"Gosh! But it's a job to move."

k-k

That's the informative remark Chester Borden made last Tuesday morning, after he had just about completed the job of moving into his new office.

k-k

Everything was pretty well arranged, except the new counter he had built was still standing on two-by-fours awaiting another coat of varnish before being placed in its permanent location.

k-k

In the course of visiting with Chester and Christine, Borden revealed the secret as to why it was such a job to move. "Actually," he said, "we just moved 14 inches."

k-k

A 14-inch wall separates Borden's new office from the old one, and that's the distance they moved—just out one door and into the other. But Chester does not relish the job of moving every week.

k-k

That's the first move, we think, he's made since he entered the insurance business in Munday—and he forbids us to reveal just how long ago that was. Kinda reminds us of a woman whose real age is a matter of her own private business!

k-k

"Boy! That would really be a good thing."

k-k

We heard that remark after the paper was out last week. The occasion was when a reader saw the heading: Burr Burners in Munday May Be Eliminated.

k-k

The move appears to be under way and gaining in interest. The "good thing" remark was made with reference to many people in town who suffer from asthma and hay fever, and the smoke from those burning cotton burrs doesn't do that type of ailment any good.

k-k

Still another important aspect to the idea is that the burrs are beneficial to the land when returned to the soil. They help to build up the soil, so we heard, making it more productive.

k-k

Then, too, there's the idea of roughage for cattle. They tell us those burrs can be mixed with molasses and stuff and they serve as excellent "fillers" for cattle.

k-k

So the idea of catching the burrs, returning them to the soil or feeding them to livestock is gaining impetus. We understand, too, local gins are willing to cooperate by building machinery to catch those burrs so they can be dumped into trucks and hauled away. But nearly everyone has got to be interested. If the burrs begin to accumulate and are not hauled away, they must be disposed of and burning is the likely method.

k-k

A relative of a local woman suffered a big loss by fire last Friday. She is Mrs. G. K. Fladger of Honey Grove, a niece of Mrs. T. G. Bengé, whose large building housing several stores and her newspaper, The Honey Grove Signal-Citizen, were destroyed.

k-k

Mrs. Fladger spent several days with Mrs. Bengé and returned home a few days before the fire. In a letter to her aunt, she said everything was a total loss.

k-k

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Fladger and her editor, Joe Morrow (no relation to our Munday Joe) in their great loss. They are continuing publication of the newspaper with the help of plants in neighboring towns.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Holder, Jr. of Lubbock were week end visitors of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Holder, Sr. Their daughter, Dianna Dee, who spent last week with her grandparents, returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Moore and children left Wednesday of last week for a ten day vacation in Ruidoso, N. M.

Honey Grove Paper Destroyed By Fire

Fire raced through an old brick and stone building in the business section of Honey Grove last Friday, destroying the landmark structure and causing an estimated $100,000 damage.

Half the estimated damage was suffered by the Honey Grove Signal-Citizen, the weekly newspaper. The blaze was first discovered about 2 p. m. by Mrs. G. K. Fladger, the publisher, who noticed smoke seeping into the ceiling of the newspaper office. Also destroyed were the warehouse and shipping department of the Diaper Jeans firm, which manufactures infants' wear; a tailor shop, the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges, with smoke and water damage to other buildings.

Mrs. Fladger, a niece of Mrs. T. G. Bengé of Munday, owned the building, which fronts 90 feet just off the square, as well as the newspaper. She became active publisher of the paper upon the death of her husband about six months ago. The paper is being published at Ladonia until other arrangements can be made.

Borden Moves To New Quarters

The J. C. Borden Agency has been moved into its new building—but you won't get lost trying to find the new location.

An addition to the First National Bank building was constructed to house the agency, while the bank in an expanding program will occupy the space formerly used by J. C. Borden. "It's a new building, but not a new location," said Mr. Borden in announcing the move. And everything is new except the personnel and some of the fixtures. More space is provided in the new building, and everything is as clean and shiny as a new dollar.

Mr. Borden and Christine want you all to come in and see the new office.

Texans Reach Halfway Mark In U. S. Bond Sales

DALLAS—More than $101 million worth of United States Savings Bonds were purchased by Texans during the first half of this year, it was reported today by Nathan Adams and Ed Gossett, co-chairmen of the Savings Bonds Advisory Committee for the state.

Sales of the bonds throughout Texas for the first six months up to July 1 totaled $101,606,381, including purchases during the month of June amounting to $13,787,277.

"At the half-year mark 50.3 per cent of the state's 1955 Savings Bonds goal of $201.9 million was attained," the co-chairmen said. "It should be emphasized, however, that bond sales generally have been greater during the first half of each year and it is urgent that more people in every county of Texas buy more bonds during the remainder of this year."

"This is going to be necessary in order for our state to achieve its proportionate share of the $5.5 billion national goal this year for this vital program. It is essential to the sound money and stable economy plans for our nation, every community and each individual," they added. The Savings Bonds co-chairmen urged that everyone increase Bond-a-Month or Payroll Savings Plan deductions during the remaining months of this year. They also urged the more than 1400 Savings Bonds volunteers throughout the state to step-up the program in every county so that Texas can put its 1955 bond goal over the top.

BIG BARGAIN

As we all know, prices of practically everything are much higher now than they were 15 years or so ago. But occasional "bargains" still exist. And one of the biggest of them all comes into service each time we turn an electric switch.

Since 1939, the cost of living generally has soared 93 per cent. By contrast, the cost of electricity has actually gone down a little—by about three per cent.

This is due, in part, to a vastly expanded demand for power. In the home, on the farm, and in industry we use this marvelous and tireless servant to do all manner of jobs that once were done by far more costly, far more laborious methods, or were not done at all. And it is also due, in part, to great technological progress within the light and power industry and in the industries manufacturing electrical equipment. The economic benefits have been passed on to the customer.

The cost of electricity is one of the smallest items in the average family budget, and in the operating budgets of most businesses also. Yet the political cliques which want a socialized government monopoly of this vital service act as if it were one of the biggest and most onerous items. How long will people be fooled by this nonsense?

TWO KINDS OF EQUALITY

According to Bureau of Labor Statistics records, it looks like the old and obviously good idea of paying people according to their experience, skill and productive ability, is back in style. The idea of economic leveling, which started in the New Deal days, resulted in pay raises on a cents-per-hour basis across the board. This benefited the lower paid, less skilled workers much more than the experienced and capable people in higher wage brackets and tended to draw the two ends of the wage scale together.

In 1950 we began to get back on the track, as the trend shifted to percentage wage raises which result in the increase being a proportion of current income, instead of an arbitrary dollar-and-cents figure. This is good news for America and everybody in it. People have different capabilities and you can't change that, so the best thing to do is to recognize and take advantage of it. Our country was built on the idea of maintaining as much equality of opportunity as is humanly possible. The alien and destructive idea of equality of economic status should be buried deep and forgotten. It could build nothing but national mediocrity.

THE DOLLAR WON'T STRETCH

The financial problem faced by the soft coal industry is graphically illustrated by the 1954 experience of producers in one of the nation's leading coal districts.

Here is what happened to each dollar these producers took in: 63.3 cents went for direct labor cost and union welfare payments; 20 cents went for supplies, power and other mine expense; 3.4 cents was absorbed by selling costs; administrative expense came to 2.2 cents, and other operating charges to 13.5 cents.

This all adds up to 102.4 cents, which had to be paid out of that 100 cents dollar. So the producers suffered a loss of 2.4 cents.

In other coal districts experience varied. But over a long period of time coal operators generally have earned little or no profit, and some have suffered heavy out-of-pocket losses.

It is clear that no industry can go on in this fashion indefinitely and still retain its capacity to meet a demand that everyone expects to be far greater in the future—or to be ready for the extremely heavy demand that could come overnight with a war or other major national emergency.

That's why coal's economic problem is of great concern to the government, and to industry in general. It's a basic industry producing an essential product—and the interest of the country demands that it get back on its feet.

TO THE CREDIT OF THE SENATE

The Senate was urged to extend the provisions of the minimum wage law to certain enterprises, including retailing, which have been exempt ever since the law was first passed in 1938. It is to the credit of the Senate that it did not do so, and that the exemptions are retained in the bill it passed this session.

Retailing is a local enterprise—every store even though it be a member of a national chain store system, must compete locally, and it will succeed or fail as it meets varying local desires and needs. Retailing also has employment opportunities for numbers of unskilled people whose services are of relatively small value, but who can gain experience that will qualify them for better-paying jobs. If the cost of this marginal labor was artificially forced up by law, retailers would have no choice save to pare employment to the utmost. The people harmed would be those the minimum wage is supposed to help.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

The members of the church are called Christians (Acts 11:26). Christ is to have preeminence in all things (Col. 1:18) and his people honor him in the name Christian (1 Pet. 4:16). The name expresses relationship to Christ, and is the most exalted and honored name that can be worn. "Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven; and things in earth, and things under the earth (Phil. 2:9-10). Only the saved are entitled to wear the name Christian. God added the saved to the church (Acts 2:47); and it was members of the church that were called Christians.

Every responsible person should be a member of the church because: (1) Jesus loved it and gave himself for it (Eph. 5:23). He places his estimate upon it when he bought it "with his own blood" (Acts 20:28). The church is the bride of Christ (Rom. 7:4; Rev. 21:9; 22:17). (2) The saved are in the church (Acts 2:47). The church is not the savior but it is in the church that the Lord saves. Salvation is only in Christ (Col. 1:13-14; Acts 4:12). To be in Christ is to be in his church (Eph. 1:22-23); therefore, salvation is only in the church. (3) To get out of darkness into his marvelous light" (1 Pet. 2:9). (4) To be able to die in the Lord (Rev. 14:13). To be able to die in the Lord, we must be in the Lord; to be in the Lord, is to be in the body of Christ—the church (Eph. 1:22-23). And (5) To be caught up for ever with the Lord (1 Thess. 4:17). This is the glorious destiny of the church. "So shall we ever be with the Lord." Paul had complete confidence in such a destiny (2 Tim. 4:8, 2:12).

PAYNE HATTOX, Evangelist

Nobody has asked me for suggestions but I think that when anyone is paged in a hotel lobby, it's done wrong. The public address system blares, "Paging Mr. John Doakes; paging Mr. Doakes." It should be, "Paging Mr. Doakes; paging Mr. John Doakes." When you hear your last name called (under my system), you would listen to see if you were the specific Doakes who was being called. As it is, everybody within hailing distance who is named Doakes answers because nobody caught the first name.

Also when you place a long distance call, station to station, the operator just rings the phone and when someone says, "Hello," you are on your own. No preliminary instructions from the operator such as "You both know the rules; come out of your corners talking and break at the command of the operator."

The person who answers the phone is never the one you actually want to talk to but this answerer always chats two or three minutes and then saunters to the next room and says, "Joe, you're wanted on the phone." And Joe takes two minutes to get there and after he has talked about the Dodgers and home-cooked meals and what killed vaudeville, you finally get a chance to tell him that you are not in town and that is a long distance call.

"You are talking over long distance?" he says and it takes him a while to recover from his surprise. Then he says, "Pete is talking over long distance" to the others in the office or the home and this occasions general comment. Time is marching on. At last you get to tell him whatever it was that you called him about—if you haven't forgotten what it was by now. More than likely it has become a moot question anyway but it may have historical interest.

My suggestion? For the operator to notify the person answering the phone. "This is long distance from Kokomo; go ahead please." Just as simple as that.

If the phone company doesn't put this into effect, it has only itself to blame if folks suspect the present setup is for the purpose of increasing the aforesaid phone company's revenue.

And what will I do about it? I'm going to start looking into the possibilities of using homer pigeons, that's what.

Cattle Prices Well Above 1954 Level At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH—Several people recently have inquired of us as to how prices as we turn into the month of August compare with a year ago. Going back to our Weekly Livestock Reporter files we find most cattle enjoy considerable advantage over a year ago.

The market at Fort Worth Monday on most cattle and calves was around steady despite the offering here being 1,500 above a year ago, and the run around the 12 major markets being about 30,000 cattle and calves above the previous Monday.

We can credit improved pasture and feed conditions for the strength of the market at Fort Worth at this time in the opinion of observers here.

Comparative Prices For Cattle and Calves

A year ago at Fort Worth choice grainfed cattle were quoted $20 to $22; few $23; common, plain and medium kinds $10 to $18. Recent sales of choice cattle at $21 to $23.50, and common, plain and medium sorts from $11 to $18, show a little better prices for top cattle than a year ago.

Other classes:

1954—Fat cows $9-$12, canners and cutters $6-9, a few under $6. 1955—Fat cows $10.50 to $13; canners and cutters $7 to $10.50.

1954—Bulls $8-$13. 1955—$10 to $14.

1954—Good and choice slaughter calves $16-$19; common and medium $9-$15; culls $7-$9. For 1955—Good and choice slaughter calves $16.50-$19; common and medium $12-$15.50; culls $9-$11.

1954—Stocker steer calves, of medium to choice, $15-$19; steer yearlings $18.50 down; heifer calves and yearlings $15 down; stocker cows $8.50-$10. 1955—Medium, good and choice stocker steer calves $16-$21; steer yearlings $19.50 down; heifers $16 down. Stocker cows $8-$12.

Sheep and Lambs Selling Well Above 1954 Levels!

Slaughter Spring lambs were 50 cents to $1 lower at Fort Worth Monday, and other classes of sheep and lambs ruled about steady. Top lambs scored $19, and feeders sold at $15.50 downward. Comparison of the various classes with 1954 shows:

GM Builds New Train

CHICAGO—GENERAL MOTORS LIGHTWEIGHT TRAIN, shown here in artist's conception, will be unveiled at the GM Powerama—a "world's fair of power"—in Chicago August 31—September 25. GM's Electro-Motive Division at La Grange, Ill., is building the revolutionary train at the request of a committee of railroad president. After its introduction at the spectacular Powerama, the train will be tested on major railroad lines.

1954—Good and choice slaughter Spring lambs $16.50-$18.50; common and medium killers $10-$15.50; culls down to $8. Feeder lambs $10-$15; slaughter yearlings $8-$12; aged wethers $6 to $9; slaughter ewes $3-$4.50; old bucks $2-$3; breeding ewes $5 to $10.

1955—Good and choice Spring lambs $17.50-$19; common and medium $12-$16.50; culls $10-$12; feeder lambs $13-$15.50; slaughter yearlings $9-$15; aged wethers $7-$12; slaughter ewes $4 to $5; old bucks $3-$4; stocker ewes $7-$12.

Carload Lots Featured In Fall Feeder Calf Program

In response to requests from feeder buyers both the Texas Aberdeen-Angus Association and the Texas Hereford Association have changed rules for their shows and sales this fall. At the Angus show to be held on the Fort Worth Market September 9, and at the Hereford shows and sales slated for September 16 and October 21, the judging will be on lots of 10, lots of 20 head and carload lots of 50 head. The weight differentials will be dropped. This allows three classes of steers and three classes of heifers. Corn Belt buyers asked for the carload division.

Hog Top August 1st Is $6.00 Below Same Date Year Ago!

Top hogs Monday sold at $17 to $17.25 at Fort Worth, and sows were also steady with last week's close of $8 to $15. In-between grade butchers sold from $15.50 to $17, and some pigs sold around $14.

This date a year ago top hogs drew $23, and sows sold from $13 to $19.

PAID IN FULL

John owed Fred $200 which he had borrowed several years back. John had been having a hard time and owed many bills. Because of his situation he thought Fred might accept less than $200 as payment in full. He sent Fred a check for $125 marked "In full for balance due on loan" on the face of the check. Fred cashed the check and started action to recover the other $75. Can he collect?

Yes, he can, as a promise or agreement is unenforceable unless supported by consideration or by giving of value by the other party. John did not give Fred anything he was not obligated to give and hence there was nothing to bind any agreement to accept the $125 as payment in full.

However, there are two variations of this situation in which John could accomplish his result!

First, if there was an honest dispute concerning the balance due on the loan, much as a dispute over credits allegedly agreed upon for work performed for Fred, or a dispute over the interest due, then acceptance of the check could constitute what is called an "accord and Satisfaction." This may satisfy the debt in full, especially if "Paid in full" is marked on the back of the check and Fred endorses beneath it.

Second, if John should give something in addition to the check, other than money, such as a piece of furniture or an animal, the debt would be satisfied in full if Fred accepted both the check and the additional consideration.

There is a common conception in the minds of many people that a person cannot be sued on a debt so long as monthly payments in any amount (even $1) are made. This is not so, as once a debt is due the creditor may bring suit for the full amount, and acceptance of any lesser amounts does not waive rights of suit except as indicated above.

Distinctive Table Top

IF YOU have a coffee table with a marbled top but otherwise good appearance, you can make it like new without a lot of laborious refinishing. And at the same time you can give the table a distinctive feature that it never had—a marble pattern top with a surface that takes abuse.

The simple job is done by applying a new top in the form of a plastic-finished Marlite panel in one of five authentic marble patterns. Widely used for walls and ceilings, the material is available at lumber yards.

Saw a panel to fit, allowing a fraction of an inch for smoothing edges by planing and sanding. Bond the panel to the table with adhesive and leave weights on top until the adhesive is set. Wax the edges or paint them to harmonize with the marble pattern and table finish.

Your new table top, with its baked-on plastic finish over a tempered Masonite hardboard base, will defy attacks by beverages, heat and wear. Damp-cloth wiping will clean it.

Campbell Named Chairman Of WTU Director Board

ABILENE—Price Campbell, West Texas Utilities Company president since March, 1930, Monday was elected chairman of the board of directors and chairman of the executive committee. C. L. Young, vice president and assistant to the president since 1953 was elected president.

F. W. Schroeder, vice president and superintendent of operations, was promoted to executive vice president and general manager of district operations. J. F. Longley, superintendent of production and transmission, was named as vice president in charge of power production and transmission. T. V. Grayson, rate, contract, and cost analysis engineer, was named as a new member of the board of directors.

The WTU executives were elevated to their new positions by action of the board of directors at a meeting Monday morning.

Acknowledging the congratulations of his associates, Campbell said, "In this rapidly growing West Texas, it just isn't the style for a man to decrease his activities." In assuming his new duties as chairman of the board and executive committee, Campbell stated that he would be less concerned with the day-to-day operations of the company and will have more time for the broad general supervision of company affairs mainly as to general policy affecting company welfare, corporate finance, organization, expansion programs, territorial development, public and governmental relations.

Prominent in the development of West Texas, Campbell is widely known as a civic and business leader and for his work supporting and encouraging water and soil conservation. Serving on numerous regional and state committees, he recently was named a Director of Texas A & M College.

A native of Weatherford, Mr. Campbell graduated from A&M College in 1913 and after a graduate course with General Electric was employed as an engineer by the American Public Service Company at Marshall in 1915. The only interruption in his 40 years of work in the electric industry came during World War I, when he entered the Army's first Air Force Service. Coming to Abilene in 1920, Campbell had served in almost every phase of the company's business when he was made president in 1930. Under Campbell's leadership WTU has experienced its greatest period of growth. In 1920 the company's properties—which then included ice, water, gas and street railways, as well as electric facilities—were valued under $3,000,000. During Campbell's 25 years as president, the company has become a 100% operating electric utility with assets in excess of $89,600,000 serving 167 towns and communities in a 52,830 square mile area, the largest area served any utility in the southwest.

Young, who observed his 31st anniversary with WTU this year, was born in Marshall. He holds electrical engineering degrees from both Alabama Polytechnic Institute and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. After completing the one year General Electric test course at Schenectady, New York, he worked for a short time in General Electric's District Engineering Department in Dallas.

Young, having previously served as an assistant to Price Campbell in Marshall, joined WTU as an electrical engineer in 1924. Later he was transferred to the Transmission and Engineering Department where he helped build many of the company's transmission lines and substations. Promoted to chief engineer in 1935, Young supervised the construction program doubling and redoubling the system generating capabilities. Since 1953, when he was made a vice president and a member of the board of directors, he has served as assistant to the president. With his new duties as president, he will be the chief executive officer of the company.

Schroeder assumes his new duties as executive vice president with more than 37 years of service with WTU. First employed in Abilene in 1918, he served as a construction engineer, chief engineer, vice president and superintendent of operations, and has been a member of the board of directors since 1923.

Leaving an assignment as an A&M College instructor, Longley was employed by WTU in 1926. He has served as load dispatcher, chief dispatcher, transmission superintendent. Elected to the board of directors in 1953, he has served as superintendent of production and transmission since that time.

Grayson, elected Monday to the board of directors, is also a veteran utility employee. Shortly after attending A&M College, he began his career in the electric industry. He joined WTU in 1927 where he heads the Rate, Contract, and Cost Analysis Department.

LAUNDRY TIPS

This is me, Spring, '35. Wanting terribly to do some redecorating in our house but knowing full well that our tiny budget wasn't going to stand the necessary stretching. Then Marcia Mead, home service director of Whirlpool Corporation, told me how to use my automatic washer to tint. And look at me now! The happy mask is the result of my washing machine's labor and my cheerful, new-looking house. The halo was etched in by my husband who is proud as can be that I redecorated this spring at a total expenditure of $3.50.

This is how to do it:
1. Wash articles to be tinted. They should be clean and wet for an even color tint.
2. Use color remover when tinting from one dark color to another.
3. Use the hottest water possible for tinting. The hotter the water, the faster the tint. (With my own Whirlpool Imperial washer, this meant simply setting the temperature selector to HOT.)
4. To the fresh hot water, add packaged water softener.
5. Add diluted dye according to directions on package of preferred brand. Do not attempt dyeing in a washing machine; boiling is necessary for a color fast dye.
6. Put in items to be tinted and allow washer to agitate until color is two shades darker than desired. Then turn timer dial to drain position and allow washer to complete cycle automatically.
7. Remove tinted articles and rinse in hot salted water for a higher degree of color-fastness.
8. Follow with plain water rinse.

My washer has a stain resistant porcelain enamel tub, top and lid and there was no need to protect it from splashing solution. To remove any loose dye that may remain in tub, refill with soap and hot water and allow it to agitate five minutes before draining.

MAKE FARMING SAFE

The week July 2430 should be for every Texan on and off the farm a practice period in prevention of accidents. The period has been designated as Texas and National Farm Safety Week.

The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee believes that accidents on farms do not occur because farmers and their families are more careless than other citizens. But with excess work and fatigue they often neglect necessary precautions in working with power equipment and edged tools, and in keeping in good repair articles which are used frequently.

Prevention of accidents has a deeper importance than merely keeping people fit to do their work. The waste of human lives, the pain and sometimes permanent crippling resulting from accidents, and the disruption to family life when a member is injured are of even greater consequence. The distressing thing, points out the committee, is that so large a part of accidents which are happening daily could be avoided by caution and common sense safeguards.

Hazards to life and limb and farm buildings are many and obvious. A systematic check will reveal them, and knowledge of them is an urge to remove them. Falls cause more injuries in the home than any other type of accident. Looking before stepping could reduce such accidents, suggests the Safety Committee. Finally, the Committee suggests that these seven days should take on special significance. It is time that farmers and their families and neighbors pooled their efforts toward making their industry as safe as any other in the nation. And as stated in the theme for Safety Week . . . "Your Safety is in Your Hands."

Mr. and Mrs. Zane Franklin and daughter and Mrs. Jimmie Bullington attended the funeral of John Bullington in Wellington Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Spann and daughter of Abilene were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Spann over the week end.

FAMOUS TEXANS' RECIPES

Pre-Planning Is Secret To Margo's Late Suppers

Whether she's directing a play or whipping up an after-theatre beef casserole for the cast and friends, Margo Jones' personality dominates the scene.

Her effervescent quality causes Broadway to call her "the Dazzling Dynamo from Dallas" and fellow Texans to refer to her as "our own tornado". But beneath the exterior "bubbles" lies a determined and serious nature. Margo Jones pioneered in founding a permanent professional repertory theatre dedicated to the staging of new plays and classics in 1947 when she established Theatre-in-the-Round in Dallas. Then the only one of its kind in America, Margo's theatre has set a pattern for other such theatres in metropolitan cities over the nation.

And Margo, a native of Livingston, Texas, sets other precedents with her after-theatre suppers where careful pre-planning makes hostessing an easy and delightful adventure. Her Beef and Rice Casserole, to be included in the Texas Beef Council's "Famous Texans Recipe" book, is a good main dish for informal get-togethers late at night since much of the preparation can be done hours in advance. The final mixing and heating takes only about 30 minutes—minutes which can be divided gracefully between kitchen and living room.

BEEF AND RICE CASSEROLE

(Yields 6)
2 pounds ground beef
1 teaspoon garlic salt
salt and pepper to taste
1 cup chopped onion
1 cup uncooked rice
1 1/2 cups tomato juice or tomato sauce
1/2 cup grated American cheese

Advance preparation: season ground beef with garlic salt, salt and pepper; brown. Saute onions lightly; add to meat. Set mixture in refrigerator. Boil, drain, cool and set rice aside separately.

After the show, to speed the cooking process, pre-heat the meat mixture in a heavy skillet over low heat before mixing in the cooked rice and adding liquid.

"Do not mix the entire casserole in advance because the rice will absorb the moisture of the tomato juice or sauce and dry out the finished dish," Margo warns.

"Pour the well moistened mixture into a casserole, cover with grated cheese and pop into hot (450°) oven until bubbling. Serve piping hot with tossed green salad and French bread and fruit for dessert," she advises.

"If this sounds pretty heavy for after-theatre eating, remember that midnight to actors is equivalent to the 6 p.m. dinner hour for folks who work daytime schedules, and we're ready for a hearty meal," the talented theatre director, author and lecturer concluded.

4-H WINNERS OF STATE FAIR HONOR AWARDS ANNOUNCED

Twenty-four outstanding Texas 4-H club members—one boy and girl from each of the 12 Extension Districts—have been selected to receive the 1955 State Fair of Texas Honor Awards. Presentation will be made during the State Fair this fall.

The list of winners and their counties released by Floyd Lynch, state 4-H club leader, included the following girls: Royce Lynn Pyeatt, Castro; Judine Young, Swisher; Tommy Lou Lenoir, Stephens; Melita Cooke, Dallas; Patricia Stevens, Upshur; Shirley Skains, Upton; Leslie Nell Wink, Coke; Margaret Owen, Burnet; Jean Biggerstaff, Nacogdoches; Barbara Egg, Dewitt; Janet Avera, Brazoria and Adelaide Heider, Jim Wells county.

Boys included Leon Langford, Parmer; Mack Shurbet, Hale; Bob Bates, Wichita; James Hollingsworth, Navarro; Jerry Smith, Upshur; Carl Calhoun, Midland; Jimmy Whitten, Schechter; Jerry Johnston, Limestone; Horace Wells, Walker; Robert Pfleger, Travis; Michael Presswood, Liberty and Johnny Ruf of Brooks county.

The Honor Awards are presented each year in recognition for a job well done by 4-H members. Final selection is based upon the member's record of achievement, leadership, production and participation in club and community affairs.

Drouth and overgrazing has thinned stands of grass in most permanent cultivated pastures and this coupled with recent rains is likely to make the control of weeds a bigger problem this summer. Mow your pastures early for weed control while there is plenty of moisture in the soil advises Extension Pasture Specialist E. M. Trew.

TASTY ORANGE SAUCE

Fruits provide the flavor for many of the most delicious dessert sauces. A delightful fruit sauce can dress up an ordinary everyday dessert and make it a dish worthy of special occasions. This orange sauce adds both eye appeal and taste appeal to such dishes as gingerbread, cake, or cottage pudding.

1/2 cup sugar
1-1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup hot water
1/2 cup fresh orange juice
2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
1 egg yolk
1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
3 tablespoons margarine

Combine sugar, cornstarch, and salt in a small saucepan. Stir in hot water and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Mix the fruit juices with egg yolk and blend with cooked mixture. Cook until slightly thickened, stirring constantly. Stir in grated orange and lemon rind and margarine. Serve over squares of gingerbread, cake, or cottage pudding and garnish with orange sections. This yields one and one-half cups.

Superliner United States Carried Over
200,000 Passengers in Three Years

Three years ago (July 14, 1952) the superliner United States, flagship of the United States Lines, completed her maiden voyage and established a new eastbound and westbound trans-Atlantic speed record. Her eastbound crossing was made in 3 days, 10 hours and 40 minutes at an average of 35.5 knots, approximately 41 land miles per hour. On her return crossing to New York she set a new westbound record of 3 days, 12 hours and 12 minutes. It was the first time in almost 100 years that an American flag vessel won the coveted Blue Riband of the Atlantic.

Since the United States entered service July 3rd, 1952, she has carried a total of 207,807 passengers. In her third year of operation from July 6, 1954 to July 5, 1955 she carried a total of 66,455 passengers, an average of 3,112 for each round trip.

She has crossed the Atlantic 134 times and has traveled 427,752 nautical miles between light vessels, a distance equivalent to approximately 17 times around the world. Throughout this entire distance she has maintained an average speed of 30.63 knots which is about 35 land miles per hour.

While primarily a passenger vessel, the United States also carried 27,527 tons of high class cargo and 3,336 automobiles of passengers aboard. She also carried over 750,000 sacks of mail.

During her three years of service the vessel's shafts have never been stopped or slowed down at sea due to machinery derangement. The ship's tremendous air conditioning system, which services all state rooms, public rooms, crew's quarters and all working areas and is in use on every voyage throughout the year, has functioned perfectly for three years without interruption.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Alarmed Over The Washington Outfit That Has Trouble In Spending All Its Budget

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek has discovered a new problem, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

I have read lots of amazing news out of Washington, but I read some the other day which left me so amazed I haven't hit a lick of work all week.

I'd gotten up that morning intending to work a little, but thought I'd first look over a newspaper to maybe give me something to think about while I went up one row and down another, and sat down in the shade propped against a rear tractor tire and started reading. It ruined my working day.

According to an article that jumped out at me from the front page, Congress was in a turmoil recently because, when the time came to appropriate three and a half billion dollars for the defense department, it was discovered the department had failed to spend several hundred million of the money it got the previous year, but not wanting to get caught in such an unheard of position, the department spent it all in the last 24 hours of the fiscal year.

Somebody in Washington is slipping worse than I ever dreamed was possible, and I think something ought to be done about it immediately.

If Washington can't find men who can spend all the money Congress can appropriate, I'll be glad to help out, although I do not believe there is a serious shortage of such people in this country and I believe Washington can find them if it tries. There must be thousands of people serving on city councils, at county seats, in state legislatures, who wouldn't have any trouble at all spending more money than anybody can budget.

It's embarrassing to Congress and the country as a whole, especially to me, to find there are people who have to rush out on the last day of their fiscal year and spend wildly in order to avoid having a carry-over. It's a problem I never have encountered around here, but would like to try.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

SHEEP DON COTTON JACKETS!

Even sheep are wearing cotton! Coats of cotton for the wool-bearing animals are the latest fashion on the western range. The cotton jacket is a new idea that has caught on with ranchers as a means of protecting the animal fleeces from dust. Last winter, Dick Stauder, sheep and wool marketing specialist with the New Mexico Extension Service, carried out a demonstration which proved that the cotton blankets kept four pounds of dust and dirt out of each fleece. Besides, coyotes are afraid of the jackets and keep their distance from such strangely garbed sheep!

CROP PRODUCTION OUTLOOK

The 1955 crop report points out the false idea of selective acreage controls. Acreage forced out of one crop pops up in another to create a new surplus.

Cotton and wheat cuts have gone into soybeans, grain sorghums, hay and other products. Neither does lower price supports discourage planting. The farmer plants more to make up his loss in price.

Here are the details of the bumper 1955 harvest expected in the nation:

FEED grain supply will be the highest in history. CORN crop forecast is almost 3.5 billion bushels—16 per cent over 1954—coming from a new record yield of 42.7 bushels per acre despite acreage cuts.

OATS supply looks like a record 1.8 billion bushels—slightly higher than last year. Carryover is about 325 million bushels—also the highest.

BARLEY will be about 524 million bushels, about 75 million more than last year. Carryover is estimated at a record 140 million bushels.

GRAIN SORGHUM in Texas will approach and probably will break records but production is not yet estimated. The same should hold true for the nation. Acreage is about 23 million, putting production estimates unofficially above the record 233 million.

WHEAT supply is estimated at 1,890 billion bushels, about 30 million more than last year's record. Carryover next July may be around 955 million bushels with no break in sight on the surplus supply situation.

SOYBEAN crop is not estimated yet but unofficially it looks like a peak of 360 million bushels or more, based on 1954's near average yield.

RYE crop is forecast at 27.2 million bushels, 15 percent more than last year.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle,
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health, stated today that the second inoculation of first and second grade pupils against poliomyelitis has been completed in most areas of Texas. Approximately 70 per cent of those receiving the first shots were on hand for the second group.

It is hoped that vaccine will be available soon for use by private physicians to immunize those not eligible under the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis program; also that some arrangements can be made to secure vaccine for the medically indigent of the state. Under the Foundation program, use of vaccine has been limited mostly to children in the first and second grades.

Dr. J. E. Peavy, Chief of the Division of Communicable Diseases, says that polio occurs both sporadically and in epidemics at irregular intervals, with the highest incidence in Texas during the latter part of July and the month of August.

During the past five years 37.4 per cent of the reported cases of poliomyelitis in Texas occurred in the age group under five years; 26 per cent in the group 5 to 9 years; 12.6 per cent in the group 10 to 14 and 23.8 per cent of the cases reported were 15 years of age or older. During epidemics paralytic cases rarely exceed one per thousand of population. The most deaths from poliomyelitis are in the 20-29 year group.

Poliomyelitis can be recognized by your physician by clinical manifestations assisted by examination of the spinal fluid.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Hastings and daughter of Marlow, Okla., were week end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Counts.

Mrs. Freddie Morrow was a guest of her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Deon Martin, in Abilene over the week end.

Alvin Bowman of Dallas visited relatives and friends here the first of this week.

For Gluing Wide Boards

IN gluing wide boards or frames when no long clamps are avail-able, Popular Mechanics advo-cates drilling two saw holes for dowel stops. Dowels inserted in the holes will hold the work while the glue sets.

Boards to be edge-glued are placed between the stops. Be-tween one of the dowels and the work, drive a long wooden wedge to clamp the boards together, as shown in the illustration. When the dowels are not being used, drive them down.

OPERATION ALERT information on casualties is posted during the first night of the June 15-17 exercise by Miss Verna Bergquist, an FCDA secretary. The numbers and letters to the left of the states listed in the foreground are a code indicating how some of the other states on the board fared as a result of the mock attack.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown-ing and Miss Maldee Smith vis-ited with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stephens and children in Orange from Thursday until Sunday.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Scott from Sun-day until Wednesday were his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. Scott and Donnie, of Fresno, Calif.

Watering, salting and fencing facilities on the ranch are de-scribed as excellent management tools by Extension Range Spec-ialist A. H. Walker. How well they are used determines their values.
