealed that Texas had made its quota for February. He said reports show that 4,225 men were inducted during the month. This figure, he said, includes some delinquents. Tracing a summary of inductions for Texas since the beginning of the Korean fight, Colonel Schwartz pointed out that combined monthly quotas from September 1950 through February 1951 add to 18,773. Texas has actually inducted 19,268 including draft delinquents. "Some of our local boards are having a hard time furnishing men under limitations of present law," Colonel Schwartz said, "but so far the state has made its quota. We do not anticipate failure in March."

Local board quotas for the May induction call will not be available at state headquarters until the latter part of March. April pre-induction and induction quotas for local boards are now available at local board offices.

The May quota for induction brings the total number of men called for from Texas since beginning of the Korean fight to 30,174. The April pre-induction physical quota for April brings total number of men called for that purpose since beginning of

Let's Talk LIVESTOCK

(By Ted Goulidy)

FORT WORTH, March 19—Upshot of the current talk of livestock ceiling prices was the sudden drop in cattle trade in the territory. Corn Belt feeder buyers also withdrew from the stocker and feeder market over the last week end. One veteran order buyer reported "the trading in the Western area stopped cold within a period of 12 hours. Some bunches of calves and yearlings dropped as much as $2 per hundred in asking prices and some sold that way. How long this freezeup in the trading will last is something no one knows. But from the Pacific Coast eastward, through the Corn Belt, trading in stockers was at a virtual standstill."

Slaughter kinds were not apparently affected to a great degree. It was reported bankers financing some of the cattle speculators had clamped down on their cattle traders until the Washington control situation had cleared somewhat.

Dr. Joe Figueroa of Mexico City and his son, Ignacio, were visitors at Fort Worth Friday and the younger Figueroa was busy snapping pictures of the Stock Yards and packing houses to show his college classmates when they get back to Mexico.

Dr. Figueroa told us that the campaign to eradicate foot and mouth disease in Old Mexico is making good progress. He was accompanied on his stockyards visit by Dr. G. A. Kay, a member of the staff of the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas.

This week, Dr. L. R. Noyes in a report from Mexico stated that the eradication campaign was going as well as humanly possible and that cooperation of Mexican stockmen and ranchers had been excellent.

Dr. Figueroa confirmed Dr. Noyes statement that currently a good many cases of stomatitis is showing up in the Central Mexican livestock. Dr. Figueroa says this is normal for this time of year and only about four to five percent of the livestock is affected.

Stomatitis has a number of the same outward symptoms as the dread foot and mouth disease and each case is tested thoroughly to be sure.

Big talk this week at the cattlemen's meeting and also on the Fort Worth market was the Washington report that live ceiling will go on cattle in about two weeks.

Some observers feel there will be a rush to market to "beat the ceilings," before prices are rolled back to January 25 level. However, the rush is not expected to approach the crush that followed removal of OPA ceilings.

A roll-back to January 25 prices would mean a loss of from around $1 to as much as $3 per hundred on the various grades and kinds of cattle and calves.

On January 25 at Fort Worth best fat steers and yearlings topped at $32.50, against a top of $36 to $37 recently. Fat cows topped at $26 against $27.50 this week sold around $18. Canners sold down to $15 and similar kinds this week sold around $18. Bulls stopped at $27 while this week the same kind drew $28 to $29. Fat calves topped at $33.50 against $34.50 to $35.50 for the same kind this week.

Roger Brumley of Hereford visited Fort Worth this week and told us about a "carrot pasture" that his brother, Homer was using. The 65-acre field belongs to farmer Frank Kanaba. The carrot price dropped, so on December 4, the Brumleys turned 107 cows into it. Every other day they run the tractor around and uncover a few carrots.

When they crank the tractor, the cows come on the run. They have gained an estimated 150 pounds, are now calving and giving so much milk some of them have to be milked out until the calves get big enough to use all the milk.

The cows have been fed only a few bundles, this when the ground was frozen and could not be plowed. Brumley estimates there are 15 tons to the

A few lights sold to $50. Stocker yearlings sold up to $40 and $41. Most cattle and calves were stronger, generally 50-cents advances on slaughter and stocker cattle and calves being paid.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sharp and family visited with relatives in Kirkland over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ratliff spent the week end in Dallas.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Says Rural Areas Won't Lose Control Of The State, That They Never Had It

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek seems to be ratifying the state redistricting bill, with some amendments, in his letter this week.

Dear editor:
I was in town Saturday and borrowed a newspaper off the counter at a eating joint, and will return it next week if they insist on it and took it home and got out of earshot of my wife, ain't nothin worse than tryin to read a newspaper and take orders at the same time, and read where the Texas Legislature after 30 years, they're like me, ain't no use bein in a hurry about things, has passed a re-district-in bill.

I ain't seen the bill, but accordin to an article in the paper it means, among other things, that the rural areas of Texas has lost control of the Legislature to the city people, on account of the city people gettin more representatives under the new bill. "Rural domination of the Texas Legislature, which has prevailed through 105 years of statehood, will be gone forever," the article said.

Now I don't like to argue with an expert, but it hadn't never occurred to me us country folks had control of the Legislature even for a few minutes, not to mention 105 years. Don't believe we could have run 2141 different bureaus and departments in Austin without some help from the city people. Furthermore, what I would like to know is, if the country people have had charge of the Legislature up to now, how come all the plums, the state hospitals, schools, medical fundations, etc., are located in cities? How is it there ain't a city in the state that ain't mapooped with concrete highways runnin out in every direction, while I'm still workin on my commissioner just to get him to drag the read running by my house to get the ruts out of it?

Nope. We might have had em out-voted when it come to openin and closin the squirrel season, but when it got down to vital matters like good roads, a lot of us was left in the dust.

I'm in favor of re-districtin the state, but I don't look for no great change in things. I ain't afraid of the 'cities' havin control. They had it all the time and I ain't sufferin too much. Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Mrs. Joe Lynn Wombie left Tuesday morning for Virginia where she met her husband who is stationed there in the service. She will remain there until he leaves for overseas duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Orman Moore and daughters of Wichita Falls visited Mrs. Erin McGraw and other relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. M. L. Joyce and son, Joe, of Albany spent the last week here visiting her mother, Mrs. J. L. Bowden.

In East Texas, on the lines of Marion and Harrison Counties is Caddo Lake. The body o' fresh water of some 10,000 acres extends into Louisiana.

Indian tradition has come down from the Caddo tribe that the lake was created by the sinking of the earth. Physical appearances corroborate the legend, for it is similar in appearance to the Reelfoot Lake in by an earthquake.

In a report by J. T. Robinson, former land commissioner of Texas, it was revealed that old cypress stumps were still standing in the lake. At one place, the mainland has an almost perpendicular rise of a hundred feet or more.

A Mrs. Haggerty, who lived in the vicinity of the lake and who was reputed to be a descendant of the Caddo tribe, repeats the legend of the lake and places its formation, according to the best collaboration of events, about the year 1812.

She is reported to have said that one occasion the tribe had mobilized its warriors on that spot and they were preparing to go to war with another tribe and that one night while they were in the midst of their war dance, the earth trembled, shook and caved in.

Mrs. Haggerty said that many hundreds of the braves perished in the onrushing waters. The event was accepted as a manifestation of their war gods disfavor and the survivors made a lasting peace with their adversary.

Some Texas cattle brands were based on puns. J. H. Barwise used a bar and two Y's for his brand and W. G. Mulkey's brand was "MUL" and a key.

Noah Neff used "NF" which, is pronounced it quickly, is practically "Neff." Col. Frank Hatch's brand was "45." He explained that about all he had when he went into the cattle business was a Colt's 45 and he intended using it, if necessary, to defend his cattle. One ranchman's brand was "HEL." He said the place was so famous. Some of the cows were walking Valentines. There were few trees on which a sentimental ranchman could carve the initials of his beloved but he could brand the initials on the hides of his cattle. Others used such symbols as a heart and a pierced heart.

The controversy persists regarding the value of antistaminic drugs in controlling the common cold. Proponents contend that these drugs are helpful only during the first 24 to 48 hours of the cold and that they must be given in sufficiently large amounts. According to Good Housekeeping magazine, the antistaminics certainly do not cure colds, but they may be helpful to check them if properly used.

Don't forget to include a home garden in the plans you are making now covering the things to be done this spring. The garden can easily supply many of the vegetables your family will need for an adequate diet.

TWO REASONS WHY MORE FARMERS WANT

GOODYEAR

SUPER-SURE-GRIP TRACTOR TIRES

1. Deeper Soil Penetration — Greater Pull
2. Balanced Straight Lug Tread Design — Longer Wear!

Goodyear's open center tread has straight deep-biting lugs. No curves to cut traction — no hooks, knobs or elbows to blunt their bite. They cut cleanly into the soil, penetrate full depth, full length. Straight bars closer together at the shoulders wedge the soil for firmer grip—don't "plow out" soil on the sides.

Goodyear open center lugs are all straight, all equal in size and spacing. That's why every lug works equally, pulls fully, wears more evenly. This means a smoother, steadier pull, less vibration and wobble — more riding stability — plus longer life. Get Goodyears for your tractor — they don't cost a penny more.
