

Kracker Krumb's Old Bits Salvaged at Random

Want to stay in style, men? Then you had better begin thinking about placing that old, hot, winter felt hat away in mothballs, and blossoming out in a straw of some sort or description.

We got it from a local merchant, who saw it in a daily paper, that Saturday, May 3, is officially straw hat day.

Not that we've ever paid very much attention to such a date. We usually don our straw at the first indication that it will be more comfortable than our felt.

Which reminds us that our boss told us about three weeks ago that her boss had inquired about when the straw hat season opened. His felt had begun to get somewhat burdensome.

"I don't know," she replied, "but just watch my husband and Jimmy Harpham!"

One person jumped the gun on us, however. We saw Fred Lain all diked out in a brand new straw two weeks ago.

One thing we can't do, though. We can go with these boys who don't wear a hat of any description. That bald spot on our head will blister like nobody's business in no time!

So we switch from felt to straw at the earliest provocation and wear it until the fall showers make it droop like a wet chicken in mid-winter.

Because we rush the season at one end and prolong it at the other, we scarcely ever get through a season with just one straw.

Which is to our dry goods merchant's liking, because he sells more hats that way.

But as a seasons' opener, we usually use a last year's Sunday straw hat that is just about ripe for an everyday hat. This we take for everyday, and use our credit for a Sunday straw.

In times past, we've taken advantage of straw hat clearances and purchased our straw late in the season at half-price.

Then we have a new hat for spring. That is, if it survives all the disasters of winter such as placing too many items on top of it in an over-filled closet during winter storage season.

Which isn't to our merchant's liking, especially when he comes out in his brand new models just in advance of annual straw hat day.

But, you know, the styles of men's hats don't change much, and few people recognize the fact that they're wearing a last year's left-over.

The shape of our straws change, however. That's because in the past we've caught too many early spring showers and late fall showers.

That's when we catch a few suggestive remarks at home about our old hat beginning to wilt.

And if we persist in continued use of said straw, those suggestions are stopped, and we receive an ultimatum to either get another straw or dig out our last year's felt.

But an old hat is just like an old shoe to us. When it gets to the discarding stage it becomes more comfortable than it ever was.

So we plan to check our closet this week to see if we have an every-day straw that's good for a few weeks longer, or a Sunday straw that's ready for every-day wear, or a bargain counter straw.

If not, we'll visit our dry goods store on May 2, and give them nearly all the month to worry about whether or not they're going to get their money.

We doubt if we'll let straw hat day pass without covering our bald spot with some kind of straw.

Munday School Denied Hearing In Land Suit

Attorneys and authorities of the Munday Independent School have been notified that a motion for a rehearing in the Eleventh Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland has been overruled in the case of the school land dispute between Munday and Knox City schools.

The rehearing request came as a result of action in the same court on March 30 when upheld action of the Knox County School Board in which 16,079 acres of land in the Munday-Sunset district was annexed to the Knox City district.

After Munday and Sunset schools consolidated the county board voted for annexation, the Munday board filed for an injunction. The injunction was previously set aside in district court action.

The next step, according to attorneys, is an appeal to the Texas Supreme Court.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

OSKALOOSA, IOWA, DAILY HERALD: "It sounds queer to hear that the Tennessee Valley Authority has let a contract amounting to $1,257,120 for coal for its power plants. What has become of the wonderful water power we once heard so much about it?"

WESTVILLE, N. J., GATEWAY NEWS: "The people of this land are still watching for something to increase efficiency in government and cut the ever-increasing tax rate that is throttling little and big business alike! The waste in government as proven through various investigations is terrific."

ALTOONA, PA., MIRROR: "Government in the United States today is writing industry-union contracts. In Russia, government does that, too. There is a difference, of course, in the way two governments go about it. But the principle is the same. This is a dangerous situation. For government has abandoned its traditional and proper role of impartial umpire and has undertaken the job of bargaining."

BEDFORD, VA., BULLETIN: "We are . . . not only on the road to national bankruptcy, but so far down the road that only complete reversal of policy can keep the nation from going over the brink. When and if bankruptcy does arrive we shall be in the same situation that marked Germany after the first world war, when its currency became so valueless that shoppers going to market carried their money in a basket and brought home their purchases in their coat pockets."

THE FARMERS SAY NO

Opposition to compulsory government health insurance is especially strong in agriculture. A short time ago the largest of the farm organizations, the American Farm Bureau Federation, with a membership of more than 1,450,000 families, went unequivocally on record against the scheme. The National Grange has taken a similar stand.

Of these important developments the Christian Science Monitor said, "Rural rejection of government health insurance has been little recognized in larger cities, which usually hear much of labor's viewpoint. But though labor's call for compulsory health insurance has been much publicized, it remains the demand of a minority. . . . Meantime agriculture provides a balance against labor on this issue and a formidable safeguard."

There is one deduction that can safely be made from this: The strength of America lies in the grassroots. Compulsory government health insurance is part and parcel of the grand scheme to socialize the energies, industries and resources of this nation on a piece-meal basis. And it is also part and parcel of the drive to make the people more and more dependent on government for the very necessities of existence—and to pay through the nose for the privilege of being bossed by politicians.

The campaign for socialized medicine has been moribund lately, but it hasn't been abandoned by a long shot. It will be revitalized by the Washington bureaucrats in one guise or another. It's lucky for the country that agriculture is solidly aligned with the forces of freedom and human independence.

THE CARDS ARE STACKED

"Profits are the lifeblood of private business," says U. S. News and World Report. "They help provide the capital for improvement and expansion. They finance inventories and provide the cushion that staves off trouble when times get hard. With prices where they are, more money than ever is required by private business to finance its operations. Yet the tax collector has moved in to take the bulk of all corporate earnings."

To back this up, the magazine showed the extent of the tax burden carried by a number of representative corporations in such basic fields of activity as steel, aviation, agricultural implements, rubber, railroads, chemicals, and so on. In every case, the government takes more in taxes than the company can keep or distribute to its shareholders, and in many instances the tax take is over twice as much. This happened with 1951 tax rates—the 1952 burden will be materially greater. Corporate taxes now are actually higher than during the peak of the war effort.

You needn't be an economist to understand what this will do to our economy if it is continued long enough. The cards are stacked—if a man takes a risk and loses he must bear the whole loss, while if he wins the government will take most of what he makes. There is no surer way to dry up the sources of capital which are vital to a dynamic, progressive economy. And, in the long run, there is no surer way to undermine the living standards of us all.

History has proven, time and again, that prodigal government can destroy a nation. And his story often repeats itself.

"Nationalization of the oil and gas industry is the goal of our busy little bureaucrats in Washington. You see their fine hand in the promulgation of theories which would simply establish dictatorship over fuel production in this country. You find them whispering in the ears of unformed Congressmen that the interstate oil compact is a conspiracy between states and the oil companies to violate the Antitrust Act."—Allan Shivers.

"The essence of any Marxian system is compulsion; not the compulsion of circumstances, to which we must all yield, but the compulsion of government, which is harder to bear."—Los Angeles Times.

The University of Minnesota and the University of Michigan meet on the football gridiron each year to battle for "The Little Brown Jug."

Knox Prairie Philosopher Has Suggestion For All Pilots Who Are Getting Tired Of Flying Job

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is probably all mixed up this week, his letter indicates.

Dear editor:

Every morning for eight months now the newspapers have been carrying a daily report on the progress of the truce talks in Korea, it's become sort of like the weather report, you know it's one piece of news you can always find in the paper, or the market report, regardless of whether the price of cattle is going up or down or standing still, there'll be something in the paper in it, and I've been thinking.

You know, the papers lately have also been carrying some reports of pilots who are tired of flyin and had rather stay on the ground, and I think I can sympathize with em, many's the time I've looked out over a hot, weedy field and immediately felt too tired to plow, and I blamed sure wouldn't want to get court martialled for it.

But here's what I'm gettin at. Why can't some of these tired aviators volunteers for the truce talks? Seems to me it's one of the safest jobs in the army, it

Ex-Hollywood Actor is Now a Carpenter

PEARL RIVER, N. Y. — Would you give up a movie career, with 75 pictures to your credit, for a job as a carpenter? Unbelievable as it seems, George Ingham did.

Known professionally as Geoffrey Ingham, he appeared in "Along Came Jones," with Gary Cooper; "Dolly Madison," with Ginger Rogers; "Canyon Passage," "Forever Amber," and "The Killers," among others.

George is drawing his trusty six gun while Gary Cooper talks to some rowdy cowboys during a saloon fight in a scene from "Along Came Jones."

George was never a star, but for 15 years he worked regularly as a supporting player. However, movie making to George Ingham was not "glamorous"; it was just a way of making a living... and a very hard way, he insists.

Before going to Hollywood, Ingham appeared on the stage in a number of plays. He is from Springfield, Mass., and got into acting while attending Boston University.

But all his life George Ingham has loved to build things, and while in Hollywood he operated a very profitable custom furniture business.

When the six foot-three Ingham decided to return East, it was not for the stage. He became a carpenter at Lederle Laboratories here, where he devotes his time to designing and building special furniture.

In addition, the handsome actor is also building a house for his family — actress Zola Long, and two children.

It's a far cry from the lights of Hollywood to the carpentry shop of one of the world's leading pharmaceutical houses, but George Ingham has happily made the switch.

Today, the handsome Ingham is happy as a carpenter at Lederle Laboratories.

takes place out of the sun in a tent, and apparently it has a good future. Also, the working hours ain't so bad, I noticed one day last week the truce talks lasted fifteen seconds, and a man who objects to working fifteen seconds a day is just being unreasonable, he just ain't trying to get along. I'd come close to volunteerin for that job myself, with them kind of hours, if they was holding the talks out here instead of in Korea.

If you think this suggestion has any merit, you can pass it along to the proper authorities.

By the way, I have noticed the followin Democrats have decided they do not want to be president next year? Truman, Stevenson, Douglas, although all three were prominently mentioned as

State Renews 4-H Clothing And Dress Revue Programs

4-H Club girls, most of whom live on farms and in villages, have set a new record in clothing work at home that doubtless will amaze their city cousins.

Notwithstanding that many of the girls help cook, launder, do housework and other chores, as well as attend school, 650,000 of them taking part in the National 4-H Clothing Achievement program made or repaired 2 1/2 million garments for themselves and their families last year.

In a closely related activity, the National 4-H Dress Revue program, more than 220,000 girls modeled garments—ranging from school outfits to formal gowns—they had made as being the most becoming to their type and most expressive of their personality.

Both the 4-H Clothing Achievement and Dress Revue programs are being conducted in this and every other state for 1952, under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service. In the programs, girls learn to plan, make and care for garments suitable for work, school and social occasions, as well as to dress appropriately, becomingly and healthfully in keeping with a well-planned family budget. In Clothing Achievement special emphasis is given to techniques of clothing construction, tailoring and fitting. Through Dress Revues, members develop grace, poise, good posture and habits of good grooming by modeling garments of their own creation. County winners in each program will be rewarded with medals of honor, and State champions will receive an all-expense trip to candidates a while back. Hours gettin too long in that job too? Yours faithfully, J. A.

the National 4-H Club Congress, in Chicago next November, provided by the respective donors. In Clothing Achievement, Spool national award of a $300 Colgate Cotton Company also provides a national award of a $300 college scholarship to each of 12 winners selected from State champions. Simplicity Pattern Company also presents each State winner in a 4-H Dress Revue with a national award of a leather-cased scissors set.

Reserve Officers Help In Panning Of Unit Training

AUSTIN—Cadet officers of Texas senior division ROTC units will actively participate with reserve commanders and their staffs in planning annual unit training for Organized Reserve units this year.

Col. C. M. Culp, Chief of the Texas Military District, said recently that this is the first time that cadet officers have been included in pre-camp conferences with Organized Reserve Officials and regular Army installation commanders to work out final plans for summer field training.

Col. Paul B. Malone, Jr., Senior Army Instructor for Texas, who will coordinate the annual field training, explained that cadet commanders and key officers, with the approval of their school officials, will be invited to attend these conferences to assist in working out detailed training schedules. They will also inspect and become familiar with training areas housing, messing and recreational facilities that will be used by the reservists during their two-week training period.

"This will give the cadet officers practical experience in staff planning, familiarize them with the Organized Reserve Program, and at the same time afford them an opportunity to participate in the type of activity which may be required of them after they complete their ROTC training," Col. Malone said.

The pre-camp conferences will be held in April and May at Fort Hood, Fort Bliss, Walters Air Force Base and other regular Army installations. Cadet officers from the following universities will be invited to participate: University of Texas, Austin; University of Houston, Houston; St. Mary's University, San Antonio; Rice Institute, Houston; Texas Western College, El Paso; and Texas A. & M. College, College Station, Texas.

Raymond Mitchell and Bill Morrill, who are stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mitchell over the week end.

Mrs. M. L. Joyce and son, Joe, of Albany, visited here last Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. J. B. Bowden, and with other relatives.

AUSTIN—Mental disorders today represent a real problem and it is estimated that almost fifty per cent of all hospital beds are filled by persons suffering from mental or nervous diseases, declares Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

It thus appears that modern civilization is exacting a terrific toll. High speed living with its cruel exactions upon nature, is responsible for a large part of the trouble. But improper personal conduct must also shoulder much of the blame. The fact is that nearly fifty percent of the patients entering hospitals for mental disorders are there because of organic or toxic causes.

For example, general paralysis is the direct cause of man mental troubles in males entering hospitals. This condition is an organic disease of the brain due to the germ responsible for syphilis. It is a preventable disease. Early and effective treatment of acquired syphilis will block the end results of general paralysis in the insane.

The excessive use of alcohol is responsible for a number of mental disorders. Alcohol and syphilis combined are responsible for approximately one-fifth of the hospitalized insanities. Nevertheless, improper living habits continue to impair many brains. Insufficient sleep, neglect of bodily care and a consistent overforcing of nervous energy are the pitfalls to avoid in this connection.

Nature demands that her fundamental laws be at least reasonably observed. A constant outraging of the physiological economy takes its toll not only in bodies but in minds also. Insanities and lesser nervous disorders could be spectacularly reduced if this fact was more generally respected. Training for mental health must be started in childhood as that is the time when corrections can be made to the best advantage.

180 HP CHRYSLER V-8 FIRST IN 3 CLASSES IN ECONOMY RUN!

Here is truly dramatic proof that Chrysler's great new FirePower 180 HP V-8 engine design sets an entirely new standard of efficiency among American passenger car engines!

In this annual economy test, rigidly supervised, and limited strictly to stock car entrants, cars competing are divided, by price and size, into 11 standard classes. The route, from Los Angeles to Sun Valley, covered 1,415 miles of every possible kind of driving. Average speed for all cars was just under 41 miles per hour.

And in 3 of the 11 classes, the Chrysler V-8 engine was best for gasoline mileage.

In Class "F", this magnificent new engine won first place for a Saratoga 6-passenger sedan (126½-inch wheelbase, 4010 pounds). In Class "H", it won first honors for a Saratoga model 8-passenger sedan (139½-inch wheelbase, 4510 pounds). And in the top price and size, Class "I", it was again first, in a Chrysler Crown Imperial Sedan (145½-inch wheelbase, 5360 pounds).

To travel these substantial cars at this speed under these conditions gives additional proof, we believe, that here in the FirePower V-8 engine is the finest and most efficient engine ever put into an American passenger car!

WE INVITE YOU TO DRIVE THIS ENGINE, YOURSELF . . .

The same engine which has just scored these remarkable accomplishments is no farther from you than your own Chrysler Dealer. He will welcome the chance to let you take the wheel and feel for yourself what Chrysler has done . . . not only in engine performance, but in power steering, power brakes, new shock absorbers, passenger comfort . . . to deserve the title: "Finest Car America Has Yet Produced!"

CHRYSLER the finest car America has yet produced

BAYLOR COUNTY LANDS

Abstract 145 & 1727, Survey 61, Certificate 28/1901, Grantee H & T C RY CO., Acres 480.

Plaintiffs allege that on or about the 1st day of April, 1952, they were lawfully seized and possessed of the above described lands, surface and minerals, in Brewster, Knox and Baylor Counties, Texas, holding the same in fee simple title; that on the day and year aforesaid, while plaintiffs were such owners and in the actual peaceable possession of said lands and premises, surface and minerals, the defendants unlawfully entered upon said lands and premises, surface and minerals, and ejected the plaintiffs therefrom, and unlawfully withhold from plaintiffs the possession thereof to their damage in the sum of $10,000; that plaintiffs are still the owners of and entitled to the possession of said lands and premises, surface and minerals.

Plaintiffs allege peaceable, continuous and adverse possession, use and enjoyment of said lands, surface and minerals, claiming the same under deeds and instruments duly registered and promptly paying all taxes thereon for a period of more than three years prior to the commencement of this suit.

Plaintiffs allege peaceable, continuous and adverse possession, use and enjoyment of said lands, surface and minerals, claiming the same under deeds and instruments duly registered, and promptly paying all taxes thereon for a period of more than five years prior to the commencement of this suit.

Plaintiffs allege peaceable, continuous and adverse possession, use and enjoyment of said lands and premises, surface and minerals, under claim of ownership, and under good and sufficient enclosure for a period of more than ten years prior to the commencement of this suit.

Plaintiffs further allege that they and their predecessors in title, claiming to be the true and rightful owners of said lands and premises, surfaces and minerals, under deeds and instruments duly recorded and registered in the Deed Records of said Counties, made entry upon all of said lands and premises, surface and minerals, and have had and held peaceable, adverse and continuous possession of all of the same, under a claim of right, and in good faith, and under said recorded deeds and instruments for a period of more than twenty-five years before the commencement of this suit.

Plaintiffs allege that the defendants and each of them are asserting some claim of right, title or interest in and to the said lands and premises, surface and minerals; that plaintiffs are unable to state the exact nature, character and extent of such claim on the part of the defendants. That the assertion by the defendants of some claim of right, title or interest in and to said lands and premises, surface and minerals, constitutes a cloud on the title of the plaintiffs thereto.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs pray that the defendants be cited to appear and answer herein and that upon a trial of this cause, they have judgment for the title and possession of said lands, surface and minerals; that they be quieted in their right and title to the same, and that the cloud created by the adverse claims of the defendants be removed; plaintiffs further pray for a writ of possession, legal and equitable relief, etc. All of which more fully appears from the plaintiff's petition on file in this office.

The officer executing this citation shall cause the same to be published in a newspaper in Knox County, Texas, once a week for four consecutive weeks, the first publication to be at least twenty-eight days before the return day of the citation.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, but make due return as the law directs.

ISSUED this 9th day of April, A. D., 1952, and given under the hand and seal of said Court at office in Benjamin, Texas.

An Important Message

TO OUR CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS

We are happy to be able to tell you that the law suit brought more than four years ago against Ford Motor Company and Dearborn Motors Corporation by Harry Ferguson and Harry Ferguson, Inc. has been settled by agreement of the parties.

There are three points connected with this settlement which, as a present or possible future owner of a Ford Tractor, we want to make clear to you. Regardless of what you may hear to the contrary, these are the FACTS.

3 Points of Interest

TO OUR PRESENT and FUTURE CUSTOMERS

- 1 Ford Motor Company will continue production of the present Ford Tractor without interruption, and Dearborn Motors Corporation will continue to market them nationally as in the past. By the end of 1952, Ford Motor Company has agreed to make two simple changes, and only two changes, in the means of operation and control of a pump used in the hydraulic system in the Ford Tractor. After these simple changes have been made, there is nothing in the settlement of the suit to prevent Ford Motor Company from continuing the manufacture of the present Ford Tractor for as long as it may choose.
- 2 Ford Motor Company will continue to produce and Dearborn Motors Corporation, and ourselves as dealer, will continue to supply all repair parts for all past, present and future Ford Tractors.
- 3 Ford Tractors will continue to offer all the advantages of the present system of hydraulic control, the present method of attaching and operating implements, and all other features responsible for their wide popularity. Dearborn Motors will continue to offer its same complete line of implements.

A STATEMENT BY MR. HENRY FORD II

"In normal times Ford Motor Company would carry such a suit to a final conclusion in the courts. These are not normal times. Under the circumstances we were glad to get rid of the litigation to avoid the expense, harassment, and further interference with our tractor business involved in additional years in the courts.
"The settlement in no way interferes with Ford Motor Company's continuing to offer to the farmer the lowest priced tractor with hydraulic control and the present method of attaching and operating implements."

It is a source of deep satisfaction to us to be in a position to debunk conclusively and finally in this way the assertions that have been made and the propaganda that has been spread over the past four years.

Whatever happened to Punch and Judy shows? They go back to the Middle Ages in Europe. In early days in this country they were a popular amusement.

POWER FEEDS

A Profit Punch in Every Pound

The puppeteers traveled in a wagon, the back end of which could be quickly converted into a stage. There, the saucy Punch and his scolding wife, Judy, performed. The show was given on the street and a hat was passed for contributions.

The only Punch and Judy show I can remember was in Benton, Ark., when I was five years old. Instead of making a bunch of films (some of which shouldn't have been made in the first place), why doesn't Hollywood turn to novels which were made into big hits on the stage 30 to 40 years ago?

For example, "The Fortune Hunter" and "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford", both of which had heroes who were interesting and likeable rascals. Another which used to delight playgoers was "Brewster's Millions"—the hero could inherit $7,000,000 but first he had to spend a million which he had previously inherited and the task produced one laughable situation after another.

"Lightnin'", starring a lovable old fellow, ran for years on Broadway, a long time ago. I cannot recall that it has ever been made into a movie.

That these stage hits of the yesteryears would be successes on the screen was demonstrated by the reception given to the film version of Harold Bell

FARM NEWS

From the County PMA Committee

FAMOUS LECTURER TO APPEAR AT VERNON

A nationally-known speaker and University of Texas professor, will make a lecture appearance in Vernon on May 9, at 7:30 P. M. according to an announcement by Jesse T. Gilpin, local administrative officers of the Production and Marketing Administration.

Dr. Robert H. Montgomery, professor of economics at UT, will speak to persons interested in agriculture on the topic, "The Progress of Man." His appearance, under the auspices of the District 3 county PMA committee, will be in the Wilbarger County Memorial Auditorium.

Gilpin said that the PMA committee had difficulty in scheduling the appearance of Dr. Montgomery in view of the fact that the professor is in demand as a lecturer throughout the nation as well as in foreign countries.

A native Texan, Dr. Montgomery is the son of a frontier circuit-riding Methodist preacher. He spent his early life on the farm and is well versed in farm problems and farm activities. He has held high government offices. Serving in both world wars, he was a combat aviator in the Air Corps in World War I and served in the Air Force Bombing Objective Division during World War II.

Montgomery is the author of several books, "The Brimstone Story", being one which created national comment when published a few years ago.

Gilpin said that all farmers and committeemen of PMA District 3 are invited to attend as well as civic clubs and others interested in agriculture. The talk will be free.

Mrs. Dave Elinad left last Thursday morning for Galveston to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hood and family. While gone she will visit her sister, Mrs. R. A. Clements, in LaMarque.

Activities Of The Colored People

The last meeting of the Dunbar P. T. A. was held last Thursday night. We were very enthusiastic over the report of the years work, made by Mrs. Fannie Johnson. The total amount raised was $293.64. An itemized account was given of how the money was spent.

Some of the things accomplished: the purchase of a Frigidaire, gas range, basketball nets, soft balls, also bought Christmas fruits, nuts, candies for 90 children and paid a cook for our lunch room, until just recently when our P. T. A. funds were exhausted.

We wish to thank our parents and friends for such splendid support.

A demonstration of the Stanley products was made by Mrs. Wilson, at the school last Thursday night. About 27 patrons listened attentively as she interestingly told us about the products.

Next Tuesday night, May 6, the primary department will present a charming operetta, "The Farmer in the Dell." Admission 15c for adults and 5c for children.

TWO REASONS WHY MORE FARMERS WANT

GOODYEAR SUPER-SURE-GRIP TRACTOR TIRES

1. Deeper Soil Penetration — Greater Pull
2. Balanced Straight Lug Tread Design — Longer Wear!

Goodyear's open center tread has straight deep-biting lugs. No curves to cut traction — no hooks, knobs or elbows to blunt their bite. They cut cleanly into the soil, penetrate full depth, full length. Straight bars closer together at the shoulders wedge the soil for firmer grip—don't "plow out" soil at the sides.

Goodyear open center lugs are all straight, all equal in size and spacing. That's why every lug works equally, pulls fully, wears more evenly. This means a smoother, steadier pull, less vibration and wobble — more riding stability — plus longer life. Get Goodyears for your tractor — they don't cost a penny more.
