

Kracker Krumb's Odd Bits Salvaged at Random

With the football season about over—except that New Year's bowl games—guess folks can be turning their thoughts into other channels, now.

There's a few play-off games for high schools, but the Southwestern Conference games ended last week in rough and tumble affairs.

Most talked of is the annual Longhorn-Aggie tilt in which the Aggies chalked up a victory for themselves.

The big teams have been getting unfavorable publicity lately regarding some unnecessary roughness. Looks like a clean-up in college football wouldn't be amiss, but folks expect rough games when many of those old rivals meet along about Thanksgiving.

It's T. C. U. and Kentucky in the Cotton Bowl this year, and some say the quality of our Cotton Bowl game won't be up to par this year. However, we haven't heard of anyone wanting to get rid of their tickets to this game.

So with football about over, a good thing to turn thoughts to is the weather. It's always a good subject, and right at this time it's being talked with much gusto.

But as that noted writer said way back yonder: Everybody cusses and discusses the weather, but nobody does anything about it.

We'd be plum willing for someone to do something about it—if such actions would bring us some moisture.

They say the wheat farmers are really getting worried. And we reckon it's about time.

It's time for grazing wheat, and lots of it not yet sprouted and out of the ground. What is up is just there, with loose, dry dirt all around it and cattle grazing it would pull it up by the roots.

Guess the cotton farmers better begin to worry about the moisture, too. With this crop almost gathered, their thoughts will be turning toward another crop soon.

And another crop isn't very much of an encouraging prospect right at this stage of the game.

A drouth coming on with a pretty good underground season is bad enough, but one that continues on and on when all the moisture is gone underneath is something to begin to worry about.

Someone remarked Monday that we need a rain of about five or six inches, coming over a period of a week, and then a good hard rain on top of that.

What he was thinking about is that the 6-inch rain, coming slowly, would give us the needed "top" and "bottom" moisture—then the good, hard rain would fill surface tanks for the stockmen.

That would be an ideal order. But such an order is rarely ever filled in December. Most of us would probably be satisfied with no other Christmas present if such a drouth-breaking rain would precede Santa's visit.

A friend drove up from Stamford a few days ago, when it sort of threatened to rain.

He got out of his auto, and he was all smiles.

"I'm feeling good," he says. "I think I saw a drop of rain on my windshield just now. As dry as it is, just one drop makes a fellow feel good!"

Personally, we'd take moisture in most any form, now. We have preferences, of course, but moisture is moisture, and enough of it would be sufficient to suit us.

But sit down and listen to the (Continued on last Page)

Santa Claus To Be Here December 21

The town is ready for him! Crewmen of the West Texas Utilities Company have completed installing the colored Christmas lights, and they were turned on several nights ago, giving the town the appearance of Yuletide once more.

Merchants are completing work of decorating their stores for the Christmas season, and these decorations, blending with the colored lights at night, are making folks realize that Christmas is right upon us.

And Santa Claus is coming, too! He has made an appointment with the C. D. A. to spend three entire days in Munday, entertaining the kiddies and bringing laughter and cheer to everyone.

Santa will arrive in Munday on Friday, December 21. His method of travel has not been revealed—but the important thing is that he'll be here.

He is bringing a lot of special treats for the kiddies. Besides getting their orders for Christmas, he will have candy, fruits and nuts.

This year he's bringing an extra special for the kiddies—a merry-go-round and an auto kiddie ride. These are full size, just like a big carnival, and Santa wants the kiddies to ride all they want to. It will be all free for the kiddies, and Santa has notified the Community Development Association that he wants very little boy and girl to plan on visiting with him.

He plans to have his rides here on December 21, 22 and 24. Santa will also have six of his helpers with him, because Santa wants all the children well taken care of.

In the second period May again ran 68 yards to score for the Greyhounds. The visitors' lone score also came in this period.

Touchdowns were added to the Knox City ledger in the third period by Wilson, May and John Jones.

Knox 4-H Boys Will Organize Rifle Club

Results of the November meetings of eight boys' 4-H Clubs in Knox County are that a county rifle club will be organized. The survey was conducted by County Agent W. C. Palmeyer, and over 100 boys plan to take an active part in the program. Purpose of the club will be to teach safety in connection with the use of firearms and to improve marksmanship.

Requirements for membership are: A written permit from the boys' parents stating they are willing for the boy to become a member of the club; one adult leader for each ten members, who must be from 12 to 18 years of age. Boys under 12 may join as a member-at-large if active members vote them into the club.

Any type of .22 rifle may be used, and instruction will be given in safety and marksmanship. Rifle meets will be held to determine the scores of members and to select a county rifle team. Rules of the National Rifle Association will be followed, with the club to become an affiliated member. Dues of 25 cents per member per year will be levied to pay for expense of setting up a rifle range and operation of the club.

In addition, plans for the rifle club, information of 4-H clubs was given club members at the meetings, and the program consisted of instruction on how to hold a 4-H Club meeting. Rules were voted on by members, and 26 new names were added to the county enrollment, bringing the November total to 294.

December meetings will be held the third week in December, and the programs will consist of organization of a rifle club and on soil conservation.

System Is "Cut" Into Service On Last Tuesday

"Gimme the bank. Gimme the city water department. Gimme the utilities company!"

These requests can no longer be made of the telephone operator in Munday. Lots of references are being made to the telephone directory, since Munday has been switched over to the new dial system.

Dial equipment was cut into service early Tuesday morning, December 4. And with it comes a greater service which is being extended into the rural sections.

The system is entirely new, including a new building which houses the latest in new automatic electric telephone equipment, new telephones for all subscribers, and a new outside plant. Tuesday's action of "cutting in" the new service climaxed approximately six months of work for Southwestern Associated Telephone Company, which

MAYOR MOORE TALKS FIRST LONG DISTANCE

Mayor W. R. Moore was the first Munday resident to talk "long distance" after the new system went into service at about 6:45 Tuesday morning.

The call was to Ray F. Reed of Dallas, general commercial superintendent for the company.

The company is not experiencing more than the usual "static" in switching over to the new system, and most of this is expected to be cleared as soon as all rural lines have been completed.

had as many as three crews working here at times during the construction.

Approximately 500 telephones were installed in Munday. Some 35 new subscribers have been added, being those who have been on the waiting list for some time.

The system is being extended to several rural subscribers. This rural project is now under construction, with the lines to Rhineland and Sunset being completed. Around 40 dial telephones have been installed for rural subscribers, and when the additional lines are completed there will be approximately 120 rural telephones out of Munday, according to F. A. Robinette, district manager.

Temporary directories have been delivered, but these do not include the names of most rural subscribers. Mr. Robinette stated that new directories will be delivered in January, listing all names served by the local system. Present directories contain all necessary toll and other information for those unfamiliar with the dial system.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

MILBANK, S. D., HERALD ADVANCE: "On his 77th birthday August 10, Herbert Hoover found himself in the midst of a resurgence for integrity in office and independence of the American citizen. Herbert Hoover went down nineteen years ago, and with him the concept that government should serve men to find their own way. A new concept was developed that stood 189 degrees from that position: Government should rule the lives of its citizens. There are government regulations, government bureaucracy, government loans, government borrowing, government spending, deficit financing, and heavy taxing."

WEST POINT, MISS., DAILY TIMES LEADER: "I we are to meet the expenses of the defense program, we must provide employment for everybody, and we must be careful not to kill the goose that is laying the golden eggs. Business and industry must, of course, bear their respective shares of the burden, but men draw salaries and wages and who compose by far the largest element in our free enterprise system must carry their share of the load."

MANSFIELD, OHIO, NEWS-JOURNAL: "Inflation goes merrily on its way as Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnson okays the right of all workers under WSB jurisdiction to negotiate for 'escalator' clauses . . . This fixes it up neatly for organized groups in position to deal with employers but neglects the far greater number of productive workers who act as individuals . . . If the Federal government to be the determining agent in such matters the only fair course would be to compel equalization of pay for all workers in various lines of employment and not give preferential treatment to those in organized groups."

"ALUMNUS CHRISTIANS"

The Reverend Robert F. Hollett, pastor of a suburban church near Chicago, recently expressed some thoughts that hit close to home as far as many of us residing in rural areas are concerned. He spoke critically of those he termed "Alumnus Christians"—people who once attended church regularly and then after moving into the country gradually drifted away because they couldn't muster the energy to dress up on Sunday morning. Equally remiss, he warned, is the person who feels that "he has done his share of church work, and now it's someone else's turn."

To the cynical it may seem kind of Pollyannaish to chide someone for not going to church. But think! We are fighting a war at this moment to preserve our right and the right of your neighbors to go to the church of your choice. Freedom of religion is one of the few real "inalienable rights" which men die to defend when the chips are down.

The church as we know it in America, regardless of denomination, is a symbol of Christianity and the sanctuary of the Christian principles underlying our form of government and our economic system. These principles are dedicated to the dignity and importance of the individual. The "Alumnus Christians" to whom the Reverend Hollett addressed himself are in danger of losing sight of the great truths of human existence.

WHEN A TOWN LOSES ITS RAILROAD

What happens when a town loses its railroad? A very interesting editorial in the Woodstock Vermont, Standard, answers that question. Years ago the Woodstock railroad was abandoned and, at the time, many people thought it was a good thing and that the town would get along better without it. But here's what the Standard has to say: "It has now been roughly 18 years since Woodstock ceased to have railroad service. With modern highways, passenger cars and trucks, one would say that nothing has been lost but the fascination which is held for us 'old-timers' by railroads."

"Strangely, however, we note on our last newspaper invoice that it cost $33.09 to get three tons of paper shipped from Gatineau, Que., to White River Junction by rail—and roughly $10 to get the paper trucked to Woodstock from the Junction."

"Obviously, railroads do have some advantages for certain type of freight shipments."

"In spite of all the arguments, we still insist that a town that loses its railroad is in danger of drying up."

The taxes paid by the railroads are one of the biggest and most dependable sources of revenue for town and counties and other units of government. The money spent by the railroads for construction and maintenance goes to make business and payrolls in every section of the country. And when it comes to the big hauling jobs, the railroads are in a class by themselves—no other agency can do them so surely, efficiently, and cheaply.

Yes, a town without a railroad really lacks something important!

THINGS ONE REMEMBERS

By R. M. Hofer

Every day the Washington propaganda machines boom price control as the medicine for inflation control. For some unknown reason the same official agencies never mention tax control or waste control in government as the one indispensable requisite for inflation control. Nor do they explain how tax confiscation of the earnings of the individuals for Washington bureaus to spend high, wide and handsome is any less inflationary than if the individual spent his own money. After all, the government earns nothing, it just spends, and it can spend only what it first takes away from the individual who earns it. Only the people can stop the tax spenders who create inflation. They will never stop of their own accord.

Whatever happened to the family style boarding house? Used to be, every town had one and it was the best place in town to eat, too, provided you were on hand when the dinner-bell rang and had a long arm. When Governor Pat M. Neff visited Cisco, he was taken to dinner (the noon meal, of course) at the leading boarding house.

Another thing that's wrong with the country is the disappearance of suspenders. Everybody (every man, that is) wears a belt and is continually hitching and unhitching and a belt interferes with his digestion. In the good old days, a man could thrust one thumb under a suspender, rear back on his heels and feel important as he gave his opinion.

There's a Texas town which holds a peach festival every year. Shortly afterward, I was in a town not 25 miles away and ordered a slice of peach pie. It was made of goo, not even one slice of peach in it. Missionary work, like charity, ought to begin at home, in this instance.

My Uncle Tavey, when I first met him was a fluent talker. Today, nearly 50 years later, he still is. The only difference is that, in my boyhood years, Uncle Tavey would tell a story about John D. Rockefeller and Mark Twain. Later on, he would tell the same story—but he was there when it happened. And the last time he told it, he not only was present but he took part in the conversation. That was several months ago and I expect that his next version will include that not only was he there but he surpassed Mark Twain in an exchange of wit and he loaned John D. Rockefeller a quarter.

Uncle Tavey reminds me of someone—and I think it's me.

Priests say the word is "snoot", not "snoot". But "snoot" is what folks say. It's more expressive to say a fellow is "snooty" or has a "snoot full."

OUR SINCERE THANKS

We have sold our Ford Tractor Agency to Winston Blacklock, Aubra (Cotton) Smith, and J. B. King, who took charge of the business December 1, 1951.

Since September, 1939, we have been serving as your Ford Tractor and Implement dealer in the Munday area. During a greater part of these twelve years, many of you have been our most valued customers and friends.

The success of our business--and we have made progress of which we are proud--has been due to your wonderful patronage and friendship. Without this, our success would have been very limited, and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts for your valued friendship, patronage and good will.

We shall always remember you and look back on our twelve years as Ford Tractor dealer with many happy memories.

We solicit for the new owners your continued patronage, and we believe they will be as sincere in trying to serve you in the future as we have been in the past.

On January 1, 1952, we will take over the Firestone Store in Munday, which was established and has been operated by Mr. Blacklock. We want you to visit us in our new business, and we want to serve you there in every way we can.

This will be a somewhat different business than our old one, but we realize that we will have opportunities to serve you there, too. Feel free to call on us any time we can be of service to you.

Very sincerely,

J. L. STODGHILL

Accident Reports Still Required By Safety Department

AUSTIN — Public confusion over the method of reporting traffic accidents under the state's new Motor Vehicle Law was cleared up today by Public Safety Director Homer Garrison, Jr., who showed that any change in the present system is so slight that it could cause no difficulty among motorists.

The present confusion was brought about by the discrepancy in time for filing regular accident reports, which must be sent to the Texas Department of Public Safety within 24 hours, and the time for filing additional information under the Safety Responsibility Law, which may be sent to the Department within as much as 10 days. This gave rise to belief among motor vehicle owners and operators that they would be required to file two lengthy reports, which is not true.

Here are the rules for reporting traffic accidents beginning January 1, when the Safety Responsibility Law becomes effective, as explained by Director Garrison for the guidance of all motorists:

Under the state's Uniform Traffic Law, the operator of every motor vehicle that is involved in an accident resulting

Texas Wool Suits First Family

Gov. and Mrs. Allan Shivers, photographed in the Governor's Mansion at Austin, display all-Texas additions to their spring wardrobe—the first suits made of cloth woven from worsted yarn spun from Texas-produced wool in the New Braunfels plant of Pioneer Worsted Co. This plant, the only worsted factory south of the Mason and Dixon Line, has a capacity of 7,000,000 pounds of raw wool per year. The suits, of midnight blue gabardine, were made especially for the Governor and his lady.

considered—the law says every driver, regardless of fault. The penalty for failure to report is a fine of $25 and suspension of your operating license until the report is filed. If an operator is physically unable to report, and was driving another person's motor vehicle at the time of the accident, the owner of the vehicle must file the report.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Broach, Wayne Butler and Mrs. Vernon Lloyd Teaff were business visitors in Wichita Falls on Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jungman left the first of this week for a few days' stay in Temple.

Joe Roberts, Jr., spent the week end in Plainview. Drive carefully—the life you save may be your own!

in death or injury to a person, or total property damage to an apparent extent of $25 or more, must file a complete written report with the Texas Department of Public Safety within 24 hours, exactly as they do now. Official forms for this purpose may be obtained from any sheriff's office, local police station, highway patrol or the Texas Department of Public Safety, as at present. In other words, there present rules for reporting accidents of the type just described.

When you obtain a regular accident report, beginning January 1, there will also be furnished along with it an Insurance Information form, labeled Form 21, which must be filled out completely and accurately should the accident in which you were involved result in death or injury to a person, or property damage to any one person, including yourself, in excess of $100 since this will bring the accident under the provisions of the Safety Responsibility Law. If the accident did NOT involve death or injury to a person, or property damage to any one person, including yourself, in excess of $100, you may disregard this Insurance Information section. If you ARE required to file it, however, be sure that you still get the regular accident report section off to the Texas Department of Public Safety within 24 hours, despite the fact that you may take up to 10 days to send in the insurance section.

The simplest procedure, Director Garrison pointed out, will be simultaneous filing of all required information, but this will require a motorist to be prepared to answer the insurance and security questions promptly and file the combined report within 24 hours. Any motorist can do this, however, if he follows these suggestions of the Director:

1. Read carefully the state's leaflet about the law and keep it handy in your car.
2. Get a report form, study the questions, and keep it in your car; you may need it in a hurry.
3. If you are insured, keep the name of your insurance company, number of your policy and amount and kind of insurance it provides in your car for immediate reference.
4. If you are not insured, make up your mind in advance how you will meet the new law's security requirements by other means, as explained in the state's leaflet, if you are involved in a traffic accident.

"It cannot be repeated too often," Director Garrison pointed out, that the driver of every car involved in an accident must file all required information with the Department of Public Safety within the brief periods stated. Any question of who was at fault must not even be con-

DRIVE WITH SAFETY

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—One of your most valued assets is good eyes. Many people thoughtlessly abuse the eyes and think little about it until trouble comes, declares Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

What can you do to protect your eyes? Avoid unnecessary strain by reading in good position and with sufficient light. If your eyes bother you, have them examined by a physician trained especially in diseases of the eye.

Eye strain begins when you need to use too much effort to focus clearly. If you have normal eyes, you do not need to use the focusing muscles to see clearly at a distance; and when you look at something close, like reading matter, you need to focus only a little. If you are farsighted, your eyes have to focus even when you look far away; and when you read, you have to focus a lot more than a person with normal eyes.

Children have strong focusing muscles, and their eyes do not tire easily or usually need glasses unless they have a large amount of far-sightedness. Then they need glasses to do the focusing and give their eyes a rest. Older people have weaker focusing muscles and usually need glasses for reading when they are about 45 years old. For other specific eye difficulties glasses may be needed.

Let's Talk LIVESTOCK

(By Ted Gouldy)

FORT WORTH, Dec. 3—December pork production is expected to be at or near an all time record. Private sources, usually very accurate, predict that between seven and seven and a half million porkers will go through the nation's federally inspected packing plants during December.

These same sources think that January and February and later marketing will begin to taper off in number and that prices will work higher.

The low point on hog prices predicted for December is expected to be between the $17 and $18 level by these guessers. Some fear top prices under $17 per hundred but these bearish views are not very generally shared.

It is encouraging to see some retail stores getting in step with the current campaign to get consumers to eat more pork. Certainly pork right now is a "best buy" at the meat counter.

Plans are under foot to ship some hogs from the Fort Worth Livestock Market in the near future. Every added outlet will help.

Congratulations are in order for the Dumas (Moore County) Chamber of Commerce, on their cattle tour December 4. About 6,000 cattle will be viewed at the several feedlots to be visited. Among the feedlots to be visited are those of Marvin Beauchamp. We reported many top sales from Beauchamp's feedlots at Fort Worth last year and he even shipped some heifers to Fort Worth from his feeding operations as far away as Phoenix, Arizona, last year.

Deadline for livestock entries in the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth late in January are getting near. Cattle, swine and sheep entries must be postmarked not later than December 10 according to Superintendent Bill

King. Stock show address is Box 150, Fort Worth, Texas. Don't wait too long.

Special stress should be put this year on eradicating "woolies" or grubs from the backs of your cattle and calves this year.

One major packer told me that infestation looks like it will be very bad this year and that as high as 20 per cent of the calves they bought last week had grubs.

These grubs not only annoy the cattle and calves but make a difference in their slaughter value of 50 cents to mostly $1 per hundred and packers must take off that much to take care of the loss.

On a 500-pound calf, that is $5 per head.

You can doctor a lot of calves for $5. Why not save that loss?

See your county agent for a formula to kill grubs or any good dealer in livestock remedies can give you a good "dope" ready to use along with the instructions.

Vitamin and mineral deficiency is taking a toll of cattle in many sections and undoubtedly the calf and lamb crop will be cut sharply because of these deficiencies caused by the dourth this Summer.

Many shippers of cattle, calves and sheep to Fort Worth feel us that they intend to feed far heavier this year and that they are going to fortify their stock's rations heavily.

The prices calves and lambs bring these days, a few dollars spent in making the crop larger looks like a good investment.

Many pens of choice creepfed calves during the past week sold at good prices of $33.50 to $35 per hundred. Creepfeeding calves has been a sure profit this year. Among the shippers of such calves was Claud Bays of Dublin with a pen at $35 that averaged 650 pounds. Roy Davis of Proctor had a pen of 516-pound calves at $34.75 and Elmer Voelke, operator of Dutch Ranch near Cresson had a pen weighing 560 pounds at $34.60.

Inquiry is picking up for feeder lambs and prices are 50 cents to $1 higher. Stocker cows and stocker calves are also in much greater demand and sales 50 cents to $1 or more higher.

Many inquiries from Texas are noted, as well as the usual out of state orders for stockers. This indicates that recent rains have helped some spots over the state enough that the livestock producers feel they can carry a few more animals.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Guiley and Mrs. Ruth Searcey were business visitors in Wichita Falls last Thursday.

Mrs. Travis Martin and daughters of Seymour spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Reeves.

Jack Juggs and family returned to their home in Goree Saturday from San Francisco, Calif., where Jack has been serving in the Navy for fourteen months. He received his discharge last week.

Awnings Keep House Cooler

KEEP Old Sol from heating through the windows this summer, and you'll find home a much cooler place. Permanent awnings not only are attractive, but they have a cooling function.

There are several advantages to making your own. Constructing the awning illustrated is simple and it is cheaper than purchasing the ready-made. You may paint the awning any desired color.

Each awning should have a simple framework of 1 by 2-inch dressed lumber, with cross-pieces 16 inches apart. It should be covered with a building panel that will last as long as the house. Recommended is Masonite Tempered Presdwood, either 3/4" or 3/16" thick. The panels may form a solid cover over the framework, or they may be cut into strips four to six inches wide (as illustrated) and nailed to the framework with a small space between.

If strips are used, use pieces of Tempered Presdwood of the same width under the framing too, spacing them to cover the openings above in the slanting portion of the awning.

If the solid-type covering is used, provide a couple of vent slots at the top of the awning to permit heated air to escape.

Finish the awnings with a good primer and two finish coats of the same brand. Use of different colors on alternating strips of the Tempered Presdwood will give a pleasing effect.

Awnings like this will keep the inside temperature of your home five to ten degrees cooler on a scorching day.

Smith of Munday, and Bobby Graham of San Antonio, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell of Wichita Falls, were united in marriage on Saturday, November 10, at 7:30 p. m. The double ring ceremony took place in the home of the bride's parents with Rev. Huron A. Polnac, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

The reception following the ceremony was held in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated. The table was covered with a lace cloth over blue satin. Atop the beautifully decorated wedding cake were a miniature bride and groom, while double candles furnished the light.

Miss Barbara Jo Phillips cut the cake, and Miss Joy Lemley served the punch.

The groom is a graduate of Goree High School, and the bride attended the Munday schools.

Following a short honeymoon trip, the couple are making their home in San Antonio, where the groom is a civil service employee.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Says Not Much Chance Of Ever Finding A National Chairman Out There

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek gets off into national politics this week, which he's no authority on, but who is?

Dear editor: As you probably know, I'm not lookin for a job, my trouble never has been findin a job so much as overlookin the one already starin me in the face, but if I was, there is one job I don't believe I'd care for.

That's bein national chairman of the Democratic or the Republican party.

J. A.

I noticed from the newspapers that turned up out here on my farm some weeks ago that both parties have been having a little trouble with their chairmen, bad health, bad judgment, bad publicity, one thing and another, but findin a new one ain't always an easy job.

For one thing, as I understand it in the light of the latest turn of events, the chairman shouldn't have dealings with the RFC or other government lend in agencies or influence centers, and it seems like one of the hardest things on earth today is to find a man with enough prominence to head a party who ain't been callin on Washington for his company in one capacity or another.

The way it is, it takes a smart man to be national chairman, but a man who ain't found his way to the RFC these days, why there's some doubt about how smart he is. It's a problem too big for me to handle, but I wish to report that while we folks out here at the creek might not measure up when it comes to smartness, we could fill the bill otherwise, in case anybody is lookin for a national chairman from here, as our slate is clean, up to now hasn't anybody out here applied for an RFC loan, tried to get a special allotment of steel, bought any surplus ships for resale to the government, re-negotiated any contracts, handled any legal business worth sellin to a partner for $150,000 on the installment plan, influenced anybody's secretary, given or received any free automobiles, even gotten a free hotel room. We got a perfect background for national chairman from the clean slate standpoint, but when it comes to bein smart, I ain't sure.

Why even while most cities in the country have been in on some kind of junket to Washington for loans for highways or dredgin out a river or buildin a

Vaccine Promises More Mink Coats

PEARL RIVER, N. Y.—A promise of more mink coats for the women at a lesser cost was seen today when Lederle Laboratories announced a new vaccine to prevent distemper in mink, a disease which annually kills thousands of these valuable fur-bearing animals.

This country's mink crop is estimated at 3,500,000 annually, some of which are valued as high as $3,000. An outbreak of distemper among a herd of these delicate animals could cost a rancher tens of thousands of dollars, and remove many beautiful pelts which otherwise would reach the market.

ship channel or controllin high water or buildin an airport, we folks out here have sort of let things slide. You might say we have been sittin on our haunches, and you can see there ain't much likelihood of anybody comin out here lookin for an astute chairman of anything. Try Dallas or Fort Worth or Houston or Philadelphia or Kansas City. Yours faithfully, J. A.

Mink distemper is caused by a virus. The disease was recognized in dogs in 1801, but was discovered in mink only in 1932. The death rate among infected mink is about 60 per cent in older animals, but close to 100 per cent in young weaned mink. Survivors of distemper usually yield pelts of inferior quality.

A Lederle spokesman said the new vaccine is the first to provide solid immunity lasting at least one year, with a single injection. Mink are ready for the furmarket at about eight months of age.

Previous methods of combating mink distemper required a series of injections, and gave immunity for only a short period. The new vaccine is made from a strain of distemper which was modified by passage through fertile hen's eggs. It produces immunity in 10 to 14 days.

In controlled field trials, mink protected with this new vaccine withstood hundreds of challenge doses of highly virulent distemper virus with no ill effects. Two-year challenge tests are under way now.

Durwood Scott came in last Thursday night from Texas A. and M. College to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luke of Muenster visited relatives here over the week end.

J. C. Harpham was a business visitor in Dallas over the week end.

About 20 members of the Goree Baptist W. M. U. met last Monday at 10 a. m. for an all-day meeting covering the "week of prayer" program. Mrs. S. E. Stevenson was leader for the day.

Mrs. Jack Beaty, president, brought a record player and played the record of the state president's message to all societies urging them to give liberally for this year's Lottie Moon Christmas offering, as the need is so great.

A paper sack lunch was enjoyed during the noon hour. A Christmas tree will be placed in the church with a light for every $5 given. Let's make this a bright, shiny tree.

Farm House Is Destroyed By Fire

A farm house on the Leroy Leflar farm, about a mile east of Munday, was destroyed by fire which broke out at about midnight Tuesday night. The house was occupied by Mexican laborers, and a large part of their belongings were destroyed.

Munday firemen rushed to the scene, but the flames had gained such headway that they could not be controlled with water from the booster tank. The frame building burned quickly.

This made three calls local firemen had made during the first two days of the week, the other being grass fires.

"Here's the tire I want!"

GOODYEAR SUPER-SURE-GRIP TRACTOR TIRE

First choice for 2 reasons!

1. Deeper soil penetration — greater pull. Goodyear's open center tread has straight deep-biting lugs. They cut cleanly into the soil, penetrate full depth, full length. Straight bars closer together at the shoulders wedge the soil for firmer grip — don't "plow out" soil at the sides.
2. Balanced straight lug tread design — longer wear. Goodyear's open center lugs are all straight, all equal in size and spacing. That's why every lug works equally, pulls fully, wears more evenly.

Goodyear Super-Sure-Grips don't cost a penny more. Get them for your tractor.

We Have The Tires!

If you are interested in tractor tires, we have them in stock for both front and rear wheels. Our prices are right--made to fit your purse. Come down our way, and let's trade!
