

Kracker Krumb's

Odd Bits Salvaged at Random

We'll "put it to bed" early next week.

Which is the printer's term for going to press with the final pages.

The forms are placed on the bed of the printing press—hence the put it to bed.

This will be our Christmas issue, the one that carries the greetings and best wishes of people who have served you in a business and professional way during the year.

Incidentally, it will also be our last issue of the year. A brand new year will make its appearance before another issue comes off the press.

Getting a paper out two days early—we plan to mail our next week issue sometime on Tuesday—it is no small matter in a country print shop.

Therefore, we are going to need your help and co-operation. We need the news items earlier, the news from our correspondents earlier, the necessary advertising earlier—everything earlier.

And the deadline is nearing for those Santa Claus letters, kiddies. Letters that reach us after Friday, December 19, are going to have a hard time getting in print.

When the task is completed December 22, we'll begin preparing to eat Christmas turkey with some of the kin. Guess you'll probably be doing the same.

Our efforts at getting oil production in the immediate future seem to be on the blink again. Two more wildcat tries have been abandoned recently.

Saw Bob Burton last week and remarked that we noticed his oil well wasn't an oil well. "Boy!", he says, "it was as dry as a bone."

Along about the same time, the outfit that was drilling on the Michels estate northeast of town pulled up and left. Abandoned as a dry hole.

But there must be oil somewhere hereabouts. People keep trying to find it.

We've noticed quite a few coins in the Goodfellow jars about town, but not much of a collection is going into those boxes in the stores.

These things are the means which the American Legion and the Munday fireboys have of bringing Christmas cheer to needy families who otherwise would not have much Christmas.

Soon it'll be time to gather up those "Goodfellow Gifts" and arrange them into Christmas packages for these people.

Legionnaires and fireboys will be doing that along about Christmas eve. Then on Christmas morning they'll distribute the packages.

Heretofore, the Legion has fallen short of the needed amount. The boys would then dig into their pockets and enlarge the fund, so they could purchase enough Christmas food to go around.

At last check they didn't know just how many families would receive packages this year. Two years ago, there were over 40.

They hope the funds in the jars and the items in the boxes will be enough to go around this year, so they won't have to dig deep into their pockets for more money—on top of the work they do in determining the worthy persons and taking the gifts around.

The work is enjoyable, we expect, if there's enough to go around.

Your little contribution will go a long way in this matter.

"March Of Poinsettias" Will Open Christmas Season At Local Church

The "March of the Poinsettias" will officially begin the celebration of Christmas at the First Methodist Church in Munday. At the beginning of the morning worship service next Sunday, December 21, each girl in the church will come into the sanctuary carrying a poinsettia. The flowers will be arranged along the front of the church and in the windows all around the sanctuary. The twenty-five girls taking part in the ceremony will be dressed in white robes. The Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Oscar Spann, will present special Christmas music and the pastor will preach on the subject, "Christmas Can Make a Difference."

The annual pageant will be presented Sunday evening, December 21, at 7 o'clock. The pageant will tell the story of the coming of the Christ child and will be presented by the Choir, various readers and all the children of the church. The general public is invited to both of these Christmas services.

Local Men Buy Dealership For Ferguson Tractors

Announcement was made this week that the Ferguson tractor dealership formerly operated by Don L. Ratliff has been purchased by W. R. Moore, Sr., and Lee A. Parks, who have formed a limited partnership.

Harrisons Sell Jewell Court To Gleghorns

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Gleghorn of Wichita Falls have purchased the Jewell Courts from Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Harrison, it was announced the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, who operated the courts for some three years, expressed their thanks to everyone for their contribution to their success, and they invite the same cooperation for Mr. and Mrs. Gleghorn.

The Harrisons are moving to Wichita Falls, where Mr. Harrison plans to get back into the field of radio, which was his profession before coming to Munday. While here, however, he took up a new interest with the saw and hammer.

Their daughter, Jean, plans to attend business college or Midwestern University. Norma will enter Zunday junior high school, but says she will be back for all Munday football games. The Harrisons invite their friends to visit them at 2103 Monroe Street.

COMMUNITY YOUTH CAROLING PARTY

DEPRECIATION IS COSTLY

Recognize farm machinery depreciation! Most farmers meet these costs only when buying new equipment. This farmer knows the importance of regularly checking the condition of his equipment. He also knows that regular purchases of U. S. Defense Bonds equal to the annual depreciation will help him replace his machine when it is worn out.

Cotton Ginnings Near 10,000 Bales In County With Crop About Out

With the 1952 cotton crop just about gathered in Knox County, reports from the U. S. Department of Commerce, bureau of the census, Washington, D. C., shows that the county's ginnings remain at just about half of that of last year.

The census report shows that 9,218 bales of cotton were ginned in the county from the 1952 crop prior to December 1, 1952, as compared with 21,891 bales for the crop of 1951.

Jim Henslee, well known Munday man, was critically injured early Sunday morning in a traffic accident a few miles south of Stamford. He was taken to a Stamford hospital for emergency treatment, and his condition remained critical the first of this week.

Mr. Henslee was enroute to Munday when engine trouble developed with the truck he was driving, and the vehicle stalled. He secured aid of a passerby to push the truck off the pavement. In working with the fuses under the instrument panel, Mr. Henslee was lying inside the cab with his limbs on the outside of the vehicle.

A mail truck approaching from the south crashed into the stalled truck, and Mr. Henslee received critical injuries to both his feet and ankles. Driver of the mail truck said he was blinded by lights of an approaching car and did not see the truck in time to prevent the accident.

Mr. Henslee's condition was so critical early this week that attending physicians feared he could not stand the surgery that was necessary on his limbs. He suffered a heart condition that made immediate surgery impossible.

His right foot was amputated in the accident, and his right limb was so badly crushed that amputation was necessary just below the knee. His left ankle was also fractured.

Bank Will Close At Twelve O'Clock Christmas Eve

The First National Bank of Munday will close its doors for the Christmas holidays at twelve o'clock noon on Christmas Eve, it was announced this week by W. E. Braly, president. "This will give the employees of a bank a half day to complete their Christmas shopping," Mr. Braly said, "or to begin their trip to spend Christmas with members of their family. We urge all our customers to do their banking before noon on Christmas Eve."

Most people have completed their banking before this time, according to observations in the past, and about all the bank does during that afternoon is to make change. Big merchants securing enough change ahead of time, this closing will not inconvenience anyone.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

OCEAN GROVE, N. J., TIMES: "A sure sign that inflation is over will be when auto makers start mentioning the price of their cars in their advertising. Benjamin J. Fairless, president of the United States Steel Corporation, has even a better idea. He would not only reveal the price of the car, he would reveal all the hidden taxes buried in that price. The tax on an automobile, for instance, is $6.25, but the buyer does not know this."

PARIS, TEXAS, LAMAR COUNTY, ECHO: "The people want better medical advice, but they are convinced that the way to get it is through steady, orderly progress under free enterprise and voluntary insurance plans—not through turning the problem over to power-hungry bureaucrats, along with more billions of our tax money to pay the bill."

MOUNT AIRY, MARYLAND, COMMUNITY REPORTER: "Here in the United States . . . our bullets are ballots and the only heads that roll are those which figuratively topple as the people demand a change peacefully—and get it. It's a good system. Here's hoping we can continue to keep it. Revolutions like these are good ones. They keep a country strong, healthy and sound"

CANTON, N. C., ENTERPRISE: "The severe drought which encompassed the nation threatens the forest areas. The co-operation of all people is urgently requested in saving the forest of the nation. In these days of national emergency, our forests are a valuable source of raw material, much needed in building the defense of our country."

FEEDING A BIG FAMILY

In 1950 each American farmer produced enough to feed and clothe 28 people. By 1975, each farmer will be producing enough to feed and clothe twice as many. This points up a development with implications as far-reaching as the harnessing of atomic energy. Until recently, historically speaking, the human race, like our friends of the animal world, spent almost all its time at the sheer physical task of scratching enough to eat out of the forests, streams and soil. For thousands of years famine stalked the world while 95 per cent of the people were engaged exclusively in raising the food to keep themselves and the other five per cent alive.

An agricultural revolution in the new world changed this grim picture within the space of a few years. America's vast expanse of land demanded unheard of tools. Soon a parade of remarkable devices to help draw forth the products of the soil in unprecedented abundance followed pioneers westward. One historian has pointed out that the invention of a single small mechanism, the automatic knitter, which did way with hand tying of bundles of grain as they were harvested exerted a more profound influence on the world's economy than any other of man's technical accomplishments, save possibly the locomotive.

At any rate the westward migration of the 1800's was paced by the growth of a great new industry—farm equipment. Today that industry enables agriculture to meet the heavy demands of an expanding population with an ease that would have confounded our ancestors of a century ago.

GOOD NEIGHBOR

The head of a national organization of retailers recently made a talk on "The Retail Store's Position in the Community and State." In the course of it he said, "The stores that are good neighbors in the communities in which they exist, are the successful stores in every village, town or city from Miami to Seattle."

It is to retailing's credit that, with the inevitable exceptions that are found in every walk of life, it has pursued a "good neighbor policy" which has produced fine results for all concerned. That goes for all kinds and conditions of stores, including the smallest and the largest. Nowdays, most retailers take a very real and active interest in every worthwhile civic and charitable endeavor which comes along—as well as with larger activities on the state and national level. And it is very logical that they should do this, for whatever benefits the community and the region and the nation must directly or indirectly benefit all who live and work in it.

The retailer is in a specially good position to help make such endeavors a success—whether they have to do with getting out the vote or putting a charitable drive over the top. He comes in direct daily contact with the people of his town. His advertisements and displays are widely read. He enjoys a large measure of public confidence. He is part of the town, and he succeeds or fails with the town.

POLITICS RUINS PUBLIC OWNERSHIP

"As a young fellow we knew of public ownership projects in small cities, such as water systems and light plants, which seemed to operate efficiently and without politics.

"But there is quite a move to get rid of publicly-owned utilities, particularly in the big politics-ridden cities, and return to private enterprise.

"We note that Northern Ireland, which nationalized rail and bus lines in 1948 for the purpose of coordinating and streamlining traffic, is under pressure from the Ulster Farmers' Union to return to private enterprise and get away from rate increases and deficits.

"As an example nearer home is San Francisco, where the private street car line was bought by the city, but where there is an increasing demand to turn to private management to get out of the red, and improve the service.

"Politics appears to be the dangerous ingredient in public ownership."—California Farmer.

TEXAS' GROWING WATER PROBLEM

Here is a basic fact!

The future of our state depends upon how we use or misuse our soil and water resources. Today, as never before, water has become Texas' greatest economic need. The amount available in the coming years will control the growth and wealth of Texas.

This fact has been brought home to us in a forceable manner during the past two years. We have experienced one of the hardest droughts in our history. We had no control over the disaster, but it cost millions of dollars, just the same.

Lack of rain is no longer the concern of just the farmer. Our cities have felt the pinch by reduced supplies of underground and surface water. This year, some cities in West Texas were at times only seven days away from a bone-dry lake bed which meant their municipal supply was exhausted. Even cities the size of Dallas were endangered.

This situation occurs all too frequently in scattered sections of the state. It was more apparent this year because it was more widespread. As our urban population increases, the problem will become even more acute unless we take steps to prevent it.

The Texas Legislature has been working for a solution since early in this century when it established the old State Levee and Drainage Board. It has made numerous attempts to establish a practical water and control program since then, but none have met with any large degree of success.

Next year when the Legislature meets, the water problem will be a top item on the agenda. Programs have been suggested which are similar to the proration of oil. There are plenty of snags and vigorous opposition in such a plan for water—just as there were for oil.

A lot of oil was wasted and the oil market crashed before property owners were convinced that proration was necessary. Our water supply is extremely low now—and it, too, is exhaustible.

Fortunately, water can be replenished. We must look far enough ahead to plan measures which will replace our supply, both on the surface and underground. But since the situation is acute now, it may be decided by the Legislature that statutory restriction is necessary to preserve water in the state.

A PRESENT WITH A FUTURE

"Miss America of 1953" is trimming her tree this year with U. S. Defense Bonds—"the present with a future." Pretty Neva Jane Langley knows that Defense Bond gifts are practical gifts, which will help protect the security of her country

This past summer, I hit the political trail in Texas on behalf of a friend of mine who was running for the State Supreme Court. We traveled some 6,000 miles together with me at the steering wheel. The judge has a good sense of humor and is an excellent story-teller and I enjoyed the travels very much.

Perhaps the most amusing little incident happened in a small city where the judge electioneered with a citizen on the street and the voter said, in parting, "Well, keep a-hustlin' bub"—this to a member of the Court of Civil Appeals who was running for the most dignified and exalted of judicial positions! But the judge proved a good campaigner for he smiled and came right back with, "Thanks, pal."

Judge Frank P. Culver is a citizen, lawyer and jurist of the highest type and will be a worthy member of the Supreme Court of Texas.

On the lawn of the Los Angeles city hall is a monument on which is inscribed a man's name, the date of his birth and the date of his death, nothing more. I had never heard of him and I venture that most of those who saw the monument never had heard of him either. The fleetness of fame! He was, perhaps, the gain of the city's business and civic life in his day, but was now forgotten while a vagabond of his time who wrote a poem that men memorize and quote still lives because his monument is in the hearts of humanity.

A sign glimpsed in Los Angeles, the city of glamour and opportunity: A young man asleep on a grassy plot at the foot of a

Apron for Brace Bits

THE home craftsman can take a cue from a professional carpenter whose apron (see illustration) for brace bits was described in American Builder, a highly-regarded trade magazine. It will be found handier for carrying brace bits on the job than a cumbersome tool box.

Made from a nail apron, the pocket should be sewed into a series of small pockets to receive the bits. The upper portion of the apron is used as a flap as illustrated. When folded into a neat roll, it can be tied by the strings of the apron.

billboard, his hand resting on the "Help Wanted" section of a newspaper, all his belongings under his head. Ah, youth and its bright hopes! He may, in a year or two, be a movie star but, more likely, will be playing the leading role behind a drug store soda fountain.

Mrs. Lillian Little returned last week to her home in Fort Worth after spending several weeks with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reeves.

A. C. Boggs and daughter, Jerry Marie, visited in Dallas the first of the week.

Study Club Has Christmas Program On December 12th

The Munday Study Club struck a high note of entertainment when the members gathered for the Christmas program December 12th at four o'clock, at the Club House with Mrs. J. B. Graham as hostess.

The meeting began with a business session at which Mrs. Russell Penick presided. Mrs. Winston Blacklock was director of the program. The Munday Band, directed by J. F. Posey, played a group of Christmas songs. Then the members journeyed to the home of Mrs. C. P. Baker where she gave a demonstration of "Gift Wrapping and Decorations." Her very glamorous gift wrappings were achieved with such ingredients as glue, scotch tape, felt, pipe cleaners, soda straws, jingle bells, wall paper and even chicken wish bones dipped in gold.

She showed gifts appropriate for every age from first Christmas sock to grandpa, emphasizing the importance of the wrapping to be appropriate for the person to whom it was given. A visit around her house spoke for itself in the way of decorations. She had used a bit of decoration in each room. The club adjourned with each member hurrying home to try out Mrs. Baker's ideas.

Help the needy and help yourself by buying your cakes, pies or cookies at the Chamber of Commerce office December 23, from the Fire Boys and the American Legion Boys.

Don Guffey, who is attending NTSC in Denton came in Monday. He is home at this time to be with his mother who underwent surgery at the Crobyton hospital last Monday.

Charles Hardin, who is in the Air Corps and stationed at March Field, Calif., arrived last Sunday to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell.

TAX BULLETINS
Farmers' income tax bulletins may be secured by writing the County Agent at Benjamin, Bill Pullmeyer, county agent, announcing this week.

Activities of The Colored People

Our school auditorium was filled to capacity Tuesday night to witness an impressive pageant "The First Noel." After the program over 100 bags of Christmas fruit and candy were distributed to the children.

Twenty-eight dollars was donated by our parents and friends for the Christmas bags. We are very grateful to each one who gave. Mrs. Elnora Hendricks and Mrs. S. L. Sanders contributed to the project also.

We would like to express our appreciation to Mrs. R. F. Suggs for the glasses for our kitchen and Mrs. R. M. Almanrode for the many useful magazines donated last week.

Mrs. Thelma Lockhart and children of Lubbock were pleasant visitors of their mother, Mrs. Dolly Jones, last week.

Scotty Ponder, student in Texas Tech visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Ponder, over the week end.

Back in the so-called "good old days" home-dyeing meant long hours of hand-breaking. Dyeing over tubs and basins. It's only 75 years since domestic dye was developed from coal tar!

Home dyeing is a cinch—thanks to the widespread ownership of washing machines, development of all-fabric dyes in 50 true-hue colors and a fast acting color remover. Just pour a pitcher of the dissolved dye into the hot water!

Today's housewife can relax while she dyes! The washer's ideal for tinting bulky things like curtains, drapes, sheets, etc. All-fabric dyes and color remover are available for a few cents at practically all drug, department and dime-stores, and a leaflet "How To Dye in Washing Machines" is obtainable from Tintex Home Economics Bureau, 435 Fifth Ave., N. FORT WORTH — Livestock prices were again under heavy pressure at the start of the second week in December as receipts around the major marketing circle were again far heavier than a week ago. The only specie of livestock in smaller numbers was hogs.

Most classes of cattle and calves were fully 50 cents to $1 below the low close of the previous week, in some cases this put prices $1.50 or so under those of about ten days ago. Stocker demand continues very small, a few choice calves and yearlings in demand, and some outlets for stocker cows. However, most stocker classes very hard to move and many sell for slaughter.

Lambs ruled $1 to $1.50 under the previous week's high time. Hogs opened steady at 25 cents lower topping at $17 and $17.25 Monday. Sows were 75 cents to $1 off at $12 to $15.25.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings sold from $20 to $28.50, while plain and medium butcher cattle sold from $12 to $19, with ratty yearlings at $9 to $12. Fat cows cashed at $12 to $15.25, and canners and cutters sold from $8 to $12. Bulls cashed at $10 to $18.

Good and choice fat calves sold for $18 to $24, a few heavy weights to $24 to $25. Plain and medium butcher cattle sold from $12 to $17, and culls drew $10 to $12. Stocker calves and yearlings sold at $21 down. Stocker cows sold for $11 to $18.

Good and choice fat lambs cashed at $18 to $20, and medium to good kinds sold at $17 to $18. Stocker and feeder lambs drew $11 to $17. Few yearlings sold for $12 to $17. Aged wethers drew $10 down. Slaughter ewes cashed at $5.50 to $7.50.

Miss Opal Booe visited relatives in Weatherford over the week end.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Amazed To Find Out The Modern New White House Is Still Plagued With Mice

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm in Miller Creek is off in another one of his old side trips, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:
The other day I was reading about a trip Mrs. Eisenhower took to the White House, to sort of look the place over and get some idea of what her new home is gonna be like, and after she'd inspected the place, looked at all the new decorations, modern conveniences, brand new kitchen, air conditioning, etc., which cost six million dollars and took two years to complete, the group was going down a long hallway and noticed a rat scurrying along and the reporter pointed out in his article that the White House like other houses was bothered occasionally with mice.

You mean to tell me with six million dollars to spend on a house modern science still ain't able to build it rat-proof? We sure could have saved some money. My house out here ain't rat-proof, but it sure didn't cost six million.

It looks like this country's

with an automatic GAS clothes dryer

Line-dried clothes shed lint... making an extra house-cleaning chore. Lint from this source can be controlled with an automatic gas clothes dryer.

Tumble action in gas dryer extracts lint produced during laundering... air current in the gas dryer picks up the lint and carries it to lint trap. After drying remove the lint trap and in one swish of a brush you clean up all the lint that otherwise would collect under furniture and in corners.

GAS dryers are faster! It takes 4 minutes or less to preheat a gas dryer, while other dryers take up to 18 minutes.

GAS dryers cost less to operate! In most cities and towns on Lone Star's system a gas dryer saves up to 75% in operating cost.

Marine Corps Major Carl L. Sitter, winner of the Medal of Honor for his heroic actions during the Korean War, is shown here in a Christmas gift. Major Sitter, who is now an instructor at the Marine Corps School in Quantico, Virginia, can spend this Christmas with his wife, Ellen, and their 2 1/2 year old son, Michael. Last year he was fighting in the bitter cold of Korea and knows what it means to have the support of the folks back home.

scientists are good at taking a couple of billion dollars and coming up with a bomb which is pretty good at eliminating people, but there ain't a one of em capable of out-smartin mice. We may be able to build an airplane that'll fly 1,000 miles an hour, but when you get where you're going at that speed it's just as likely the mosquitoes will be as bad as they were at the place you took off from. There are some people who say been able to sit at home here in Texas and not only hear but see the President of the United States being inaugurated in Washington is so fantastic it's almost unbelievable, but it ain't near as fantastic to me as the fact the President after he gets inaugurated on television then moves into a six million-dollar house with mice. Television is a wonderful thing, but swatting a fly buzzin' around your head while you're lookin' at television ain't a whole lot of improvement over swatting at one while you're lookin' at crude drawings on the wall of a cave.

I don't care how far out in space scientists go or how powerful a bomb they perfect, somebody has slipped a cog when we get back in the days when the side with the most broad axes won the war.

Yours faithfully,

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—Carelessness in the treatment of a respiratory disease is not only foolish but very hazardous, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who warned Texans today to be on guard against such illness as lead to pneumonia.

Dr. Cox pointed out that pneumonia can and does strike with little or no warning, and in many instances its forerunner is a simple cold, an attack of influenza, or some other respiratory infection.

"A cold or any other infection of the breathing passage which makes one constitutionally weak, especially if accompanied by fever, demands the immediate attention of the family physician," Dr. Cox said. "To self-treat and fight on one's own feet a condition of this kind is to endanger life unnecessarily. It is advisable to take all possible steps to avoid respiratory illnesses since they so frequently lead to that most dangerous complication — pneumonia.

Dr. Cox stressed the fact that it is important to build up normal physical resistance by sufficient indoor ventilation, adequate, nourishing food, outdoor exercise, and sufficient sleep, but added that the family physician should be called immediately if, in spite of such care, a respiratory illness develops.

Texas 4-H'er Wins Sectional Honors In Soil Conservation

As a fitting reward for his excellent and constructive work in his selected project of soil and water conservation, 14-year-old Ewald Fischer of Big Foot, Texas, has been named one of 16 youths in the nation to be awarded sectional honors in the 1952 national Soil and Water Conservation program.

Ewald Fischer

As a winner in Frio County, Ewald has already won a medal of honor and a 17-jewel wrist watch for his state championship. As sectional winner he was given an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago this year. The awards are given annually by Firestone.

Young Ewald, working with his father on their 290-acre farm, has done an outstanding job in soil saving. He began by seeding a 5-acre plot to Blue Panic. Each year he follows the practice he began several years ago of mulching stubble. He planted a 5-acre plot of permanent pasture in 1951 and is in process of adding another five acres.

Ewald began running contour lines in 1950. All of the farm areas needing contour farming are now converted. He has also established a game refuge. Other good practices included strip cropping, terracing and the addition of needed fertilizers.

Ewald prepared two demonstrations on soil and water conservation and gave eight talks in his community. His demonstration in 1952 won first place in Texas at the 4-H Club Roundup.

This program is conducted under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service.

Hospital Patients To Get Christmas Gifts This Season

Patients at the Wichita Falls State Hospital, 2,725 too often forgotten men and women who come from homes in Sixty-two North Texas counties, have been promised a real Christmas this year.

The promise has come from the social service department of the Woman's Forum in Wichita Falls... a promise built on the hope that men, women and children with a dime or a dollar to spare will buy a small gift so that each patient, young and old, will have remembrance from a friend on Christmas morning.

The project was announced by Mrs. Nell Hutcheson, chairman of the Forum department, who said that members of several clubs and Sunday School classes in Wichita Falls have already reported that they are sending gifts to the hospital instead of exchanging with each other.

In Wichita Falls, a large box has been placed in the foyer of the clubhouse at 2120 Speedway to receive the presents. If the gift is wrapped, it should be marked "for a man" or "for a woman". Unwrapped parcels are welcome, however.

Friends of the hospital outside of Wichita Falls can mail gifts either to the Forum or to the hospital—Box 300, Wichita
