Odd Bits Salvaged

Among other things, this week is "National Let Me Alone Week."

We don't know who ever started an idea like that, but we heard it on the radio Tuesday morning.

Then coming down and finding our post office box full of first of the month bills—and these weren't April Fool jokes—we decided it might be a good idea to practice the "let me alone" period.

On the other hand, if we practiced it in its fullest and to the "NUT" degree, wouldn't we all feel funny?

Think of going an entire week without anyone bothering you. Friends not speaking to you, the telephone never ringing, not a piece of mail in the mail box, no one presenting you a bill, no one paying his account or making a purchase—everybody just letting you alone.

After a week of that, we'd be willing to accept most anything, just to have our friends back.

Like, for instance, when we went to vote in the city election, Tuesday. We signed on the dotted line, secured our ballot, got pencil ready and started to sit down in one of those steel tubular chairs which C. L. Mayes had just vacated.

We placed our poundage too near the edge, said chair scooted out from under us, we sat flat in the floor with the chair pounding us on top of the head.

If we'd been practicing "let me alone week," we guess Jim Reeves wouldn't have busted out in that big haw-haw laugh of his the ladies wouldn't have laughed either, and that would have been more embarrassing than ever.

So we're not in favor of "let me alone week," therefore, we're not practicing it, and we're not going to let you alone. We're going to hound you to go vote again Saturday.

The vote in the city election was a little light and disheartening. People should show more interest in their local governments.

Let's make it a big vote Saturday, because the welfare of our schools is something of importance.

We have the names of twelve men on the ballot for trustee of our local school. They are: Wayne Patterson, Boyd Meers, J. B. Scott, Doris Dickerson, Ray Holcomb, H. E. Sharp, Weldon Floyd, Eugene Michels, J. H. Russell, J. H. (Jerry) Kane and Travis Lee.

We're electing an entirely new board. We can only elect seven of the twelve. Who do you want to run our school? Go to your voting place Saturday and vote for them.

We have two good men on the ballot to represent Commissioners Precinct Four on the county school board. They are J. E. Cure and Ben B. Hunt.

Which one of these men do you want on the county school board? Then help elect him, come Saturday!

We have two good men whose names are on the ballot for County School Trustee-At-Large. They are Jack Idol and J. Omar Cure.

Which one of these men do you want on the county school board? Your vote Saturday will help elect him.

People in the common school districts have trustees to elect. Go to your voting place Saturday and select one who has the interest of your school at heart.

Here in Munday some folks are planning "courtesy rides" for those who want to vote and who do not have a means of getting to the polls.

If you don't have a car, don't feel like walking; yet, you want (Continued on last Page)

School Land Dispute Appears To Be Headed For Texas Supreme Court

It appeared Tuesday that the Texas Supreme Court will decide the school land dispute between the Munday and Knox City school districts.

The 11th Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland last Monday upheld action of the Knox County Board which last July 1, annexed 16,079 acres of the original Sunset school land to the Knox City district. This land became a part of the Munday school district by means of a consolidation election last June 16, when the Sunset district was consolidated with the Munday district by a majority vote of the people.

Then followed the petitions to the county school board to annex 16,079 acres of land to the Knox City district. This was granted by the county board on July 10, and the Munday school district filed an injunction to set aside the action of the county board.

The case was tried in 50th District Court, and Judge Ben Charles Chapman of Haskell, the presiding judge upheld the county board's action in a decision handed down on August 27, 1951.

The Munday district then appealed to the 11th Court of Civil Appeals, which last Monday upheld the decision of Judge Chapman.

Attorneys for the Munday School District stated Tuesday they were filing a motion for rehearing by the 11th Court of Civil Appeals. "If, and when, this motion is overruled," they said, "we will file for a writ of error in the Texas Supreme Court."

Golf Members Name Officers

New officers of the Munday Municipal Country Club were elected at a meeting last Thursday night. They are: Bruce Burnett, president, and J. B. Graham, vice president.

Officers of the club stated that all the club's equipment is being repaired and made ready for the season. The grass greens are also coming along fine, and will likely be ready for play by June 1.

Funds Allocated To Knox County For 1952 A. C. P.

A total of $71,700.00 has been allocated to Knox County to be used in assisting farmers in carrying out soil and water conservation practices under the 1952 Agricultural Conservation Program J. C. McGee, chairman of the county PMA committee, announced today.

These funds, he points out, have been appropriated by Congress to protect and improve the farmland of Knox County, in line with Thomas Jefferson's assertion that "While the farmer may hold title to the land, actually it belongs to all the people because civilization rests upon the soil."

According to the chairman, something like 15 per cent of our people live on the land. The other 85 per cent depend on this 15 per cent for food and fiber, not only this year and next but in all the years to come. It is vital to the nation and our civilization that the land be protected and built up. And all the people have a responsibility to help provide assistance in protecting and improving the land.

This year, he explains, every farmer in Knox County is to have an opportunity to cooperate in the Agriculture Conservation Program. And, to make the most effective use of the program, every farmer is urged to determine the "most needed" conservation on his farm.

He explains that "most needed" means the conservation measures which will do most to keep the productivity of the land from deteriorating as well as those which make the farm more productive.

Gerald Morrow will do the announcing and Herb Ford will be in charge of stage fixtures.

O'Connor Thanks Workers In March Of Dimes Drive

In a recent letter to Rev. R. L. Butler, county chairman of the 1952 March of Dimes, Basil O'Connor president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, expressed his thanks for the work done in this county. He said, in part:

"I know that the best way I can thank you for your devoted and capable assistance in the campaign is to tell you that reports coming in from campaign directors in all parts of the county indicate that we are now in a position to meet our debt held over from last year's disastrous polio toll, and to carry forward our programs for 1952. The American people have again given their generous and wholehearted support to our important work."

"Without your help, and that of the fine men and women who worked with you, this would not have been possible. . . . Those who directed the campaign in various communities are: Munday: Don L. Ratliff; Goree: Rev. Bourdon Smith; Vera: Mrs. L. A. Feemster; Benjamin: Mrs. L. A. Parker; Gilliland: Mrs. Pete Mayberry; Knox City: Rev. Howard Marshall; Truscott: Mrs. S. O. Turner; Rhine land: Mrs. C. J. Albus; Brock: Mrs. Finis Walker, and Sunset: Herbert Partridge.

Wesley Wright, president of the Goree 4-H Club and Bill Palmeyer, Knox County Agent, attended the Tractor Maintenance School held at Childress March 24-25 for the purpose of learning how to set up a series of tractor maintenance schools for the tractor farmers of Knox County.

School Election Next Saturday To Attract Interest Of County Voters

Wynelle Porter Announces For County Clerk

Mrs. Wynelle (Barnett) Porter has authorized the Munday Times to announce her candidacy for the office of County Clerk of Knox County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries. Her statement to the voters follows:

This means is being taken to present my announcement for the office of County Clerk of Knox County. It is not my intention in this initial announcement to entail to any great extent any of my qualifications, as I intend to make a vigorous campaign of the county, and will present my candidacy in person to the largest number of voters possible.

I am a life-long citizen of Knox County, spending the first nineteen years of my life in the Goree community, graduating from the Goree High School. Most of the people in that vicinity will remember me as Wynelle Barnett. Subsequently to that time I moved to Benjamin, where I have resided continuously for the past ten years.

Most of my employment has been in connection with county offices, being employed for the past three years by the County P. M. A. office, which position I have resigned effective April 1, in order to make this campaign for County Clerk. Prior to that time I worked for a period of time as secretary of the Knox County Vocational School for veterans at Munday. I held the position of deputy assessor-collector for several years and worked for short periods of time in the offices of the county school superintendent and county clerk. I believe that experience gained in this work will be of great benefit in the discharge of the duties of County Clerk.

As stated above, it is my intention to extensively campaign the county in the coming months attempting to see every voter that I possibly can. To those that might inadvertently be missed, I want to express my appreciation for whatever consideration you might see fit to extend me, and want you to consider this as a solicitation for your vote and influence in the July primary. The only promise I can make is that I will do my best if elected.

4-H Boy Attends Tractor Maintenance School Recently

Wesley Wright, president of the Goree 4-H Club and Bill Palmeyer, Knox County Agent, attended the Tractor Maintenance School held at Childress March 24-25 for the purpose of learning how to set up a series of tractor maintenance schools for the tractor farmers of Knox County.

Under the direction of Wright, schools will be held in the Goree community stressing tractor safety and maintenance practices that should be followed to give longer tractor life and better operating efficiency. The first lesson will consist of tractor operation and safety with the reminder that 1,300,000 people are injured each year and 15,500 tractor fatalities occurred in 1951. Also discussed will be the air cleaner, lubrication, fuel system, cooling system, electrical system, use of the operator's manual and operation of the tractor. 4-H members and adults are invited to attend, with the goal in mind to make tractor operation safer and more economical.

Return From Trip Along Azalea Trail

Mmes. G. R. Elland, D. E. Holder, S. E. McStay and Effie Alexander returned home last week from a weeks' visit along the Azalea Trail from Natchez, Miss. to Mobile, Ala.

Among the interesting places they visited were Southern plantations, lovely colonial homes, beautiful flower gardens, the French Quarter in New Orleans, La., and the Bellingrath Gardens in Alabama.

Interest is growing over the entire county in the school trustee elections which will be held in all voting precincts next Saturday. Practically all independent and common schools will elect members to their boards of trustees, and this fact alone will bring many voters to the polls.

Of interest, too, is the naming of members to the Knox County School Board.

In the race for trustee-at-large for the county board are J. Omar Cure of Gilliland and Jack Idol of Benjamin, present member of the board. All school districts will have a voice in electing this member.

For county school trustee from Commissioners Precinct Four the names of John Cure and Ben B. Hunt appear on the ballot. The vote of these men will be in only the boxes in Precinct 4.

In addition, both Munday and Knox City are electing an entirely new board this year, and all other districts will name one or more members to their boards.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

LE SEUR, MINN., NEWS-HERALD: "The reason taxes seem high is because they are high. Back in the year 1900 the average person paid $3.88 in Federal taxes, while the average per person tax today is $472 according to the U. S. News and World Report. It isn't the high cost of living, it's the high cost of government."

ARLINGTON, WASH., TIMES: "The county treasurer's office . . . is crowded with citizens checking up and paying taxes . . . By a study of his statement the taxpayer can figure his exact contribution toward the administration of his city, which provides police protection, fire protection, upkeep of his streets, lighting, library, and various services . . . On the other hand the immense sums of Federal government whisk away from him are meekly surrendered . . . If the taxpayer raised half the howl . . . over the Federal extractions that he raises over the county pitance, the din might be heard, and have a wholesome effect in Washington."

NORWALK, OHIO, HOUR: "The Federal budget under discussion in Congress is for $85 billion . . . And there is no Federal Communication Commission, or State Utility Commission, to see that we get our money's worth for the rates we pay."

HILLSBORO, MO., RECORD: "You might get an idea of the hugeness of a billion if you realized that since the birth of Christ more than 1900 years ago, just slightly more than a billion minutes have elapsed . . . If you take a look at the President's proposals further, you will see that he wants to spend more dollars in the next fiscal year than there have been seconds between the birth of Christ and the present time."

BIGNESS, PER SE

Not so many years ago, "big business" was the target of those who saw in bigness an inherent public danger.

To protect the public interest, a legislative wall was built around corporate operations. Laws were passed to insure fairness in competition and to guarantee an even break for the small operator.

Now, not so much is heard about the "bigness" of business. There is public acceptance of bigness in business as necessary for efficiency provided that ample safeguards against abuse exist.

But meanwhile bigness has appeared in another direction. Today it is big government. And people are uneasy over it. They do not know where it will lead or where it will end. What are the safeguards?

Government is the single biggest employer in the country. Thirty million persons are drawing checks directly or indirectly from the federal government. Our government is so big it has mortgages on banks, railroads, manufacturers, homes and businesses. It operates railroads, canals, power plants, printing plants, news services, universities, steamships and radio. It is the nation's biggest money lender. It is in competition with private enterprise and it is operating its businesses on tax money collected from private business.

Socialism is being purchased with our own money. Tomorrow's heirs of those in power today may not be so benign. The people are being conditioned to accept centralized power. We're headed for the skidrow of socialism.—SACRAMENTO, CALIF., UNION.

HAUL BACK ON THE REINS

During the current session, Congress should thoroughly examine the problem of price and other controls—and also examine with a critical eye the policies and the philosophies which have been established by the Office of Price Stabilization.

OPS has saddled producers and distributors with a tremendous and costly burden of red tape—some of the complex and conflicting orders have driven top-flight lawyers, economists, and authorities on manufacturing, farming and retailing to the brink of utter confusion. The argument that OPS has prevented still more inflation has no discernible basis in fact. Prices have been held down as much as possible for the simple reason that we still live in a country where producers and distributors compete with each other for consumer favor, and the concern which offers the best value gets the business. Indeed, controls can actually encourage inflation, by demoralizing and retarding production, creating scarcities, and stimulating black markets.

OPS, at times, has seemed bent on a revolutionary policy of "profit control" which would eventually destroy a free economy. In the case of retailing, for example, OPS obviously wanted to force retailers to absorb cost increases which were completely beyond their control—in the face of the demonstrable fact that retail dollar profits, always modest, just weren't big enough to make that possible. Only action by Congress prevented this.

It's time we really put a bit in OPS' mouth—and haul back hard on the reins.

"Price and production controls are dangerous for the same reasons that Socialism and Communism are dangerous. They are subject to political pressures; they are inequitable; they often roll back progress; they often reward inefficiency; and they cannot be administered effectively."—Theodore O. Yntema.

"Civilizations, historically, fail when government consumes more than a fourth of the production of the people. Today government in the United States is taking one-third of the production of the people."—N. Bradford Trenham.

"Our government should fulfill its basic responsibility for establishing sound monetary policies which will deflate demand and thus take the pressure off prices."—C. E. Wilson.

BOY SCOUTS SUCCESSFUL COTTON FARMERS, TOO

There are 4,517 Boy Scouts in America who were successful cotton farmers before they were 18 years old.

This was learned last month as Scouts all over the country celebrated the 42nd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

An average of 200 boys earn the Merit Badge for Cotton Farming each year.

The Merit Badge for Textiles has been earned by 25,818 Scouts, it was announced. In order to qualify for this badge Scouts must be thoroughly familiar with the production and properties of raw and finished cotton, worsted, silk and synthetic fibers, the textile Merit Badge each year.

About 580,000 of the total enrollment of 2,900,000 Scouts live in the 16 major cotton producing states.

West Texas Utilities Co. To Hold Cooking School Here On April 4th

How would you like to cook your family's meals simply by turning a switch? Today, the homemaker can accomplish just that . . . cook a complete meal by just turning a switch. Mrs. Jennie V. Wynne, widely known Home Economist, will demonstrate the most recent and proven developments in modern cooking at the demonstration which will be held Friday, April 4, in the High School Home Economics Department at 2:30 P. M.

MRS. JENNIE V. WYNNE

Mr. Arthur Mitchell, West Texas Utilities Company local manager has issued an invitation to all the housewives in Munday and the surrounding area to be his guests at the demonstration which is planned as one of the best ever conducted here.

The demonstration, sponsored by the West Texas Utilities Company, will be conducted by Mrs. Jennie V. Wynne, a senior Home Economist for Frigidaire Sales Corporation. Mrs. Wynne will be assisted by other members of the district staff.

Mrs. Wynne, who will present the very latest in food preparation and time saving methods, is a graduate Home Economist with several years of practical experience. She has had special training in food preparation, preseration, and quick-freezing techniques at the nationally famous Frigidaire Home Economics Department at Dayton, Ohio.

Recipes and favors will be given to homemakers who attend the demonstration. All the food used in demonstrating the modern electric way of food preparation will be presented to women attending the school.

I'm not a stamp collector. In one of those old-fashioned people who believe that stamps should be made to mail letters with. I can't get enthusiastic about all these numerous special issues for one thing, they rate king-sized and it takes twice as much licking.

The Postoffice Department seems to be scraping the bottom of the barrel for ideas for these commemorative stamps and so I suggest a few:

Site of the Terminal Hotel in Fort Worth—"Boyce House slept here"—about the only person who ever did, because of the whistles, bells and puffing engines about 25 feet away;

"Winning of the West", showing 10-year-old Boyce House driving a covered wagon;

Sept. 27, 1953, tenth anniversary of "IGive You Texas", the book which freed Texans from dependence on stories handed down solely by word-of-mouth in proclaiming the greatness of Texas.

And here are two final dates to commemorate:

Aug. 17, 1931, Boyce House's first ride on a motorcycle;

Aug. 17, 1931, Boyce House's last ride on a motorcycle.

Claude Wild and Forrest Wright were young lawyers in Cisco. They once had a case in Eastland before District Judge George L. Davenport and they put in the day arguing. Finally, the judge, who has an excellent sense of humor, said, solemnly, "The court is in a dilemma: I do not know whether Wild is right or Wright is wild."

And as though things were not confused enough, we have similarities in names to mix us up: There are the Costellos, Frank and Lou; there are two Bridges, the New England Senator and Harry; there are John L. Lewis and Jerry Lewis and Joe Louis; and there is Charles Wilson, who used to be with General Electric, and Charles Wilson, who is head of General Motors—or maybe it's the other way round; and a whole swarm of McCarthys—Glenn McCarthy, Senator McCarthy, Clem McCarthy and Charley McCarthy. No wonder folks are confused.

Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Ratliff were business visitors in Lubbock the first of the week.

Mrs. Charles McCauley is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McCollum, in Mertens, this week.

260-cubic-inch high-compression engine gives the 44 power aplenty for heavy field, road, yard and belt work. In plowing, planting or harvesting . . . wherever the success of a job depends on stepped-up production—that's when the 44's extra power pays off in time saved, and in the greater ability to get more done. Ask for a demonstration of the Massey-Harris 44, the tractor that out-powers and out-performs any other tractor in the 3-4 plow class.

Firemen Answer Two Alarms

Local firemen answered one call on Saturday of last week at the home of Oscar Spann. A wall had caught on fire due to a faulty wall heater. When the firemen arrived the fire had already been extinguished by the Spann family.

On Monday of this week a grass fire was reported on the John Porter farm in Throckmorton County. The fire was suppressed with little damage resulting. Approximately 20 acres of grass land burned.

We, the Munday Volunteer Fire Department, wish to commend our new City Marshal, Joel Massey, in doing a splendid job of directing traffic during our journey to a fire. This enables us to arrive at the scene of the fire more quickly and safely.

There is a picture at Gray's Grocery of some of the people of Munday taken 45 to 50 years ago, and they would appreciate anyone coming by who might be able to identify them.

Goree Methodist Men Hold Meeting

"Miracles still happen," stated Rupert Ricker, who spoke at the Methodist Men's meeting at Goree Monday night, March 31. Mr. Ricker, a Methodist layman at Big Spring, is also a lawyer and being such, he proved his statement with many illustrations.

Mack Tynes, president of the organization, was in charge of the business session. Thirty-five members and visitors enjoyed the meal and talk.

The next meeting will be the last Monday night in April with Pat Morrison of Wichita Falls as speaker.

We invite and welcome all the men of the community to these inspirational fellowship meetings.

53 VOTES FOR ALL

Munday's newest city officials were elected Tuesday, each receiving 53 votes. They are: M. F. Billingsley, mayor; J. C. Campbell and Robert Green, aldermen and A. H. Mitchell, alderman for the unexpired term of Joel Massey.

State Conducting 4-H Programs More Than 15 Years Old

Eight national 4-H awards programs, all more than 15 years "old," which have been important factors contributing to the widespread popularity of the 4-H Club work, are being conducted in this State, for 1952.

The programs, their respective anniversaries and donors are: Girls' Record, 30th, Montgomery Ward; Canning, 24th, Mrs. Ruth Kerr, Meat Animal, 23rd, Thos. E. Wilson; Food Preparation, 18th, Kelvinator, Farm and Electric, 17th, Westinghouse; Leadership, 16th, Edward Foss Wilson; Dairy Achievement, 16th, Lederle Laboratories, and Beautification of Home Grounds, 15th, Mrs. Chas. R. Walgreen.

Total enrollment in the eight programs exceeded 2,661,000 in 1950, indicating that many 4-Hers enrolled in several of the programs.

Incentives for outstanding records of achievement in the programs are honor medals for county winners, educational trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago for State or Sectional winners, and $300 college scholarships for national champions.

County Extension Agents will furnish complete information on any of these programs, all of which are supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service.

THE PINK BOLLWORM—II

There was near-panic among cotton people and governmental agencies following the discovery of the first Pink Bollworm in Texas in 1917. "No-cotton zones" were proclaimed excitedly everywhere the insect was found.

The worm had been a serious pest in many parts of the world, including China, Egypt, Brazil, Argentina and Mexico. But still almost nothing was known about its habits and life history. And there was much confusion among those trying to combat it in the early days in Texas as there was hardship among the growers, who suffered from the "no-cotton zone" proclamations.

Now we know that no cotton zones are futile in Texas as long as there is a plentiful supply of Pink Bollworm across the border in Mexico. We've also learned that since the worm bores it way deep into the cotton boll we can't get at it successfully with insecticides.

We are coping with it effectively, however, by following cultural practices based on the knowledge we've acquired of its life history. The cotton grower can change his procedure—the Pink Bollworm can't change its fixed habits.

We know it propagates in the growing season. So in the warmer areas, with a long growing season, we shorten the breeding time and plow-up deadlines in.

We know that in the fall it goes into hibernation. So we destroy its place for passing the winter by stalk destruction and field cleaning.

At gins and oil mills we have fumigation, sterilization and burning of "gin trash" to prevent spread by way of seed, lint, burrs, cotton products, etc.

Commercial damage from the Pink Bollworm in the past has been as high as 50%—now it is negligible. Our success is due to the almost 100% cooperation of growers, ginners, and oil millers in the program for control and eradication under the Texas Pink Bollworm Law.

As long as the moth can make long-distance flights, however, it can invade any part of Texas. And it is important to get at it quickly when it shows up in a new area.

Anyone finding a worm resembling the Pink Bollworm in cotton areas thought to be free of the insect should place it in a bottle of diluted alcohol and send it to the Entomologist for Pink Bollworm Control, Texas Department of Agriculture, Austin, with full information as to date and place of collection.

Mrs. Charlie Haynie, Jr., and children, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. White, in Rochester last Sunday.

THE TOWN HOLDS A HOLIDAY

Roma, Texas Proves Perfect Setting For Filming Of "Viva Zapata!"

Scenery and props that Hollywood couldn't duplicate for an amount of money were captured by Twentieth Century-Fox cameras during the filming of John Steinbeck's "Viva Zapata!" the biographical drama of Mexico's famous rebel which Elia Kazan shot in part along the Rio Grande.

The 100-year-old Mexican town of Roma, Texas, its adobe store buildings, church and wrought-iron embroidered homes, was turned over to Kazan and his crew. The quaint village with its huge cobblestone plaza declared a three-day holiday while 500 of its picturesque citizens donned make-up and peon garb to emote before the cameras along with Marlon Brando, Jean Peters and a host of Hollywood and Broadway actors.

Against a bullet-pocked adobe wall, where, according to legend, Pancho Villa executed prisoners, Hollywood captives were "shot down" by a firing squad for the story of the peasant bandit-hero, Emiliano Zapata, the last of Mexico's men on horseback.

From the rocky confluence of the Peco and Rio Grande rivers east of Del Rio, where Kazan set up a main location site, the cameras went on a 350-mile safari to McAllen, Laredo, Del Rio, Roma and San Ygnacio, Texas, duplicating the scenery of the state of Morelos, Mexico, the province where Zapata fought during the turbulent era of 1910 to 1920.

Featured in the Darryl F. Zanuck production which is at the Roy Theatre Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are Anthony Quinn, Joseph Wiseman, Arnold Moss, Alan Reed, Margo, Harold Gordon, Lou Gilbert and Mildred Dunnock.

Garon Tidwell, student at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tidwell, over the week end.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Might As Well "Get In Key"

Last Tuesday Judge Cunningham wanted to go fishing. "Why aren't you working?" I asked.

Judge explained how his wife had gone on a trip, taken his keys by mistake—and now he couldn't get in the office. So we went fishing.

Next day, he wanted me to go again. I was surprised those keys hadn't shown up yet. "The little woman phoned to say she mailed them," the Judge explained. "They're now in the office, under the mail slot. I'd get 'em if I could just open that door." He grinned and picked up his fishing rod.

"Great little woman, the wife. You can always count on her. Let's go!"

From where I sit, we can use tolerance like the Judge shows for his wife's absent-mindedness... and she shows for his habit of lighting out for the fishing hole at every opportunity. He can't see why she likes tea, and she doesn't share his taste for a glass of beer. But they get along fine! Learning to respect other people's ways will "open the door" to happier living.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Vague On The Administration Change, But Sure On Wanting A Weather Change

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is taking a mighty bold stand this week, his letter reveals.

Dear editor:
There are a lot of people who will argue we need a change in the national administration, but there's one change that's needed that outdistances that all to pieces.

It's the weather.
Something has gone wrong with the weather the past twelve months.

Here we are into Spring and as far as I can tell Winter has not gotten here yet. Of course it was cold in places in Texas this past winter occasionally, but on the whole winter just never did arrive.

Skipin from Fall to Spring wouldn't be bad, but the situation has affected the weather in other ways. Take rainfall. It used to be, and I don't believe the national administration had anything to do with it, we'd have rainy spells. Rain would set in and fall for a week or two, sometimes longer, and when the sun finally came out everybody heaved a sigh of relief and school children ran wild, but it's been nearly two years now since we had an old-fashioned rainy spell. It'll cloud up, thunder and lightning, and rain will beat down for maybe fifteen minutes, then it'll shower a little while, and the clouds will go on off and the rain gauge will show .19 of an inch and you can plow that afternoon if that's what you had in mind. As far as the weather system goes now, that constitutes a rain, but it's mighty piddlin. Why I got a pair of rubber boots I ain't had on but five times in the last 18 months, and a couple of those times I just put em on for sentimental reasons.

Now I ain't made up my mind on the national administration. I always follow the majority and I've seen lots of administrations changed without no noticeable

Water Discussed At Meeting Here Thursday Night

Approximately 65 farmers ranchers and agricultural workers of Knox, Haskell and Baylor Counties met at the Munday School last week to hear a report on irrigation possibilities of the three-county area as presented by W. L. Broadhurst, district geologist, U. S. Geological Survey of Austin, Texas.

According to Broadhurst, there is a water bed in Knox and Haskell Counties similar to that under the High Plains, but much smaller in size and quantity of water stored. This water is stored in sands above the red beds and the sands averages from a few inches to over 50 feet, with the deeper the sand the more water available for irrigation.

The underground water area starts near Rule on the west and extends to Goree on the east, including areas around Rochester, O'Brien, Knox City and Munday.

Broadhurst stated that it was in his opinion that this water was placed there by rains, and is the part of water that was not used by roots of plants and moved on down in the soil until it hit the red bed, and then started to fill the underground reservoir of water sands and gravel from which this water is now being drawn. Farmers were advised to use this water, but to use it wisely, as only a limited amount is available.

By proper use of the water for irrigation, and spacing of wells, this water could be used for several years, and still not deprive the towns of this area of water for human consumption.

The program was under the direction of Roy Saunders of Munday, and was used to show the proposed operation of a Tri-

County Agricultural Club consisting of members from Knox, Baylor and Haskell Counties which would meet once a month for a luncheon and program of interest to the people of this area.

A committee of Roy Saunders, Roy McClung, Frank Martin and Bill Palmeyer, agents of the three counties was appointed to set up the permanent organization of the club which will be formally put into operation at the April meeting scheduled for Thursday April 24th.
