Two big days are just in the offing. The first to arrive will be Saturday, Juneteenth, and we'll expect very little work from most of the colored folks, who will be celebrating their day.

Then "Pop" comes in to his own Sunday.

The story goes that a mother was responsible for this special day of commemoration for Dad.

Back in 1909, this mother—Mrs. John B. Dodd of Spokane, Washington—was busy washing dishes and looking after a young son when the idea came to her.

She recalled how her father had raised her and five motherless sons on an eastern Washington farm, and it occurred to her that a day set aside for fathers would be a fine day to show her devotion and gratitude for all her dad had done.

A Fathers' day would offer an opportunity to call attention to dad's important place in the home, training the children, safeguarding the marriage ties and protection of womanhood and childhood.

She mentioned it to her minister, then to the Spokane Ministerial Association, and the idea gained momentum.

Mrs. Dodd originally wanted Fathers' Day to be on her father's birthday, June 5, but there wasn't time for the ministers to prepare their sermons.

The third Sunday in June was substituted and has remained the official Father's Day date since 1910.

President Woodrow Wilson had a Father's Day button "pressed" in the White House in 1916, and in 1924, President Calvin Coolidge formally recommended that the day become a regular national observance.

So next Sunday, this observance will be carried on throughout the U. S., as American Dads will be honored by their children.

And as the saying goes: Dad can enjoy his day next Sunday, and probably won't have to pay the bill for his gifts until July 1st.

"It sure was great to arrive in London, England, and find The Munday Times there waiting for us. It's grand to receive news from home when so far away, and after five days on the ocean."

These words, or something similar, were expressed by Herman and Ida Jungman when they arrived home last Sunday from their tour of European countries.

And these words of appreciation, plus the fun we had in toying with the idea, made it well worth the 90 cents it cost us to air mail that issue to London.

We, as did many others, experienced a shock at the news of the sudden passing of George Hammett last Sunday.

George came to Munday about two years before we did and was manager of the Banner Ice Company. He was among the first people we met in Munday.

Our acquaintance ripened into close friendship during the years. We considered George as our close friend, and we know he confided things in us that were not general knowledge.

He wasn't a great man, as we look upon greatness, but he was honest and sincere in his belief, loyal and devoted to his family; he believed in his community, and he was a tireless worker in his lodge. For this, he received practically every honor his local lodge could bestow upon him.

George left friends in this and many other communities who mourn his passing. He was an American.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Harrison of Nocona spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harrison. They went on to Lubbock to visit relatives.

Last Rites For G. B. Hammett Are Held On Tuesday

George B. Hammett, resident of Munday for 17 years, passed away suddenly at 4 p. m. last Sunday at Haskell. Death was attributed to a heart attack. Mr. Hammett had assisted at a funeral that afternoon and had just returned when the attack struck him. He was dead when a physician arrived.

George Basil Hammett was born at DeLeon, Texas on November 17, 1895, and was 58 years, 6 months and 26 days of age. He was married to Miss Mattie Stark on February 7, 1917.

Coming to Munday in 1937, Mr. Hammett served as manager of the Banner Ice Company for several years. He later was employed by the Mahan Funeral Home and Stanley Wardlaw Appliance Company. During recent months Mr. Hammett was employed by the Holden Funeral Home in Haskell.

He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Active in Masonic work, he was a member of Knox Lodge No. 851, AF&AM; Knox Chapter No. 260, RAM, and Knox Council No. 195, R&SM. He was also a member of the Order of Eastern Star and was instrumental in reorganizing the chapter a few years ago.

Hammett held many lodge offices, including worshipful master, district deputy grand master and president of the 91st Masonic District Association.

He was secretary of the local Blue Lodge for a number of years.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Mattie Hammett; a daughter, Miss Marguerite Hammett, who is employed in Abilene; four brothers and two sisters, Leo of Alto Loma, Texas; Lynn, of Kermit; Quincy of Austin and Bob of Pecos; Mrs. W. K. Campbell of Pecos and Mrs. L. J. Hunt of Fort Worth.

Funeral services were held from the First Baptist Church in Munday at ten o'clock Tuesday morning with the pastor, Rev. Huron A. Polnac, officiating.

Pallbearers were Otis Simpson, Joe B. Roberts, Don Wardlaw, Terry Harrison, E. T. Goss of Seymour and Bill Gaither.

Named as honorary pallbearers were M. T. Chamberlain, Brooks Campsey and Dr. D. C. Eiland.

The body was taken overland to Goldthwaite for burial in the Rock Springs Cemetery. McCauley Funeral Home of Munday was in charge of local arrangements. Goldthwaite Lodge was in charge of Masonic rites at the graveside.

Jones Building Being Remodeled For Doctor's Clinic

Remodeling of the C. B. Jones building, formerly occupied by Thomas, Department Store, is getting well under way. The building is being remodeled into a 20-room clinic and office for Dr. D. C. Eiland. Work is expected to be completed within the next few weeks.

Jones, a former Munday merchant, is now retired and living at Mineral Wells. He has owned the building since September 4, 1924.

Dr. Eiland will use some of his present equipment in the new clinic, but has ordered modern fixtures throughout.

Bids Asked For Swimming Pool

This week's issue of The Times is answering a question asked by many local people. "What about our swimming pool?"

Plans and specifications for the swimming pool are now on file in the office of the mayor, City Hall, Munday, Texas, and Mayor M. F. Billingsley has called for sealed bids for the construction of the pool according to these plans.

Bids will be received at the office of Mayor Billingsley until 1 p. m. Monday, July 5th, at which time they will be publicly opened and read. The City of Munday reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Post Office Boxes Can Now Be Rented On Yearly Basis

Postmaster Lee Haymes announced last week that patrons of the U. S. Post Office may now rent boxes for one year in advance, the effective time on June 20. "This is the first time in history that boxes have been available on a yearly rental basis," he said.

You can't pay for a half year, or three quarters of a year, Mr. Haymes stated. Boxes must be rented either on a quarterly or yearly basis.

Mr. Haymes expects quite a number of patrons to pay their box rentals for a full year in advance.

Local People Home From Trip Abroad

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jungman returned home last Saturday afternoon from a two months' vacation trip to several European countries. They sailed from New York aboard the R. M. S. Queen Elizabeth on April 21, and returned aboard the R. M. S. Queen Mary, landing in New York on Tuesday, June 8.

They reported a very interesting and educational trip, but stated they surely were glad to get another view of the Statue of Liberty on their return.

Principal countries visited during the tour were England, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Italy and France. This was an organized tour which included around 30 people.

R. G. LeTourneau, prominent manufacturer and lay preacher, will speak at the regular quarterly meeting of the Haskell Knox Baptist Brotherhood meeting in Haskell on Saturday night, July 10. Sunday morning he will bring the regular worship service message, and that afternoon will address the associational Baptist Youth Rally.

LeTourneau, who spends his weeks ends in preaching the Gospel, has spent four week ends at home in the past seven years.

J. E. Reeves, owner of Reeves Motor Company, announced Tuesday the employment of Joe Massey as service manager for his firm. Mr. Massey began his duties there on Tuesday, June 15.

"Mr. Massey has had many years of experience in the automotive repair and maintenance business in Munday," Mr. Reeves said, "and during these years he has served many of you. We are happy to add him to our service department, knowing that he is anxious to serve in every way possible. This, too, will enable us to give you faster service."

Massey recently resigned as local chief of police, after having served in that capacity for several years. He invites his friends and former customers to visit him when in need of automotive service.

EMMETT THINKS HE'S THE ONLY GRANDPA!

There was quite a commotion on the streets here early Tuesday morning when Emmett Branch came out on the street, waving his arms and hollering: "Shee doo it!"

When he was finally hemmed up at the city hall, quieted down and asked what the trouble was, he said: "Irene has a baby girl!" He thinks he is the only grandson in the world, so now he'll more than likely think no one else had a granddaughter but him. His wife is rather calm about the matter.

The little girl is Jennifer Jean Branch, daughter of Editor and Mrs. J. C. Branch of the Knox County Herald. When she arrived at the Knox County Hospital at 8:02 a. m. June 15, her exact weight was seven pounds, one and three-fourths ounces. Chances are she'll have printer's ink on her before she gets out of the hospital.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCauley of Knox City.

Ninety-one Cars Of Wheat Shipped By Rail From Munday-Goree Area

Reunion Held In Elmer Bruce Home

On Sunday, June 13, the annual reunion of the Castleberry family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bruce, north of Knox City. The following families were present: Walker Castleberry, Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Castleberry, O'Donnel; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Castleberry, Anson; Mrs. Trudie Bruce, Mrs. Ivan Bruce and children, Lee and Robert, of Munday; Mrs. Carl Miller and daughter, Karen, Galena Park; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wooley and sons, David and Donald, Stephenville; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wooley, Stephenville; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morris and son, Keith, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Castleberry, Anson; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shields and children, Susie and Jimmy, Nacona; Mrs. Jimmy Pierce, Benjamin; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bruce and children, Glen, Gary, Ronald and Cheryl, Knox City.

A total of 91 cars of 1954 wheat had been shipped from the Munday-Goree area by noon Tuesday, according to M. H. Dean, local agent for the Burlington Railroad.

Mr. Dean had estimated last week that 100 cars would be shipped from this area, and the total is nearing that mark. This is much less than last year. Dean's records showing that a total of 177 cars were shipped in 1953.

Estimating that the wheat crop is 90 per cent harvested, Mr. Dean stated shipments this year would be far below that of last year. This is due to a great extent to the hail and windstorms which destroyed much of the better wheat in the Groce-Hefner area.

The local agent reported that most of the wheat has been shipped to government storage, which shipments from this section going to Stamford, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth and Holden, Texas.

Funeral For Mrs. Groves Held At Gilliland

She is survived by six children, Bryan Groves of Fort Worth, Mrs. Exsa Massingale of Burnett, Mrs. Frances Myers of Wapato, Wash.; Dannie Groves, Oralie Groves and Jodie Groves, all of Gilliland.

Burial was in the Gilliland cemetery under the direction of Mahan-McCauley Funeral Home.

Clouds Dump More Rain Here

"Scattered thunder showers" which were forecast for this area Monday really came to pass when an angry cloud last Monday evening dumped more moisture on Munday and adjacent territory.

The cloud hung heavily in the north and northwest that afternoon, and the rain hit at about 7 p. m., with considerable wind. No damage was done by the wind, but it caused a number of people to seek storm shelters.

Moisture in the amount of .01 of an inch was recorded in Munday, with another cloud later that night bringing the total to a little over an inch.

A number of farmers had suggested that a shower would do good, but the heavy "shower" Monday might have damaged some of the freshly planted crops.

Postal Workers Hold Banquet At Haskell Monday

Ben Blanton, public relations official with a Wichita Falls publishing firm, was principal speaker at the annual banquet of the Brazos Valley Postal Employees Association at Haskell last Monday night. Blanton spoke on the contributions of Benjamin Franklin to early day postal service.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spain of Haskell. Spain is postmaster there. Invocation was given by Johnnie Britton, Stamford postmaster, and the speaker was introduced by Jeff Graham, Knox City postmaster and president of the Texas chapter of National Association of Postmasters.

The group voted to hold its next meeting, which will be in September, at Goree.

THE PROBLEM OF THE MEDICAL SCHOOLS

There are 79 medical schools in this country. And, because of the mounting cost of medical education, they operate at a deficit of some $10,000,000 a year.

There are two ways by which the deficit can be made up. One is by government subsidy—which would inevitably lead to political domination of medical education, and would be a stepping stone toward socialized medicine itself. The other is by obtaining sufficient support from private business and businessmen to balance the books.

That is the job of the National Fund for Medical Education, which was formed in 1949, largely under the leadership of President Eisenhower when he headed Columbia University. A long list of distinguished citizens constitute its officers and trustees. It works closely with the American Medical Association and the Association of American Medical Colleges. It is now undertaking a nationwide campaign to show the nation how vital it is that the schools be adequately supported. The money obtained goes to fill faculty vacancies, to purchase badly needed equipment and, above all, to introduce new courses based on rapidly multiplying medical discoveries.

American medicine's achievements have been magnificent. During the first half of this century there, medical science has added 15 years to life expectancy. And our medical schools are roots from which some triumphs come.

EQUAL PARTNERS

In past times, it has been the practice to assay the health of the economy with the thermometer of production—the volume of goods and foods which flow from farm and factory.

This still is and will remain vitally important. However, more and more economists are stressing another sort of index, which once was given relatively little attention—consumption, as represented by the volume of retail business.

In other words, the degree of success attained by retailing in its selling efforts has the strongest possible bearing on whether times are good or not good in this country. High production can be maintained only if the goods move off the store shelves and into American homes.

Mass-distribution is mass-production's equal partner.

MILLER, S. D. PRESS: "The Benson idea is to shift more of the responsibility for soil conservation to the states."

WHAT ABOUT PROFIT?

The president of one of our leading oil companies recently had something noteworthy to say about profit.

"Today the American people have new faith in the profit system," he observed. "They recognize out of their own experiences in war and peace, that fair profits make our economic machine go, keep it in good repair and enable us to enlarge it, as the need arises.

"Business—every business, large and small—must bend its every effort to do the best it can profitwise. The more businesses that make profit, the more everybody will benefit.

"Plainly and simply, the activities stirred up by profits from all kinds of businesses have meant, and will continue to mean, better distribution of money throughout the economy in the form of wages, taxes, dividends, new investments. After all, business can't lock the profits away in a strong box—it pumps them back into the life-stream of the economy."

Oil is one outstanding example of the progress that comes from the right to make a profit, and the incentive to achievement that the profit motive creates. Without profit, our much vaunted living and working standards would swiftly decay to the Iron Curtain level.

ONLY CURE

"We could both cure the budget deficit and many of the pains of taxes without lessening our effectiveness in defense or in the needed functions of government if we could now have a period of self-denial and patience."

That observation has come from a real authority, Herbert Hoover, in a talk made before the American Society of Newspaper Editors. The American people never were given sounder or more timely advice. If we are to lay the ghost of inflation and honestly eliminate the danger of eventual national bankruptcy, we must welcome and encourage every effort to cut government costs, including those which hit us directly in our own pocketbooks.

"What this nation and, in fact, the entire world needs, is courage to replace fear, personal initiative to replace paternalism, and venture to replace the frenzied search for security."—Excerpt from New England Letter, published by the First National Bank of Boston.

THE LORD'S PRAYER FOR UNITY

In our saviour's prayer for believers in all ages to come, he said, "Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they also may be one as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one of us, that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." John 17:20-21.)

Christ Died for Unity

The law of Moses was a middle wall of partition to divide Jews and Gentiles, but Christ died to break down this partition and to unite the two people in "one body," Paul said. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us, having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; and that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby. (Ephesians 2:14-16.) Speaking of the Gentiles, he said, "Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd." (John 10:16.) This statement was made before the cross, and was fulfilled under the great commission, when the Gentiles came into the same church or body with the Jews who had obeyed the gospel. "That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel." (Ephesians 3:16.)

Christ Is Not Divided

We should all be one, or united because Christ is not divided. When factions arose in the church at Corinth, Paul said, "Is Christ divided?" (1 Corinthians 1:13.) His argument was that since Christ is not divided, we cannot all follow him and be divided. He is not a divided Christ, leading into different directions, dividing his followers into separate religious groups.

within the time limit but three was considerable trouble and delay, so it took 63 days to drill the well (Afterward, he frequently drilled wells in the East Texas field in 11 days)

But at last the well was completed, an excellent producer. And immediately, Roosth was sued by some parties he had never even heard of!

He and his partner, A. S. Genecov of Tyler had 48 gas wells in the Monroe, La., field and about 80 oil wells in East Texas, of which 50 were at Kilgore when I met him in 1948.

Because they didn't have room for a boiler, they once cleared out an office and put the boiler there while drilling a well.

Roosth bought an office building, cut off enough of the back end to leave room to drill a well. The purchase price of the building is understood to have been $12,000 and the cost of putting down the well was $11,000. The well produced for years and was still worth $60,000.

The partners also owned office buildings and apartment houses in Dallas and other property in various places.

Roosth had seven sons. One was superintendent of the company, another was in the office, three were doctors, one operated the bakery at Tyler and the seventh one was attending college.

Sam Roosth's career is just one more proof that the United States—and especially Texas—is the land of opportunity for all.

News From The U. S. Congress

Congressman Frank Ikard

In a case growing out of the natural gas collecting activities of the Phillips Petroleum Company, the Supreme Court has recently ruled that rates of natural gas producers who sell to interstate pipe lines are subject to regulation and control by the Federal Power Commission. In 1951 the Federal Power Commission had ruled that they did not have jurisdiction in this case; however, they were reversed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals and now by the Supreme Court. As a result of this broad view adopted by the Supreme Court of the legislation involved and the fact that the consideration of oil and gas is inseparable, it seems entirely possible that before long there will be efforts made for the Federal government to regulate the oil industry, too. The only way to prevent this is for Congress to take affirmative action to prevent this from happening and also to prevent the Federal government from controlling the production and sale of natural gas that occurs within a state and is solely intrastate commerce. I am hopeful that such action by Congress can be taken in the very near future.

Like everyone else, I have been very interested in just why the current prices of coffee are so high. From evidence recently collected by a Congressional committee, the indications are that this sudden price increase has been a result of simple supply and demand. The world now is consuming more coffee than is being produced. The evidence seems to indicate that the big jump in coffee prices can be blamed on a little noticed frost that struck coffee producers in Brazil last July which substantially reduced production in that it clipped three million 132-pound bags from the Brazilian exports into the world market. Also contributing to the shortage is the fact that during the depression years many of the Brazilian coffee growers abandoned the raising of coffee because of bad conditions. For example, in 1933 Brazil had 3 billion coffee trees. In 1942 she had only 2 billion, 200 million. During the recent years the coffee consumption in the United States has increased 46%, and in Western Europe consumption has jumped from 5 million bags in 1946 to 10 million in 1953. All of this adds up to a much greater demand in the world for coffee and a considerably shorter supply. The result has been the recent price increases. It seems that there can be little expected in the way of price reductions due to this situation, at least for another year.

FASHION ON THE FARM

It's springtime do a on the farm, and the girls are dressing up in fair weather fashions. This pretty miss dons an outfit she made herself from the cotton bags that brought feed and flour to the farm. Her square dance skirt, made from a lucky horse shoe print, required three cotton feed bags. Her blouse, made from one cambric bag, is trimmed with the horseshoe print.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—Of all the kinds of food on the market today, there is none more important than milk, declares Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer. Milk is the first food of infants and one for which there is no fully satisfactory substitute. It contains a large amount of protein, also calcium, phosphorus and some but not all of the necessary vitamins.

The only drawback to milk is that it is highly susceptible to contamination, and if it is contaminated, disease germs grow readily in it. Dr. Holle says that in order to keep milk safe for human consumption milk sanitations of local and state health departments help Texas milk producers set up standards of cleanliness and freedom from disease organisms. Many cities in the state have adopted the Standard Milk Ordinance sponsored by the Texas State Department of Health. This ordinance requires that milk be graded on the basis of sanitation in production and handling and the bacterial count before it is put on the market. Several Texas cities require that all milk sold must be pasteurized.

Protection from contaminated milk starts on the dairy farm. The barn is a food factory and must be kept clean and free from flies. All utensils must be carefully washed and sterilized immediately after use and stored in a clean place free from dust and flies. Those working in a dairy must practice good personal hygiene.

Grade A pasteurized milk is the best for general use, in view of cost, food value, and freedom from disease producing germs. The Texas State Health Department joins in the observance of June as Dairy Month and urges that consumers use only Grade A pasteurized milk.

THE NEED FOR CHANGE IN FARM PRACTICES

Recent drought-breaking rains in Texas should not be the signal to relax our soil and water saving efforts. Rain today does not guarantee prosperity on the farm tomorrow.

Topsoil can be removed from good land in a few years by careless farming. When our topsoil is gone, the productivity of the land is gone. Subsoil moisture can be wasted even more quickly—in a few short weeks of thoughtless soil neglect.

Yet, every time it rains, many farmers relax just as though there was never going to be another drought. Their attention is diverted by the immediate problems of taxes, high cost of living and public scandals. But there is no greater scandal than the costly waste of our national resources.

The most recent drought again emphasizes the need for changes in land use and farming practices in many parts of Texas. In the states of Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Nebraska and Texas, more than 11 million acres of crop land and about 5 million acres of range land have been damaged by wind erosion this past spring.

Many of the present difficulties arise from the fact that a great deal of poor land in the drier sections of this area has been improperly placed in cultivation during the last 12 or 15 years. In the six-state area, the amount of cropland increased by about 3.6 million acres from 1939 to 1949. Much of this should have been left to grasses.

The plowing up of sod land for cash crops and the soaring land prices were undoubtedly influenced by the favorable weather and high yields of the 1940's and the high prices for wheat and cotton. Then the drought started and the resources were rapidly exhausted.

Emergency tillage programs have been inaugurated but these at best, are only short term measures. A long range program should point toward converting about 8 or 9 million acres of present crop land in the Southwest to permanent grassland where the soil is unsuited for cultivation. For land that is to remain in cultivation, such conservation practices as stubble mulch tillage, cover cropping, strip cropping and terracing for water conservation are necessary.

Mrs. Clarice Mitchell and Annette visited her sister, Mrs. Leslie Tremmter, and family in Arlington several days this week.

GRASS CATTLE MOVE IN LARGER NUMBERS
FORT WORTH—The increased tempo of the movement of grass cattle to market in the Southwest resulted in some weakness on most kinds at Fort Worth Monday.

The cattle offerings included large numbers of cows and grassy steer and heifer yearlings of the plain or common quality. However, the cow market withstood some effort on the part of the buyers to lower prices. Mature steers were fully steady to strong.

Virtually all slaughter and shipper interests appeared in need of some numbers, and local packers were stepping up their killing floor activity to near peak levels. This broadening of demand resulted in mostly steady market on cows. Bulls were weaker, some sales 25 to 50c lower. Grassy yearlings and heifers drew weak to 50c lower rates.

Calves continued under heavy pressure and sold weak to 50c lower along with most of the stockers and feeders.

Included in the sales were a load of 1,067-lb. cows at $14.50, and two loads of 938-lb. cows at $12.50 from the Tom Burnett Cattle Co., Foard County; and two loads of well finished yearlings at 860 lbs. at $22 from Geo. M. Lee, of Briscoe County. Kirk Edwards of Clay County marketed 19 fancy heiferish cows that averaged 1,079 at $15.50, these appeared to be the kind of cows that would dress out exceptionally high in the beef. Calvin Brannen, Gregg County, had some $10 and $14 cows, and some $18.50 calves. N. Burnett, Greenville, sold 175 fancy feeder calves with the steers at $22.50 and heifers at $20. Most of the better stocker calves sold around 321 down. Fat calves $20.50 down.

F. C. Bloodworth, Jack County, had some 482-lb. calves at $20, a bull at $14.25, and some cleanup cows from $8 to $12.25. J. W. Benle & Son, Kaufman County, had some cows at $9, $10.25 and $14. Raymond W. Castleman of Kaufman County, marketed some heavy calves at $14, $17 and $18.50.

HOGS LOWEST SINCE FIRST OF JANUARY

Hogs topped at $24.50 to $24.75 at Fort Worth Monday, and this represented the lowest market top since the first week of January. This price was 25 to 50c under last week's close. Sows sold 50c to $1.00 lower and at largely $16 to $19.

Wholesale meat reports indicated considerable consumer resistance to pork prices, and some section of the country sweltering in the first real blast of Summer heat were apparently eating less pork.

Wholesale pork prices swung in a dizzy range of from $2 high to as much as $6 lower during the preceding week, and the packers reported local factors at all points were governing the trade and made it virtually impossible to get the picture in focus on a national or even regional basis because of that.

SHEEP, LAMBS STRONGER TO THE PACKER BUYERS

Fat Spring lambs were steady to strong at Fort Worth Monday, some sales appeared measurably higher due to more lenient sorting. Some old muttons sold strong to 50c higher, with some aged wethers up to $11.50 representing the full extent of the advance. Feeder type yearling lambs and good breeder ewes sold steady, but Spring feeder lambs were dull and weak to $1 lower.

Top milk fat lambs on Monday drew $21 to $22, and shorn fat yearling lambs sold from $15 down. Shorn feeder yearling lambs sold from $14 down, and new crop feeder Spring lambs sold mostly around $14 down.

Old slaughters ewes drey $5 to $6, old wethers drew $8 to $11.50. Old bucks cashed at $4 to $5. Cull lambs drew $10 to $11.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy B. Jennings and daughter visited relatives in Borger during the week end. His niece, Miss Shirley Followill, returned home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Campsey visited her brother, Cecil Barton, who is seriously ill in the Odessa Hospital, during the week end.

Vera Juniors And Seniors Make Trip To Colorado Springs

By Betty Jo Townsend and Virginia Jackson
On Saturday, May 22, the Vera junior and senior classes left the school building at 4:20 a. m. for Colorado Springs, Colorado. We ate a picnic lunch at Dumas.

Our first point of interest was Wilson's Museum at Texline. Some of the more interesting features in the museum were mounted animals, various types of rocks and appliances of the pioneer home. We ended our first day's journey at Rotan, N. M., where entertainment for the night was a movie.

We drove into rain as we crossed the Colorado state line at 1:30 Sunday. After a few hours of refreshing, we attended evening services at the Bethany Baptist Church.

On Monday, we visited the Garden of the Gods, made a trip through the Cave of the Winds, toured Colorado Springs, and ice skated that night in the Ice Palace of the Broadmore Hotel.

Tuesday morning, we took a Cadillac tour upon Pike's Peak, where we were in five inches of snow. In the evening we went horseback riding to other points of interest in the Garden of the Gods.

Wednesday morning, we left Colorado Springs and went to Canon City, where we visited the state prison. That afternoon we visited the Royal Gorge, and went to the bottom of the gorge on the incline railroad. We spent the night in LaJunta, where we attended a movie.

Thursday morning we toured the city and went through Pioneer Museum, then drove to Amarillo where we spent the night. We reached home Friday, May 29, at 2:30 p. m.

All agreed that we had a delightful trip, one that was educational, as well as recreational, and one we shall never forget.

Neither will we forget the merchants who advertised in our annual, or anyone else who helped in any way to make our trip possible. We wish to thank our class sponsor, Mrs. Tom Bowdoin, who helped us throughout the year; the bus driver, Lee Feemster, and his wife; the room mothers, Mrs. Buster Jackson and Mrs. Edd Trainham, and Supt. and Mrs.

Searchlight On TB Is Slated For 12-County Meeting

An invitation labeled "very special" is extended through this newspaper by Mrs. W. R. Shirk, Regional Chairman for Area No. 3, "Searchlight on TB", to the residents of Knox County to attend a 12-county organizational meeting in Wichita Falls on Tuesday, June 29. The Assembly Room of the Wichita General Hospital has been preferred as the meeting place by Paul H. Ahlstedt, Hospital Administrator, because of ample, free parking facilities and accessibility from all directions of travel into Wichita Falls. Scheduled for 1:30 p. m., the business will be concluded by 4:00 o'clock.

Emphasizing that this is not a fund raising drive but a fact finding survey on tuberculosis, Mrs. Shirk stated that the inaugural meeting, delegations from the 12 Searchlight Area 3 counties will be given complete instructions and an Operation Kit to use as a guide in conducting their surveys. Counties in this district are: Archer, Baylor, Clay, Foard, Hardeman, Haskell, Knox, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger and Young.

"Because tuberculosis is contagious, plus the fact that the victim usually experiences no symptom to warn of the presence of the disease in its early stages—when it should be detected for early recovery—TB control becomes a community responsibility. This is true not only to protect affected families and close associates of the patient, but to prevent the chain of infection from reaching out into the entire community," Mrs. Shirk points out.

Mrs. Joella Terrill Butler, President of the Texas Tuberculosis Association, in approving the "Searchlight" plan announces that "it is high time for Texans to band together to fight back at tuberculosis with coordinated efforts, concrete information and a unified plan of action."

See You In Church Sunday

MRS. KEITH CHAMBERLAIN

Keith Chamberlain And Barbara Fields Marry On Saturday

A ceremony at 6 p. m. Saturday was performed to unite in marriage Miss Barbara Gail Fields of Munday and Keith Chamberlain of Goree. Close friends and relatives of the pair witnessed the service which took place in the home of the bride's mother, Rev. Huron A. Polnac, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Munday, performed the double ring ceremony. Roses and seasonal flowers provided the background for the nuptial area.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Leborn Fields, wore a white street length dress with rounded neckline encircled with rhinestones. She wore a matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was a single white orchid. For something old and borrowed she carried a white handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Wendel Walsh, for something blue her garters, something new was a string of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Mrs. Bobby Barton of Pecos, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Charles Gaither of Goree was best man. Mrs. Chamberlain is the daughter of Mrs. Dessie Fields of Munday and attended the Munday schools where she was active in sports and played the clarinet in the High School band. She is classified as a sophomore in high school.

Mr. Chamberlain is the son of Mrs. Etta Chamberlain of Goree. He has attended the Goree schools and is a member of the senior class for the Fall semester.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception in the home of the bride's mother. The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of yellow roses. Miss Diana Hobert presided at the punch service and the tiered cake was cut by Miss Patsy Lane.

Included in the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Barton, Cheryl and Scotty, of Pecos.

When the couple left for the wedding trip Mrs. Chamberlain was wearing a blue suit with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain will reside at Goree in the Lawson apartment.

How to Plumb Panel
IN PUTTING up panel walls, it's important that the panels are perfectly vertical, or plumb, as the carpenters would say. A plumb, sometimes also known as a plumb bob, may be purchased at the hardware store, but a fairly accurate one can be made by using a tape rule, according to American Builder.

As illustrated, pull the rule partly out of its case and place a small nail through the rivet hole. Now drive the nail partly into the piece to be plumbed. The tape will hang free and its case will act as a plumb bob. Make the panel parallel with the tape, and it will be plumb.

WHEAT HARVEST REALLY BEGINS BEFORE COMBINES BEGIN TO ROLL

Wheat harvest really begins before the combines roll to the field.

The first step, says Fred T. Dines, wheat marketing specialist, is to rid all storage facilities of possible sources of weevil, rodent or bird infestation. Progressive farmers attend to these jobs now before the new crop is harvested.

Even a handful of wheat left over from last year may harbor enough weevils to spread quickly into a serious infestation.

With the emphasis this year on storage, Dines recommends that bins be thoroughly cleaned to remove all bits of grain and dust from corners and cracks. Then the walls and floors should be sprayed with an effective residual insecticide.

Let the pre-harvest clean-up extend beyond the storage bin, however. Feed rooms, small pockets of wheat left in machinery and spilled grain are common "hot spots".

Check for leaks and openings through which moisture may enter. A metal flashing around foundations and over holes serves as an effective rat proofing. Dines says lumber and trash piles which may harbor rodents should be cleaned up. Traps will help catch rats which are present.

Wettable powers of DDT or methoxychlor at two and a half per cent concentration are recommended bin sprays. Another effective spray calls for five-tenths per cent pyrethrin or allethrin emulsion. Both are applied at rates of two gallons per 1,000 square feet of surface.

KITCHEN KOMMENT

Sliced fingers can be prevented when paring vegetables if a piece of adhesive tape is placed on the thumb before starting.

Nothing is more important in home laundering than rinsing. Soapsuds must be out. Soap causes white garments to yellow, as well as to become dingy and blue.

Serve broiled tomato halves and rounds of onions with broiled lamb chops. Dribble melted margarine over both vegetables. Then sprinkle the tomatoes with a little crushed basil and the onions with a bit of brown sugar.

Homemakers can recover kitchen chairs and other casual furniture colorfully and economically with ordinary bath towels.

REUNION PARADE IN STAMFORD WILL FEATURE COWBOYS

STAMFORD — Cowboys and horses are the outstanding features of the spectacular downtown parade which will usher in the annual Texas Cowboy Reunion in Stamford, Thursday, July 1. Visiting dignitaries may ride in cars in parades elsewhere but here they are in the saddle as are the lovely cowgirl sponsors in their beautiful costumes.

Among the several hundred riders will be a goodly number of old-time cowboys. L. E. Adams, 93, of Stamford, has never missed a parade and is expected to take part this year. G. L. English, retired newspaper publisher, and his daughter, Mrs. Sarah McDonald, are always passengers in the stage coach. There will also be chuck wagons and buggies, at least half a dozen bands, unique cars, boys' bicycle brigade and elaborate organizational and commercial floats.

But the horse will be king for the day and the riders will include the rodeo contestants and many other actual cowboys, just arrived from the ranches, as well as the junior cowboys and cowgirls.

A. C. Humphrey, general parade chairman, announces there will be cash prizes for ranching and individual entries, junior cowboys and cowgirls and for the two divisions of floats. Starting time of the parade will be at 5 p. m., a change from previous years, and the participants will begin assembling two hours ahead of time. There will be five rodeo performances, one every night and a matinee on the last day. Dates are July 1, 2, 3, 5.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Denies Key To Peace Held By The Average Man, At Least He Sure Hasn't Got It

J. A.

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek seems a little riled up this week. He'll get over it.

Dear editor:
I was fiddlin with my radio the other night tryin to get a weather report, you can't always depend on a weather report, but when a man needs a rain a rain forecast is better than nothing, when I accidentally turned in a speech somebody was making, I never did catch his name, but I was interested in what he said.

Accordin to him, "the average man is the key to peace in the world."

Now first off I'd like to say I have never met an average man but I think I know what a speaker means by the phrase, it's people like you and me, especially me, and for that reason I would like to disagree violently with anybody who says I'm the key to peace in the world. I don't have a thing to do with it.

All the wars I can remember, I didn't even know what was happening till I read about it in the papers, and all the armistices I can remember, I didn't know was signed till I read about that too. They can't pin it on me.

You take the present trouble in Indo-China. Why, in the last fifteen or twenty years I don't guess I've spent fifteen seconds thinking about that country, don't even know which direction it is from here, and anybody who is dependin on me to bring about peace over there has sure got his head in the clouds and his foot in his mouth at the same time. If I ever had the key to peace in Indo-China, I blamed sure have misplaced it. I've gone through my brain and my pants' pockets, too, and it ain't here.

Maybe in the Revolutionary War the average man had something to do with it, maybe in the Civil War, when a man with a single shot rifle was as well armed as anybody else, but nowadays it's the men who control the bombs and the airplanes that have the key, and I ain't got a bomb or an airplane to my name.

I am afraid that the big shots cause wars, not little shots, and I decline the honor of the responsibility.

I'm sure in favor of peace, I've got more than I can do fightin insects, not to mention somebody on the other side of the world I don't even know their last names, and if the world is looking to me to solve its problems, it had better lay in some more headache powder.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Povlicek and children, Ricky and Belinda, of Fort Worth visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bellinghausen and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Povlicek, Sr., of Bomarton, over the week end.

Brighten the Laundry

ANY laundry room can look as modern as the kitchen, even though it's tucked away in a basement. Covering the stationary tubs is a good start toward improving the home laundry.

For convenience, a table-and-cabinet on wheels can be built to cover the tubs when they are not in use. On wash-day, the table simply is moved away and used for a sorting table. Easily constructed of lumber and covered with long-wearing Masonite Tempered Preadwood, this combination in itself will make a great improvement in the laundry's appearance.

An exposed water heater can be covered in a similar manner. As illustrated, it is located in the corner, next to the tubs. For ventilation, use a small Masonite "Peg-Board" panel. A door in one side of the heater cabinet hides a fold-down ironing board, and there's a shelf, too, for laundry supplies.

The entire cabinet may be moved out readily if heater repairs are required.

The wheel-out table may be seen at the right in the illustration.

To brighten the drab walls, furnish them with lumber and apply panels of an all-wood, easily painted and long-wearing material, Masonite Tempered Preadwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Myers of Lubbock visited relatives here over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Montandin of Tulla were Sunday guests of Miss Tennie Montandon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lemley and Miss Joy Lemley were Sunday guests in the home of M. and Mrs. John Lemley in Wichita Falls.
