

Kracker Krumb's Odd Bits Salvaged at Random

Munday has met her U. S. O. drive quota—and with very few people knowing the drive was on.

The quota met Monday night, when directors of the Munday Chamber of Commerce decided to pay the quota out of its funds.

This is a continuation of the Munday Chamber of Commerce—no longer the C. D. A.—in its efforts to keep down as much house to house solicitation of funds as possible.

Goodness knows, people of Munday or any other town, large or small, have enough solicitation for contributions to various causes.

Some are good causes, some are not.

During the life of the C. D. A., the policy of keeping these solicitations down to a minimum was carried on. We are glad the Chamber of Commerce is carrying on in this manner.

With a majority of Munday's business people, and many farmers of the community, as members of the civic organization, it is believed a contribution by the organization pretty well represents the community.

Of course all drives can not be taken care of in this manner. The group of directors have to guard the funds, just like we guard our personal funds, in order to have enough to keep going.

But the idea of keeping the drives to a minimum is, in our opinion an excellent one.

With the co-operation of members, a number of these "gyp" drives would meet with failure even before they got started.

At one time, an effort was made for officers or directors of the organization to investigate proposed solicitations, then give a letter of approval if the move was deemed a worthy one.

This was aimed chiefly at those hit-and-run, fly-by-night persons who hit at town and solicit funds for almost every conceivable thing.

There have been times, too, when such solicitations found the disapproval of the C. D. A., and moved on without any trouble.

But the success of such a thing lies chiefly with the person being solicited. On our membership cards displayed in our places of business are the words:

"Notice, Solicitors! You must have a letter from the Community Development Association of office before we will consider any requests on out-of-town advertising or donation of funds.

This is not aimed at hampering worthy cause in which local people took part in securing funds for national drives, such as: Red Cross, National Heart Association, March of Dimes, etc.

But when the Chamber of Commerce finds it can contribute Munday's proportionate share to some of these drives without having to call on its members for additional funds, then the organization acts in making a saving for those who would otherwise be solicited.

If all members would ask out-of-town solicitors for their letter of approval when first approached, then we'd be co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce in keeping down the unnecessary drives.

And like co-operation by all members would make our Chamber of Commerce one of the most outstanding in this section.

Directors are business people and farmers, like you who were elected by you, and they're trying to run the organization in a business-like manner. And they need your co-operation.

Goodfellow Boxes, Jars To Provide Christmas For Needy Families Here

Know a needy, deserving family who, through circumstances or misfortune, are looking forward to a sort of bleak and dreary Christmas?

Know how your dollar, your four-bits, or your old toys that can be repaired will go to help such people know a greater portion of happiness at Christmas time because there was "someone who cared?"

That's the purpose of those Goodfellow boxes and jars you see in the various stores about town.

The jars are to collect those dimes, quarters, half dollars and dollars that will go into a Goodfellow fund at Christmas to buy baskets of groceries so these families won't be hungry at Christmas. The boxes are to collect the toys and things that will gladden the kiddoes' hearts because Santa Claus really did come.

It's all a part of the Goodfellow movement sponsored this year by the American Legion and the Munday Volunteer Fire Department, with the co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce.

The plan is to determine the number of needy families in this area, prepare Christmas boxes for them, and then on Christmas morning a committee will make visits to these homes with a "Merry Christmas" and a gift package.

So drop your coins or your folding money in the jars, your toys and gift items in the boxes. The fireboys and the Legionnaires will do the rest.

4-H Calf Tour Held In County December 6th

The first annual Knox County 4-H calf tour was held on Saturday, December 6, with over 20 4-H boys and their parents visiting all the boys' homes who are feeding beef calves for the 1953 stock show.

The group, headed by County Agent Bill Palmeyer, met at the court house in Benjamin at 8:15 a. m. and left on a nine-stop trip that covered six hours time. Places visited were the Moorhouse Ranch, Beavers Ranch, both of Benjamin; Elmo Todd farm, Truscott; John Quintero, Omer Cure and Obb Miller farms, Gilliland; Earl Cox farm, Benjamin; Reneau ranch, Munday, and the J. D. Hicks farm, Goree.

The purpose of this trip was for the boys to see the competition they were facing, and to pass on ideas to other feeders, thus increasing their chances in the coming show.

Last Rites For Miss Hamby Are Held Wednesday

Miss Maggie Lee Hamby, resident of Munday for over 35 years, passed away at 2:10 a. m. Tuesday at the Knox County Hospital. She was ill on Sunday and was taken to the hospital Monday.

Miss Hamby was born at Golliad, Texas, on February 15, 1881, and was 61 years, nine months and 14 days of age. During most of her residence in Munday she was employed as a domestic worker in the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith. She was a jovial, good natured character who was known by many local people.

Surviving her are a brother, T. R. Hamby of Estancia, N. M., and a sister, Mrs. Maud Moore of Cleburne.

Funeral services were held from the First Baptist Church in Munday at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, being conducted by Rev. S. E. Stevenson of Goree and Rev. Huron A. Polnac local pastor. Burial was in Johnson Memorial Cemetery by the Mahan Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were W. R. Moore, Jr., Barton Carl, A. A. Smith, Jr., Chan Hughes, Winston Blacklock and Lamoin Blacklock.

ATTEND MEETING OF KNIFE AND FORK CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harrell and Dr. E. O. McClellan were guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Jackson of Vernon at the meeting of the Knife and Fork Club in Vernon.

Principal speaker was John Moreley, foreign correspondent, who gave his views on the international situation in Europe, the Middle East and Korea.

Dial Dr. R. L. Newsom's home at certain hours, and a lady's pleasant voice will answer. She will tell you the doctor is not in, tell where he is, give the telephone number to reach him in case of emergency, she asks you to leave a message.

It all sounds very cordial and human, but it isn't. You see, there's no lady there at all.

It's an electric secretary which Dr. Newsom installed in his home recently. It's a way of checking up on his calls when he's away. He can receive your message and give you the service you desire.

The electric secretary is an ingenious assortment of gadgets. When the telephone rings, the electronics start into action.

A little outfit lifts the receiver slightly, then the recording starts telling where the doctor is. When the lady asks for your message, she says, "Now begin," the voice on the player stops and the tape recording starts. When your message is recorded, the lady thanks you, all the equipment stops, and the telephone receiver drops gently into place.

There's a doodad on the outfit, too, that records the number of calls that come in, so when Dr. Newsom comes in he knows how many calls have been made while he was away.

All he has to do is turn on the tape recording and he receives your message. Then he knows what to do, whether to come to see you, phone you—or just plain ignore you if you happen to be a prankster.

Dr. Newsom had rather not have any calls from pranksters, though, because that messes up his gadgets and he has to listen to these tape recordings, too, in order to get his honest-to-goodness messages. He doesn't have his electric secretary in operation all the time, either.

He has records he places on the hootus when he's going certain places. These records are named, such as: At the office, at the hospital, gone to church, call Rexall Drug Store, etc. If he don't want you to know where he is, he just don't set his "secretary," so she won't be blabbing!

It's the blamestest thing you ever saw!

SUFFERS BROKEN LIMB

Billy Howard, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Howard, broke a leg last Saturday morning just below the knee while playing alongside of the one-way on which his older brother was riding.

He was carried to the Wichita Falls Clinic where they took x-rays and set the broken bones. He was able to return home Monday and is getting along fine.

Mrs. S. A. Bowden and Chester and Levi Bowden spent the first of the week with relatives in Rising Star.

Negro Boy Dies In Blaze As Church In Knox City Is Destroyed Saturday

19 Men Enter Army From Area

Nineteen men from Local Board No. 82, which serves Knox, King and Baylor counties, were inducted into the army during the last week of November and the first of December, according to Mrs. Zena H. Waldron, clerk. They are as follows:

The local board had not received its induction call for January last week. The pre-induction examination call is for 15 men.

Funeral services were held at 5:15 p. m. Sunday at the Knox City Baptist Church for Anthony Hayden of Knox City, with Rev. A. C. Bennett of Abilene officiating. Burial was in Knox City Cemetery under the direction of Warren Funeral Home.

The Negro boy was burned to death at 6 p. m. Saturday in a fire which destroyed the Holiness Church and adjoining living quarters, where the boy was staying with a great aunt, Irene Williams, widow of a former pastor of the Holiness Church.

The boy was in the bedroom and was believed to have been playing with fire in a wood stove. It is thought that some rags he was holding became ignited and that he threw them on a couch.

His 12-year-old cousin, Joyce Hayden, who was in the kitchen when the fire occurred, said she looked into the bedroom and that "the whole room was on fire." She was unable to reach the small boy so fled the burning structure.

The aunt was at the rear of the church lot repairing a fence. Neither she nor members of the Knox City Volunteer Fire Department could enter the building to save the boy.

When the fire spread to the kitchen a container of kerosene exploded.

The boy's survivors include his father, Sammie C. Hayden, now in a veterans' hospital at Oakland, Calif., and a number of brothers and sisters, including a half-brother, William Henry, and a half-sister, Stella Naphael, both of Munday.

Tommy Powell was high point man for the Moguls, with 13 to his credit. Bobby Morris of Seymour and Winsell Norville of Munday each looped nine points.

Munday's "B" squad defeated the little Panthers, 28 to 19, while the junior high school boys of Munday downed the Seymour Kittens, 21-20.

Moguls Place Two Players On 8-A All-District Mythical Eleven For '52

The Munday Moguls, closing the 1952 football season in fifth place were able to place two players on 8-A all-district first team, named by a composite vote of the six coaches in the district.

Runnerup Throckmorton and third-place Albany each named three men on the mythical eleven; fourth place Roscoe placed two, and district champion Haskell one.

Haskell, however, dominated the second team, taking eight of the twelve places.

Tommy Powell, Mogul center, took 31 points for the place of all-district center. Three ways tie for the two tackle slots developed among Albany's Lawrence Schneider, Munday's Fred Lang and Roscoe's Rodney Hallman. Lang was moved to a guard spot.

Oil Activities

An-Son Petroleum Company has staked the No. 1 Walling as a 6000-foot wildcat in the county, located five miles west of Munday. It is 300 feet from south and east lines of section 95, block 2, D&W survey.

A wildcat failure for the county was reported when A. R. Dillard abandoned at 6124 feet the No. 1 R. V. Burton, six miles southwest of Munday and two miles east of the East Knox City Conglomerate Field, in section 42, block 2, D&W survey.

Six and one-half miles north-east of Knox City, Stanolind Oil and Gas Company staked the No. 3 J. W. Howell Estate as a 4600 test in the North Knox City Canyon Field, in subdivision 7, D. G. Burnett survey No. 6.

Mid-Continent Petroleum Co was drilling below 2500 feet in the No. 1 Emmett Partridge, projected 6000-foot wildcat, six miles northeast of Knox City, in D. G. Burnett survey No. 10.

Another deep venture for Knox County is Mrs. James R. Dougherty, Beeville, No. 1 H. A. Sullins, two miles southwest of Vera. It will go to 6,500 feet.

Katz and Venable have abandoned the No. 1 Willbank and Keny, three miles west of Knox City at 6,150 feet.

A deep wildcat scheduled Saturday is the Sunray Oil Corporation No. 1 Big Four Ranch Company, a 6,700 foot test located six miles northwest of Truscott.

The all-district team is as follows:

W. S. Scott, Albany, and Tommy Boyd, Throckmorton, ends; Rodney Hallman, Roscoe and Lawrence Schneider, Albany, tackles; Fred Lang, Munday and Don Sims, Throckmorton, guards; Tommy Powell, Munday center; Jimmie White, Haskell; Clifford Burnett, Roscoe; Jimmy Allman, Albany, and Tom Hudson, Throckmorton, backs.

Gene Haynie, Mogul end, and Joe Phillips, guard, won honorable mention.

Voting for the all-district selections were Coaches Royce Smith of Haskell, Morris Mercer of Throckmorton, Elwood Turner of Albany, Gene Offield of Roscoe, Vernon Leverett of Munday and Bill Boles of Roby.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

WEST PALM BEACH, FLA., POST: "The left winger would have the government do everything and finally own everything. Then there would be that total government which such great liberals as Jefferson denounced and which ancestors of Americans today fled to establish this nation of individual and political freedom."

CARLSBAD, N. M., CURRENT-ARGUS: "Every big labor boss in the country . . . was campaigning against the Republicans. Millions and millions of dollars were poured into the election fight by the professional labor bosses. And they lost every dime of it. The money didn't come out of their pockets, of course, but came from the union treasuries—from the dues of hardworking union members."

RUSHMORE, MINN., ENTERPRISE: "The minute an editor withholds an opinion for fear someone may think it 'irresponsible', or that he may be 'out of step with times', he ceases to perform his function."

WILMINGTON, N. C., MORNING STAR: "The government, since President Roosevelt launched his NRA, has piled special agency upon special agency, with spenhrift frequency, so that thousands of Federal employees have been getting in each other's way, listlessly duplicating each other's tasks, at the expense of the taxpayers. Surely this can be curtailed, if not wholly eliminated. The tens of millions of dollars to be saved on Federal payrolls obviously would help reduce government tax bills."

LESSONS WE HAVE LEARNED

Prior to November 4, many people thought that when a political party had been in power for 20 years, when it had increased the public payroll to an incredible extent, when it had followed a policy of "tax and tax and tax, spend and spend and spend," and when millions of us were getting a handout in one way or another from the Federal treasury, it would be next to impossible to unseat it.

The bloodless revolution that occurred on November 4 disproved that. And it did a great deal more. It showed that the American people are weary of waste and extravagance in government—and want something drastic done about it. This is not a criticism of Governor Stevenson, who stands for very high standards of integrity and honesty in the public service. But the writing was on the wall.

It looks as if we, as a people, have learned at long last that we can take nothing from the government that we do not at first put into it—and that a high percentage of what we put in is wasted and dissipated. And perhaps we are also learning that the terrific burden of taxation we are now bearing resulted, in large part, from the thoughtless public demand for subsidies and handouts and grants and loans and so-called "security." In practically every speech, the President-elect advocated decentralization of government, and the return of local problems to local hands. All political considerations to one side, this is the course we must take now if we are to remain strong, free and solvent.

TWO HOSPITALS

A short time ago a new hospital was built with private funds in a New Mexico city. It is modern in every respect and represents the highest standards of present-day hospital construction and equipment. The cost was $14,000 a room.

In the same city, and at about the same time, a new veterans' hospital was built by the government with public funds. This is also a first-class hospital—but its cost was $34,000 a room, $20,000 more than in the case of the privately-financed hospital.

It is the government's duty to take the best of care of those who were wounded or became ill in the service of the country, and to provide all needed facilities to that end. Americans will not object to having a part of their tax money so used. But the tremendous difference in construction cost between this government hospital and an excellent private hospital is one more example of the extravagance that is almost inevitably a part of politically-directed projects. A private builder, using his own money and that of investors, seeks maximum value for every dollar spent. That is rarely the case when the public treasury does the paying.

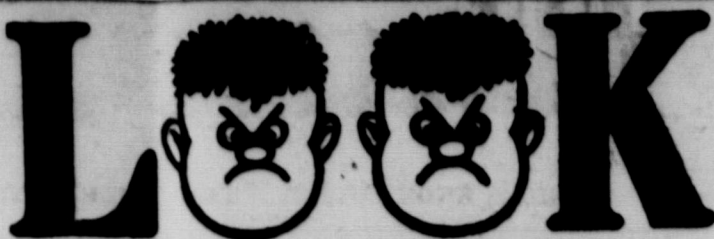

This is also an example of what we could expect, on a huge scale, if we ever adopt socialized medicine or government-dominated medicine in this country. Its a safe bet that the cost to the taxpayers for providing medical care would soar and soar—and that, along with it, the standards of medical care would sink and sink. Both those unhappy things happened in England after the Labor party socialized medicine.

It's a matter of record that socialism stifles and undermines freedom—even as it prodigally wastes our material resources.

LIFE SAVERS

The American railroads have helped make America a safer place in which to work and live. The railroads have co-operated with many safety movements. They have made tremendous advances in their own safety requirements. They have spent billions of dollars for improved facilities. They are constantly perfecting operating methods and working with their employees for even greater attention to safe practices. The railroads are leaders in safety movements which today are saving thousands of lives annually.

Carrie Chapman Catt was a leader in the campaign that led to the adoption of the 19th Amendment to the Federal Constitution, which granted suffrage to women on equal terms with men.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Says He's Willing To Make More Money If An Easy System Is Ever Worked Out

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek hits another peak in laziness this week his letter reveals.

Dear editor:
 I was in town yesterday looking over the Christmas displays, lots of merchandise on hand it seems to me, lots of buyin, lots of people with their arms full of packages, lots of sellin goin on.

Personally, I wasn't doin any Christmas shoppin myself. I never shop or plow early, and I'm just as opposed to late shoppin and late plowin, but what interested me was the fact that people apparently are still spendin money, and I've been wonderin where it's comin from. That is, where do they get the incentive?

As I understand the economists, a dollar ain't worth much these days, after you get one, what have you got? According to the experts, a dollar is now worth 49 cents, a penny post card costs two cents, if you get a raise it's still not as much as you were makin 20 years ago, money is the cheapest thing there is today, a dollar don't mean a thing, etc.

But I've been thinkin; for a dollar not to be worth anything, there sure are a lot of people still chasin em.

Personally, makin money has always struck me as a highly legitimate pursuit, one apparently containin a lot of fun and plenty of rewards, but they never have got a system worked out to suit me. I'd like to chase a few dollars myself, like to overtake som, but I'd like to do it like fox hunters hunt foxes in East Texas. Under their system, they sit by a camp fire and let their dogs do all the chasin. You can hunt all night and not exert yourself anymore than the amount necessary to get up and throw another log on the fire. Now that's the kind of dollar-chasin system I'm lookin for. This system of havin to get out and sweat for it, it's fine for them that like it, this country would be hard up if most people didn't do it. Europe would be even harder up, but there ought to be an easier way, and while I never found one, you won't catch me giving up tryin. What is good enough for an office-holder is good enough for me.

 Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

Game for Young or Old

IT'S FUN for youngsters and grown-ups alike—the tumble-bug game. For the bugs, get some capsules from your druggist. Drop a ball bearing into each, close the capsule and mark it with a colored tape, so that each player will know his own bug.

The only other equipment needed for the game is a playing board. Cut a piece of Preswood about one foot square and nail it to a block of one-inch lumber four inches wide and as long as the playing board, to form a ramp. You'll need to plane the block of wood to the proper angle to make the Preswood fit evenly.

Up to four players can participate with a board the size of the one described. Each player holds his capsule in an upright position at the top edge of the playing board. At the signal to "go," the bugs are released to tumble end over end down the ramp. The one reaching bottom first is the winner.

AN IDEA FOR CHRISTMAS FUN

Part of the fun of Christmas is getting the family to do things together. This fun can be increased when members are active planning and creating Christmas decorations and gifts that have the personal touch.

Lucille Moore, recreation specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service makes a suggestion for such Christmas fun activity that could be done when only the family was present or a special "how-to" party with guests.

The idea is to mold Christmas figures that can be used as decorative touches for the living or dining room. The figures can be created by each person's ingenuity, or copies made of biblical characters, snow men or angels.

The specialist says make your own moulding clay using one cup of salt, one cup of flour, a tablespoon of alum, and about a half cup of water. Knead this well and you are ready to mold Christmas figures. And clove eyes and berry mouths to snow men, or tiny candles to the angel figures.

The material dries a shiny white and can then be tinted with water colors.

Have fun with your family and friends this Christmas by planning to do things together.

Molding Christmas figures as Miss Moore suggests may be the beginning of many other artistic attempts and family evenings together.

Activities of The Colored People

A Christmas play, "The First Noel," will be presented by the intermediate and upper grades on Tuesday evening, December 16, in the school auditorium. It consists of forty-five minutes of choral reading, pantomime, and song.

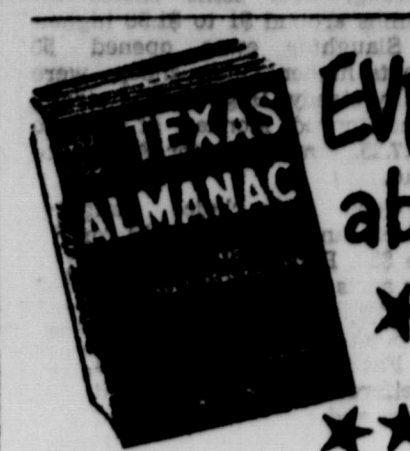

Members of the P. T. A. are working hard to provide a Christmas tree and over 100 bags of fruit and candy for the children, which Santa will distribute the same night of the program.

We wish to thank Mrs. Joe B. King for the assortment of Christmas cards given us last week. They are already adding a decorative theme to our rooms. We are also expressing our appreciation to Mrs. Herbert Cunningham for the many nice magazines donated us this week.

The first and second grades have been very busy preparing decorations for the Yuletide season. We have in our windows pictures of Santa Claus, Christmas trees and bells. We have the Nativity setting in front of our room, which is placed in a pasteboard box. The background is blue with gold stars. The setting is placed on cotton with mica snow sprayed on it. The children love this work best of all because it portrays the story of Jesus. The last Friday before Christmas, we are going to demonstrate the story with cut-out pictures in form of a pantomime.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Mrs. R. M. Almanrode attended a board meeting of the Home Demonstration Club in Dallas last week. She also visited relatives in Bowie.

LIVESTOCK
BY TED GOULDY

FORT WORTH—Receipts of all classes of livestock were considerably larger at Fort Worth and around the market circle Monday. Twelve major markets reported over 123,000 cattle and over 137,000 hogs. It was one of the largest hog runs of the season.

At Fort Worth cows were around 50 cents higher and bulls brought strong prices. Some early sales of fed yearlings were steady but most packers took a very bearish stand and before the day was over, many fed steers and yearlings cleared at 50 cents to $1.50 lower prices. Shortfeds fared the worst.

Choice fat calves ruled firm, but others were weak. Stocker trade was again featured by some strong sales on cows and on lightweight yearlings and calves of choice grades. However, demand was still very narrow and plainer kinds draggy.

Fat lambs were steady to strong, with some choice fat lambs around $1 to $1.50 higher. Slaughter ewes opened 50 cents higher. Other sheep were fully steady. Hogs opened strong and topped Monday at $17 to $17.25. Sows sold for $13.50 to $16.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings sold for $22 to $30. Plain and medium butcher sorts sold for $14 to $20, with ratty yearlings around $10 to $13.

Fat cows sold for $14 to $16, heiferettes $16 to $20, and canners and cutters cashed at $10 to $14 in most cases. Bulls brought $10 to $18.50. Good and choice slaughter calves cleared at $19 to $25, with some 500 and up upwards to $28.50. Common and medium slaughter kinds sold from $14 to $18, with culls around $10 to $13.

Good and choice stocker calves sold from $18 to $23.50 and stocker steer yearlings ranged from $23 down. Feeder steers sold mostly from $21 down. Stocker cows drew $10 to $17. Heifer calves and heifer year-

New Dual-Streak Pontiacs Announced for '53

In nationwide dealer showings, Pontiac Division of General Motors today introduced its new line of Dual-Streak Chieftain models, featuring longer wheelbase, increased vision and new curve-control front suspension. Advanced styling is marked by smooth fender line and high deck lid, one-piece rear wheelbase, wrap-around one-piece rear windows, roomier interiors and entirely new radiator grille and chrome treatment. Above is the new Custom Catalina, one of 11 body types in three Chieftain series: Special, De Luxe and Custom. Wheelbase for all series is 122 inches, with Power Steering as optional equipment.

Whether your stoves, heaters and your car serve you and family usefully, capably and safely, or whether they become agencies of death depend upon how wisely you use them. Remember, ventilate at all times.

Hornless cattle can be fed in less space and with less danger of injury. Horns have no place in the dairy herd.

Automatic
GAS Clothes
Dryer

When your dresses, coats, and suits or your husband's suits and top coat need freshening, place them in the automatic gas clothes dryer. Add a damp towel... tumble at low heat... remove and hang on a hanger until thoroughly dry. It's that easy to freshen and remove wrinkles from clothes of many fabrics... wool, rayon, synthetics.

While wrinkles are being removed pure ozone is circulated through the clothes to deodorize them. They come out with that desirable "outdoor" freshness.

A GAS dryer takes only 4 minutes or less to preheat for drying... other dryers take up to 18 minutes. Running a GAS dryer is cheaper in most cities and towns served by Lone Star—cheaper by 75%.

Save dryer time. Save operating costs. Buy an automatic GAS clothes dryer.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—"You can't see it—you can't smell it—and yet it can kill you," said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, referring to carbon monoxide. A silent enemy, it strikes its victims in closed rooms, garages and cars where wood, coal, gasoline, or natural gas is burning.

Some victims of this silent poisoner never knew their life was in danger. As others died, they may have realized that the killer was at hand, but were helpless to do anything about it. They were so benumbed that they could not get out into the fresh air; they couldn't walk or even stand up. Those who escape death once this silent killer permeates a closed room, garage or automobile, are rescued by someone who discovers their plight.

Carbon monoxide is given off when wood, coal, gasoline or natural gas is burning, but not all the gas is burned. Its danger is greatest in cold weather because people tend to close their houses and cars so tight that no fresh air can circulate. When this happens, carbon monoxide accumulates to a dangerous concentration. It kills because it prevents the victim from getting enough oxygen.

To help prevent such deaths, all stoves should be vented, keep heated rooms ventilated, do not leave gas heaters burning while you and your family are asleep, do not entirely close all the winings usually brought $2 or more less than comparative steers.

Good and choice slaughter lambs sold from $18 to $23, a load at 92 pounds from Hill Brothers, Stanton, at $25, a new top for the current crop. Shorn lambs with No. 1 pelts sold at $21 downward. Feeder lambs cashed at $10 to $16. Slaughter yearlings sold from $10 to $17. Aged wethers drew $10 down. Slaughter ewes sold from $5.50 to $8 and some breeding ewes sold for $9 down. Old bucks sold around $5 to $6.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Suggs visited Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Suggs and family in Grand Prairie Friday night enroute to Bryan where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Arledge Suggs over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Yost visited Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Howeth in Fort Worth the first of the week. C. J. is ill in a hospital there.

Mrs. Huron A. Polnac was called to the bedside of her grandfather, who is ill in a Fort Worth hospital, the first of the week.

Palmer Edwards and son of Abilene visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haynie, Jr., last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gaines visited relatives in Fort Worth over the week end.

C. C. Harpham of Plainview visited here over the week end.

Pontiac, first General Motors Division to unveil its 1953 cars, today announced price reductions up to $100.00 on certain models with no price increases on any models in the line, in spite of an entirely new and larger body, longer wheelbase, completely new interiors and a long list of mechanical and engineering features.

This announcement was made by R. M. Critchfield, General Manager of Pontiac Motor Division. The new 1953 models will go on display Saturday.

Pontiac prices for 1953 start at $1788.36 for the Chieftain Special Six, two-door sedan. Pontiac's DeLuxe Chieftain Eight, four-door sedan, which is expected to account for about 50% of next year's volume, carries a list price of $2009.51. Price reductions on Station Wagons run from $28.00 to slightly in excess of $100.00.

All 1953 Pontiacs will be offered with either a six or eight cylinder engine with G. M. Hydromatic Drive and Power Steering Optional.

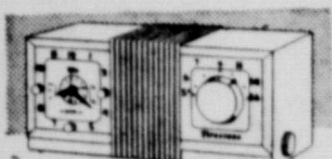

The new Pontiac is now on display at Broach Equipment, local dealer.

Baptist Class Has Christmas Party On December 9th

The ladies of the A. D. (Allways Dependable) class of the Baptist Sunday School held their annual Christmas party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Smith on the evening of December 9th. The husbands were included in the invitation to this event.

The program began with words of welcome by the class president, Mrs. J. C. Campbell, who then introduced the Group leaders for the new Sunday School year. They are: Mmes. V. Tankersly, C. C. Jones, Cecil Honeycutt and T. Winchester. She also introduced the Devotional leader, Mrs. B. E. Smith, who read the Christmas story from Luke 2. The Devotional ended with a prayer by Mr. Cox.

Mrs. J. O. Bowden assisted by Madie Smith and Nita Edmonson directed an "ice breaker" game of "Identifying Ourselves," followed by a musical program led by Mrs. B. L. Blacklock, which consisted of group singing of Christmas carols. Miss Patsy Tidwell, at the piano, accompanying W. E. Reynolds on the violin played special numbers climaxed by the beautiful number, "Holy City."

The ladies' quartette consisting of Mmes. B. L. Blacklock, Leland Hannah, M. L. Bernard and W. E. Reynolds sang two numbers followed by the men's quartette, W. C. Cox, M. H. Reeves, Leland Hannah and B. L. Blacklock. A very special number was "White Christmas" sung by Nita Edmonson and Maide Smith. The program closed with J. O. Bowden leading the group in singing "Silent Night."

Refreshments of Christmas cake and coffee were served by the hostesses, Group I. Mmes. Cecil Honeycutt, Chester Bowden, M. L. Barnard, Claud Hill, Elmo Flenniken, Nora Broach, Sidney Winchester, B. E. Smith.

and Miss Lennie West. During refreshments, Mr. B. E. Smith gave the group a recorded number prepared by the students of Baylor University, which is a football story called "Game of Life," from Station WORLD and was very a suitable and enjoyable number for this occasion.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

They'll Do It Every Time

You know where Hammy Jackson lives—on that small dead-end street off Maple Avenue near the library? Well, about a month ago, the town finally put up a sign on the corner there saying: "No thoroughfare... Dead End."

Yesterday Hammy dropped by to see us. "Can't understand it," he says. "Hardly anybody drove down our street before—but, now, since they put that sign up, there's been more cars than ever turning around in my driveway."

From where I sit, these people who bother Hammy on his one-way street are the same as those who automatically ignore a Wet Paint sign and touch their finger on a freshly painted surface. But you can't change human nature. People like to find out for themselves—and then make their own decisions.

That's why I say "live and let live." You can drink your butter-milk, but let me have my glass of beer when I choose. And let's not feel we're obliged to "point the way" for the other fellow.

Handy Jim's FIX-UP TIPS For Farm and Home

How to Store a Rake

RAKES, usually stored by leaning against a wall, have a bad habit of fighting back when they are stepped on. How a Florida man ended this nuisance was described recently in Family Handyman.

The materials he required for making the simple safety device were a tin can with the top and bottom cut off, and a wood screw.

He punched a hole in one side large enough to admit the screw and one on the opposite side large enough for a screwdriver. Then he attached the device to the wall of his garage.

The can pivots sufficiently to permit the rake handle to be inserted. This holder has ended the "fights" when the man stepped on the teeth of the rake.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. White of Rule were Sunday guests of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Haynie, Jr., and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mitchell visited their daughter, Mrs. Michael Sloane, and family in Midland over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Gafford were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Gafford and family in Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Searcey and children visited relatives in Fort Worth the first of this week.

Christmas Tree Can Be Fire Hazard

The center of attraction in most homes, especially with the children, from now until Christmas will be the family Christmas tree. Most families, says C. W. Simmons, farm forester of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, fail to realize that this tree is actually a fire hazard. Every effort, he adds, should be made to make the tree safe and eliminate the possibility of a fire starting from it.

He suggests that only trees in good condition be purchased. This means getting a tree that has fresh leaves or needles. If the tree is placed aside for a few days before the decorating job is done, he says it can be kept fresh by making a new cut above the original one and placing it in a container of water. When the tree is moved into the house, it should be left with the trunk in water. Danger from fire is lessened when the leaves or needles contain moisture. Water should be added to the container each day and besides the safety angle, there will be less shedding of leaves or needles, says Simmons.

Next he warns against decorating the tree with flammable material. Check the electric light cords that connect the tree light and make repairs if needed. If cotton is used around the base of the tree, use the kind that has been treated with fire retardance. Candles should never be used to light a tree, and adds the specialist, never block exits from the room with the tree.

It is up to each family to make the holiday season a safe one, warns Simmons, and those who fail to take into account fire and accident hazards may find their holidays marred by a serious fire or accident.

The queen of the festival was Patsy West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas West of Fort Worth.

In addition to the king and queen, there were a host of other royalty taking part in the coronation.

Bread and sugar and sweets are having a neck-and-neck race for low position among the major food items which are used in the Bureau of Labor Statistics consumers' price index. The latest monthly report from the BLS showed a slight reduction in the "all foods" index as compared with the previous month.

Among the major items in the index, bread has advanced less than any of the others, when compared with the 1935-39 average which the BLS uses as 100. Bakers say this points up even more sharply their statement that "penny for penny, bread is your best food buy."

Incorrect Filing Results In Loss Of Social Security

During each year the Wichita Falls, Texas social security office faces the problem of trying to prevent workers and their families in Knox County from losing some or possibly all of their future social security benefits, according to Erton F. Tate, manager of that office.

Tate said the problem arises from the quarterly social security tax returns filed each January, April, July and October. These reports should show the correct name and number of each worker. Without this information the worker cannot receive credit for his wages, and this may result in reduced benefits.

Also, it is possible that the lost credit could be the very amount necessary to qualify the worker for retirement payments or to make his survivors eligible for payments in the event of his death.

Tate explained that the employers and workers in Knox County can prevent such losses by making certain that each name and number is reported exactly as it appears on the employee's social security card.

If you have any questions dealing with social security, the representative of the Wichita Falls office who will be in Munday at the Post Office on Thursday, December 11, 1952, at 10:00 A. M. will assist you.

ford, district superintendent, will preach at the morning service each Sunday through December.

Benjamin Sorosis Club Hears Talk On Polio Dec. 4th

Thursday afternoon, December 4, Dr. Ben Bowden of Knox City Hospital and Clinic spoke to the Benjamin Sorosis Club on "Poliomyelitis." He said that there are four known kinds of polio viruses. There are three types of the disease. One type causes you not to feel well—this is so slight you probably don't realize you have polio and in a few days you are recovered. It serves to build up your immunity to that virus. Another type causes a swelling and inflammation of the nervous system centered in the lower brain and spinal column. With treatment and time this type is curable. The third type is most severe in that it causes deterioration of the nerve tissues and causes permanent paralysis. The orthopedic field is successfully operating on these destroyed ligaments and replacing them with sound ones to enable the patient to move a limb. We are interested in a prevention of the paralysis, however, rather than a cure. Dr. Bowden says he is most hopeful that the prevention is near. So much research is being done. The Gamma-Globulin experiment (the part of the blood containing polio immunities is injected into those people living in polio epidemic areas in an effort to keep them from having the crippling type of disease) has not been completed. Preliminary reports of the experiment are very good. Dr. Bowden informed the club that everyone carries immunities to the polio with which he is constantly in contact. A person may be immune to one or two kinds and then take the third when he is exposed to it. It is in this way that the disease is considered contagious. Children are more susceptible to the disease since they have not had time to build up their immunities, but there is no age limit for the disease. A person in a "run-down" condition is more susceptible to the disease. Polio is a very unpredictable disease and there is still a lot which medical science doesn't know about it. Refreshments were served to the group by Mrs. Jack Idol and Mrs. J. A. Kilgore.

Cpl. Frank Ordener returned last Sunday to Santa Ann, Calif., after spending his furlough here with his wife, the former Joy Jones.

Mrs. Houston McCarty of Nara Vista, N. M., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Counts, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Baker and other friends and relatives here this week.

USO services are available to both GIs and their families. Many USO centers offer such facilities as sewing and ironing to servicemen's wives as well as recreational opportunities. Here young service couple checks in at USO club to enjoy advantages offered. Support for USO is sought by United Defense Fund in Red Feather and other "ited community drives.

"Straw Cloth" Sets Trends For Resorts

Each season there are two or three fabrics so fresh and new they are tabbed by fashion leaders and consumers alike as trend gascar straw cloth, the National Cotton Council asserts.

Madagascar is a 100 per cent woven cotton by U. S. Royal with a new Everglaze treatment. It has the appeal of real straw, it is unusual enough to tempt a designer's imagination, the Council stated. It is completely washable, dries quickly and irons easily. Tests show that it resists wrinkling, is shrink resistant and spot and soil resistant.

The unusual treatment of the straw-like weave endures throughout the life of the fabric and it takes beautiful shades of dye. The original Madagascar straw cloth can be found in swimsuits, children's wear, dresses, play clothes, shoes, shortie coats and suits.

At the present cruise and resort fashion openings Meena of California showed a camisole tuck-in strapless top combined with a gored skirt that featured six pockets all around the hemline.

Jantzen has brought out a Madagascar cotton swimsuit with sleek tailored lines to be worn with or without straps.

Casual Time presented a two-piece for cruise wear in natural straw cloth. The scoop neck blouse and the full flare skirt are highlighted with imported Swiss braid.

Saba of California styled a two-piece weskit dress. Unpressed pleats flair into a skirt set off by a huge fanciful pocket embroidered with oriental braid.

Milk production may be cut as much as 25 per cent by heavy infestations of cattle grubs on the milking herd.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zeissel attended the funeral of Mrs. Zeissel's uncle in Burkett last Sunday.

Miss Gloria Martin of Seymour spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Reeves.

Mrs. Ernest Spotanski and son of Fort Worth visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Smith, and other relatives last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Don Boyles visited her husband and son in Sudan over the week end.

John Jones, Chalmer Hobert and M. Bogs were business visitors in Abilene last Saturday.

Decoration tips for Christmas

SUBTLE AND VERSATILE—that's the latest word on this year's Christmas decorations for our homes. Holiday arrangements in the new style feature our favorite winter flowers, then capture the Christmas atmosphere through foliage and accessories. Caroline Burke, NBC-TV star chooses a Yuletide creation by Alyn Wayne, official flower stylist for the 9,500 members of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association who handle orders for flowers-by-wire all over the world. Wayne creates a charming dinner table design by contrasting red roses with holiday green and silver. Flowers, foliage, candles and silver-painted thistles are held securely in a shallow dish by white styrofoam.

PINK BOLL WORM PROGRESS REPORT

Mention the insect "Pink Bollworm" to farmers in central and northern portions of Texas and you'll get reactions varying from mild alarm to complete disinterest. But mention it in South Texas! The effect is immediate and explosive. Some farmers fully realize the dangerousness of the situation and its potential threat to the entire cotton industry. Others concede the seriousness of the insect but are violently opposed to some control measures necessary to fight it. Yet all agree on one point. The Pink Bollworm has hit them hard in the pocketbook. This year the insect took about one out of every four bales of Rio Grande Valley cotton and destroyed upwards of 40 million dollars worth throughout the infested cotton areas. Left unchecked it could spread throughout the entire state and ruin our cotton production. This past season was "Get Tough With Pink Bollworm Year." And it was time we did. There are 228 Texas counties now infested. Forty-five of these are "heavily infested" and 183 lightly infested. Sixty-one counties are under planting and plow-up regulations which are enforced by law.

No extensions were granted in areas where stalk destruction deadlines were set. Since we have no poisons which are effective against Pink Bollworm, then our best method of control is to set planting and plow-up deadlines and stick to them unless weather conditions prevent it. These deadlines cut down breeding and build up periods and help assure few insect carry-overs through the winter. Co-operation by farmers in the program was excellent. Only about 100 of them in the entire 61-county area affected failed to clean their fields in time. As a result, if we have a cold and comparatively damp winter, we can expect only a minimum infestation next season. To give you an idea how the insect can spread, Pink Bollworms were found in 39 new counties this year where it had never been seen before. To combat further spread, we will set up about 300 new seed sterilization points in East and North Texas next year to establish a "front" beyond which few "pinkies" can pass. Continued co-operation and vigilance on the part of cotton farmers will be required to minimize the threat. Seed from infested areas should always be sterilized before planting or storing. Fields should be cleaned of stalks soon after harvest and a constant watch should be kept for the insects' appearance in new areas. Perhaps a new systemic poison will be developed which will affect the pest. But until that time, we must rely on present controls and the willingness of the farmers to protect Texas' largest industry—cotton.

Pvt. J. P. Smith has been transferred from Fort Sill, Oklahoma to Camp Roberts, Calif. His wife remained with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Proffitt, until he finds a place for her.

Once upon a time there was a State Senator.

When the Senate was in session he would go sailing grandly through the Austin hotel lobby, looking neither to the right or left, seeing no one, a big cigar in one corner of his mouth, pointed in the general direction of the North Star. If I spoke to him, he slowed down not at all and barely grunted.

He decided to make a race for a higher office. A newspaper convention was going to be held and there is nothing that your columnist enjoys more than being among fellow newspapermen. There was going to be a barbecue at night in the open. There was one string of electric lights. I shook a lot of hands and we swapped a lot of stories and about then the Senator arrived on the scene. He looked around and his eyes, which couldn't see anyone in a brilliantly-lighted hotel lobby while the legislature was in session, now fell upon me a 100 away in the dim glow of the light bulbs. With a wild whoop, he rushed forward like a fullback, touchdown bound, shouting, "Pal, old pal, how are you?" and trampled two women and three children underfoot—well, almost. He didn't get elected. Yes, once upon a time there WAS a State Senator!

Casey Stengel, right after the final game of the World's Series, said to Joe Black, star pitcher of the losing Brooklyn Dodgers: "I seen you talk on television and I seen you out there; you're wonderful!" Stengel has won four world's championships in a row with the New York Yankees, thus demonstrating once more the value of a college education.

Winchester Home North Of Goree Is Destroyed By Fire

The lovely new home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Winchester in the Hefner community, north of Goree was reduced to smoldering ashes last Sunday morning at about 9:30 o'clock when it was destroyed by fire.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined, as Mr. and Mrs. Winchester were away from home at the time. A neighbor who first discovered the blaze expressed the belief he could have extinguished the fire with one bucket of water had he been able to get to it. Two fire trucks from Munday answered the call. At one time firemen had the flames almost under control, then ran out of water and the fire was well under way again by the time the trucks were refilled.

The home and most of its contents were completely destroyed.

Irrigation School Set December 17th

Farmers of this area who are interested in irrigation will want to attend the irrigation training school which will be held Wednesday, December 17, at the Munday school gymnasium. The school will open at 9 a. m.

Ed Bush, irrigation specialist for the Extension Service, will direct the discussions. Problems related to irrigation in this area will be discussed. These will include selection of well sites, development of wells, land preparation, methods of irrigation, use of water and fertilizer, and others.

For deep snow and mud your best bet is the

STUDED SURE-GRIP by GOOD YEAR

- Angular arrangements of heavy studs give maximum traction.
- Studs clean themselves. Mud and snow funnel off as tire revolves.
- Shoulder blocks dig in on soft going. Takes plenty of tough beatings.
- The best tire when driving in mud or snow.
