BEST ON RECORD

As 1954 approached its end, the Metropolitan Insurance Company, which compiles elaborate statistical studies of health, stated that the "health of the American people has been the best on record."

In reporting the findings, Newsweek said that during the first 11 months of the year the tuberculosis death rate dropped 20 per cent over 1953, and that from influenza and pneumonia 25 per cent. Slight reductions were recorded for heart, artery, and kidney conditions. And the death rate was also lower for diabetes.

There were 50 per cent more cases of measles and whooping-cough than in 1953. But the death rates were very low.

The point of all this is that the health of the people gets steadily better—and the average life expectancy gets steadily longer. Over a period of years, the gains have been spectacular. And there is hope that medical science may be on the verge of subduing killers which are now thoroughly understood, such as cancer.

Such progress is of enormous importance to everyone—our lives are literally at stake. And it is important that the facts be made known as widely as possible—for those who favor socialized medicine or some variant thereof have, deliberately or not, tried to make it appear we get inadequate medical care, and that government intervention provides the only answer.

In no other major nation are the health standards as high as in ours. That is an achievement of free medicine—not politically-bossed medicine.

SHOCKING STATISTICS

Coal production figures for 1954 should "shock even those who are most apathetic about the national security." That grim observation was made by an officer of the National Coal Association. The facts certainly back him up.

Last year's coal production was only about 390,000,000 tons—the lowest since 1939. That is at least 100,000,000 tons under the level of productive capacity we would need, and in a hurry, should another war emergency arise. From 1939 until 1944 our coal requirements increased 57 per cent.

It can't be argued that all we would need to do would be to open up the mines again and send production soaring. Most mines which are closed for any length of time fill with water, which invites corrosion. Many months are needed to get rid of the water and to take the other steps which are required in resuming operation. Then, in this mechanized age coal miners are skilled craftsmen. Under present conditions, armies of miners have left the coal fields to seek jobs elsewhere. An experienced and competent labor force can't be reassembled overnight.

So here's one more compelling reason why coal's problems are the nation's problems.

ATMOSPHERE ISN'T EVERYTHING

The atmosphere of the past is subject to constant change—whether we like it or not.

Long ago the old fashioned general store of cracker barrel fame gave way to competition, service and sanitation. We lost something in the process. At its peak the general store was virtually a community hall. But the consumer was pretty much at the mercy of such stores both in service and in prices as they were near monopolies. In most cases they remained that way until competition forced a change. Today the consumer can choose a retailer who offers him the most in variety, price, or service.

We no longer shop leisurely. We are accustomed to entering a modern store, finding what we want and leaving. Most of us would be impatient if we had to wait for the proprietor to finish as "host" to a customer ahead of us. The stocks of goods carried in stores of another age would seem totally inadequate today. The relaxed atmosphere of the old-time general store is gone, but few would care to return to its ways. We move at a more rapid pace, and retailing is geared to it.

THERE AREN'T ENOUGH RICH

Does anybody still believe that we can maintain the government by soaking the rich, as old-time agitators used to claim?

Well here is what the Tax Foundation has come to say about that. If the federal government took 100 per cent of everybody's taxable income above $10,000, the gain in revenue would be less than $5,000,000,000—which would't pay government's costs for a single month.

If it took all taxable income above $4,000—a figure which is certainly a far cry from riches these days—the Treasury would benefit to the tune of $13,000,000,000. But that's only one-fifth of our current annual federal spending.

There just aren't enough rich or well-to-do people to meet the costs. So the burden of government is borne by the masses of people and always will be.

GOD'S COMMANDMENTS

We can always find the blessings of the Lord in his own appointments, we never find in our own. When the Lord commands us to do a thing, we should do it because it is God's appointment. Obedience to divine requirements will secure for us the blessings that God has attached to them. The same is true of divine penalties. When God attaches a curse to a commandment for disobeying it, the exact penalty will be suffered by those who violate the law.

It is like sowing and reaping. Paul says, "Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth in the flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth of the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting." Gal. 6:7-8. Farmers never sow one thing and reap something else. They always reap what they sow. No one ever sowed wheat, but at harvest time reaped oats instead of wheat. Wheat always produces wheat and oats always produces oats.

Now this is true of obedience and disobedience. It is just like sowing and reaping. Obedience always brings the blessings God has promised, and disobedience never fails to bring the curse of God attached to the law. Obedience never brings a curse and disobedience never brings a blessing. In the garden of Eden Adam and Eve were blessed while they obeyed God's law. When they were tempted to eat of the forbidden fruit, they disobeyed God's commandment, and suffered the penalty of death for disobedience.

And here is something to think about. Obedience to a commandment of God always accomplishes whatever God has attached to it although there may be no logical connection between the thing commanded and the end to be gained. At the command of God the rod of Moses separated the waters of the Red Sea, turned rivers into blood, and filled the land with darkness. There was nothing in the rod to accomplish such results. The power was in the appointment of God.

God commands faith, repentance, confession, and then baptism for the remission of sins. (Mk. 16:16; Acts 17:30; Matt. 10:32-33; Acts 2:38.) We can see nothing in water to wash away sins, but by the appointment of God, it will accomplish what the Lord attaches to it.

More impressions of Eureka Springs, Ark., visited in 1925:

The water of some of the springs possessed medicinal qualities. One was supposed to be good for one serious ailment, another for something else. But, unlike most such springs, the water was natural tasting.

And the citizens could point to substantial forms of evidence supporting the beneficial qualities of the waters. For instance, they told me that W. H. Reid, a Chicago banker, was so improved from drinking some of the water that, out of gratitude, he built the high school and donated it to the city.

Another structure that was erected for a different reason stirred one's imagination. It was a chapel. Richard Kerens, a wealthy American who was former ambassador to Hungary, and his mother were visiting in Eureka Springs. One afternoon, she set out for a carriage ride and, as she passed a point that overlooked the road, she saw her son standing there waving at him. During the drive, she was stricken with a heart attack and died. Mr. Kerens, in memory of his mother, built a chapel, now the St. Elizabeth Church, at the point where he had been standing when they waved goodbye to each other.

It isn't difficult to understand one half of the name of Eureka Springs—we've seen there are plenty of springs. But what does the first half mean? It is reported that when the Greek scientist, Archimedes made a long-sought discovery, he ran out in the street, shouting, "Eureka." (I have found it!)

And now the reason for calling the town Eureka—at least so the citizens say. It is the most remarkable thing about the town.

All of us have heard all our lives of the "fountain of eternal youth" that the Spanish explorer, DeLeon roamed far and gave his life in a vain effort to find.

Well, citizens of the Ozark town assert that the fountain which DeLeon was seeking is in Eureka Springs—that it is a very large one, known as the Grand Basin.

Of course, they do not claim that one who bathes in it will shed his years and become a youth again but they assert that it waters are highly beneficial. What is the proof for this intriguing claim?

Well, sir, every year since the oldest native can remember, Indians have come to Eureka Springs to partake of the waters of the Grand Basin Spring. When questioned, they reply that it is in keeping with a tradition that has been handed down in their tribe for many, many moons. There is a vague legend that, centuries ago, the daughter of a chief was dying of some unknown malady and, chancing to bathe in the waters of the Grand Basin, was miraculously recovered.

This, and many other stories that were repeated by the In-

Your 1954 Income Tax

No. 2

WHICH FORM SHOULD YOU USE

The Three Types of Returns—

In an effort to fit the tax returns to the needs of the more than 50,000,000 persons who must file them, three types of returns have been provided: Form 1040A, Short-form 1040, and Long-Form 1040.

The law expects you to pay your correct tax—no more, no less.

It will pay you to think for a moment which is the best form in your case. To do this, you should consider the size of your income, the source of your income, and the amount of your non-business deductions such as medical expense, contributions, interest, taxes, and child care expenses. The tax table used in computing the tax on Form 1040A and on the Short-Form 1040 automatically allows you approximately 10 per cent of your income to cover non-business deductions.

Income Less Than $5,000—

1. The FORM 1040A is the simplest return of the three. If you file this return, you do not need to figure your tax. Just fill in a few blanks, answer a few simple questions, sign it, and send it in to your local District Director of Internal Revenue, together with the original of your withholding statements (Form W-2) furnished by your employer. The Internal Revenue Service will figure your tax for you and send you bill or refund. You may use the Form 1040A if your total gross income was less than $5,000 and consisted entirely of wages reported on withholding statement and not more than $100.00 total of other wages, dividends and interest. You may not use Form 1040A, but must use Form 1040 if (1) you had income from other sources such as annuities, rents, royalties, a business or profession, farming, transactions in securities or other property, partnerships, estates and trusts, or (2) you are a married person filing a separated return in a community property state, or (3) you claim the status of head of household or surviving widow or widower, or (4) you wish to claim credit for dividends received or retirement income, or (5) you wish to deduct travel or reimbursed expenses from your wages.

2. FORM 1040 may be used as a short form or as a long form. The short form is simpler than the long form. It differs from Form 1040A in that (a) you must find your own tax. (b) you must include income from sources not eligible for reporting on Form 1040 A. (c) you may deduct from your wages certain reimbursed expenses, travel, transportation, and outside salesman's business expenses, and (d) you may deduct from your tax the credits for dividends and retirement income. Therefore, if your income was less than $5,000 and your non-business deductions were less than 10 per cent of your income, find your tax from the tax table on the back of the instructions accompanying your Form 1040, enter the amount in Item 7, Page 1 of the return.

3. Long-Form 1040—If your non-business deductions are more than 10 per cent of your income, you will ordinarily save money by itemizing your deductions on Long-Form 1040. You will then figure your tax according to the computation on Page 3 of the return. If your non-business deductions are so close to 10 per cent that you are in doubt which is the better form, try both the long form and the short form to make sure.

With Income of $5,000 or More—

If your income was $5,000.00 or more, you must use Long-Form 1040 in preparing your 1954 income tax return. However, in that case, you can either take a standard deduction or itemize and claim your actual deductions. You should compare your actual deductions with the amount the standard deduction allows you. If actual deductions exceed the standard deduction, you will save tax by electing to itemize them. If you are single, or if you are married and file a joint return, the standard deduction is 10 per cent of your adjusted income but not more than $1,000. If husband and wife file separate returns and each had income of $5,000 or more, the standards deduction is a flat $500 for each.

The Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of the Baylor-Knox Association met at the Vera Baptist Church Thursday, January 22, observing the Diamond Jubilee of Woman's Missionary Union in Texas. The session began at 10:00 A. M. with Mrs. Loyd Jones, president, of Seymour, presiding. Mrs. La Rue Reeves of Gilliland was in charge of the program for the day which was highlighted by a pageant depicting the beginning of missionary work among Baptist women in Texas, seventy-five years ago. The pageant was given in three parts beginning with a scene showing women in late eighteenth century costume representing the women's prayer meeting from which this great movement stemmed. The second part concerned the history of Woman's Missionary Union in District Eleven and honored all women present who have served as district officers. The final part of the pageant gave interesting information about the work of mission-minded women in the Association, and honored past and present Association officers. The reader for the pageant was Mrs. Pete Cooper of Seymour. The pageant was preceded by a vocal solo given by Mrs. Pat Young of Seymour, and prayer. Following the pageant, reports were given by local society president of the work being done in each of the churches in the Association. The program for the morning was concluded by an inspiring address given by Mrs. Overton Neal of Quanah, who is the president of the District Woman's Missionary Union.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Smith visited with Mr. Smith's brother, who suffered a heart ailment, in San Angelo over the week end.

NEW COTTON INSECTICIDES

Two new experimental insecticides for possible use on cotton are showing good promise in tests being performed in Texas at present.

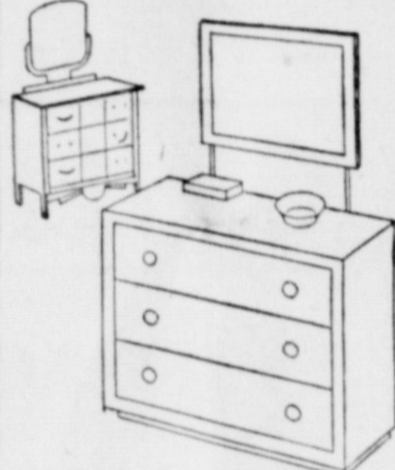

The organic phosphorus chemicals have proved deadly to the boll weevil, pink bollworm, cotton aphid, spider mites, cotton leafworms, flower thrips and cotton flea hoppers in control tests. Conclusive evidence is still being sought but tentative results are excellent.

Chemically the materials are: (1) benzol triazine derivative of a dithio phosphoric acid ethyl ester, and (2) equally impressive, is a benzol triazine derivative of a dithio phosphoric acid methyl ester. The first has been designated as 16259 and the second 17147.

Freshen Old Furniture
MUCH old furniture still is useful, but its appearance is against it. Yet, it's too good to give away and not old enough to be considered antique. What can be done? A bit of ingenuity and effort will transform an old dresser into a thing of modern beauty — and at small cost. Note the "before and after" sketches of the same dresser. There's quite a change!

In general, removal of the gingerbread from the dresser is the first step in the renovation. A recessed wood base, instead of legs, does much to modernize the piece. Most likely, the top has been scarred. Easiest cure is the addition of a panel of Masonite Tempered Presdwood, 1/2" thick. This then may be primed and painted. Alternates might be black Presdwood, or Leatherwood, a textured hardboard. One of the gay plastic-surfaced hardboards would be suitable, too, as they are resistant to stains and cigarette burns. Various colors and patterns in Marlite are available. Matching material, if needed, may be used to re-cover dingy-looking drawer fronts. Standard 1/2" Presdwood is excellent for replacing cracked drawer bottoms and dresser backs.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

A Winner Every Time!

Last Friday at our big basketball game with Centerville I sat next to a fine-looking old man. Centerville had things their way the first half — and he cheered every score they made.

But our boys began to catch up. Then Stretch Brown put us in the lead with a long set shot, —and I noticed that the old fellow was now rooting for our side. "What team are you for, anyway?" I demanded.

"Neither," he replied. "I've got my own team. I figure any kid that does a good job out there is on my team. Root for the individual like I do — and you'll always back a winner!"

From where I sit, maybe it is a good idea to keep your eye on the individual, instead of automatically grouping him on teams you're "for" or "against." We're all individuals at heart, with our likes and dislikes — our right to prefer tea to coffee or beer to buttermilk... our right to "blow the whistle" when anyone tries to regiment us.

Joe Marsh

FED CATTLE SELLING ABOVE LAST YEAR

FORT WORTH—Stable conditions of the cattle values compared with a year ago is revealed by a look at the records this week. Fed steers and yearlings are currently selling about $1 to $1.50 above a year ago.

Typical of the prime cattle values at Fort Worth are the sales of sifted steers from the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show at prices of $27 to $28.75 in most cases. This compares with a $26 to $27 range a year ago.

Commercially fed cattle of good and choice variety sold at Fort Worth Monday at $20 to $24, compared to sales of similar cattle at $19 to $23 a year ago.

Cattle trade Monday was steady with some rows and calves stronger. Cows selling Monday at $10 to $13, compare with end-of-January values of $10 to $13.50 a year ago. Cannors and cutters sold from $7 to $10 Monday, are level with a year back.

Bulls at $9 to $14.50, are also levels with a year ago.

Slaughter calves of the good and choice variety sold Monday at $16 to $19, identical with last year. Medium and lower grades sold from $9 to $15, unchanged.

Stocker calves and yearlings above a year by a couple of dollars. Tuppy calves at $20 to $22, and yearlings at $21 down are fully $2 above last year at this time.

LAMBES STEADY WITH

PRICES A YEAR AGO

Fat lambs opened steady to 50 cents lower and feeders and older sheep were steady at Fort Worth Monday. Choice fat lambs sold from $18 to $21, the latter figure for fancy woolled lambs and the lower end of the range on extreme heavies. Clipped lambs topped at $20. A year ago this week fat lambs topped $19 to $20 and our reports carried a notation that something fancy could have sold above that level.

Old ewes, however, were selling well ahead of current prices a year ago. Monday's values of $6 to $8 on killers compared with $6 to $9 last year and some light-weight fancy ewes were selling to $10 and above for slaughter.

Feeder lambs at $17 to $20.25 Monday brought $20 and down a year ago this week.

HOGS 25c HIGHER AT FORT WORTH MONDAY

Butcher hogs topped at $18 at Fort Worth Monday, 25 to 50 cents higher than Friday's low close. A look at our report made a year ago this week reveals that hog prices are $8 to $8.50 per hundred lower.

Last Friday top hogs at $17.50 to $17.75 lowest top here in 25 months. Last year at the end of January top hogs sold at Fort Worth at $26.25 to $26.50.

Sows sold this week at $13 to $15.50, compare with sales of made a year ago at $21 to $24 per hundred.

Mrs. Grady Phillips visited with her father, who is in a Fort Worth hospital, several days last week.

Mr. and Mr. Coy Tuggle and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Goodwin attended the Golden Gloves tournament in Abilene last Saturday night.

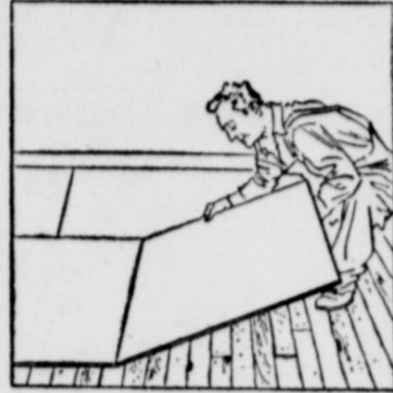

Mrs. M. L. Joyce of Albany spent last Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. J. B. Bowden, and other relatives.

Protect Your Linoleum

Linoleum, asphalt or plastic tiles are excellent floor coverings, but their life and appearance depend a good deal on what's underneath. Oftentimes this is a finished, wood floor which has grown rough and unsightly. It might be, instead, just the rough flooring.

In any case, it's a good idea to have a smooth surface for the new floor covering. Many applicators recommend and use Masonite Underlayment because of its smoothness, even thickness and low cost. The floor covering will look better and wear longer because of the underlayment.

Unless they are covered, uneven boards very likely will begin to "mirror" right through the floor covering, and when that happens you may be sure that the boards are wearing through and the surface will be broken before long.

Masonite Underlayment comes in 4 x 4 or 4 x 3-foot sizes and is available at lumber yards. It's approximately 1/4" thick—215 inches, to be exact. Directions for its application come right with the bundles, or full details may be obtained free by writing the Home Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 3, Ill.

News From The U. S. Congress

Congressman Frank Ikard

No legislation has reached the floor of the House yet. The Committee on Ways and Means continues its hearings on the question of extending the Reciprocal Trade Act for a period of three years. This week several witnesses from Wichita Falls appeared before the committee. They were J. P. Coleman, President of the National Stripper Wells Association, D. C. Norwood, President of the North Texas Oil and Gas Association, and George Anderson, the new Executive Vice President of that group. They were pointing out the disastrous effect that excessive oil imports would have on the domestic oil industry. The impact of excessive imports would have a greater effect in Texas probably than any other state. Since we produce about 60% of the oil produced in this country, we would have to absorb a greater proportion of the imports in our market. Since 1941 the imports of oil have risen from about 5.5% of the domestic demand to a level of 13.7% in 1954. If imports continue this steady increase, they can have only a deadly effect on our domestic industry.

This week the House almost unanimously approved the President's request to draw a line which we would defend in the Far East. This action is good, I think, in that it should be clear evidence to the world that the United States will not vacillate and appease aggressive Communism. I hope, however, that the resolution will not be construed by anyone as setting a precedent that the President must come to Congress before he can deploy our troops. Constitutionally, there is little doubt but what the President can move our forces as he thinks best for the welfare of this country. It would be a sad day if it is ever thought that he does not have this power because a situation could easily arise where he would have to act at night or instantly without having time to consult anyone.

This week the House also unanimously voted to continue for two more years its Special Committee of Small Business whose job it is to investigate the problems of the small business man insofar as they relate to the government and to oppress unfair competition. This committee will do an outstanding job.

Sometimes mail addressed to me is misdirected because it is not properly addressed. A letter addressed to me should be addressed to 1329 House Office Building, Washington 25, D. C.

Visitors in Washington this week were Mr. J. C. Bridwell, Mr. J. P. Coleman, Mr. George Anderson, Jr., Mr. D. C. Norwood, and Dr. Claude A. Beesley of Wichita Falls; Dr. John A. Guinn and Dr. Pauline Mack of Denton; and Mr. Ray H. Nichols of Vernon.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Comes Out With A Block Crop Sales Plan Patterned On The Veterans Program

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has a hair-brained idea this week, which he won't get anywhere with:

Dear Editor:

A lot of people have been complaining about the block sales of land under the veterans program in Texas.

As I understand it, a man goes out and contracts to buy up a lot of land at as low a price as he can get, divides it up into blocks, and sells it to veterans at as high a price he can get, with the state of course furnishing the money.

Naturally, some men have gone at this program too hurriedly, and in their desire to help the state spend its money have sold land faster than some veterans could buy it or even have a chance to look at it, but as any salesman knows, when the fellow putting up the money is ready to close the deal, then's the time to stop talkin' and start signing, and if there wasn't any veteran handy to do the signing, they didn't see any sense in letting a technicality stand in the way of a good profit.

Now I don't know anything about the veterans land program but I have been thinking, and I'm wondering why the state didn't extend this program to farmers.

Under the present system of crop controls and price guarantees, the farmer and the government both know at the start of a crop year what the government will pay for the crop when its harvested, but under this system, why couldn't I, instead of the government, contract to buy say all the crops in this county this year? I wouldn't want em for the whole state, just one county, no use being greedy. Then after I'd contracted to buy the crops, without of course putting up any of my own money, all I'd have to do is get an appraiser who had the proper training to come out here and appraise the stuff at 10 or 15 per cent more than it cost, after all, it ought to be worth something to the government to get to buy everything that's grown in this county with one big check instead of a lot of little ones, and complete the deal and deposit the difference. I have plenty of time for such activities, as my farming operations don't take up my full time and if you think this system will come into general use, I would like to reserve this county for my territory.

J. A.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Fitzgerald and A. M. Moore, Jr., visited Mr. Fitzgerald's sister, Mrs. R. L. Davis, in Wichita Falls last Sunday. Dale Fitzgerald, who had been visiting there the past three weeks, returned home with them.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—Does someone in your family—or perhaps yourself—seem to have repeated accidents?

It could be due to "accident proneness."

That's the phrase coined by the experts—psychologists, industrialists, physicians, insurance men and others on the theory that many accidents result from the victim's emotional make-up.

Studies by agencies interested in health and safety have shown that relatively few people are responsible for a high percentage of accidents. Conclusion: a person who has one accident is more likely to be involved in another than a person who has had none at all.

State Department of Health studies confirm this. For example:

A public utility company, trying to cut accident rates among truck drivers, ordered an investigation of every factor which could be contributing, from weather to reaction time of drivers.

Truck accidents increased despite an intense educational campaign. But when drivers with bad records were shifted to other jobs, the company's driver accident rate fell to a fifth of the former rate.

The transferred drivers? They kept on having accidents in their new jobs and at home.

The experts have traced definite personality patterns in accident prone people. Almost invariably they are impetuous, following impulses without deliberation or planning. Their decisiveness is in reality, a drive for independence and self-reliance in the situation of the moment.

For the most part they have a history of neurotic traits in childhood. They simply reach a point, in their failure to handle an emotional situation, when an unpleasant happening becomes a physical and emotional necessity.

Result: an "accident." While admitting the part accident proneness plays, Texas State Health Officer Henry A.

Holle would stress environmental hazards and biological conditions like fatigue, temporary stress-produced inattention, impaired vision or hearing, and underlying disease.

"Too much emphasis on accident proneness tends to obscure the need of correcting defects in industrial equipment, slum housing, inefficient traffic systems, and inadequate playgrounds.

There is another consolation for accident prone people. Dr. Holle points out that the same studies which show them to be susceptible to accidents also shows them to have illness rates well below the general population.

Miss Charlotte Hannah and twenty other students from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene spent the week end with a classmate at Featherston's ranch near Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Bully Ratiiff visited Mr. and Mrs. John Porter in Denton and attended the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Winchester attended the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth over the week end.

PRICES OF FARMLAND IN TEXAS DROP AGAIN

Prices of farmland in Texas fell two per cent in the four months ending November 1, 1954, according to a farm real estate market report issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

In general, prices of farmland strengthened in the central Corn Belt and some states along the eastern seaboard, while in most other states they drifted moderately lower. Texas was among 11 states to drop two per cent or more.

New high prices were reached in six states, and in 16 others values were within five percent of their previous highs. Largest declines were in the mountain and Pacific coast regions where farm real estate values in November averaged 15 per cent lower than peak levels.

Most of the moderate change in land values occurring in individual states credited to local and regional differences in weather, crop outturns and local supply-demand situations, say U. S. D. A.

In some Southeastern and South Central states, drought, lower farm income and inability of many prospective buyers to meet lender's requirements resulted in a dull and inactive land market.

The Knox County Singing Convention will meet at the Four Square Church in Knox City next Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. The public is invited to come and enjoy the program of songs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cox visited relatives in Winnsboro over the week end.

THE 1955 MARCH OF DIMES nears a climax in Texas this week and Maj. Gen. K. L. Berry, Texas state campaign chairman, is visited by one of the beneficiaries of the great humanitarian fight against polio. The lad is 4-year-old Bobby Grimes of Austin, who has recovered from a severe attack of polio, through the help of the March of Dimes, and now wears only a brace on his right leg. The drive will continue through Jan. 31.

Mrs. D. L. Thippen and children visited Mr. Thippen in Abilene all last Sunday and all visited with relatives in Santa Anna.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Spann and son spent last Sunday in Clarendon with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spann and little daughter.

Billy Cammack of Reese Air Force Base at Lubbock spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Geneva Cammack.

Mrs. Clyde Yost and Mrs. Tom Cluck visited Mrs. Wynelle Howeth in Fort Worth several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Walker and sons, Bob and Raymond, of Wynnewood, Okla., visited with her sister, Miss Colleen Wheeler, in the home of Mrs. O. W. Lee last Saturday.

SUNBEAMS VISIT

Fourteen children of the Sunbeams of the First Baptist Church visited with Mr. D. E. Holder last Monday afternoon. The children introduced themselves to Mr. Holder and sang a song for his entertainment.

Cpl. Kenneth Stubblefield left Wednesday of last week for Municipal Airport in Long Beach, Calif., where he will be stationed. Cpl. Stubblefield, who has been stationed in Labrador, spent his thirty day furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stubblefield.
