Odds Bits Salvaged at Random

There was a fine array of "finances" at the Munday school auditorium last Monday.

Bankers from seven counties of the area, as well as some visitors who were well up in "high finance," had gathered there for the annual Memorial Day meeting of the Seven-County Bankers Association.

Upon invitation from our local bankers W. E. Braly and M. L. Wiggins, we kinda rounded up what Monday morning newspaper business we could and rushed to the school building at about 10:25 to sit in on the meeting.

On top of feeling a little out of place among such "financial wizards," we also felt a little inappropriately dressed, since we had come to the shop in a sport shirt prepared to battle the heat of the day.

But we found some bankers dressed sensibly, too.

G. W. Coats of Knox City was wearing a multi-colored sport shirt, and he was the first to compliment us on our manner of dress.

Stepping into the gym, we shook hands with A. C. Pierson of Haskell, who agreed, too, that a man just as well dress sensibly and comfortably—and he was proving it with his sport shirt.

There were those dressed "fit to kill" and there were others in their shirt sleeves, but the convention went off in good order.

M. L. Wiggins carried on his chairman's duties with due credit to himself, and performed until after his successor had been named.

His successor is R. C. Pirtle of Throckmorton, a person we've known for high on 20 years as plain old Ruben, Pirtle's town was also selected as the 1955 meeting place.

M. F. Billingsley, in his official capacity as mayor, extended the group a cordial invitation to our town and to all the privileges his little town could offer. In conclusion, he said if any of the group got "called up" before his court, he would be lenient with them.

The Citizens State Bank of Knox City was co-host with the First National Bank of Munday for the meeting. So naturally, Bruce Campbell, S. N. Reed and others of the bank were on hand to hob-nob with the group.

Munday's bunch turned out in good numbers, with some of the registration desks others helping to host the occasion and make everyone feel at home. Our own group of directors and their wives were also well represented.

A group of girls entertained with some very good singing, rendering some four or five numbers before the main speaker took charge.

He was Estil Vance, president of the Fort Worth National Bank, and he had about a dozen Fort Worth bankers with him, and an equal number was present from Dallas.

We didn't know at first whether Vance was making a good speech or just talking, but directly someone had forethought enough to turn off that noisy evaporative cooler, and we discovered the speaker was saying something worth listening to.

They didn't accord Wiggins that much courtesy—they turned the noisy thing on again as Moulton took over after the speech.

The meeting closed with a big feed for the group in the school lunch room, after which facilities of the Munday Country Club were at the disposal of those who wanted to play golf.

This group of bankers met at the local country club several years ago, and we're glad they decided to return to Munday this year. Reckon they can come back most any time they want.

Throckmorton Banker Named Head Of Seven-County Bankers Ass'n.

R. C. Pirtle, vice president of the First National Bank of Throckmorton was elected chairman of the Seven-County Bankers Association at the Memorial Day meeting here last Monday. Throckmorton was also selected as the 1955 meeting place.

C. L. Atchison, vice president and cashier of the Woodson State Bank, was elected secretary. The meeting at Munday was held in the school auditorium with registration beginning at 9:30 a. m.

M. L. Wiggins, vice president of the First National Bank of Munday and this year's chairman, presided over the meeting which opened at 10:30. Invocation was given by Rev. H. Doyle Ragle, pastor of the Munday Methodist Church.

Mayor M. F. Billingsley brought "Words of Welcome" to the group, and response was made by George S. Plants, president of the First National Bank of Seymour.

Recognition of visitors and members was given by G. W. Coats, cashier of the Citizens State Bank of Knox City, and Association secretary. Visitors were present from Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston, Abilene, Wichita Falls, and all counties of the association were well represented.

Around 150 members and visitors registered for the meeting.

A highlight of the program was musical numbers rendered by a group of Knox City ladies. With Mrs. Kenneth Myers as pianist, Miss Jennie Guinn sang several solos and led the quartet in other numbers. Others in the quartet are Pansy Wilcox, Mary Hitchcock and Peggy Stephens.

The principal address was given by Estil Vance, president of the Fort Worth National Bank, who reviewed some of the banking activities of the past and predicted prosperity and stability in the banking business for the next several years.

Knox County banks, the First National Bank of Munday and Citizens State of Knox City, were hosts for the meeting and for the delicious dinner served at the noon hour. The afternoon was free for visiting or returning to their homes early. A few took advantage of the facilities of the Munday Country Club for golfing.

Stubblefield Takes Job At Egenbacher's

Egenbacher Implement Company of Knox City announced Tuesday that H. B. Stubblefield of Munday is again connected with the firm as a salesman. Mr. Stubblefield has dealt with local people on International equipment and parts for many years.

Since the International parts house is being closed out in Munday, Mr. Stubblefield will be supplying parts to farmers of this area. He will carry a number of fast-moving parts in his car for immediate service, and will be able to get others part for International users on short order.

HAVE VACATION TRIP

Palmer Campsey, Jimmy Morgan and Charles Yost returned Sunday night from a week's vacation trip to Pensacola, Fla. They went through New Orleans, La., Mississippi and Alabama visiting the historical and other interesting places. They were swimming in the surf in Florida, returning through Louisiana on Saturday night where they attended the Louisiana Hay Ride. They reported a wonderful time.

Dr. Tate, SMU's fifth president, as an all-Southwest Conference tackle on SMU's championship football team of 1931. He was vice-president of SMU the past three years. He will be 43 May 18.

Appointments For Former Pastors

News of appointments for three pastors of the Munday Methodist Church is of interest to local citizens.

Rev. H. A. Longino, who was pastor at O'Donnell, was superannuated at the annual conference last week. He has purchased a home in McLean and moved his family there. In a talk at the conference, Rev. Longino said he slept under his own roof last Friday night for the first time in his life.

Rev. Luther Kirk who was pastor of Midland First Church, was named superintendent of the Plainview district.

Rev. Don R. Davidson was returned to the Levelland charge for another year.

GORDON STEVENS IN TRAINING IN WYOMING

A/3c Horace G. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mitchell of Munday, is presently being trained as an Air Force Technician at Warren Air Force Base, Wyoming.

At this historic former cavalry post, outside Cheyenne, the Air Force is training young airmen in many specialties. Telephone and Teletype operators, Repairmen, Inspectors and Supervisors, as well as Administrative and Supply technicians.

Mrs. Michael Sloan and daughter, Sandra, of Midland spent several days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mitchell.

COTTON COATED

The cotton coat is the fashion hit of the season, the National Cotton Council reports. Here, 1954 Maid of Cotton Beverly Peck of El Paso, Texas, models a striking ensemble designed by Tat Prema in Hope Skillman's tapestry and needlepoint cotons. The unbelted coat is worn over a slim, sleeveless dress.

Storm and Hail Damage Is Extensive In County Areas

H. Doyle Ragle Is Returned As Local Pastor

People of practically all denominations in Munday are welcoming the return of Rev. H. Doyle Ragle and his family for another year of church work in the community. Rev. Ragle, pastor of the Munday Methodist Church for the past two years, was returned to the charge for another year.

His work with the local Methodist church and in the community has been rather outstanding, and another successful year is predicted for the local congregation under his leadership.

Appointment of ministers for the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference were read at the closing session of the conference in Amarillo last Sunday. A few changes were made in the Stamford district, which included the following appointments:

Three Of Munday Get Degrees At Hardin-Simmons

ABILENE — State Attorney General John Ben Sheppard surveyed the field of higher learning and said the most urgent education need of the day is speaking in the obvious.

Education is the graduation class of Hardin-Simmons University last Monday, Sheppard said: "The common fault of most colleges and universities today is that while they refuse a sheepskin to the student who cannot write a research paper, they graduate many a mental giant who cannot think responsibly, read an editorial, or make a ballad. He deplored what he termed a tendency in educational circles to sit in the ivory tower and ignore the passing parade of public affairs.

Three persons of Munday received degrees in the exercise. They are: Marjorie Campsey, B. B. A., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Campsey; Clarence Milton Thompson, Jr., B. S., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson, and Georgie Marguerite Hammett, B. B. A., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hammett.

ENGINEER HIRED FOR SWIMMING POOL PROJECT

Mayor M. F. Billingsley announced Wednesday that A. E. Steen, engineer of New Braunfels, has been employed to work up plans and blue prints for the Munday swimming pool.

As soon as these details are received, the city council will advertise for bids for the pool's construction, which will likely be within the next week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. Herby Peck were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Griffith in Stamford.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH

The miracles produced by chemistry have beneficially influenced the lives of everyone. And in some instances, they have literally meant the difference between life and death.

Here is just one dramatic instance of that. Pernicious anemia used to be almost invariably fatal, and was responsible for 50,000 deaths a year in this country. It was discovered that a liver diet provided a remedy, but no one knew why. A problem lay in the large quantity of liver that sufferers from the disease had to eat.

In 1948, a chemist isolated the key substance contained in the liver for the first time—vitamin B-12. It possessed amazing powers and only a microscopic amount had to be taken each day. However, it required a ton of liver to produce 1/200th of a teaspoon of the precious vitamin—which meant that supplies were limited and extremely expensive.

The chemists and the chemical industry kept on working. Finally it was discovered that cultures of the same micro-organism which produces streptomycin could also produce vitamin B-12. That solved the supply problem—and within two years prices to the consumer of this life-saver were cut 97 per cent!

Chemistry makes for better living—and for life itself.

BEST SOURCE OF PROTEIN

Americans are hearty meat eaters. We consume 65,000,000 pounds of it every day—enough to fill 2,500 railroad refrigerator cars. Our annual per capita consumption is 76 pounds, which is well ahead of most other countries.

Yet there are nations which eat more meat than we do. To take the extreme example, the average citizen of Argentina, a country whose economy has long been largely based on cattle, puts away 248 pounds of beef each year.

Many authorities think that within the next 10 years American beef consumption can and should rise to perhaps double the current level. The American National Cattlemen's Association is now engaged in a nationwide beef promotion program, and packers and retailers are cooperating. The program's theme is, "Beef is your best source of protein."

That is much more than just an attractive slogan. It's a matter of scientific fact. One of the major discoveries of recent years in the field of dietetics is that beef, because of its high protein content, contributes greatly to the mental and physical health and vigor of individuals. It also has been found valuable in aiding the treatment and recovery of people suffering from many forms of illness. And it is a food which the average person can eat once or more a day and still find palatable.

Whatever increase in demand for beef and other meats comes in the future will greatly benefit the farmer, and our great meat industry is prepared to handle it.

TO GENERATE MORE KNOWLEDGE

There is strong support—and much of it comes from men in top government positions, including executives of the Atomic Energy Commission—in favor of inviting private enterprise to cooperate in the peacetime development of atomic energy, particularly as a source of electric power. But some opposition has appeared, based on two primary premises—first, that this would be a "give-away" of invaluable public property, and second, that the private enterprises concerned such as light and power companies, would reap huge profits.

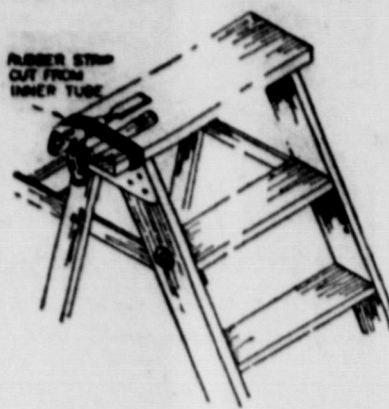

How valid are these objections? A statement issued jointly by a chemical company and a power utility shows how empty the "give-away" talk is. It said: "We do not ask to take over the entire program. . . . We . . . ask only for permission to use certain knowledge of small dollar value which has not been fully exploited by Government. This knowledge will not be consumed; it will be put to use, like a breeder reactor, to generate more knowledge. This new knowledge which we return to the Government is the interest we pay for use of the old."

As for the profit angle, no less an authority than Gordon Dean, former AEC chairman, said, "In the power field, I do not see bonanzas; I see simply someday more and cheaper power, a blessing which can be widely spread usewise and geographically." And the rates that power companies are allowed to charge for electricity produced from any source are based upon the necessary costs of providing the service, plus a moderate profit.

If the atom is to serve mankind, instead of just threatening to destroy us, all of our resources and know-how, private no less than governmental, must be used.

As the Steamboat Invincible made its way up the Mississippi (according to T. B. Thorpe, a writer who flourished seventy-five year ago), the passengers in the cabin were startled by an Indian whoop from the bar. Then there was a loud rooster crowing and then the hero of these accomplishments thrust his head into the cabin and shouted, "Hurrah for the Big Bar of Arkansas!"

Then the Big Bar walked in. Clad in rough, homespun clothing, he was tall and was big of bone. Obviously he was in a genial mood. He took a chair, put his feet on the stove and asked, "Strangers, how are you?" then expressed himself as being as much at home as if he were at the "Forks of Cypress Creek and perhaps a little more so." In a moment every face was smiling for something about the Big Bar won the heart on sight.

"My home place is the finest on the Mississippi," he proclaimed, "though the location did have some defects until the river made the cut-off at Shirt-tail Bend. That brought my cabin on the edge of the river—a great advantage, I can tell you. You can now roll a barrel of whiskey into my yard in high water from a searboat."

"Then look at my land! I planted a few potatoes and beets one time, then went to Kentucky on business. Next I heard from them growing things was when I met a fellow, three months later, who had stooped at my place with the idea of buying. He said, 'The cabin is convenient and the timber land is good but the bottom land ain't worth a red cent; it's full of cedar stumps and Indian mounds; it can't be cleared.'"

"I said, 'Them cedar stumps is beets and them Indian mounds is tater hills.' The crop had overgrown while I was away. The soil of Arkansas is too rich. Planting in Arkansas can be dangerous."

"I had a good-sized sow and the old thief stole an ear of corn and took it down to where she slept at night to eat. She overlooked a couple of grains, lay down on them and went to sleep. Before morning, the corn shot up and the percussion killer—yes, sir, killed her dead. So I don't plant any more in that rich Arkansas land. Nature in-

News From The U. S. Congress

Congressman Frank Ikard

On Friday, May 28th, approximately sixty members of the Bowie High School Senior Class, along with some of their teachers, parents, and friends, visited Washington. It was my great pleasure to provide refreshments for this group at ten in the morning in the Capitol. We had a very pleasant time, and everyone there seemed to have really enjoyed their trip so far. They were all looking forward to the time they would spend in New York and Niagra Falls. Senator Price Daniel and Congressman-at-large Martin Dies also met with the group. Deputy Secretary of Defense R. B. Anderson and Senator Lyndon Johnson were both in Texas and could not be with us. As we left the Capitol, the group was able to see many members of the Cabinet, Supreme Court, and the diplomatic corps as they arrived to hear the address given by Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia. I know that each year members of the Bowie Senior Class take a trip such as this. It seems to me that it is a very fine thing for them to do, and I know that all of those who are on the trip enjoy it a great deal and get a lot out of their visits to Washington, New York and other points of interest.

Recently there was a proposal made to the Congress for an amendment to the Constitution that would provide that members of the House of Representatives be elected for a term of four years rather than two as they presently are. This move has received a lot of support and is something that we all probably will be hearing a lot about in a short time. Even though the present two year term does have some disadvantages, I think it is far better than a four year term as far as the people are concerned. A four year term would make it more difficult for the people to make any changes that they believed were necessary to correct any dangers or bad trends in the government. Also the House of Representatives, under the Constitution, has exclusive power over the Nation's purse strings, the sole power of impeachment, and the sole power

Collection and disposal of sanitary refuse and garbage, and the way to eliminate unsightly, disease-breeding open dumps are being shown to municipal and civic group officials from 233 Texas communities with population ranging from 3,000 to 25,000, and to 46 county health units in a series of eleven demonstrations sponsored by the Texas State Department of Health starting May 17 and continuing through June 11. Amarillo is one of the leaders in solving this problem. It uses the sanitary landfill method of disposal and at the same time adds recreational area to its Thompson Park, above.

er to choose a President in the event one candidate does not receive a majority of the electoral votes. It is, therefore, very necessary that the House of Representatives be very close to the people and sensitive to their will. I think someone expressed it very well a long time ago when they said that two years is long enough for the people of any district to have a bad Representative in the House, and a Representative who is doing his job should welcome the opportunity to make a report to the people of his District at the close of each Congress. Visitors from home this week, in addition to those from Bowie, were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McCrory and Miss Nell Gibbs of Wichita Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sampley, of Quanah.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Tuggle and children of Fort Worth visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tuggle, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marchel Nauer spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rinn, in Old Glory.

COWBOY REUNION RODEO IS NO. 1 IN U. S. IN ENTRIES

STAMFORD — The biggest rodeo in the United States! That's what the Texas Cowboy Reunion is—for more contestants take part in the Stamford rodeo than any other in the nation.

Last year, there were 531 entries and indications are that this total will be surpassed at this year's show, July 1, 2, 3 and 5.

There are so many contestants, in fact, that by no means all the competition can be crowded into the action-packed regular performances which are held nightly on the four days and a matinee on the final day, so there is "something doing" almost all through the mornings in the way of roping and maybe some bronc riding or cutting horse activities—and these morning events can be viewed by the public without charge.

Wild-cow milking will be one of the rodeo contests this year. Others will be calf-roping, bareback and saddle bronc riding and bull riding. In addition, there will be the cowgirl sponsors' barrel race, specialty acts, clowns and other features, including the feeds at chuck wagons and the reunion of several hundred old-time cowboys.

Drive carefully. The life you save may be your own.

LET'S TALK
LIVESTOCK
BY TED GOULDY

MEAT TRADE DRAGGY.
HURTING LIVE PRICES
FORT WORTH—Major population centers in the Midwest and on the Eastern Seaboard reported movement of most kinds of meat at wholesale and retail levels last week were spotty and disappointing and in the main prices worked lower.

This condition was reflected in prices of most kinds of livestock in lowered prices. The beef trade was burdened with an influx of medium and low grade calf meat from the farms and plantations of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida.

Pork prices tumbled from five to fourteen cents per pound in the New York area as consumers shied away from the highest pork loin prices in years. Finicky buyers with nothing else to criticize about it, were making enough of an issue about the way pork was trimmed and the amount of fat on it, to call for a report of that fact on the national news circuits.

At virtually all points, packers and wholesalers complained that cattle and calves were making unsatisfactory kills because of the evidence of "grassy" finish and fat.

Lamb buyers complained that old crop shorn lambs were showing more yearling than lamb characteristics and the "horsy" sizes and failures to "break joint" created additional hurdles. Small lambs reportedly in rather liberal supply, and off grades were reportedly numerous.

The Southeastern lambs were reported in heavier volume. All of this set the stage for the "June Break" in cattle prices, which on Monday averaged around 50 cents to $1 per hundred, some more and some less. On top of the break of a week earlier, this moved prices nearer to levels of a year ago.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings $18-$22, common and medium kinds $12-$18. Fat cows $10-$13, a few heiferish kinds to $13.50 and above. Canners and cutters largely $7-$10. Bulls $9-$14.50, few higher. Good and choice slaughter calves $18-$22; cull, common and medium kinds from $10-$17.

Some typical sales: Sealing V Ranch, Clay County, 21 feeder yearlings, 506 lbs. $21.25; 21 cows, 1,100 lbs. $13, 11 cows, 1,086 lbs. $15; five cows, 1036 lbs. $13; 12 cows, 1,100 lbs. $12. R. H. Gaudin, Palo Pinto County, package 528-lb. calves $19.50;

American GIs enjoy fencing lessons at USO center in Naples, Italy from instructor in Italian Army. USO is financed by United Defense Fund through Community Chests or United Funds.

Joy W. White, McCulloch Co., 42 calves at 299 lbs. at $22, Neale Farms, McLennan County, package yearlings 532 lbs. at $18. C. C. Black, Milam County, load of 537-lb. yearlings $18 and load of 620-lb. yearlings $16.

Henry Elder, Tarrant County, 15 calves at 455 lbs. at $22, and eight at 592 lbs. at $20. Millard & Scharbauer Eldson, Lea Co., New Mexico, load canners 721 lbs. at $9; Pitchfork Land & Cattle Co., Dickens Co., load cutters $9.50 and $11, some 1424 lb. bulls at $14.

SHEEP AND LAMB PRICES ARE FIRM

Spring lambs topped at $24 to $25 readily at Fort Worth Monday and were fully steady at those prices. The fair to good kinds of slaughter Spring lambs sold around $18 to $24, and stocker and feeder kinds, and the lower grade killers sold from $12 to $17.

Old crop shorn fat lambs of good and choice kinds sold from $16 to $17.50, and cull, common and medium killers sold from $10 to $15. Feeder yearling wethers sold around $13 to $14 down and some stocker yearlings and ewes of the white-faced kinds drew $15 to $16 and some black-faced kinds ranged up to $17 to $18.

Slaughter ewes sold at $4.50 to $6, and breeder ewes drew $8 to $12, a few to $15. Old bucks drew $4 to $5, some higher to go back to the country. Two-year-olds sold around $12 down and old wethers cashed at $8 to $11.

HOG PRICES OPEN WEEK ALL STEADY

Butcher hogs topped at $26.50 at Fort Worth Monday, steady with last week's close. Less desirable weights and quality sold at $23 to $26.25. Sows cashed at $19 to $22.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN — The therapeutic value of a sun tan probably isn't worth the trouble and risk it takes to get one.

That's the word from the State Health Department. They say a tan is nothing more than a manifestation of a skin injury.

But these same health officials are first to admit that a sensible bask in the sun makes a fine mental pick-me-up. Overdoing it the first week of sunny weather is the thing that leads to trouble.

Sunshine in large doses can kill you. More than one "sunshine sucker" had succumbed to a hot sun when he wasn't accustomed to it. Even at best over-exposure can mean two or three miserable days and sleepless nights when a mere shirt is torture.

Some people are physically unable to tan. Known medically as "heliophobes," they could spend the entire summer in the sun and all they'd get would be blisters on the blisters. The reason is that their skin lacks the pigment necessary to produce the tan tint, and each new exposure means a new burn.

But if you have to have that golden sheen this summer, you can avoid disastrous complications by following these recommendations from Dr. Henry A. Holle, the state health officer.

Assuming you're a type who can tan—a "heliophilic," that is—do it by repeated exposures of, say 5 minutes for the first two or three days. Then increase exposure time to 15 minutes for a couple more days, and then 30 to 45 minutes until you're well done.

After that, you'll probably be safe as far as burning is concerned. But there is still the danger of sun stroke or heat prostration.

Sunshine is a source of vitamin D, as most people know. What they apparently do not know is that ordinarily healthy people can get all the vitamins required is simply by normal living.

Ever wondered about the source of freckles which sometimes spread so becomingly across an upturned female nose? Here's the answer:

The color of everyone's skin is determined by the amount of pigment which is formed by the body as a defense against the sun rays. Dark-complexioned people have considerable, blondes very little, and albinos none at all. Sometimes, especially in children, pigment is unevenly manufactured and collects in spots. These spots are freckles.

WHILE EGGS ARE LOW PRICED, SAVE THEM BY FREEZING

With eggs lower in price now, housewives can save money by freezing them. Frozen eggs will keep in good condition from 9 to 12 months. Eggs are broken out of the shell for freezing.

Yolk and white may be frozen separately, or whole eggs can be stirred to make a uniform mixture. Foods and nutrition specialists of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Service say freeze eggs in quantities to be used at one time.

Stir whole eggs with a fork enough to make a uniform mixture. Do not beat. Strain through a sieve. To one cup of whole eggs, add 1/2 teaspoon of salt according to the kind of recipe in which the eggs will be used.

Yolks frozen alone should be stirred with a fork and strained through sieve. Add to a cup of egg yolks ONE of these—1 tablespoon sugar, 1 tablespoon corn syrup, 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Strain egg whites through a sieve, and freeze without stirring or adding anything.

The trays used for freezing ice cubes make convenient containers for freezing in small amounts. The trays should be lined with cellophane. Frozen eggs may then be forced from the dividers and stored in the freezer.

Thaw at room temperature, in cold running water or in refrigerator. Mix contents of package thoroughly before using. Use thawed eggs within 24 hours. Do not refreeze.

For further information on freezing foods, ask your county extension agent for bulletin B-175—Frozen Foods, or write to the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ford and Mrs. Fred Reddell, Jr., visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Herring in Roswell, N. M., over the week end. Herbert Ford, who also visited there, will leave Saturday for Fort Lewis, Wash., to be assigned for overseas duty.

PESTICIDE OUTLOOK

The overall supply of insecticides, fungicides and weed killers is generally adequate this year. Unless unusually heavy demands are suddenly made for these products, there will be enough for all anticipated requirements.

Early season orders for pesticides were rather slow and manufacturers were not inclined to increase production as much during the past winter as in previous years. This could lead to some problems in distribution in case of epidemic infestations of pests.

If favorable rains came to the cotton belt of Texas and the Southern states in June and July, boll weevil populations might increase quickly to enormous numbers. The situation would be serious if pesticide stocks had been purchased only for usual needs. Manufacturers might have trouble in shipping the chemicals to the danger areas in time to halt the outbreak. However, ample capacity exists for the production of all the major chemicals.

Insect infestations and fungus infections are, to a large extent, dependent on weather conditions and other natural factors. Few of these are predictable to any satisfactory degree.

The diversion of acreage this year to crops other than cotton, wheat and corn may effect pesticide consumption locally but probably will not mean a surplus of chemicals. In the overall picture, weather influences infestations much more than proposed acreage shifts, especially cotton. However, some crops planted on diverted acres will themselves require application of chemicals.

Some growers may use more pesticides per acre on the reduced acreage allotment in an attempt to increase their rate of production. Use of insecticides nearly always results in more cotton, weather permitting. Treated plots sometimes yield as much as 25 per cent more cotton than untreated plots.

Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. S. B. Campsey and Palmer and Mrs. Don Wardlaw attended the graduation exercises of Miss Lou Campsey from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene last Monday.

SUITED FOR SUMMER

Denim is in demand this season for fashions ranging from trim suits to shorts. National Cotton Council fashionists say. Here Stephanie Koret of California uses crease-resistant cotton denim for a classic, figure-flattering suit of many uses. The slim skirt is combined with a knit, striped T-shirt and topped off with a boy jacket.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stancell of A. C. C. in Abilene were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wren Wednesday night of last week.

Mrs. Stella Parramore and Mrs. J. R. Hickman and children of Dallas visited relatives and friends here last Sunday.

HOW TO BE A CHRISTIAN ONLY

Many persons outside the kingdom of God would like to become Christians, but they are confused by many different sects and denominations opposing each other. Let me suggest that you can be a Christian, and only a Christian, nothing more nor less. Here is a simple plan to follow:

1. Acknowledge Christ as your only Lord.

You may be tempted to acknowledge allegiance to many different religious leaders, but pass by them all and come to the feet of Jesus Christ. Confess your faith in him as the son of God; follow him alone. Peter said: And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men, by which we must be saved." (Acts 4:12.)

2. Obey the simple gospel of Christ only.

Paul said of the Church at Rome: But God be thanked, that ye were servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered unto you." (Romans 6:17). These disciples had heard the gospel of Jesus, believed in him, confessed their faith to others, and repenting and had been buried with him in a new life. (Romans 6:3, 4. If you obey the same gospel today you will not be submitting to any ordinance of men, but obeying the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." (2 Thess. 1:8).

3. Maintain your freedom as an undenominational christian.

Those who obeyed the gospel on Pentecost did not divide into opposing sects of parties. The Lord added them to the church of the Kingdom or spiritual body as they obeyed Christ. (Acts 2:47). They continued in the apostles doctrine, fellowship, breaking the bread, and prayer. They accepted no creed but Christ, no rule of faith, but the inspired word of God. So we can today, work together in free, local congregations for the advancement of the cause of Christ.

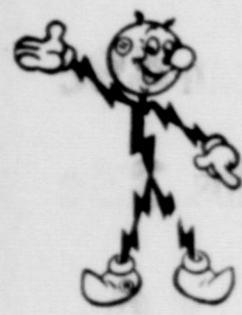

4. Abide in the teaching of Christ only.

Christ was given all authority. His authority is expressed to us through the apostles and the writing of the New Testament. John said: "Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son." (2 John 9). Accept no human opinion or creed. Insist on following the word of God. Study it prayerfully. Live with Christ and love your fellow man for his sake. In this way you can be a christian only, nothing more or less.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Decides His Farming Problems Are Small Compared With Problems Of World

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek takes a look at the world situation this week, and quickly retreats. Can't say we blame him. Dear editor:

Understand, I've got enough problems of my own out here on my Johnson grass farm on the creek to use up all the thinking power I have or ever will have, when a man's crops get in the shape mine are in, the world's problems ordinarily seem pretty little, but I never believe in a man being selfish and devoting all his time to his own problems, so I have been doing some thinking lately on the world problem.

The way I see it is, the world's crops are getting grassy, too, with a poor stand to start with, and there are some people who ain't sure a crop is gonna be made this year.

The trouble is, there's an outfit in Russia worse than all the insects a farmer was ever bothered with, and up to now hasn't anybody figured out the proper insecticide.

It goes like this: they break out say in Korea, and we spend two years tryin' to get em under control, and we finally do, at least we back em up to the fence row and keep a guard posted, and then they break out in Indo-China, and the other day I read where there was indications they are gonna break out in Guaremala, down in South America, which is gettin' even closer to home, and they're spotted all through Europe and Asia.

It's sort of like fightin' gophers by sittin' by the hole waitin' for one to stick his head up and you hit him, another one may come out at a hole a little further over, and down below they're multiplyin' faster than you can get ready.

Ordinarily, you might say the thing to do is root out the head quarters, the source of supply, but these gophers ain't like the prairie kind, they got powers of retaliation to such an extent there might be some question of who was rootin' out who. While maybe we could handle em in the long run, we'd sure suffer a lot in the process.

What to do with them Russians, with their unlimited slave labor producing bombs and airplanes for three sorry meals a day, is more than I can figure out, and the more I read the newspapers the more I discover

J. A.

I ain't by myself. Personally, I'm glad I'm in the farmin' business instead of the statesmanship business. Mine's a snap.

Your faithfully,
J. A.

CHASE AFTER RUNAWAY COLT OFFERS THRILLS

The heroism, stamina and courage of an almost-human horse provides plenty of thrilling moments in M-G-M's new Anisco Color drama, "Gypsy Colt," starring Donna Corcoran, Ward Bond, Frances Dee and the sensational new equine star, Gypsy, on the Roxy Theatre screen Sunday and Monday.

Story of Gipsy's 600-mile trek to return to the home of the mistress from whom he has been separated, the action unfolds with mounting tension and excitement.

Here are some of the adventures encountered by Gypsy as he eludes pursuers on his flight over mountains and desert. He is chased by a posse of riders on motorcycles but outdistances them. In another incident he escapes capture by jumping a wide chasm. Almost dying of thirst in the desert, he is saved by a kindly Mexican boy only to be roped by a trio of cowboys. In the picture's climax the horse makes another escape by a spectacular leap into a river at the bottom of a deep gorge.

CARD OF THANKS

We feel indeed fortunate to be the winner of the 1954 Baby Derby and hereby wish to express our sincere thanks for the many lovely gifts and to the ladies who took time out to solicit them. Our special thanks to Drs. Eiland and Markward, to Nurses Johnston and Edwards, who were on duty at the time of the arrival of our baby. For the many congratulatory messages from all of you who visited us on Hospital Day; also we wish to thank Mrs. Rip Collins and her committee who were responsible for the lovely way the baby's gifts were displayed at the nursery window. Last but not least, to the Knox County Hospital, Miss Sanders and her staff, who made our stay at the hospital a most pleasant one.

—Mrs. Leo Fetsch and baby, LaVerne. 1tc
