Odds Bits Salvaged at Random

A man and woman stood gazing into the show window of a local department store. Inside the glass front hung a sign with the word "SALE" in huge letters.

As we passed, we heard the woman remark, "Well, it says sale, but it don't say what."

There is no sale on safety or caution.

But these two items are real bargains—if we use them often enough. It is only through their use that we make our streets and highways safer for ourselves and others.

With the opening of school upon us again, more and more children are going to be on the streets, some of them going to school for the first time.

They may not be aware of the importance of the two words, "safety and caution" as you should be.

A little boy running to retrieve a football, a little girl trying to catch up with her playmates, may dash into the streets without thought of caution.

So please drive extra carefully near any school. Be alert! The life you may save may be some child's, one whose entire life is ahead.

Which reminds us that the little device which is aimed to cut down on speeding was demonstrated in this area last Thursday.

It is that radar speed-meter which we saw demonstrated near Wichita Falls several months ago. It will "clock" the speed of an auto with around 95 per cent accuracy.

The demonstration was held west of Munday, near the Sunset school. Since that time was 10 a. m.—right at our press time—we didn't get to witness the demonstration.

The gadget, however, looks pretty much like a piece of luggage. When properly installed in an auto, it can hardly be seen.

But that radar beam that shoots out and then reflects back when it hits an approaching object can clock your speed to the "Nth" degree.

It clocks it two ways—a little hand on the speedometer registers the speed, and it's also recorded in red on a chart, and the record is there for keeps.

It is hoped to have one of these gadgets in every district of the Texas Highway Patrol in the future, but it will likely be sometime after January 1 before they are put into operation.

Then's when the speeder better practice the word, caution, or that little radar thing whose face is about the size of a small television screen will catch up with him.

Welcome to another Munday merchant.

He is Ernest L. Horton, Jr., who comes from Merkel and who last Monday was very interested in obtaining living quarters for his family.

The little "March of Dimes" containers are in the stores again. They remind us that polio is still a big problem, and this emergency appeal is being made because more funds are needed to combat that dread disease.

Drop a dime, a quarter or a half-dollar into those containers. Your money will help someone—you don't know who!

Portions Of County Benefits From Spotted Showers That Cover State

Spotted showers and thunderstorms that have dotted much of Texas during the past week have brought some relief to several communities of Knox County, while farmers still hold on to hopes of general relief.

The showers started last Thursday, when Benjamin reported over an inch. This rain, however, covered a rather small area. Additional showers this week has brought Benjamin's total to well over two inches.

A number of places in the county received beneficial moisture in the showers last Monday. At this time Munday had about a half inch, although the rain didn't extend very far west. Only a sprinkle was reported from the Myers farms on to the Sunset school building.

Vera received 1.2 inches, according to E. S. Allen, who was in town Tuesday. He reported the shower heavier in spots but lighter in others.

Moisture ranged from .90 to 1.2 inches to the northeast of town, with Buck Tidwell reporting the larger amount. A good rain was also reported east of town in the area of the Clifford Cluck farm, but it did not extend to the W. R. Moore place.

At Gilliland the moisture varied from a sprinkle to over two inches. The Navratil brothers had over two inches, with a lesser amount falling at the Omar Cure farm. The rain played out further to the north.

First Bale Of 1954 Cotton Is Ginned Tuesday

The first bale of 1954 cotton for this area was brought in last Tuesday and was ginned by the Farmers Co-op Gins of Munday, it was reported Wednesday morning.

This cotton was grown by Bill Yates, who farms south of Goree. From 2260 pounds of pulled cotton, Mr. Yates received a 620-pound bale.

The cotton was graded strict middling with 7/8 inch staple and was bought by the gin at 34 cents per pound.

This first bale came in about a week earlier than the first bale last year, which was ginned by the Farmers Co-op Gin on September 2, 1953.

CATTLE DELIVERED

Howard Wertheimer of Omaha, Nebraska, recently received several hundred Angus calves at San Angelo from Moorhouse and Son of Munday and Lubbock. It's the second shipment on a string of around 2,000 Angus calves the Omaha buyer will get from Moorhouse, who contracted the bulk of the calves earlier from various San Angelo area ranchmen. Additional deliveries will be made in September and October.

Capt. and Mrs. Billy Bouldin and sons, Tommy and Bruce, visited a few days the past week in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wiggins and Mrs. Etta Webb. They were enroute to Corpus Christi where Bill will be stationed with the U. S. Marines.

Miss Alma McNeil of Wichita Falls visited her father, W. E. McNeill, and other relatives here last week.

Gen. Bradley Says UDF Services Are Important To Tomorrow's Leaders of Democracy

Through the services of United Defense Fund agencies we, here at home, keep in touch with our young people in uniform, we make them aware that we appreciate and have respect for the job they're doing, and we let them know that, meanwhile, we are doing everything we can to strengthen democracy here.

By providing adequate health and recreation services through our own united efforts, we are helping to avert that feeling on the part of service people that they are cut off, that they are an isolated group. We can make it possible for them to continue, in some measure at least, to enjoy our standards and to take part in the life of the community where they are stationed.

This, in my judgment, is tremendously important. We are engaged in a fight to preserve our way of life. We are defeating our own purpose if we allow our young people, tomorrow's leaders of our democracy, to be shut off from that way of life during those years that are vitally important in their development.

Yarborough Forces Visit Here Friday

Amid loud horn tootin' and yelling, forces for Ralph Yarborough which organized in Haskell came into Munday last Friday afternoon for a political speaking.

Accompanying the group were Mayor Courtney Hunt and Chas. M. Conner, both of Haskell. Principal speaker was a Sweetwater man who is a former member of the Texas Legislature, who, among other things, warned of returning Shivers to the governor's office for another term because of his appointive powers. He referred to Yarborough as "an honest and hard working man."

Upon departure the group invited Munday citizens to the political rally in Haskell on Saturday night.

Grid Practice Begins; Game Set Friday, Sept. 3

Coach Troy Stewart has enrolled a number of 1954 football players in regular practice scheduled in preparation for the stiff season this fall, and reports many of the boys are showing up good in scrimmage.

The first game of the season will be played here on Friday evening, September 3, when the Moguls play the Lockett team. Lockett is located near Vernon, and this will be a non-conference game.

"Our Moguls are putting their work into these early workouts," Coach Stewart told members of the Munday Lions Club last Tuesday, "and with proper backing, they are going to win some games this year. The coach alone can't make a team, the boys can't either, but it takes us all supporting the boys to get the job done."

Coach Stewart expressed the hope that a real active quarterback club would be organized this year.

Registration Of Students Begins Next Thursday

Following a general faculty meeting on Wednesday, registration of students in the Munday Public Schools will begin next Thursday, according to W. C. Cox, superintendent.

All grade school students, juniors and seniors of high school will register Thursday morning and freshmen and sophomores that afternoon. Grade assignments will be made on Friday, with regular classes beginning on Monday, September 6.

Quarterback Club To Be Formed To Aid Athletics; Meets Next Monday

An active quarterback club to aid in forwarding the athletic program in Munday Public Schools is expected to be formed at a meeting next Monday evening at the athletic field. The meeting is being called for eight o'clock.

Coaches Stewart and Pistole plan to use the club for an exchange of ideas and thought between the coaches, team and community. All who have purchased tickets to the club are urged to be present Monday night.

These tickets are being sold this year in lieu of regular reserved seat tickets which have been sold in the past. The purchase of these tickets entitles the holder to a reserved seat in the north side bleachers. They are being sold at $1.00 each.

Those who have had reserved seats in the past may retain their same seats by joining the club, and there will be no extra charge, it was stated.

Tickets in the club are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office, and seat tickets will be issued upon arrival, which is expected within the next few days.

Despite the shorter ballot which will greet the state's voters next Saturday, voting is expected to be heavy in the run-off election.

Interest is being shown in the governor's race, which during the run-off campaign has been the hottest contest Texans have seen in many years. Both the Shivers and Yarborough forces have waxed strong in a campaign that has hardly been equalled in the state's political history.

Local interest centers around two races—that of county treasurer and district attorney. These two races, coupled with the heated gubernatorial battle, are expected to draw a strong vote in Knox County.

Absentee balloting over the state has been heavier than in any other run-off campaign and almost as heavy as in the second primary.

The ballot Saturday will feature the following:

For Governor: Ralph W. Yarborough and Allan Shivers.
Supreme Court (Place 1): Alfred M. Scott and Few Brewster.

Court of Criminal Appeals: Lloyd W. Davidson.

District Attorney: A. W. Davis and Thos. F. Glover.

County Treasurer: Mrs. Frank Hill and Walter Snody.

"LIVE" PENSIONS

Writing in The Exchange, Sam Shulsky points out that something happened to the business of saving money for retirement. People no longer think exclusively in terms of a "live" pension which would provide variable income to keep step with changing living costs.

Mr. Shulsky writes, "This shift in emphasis to a completely new philosophy of retirement planning has been made necessary by many years of inflation. It has been made possible by adding the 'live' ingredient of common shares to the traditional program of fixed income securities. For recent economic history has proved conclusively: the rise of value and income from an investment in good, sound common shares can and does compensate for the declining purchasing power of the dollar."

It is a bold man indeed who dares to forecast the long-term trend of prices. They may go up some more, they may go down, they may remain constant. Whatever the case, those who put a part of their retirement income investment into stocks in which they have faith are following the best available system for dealing with whatever the trend proves to be.

More and more people, particularly those in the average income-bracket, are doing this. Thus they become share owners of American enterprise—and thus their future and the future of enterprise become one.

LIKE A SCHOOL WITHOUT A TEACHER!

A small town without a newspaper would be like a school without a teacher or a church without a pastor.

That striking opinion comes from Professor John H. Casey of the Department of Journalism of the University of Oklahoma. He went on to say this: "In the aggregate, the country newspaper determines the outcome of more elections exerts a greater influence for constructive community progress, is read longer by more members of the family, and constitutes, with its millions of circulation and quadrupled millions of readers, a better advertising medium than any other group of newspapers or periodical publications."

"Through service to its community, the country newspaper will not merely survive; it will continue to flourish . . ."

CONTROLS AND THE CONSUMER

Do you believe that price controls are really of benefit to the consumer? If so, an editorial which recently appeared in the Chicago Daily News may give you a different idea. It said: "While they had accepted the inevitability of price controls in World War II, cattle growers and meat packers argued repeatedly for a decontrolled market throughout the post-war imposition of ceilings which were established during the Korean crisis of 1950 and retained until early in 1953."

"Meat price ceilings, they contended, not only led to widespread law evasion and to a general dislocation of supplies but they also forced consumers to pay higher prices for meat than they would have paid in a free market."

"Striking support for this latter contention is afforded in a current report of the American Meat Institute, which shows that the all-time production record set in 1953, following the removal of controls brought correspondingly sharp declines in the price of beef."

"The declines, as shown in Department of Agriculture reports, ranged from 10 to 35 per cent, depending upon cut and grade, with price and quantity based on the law of supply and demand for which there is no substitute."

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

PLANO, ILL., KENDALL COUNTY NEWS: "Just why anyone would try to break down the competitive system is difficult to understand. Our high standard of living was achieved because of competition—a better car, a better home, a better TV set—and on down the line."

WALTHAM, MASS., NEWS-TRIBUNE: "Some segments of industry have . . . drawn blueprints which assume a crippling attack and provide for recovery and continuity of production. Some large companies with executive offices in target areas, such as New York or Chicago, have already established alternate command posts in suburban areas and pinpointed the personnel to staff them in event of an emergency."

PAMPA, TEXAS, DAILY NEWS: "The only real way to increase wages of everybody is to increase production . . ."

WILSHIRE, O., HERALD: "We often say inflation is the world's biggest thief. Here's proof. If you were a married man with two dependents in 1939 and earned $77 a week, you have to be making $173 a week today to be just as well off. That's why the Eisenhower Administration is battling so hard to cut down Federal spending . . ."

BOYCE HOUSE

Many towns in Texas have derived their names from Indian sources, and in most cases some colorful or unusual story lies behind the christening.

Eagle Lake, in the South Texas county of Colorado, is one of these—its name steeped in several legends handed down from that warlike tribe of coastal aborigines called the Karankawas.

The tale centers around a great eagle which built her nest in a mighty sycamore tree on the west bank of the lake near the town, and a romantic version of the story, told by H. Braden, appeared in the Eagle Lake Headlight. The gist of the legend is this:

Long ago, two warriors loved the beautiful, dark-eyed daughter of a chief, and the chief conceived a plan of determining which suitor should have the hand of the fawn-like damsel of the woods. He told them that the first one to bring him the young eaglets from the nest, alive and without cutting down the great sycamore, should have his daughter.

Without hesitation, both young warriors started up the tree at the same time but, before climbing far, collided—the result being a quarrel, followed by a fight in which they killed each other.

The chief's daughter had waited at the camp to hear which of the suitors had been successful but at last, becoming alarmed over their long absence, she hastened to the lake—where, seeing the man of her choice dead, she became so grief-stricken that she seized a lance and plunged it into her own breast.

Ever afterward (so the story goes) the place was regarded with superstitious respect by members of the tribe, and it is said that once every moon—in the time of the Karankawas—the young men and maidens assembled at the spot to consecrate it with a memorial of flowers for the young lovers.

There is still another version, related by Braden—this being that Gray Cloud, one of the warriors, reached the nest first and was attacked by the fierce mother eagle after he had seized one of the eaglets. Sonoto, the other Indian, grasped this opportunity to use his rival and hurl him to the ground—a hundred feet below—whereupon, the chief's daughter—her name was Forest Flower—leaped into the lake and was drowned.

The Real Fight On SHIVERS

It is obvious, both to the supporters of Allan Shivers and to backers of Ralph Yarborough who will admit it, that an all-out effort is being made by the powers of the National Democratic Party to eliminate Shivers from the Texas governorship.

Why is this being done? What does it matter to these people who is governor of Texas?

One obvious reason they are after Shivers, of course, is that two years ago, faced with the loss of the Tidlands and possible billions of dollars to Texas if he did otherwise, Shivers refuted the National Party's candidate and led Texas to a victory for Eisenhower.

You could say truthfully that the machine operators of the National Democratic Party want to get revenge on the fellow.

But that would be telling only part of the story. There is a bigger reason than that for the liberalist elements of the party to want to defeat Allan Shivers and remove him as a political power.

They want to get Shivers out of office because they see Shivers as the greatest threat in the United States to liberal control of the Democratic Party.

These people want to continue to control the party which, through their invitation, has become the haven of the dissidents, the radicals and the socialists in the United States. They don't want any man to remain in power in the Democratic Party unless he is of their own philosophy.

If Allan Shivers had won the first primary with a good majority he would automatically have become the outstanding leader of Southern conservatives in the party. If he wins in the second primary he still will go to the national convention of the Democratic Party with strength to help bring the policies of the party back to common sense.

For throughout the United States there are millions of Democrats who don't like the bedfellows they have picked up in their party and who have worked themselves into party control. These people admire Allan Shivers, who refused to knuckle under to party dictators.

With a Texas delegation behind him, Shivers could help probably more than any other man, in swinging the party back around to its former democratic policies.

The liberals want none of that.

They want to rid themselves of Shivers as a threat. That is why Texas has become a major arena in a national battle between conservatives and liberals within the National Democratic Party. It is why Texas has been invaded by Northern interests and Northern money, to try to unseat Allan Shivers.

If they succeed, the greatest hope of those who want real Democrats to regain control of the Democratic Party will have been eliminated.—Reproduced from the Palestine Herald-Press and paid for by Knox County supporters of Allan Shivers.

WARNING!

TEXAS FARMERS-RANCHERS WARNED OF CIO LABOR PLANS

AUSTIN, Tex., Farmers and ranchers of Texas were warned this week that the CIO plans to organize the farm workers of Texas if its candidate wins the Governor's race.

This warning came from Governor Allan Shivers who charged that the backers of his opponents "want to turn the state government over to the same bunch that is trying to wreck Port Arthur."

"One of the first things they would do is put one of their red-hot organizers from Port Arthur in as labor commissioner. Then every time a farmer or rancher wanted to hire someone he would have to go through the CIO."

Governor Shivers said there was no doubt in his mind that the aim of the CIO after the job of organizing industry in Port Arthur and along the Gulf Coast is finished is to begin organizing farm labor in all parts of Texas.

"You can imagine what will happen when the CIO starts dictating how many laborers are needed to plow ten acres of land, refusing to allow a man to work more than thirty-five hours a week during the harvesting season and telling how much a farmer can charge for his crop," he said.

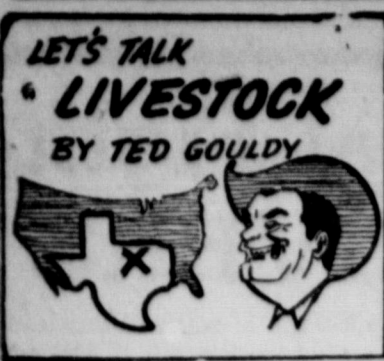

The Shivers administration, the Governor said, has worked hard to help preserve and protect the rights of the working man.

"But as long as I am Governor, the professional labor bosses who have been sent to Texas from the East—specifically those in the CIO and its Political Action Committee—are not going to run our State Government," Shivers promised.

Shivers said the average working man in Texas appreciated good government and that they were not going to let CIO bosses and professional organizers from the East do their thinking—and voting—for them.

CATTLE FEEDING LIKELY TO BE HEAVY IN TEXAS

FORT WORTH—Most observers on the market at Fort Worth are of the view there is a strong probability that more cattle will be fattened in Texas during the next six to eight months than for a comparable period in several years.

Many of the cattle will be grainfeds and many others will be carried on grain pastures with probably some supplemental feeding. Already reports are coming in of the movement of sizeable numbers of "wheat" pasture type calves and yearlings into the winter wheat grazing areas of the Texas Plains and Panhandle.

Conditions have been quite promising in some sections that have received heavy showers recently. The shower activity has been continuing and while the benefits are not general, there has been enough aid to breed optimism. Optimism is the commodity that cattlemen thrive on.

Another factor that portends big feeding operations are the big feed crops that are going to be made in sections of the West Texas Plains. In some sections conditions are reported the best in years. Storage is at a premium and there are plenty of cattle around. This means lots of cattle will likely be fed in the Plains and Panhandle.

We are told that the "nubbin" corn produced in many parts of the Eastern third of Texas, will also be fed to cattle. This corn was of too poor quality to be salable, and when ground with cob, shuck and stepped up with some protein and some urea to increase digestibility, it will put pounds on cattle.

Our information is that many farm lots of from half a dozen to a couple of dozen head of cattle will be fed this way and some of the larger feeders will be "in" again this year.

The bankers are loosening the purse strings on farmers in the Corn Belt and more stockers and feeders are moving into those

LOCALS

On Monday's market, prices were strong, spots higher and calves were 50 cents and more higher than last week's close.

In the hog yards, the top was $23.50 and sows sold for $14 to $18.50.

Sheep and lambs found the market generally steady with choice Spring lambs up to $19 and feeder lambs at $15 down.

Mrs. L. J. Hill, Shirley and Joe Mack and Miss Joyce Micheis visited relatives in Spur over the week end.

Clifford Wilson and family of Cody, Wyo., were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips several days last week. They also visited with other friends.

Monday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hill were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Arnold and Jerry and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Norvill and family of Seymour, states.

Order buyers at Fort Worth say that they have more orders for the "good kind" than they are able to find in the runs lately.

Many of these are going to Illinois, Indiana and into the Western Corn Belt. However, the demand is spreading to the Eastern Corn Belt and over into the South East as some relief from heat and drought has been reported in some sections there.

It looks like a big year for cattle feeding in the West. Fort Worth's dealers and order buyers report heavy demand continues from Arizona and the West Coast.

One order buyer said, "I think Arizona would be running over with cattle. Thousands have been shipped there."

The West Coast operators are filling feeding pens and are still taking lots of the "plainer" kinds of stockers and feeders off the yards at Fort Worth every week.

The feeling seems to be general that cattle have been pretty well established with the better fat steers and heifers due to sell around the $20 to $25 range. This more stable situation seems to be predicted on the present earning power of the consumers and the proportion of their expendable income that will be spent on meat.

FRENCH ACCENT!

This beautiful cotton party dress is a design with a French accent. It is from the collection of the noted Parisian couturier, Manguin. Made of cotton croquet pique, the dress is in white printed with blue cornflowers. An added touch of elegance is seen in the white organza scarf edged with royal blue cotton velvet. The velvet touch is repeated in the wide belt and piping.

News From The U. S. Congress

Congressman Frank Ikard

Currently, the matter of Government subsidies has been thrust into public attention by the arguments that have been going on on farm price support legislation. There has been a great deal of misunderstanding about what subsidy is. Some contend that tariffs are subsidies. The different forms that Government support and aid take to various segments of our economy raises a question of what do we mean by subsidy. A House committee has been studying this as a result of the wide demand for figures comparing subsidies received by agriculture, industry, business, and labor. In a report recently issued, this committee found that in the fiscal years 1949-1955, inclusive, subsidies have totaled $3,773,000,000 for labor. I think these findings might be surprising to some who are under the impression that the farmers are the only one who have any sort of subsidy.

Congress has at long last passed an Anti-Communist Bill that would remove the party's legal rights and privileges and impose stiff penalties on members of Communist active groups who do not register under the Subversive Activities Act. The bill would also abolish the Government guaranteed bargaining rights of business or labor organizations that are found to be Communist infiltrated.

One of the last acts of this session of Congress was to approve a $6,000,000,000 increase in the public debt limit. Under this action, the ceiling will be raised to $281,000,000,000. It is hoped that the Treasury will be able to repay this $6,000,000,000 increase by the 30th of next June.

The House passed a bill this week that would give a $500,000 reward to anyone who gives information to the government concerning the illegal manufacture or possession of atomic weapons.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith and children and Mr. Fred J. Ebner, J. of Wichita Falls, were Washington visitors.

Kitchen Work-Saver

TO SAVE the homemaker's energy, time and happy disposition, have kitchen tools, utensils and ingredients within easy reach. Just install some Masonite "Peg-Board" panels in convenient locations. These Preadwood panels with numerous perforations are fitted with hooks and hangers on which the homemaker can suspend the tools of her culinary art.

Decorative as well as functional, the panels may be painted to harmonize with the colors of the kitchen. Some of their favorite locations are over the range, between the base and wall cabinets, in the back of cabinets, over or under the sink, and over a working counter or desk.

A variety of metal fixtures, which may be obtained at the same lumber yards handling the perforated panels, will carry shelves for canisters and similar items; plates, platters, cups, all types of utensils, pots and pans, dish towels, a thermometer, memo notes, pencil and the like.

Handyman husbands called on to install the panels find they go up with a minimum of effort over spacers, which are used to allow room for insertion of the hooks and hangers. The metal attachments are used interchangeably, thus giving the homemaker an opportunity to change her arrangements whenever she likes. Moving them is a matter of seconds, and no tools are needed.

Texans NEED
RALPH W. YARBOROUGH
Ralph Yarborough
The Man
TEXAN

Judge Yarborough, grandson of a Confederate officer, was born in 1903 at Chandler, Henderson County, Texas.
After graduating from Tyler High School and Sam Houston State Teachers College, Ralph Yarborough went on to graduate with highest honors in 1927 from the University of Texas Law School. Marrying his boyhood sweetheart, Opal Warren, in 1928, Judge Yarborough began the practice of law in El Paso. Three years later, the Yarboroughs settled in Austin, where their son, Richard, was born.

STATESMAN
A devout Christian all his life, Ralph Yarborough has served as Sunday School teacher and Trustee of the First Baptist Church in past years. Judge Yarborough's record of fairness and understanding exemplifies the Christian way. He began his illustrious career as Assistant Attorney General, serving successively as lecturer on land law at the University of Texas, member of the Board of Directors of the Lower Colorado River Authority, District Judge, Presiding Judge, and one of Texas' leading attorneys in private practice. Loved and respected by his fellow lawyers, he was selected President of the Travis County Bar Association, Director of the State Bar of Texas, member of the Texas State Board of Law Examiners, and member of the American Law Institute.

VETERAN
A combat veteran with the 97th Infantry Division in World War II, serving under Eisenhower and Patton in Europe and later as a military governor under McArthur in Occupied Japan, Judge Yarborough won recommendations and awards for his services in both theaters of war.
Judge Yarborough is a member of the American Legion, Vice Chairman of a National Committee and Chairman of a State Committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He advocates continuance of all veterans' programs and an enlargement of the Texas Veterans' Land Purchase Program, to include homes as well as farms.

"By Texans Who Know Allan Shivers Best"
Judge Yarborough's home precinct in Austin hasn't voted Democratic since 1940. It is a Republican precinct, and went for a Republican candidate masquerading as a Democrat.
Shiver's Native County, Angelina, where he was born voted as follows:
Yarborough—5,767
Shivers—4,104

Yarborough carried his native county of Henderson, where he was born, raised and went to school—5,127 to 1,760.

SHIVERS' HOME VOTING COUNTY
Jefferson County, where Shivers still votes; Yarborough won by more than 1,000 votes.

Go to the Polls Saturday and Elect Ralph Yarborough, a Democrat for Governor.
(Political Adv. paid for by friends of Ralph Yarborough.)

Hanging Shelf

SINCE students usually are interested in novelties, a hanging bookshelf over the desk will strike their fancy and be functional, too. Simple to make, the bookshelf consists of a framework of 1 by 2-inch lumber, of the desired length and about one foot wide, covered with Masonite 1/2" Tempered Presdwood that is glued to the top and bottom.

As shown in the illustration, the shelf is suspended by the desk by means of heavy cord looped through screw-eyes. The shelf's front edge should tilt slightly. Edges of the hardboard should be rounded slightly with sandpaper.

The surfaces of Tempered Presdwood may be left in the natural dark brown color, with the exposed framework stained or painted, or they may be waxed, stained, varnished, painted or enameled.

By using Masonite Presdpl three-fourths of an inch thick, the same type of shelf may be produced with even less effort. Wood moulding glued to the edges is suggested when using Presdpl which has a core of plywood at surfaces of Tempered Presdwood.

THE NEED FOR DISASTER RELIEF

Two relief programs, hay and grain, were inaugurated in the Texas drought disaster area during August. Immediately after the programs were put into effect, the Texas Department of Agriculture made a survey of farmers and three points were evident:

1. Most stockmen and farmers in the drought area need some kind of help very badly—and quickly.
2. Emergency hay and feed will not completely meet this need.
3. Farmers are bitter about the "scalper prices" of hay in some areas.

Here are some comments which came to light during the survey: Osborne Mullins, San Saba County farmer-rancher said: "Most stockmen in this county are anxious for any kind of help to keep their cattle going. I have a few head of cows and calves and a few goats and need about 120 bales of hay for the next 60 days."

"But I can't depend on hay alone. Last year I had to burn the spines off prickly pears and feed them to my cattle. I'm going to be out there burning those prickly pears again this year."

E. B. Stiles, farmer-rancher of Hamilton County: "It couldn't be dryer in this country. In an ordinary year I usually make from 3,000 to 5,000 bales of hay for winter feed. All I have this year is 30 bales of Johnson grass which was cut along the edge of the highway near my place."

W. G. Barkley, vice president of Hamilton National Bank: "I have been in this country since 1910. It never looked this bad for farmers and ranchers before."

"The new hay program isn't going to help much. Our dairy and poultry men are suffering too. Farmers are worrying about the sudden increases in hay costs since the program was announced."

Cecil Brown, San Saba County rancher: "If I can't get some hay cheap, I will just have to sell out this year. I have 300 head of cattle here and no grass. The last time I had a good grain rain was two years ago."

Drive carefully. The life you save may be your own.

to remain healthy than it is to recover from an illness, but the State Health Department is engaged in the prevention and control of disease as it affects the general population of a community or state.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Denham and children of Lueders were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Hannah, during the week end.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, in outlining the duties of the Texas State Department of Health, said in a statement today that public health programs are designed to benefit all the people.

"In an effort to prevent disease," Dr. Holle said, "the Texas State Health Department carries on an educational program informing the public as to how they can secure protection against smallpox, typhoid fever, and immunization against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus; by investigating sources of disease outbreaks; by isolating those ill with communicable disease; inspection of water supplies; advocating the production and use of safe milk to prevent the occurrence of milk borne diseases and many other services to the public."

Dr. Holle said that in spite of preventive measures, people will become ill and accidents will happen. In general, the cure of sickness in the individual and the repair of accidents fall within the scope of the duties of the private practitioner of medicine and surgery. "Of course," he said, "the private practitioner of medicine is also engaged in prevention of disease when he advises mothers to have their children and family protected against those diseases for which there is a known preventive."

The general practitioner and the State Department of Health both advocate that it is better

Class Of 1924 Holds Reunion Here August 15

The graduating class of '24 held their first class reunion in the Fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church Sunday, August 15. After thirty years the members really enjoyed seeing and recognizing their classmates, some of whom had not met since graduation.

The three class members residing in Munday prepared food for the occasion. They are Mrs. R. B. Bowden (Elizabeth Meyers), J. C. Elliott (Mrs. Elliott did his work) and Mrs. A. L. Smith (Grace Burnett). Alton Lee, another class member, now registrar at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, received credit for his untiring efforts in contacting former members. A number of the teachers were present for this wonderful reunion of old classmates and teachers. They were Mrs. J. Elmer Smith (Pauline Hodges) of San Angelo, Miss Sybil Germany of Greenville and Dr. J. Horace Bass of College Station.

There were nine class members present out of a class of fourteen. They all enjoyed hearing the news of each other for the past 30 years. Some reported to be grandmothers, making all realize they had passed old "39".

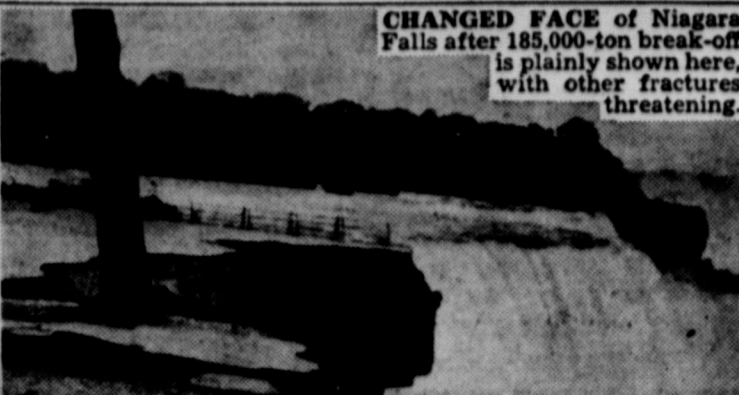

Class members not present were Bernard Stodghill, in business in Kermitt; Glenn Cooke, now Col. Glenn Cooke and stationed in Japan; Kathleen Mabrey, now Mrs. Green and living in Lumberton, Miss., and who sent a letter expressing her regret at not being able to be present; Eniver Hudson, now Mrs. Clark and living in Ruidoso, N. M. Gladys Reid and Cleo Smart could not be contacted.

They all enjoyed a tour of the high school building, viewing all the improvements along with old school and class pictures and wishing all could meet in a homecoming for all ex-students and teachers some time next year and wondered if the town would be interested in sponsoring the event.

Back to the fellowship hall about five, after more eating, the group began breaking up, each going his or her separate way, with memories of a most enjoyable occasion.

NEW BULLETINS AVAILABLE FROM EXTENSION SERVICE

Dairying and wheat are the subjects of new bulletins released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. They may be obtained without cost from local county extension agents.

Such subjects as cultural practices; implements; fertilizers; irrigation; grazing; varieties; production of seed; quality; diseases and insects and grain sanitation are covered in the bulletin on wheat. The authors of B-226, Wheat—A Major Crop in Texas, Fred T. Dines, formerly extension wheat marketing specialist; I. M. Atidns, agronomist, in charge of small grains, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and K. B. Porter, associate agronomist, Amarillo Conservation Experiment Station, point out that for the period from 1942-51 wheat was exceeded only by cotton as a major source of farm income in Texas. During the past five years, however, due to unfavorable environmental conditions, it has dropped below grain sorghum in importance.

The dairy bulletin, B-241, Dairy Handbook, was prepared by R. E. Burlison and A. M. Meeke, extension dairy husbandmen, and is "chuckful" on information in outline form. It should be valuable not only to dairymen but all groups interested in seeing the State's dairy industry progress. Such subjects as feeding; breeding; management; herd records; marketing and putting over a dairy program are outlined in the publication.

Copies of both may be obtained from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, or from local county agents.

lands probably will decrease in price in 1954. Non-agricultural factors may prevent declines in some areas. Price drops are expected to be small and will result from lower asking prices. Volume of sales may strengthen with lower asking prices.

This outlook, said the economists, is based on the assumption that the 1954 economic situation will continue to be much like 1953 one of adjustments—as buyers and sellers react to lower rather than rising agricultural incomes.

Complete details of the study, "The Texas Farm and Ranch Land Market, 1953," are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station.

DO YOU WISH YOUR FARM WORKERS TO BE ORGANIZED BY THE CIO AND YARBOROUGH?

The following news item was taken from the Dallas Morning News of Sunday, August 22, 1954.

SAN DIEGO, Texas—George B. Parr, the Duval County political power, said Ralph W. Yarborough would get his vote for governor.

Parr interrupted a coffee-cup cafe conference with Roy Harrington of Austin, secretary-treasurer of the CIO State Council, to say that he was not particularly for Yarborough.

"It's just that I'm against Allan Shivers," said the political boss.

Parr said that on Wednesday night he went to Falfurrias to hear Yarborough make a campaign speech. Parr said he sat in the bleachers in the high school stadium where Yarborough spoke and did not speak personally to the candidate. Some Parr-backed local officials sat on the platform with Yarborough.

"We haven't talked since before he announced," said Parr.

If You Don't Want Your Farm Workers Organized by the CIO—Vote Against Yarborough!

May I Again Ask For . . . Your Vote?

Once again I want to thank you, the citizens of Knox County, for the consideration and courtesy that you have shown me during my campaigns for County Treasurer. Your many kindnesses will always be gratefully remembered and cherished by me.

I know that during this run-off campaign I have missed seeing some of you again, but the time was, of course, too short to completely cover the area involved. Therefore, may I solicit your influence and vote in this manner—the same as if I had personally talked to you.

I regret that I could not have seen all of you; but, as above stated, the short time just ran off.

Sincerely, MRS. FRANK HILL

UNCERTAINTY DOMINANT FACTOR IN THE 1953 TEXAS FARM MARKET

The volume of land sales in Texas during 1953 dropped sharply for the third straight year. Buyers resisted asking price based on peak years of agricultural income and general economic activity, said Economists J. H. Southern and W. G. Adkins of the USDA and Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, respectively.

This resistance, continued the economists, stemmed from falling price of beef cattle, widespread drought and impending acreage allotments and production restrictions.

Chief land buyers were owner-operator farmers. Non-agricultural factors, such as urbanization, potential mineral values and possible tax savings, tended to push land prices upward slightly despite the generally weak condition of the market. About two out of every five bonafide land sales in the state involved the Veterans Land Program.

Well improved, family-sized farms with a known history of productiveness continued to sell at a premium. Credit was more easily obtained for these buys and it is doubtful if their value will drop in the coming year.

Now for a look at the immediate future. With the exception of good family-sized farms and irrigated lands with a nadequate and lasting water supply, most

Knox Prairie Philosopher Praises U. S. Congress For Raising The Debt Limit, Provided He's Also Included

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek has his news snarled up worse than usual this week, his letter indicates.

Dear editor:

I am going to start a campaign to get people to read the newspapers more carefully.

One day last week I picked up a paper off my neighbor's tractor seat where he had put it to shade it from the sun while he went to the house for a drink of water, if he'd leave his tractor under a tree where I leave mine and drain all the gas and oil out and let one two tires go flat and the battery run down he would not be bothered by coming back to the field and having to sit on a sun-scorched seat.

At any rate, I can't be responsible for my neighbor's shortsightedness and enlightenment is as important as labor so I borrowed the paper and took it over under a tree and read where gress has just raised the debt limit of this country.

The debt limit was something that was holdin not only the government down but me too, and naturally I was pleased to get this news.

I grabbed my hat and lit out for town, but it didn't take me long to find out news must travel faster in the country than in town as the first store I went to told me straight out they had not heard about any increases in the debt limit, especially my limit, and my credit situation was the same as it had always been. Next four stores told me about the same thing, only in different language which I will not repeat here.

I will appreciate you carryin a notice in your paper in a prominent place that Congress has raised the debt limit and the President has signed the new law and let's get the wheels of commerce turnin.

As I understand the terms of the new law, the government's debt limit has been raised from 275 billion dollars to 281, but it's only temporary, with the stipulation that it has to be back down to 275 billion by next June 30, provided, and here's where Congress makes sense, that conditions at that time do not make it necessary to extend it beyond that date, in which case it would have to be extended.

Now that's the kind of debt limit I'm in favor of, flexible and ready for any emergency. Just like the government, I have found frequently that when a note comes due I need the money worse than when I did when I borrowed it in the first place, and I would like to get my personal financing up on the government level, with enough Congressional leeway to keep extendin the loan indefinitely, with only a majority vote needed to do the extendin, without consultin the lender, which in my case I figure I can swing as there wouldn't be anybody but me doin the votin.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER?

Q. Whenever I take aspirin I suffer from heartburn. Is there any way to relieve this condition.

A. Yes and it's an easy one. The acetylsalicylic acid, which is the active ingredient in aspirin often causes indigestion. Doctors advise taking 1/2 teaspoon baking soda in 1/2 glass water along with aspirin. Baking soda which is pure mild U.S.P. bicarbonate of soda relieves heartburn and also speeds up the absorption of aspirin.

Grapevine Church To Honor Relative Of Knox Citizens

When the First Methodist Church of Grapevine observes its 100th anniversary with a nine-day program in October, tribute will be paid to its benefactor, the late Rev. Nathan Hudgins, who donated land for the first church building.

Rev. Hudgins came to Grapevine from Alabama in 1854, and religious services were held in the home before the first church was constructed. Rev. Hudgins, who died in 1901, remained the backbone of the church during his lifetime and in later years attended services in a wheel chair.

The benefactor was the grandfather of Mrs. Lee Haymes of Munday and Ray Willis of Knox City.

The centennial program will be inaugurated in a pioneer atmosphere on the church grounds the night of October 23.
