

Kracker Krumb's Odd Bits Salvaged At Random

Attention, men! You'll get food for the tummy and food for serious thinking at the Baptist Brotherhood meeting tonight.

It isn't often that men of Munday have a visit from an outstanding personage such as Cliff Brannon, who will "dish out" lots of food for thought.

The pastor authorized a Brotherhood member to authorize us to authorize you to be present. Help them make this One of the largest Brotherhood meetings held in the area.

The invitation is extended to all men of the town—regardless of church affiliation. Be there!

In a trade magazine which reached our desk last week we found an excellent definition of a girl.

We thought it good enough to pass on to you, and with apologies to this trade magazine and to the author, Mort Buckley of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Co., we are reproducing it.

Little girls are the nicest things that happen to people. They are born with a little bit of angelshine about them and though it wears thin sometimes, there is always enough left to lasso your heart—even when they are sitting in the mud, or crying temperamental tears, or parading up the street in mothers' best clothes.

A little girl can be sweeter (and badder) oftener than anyone else in the world. She can jitter around, and stomp, and make funny noises that fuzzle your nerves, yet when you open your mouth, she stands there demure with a special look in her eyes.

Girls are available in five colors—black, white, red, yellow, or brown, yet Mother Nature always manages to select your color when you place your order. They disprove the law of supply and demand—there are millions of little girls, but each is as precious as rubies.

God borrows from many creatures to make a little girl. He uses the song of a bird, the squeal of a pig, the stubbornness of a mule, the antics of a monkey, the spryness of a grasshopper, the curiosity of a cat, the softness of a kitten, and to top it all off He adds the mysterious mind of woman.

A little girl likes new shoes, party dresses, small animals, first grade noise makers, the girl next door, dolls, make-believe, dancing lessons, ice cream, kitchens, coloring books, make-up, cans of water, going visiting, tea parties, and one boy.

She doesn't care so much for visitors, boys in general, large dogs, hand-me-downs, straight chairs, vegetables, snow suits, or staying in the front yard.

She is loudest when thinking, the prettiest when she has provoked you, the busiest at bedtime, the quietest when you want her to show off, and the most flirtatious when she absolutely must not get the best of you again.

Who can cause you more grief, joy, irritation, satisfaction, embarrassment, and genuine delight than this combination of Eve, Salome, and Florence Nightingale?

She can muss up your home, your hair, your dignity—spend your money, your time and your temper—then when your patience is ready to crack, her sunshine peeks through and you've lost again.

Yes, she is a nerve-racking nuisance, just a noisy bundle of mischief. But when your dreams tumble down and the world is (Continued on last Page)

Methodists Hold Initial Service In New Church

It was one of the highlights of the year Sunday, when members of the Methodist congregation held their initial service in the newly constructed church building.

Although the structure was not entirely completed in every detail, church officials decided to begin services in the new building. The "go ahead" signal was given by Mr. Chromaster, architect, last Thursday when he inspected the building.

The structure is virtually completed, with the exception of a few minor details. Carpeting arrived early this week and will be installed in time for services next Sunday.

A good crowd attended both the Sunday morning and evening services to enjoy the surroundings and worship in the building that will serve the local congregation for many years.

The crowning day in the life of the pastor, Rev. R. L. Butler, was dimmed when he received a message of the death of his brother, J. C. Butler of Rancier, the message coming immediately after the evening service.

New Class Rooms And Rest Rooms Being Added

Work of adding to the present structure of the Munday colored school and providing ample educational facilities for local school children was started last Monday morning.

Plans for renovating the old school building and adding their room to it. The school board is furnishing materials and has employed G. H. Beatty as general superintendent of construction.

Two Rooms Added

The new structure will join the old building on the north with a corridor leading to rest rooms for both boys and girls and the two additional classrooms which will be 24x30 feet in size.

Simultaneously, the City of Munday has announced that water lines are being laid to the school building, and the colored school will be equipped with ample sewer facilities.

The building is being constructed of concrete and tile, with the exterior being stuccoed and the inside walls painted.

Plans are also under way for the board to provide additional recreational grounds and facilities, making every provision for the education and recreation of Munday's colored youth.

Rumors Branded False

With the announcement of this construction, school authorities also branded as "entirely false" the rumors being circulated to the effect that the Sunset school building would be used as a negro school.

"We think the building at Sunset will make an ideal junior high school setup," they said. "It already has an excellent homemaker department that would be fine for a junior high school homemaker class, and the shop would be fine for manual training and work along that line."

"We would have 150 or more junior high school students in that building this coming year if the districts are consolidated."

Parkhill Employed As Bookkeeper At Local Co-op Gin

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2—This is late Saturday afternoon and I have not had time to prepare this week's newsletter. Congressman W. R. Poage, of Waco, has written a newsletter on the burning subject of the day-to-wit: inflation. With his permission, I am simply substituting his newsletter of this week and sending it in lieu of my own. I do not necessarily agree with my distinguished colleague in all particulars, but his observations are sincere and significant. Our readers, I know, will be interested in his views.

"Today I received a petition containing about 50 names. The letter with the petition stated that this was identical with hundreds of similar petitions. This petition protests the 'rapidly increasing cost of living' and urges 'that prices be rolled back to pre-Korean levels, and that a new law strong enough to protect the consumers be enacted.' It then states that 'we must urge that new taxes not be placed on low income families, and suggest that needed revenue be secured from corporations with their record profits and from high income families who are not carrying their share.' . . .

It is but natural for all of us to seek a simple solution. The tendency of the hour is to feel that we can cure any problem by 'passing a law'. We have tried to stop inflation with a law. Last August Congress passed a law giving the President power to freeze all prices and all wages. I voted for this law. I thought that if we acted promptly it would be possible to use the law as a sort of temporary stop-gap to hold the line until we could attack the real causes of inflation. I still think we could have done much to stabilize the situation had we acted at that time. No action was taken to use the powers Congress granted. I fear the time in which these control devices could be used has passed. We must now follow the slower and much more fundamental policy of attacking the cause of inflation. Our people were ready last summer to accept controls across the board — controls which would control everybody. Since that time they have seen controls applied to some groups for the benefit of other groups and the American spirit of fair play has revolted against this practice. Last week we saw the price of cattle rolled back (with no reduction in the price of meat to the consumer.) The livestock producer's standard of living which is today about one and one-half times what it was in the base period was reduced by about 10 percent. He was told that it would be reduced by about the same amount again this fall. The same week saw the packing house workers granted an increase of not quite 10% in their wages. Their living standard was already almost exactly twice what it was during the base period.

Last year in his message to Congress, President Truman said: "Price and wage controls do not cure the basic cause of inflation—the inflationary gap between the supply of goods and the value of buying power. The cure can only come by closing the gap." This statement is, of course, true. It seems to me that it is high time that we began to treat the cause of inflation,

"500 Proves New Tire"

Many hours of high-speed testing were devoted to proving the Firestone Tire & Rubber Company's new tire which will be introduced at the 1951 Indianapolis 500, according to local Firestone (dealer) (store manager), Wilbur Shaw, three-time winner of the internationally famous speed contest, says that the tire "will increase the speed of racing cars up to four miles an hour." Above, Jack McGrath, race driver, looks on as Firestone Development Engineers check the new tire for temperature, tread wear and pressure build-up after several laps of the Indianapolis track at speeds of 128 miles per hour and faster. The new tire, which handles better in the turns, has an improved tread and longer-wearing tread rubber than tires previously used at Indianapolis.

rather than the result. The cause is lessened production for civilian purposes, and increased buying power (more money).

Most price ceilings and all price roll backs tend to reduce production (because there is less incentive), and they increase demand (because there are more customers at the lower price). Therefore, over any extended period of time, they actually add to the inflationary process. Like a narcotic, they should be used only for a limited time in the most critical situations.

I have voted for higher taxes, and shall vote for still higher taxes. Taxation is not, however, the best way of checking inflation as it definitely lowers people's living standards. It simply makes it impossible to buy so much. It is, however, necessary if we are to pay as much as possible of the current costs of government. With taxation should go a reduction of governmental expenditures. I have voted, and expect to continue to vote, for such reductions.

It is a mistake to believe that we can raise the funds needed simply by additional taxes on corporations, or the "rich". The total corporate income in the U. S. is only about $20 billion ever year—less than 1-3 of our governmental expenditures. We now take approximately half of this income. The "higher income families" pay taxes up to 87% of their income already, and their incomes make up only a small part of the money needed. There is no easy way to carry the tax load. We must all share it.

The simplest and most effective attack on inflation would, it seems to me, be for everyone to work longer at present hourly rates. If we increased the work week by only 4 hours we would increase production by 10%. The workers would have more money, but there would be more things to purchase. That, as I see it, is the way to strike at the cause of inflation. Inflation cannot be stopped by asking someone else to make the sacrifices. Is it too much to ask America to go to work?"

New Treads Economical.

Truck line operators were the first to realize the economies resulting from having new treads applied to worn tires, and now motorists generally are turning to Firestone's Factory-Method New Treads to obtain all the mileage that was built into today's automobile tire. Shortage of materials for civilian use is threatening a second tire shortage in a 10-year period, as the nation prepares to resist communist aggression over the world, but availability of Firestone New Treads will greatly lessen the inconvenience suffered during World War II as a result of the tire shortage. Improved compounding methods have given a longer wearing tread material which in many cases will give as much mileage as the original tread. Above workmen are removing a large heavy-duty truck tire from a curing mold in a Firestone New Tread shop. Passenger car owners now may obtain a special price on New Tread tires in sets of two,

Let's Talk LIVESTOCK

(By Ted Gasky)

FORT WORTH, June 1— Full effects of the ten per cent rollback ordered by the Office of Price Stabilization May 20th, just began to bite into livestock prices the latter half of the past week at Fort Worth and other major livestock market circles.

Packer compliance with these maximum permissible prices was not mandatory until the first few days in June and as a result, prices have in the main been above compliance levels.

Prices around $1 and more lower have been insisted and further declines appear to be in the works.

Hog prices rallied following the approach of a new quota period and due to some additional quotas being handed out in glutted market areas. Hogs promptly regained the losses that have been in effect as the quota squeeze tightened.

Claude McCan, South Texas cattleman, sent us a wire this week telling us about the facts and figures the cattleman are giving the congressional committees in Washington relative to the roll backs. Claude says these figures prove that many marginal cattle producers will be knocked out of the business by the first ten percent roll back.

He says even efficient operators will be knocked out by the additional rollbacks slated for this summer and fall.

Actual case histories of "cost of production" calves reveals that it costs more to produce calves than the ceiling prices will be under the rollbacks.

Another factor is the prospective large slaughter of calves and cows which will result from dumping them on the market when producers see the game is a losing one. These cows and calves will be needed to produce the beef in the months and years ahead and once they hit the slaughter house, they are

Estelle Loring, a featured actress in the national production of "South Pacific" which is making a record run in Chicago, "toasts" June Dairy Month and the Nation's dairy industry with a glass of milk.

Dairy Month, June 1-30, also is enjoying somewhat of a record run, being carried on by the dairy industry for the 15th straight year to create an increasingly better understanding of the industry's role in building national health and stabilizing the economy.

In saluting the launching of 1951 June Dairy Month, Miss Loring says that she prepares for continuous performances in "South Pacific" by consuming health-generating foods, including milk and milk products, and by maintaining a daily recreation schedule.

An odd feature of the news this week is that the New York whole sale dressed meat trade reported that steer beef short loins sirloins and ribs are ranging from $2 to as much as $10 per hundred under the permissible ceiling prices.

Sumpin cockeyed, somewhere, when ceiling prices are needed on meat in such abundant supply that the wholesalers can't even get the ceiling price for it.

Well finished fed steers continued to sell at record prices for this time of the year at Fort Worth. Some 45 club yearlings from Canyon, Texas, FFA boys sold at $37, and some others at $33 and $35, champ of Dumas sold around $35 to $36, and Howard Beauchamp had some fed heifers on the market at $33.75.

Some fat cows from C. T. and J. E. White of Brady sold to $27 and $28, and some fair and good fat cows from Scaling and Ewing of Clay County drew $26.50 and averaged 1,025 pounds.

Sheep and lambs of all kinds are selling at record high prices for this time of year at Fort Worth. Clipped fat lambs at $30 to $31.50 tops and Spring lambs at $33 to $34 are strong.

Old sheep also are selling unusually well considering the fact the runs have been the largest of the year. There has been no break in prices on any kind of sheep. Cannerewes at $13 to $14 and fat ewes at $17 to $18.50. Old weathers around $20 and two year olds up to $25 and $26 are especially noteworthy prices.

Feeder pigs which dropped $1 per hundred late last week remained at the lower levels in spite of the improvement in butcher hog prices. It is believed that many hog feeders are taking a dim view of the prospects for good hog prices since they have been so consistently below beef, veal or lambs for so many months.

Mrs. Ralph Watkins visited relatives and friends in Wichita Falls the latter part of last week.

Top Auto Salesman

Chevrolet's "most consistent salesman," Ben Berlin of Baltimore (seated), receives from General Sales Manager W. E. Fish a miniature Bel Air. Berlin was honored for 25 consecutive years' membership in the Chevrolet 100 Car Club. During the period he sold 6,100 new and used automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ingram of Belton visited with Mrs. P. B. Broach, Sr., over the week end.

BOYCE HOUSE

Wild Bill Hickok was in North Platte, Nebraska in a restaurant and two of his enemies (he had quite a few) came gunning for him, one from the front door and the other from the back—but Will Bill had been warned and was ready and waiting. There was a mirror above the front door, which came in mighty handy for Wild Bill. He drew his pistols, both of them, with a movement almost quicker than the eye could perceive, and with one he killed the man in front of him and at the same time with the other gun resting on the opposite shoulder, he killed the man behind him, looking at the mirror. It was believed for a long time thereafter that Bill had eyes in the back of his head, or some sixth sense.

The first Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth was held in 1896 with C. C. French and Charlie McFarland, the latter from Weatherford, as leading spirits. First night of the show there came a sleet storm, and, next morning, the cattle were coated with sleet as they hunched under live oak and pecan trees. But the sun came out and all present—including the cattle felt happier. The premiums were cowboy hats, spurs, bridles, windmills and troughs. From this beginning developed one of the greatest institutions of Fort Worth—Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, originator in improving the standard of livestock and presenting the color and excitement of the Southwest to thousands of visitors each year.

April Defense Bond Sales Hit New Record

During the month of April, sales of Defense Bonds to workers on Payroll Savings Plans continued on the rise of the past few months, resulting in an increasing number of $25 and $50 bond sales. These small size bond sales totalled 4,632,000 pieces—the largest number placed in the month of April in any year since 1946. Compared with the same month last year, the increase was 12.9%.

Sales of the smallest size (the $25 bond) numbered 3,644,000. Compared with a year ago, the increase was 484,000 pieces, or 15.3%. For the $50 bond, the number was 988,000 pieces, an increase over April 1950 of 45,000 pieces, 4.6%.

Sale of all denominations during April totalled 5,446,000 pieces, 294,000 more than the number of individual sales of Series E Bonds during April last year.

In dollar volume, April sales of Series E added to $254,000,000 off 16.8% compared with the same month last year, reflecting primarily a declining amount of $500 and $1000 denomination sales. During April, $25 and $50 Bonds accounted for 41.6% of the dollar amount sold; for the same month a year ago the ratio was 31.1%.

Speed Champ Says Sportsmanship On Highways Would Save Lives

SPEEDWAY CITY, IND.— Readying his big racer for the Memorial Day Speed Classic, Johnnie Parsons, America's Speed Champion, says the surest way to avoid accidents is to "check your car as carefully as we do for the Speedway . . . and think of the other fellow."

Parsons established a new Indianapolis Speedway record of 124.2 miles per hour, last year, in winning the big league event of auto racing. He hopes to take the 1951 crown on May 30th.

"Car care is as important as careful driving whether you're on the highway or the Speedway," says Johnnie. He trains his pit crew to the fine split-second precision of a major military maneuver. "The pit crew is in the race, too," he says.

Handsome, youthful Johnnie Parsons' home is Van Nuys, California. He got his start in the roaring wheels profession by building his first two cars part-by-part himself. He's an "expert's expert" on automobiles and keeps abreast of all the latest developments. To protect the finish of his cars he gives them an Autobrite 4% silicone treatment.

Silicones are the miracle-ingredient which protected vital military equipment against rust, corrosion, oxidation and salt sea air.

In Johnnie's opinion, "You can tell a careful driver by looking at his car. If a man treats his car right, he'll treat every other driver in a sportsman-like way. That's all we need to cut the nation's accident toll. A real sportsman is considerate of the other fellow."

Plans Made For 90,000 Youth At '51 State Fair

The State Fair of Texas has set 90,000 as its attendance goal for Rural Youth Day at the 1951 fair, James W. Aston, chairman of the fair's Rural Youth Committee, has announced.

More than 75,000 Four-H boys and girls, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers from 225 Texas counties attended Rural Youth Day last year, Aston said. Rural Youth Day this year will again be on the opening day of the fair, Saturday, Oct. 6.

"This is one of the most important days of the fair as far as the educational aspects of the exposition are concerned," Mr. Aston said. "This program—by far the largest annual event of its nature in the country—has commanded nationwide attention to Texas and to the State fair.

"The youngsters will be admitted free to the fairgrounds and will be served a box lunch at noontime at a king-size picnic that for sheer magnitude will rival other spectacular events of the fair. Two hundred Boy Scouts will do the serving. Dallas business leaders will be hosts and the Dallas Chamber of Commerce and Junior Chamber of Commerce will assist," he said.

More than 1800 vocational agriculture and homemaking teachers and more than 500 county agents and home demonstration agents will cooperate in the rural youth program, Mr. Aston said.

The kids will come from every section of Texas to see the highlights of the 1951 fair, including the Pan-American Na-

Knox Prairie Philosopher Says The Texas Legislature Missed Big Opportunity In The Last Four Weeks

Elliott's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is confused, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor: I would like to know whatever happened to the Texas Legislature?

As I recall, it was in session and tryin' to get some California gambler to come to Austin and I guess explain how to improve the game and still keep it on a friendly basis when President Truman fired General MacArthur, and since then I haven't heard a word out of it.

I suppose it's still in session, but the MacArthur fuss has dominated the news so much everybody forgot about Austin and as far as I know they may be just sittin' around listenin' to the radio themselves.

If you ask me, the Legislature missed a big opportunity. Right when the people's minds was all on Washington was the ideal time to go ahead and balance the state budget in a statesman-like way, vote whatever new taxes was needed, pass any laws they could think of, and adjourn and go home. Wouldn't a person have heard about it till months later.

Why right now I couldn't tell you what the Legislature has done in the last four weeks any more than I could tell you what it'll do next week. Never again will a group of law makers have such a golden opportunity to legislate like they please.

In regard to the Truman-MacArthur argument, so many words have been spoken on the matter now I'm about played out with it, about bogged down in testimony myself, but I can say this, the old age pension problem would be wiped out completely if every man, when he reached the age of 71 and lost his government job, was given the choice of makin' $100,000 a year selling typewriters or $150,000 a year sellin' Hadaacol.

Is there anything to the report that Truman is tryin' to get them companies to hold offers open just in case he's available after 1952? I knew there was lots of jobs open these days, but had no idea jobs was payin' that kind of money was goin' beggin'. Almost wish I had a job so I could get fired into a higher bracket myself.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

D. G. Chamberlain, of N. T. S. C. in Denton, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Chamberlain.
