Odd Bits Salvaged
at Random

What will a half-inch rain do? For one thing, it will bring a smile to a face that's been looking pretty glum.

k-k

A half-inch isn't much, considering the fact that four or five inches coming just right wouldn't be too much. But some of those faces that had taken on a non-smiling countenance during the prolonged drouth did break into smiles during the week end, when those raindrops began hitting the housetops and fields.

k-k

L. B. Patterson was showing us a magazine last Monday that had some of the weather predictions for February in it. According to the thing, we are due to receive some moisture around the 9th and on some other occasion during the month. Mr. Bert was kinda elated over the prospects.

k-k

We've always felt like we Americans, and especially Texans whom we're one of and know more about than we do Americans of other states, have a tendency to rush the season. In the matter of clothing and wearing apparel, dry goods stores start advertising summer goods in winter, winter goods in summer, etc. We've even had enterprising salesmen to want us to try on an overcoat in August, when we're burning up in a sport shirt.

k-k

Others have taken to the trend. Going down the sidewalk last Monday, we noticed one local firm already displaying lawn mowers and garden hose—and it isn't February, yet. First thing you know Santa Claus will be riding a lawn mower instead of the traditional sleigh!

k-k

We make so many errors of misprints that we have to run corrections, or apologies, about that it's plumb gratifying to find others in a pickle about something that was wrong. This time we have the laugh on some of the Chamber of Commerce directors.

k-k

We were furnished copy for the ad last week welcoming folks to the annual 4-H and F. F. A. livestock show. We were requested, too, to print the names of those who had contributed toward the show's expenses, and said list was furnished us. We checked the list, counted the names, and rechecked, trying to be more than reasonably sure we weren't in error.

k-k

Not too long after the paper had gone into the mails we had another request to check and recheck. Several of the contributor's names had been left out of the ad—and we happily found that said names were not on the list furnished us. Shucks, we nearly busted a hole in our shirt sleeve as we were "laughing up our sleeve" about the matter!

k-k

Another one of the misfortunes of newspapering is running short of help. This we have done this week, when one of our employees decided to seek greener pastures. We were informed of this some three weeks ago, but were unable to avoid the shortage for a while. We have another coming February 6, but until then we must do the best we can.

k-k

As we started trying to find another printer, we took a run over to Seymour one day, not expecting to find one there but feeling that possibly a little sympathy would help that much. "We want to hire a printer or sell a newspaper," we says as we entered the Banner office, "and we don't care much which." We came home without doing either, but we enjoyed the chit-chat with the Banner people.

k-k

We'll likely have less pages than usual this week and next. As if we do, just remember this: If it takes four mules to pull a plow it's kinda hard to pull it with only three—and that's what we're trying to do.

k-k

The person or persons who stole the government rain gauge from the premises of U. S. Weather Observer H. P. Hill early this week may be in a pretty pickle. The instrument is government property, you know. Mr. Hill reported the theft to local officers, who turned the case over to the F.B.I. and you know "they always get their man!"

MUNDAY CHAMPION—This 1,120-pound milked steer was named grand champion of the Munday Knox County show at Munday. The steer, owned and exhibited by Donnie Ryder, 14, Benjamin, at halter, was described by Jack

Bourland, left, of Fort Worth, as one of the best animals he had judged this year. Center is W. J. Bryan, Knox County farm agent, who supervised the feeding of the League Ranch bred steer. (Photo courtesy Abilene Reporter-News)

All exhibitors were treated with a barbecue dinner, served at the school lunch room and sponsored by the Munday Chamber of Commerce. The barbecue and fixings were prepared by Roddy Griffith of Munday.

EVEN A PUNK GETS TAX EXEMPTION

The size of many families poses a problem to agents of the Internal Revenue Service answering taxpayers questions. One agent asked a taxpayer to also enter the name of his youngest child in the exemption section.

Knox County's biggest 4-H and FFA Livestock Show in history was staged here Saturday afternoon in the Winchester barn. In addition to the 180 lambs, an unbelievably large number for Knox County junior exhibitors, the barn was jammed to the rafters with spectators who turned out for the record show.

The show was sponsored by the Munday Chamber of Commerce.

The crowd was equally amazed at the fine quality of livestock the youngsters brought to Munday for the annual county show.

The grand champion steer, exhibited by 14-year-old Donnie Ryder of the Benjamin 4-H Club, was described by Judge Jack Buorland of Swift & Co., Fort Worth, as one of the typeset, best fitted animals he had been privileged to judge in many a day.

The 1,120-pound milked Hereford came from the registered herd on the League Ranch of which Jack Idol is the manager.

Equally as good quality was the reserve champion steer shown by 15-year-old Samuel Garrett, Munday 4-H. But Sam's Hereford was not quite as well finished as was Donnie's. The Garrett calf was from the herd of the late George D. Keith of Wichita Falls.

Both calves were fed under the supervision of W. J. Bryan, Knox County farm agent.

Two Hampshire lambs fought it out for the champion and reserve championship of the big lamb show.

Lester Turner of Fort Worth picked a blocky, well-fitted Hampshire belonging to Lloyd Welch of Gilliland and a Munday FFA boy, as the champion over one shown by Charles Todd of Truscott 4-H Club.

The grand champion barrow of the show belonged to Truman Brown, Benjamin 4-H, and the reserve champion was shown by Robert Elliott, Munday FFA.

Showmen Awards
The showman awards, donated by the Knox County Farm Bureau, went to Charles Todd, of the steer show, which was a hand-tooled show halter; to Sam Pearce of Benjamin FFA in the swine division, a handmade belt; and to Evelyn Garrett, Munday 4-H, also a handmade belt.

The two champion steers are to be shown in the Wichita Falls show opening Feb. 15.

Welch, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Welch of Gilliland, will bring his champion lamb to the Abilene show Feb. 20, Todd, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Todd of Truscott, will show his lambs at Houston and San Angelo.

A CITY WITHOUT A NEWSPAPER

What is it like to live in a city without a regular newspaper?

The people of Detroit know—after a prolonged strike that shut down all three of its dailies. The merchants of the city learned it particularly well—the hard way. They used all the other media to the limit. Some stores put out handbills of their own, to advertise their holiday wares. Yet, though Christmas trade for the country as a whole was well above last year, many Detroit stores did less business. The lack of newspapers was responsible.

Again, the merchants faced a fresh problem at post-holiday sale time. They had bargains and specials to offer as usual—but moving them was another matter, without newspaper advertising space.

The community problems that arise from lack of newspapers are certainly not limited to the big cities. The smaller towns are equally dependent upon the weeklies and dailies that serve them. In the small town, especially, the newspaper is a running record of its history—a thread that constantly touches the lives of all the people who live there. And, despite the newer media, it remains the most effective means of advertising for merchants and others.

Infinitely more important, the newspaper, small or large, is a guardian of our rights and liberties which is always on duty.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

Bellingham, Wash., Herald: "Crawford Greenwalt, president of the duPont company, told a congressional hearing that Uncle Sam took 91 per cent of his $569,000 pay last year. He expressed the fear—citing this example—that high taxes will make it increasingly difficult for young men to enter industry, with a resulting loss in industrial efficiency and consequently, a decline in the nation's economy. There are, of course, relatively few men who turn 91 per cent of their take over to the federal treasury alone. They cast few votes. But the economic issue involved cannot be dismissed lightly."

Hollywood, Fla., Herald: "If union membership is made a condition of employment, it is terrifying to think of the power the unions would wield over the worker himself. If he refused to vote or act in a manner prescribed by the union, it would be a simple matter to lift his union card and thus make it impossible for the offending member to obtain work anywhere."

—SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE TIMES—

FRUITS OF FREE ENTERPRISE

President Hess of the American Medical Association has something interesting to say about the Ford Foundation's half-billion dollar grant to educational institutions.

Some $90,000,000 of it will go to privately supported medical schools. This, Dr. Hess observes, will help these schools immeasurably. Then he adds: "More important is the source from which these funds are derived. They are the fruits of free enterprise and, obviously, contributions of this magnitude from private sources take the pressure off government and help relieve demands for more and higher taxes. This Ford Foundation endowment money will not only help to improve the teaching in medical schools generally, but it will help to maintain and strengthen these schools as top research centers for the benefit of all humanity."

The AMA knows whereof it speaks—it always has recognized the financial needs of the nation's 81 approved medical schools and has played a big role in helping to relieve the burden. And it knows that if these schools are to properly discharge their all-important purposes they must be kept free of the bureaucratic and political influences that would inevitably take over if government paid the bills. It is a healthy sign that more and more commercial companies, as well as funds and foundations, are adopting that view and are giving greater financial support to educational institutions of all kinds.

LISTEN TO OUR FORMER PRESIDENTS

In his memoirs, Harry Truman speaks of the incredibly heavy burden of work that is imposed upon the President. Now Herbert Hoover suggests that Congress create the office of an administrative vice-president, legally empowered to administer many duties of a relatively routine nature that are presently borne by the President.

We should certainly heed the words of our only two living former Presidents. The job, as now constituted, is a potential killer. In addition, it is absolutely impossible for any man to discharge the unnecessarily multitudinous responsibilities of the Presidency efficiently and fully.

Traer, Iowa, Star-Clipper: "The American principle of freedom of opportunity is related to Jesus' parable of the talents. You remember the story of the three men who were given one, two and five talents. The man with but one talent buried his. The other two worked hard and increased their holdings two-fold."

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

ONE BAPTISM

In continuing our thoughts on matters of agreement, we must agree there is ONE BAPTISM. The same apostle, in the same book, the same chapter and the same verse, who declared there is one Lord and one faith, also declared there is one baptism. Do we believe him? If we believe the word of God, we are in agreement. Christ authorized only one baptism. When he gave the great commission, recorded by Matt. chapter 28: 18-20, he declared, "All authority has been given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore and teach all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." We must agree this is the one baptism in water for the remission of sins. If we believe the word of God, we are in agreement. In Acts 2:38, Peter commanded, by the authority of Christ, "Repent and be baptized . . . for the remission of sins." Saul of Tarsus was informed by Christ that he would be told what he must do to be saved. Acts 9:6. According to Acts 22:16, he was told to arise and be baptized and wash away his sins.

We must agree that the one baptism puts one into Christ. If we believe the word of God, we are in agreement. "For ye are all children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized INTO Christ have put on Christ. Gal. 3:26-27. Do we believe this? Then we are in agreement.

There is almost universal agreement upon the fact that baptism is immersion in water. There has never been any measurable doubt or controversy about immersion. There is uniform agreement among all Bible scholars that the word baptize, in New Testament times, meant immerse; that the apostles did immerse, and there was no substitute for immersion during the days of the early church. Most Bible scholars of all denominations, are in agreement that baptism was by immersion only.

But some one may suggest there is disagreement and controversy about baptism because there are many who do not practice immersion. The point is, there is no disagreement on what the Bible teaches about baptism. There is no disagreement about immersion at all. The disagreements are about substitutes—about things not taught in the word of God. As long as we believe the word of God and abide in His Word only, we are in agreement.

The disputations and disagreements, not only on this question, but concerning other matters of faith, have all been about substitutes and not about those things taught in the Word of God. Again, I say: if we believe the Word of God, we are in agreement.

START TAX RECORDS NOW FOR USE NEXT YEAR

There is no time like the present, while last year's tax problems are fresh on your mind, to start a procedure that will aid you with next year's income tax calculations. That is to maintain a record of your income and outgo. Such a record can be simple and brief but it may save you tax dollars.

The average man who works for a wage or salary doesn't have to concern himself about keeping books and records—at least so he thinks. His employer keeps a reliable record of his earnings and Uncle Sam looks primarily to the employer for information on his earnings and for the withholding of various taxes out of his wages.

But whether or not you run a business of your own, you have a partner who each year is claiming a substantial interest in your personal income. And the law requires that you keep books for him in case he ever asks for an accounting.

Perhaps you own your home or are paying it out in installments. It's likely that some day you may sell that house. When you do you will want to be able to prove whether you realized a gain or a loss on that sale. If a gain in capital resulted, it probably will add to your income tax. If a loss was suffered, it probably will reduce your income tax.

You may have made certain capital improvements on the house while you lived in it, but unless you can show what out-of-pocket expense you incurred while making them, you may not get credit for them in your cost basis so as to prove that you had no capital gain or that you had a loss.

Or perhaps you received that little summer cottage on the lake as a gift from your father. If you ever sell it, you should be able to show Uncle Sam not only the cost of improvements you made on it while you owned it, but also what its fair market value was at the

It may be that you are receiving an annuity on an insurance policy. If so, do you know how much that policy costs you and how much of that cost you have recovered tax-free to date?

There are many kinds of transactions you enter into that may some day affect the computation of your personal income tax. The best proof of the cost of anything you've purchased is a receipted bill or canceled check. If one of these pieces of evidence relates to any transaction that may affect your income in later years, it's a good idea to keep it. Your "partner" may some day ask to see it. ## News From The U. S. Congress

Congressman Frank Ikard

Last week the President submitted to Congress the Budget for the fiscal year of 1957 which called for overall expenditures of almost Sixty-Six Billion Dollars. It is interesting to note that the Budget of a year ago requested a little over Sixty-Four Billion Dollars and for the year before about Sixty-Four and One-Half Billion Dollars. In other words, the Budget for next year anticipates an increase in expenditures of over a Billion and One-Half Dollars.

National defense accounts for 64% of the Budget which recommends that Sixteen and One-Half Billion Dollars go to the Air Force, Eight and One-Half Billion to the Army, Nine and One-Half Billion to the Navy, and recommends an increase of Two Hundred Million Dollars in the Atomic Energy Program and also a substantial increase in the amount of money spent in the development and production of guided missiles. The Budget estimates that there will be an average of 2,815,700 in the military on active duty during 1957.

It is estimated that veterans' services and benefits for 1957 will amount to almost Five Billion Dollars which is an increase of Eighty-Six Million over this year. Agriculture is allocated Twelve Million Dollars less in 1957 which is approximately 3.4 Billion Dollars. The major new item in the agriculture program is the soil bank proposal which amounts to Four Hundred Fifty Million Dollars. Commerce and housing are allocated a little over Two Billion Dollars which is a decrease of approximately One Hundred Ten Million Dollars from this year, even though some of the programs in this general category will be increased such as the development of civil aviation, public housing, and disaster insurance. The Budget proposes Three Billion Dollars to be spent under the heading of labor and welfare which is an increase of Two Hundred Million Dollars. Interest on the public debt for next year is estimated at Seven Billion Dollars, and the President requested in his message that the debt limit be continued at Two Hundred Eighty-One Billion Dollars.

The Budget is only the recommendations of the Administration for expenditures during next year. It is highly improbable that every item that is recommended in the Budget will be approved by Congress. In years past, the appropriations made by Congress have been less than the Budget estimates, and it seems that there is a good possibility of that being true this year.

The Budget estimates that there will be a surplus in the Treasury of expenditures at the end of this year of Two Hundred Million Dollars. Other very reliable estimates place the amount of this surplus at a much higher figure, and even though it is too early to tell definitely, it does seem that it is most probable that this surplus will be between One and One-Half and Two Billion Dollars which, if it proves to be true, will allow us to make some realistic payment on the National debt. If we cannot adopt some plan for reduction of the National debt with the National economy running at its present level, then it seems to be doubtful that we will ever be able to make any substantial reduction in it.

Mr. Roy Hixon of Electra was a Washington visitor this week.

GETTING THE MOST OUT OF OUR FOOD DOLLAR

Built-in maid service on our grocery shelves may be a big boon to time-saving for today's housewife, but it has been a big factor in making the food process cost more than the food itself.

Ten years ago the farmer got more than half—53 cents to be exact—of every retail food dollar. Today his share has shrunk to a miserable 39 cents, little more than a third of the total, and 3 cents less than it was only a year ago.

The lion's portion, or 61 cents out of every food dollar, goes to the "middle-men," those who take charge of the foodstuffs after the "preliminary" stage of raising them is completed. And while the service of the middlemen is generally essential in bringing food from the farmer's market to the food store in good condition, his fancy labels often save little time while costing a lot more money.

I doubt that the average housewife can thaw out a package of frozen french-fried potatoes and have them on the table any quicker than if she took a paring knife in hand and went to work. Most women can cut up a potato while the grease is getting hot. Yet this little built-in convenience can cost you more than the potato itself is worth and put the cash conveniently into the middlemen's pocket.

Of course, frozen food processes are the best means we've ever had for enjoying the food we like whether in season or not, and without danger of spoilage. But when the housewife selects a package of in-season vegetables from the frozen food counter, she's not helping herself much, and certainly not the food budget.

The housewife can avoid buying the box and getting the beans thrown in incidentally by sensible marketing. But what about the farmer? Unfortunately, a saving to the housewife is not a saving to the food grower, nor is it a detriment. Any price decline is customarily passed from farmer to housewife.

However, farm prices since November 1954 have declined 10 percent while the middlemen have dropped their prices only 2 percent. This could mean that the price of the food itself is secondary to processing costs. Surely this is being unrealistic.

Recent Congressional legislation provides funds for a mandatory study by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to find out if middlemen are reaping undue profits at the farmers' expense.

If this is even partially true, then we might expect the presently unrelated on-the-farm and in-the-store prices to resolve into more money for the farmers, a reasonable profit to processors and food-handlers, and finally a saving to the consumer.

Don Haynie of Lubbock spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Haynie, Sr.

Miss Janie Haynie was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Richmond and children in Lubbock last Sunday and Monday.

Joe Mack Hill of Lubbock spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hill.

George Salem and Joe Choucair attended market in Dallas the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller of Dallas and L. N. Miller and son, Bobby, of Weston, Mass., were guests of Dr. R. L. Newsom over the week end.

Mrs. Effie Alexander and Mrs. T. G. Bengue were visitors in Dallas the first of this week, and Mrs. Alexander attended market for the Hat Shop.

Miss Ann Elliott And Jerry Johnson Marry In Home Ceremony Last Friday

Miss Ann Elliott became the bride of Jerry Johnson in a double ring ceremony at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Elliott, Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Rev. Jerry Key of Fort Worth, brother-in-law of the groom, officiated before an arch of greenery and white carnations flanked with large baskets of white mums.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Johnson of Perryton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of white lace over taffeta with a bolero jacket. She carried a bouquet of pink rose buds atop a white Bible.

Miss Martha Kay Elliott served her sister as maid of honor. She was attired in a white toffee dress with toffee accessories. Her bouquet was pink carnations. Don Johnson, of Perryton, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home. The party room was decorated in the bride's chosen colors of pink and white. The bride's table was covered in a white cloth centered with the bride's and maid of honor's bouquets. A large crystal bowl with a beautiful arrangement of pink snapdragons adorned the buffet with crystal candelabra holding pink candles on each side.

Miss Stacia Collins presided at the register book and Miss Pat Putnam and Miss Peggy Parks served the cake and punch.

Following a short wedding trip to Wichita Falls the couple returned to Canyon to resume their studies at West Texas State College.

The bride is a 1954 graduate of Munday High School, attended summer school at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls and is now a student at WSTC. The groom is a 1951 graduate of Perryton High School and attended WTSC a year and half before serving two years with the Marines. He is now a junior at WTSC.

The couple have an apartment in Canyon where they will make their home for the school term.

Bobby Bell And Miss Patsy Bristow Marry On Saturday

Bobby Bell of Munday and Miss Patsy Bristow of Rochester were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon, January 21, in Goree with Rev. Walter Hadley, pastor of the Goree Methodist Church, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bristow of Rochester and attended the Rochester schools. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Bell of Munday.

They were attended by Miss Kathryn Bristow, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Billy Wayne Crawford of Seymour as best man.

The couple are making their home in Munday, where Mr. Bell is associated with his father in the Bell Blacksmith and Welding Shop.

Munday H. D. Club Meets Wednesday In Buster Pape Home

Mrs. Buster Pape was hostess to the Munday Home Demonstration Club on the afternoon of the 25th. Mrs. Joe Patterson acted as president in the absence of Mrs. R. M. Almanrode.

Mrs. Patterson also gave the demonstration on "Buying a Slip" which was interesting. This is perhaps a purchase that, too often, is not given enough consideration. Stress was especially given on most desirable fabrics and construction of slips. "Be Label Wise" is a smart shopper's slogan.

Refreshments were served to seven members. New members and visitors are always welcome.

The club will meet February 8 with Mrs. Ralph Weeks, at which time a general review of THDA will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lane and daughters were business visitors in Dallas over the week end.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

The Munday Chamber of Commerce wishes to express appreciation to all who helped in any way to make the Knox County Junior Livestock Show a success. Especially do we thank Sidney Winchester for the use of his cattle barn, and Roddy Griffith, who prepared the food.

Our thanks, too, to all merchants who contributed. The following were omitted from the list last week: Russell Penick Implement, Brown's Humble Station, Munday Lumber Co., Boggs Bros. Furniture, Paddy Shoe Shop and Lone Star Gas Co. 1tc

Magazine Club Gives Program At Study Club Meet

The Haskell Magazine Club, under the direction of Mrs. Jack Pippin, was in charge of the program for the Munday Study Club's January 20th meeting.

Two skits were presented by Mrs. Terry Milam Diggs, Haskell speech teacher, featuring four of her students. Mrs. C. O. Hole had the discussion, "What's New in Medicine," giving a summary of latest developments of treatments and drugs in the medical field. Among the drugs she discussed were the new tranquilizing drugs and their great promise in the treatment of nervous tension.

"Progress Report in Mental Health" was given by Mrs. R. C. Couch, Sr. Her report included comparisons of progress in the United States and Canada and of progress in Texas in relation to other states. Using Kansas as an example, she cited the words of the Menninger Clinic and the state's advancement from 40th to 15th in the nation in treatment of mental illness. She also discussed the Hogg Foundation of the University of Texas to work with the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs to promote a better understanding of mental health and their efforts to bring about changes in the care of mental patients in Texas.

Mrs. L. R. Burkett, president of the Haskell Magazine Club, also attended the meeting.

A coffee honoring the Haskell club women followed the program. Hostesses were Mrs. Earl Hughes, W. O. Raltiff, Lamolne Placklock and W. R. Moore, Jr.

Commercial Feeding Projects Work Well

FORT WORTH—On Monday the farm youth of Waco and McLennan County who participated in the commercial beef project sponsored by the Waco Chamber of Commerce marketed their cattle. The top end of the steers sold at $19, the day's highest beef sale price.

This group shared marketing honors with the commercial lamb feeding youths from Knox County, when these boys sold a string of fat lambs, the top end of them at $18.50, also the day's highest price for lambs was the best in some time at the market.

Chairman Douglas McArthur was accompanied by Ed McKay, County Agent, Don Shelton, assistant county agent; Ralph Russell of the C. of C.; and Jim Simmons, farm service director for the Texas Power & Light Company, in addition to the big group of McLennan County boys who completed this year's Farm to Market Beef Contest with most of them making some money.

Knox County Agent W. J. Bryan had a big group of boys along who saw their lambs sell. Also, looking after the boys were vocational ag instructor Buddy Hedges of Goree; vocational ag instructor E. R. Ponder of Munday; and Roy Alsop, vocational ag instructor from Benjamin. A number of other grownups came along and both groups reported that a number of the dads of the boys had become interested in commercial feeding projects of the type.

Looks like the young ones are teaching the oldsters a few tricks these days!

Most Cattle, Calves Sell Steady Here

Small supplies of cattle and calves sold about steady at Fort Worth Monday except fed steers and yearlings which were weak to 25 or 50 cents lower. Shortfed cattle were off the most.

Comparative prices: Good and choice steers and yearlings $15.50

Christmas Figures

AT CHRISTMAS time each year, thousands of families like to dress up their home exteriors and interiors with yuletide figures, like the Santa Claus and reindeer shown in the illustration.

Because Masonite Tempered Presswood is weather-resistant and can be used year after year, more and more craftsmen are fashioning their Christmas figures of this material. Available at most lumber yards, it should be obtained in either 3/16" or 1/4" thickness.

This splinter-free material takes a beautiful finish of paint or enamel, or ready-painted paper cutouts may be applied with waterproof glue.

A selection of gay patterns, including the one shown, may be obtained free by writing the Home Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., and requesting the folder of Christmas plans. Directions for using them are included.

to 19; common to medium kinds $10-15; fat cows $10.50-12.50; canners and cutters $6.50-10.50; bulls $10-14; good and choice slaughter calves $15.50-18.50, few higher; cull, common and medium grades $10-15; stocker steer calves $18 down; steer yearlings $17.50 down.

Lambs Sharply Higher; Practical Top $18.00

The fat lambs trade was fully 50 cents higher at Fort Worth on Monday. Fat lambs with No. 2 pelts topped at $18 also, and were 50 cents to $1 higher. Pelts of No. 2 length; No. 1 and also full woolled lambs sold from $16.50 to $18 when good and choice, and the Knox County Club boy's commercial lamb experiment crop topped at $18.50.

Cull, common and medium slaughter lambs sold from $13 to $16. Stocker and feeder lambs sold at $14 to $16.50, those at the latter figure bearing No. 3 skins. Several lots of woolled lambs attracted bids up to $17 and $17.50 from feeder interests, but salesmen sold them for slaughter to enable the owners to get his incentive wool payment.

Other classes of sheep were in small supply and fully steady to strong.

First Questionnaires Are Coming In Says Dr. McNeely

First batch of questionnaires sent out as a part of the livestock market analysis being conducted by the USDA, the Texas Agricultural Station and personnel from Texas A & M College are coming in according to word today from Dr. John G. McNeely.

Dr. McNeely says livestock shippers who have received the programs are sending them in at a better than 20% pace and that even a larger percentage will probably come in. This is above average and since this study is designed to help the livestock producer it is hoped that even more will fill them out.

We asked a couple of young fellows to fill out a couple in our studio the other day to see how long it took. It required just 12 minutes and seven seconds.

The questionnaires are accompanied by a letter signed by Dr. McNeely and if you or your neighbors get one, please be sure and fill it out. You are doing yourself a service when you do.

CARD OF THANKS

We are truly grateful to each and every one who helped in any way during our recent sorrow in the death of our mother and grandmother. Especially do we thank you for the flowers and food, those who prepared the food, those who ministers who served and everyone who helped to relieve our burden of sorrow in any way. May God richly bless you.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—State Health Commissioner Henry A. Holle today appealed to Texas parents to have their children vaccinated now as protection against polio this spring and summer.

"The polio seasons starts early in Texas," the Commissioner warned.

"This year, for the first time in history, we have a vaccine against the disease on hand before the Texas season opens in earnest in mid-April."

Dr. Holle said the vaccine's effectiveness to date has been "gratifying."

"Official records show paralytic polio during 1955 struck six times more frequently among unvaccinated children than among those who received prescribed amounts of the vaccine at the proper intervals."

Three shots are said to give a high level of protection against polio; the second shot given one month after the first shot, and the third shot following seven months later.

According to that schedule, all Texas children who received second shots last summer or fall are now ready to have their third shot.

The success of the vaccine was announced April 12, 1955, after exhaustive nationwide studies. But by then countless numbers of children had already been exposed in a rising seasonal incidence. Result: 1955 was pretty much an ordinary year for polio for the nation as a whole, despite the fact that Texas' 1955 season was below the 5-year median.

Too, vaccine was in short supply during those early days, and production difficulties unsettled public confidence in the product.

Both these problems have since been overcome, Dr. Holle pointed out. Supplies are increasing daily, and, concerning production safeguards, "health and medical men agree that the vaccine is as safe as human hands can make it."

JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS WIN OVER GOREE

The Munday Junior High girl cagers toppled Goree 32 to 18 at the local school gym last Thursday afternoon. Margaret Clowdia made 18 of the 32 points with Neva Morgan second with 10 points. Penny Parks, Judy Boggs and Linda Smith rebounded and cross checked their forwards effectively. Top scorer for Goree was Dolores Wallace who sank the ball for 10 points.

CARD OF THANKS

With hearts full of gratitude, we attempt to express our thanks to everyone who were so kind to us in our recent bereavement, in the death of our loved one, Keat Giles. You all were truly wonderful, and we pray God's richest blessings on you all.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Wants His Farm Classified As Foreign Soil So He Can Get In On All Foreign Aid

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek has a unique solution for the farm problem, slanted in his favor, naturally, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

I was sitting out here by the fire the other night reviewing the proposed United States budget, mostly out of curiosity, as I always like to see what one looks like. I don't use one myself out here on this farm, don't have to, the bank budgets me, and I was reading along letting the figures sift through my mind like sand running through your fingers and carrying about the same meaning, when I realized I'd passed a couple of significant figures and went back and checked.

Sure enough, the figures were for farm aid and foreign aid. According to the budget, the government proposes spending nearly five billion dollars on foreign aid this year, and not quite three and a half billion on farm aid.

My neighbors claimed what this proves is that it's cheaper to own foreign land than domestic, you get more aid and don't have to pay taxes, but I don't agree, I'll keep my land in this country.

But I did get to thinking. Understand, I don't know anything about foreign aid, it may be cheaper than fighting a war, although I imagine if you went back far enough you'd find a good many countries we have helped in the past were fighting us in the last two wars at least, and I know we're now helping some of the countries we whipped in the last one, but if the experts in Washington say we ought to spend more than ever on foreign aid, it's not my job to disagree. They may be right.

But I was just wondering. Is there any way part of the surplus farm land in the United States could be classified as foreign soil in order to get in on some of that foreign aid? Couldn't Congress pass a law temporarily designating my farm as say a part of India until the farm crisis passes? I understand to get in on this foreign aid you've got to be backward, use out-of-date farming equipment, look a little run-down at the heels, and indicate a willingness to be friendly toward a hand-out, and I believe I could meet those terms satisfactorily.

Of course I wouldn't want to lose my voting privileges. I don't want to be classified as a foreigner myself, but if it would ease the government's conscience any, it would be all right to classify my farm temporarily as foreign soil and remove it from the tax rolls, and I'll carry on as long as the checks keep coming in.

Heads Dealer Assistance Section

Appointment of Kenneth N. Watkins as manager of the dealer assistance section in the general sales and promotion department of Lone Star Gas Company's General Division of Distribution has been announced by Carl L. Trevitt of Dallas, manager of the sales and promotion department. Watkins will have headquarters in Dallas and his territory includes Munday, Texas, and more than 350 other Texas and Oklahoma cities and towns comprising Lone Star's General Division of Distribution.

Trevitt said the position of manager of the dealer assistance section is being re-established due to increased promotional activity in the dealer, architect-builder and liquefied petroleum gas fields.

Watkins began his career with Lone Star in 1947 as salesman at Wichita Falls and was assigned to special sales work in the Wichita Falls area on January 1, 1949. In May, 1951, he was appointed sales supervisor for the gas company's West Texas distribution territory and stationed at Abilene.

Two years later Watkins became manager of the dealer assistance department and early in 1954, upon reorganization and enlargement of the company's merchandising program, was appointed assistant manager of the sales and promotion department of the General Division under Trevitt. His new appointment became effective January 1.

Watkins served two years with the Army Air Force overseas after attending the Army Intelligence School at Salt Lake City, Utah. He was with the 8th Air Force, 447 Bomb Group, 711 Bomb Squadron and received the President's Citation with two clusters and six battle stars. He attended high school at Waurika, Oklahoma, his birthplace, and attended Draughton's Business College in Wichita Falls. He is married to the former Ethna Ruth Sharp of Commerce.

A good fence, using treated posts and durable wire should last 25 to 30 years, and is an excellent investment.

Political oratory always had a special appeal to me. The most eloquent political speech I ever heard was made by Malcolm R. Patterson of Memphis. He has been governor of Tennessee, winning over the brilliant Edward Ward Carmack in a hard-fought campaign, was nominated for a second term but gave up the nomination in the interest of party harmony and went into political retirement. It was when he attempted a comeback that I heard him as he spoke in his campaign for the U. S. Senate.

He had a ruddy complexion and sandy hair—he could scarcely have been called handsome although he had a good bearing; and his voice was not especially melodious but he played upon the emotions in that speech as young David upon the harp before King Saul. Patterson swept to a climax and I hoped he would stop lest he mar it. But he went on to one still higher, and then to a third, loftier still. Patterson was not elected but that speech lives in my memory as magnificent.

It was in that same old theater on Madison Avenue that I heard Tennessee's most beloved figure, grand old Bob Taylor, speak. With his humor and his fiddle and his eloquence, he won the governorship and the hearts of the people. He died as a U. S. Senator.

In that same theater, I heard Richmond Pearson Hobson, hero of the Spanish-American War who sank the Merrimac in an effort to bottle up the Spanish fleet. He was elected to Congress and, at the time I heard him, he was one of the foremost speakers on behalf of national prohibition. However, the best speech on that occasion was made by Capt. E. T. Fitzhugh, Memphis attorney who introduced him.

And on that same stage where so many make-believe dramas were presented, I heard a speech by a U. S. Senator who afterward served valiantly in the First World War but whose career ended under a cloud, a greater tragedy than any of the mimic ones enacted on the boards.

Whatever happened to coffee cake? And why don't they use some cinnamon in cinnamon rolls anymore?

And I can remember away back when bakers made use of powdered sugar, too.

Largest Selling "8"

the FORD V-8

Just look at these official registration figures for the first 11 months—January through November, 1955

Here's why!

People just naturally go for 8 cylinders in the FORD package!

And to a world record extent! Just think, in the first 11 months of 1955 alone, 344,496 more people bought Ford V-8's than bought the two other low-priced competitive eights combined! They even bought 396,589 more Ford V-8's than the next competitive Six!

Of course, the reason the Ford V-8 is the largest selling eight-cylinder car in the world is that more people like its brand of performance—the kind that comes with the car!

These people aren't amateurs in judging engines. Nearly 24 years of building Ford V-8's to supply their demand is convincing proof of that.

And the Ford V-8 of today is the best yet... by a country mile!

Smoother and quieter—you can scarcely hear it, even with the hood up! Sassier—just ask the highway patrol officer who drives one. He knows it takes a Ford to catch a Ford!

And, for the very practical question of durability—ask a Ford cab driver. He knows how Fords take it days on end.

So, if it's performance that you want—and wrapped like a gift—the '56 Ford V-8 is your baby.

Come in... try it today!
