Odd Bits Salvaged

One of our Sunday indulgences is to sit down and calmly enjoy the funny papers. And the failure to enjoy this particular pastime sorta takes a little of Sunday away from us.

Therefore, we never did park—k—k

Especially like the idea of getting our Sunday funny papers on Saturday, but never did raise much of a kick about it. But recently one of our dailies has been sticking the funny paper in Friday's issue, and we think it's nothing short of sabotage. We just can't enjoy the Sunday funny paper on Friday!

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has prevailed on us through the local post office to print an article calling on the people to let the department know how they feel about an increase in postage rates on first class letters in an attempt to balance the postal deficit. He pointed out that the department has absorbed increasing costs in recent years, yet the rates on first class letters are the same today as they were in 1932.

k—k

Quite often we receive articles from our post office department which, in our books, are classed as advertising with the note that the department "has no funds with which to pay for printing them" but wants us to be kind enough to print them. Which sometimes makes us wonder what would happen if we sent a note that we didn't have funds to pay for those "postage due" things we get notifying us of a subscriber's change of address.

k—k

But we couldn't any more operate on the old 1932 rates and income than we could fly from here to yonder. We imagine the post office department is in the same fix. Our guess the 4-cent rate will go into effect. Which reminds us of what we heard on the radio a few days ago.

k—k

"If we can pay 30 cents for a package of cigarettes, and ten cents for a coke, then raise Cain about having to pay four cents to send a message to Aunt Minnie, guess we don't care too much about whether Aunt Minnie hears from us," or words to that effect.

k—k

With fall in the air, and with our recent wet spell, it seems we are overpopulated with flies and mosquitoes. Since cooler weather has come, it seems the flies had rather be on the inside rather than the outside; therefore, they are getting quite bothersome. Some have suggested that a good spraying of the town with our fogging machine would be a great help.

A woman of stamina and determination is Mrs. E. R. Ponder.

k—k

Mrs. Ponder, teacher in the local schools, suffered a painful injury last Friday in an accidental fall in the school lunch room. She was hospitalized one day, maybe two, mainly because her husband had to be out of town Saturday, taking his F. F. A. boys to the State Fair.

k—k

School authorities reported Tuesday that Mrs. Ponder is determined to carry on her duties at school this week, so she is doing so from a wheel chair.

Still hear reports of an overabundant supply of rattlesnakes. Some have advanced the theory that the rattlers floated down the Brazos during the recent floods and have taken up abode in this area. Some wondered, too, if they wouldn't just sorta hibernate back to the river. We wouldn't guarantee that. In fact, if we run across one we're not attempting to shoot him back to the river! If the rattler don't want to move, we will!

k—k

Reckon it's kinda tough to be president, or a princess. Mrs. Eisenhower can't tell her husband about his fine cattle on their Gettysburg farm, and Princess Margaret can't even go out to tea without making the world's news. Give us the simple life of just a country editor!

Haskell-Knox Association Elects Slate Of WMU Officers For New Year

Approximately 120 women from the 13 churches of this area attended the Woman's Missionary Union meeting of Haskell-Knox Baptist Association at the Weinert Baptist Church on Tuesday of last week. The theme of this annual meeting was "The Mirage Shall Become a Lake."

New officers were elected and installed at the meeting. They are as follows:

Mrs. W. D. Malone, O'Brien, president; Mrs. Sam Johnson, O'Brien, corresponding secretary and treasurer; Mrs. J. E. Greer, Rule, recording secretary; Mrs. Joe Patterson, Munday, young people's secretary; Rev. Roger Butler, Gillespie, R. A. leader; Mrs. Hob Smith, Rochester, pianist; Mrs. Roger Butler, Gillespie, chorister; Mrs. J. O. Bowden, Munday, B. W. C. advisor; Mrs. M. H. Reeves, Munday, district nominating committee; Mrs. O. B. Woodrum of Abilene was installing officer.

Appointed by the president to serve as standing committee chairmen were Mrs. Riley Fugitt, Rule, mission study; Mrs. Audie Verner, Rule, community missions; Mrs. Bill Frazier, Knox City, stewardship; Mrs. Roy Clayton, Rochester, prayer; and Mrs. C. O. Davis, Rule, historian.

Mattson School Homecoming Set For October 29th

Saturday, October 29, is homecoming date for the Mattson School, it was announced this week, and many ex-students are expected to attend.

Registration will begin at 9 a. m., with hamburgers and sandwiches being sold at the lunch room during the noon hour. The afternoon will be taken up in a program and business meeting, class meetings and a barbecue supper at 5 p. m., and a football game between O'Brien and the Mattson Mustangs is scheduled for that evening. Homecoming queen will be crowned between halves.

Junior Moguls To Play Haskell On Thursday Night

The Junior High School Moguls will play the Junior Indians of Haskell on Thursday night of this week on the Munday field. The game has been called for 7 p. m.

This promises to be an interesting game, with the Moguls trying to annex a win to their side of the ledger. Football fans are urged to attend this game.

Celebrate 60th Wedding Anniversary

Celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Thornton, residents of Goree, Texas, with open house from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m.

The Thorntons were married on October 9, 1895 in the home of Mrs. Thornton's mother near Desmondia. The marriage was part of a double wedding ceremony with Mrs. Thornton's sister marrying J. A. Brown. Her sister, who now lives in Albany, Texas, was present at the open house.

Others who were present for the Thornton's wedding attended the anniversary celebration. One couple, Mr. and Mrs. Leander Moore of Goree, have been married 62 years. Mrs. Moore is Mrs. Thornton's sister.

The Thorntons moved to Knox county in 1921 after residing in

Patterson Child Injured In Fall

Little 5-year-old Bobbie Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patterson, received multiple bruises and cuts when she fell from the family car late last Sunday afternoon. The Patterson family had been visiting with Mr. Patterson's grandfather, C. B. Harris, who lives five miles west of Seymour, and were enroute to Seymour when the accident occurred.

It was thought that the child caught the door handle in trying to raise herself from the seat causing the door to open and drag her out. She is in the hospital in Seymour and is reported to be getting along fine.

Governor Allan Shivers of Texas, center, discusses plans for the Boy Scouts' drive for $62,089.55 in funds in this area with Bill Heatley of Paducah, Northwest Texas campaign chairman, and Morris Higley, also of Paducah, vice chairman.

Kickoff Breakfast Next Tuesday Will Open Local Boy Scout Drive For Funds

Organization of teams for the Boy Scout drive for $62,089.55 in the Northwest Texas Council was announced recently by Bill Heatley, council campaign chairman. Honorary state chairman is Gov. Allan Shivers.

All communities in Texas are conducting finance campaigns on one day, October 25—except towns where Boy Scouts share in the United Fund or Community Chest campaigns.

"We aren't asking for much, when you consider the enormous dividends that Scouting pays Texas," Mr. Heatley said. "This year the Scouting movement included 165,000 youngsters of all races, religions and economic backgrounds. These are future Texans. And through Scouting they achieve fellowship, personal progress, adventure and opportunities for service to others."

Dr. J. B. Reneau is serving as local campaign chairman, and he has announced the following captains and workers:

J. E. Reeves, Jr.—W. R. Moore, Jr., Rev. Doyle Ragle, Doris Collins, Tom Bullington and Billy Mitchell.

Charles Baker—Winston Blacklock, Charles McCauley, Paul Pendleton, J. D. Gillespie and Bob Brown.

Russell Penick—Bill Quattlebaum, Ralph Cypert, Doris Dickerson, Ernest Horton and Wallace Reid.

Dwight Key—Joe Bailey King, Jerry Kane, Wendell Partridge, Vern Frost and Travis Lee.

Hugh Beatty—Elmer Cude, Ray Holcomb, Ed Jetton, Wayne Patterson and W. C. Kirshner.

6th Graders Visit The Times Office

Another group of students, this time 26 members of the 6-B class of Munday Junior High School, with their teacher, Mrs. Hubert Hitt, paid a visit to the Munday Times office last Friday afternoon.

They were shown the linotype machine, job press, cylinder press, folder and other pieces of machinery in operation, and each was given a souvenir copy of the paper—hot off the press.

After reassembling in the school bus, different students asked questions about newspaper operations, its subscribers, source of revenue, source of news, etc. They were a well-mannered group and seemed to enjoy their visit.

Efforts To Secure Bob Baskin Dam On Brazos River Revived By Area Towns

News Of Munday F. F. A. Chapter

Several boys of the Munday FFA chapter attended the State Fair in Dallas on Saturday, Rural Youth Day. Among the interesting things they saw were the livestock, especially the Santa Gertrudis cattle, and the big 2,800 pound Holstein bull; the automobile show, especially the early makes of automobiles, or horseless carriages; the SMU-Rice football game, and many more attractions.

Making the trip were D. A. Blair, J. R. Booe, Pete Rister, Don Kegley, Bobby Zane Miller, Tommy Miller, Robert Elliott, Lanius Bryan, Glenn Phillips, Gayle Gulley, Joe Decker, Jack Masters, John Sahadi, Lloyd Welch, Robert Beck, Dewayne Booe, Phillip McAfee, Bunny Norvill, Collis Michels, and David Rister. E. R. Ponder, Dee Allred and Mr. Morgan accompanied the boys.

The chapter now has 17 lambs and 17 head of calves on feed. They also have 50 laying hens. Accurate records are kept on all projects.

Thank you for helping the boys with the subscriptions. As your other papers and magazines come due, please give the renewals to one of the boys or call Mr. Ponder.

SOLICITORS' NOTICE CAUSES CONFUSION

Some confusion has been caused by the notice in last week's paper regarding solicitation of funds by out of town persons, and Charles McCauley, president of the Munday Chamber of Commerce, wishes to clarify the situation.

McCauley stated the notice was intended to apply to all out of town and out of state solicitors, and certainly not to communities in Knox County and the Munday trade area.

To Be Honored

W. C. Cox, superintendent of the Munday Public Schools, will be honored at the Muleshoe homecoming celebration on Friday, October 28, because of his lengthy service as superintendent of the Muleshoe schools.

Mr. Cox served as superintendent there for 16 years, from 1930 to 1946, and has been superintendent of the Munday schools since that time.

Elmdale Church Pastor, Son Of Munday Couple, Receives Association Award

The Rev. Paul Nelson, pastor of Elmdale Baptist Church at Abilene and son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nelson of Munday, has been selected to receive the 1955 Rural and Village Church Achievement Award. The award is presented for the first time this year by the Sweetwater Baptist Association. Announcement of the Rev. Nelson's selection was made recently by Baptist officials in Dallas.

He will receive a parchment scroll inscribed with his name, the title of the award and the words "For Outstanding Progress Made in Community and World Mission Church Activities."

The church will receive a bronze plaque inscribed with its name and wording similar to that of the scroll.

The Rev. Nelson is one of 33 Baptist pastors and churches who have won associational and district awards over the state this year for rural church work. One pastor and church will receive statewide recognition at the annual sessions of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, meeting October 25-27 in Houston.

Purpose of the project is to stimulate interest and initiative in Texas Baptist rural and village churches. The program is designed to give special attention to the pastors and churches who have accomplished an outstanding church and community program.

The Rev. Nelson was born in Munday July 26, 1925. He received his BA degree from Hardin-Simmons University in 1953 and has been working toward his master's degree. He and his wife, the former Gracie Brite of Haskell, have one child, James Gregory, 7.

The Elmdale pastor said church members during the past year paved the parking lot and landscaped the church grounds. Members also remodeled the parsonage and re-roofed the church building.

The Rev. Nelson said the church has entered the improvement program for the next year.

He said Elmdale Baptist Church had an average Sunday school attendance the past year of 110.

Moguls To Face Albany's Lions Here On Friday

The charges of Coaches Stewart and Spann will face a crucial test next Friday night when they meet the strong Albany Lions on Scruggs Field.

The Lions, last year's champions and presently tied with the Haskell Indians in the lead this year, will be out for another try at the district title. The Lions have already won five games this season with no losses, blasting Merkel from the unbeaten ranks last Friday night by a score of 32 to 7.

The Moguls are holding third place in the district, having won four games and lost only one. They rested last Friday night, but this week's strenuous activities are aimed at a desperate attempt to knock the Lions from their top position.

The Mogul-Lion tilt will probably be the top game of District 8-A. Merkel plays at Roby, Throckmorton at Roscoe, while Haskell plays host to Anson in a non-district battle.

LOCAL P-TA MEETS AT 8 P. M. TONIGHT

The Munday P-TA announced a change of meeting time Thursday (tonight) as the Juniors are having a football game. The meeting will be held at 8:00 o'clock and all parents are urged to attend.

An organization designed to revive and promote efforts to secure the Bob Baskin dam both for irrigation and flood control on the Brazos River was set up at Knox City Wednesday afternoon at a meeting called by a group of civic leaders of this area. The meeting was held at 2 p. m. in the American Legion Hall.

Named as temporary chairman of the organization was S. N. Reed, O'Brien ginmer and civic leader, with W. L. Collins of Knox City named as secretary.

Prior to the conference, Congressmen Frank Icard of Wichita Falls and George H. Mahon of Colorado City, and representatives of the U. S. Army Engineers and the Bureau of Reclamation, were directed on a tour of the area damaged most heavily by the recent flood. This area lies between Seymour and Aspermont, covering a distance of some 100 miles.

Mr. Reed said the heavy damaged area centers northwest of Knox City, on the B. B. Campbell and the R. B. Howell Estate farms, where water 10 feet deep still stands in holes washed in the fields near the river.

Meeting with some 95 citizens of Knox City and towns and communities along the Brazos hit by flood waters, and Congressmen Icard and Mahon were the following: Col. Harry Burleigh of the Bureau of Reclamation, Harry G. Fischer, district U. S. Army Engineer of Fort Worth; Charles Jun of the U. S. Army Engineers of Fort Worth, and Waters Davis, past president of the State and National Association of Soil Conservation Supervisors.

Col. Fischer outlined plans which might be followed for flood control, suggesting that the flood control dam and irrigation dam be included as one project. The two congressmen pledged their cooperation and support for both projects, Reed said.

Working with Reed and Collins in promoting the flood control and irrigation dam, will be committees from each of the towns which are or might be affected by flood waters from the river. Appointed as chairmen of committees to gather flood damage and irrigation needs in their respective communities were the following: Tom Craddock of Seymour, L. D. Patterson of Munday, Byrd Thorp of Throckmorton, Henry Smith of Weinert, N. E. Springer of Aspermont, Courtney Hunt of Haskell, R. Coffman of Goree, B. D. Campbell of Knox City, and Felix Mullino of Rochester. Committee members from other towns will be appointed later, Reed said.

Following the flood control session, E. V. Hardwicke of Dallas, special consultant for the Federal Civil Defense Administration, met with 22 county judges and representatives of nine counties for the purpose of finding the extent of damage along the Brazos flood area. The availability of funds for the relief of damages to tax-supported institutions in the area was also discussed.

Counties represented included Stonewall, Knox, King, Kent, Haskell, Foard, Hardeman, Cottle and Throckmorton.

Munday People Buy $940 Worth In Broom Sale

The Munday Lions Club sold a total of around $940 in brooms, mops, ironing board covers, etc. in the recent Blind Caravara broom sale here. This was the third sale sponsored by the club.

Chairman of the local sale was Rev. Doyle Ragle, with the club president, Tom Bullington giving assistance. The Lions were divided into teams and can vassed various sections of town. The team headed by Bill Qual thebaum made the largest number of sales.

The Lions received $230 a their part, and the money will be used to carry on the club's community projects, sight conservation, and other phases of work.

"THE HISTORY OF MY LIFE"

In every far-flung reach of this country, millions of people look forward each week to the appearance of their local small-town papers. These papers are the running histories of the communities and regions they serve, and there is nothing that can take their place.

Now and then some old-time reader troubles to tell the editor just how he feels about the local paper. That pleasant experience happened the other day to the editor of the News, of Hemet, California. The correspondent was a woman who had lived in the Hemet area for more than half a century. She wrote: "I have many fond memories of your newspaper and the people who have been connected with it. Not long ago . . . it occurred to me that in the files of your paper is the history of my life."

"Your paper recorded my birth, my childhood parties, my graduation from high school and later from college, my marriage, the arrival of each of my four children and the death of one of them—and now, in more recent years your columns have been recording the arrival, one by one, of my grandchildren. . . . Is it any wonder that your paper means so much in our home and that we look forward eagerly to receiving it each week?"

The country paper is an intensely personal thing, close to the lives and work and thoughts and aspirations of all who read it. And it's a certainty that no medium of communication and opinion has so large a proportion of loyal, beginning-to-end readers.

NATIONAL BIBLE WEEK 1955

National Bible Week, which will be observed from October 17th through the 23rd this year, has reached an important milestone—its 15th anniversary. The Laymen's National Committee, the all-faiths sponsoring group, feels that the Week has helped a great deal in bringing about today's resurgence in religious matters.

Campaign theme for this year's National Bible Week is "The Bible Is The Rock on Which Our Republic Rests." Symbolic of the mighty strength that is found in the Bible, an all important American landmark, Plymouth Rock, is the object that shares honors with the Bible in the national poster being displayed throughout the country. Just as our great nation was founded on this rock, so may we build our spiritual life on the greatest rock of all—the Bible!

HOW SHALL WE PAY FOR HIGHWAYS?

It has been accurately stated that everyone wants more and better highways but no one wants to pay for them.

At the same time, it's obvious that huge sums are going to be spent on new highway programs and that the financing problem will have to be solved one way or another.

President Petersen of the Standard Oil Company of California has offered a logical suggestion. It is based on the idea that a modern, expanded highway system should be paid for out of taxes levied upon more of the people and products benefitting from good roads. This, as he put it, would "include all motor vehicles—automobiles, trucks, busses and trailers. All accessories—tires and tubes of all sizes; batteries, spark plugs and the like." It would also involve additional taxes on the owners of roadside property who gain from highway building, and on paving materials and equipment.

In addition, he had something to say about the emphasis on gasoline and other motor fuel taxes as a source of highway funds. These taxes are high now and, as he observed, "any substantial increases . . . might well push the tax up to the point of diminishing returns."

He made still another worthwhile suggestion—that the federal government retire from the field of motor fuels taxation and leave it to the states, where it traditionally and rightfully belongs. The states, for their part, should earmark all highway user taxes for highway construction purposes only. They should never be diverted to other purposes.

The whole point is to extend the tax base so as to cover as many highway beneficiaries as possible. There is no other sound and just way of raising the needed money.

A RELEVANT QUESTION

According to Newsweek, "Business is in for its worst political pounding in years in a series of investigations covering nearly every phase of enterprise."

Without debating the merit or justice of any particular investigation, this question seems relevant: Will purely political considerations, in an election year, lead to a ruthless below-the-belt attack on the enterprises and institutions which have given this country full employment, record purchasing power, and working and living conditions which would seem all but unbelievable in most of the rest of the world?

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

THE RESURRECTION OF THREE THOUSAND

Fifty days after the resurrection of Jesus Christ there comes the day of the resurrection of three thousand disciples on Pentecost. The picture of his death and burial was vividly in their minds. Peter arose and preached to them that this Jesus whom they had helped crucify and had been buried in the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea was now raised from the dead. "Let all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly that God has made him both Lord and Christ."

Thus they had clearly before them the story of the death, the burial, and the resurrection of Jesus Christ. No wonder they were cut to the heart and cried out: "Brethren, what shall we do?" Surely they must have understood the profound significance of the command to repent and be baptized for the forgiveness of their sins. They understood that Peter was telling them to re-enact, as it were, the very death, burial, and resurrection they had so recently observed. They were to die to sin, to be buried in water as Jesus was buried in the earth, and to be raised again in the likeness of his resurrection. "Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death; that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection." (Rom. 6:3-5).

Can you think of any act which more beautifully represents the experience of our Lord? These first Christians were so close to the scene that it must have had a touching meaning for them. Consider the joy in the hearts of the first three thousand who became obedient to the gospel. There was no question in their minds about changing the form of baptism. Its meaning was too clear. They eagerly took part in this act of faith in Christ and each one who was baptized proclaimed to all the city that this Jesus was raised from the dead.

Soon five thousand men had been buried and raised, and this was multiplied over and over again. Thus through the ages millions of disciples of the Lord in every land where the gospel has been preached have obeyed in good and honest hearts, this experience is re-enacted and men and women are born again "not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever" (1 Pet. 1:23).

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—The fact that dental decay is likely to occur in the mouth of the average person, despite proper home care given the teeth, does not lessen the importance of brushing the teeth and massaging the gums daily, nor does it minimize the need for a cleaning and inspection of the teeth twice a year by the family dentist. Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health, says that the lack of these measures gives added power to germs that attack the enamel of the teeth and gum tissues.

"If, despite the proper application of such procedures, decay is suspected or teeth are injured in any way, the thoughtful person will seek the dentist's office promptly for the necessary corrective work," Dr. Holle said.

"It is surprising, though, even in these days of comparatively painless dentistry, that so many persons neglect to make good their dental defects, inevitable or otherwise, because they foolishly fear the discomfort they might experience in the dentist's chair," said the Commissioner of Health. "There are others who have lost a tooth or several teeth make no effort to obtain replacements. Apparently they believe they can get along without them. Reduced masticating power, the annoyance and sometimes actual discomfort of chewing hard substances on the exposed gums, and crooked teeth are some of the possible consequences of gaps in the teeth."

Dr. Holle advised those who are interested in experiencing the best dental and bodily health possible, to give daily attention to their mouth and visit the dentist twice each year, and promptly seek the dentist's services should decay or other suspicious conditions arise between the periodic visits.

"In short," Dr. Holle declared, "successful mouth hygiene will mean not only intelligent personal daily application of prophylaxis but complete and timely cooperation with the family dentist as well."

ANOTHER GULF FIRST

gives you more miles per gallon . . . more miles per quart

This lamp is burning the "DIRTY-BURNING TAIL-END" of gasoline which GULF refines out

This lamp is burning NEW SUPER-REFINED GULF NO-NOX, the clean-burning "super-fuel"

Gulf No-Nox burns clean. Here's proof: Note the black deposit on plate at left, caused by the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—the part which Gulf refines out in making new NO-NOX. But see how clean new NO-NOX leaves the plate at right. Now—in your own car, see how new NO-NOX can give you more miles per gallon in the kind of short-trip, stop-and-go driving you do most.

Gulfpride Select works clean. Here's why: Most conventional oils are refined only to the stage shown in A. But New Gulfpride Select is further refined by the Alchlor Process—removing up to 15% more of the carbon-formers, in B . . . C contains the new super-refined oil that gives you more miles per quart because it has natural viscosity (body)—contains no artificial thickeners that break down in service.

Together they give you thousands of extra miles of new-car performance . . . new-engine economy

Gulf now brings you not just a gasoline . . . not just an oil . . . but a great new gasoline and a great new motor oil which, working together, boost each other's efficiency.

This new Gas-Oil Team will help your car retain all the horsepower you paid for—help you enjoy thousands of extra miles of new-car performance.

Now that fall changeover time is here, switch to Gulf's great new Gas-Oil Team to get more miles per gallon—more miles per quart . . . plus complete engine protection.

What's Your Idea On An Increase In Postage Rates?

"No businessman would seriously believe it possible for any business to absorb seven major increases in the expenses which account for over 90 per cent of a business's total cost without compensating increases in prices," Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said in commenting on the proposed postal rate increase.

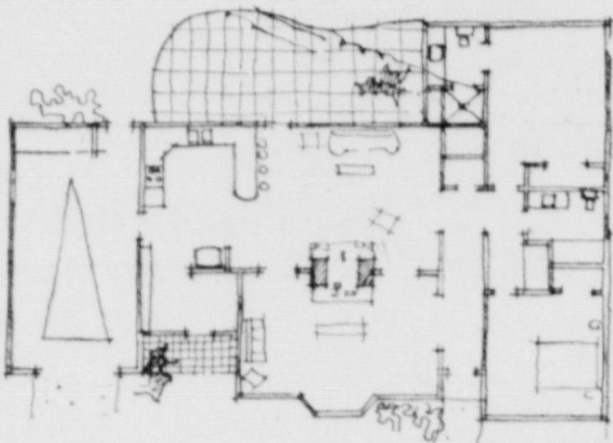

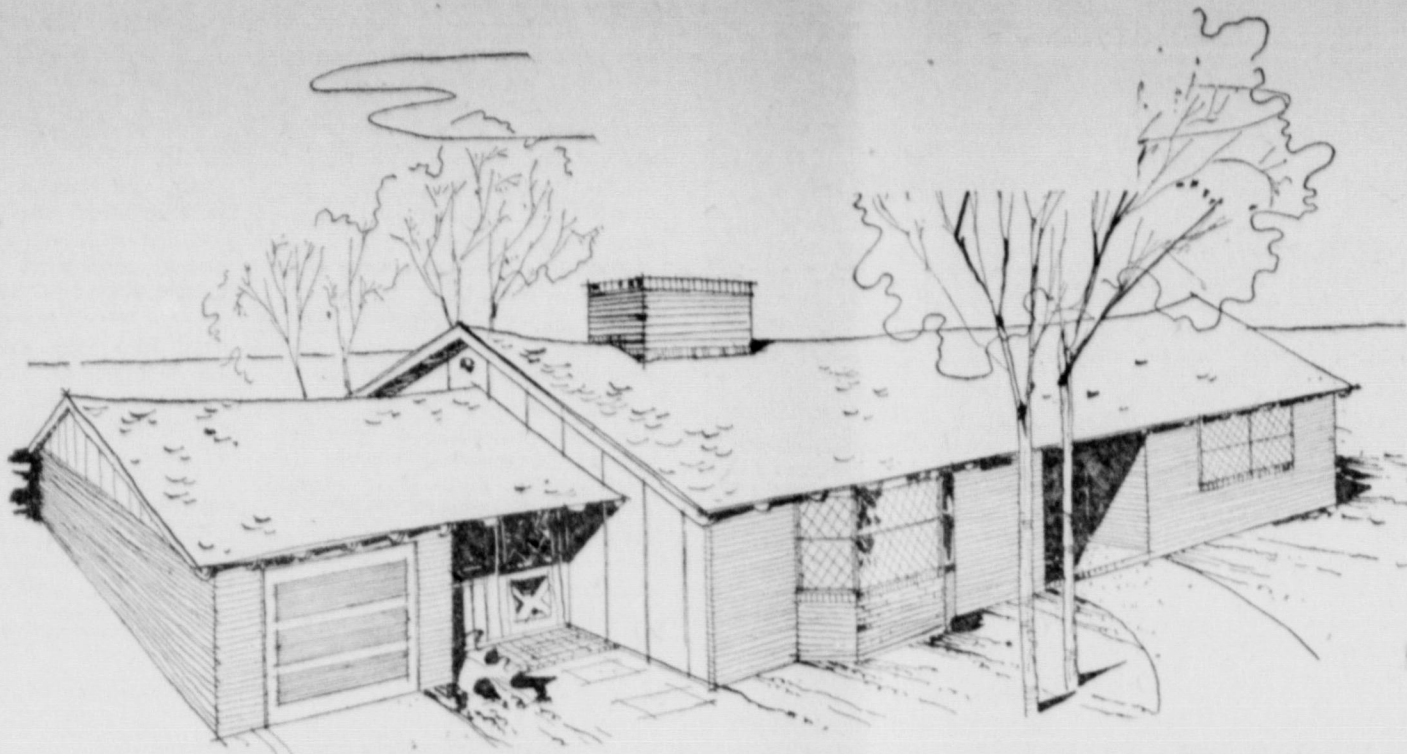

"This is the situation the Post Office Department faces—and since rate increases have not kept pace with costs, this huge businesslike enterprise within Government is losing money at the rate of over a million dollars every working day.

"Postage rates on first-class letters are the same today—three cents for the first ounce—as they were in 1932. Meanwhile, Congress has voted wage increases to postal employees on five different occasions since then.

"Two increases in the rates paid the railroads for carrying the mails have also been approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, in 1951 and 1954.

"These two major costs—wages and transportation—account for over 90 per cent of total Post Office Department costs.

"Not only has the Post Office

This Dutch Colonial charm was shown recently in the parade of homes in Amarillo and was designed by Mrs. Doyle Jones.

The peaked shape roof and diamond panel windows give an old world look to this two bedroom home, but there is nothing old fashioned in the efficient country kitchen with its breakfast bar and built-ins and the set-up utility room. Linoleum imported from Italy covers both the kitchen and utility floors.

A two way fireplace between the living room and den ties the rooms together in a friendly circle. The bay windows in the living room add to its formal tone, while the knotty pine wood paneled den echoes the casual air of the free form terrace just outside. There are 1500 square feet in this Dutch Colonial in addition to the garage.

Mrs. Jones studied engineering at Texas Tech in Lubbock for two and one-half years, has been designing homes for about three years and has designed more than fifty homes in Amarillo, and some for Perryton, Silverton, Dumas and other places. She leans toward the early American design but does moderns as well. Mrs. Jones is the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones of Munday.

Mrs. A. L. Smith visited with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Parker and son in Taylor the first of this week. Mrs. Parker and son returned home with her mother for a visit here.

Miss Audry Kegley went after her mother, Mrs. Annie Kegley, at Galveston last Thursday, returning home on Sunday. Mrs. Kegley has been undergoing treatment in the St. Mary's Hospital there the past six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, Mrs. C. P. Baker and Kenneth attended the T. C. U.-A&M football game in Fort Worth last Saturday.

Department faced these increases in costs without compensating increases in income, but it has been forced to serve an ever-increasing and shifting population.

"The number of householders in the United States has increased almost two-thirds since letter rates were last changed, and new communities requiring postal service have mushroomed in the areas adjacent to our towns and cities.

"These are some of the basic reasons why the Post Office Department believes a reasonable increase in first-class letter rates—from 3 cents to 4 cents for the first ounce—is well justified. Since the volume of letter mail handled in this country is so large, this moderate increase would yield revenues that would go a long way toward balancing the postal deficit."

Postmaster Lee Haymes

echoed the opinions of Mr. Summerfield and said he would like to know how the people of Munday feel about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones of Abilene visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Tidwell, during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Martin and baby son and Mrs. Bill Riddle, all of Denton, visited in the home of Mrs. Kate Browning recently. Mrs. Martin is the former Mrs. Ben Browning.

Henry Clay Dingus attended the State Fair in Dallas over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Hughes and Chan visited Mrs. Hughes' sister in Dallas and attended the football game and fair over the week end.

TREATMENT FOR PEACHTREE BORERS

Once more the time has rolled around for treating peach tree borers. This must be done once a year if you would keep your trees free from the deadly borers. From now (October 15 to November 15) is the time to treat not only peach trees but any other trees that are bothered with borers.

The most effective chemical to use is ethylene dichloride emulsion. But if this cannot be found in town, then you may use para-dichlorobenzin in the same manner. If you can't remember that long name, call for moth ball crystals which is the same.

Dig up the ground around the tree four inches deep and one foot from the tree. Mound up 6 inches tall in the form of an ice cream cone. Dig a little trench an inch or two wide with your two front fingers all around the tree and two inches from the tree. Pour about ¼ to one ounce of either chemical in the little trench evenly distributed all the way around the tree. Cover the trench with finely pulverized dirt. Then pack down with the back of your shovel. Let stand for six weeks, then tear the mound down and scatter about evenly. Earl R. Ponder, Vocational Ag. Teacher.

Drive carefully—The life you save may be your own.

Cows Open Lower; Good Stockers Steady

FORT WORTH—Cows opened weak to 50 cents lower to slaughter interests at Fort Worth Monday, but stocker buyers were active on kinds suitable to go back to the country and bought these steady. Mature steers and fat yearlings were steady, and bulls brought firm prices.

Stocker demand was again dominated by strong Southwestern demand, and good and choice sorts were sold at prices that were steady with last week's advances. However, the plainer kinds were inclined to lower levels.

Choice slaughter calves were steady, and the others sold around 50 cents lower. Cornbelt interests were still talking lower prices on all replacement cattle and calves, but the greening pastures in much of the Southwest influenced prices at Fort Worth more than Northern conditions.

Packers were uniformly pessimistic in view of the heavy cattle offerings of recent days.

Comparative prices included: Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings $18-22; common to medium $12-17; fat cows $10-12; canners and cutters $6.50-10; bulls $9.50-13, few $13.50. Good to choice slaughter calves $16 to 18; yearling weights to $19 or better when fancy; common and medium calves $12-15; culls $9 to 11. Stocker steer calves $21.50 down; heifers $18 down; steer yearlings $19.75 down; stocker cows $8-13.

Cattle On Feed Up 19 Percent October 1

USDA Crop Reporting Board report of cattle on feed in 13 states, released at Fort Worth's Agricultural Market News Office, says that 19 percent more cattle are on feed October 1 than a year ago. Texas, Arizona and Colorado are included in this report for the first time.

Cattle on feed in Texas October 1 were estimated at 84,000, against 49,000 July 1. Nine Cornbelt states report an increase of 25 percent above a year ago.

Feeders in the 13 states reporting said that 73 percent of their cattle would be marketed in the next three months.

Hogs At Lowest Since December 1949 At Fort Worth

Good and choice hogs sold steady with the low close of last week at Fort Worth Monday and topped at $15.25 to $15.50. This marked the lowest price here since December 1949.

Most Cornbelt points Monday

reported top hogs around the $15 marker or under, many of them at 8 or 9-year lows.

Less desirable weights and kinds drew $13.50 to $15 at Fort Worth. Sows sold at $10 to $14. Surplus hogs from Cornbelt points are beginning to arrive in Texas in considerable numbers and these shipments will reach high tide within the next 60 days in all probability.

Southwestern Feeder Lamb Demand Narrows, Rain Needed

Feeder lamb prices which have been very strong for the past month has been unevenly lower late last week, and Monday was very weak at Fort Worth on the class. Cornbelt feeders have been talking sharply lower prices right along, but the prospects of winter grazing and demand for feeding lambs in Texas and other Southwestern states had kept prices well above Cornbelt offers.

However, many spots where winter pasture had been in good prospect, were in need of more rain and feeder lambs trade has slowed accordingly. Texas feeders were meeting heavy competition from Western States lambs across the important Western Cornbelt feeding areas, too.

At Fort Worth slaughter classes were fully steady Monday. Good and choice woolled fat lambs $18-20; choice shorn lambs with No. 2 pelts $18. Cull to medium grades $12-17. Feeder and stocker lambs mostly $13-15. Good to choice slaughter yearling wethers $15-16; cull to medium yearlings $11-13.50. Old wethers $8-12; old ewes $5-5.50; old bucks $4-5.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

HOW TO MINIMIZE RISKS

Whenever you are asked to sign something, your signature should be a warning signal that in some way you may become legally obligated by what you sign.

Usually you are asked to sign something as a result of a business transaction, such as a contract, a receipt, an order, a release, an option, a mortgage or a deed. For your own protection, you should clearly understand WHAT you sign, WHY you are signing it, and what the consequences may be. It is rarely possible for a person who has signed a document to avoid its legal effects.

You can decrease your legal risks by always taking these precautions before you sign anything:

Know what you are signing and what the document contains. Understand clearly what it does mean. Don't be confused by its title—a "statement" may be a release of all your claims, or a "contract" may be a negotiable promissory note. "Co-signing" a note may result in your having to pay it.

Read EVERYTHING in any document.

Clauses in fine print may be important. Remember, too, that oral promises not included in writing may be unenforceable. Take nothing for granted.

Check and verify the document.

Be sure the dates, prices, names and conditions filled in are correct. You are bound by what it SAYS, not by what you THOUGHT it said.

Ask questions.

Inquire about conditions and items of importance to you. Do not sign unless you understand what it means. Language clearly stating what you want can be inserted. If large sums are involved, consult with your attorney.

Retain a copy.

Be sure the proper persons sign. Request and retain a copy. Record it, if necessary, with the proper public official.

Like your fingerprint, your signature is unique. No one else has one exactly like it. Only you can sign it, and affixing it may set into motion events of great legal consequence. Treat it with the importance it deserves, and do not bestow it carelessly. If in doubt, seek information and advice.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Blacklock and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Frost attended the Abilene-Odessa football game in Abilene last Friday night.

James Amerson of NTSC in Denton spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Amerson.

Munday Study Club Holds Its Regular Meeting Friday

"New Mexico, Land of Enchantment", opened the study of the Southwest by the Munday Study Club in its regular meeting last Friday. Mrs. Gene Thompson was program director.

Three cities of New Mexico were discussed. "Taos, Village of Romantic Yesterdays," by Mrs. Earl Hughes, Jr., depicted the history and present life of the three cultures represented in this village of diversified interest. In contrast, Mrs. Marvin Reeves presented "Los Alamos—Birthplace of the Atomic Bomb," a model government city in which all life revolves around the federal atomic laboratories. As a blending of the old and the new, the capital city of New Mexico, "Santa Fe," was given by Mrs. Don Combs, who spoke of its colorful past and Indian-Spanish heritage.

Federation report was given by Mrs. J. C. Borden, Federation counselor, urging every club member to subscribe to "The Texas Clubwoman."

During a brief business session, presided over by Mrs. Levi Bowden, president, several projects were discussed.

Farmers Urged To Keep Records Of Farm Earnings

Farmers in Knox County were reminded today by Erton Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls District Office of the Social Security Administration, that they should keep some type of record to show the amount of their earnings from the sale of farm products during 1955 and future years. This record will be needed to enable them to report their earnings for social security purposes.

"The time to start maintaining a record of farm products sold was January 1, 1955. If this record has not been kept, the time to start is now," Tate asserted. For a self-employed farmer to become eligible for old-age and survivors insurance benefits, he must receive credit on his social security account for his income. And with just a simple journal to record his sales, etc., he can maintain a basic record which will make it possible to accurately report his annual self-employment income to the Director of Internal Revenue each year.

This report is filed as a part of his Federal income tax return. He pays a social security tax of 3% on his net income of $400 up to $4200 in the taxable year. Payment of the social security tax is required by law even though no Federal income tax is due.

Tate points out that if the farmer fails to keep records and fails to make proper reports of his earnings, he stands to lose valuable insurance protection for himself in his own old age and for his family if he should die at any age. Farmers who desire information on the new law should write to the Social Security Administration, 425 Post Office Bldg., Wichita Falls, Texas for Booklet No. OASI-25d.

Scout Movement Gaining In Area

The Boy Scout movement in Northwest Texas Council will need $62,089.55 to maintain present facilities and take care of anticipated expansion in 1956. That statement was made yesterday by Hunter Jones, Council President.

"In 1955 the enrollment of Cubs, Scouts, and Explorers has been 4,405 youngsters. In 1956 we want to offer the benefits of Scouting to every youngster 8 to 18 wanting to join, and if we are financially capable, we expect to enroll 1,947 additional youngsters in Scouting", Mr. Jones said.

The big need now is for more organizations, namely churches, schools, clubs, and veteran organizations to sponsor Cub Packs, Scout Troops, and Explorer units. Sponsorship means providing leadership and a meeting place for the unit. Surveys show that three out of every four boys of Cub, Scout, and Explorer ages want to be Scouts, so more institutions are needed to provide the Scout program for their own youth.

In addition, the Scouting movement supports 38 summer camps all over the state of Texas. More than 30,000 youngsters attended these camps last summer, learning to respect others and take care of themselves. The local Scout council supports Camp Perkins, located 14 miles from Wichita Falls, and Camp Boulder in the Wichita Wild Life Refuge near Cache, Oklahoma. Hundreds of local youngsters attended Camp there last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Cartwright and son, Lou, visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Senter in Gainesville and attended the T. C. U.-A&M football game in Fort Worth on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wren and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Peddy and son visited the Wren's little son at Gonzales Warm Springs over the week end.

Old Door Becomes Table

AN OLD door may be converted into a sturdy play table for youngsters.

First select some old water or gas pipes that will serve as legs of the right height for the youngsters who will use the table. Fittings that screw on the door, at the corners, and into which the threaded end of the pipes will fit can be obtained at a hardware store. Similar fittings will protect the floor.

All hardware on the door should be removed. Provide a smooth, splinter-free surface by attaching a panel of Masonite 1/4" Tempered Presswood with 1" brads. Protect the children's fingers further by applying strips of this material to all edges. By putting on the strips first, the top panel will cover the edges and make a neat job.

The legs may be painted, and the new table top likewise primed and painted or given three coats of waterproof varnish. With a table like this, children can have fun, indoors or out, for years, as the sturdy construction and durable surface will allow all sorts of rough treatment. As the children grow, the table can grow with them—simply by increasing the length of the pipe legs.

Mrs. J. O. Tynes is visiting her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frank Bowley and children in Midland this week and will spend next week with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jot Tynes and children in Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowley were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frank Bowley and children in Midland. They helped their grandson, Joey, celebrate his fifth birthday with a party in his home on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Tom Martin and Mrs. Walter Harris visited relatives in Paducah and Wellington over the week end.

Mrs. S. E. Robertson spent last week with relatives in San Saba.

Notes From Knox Farms, Ranches

By W. J. Bryan, Knox County Agent

This year for the first time in many years cotton burrs are being put back on the soil in some parts of the county and with the A. S. C. payment I think farmers who are not carrying their burrs back are missing a very good soil improvement program. Each bale of cotton will produce about 500 pounds of waste, on this basis we will produce something like two thousand tons of burrs that would be worth about $14,000.00 plus the additional production of organic matter for mulch and water penetration which should amount to at least 3,500 bales or $325,000.00. This would give the county something like $339,000.00 additional money for fertilizer expense saved and increased production. This would be about $674.00 for each farm in Knox county.

The people in town don't like the smoke from the burr burners, but I think that the burrs are too valuable for us to waste.

following are some of their values:

1. Cotton burrs are about equal to a 1-1-1 ratio of fertilizer. At present values this is about $7.00 worth of fertilizer in a ton. To this you can add the value as organic matter and the benefits obtained from moisture holding capacity being increased in the soil, which is probably more valuable to us than the fertilizer value.

2. Tests at Lubbock have proven that cotton burrs are of more value to farm land than barnyard manure.

3. Farmers on the plains report a 10 percent increase the first year in lint cotton yields when burrs are applied at 4 tons per acre.

4. The Spur Experiment Station report a doubling of moisture penetration. When they applied 4 tons of burrs per acre the moisture penetration was 29 inches and on similar soil near by where no burrs were applied the moisture penetration was only 15 inches.

5. The Spur station also shows an increase of lint cotton per acre of from 13 to 59 pounds per acre.

6. Cotton burrs have almost as much value for cattle feed as cotton seed hulls when fed along with other good quality roughages and meal.

As you know farmers and farm hands come under Social Security this year for the first time and the forms for Social Security will have to be filled out before you can complete your income tax. I have some booklets which cover the subject and will be glad to give them to anyone desiring them.

There is no substitute for winter temporary pastures. They are the only dependable source of green grazing during the late fall, winter and early spring. It's time to plant for the early grazing.

Last year 1,329 Texas schools, with 305,328 pupils, participated in the special School Milk program. During the period an increase of 18,235,000 pints of milk was consumed and Federal expenditures were $718,000.

Don't overlook pastures in figuring ways to cut swine production costs. It is now time to plant the small grain pasture for fall, winter and spring grazing.

JOHN WHITE RAPS SENDING FARM SURPLUS, MACHINERY TO RUSSIA

State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White claims, in his current newsletter to citizens, strong public support for his stand in a Pleasanton speech, opposing the sending of American agriculture machinery to Russia. White also said he is opposed to marketing our surplus farm products in Russia when millions of people in the free world are hungry.

"Russia apparently is being slowed in military preparations by the failure of collective farming to produce enough food and fiber," White said. "We should give the matter some mature consideration before we aid in building up their agricultural potential. After all, food and fiber are as basic to warfare as guns and planes. Until we are certain of Russia's intentions, I think we should proceed with extreme caution."

White's view is realistic. When we were at war with Germany and Japan, no one came forward with plans to aid the Germans and Japanese, which in turn would have aided Hitler and Hirohito in their conquests. We are engaged in a cold war with Russia, which may break into a shooting war at any time that Russia feels she can win. Communists are engaged in world conquest.

Obviously one of the compelling reasons for Russia's making peace overtures now is to gain time to quell the restlessness of her people at home. The Russian people are restive because of the shortage of consumer goods.

Are we to provide the machinery for light industry to rescue Russia before we even know what the Communists are planning? As White said, caution is best until we know their intentions. These intentions must be proved by acts, not by propaganda. —Editorial page, Houston Chronicle, Sunday, 9/4/55.

'56 Chevrolet sets new Pikes Peak record in top-secret test!

Not long ago a hush-hush, camouflaged '56 Chevrolet scorched the nerve-breaking road up Colorado's Pikes Peak for a new NASCAR* certified record—the first time that old King of the Mountains has seen a new official stock car record in years! And what a road! 170 chilling turns and no guardrail! It's the first and only time a new model ever proved itself such a great road car before its introduction! The '56 Chevrolet showed the kind of performance that makes driving safer and more fun. So wait for the car that beat the King of the Mountains!

Improvement Made On Credit Service To State Farmers

Further improvements in credit services to farmers are being made by the Farmers Home Administration, Walter T. McKay, the agency's Texas state director, said today.

Improvements in the management of the agency's operations were discussed at a training meeting held in St. Louis, Missouri, last week which Mr. McKay attended. A new employees training program, careful calendaring of state and county office work, public information responsibilities of agency employees, and how to get maximum use from administrative funds were discussed.

Farmers Home Administration officials attending the meeting were urged to take every step possible to further increase the participation by private lenders in the Insured Lending Program. These funds advanced by private lenders and insured by the agency along with funds appropriated by Congress are used by farmers to buy, develop and operate family-type farms. "With the expansion in our activities that has taken place in the last two years it is more important than ever before that we place our operations in high gear and give prompt and careful attention to every loan application," McKay said.

During the past year the agricultural loans made and insured by the agency reached a record total of $293,190,000 throughout the United States. Loans in Texas totaled $47,480,000.

The increased cost of developing farming systems that will make full use of a farm family's land and labor resources and provide a good income, and the emergency conditions brought on by the drought, were the main reason for the increased credit activity.

Farmers in Texas are served through 135 county offices located throughout the State.

Stockmen and farmers who produce slaughter calves will find available at the local county agent's office a new bulletin, B-799 Slaughter Calf Production. It was released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

LANDOWNERS URGED TO PLANT COVER CROPS

Now is the time to plant winter cover crops of Austrian winterpeas and vetch, and they should make good growth before the weather gets too cold with the moisture we now have in the soil.

The district supervisors have purchased both Austrian winterpeas and vetch seed, so that there would be a seed source in the district for farmers who wish to plant these cover crops. Also, some grain elevators and seed stores are handling these seeds.

The Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District also owns the equipment that can be used in the drilling of these crops. These drills have fertilizer attachments on them and it would be a good idea to put down phosphate under legumes that you plant. Phosphate stimulates growth of legumes and legumes make phosphate more readily available to following crops.

The purpose of legume crops is to protect and enrich the soil. The fact that they are not used enough on our cotton and grain land is evidenced by our soil losses and the lack of water-holding capacity of these soils. Cover crops not only add organic matter to the soil but return the various fertilizing elements that have gone into the making of the crops when the organic matter decays in the soil.

Considering the many benefits of cover crops, it is important that a portion of our land be in a cover crop each year.

During the period from Sept. 1, 1954-August 31, 1955, 146 employees of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service attended college to get information which they believed would be valuable in their work with rural families. Another group of 126 county agents and assistants received training in irrigation, sheep and wool and soils.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Not Worried About The Number Of Town People Trying To Become Farmers

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek discusses the farm problem this week, but leaves it as unsolved as ever.

Dear editor:

Everybody is talking about the farm problem these days and I always listen carefully, not to find out what the experts think the solution is but what they think the problem is.

One idea that attracted my attention the other day was a statement by an expert that the farm problem is being made worse by the fact the farm population is dwindling, but I could not follow him. The way I see it, farmers are producing too much as it is, and anything that reduces the numbers of farmers might reduce the surplus, although this doesn't necessarily work that way, as we've already got fewer farmers and more surplus than any time before in history.

Another expert said the cause of some of the farm problem is the fact farms are being bought up by "doctors, lawyers, bankers and merchants" and used to cut down on their income taxes from profits made in town.

I do not see how this constitutes a farm problem. The best way I know to cut down on the farm surplus is to turn some land over to a town farmer. Most of 'em go strong for a little while, fixing up the place, throwing paint around, stretching new wire, etc., but in a little while their interest seems to play out, along about the time they begin figuring up what it's costing them and how little they're producing.

In fact, one of the best ways I know to reduce the farm surplus in this country would be to turn over all farming operations to lawyers, bankers, doctors, and merchants for a couple of years.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Tie This One For Consideration-

Closed the office early last Saturday to go after pheasants with Pops Foster. I used fewer shells than the old gentleman and took home more birds—but not because I did better shooting.

I'd borrowed a dog for the occasion. Pops took along Blue, his ancient pointer. Several times I noticed Pops walk up to a clump of bushes Blue had pointed at and fire into the air—though he hadn't flushed a single bird.

Naturally, I wanted to know why. "Well," he said sheepishly, "I've been hunting with that dog for 11 seasons. His nose isn't much help any more—but I'd rather waste a shell than let him know."

From where I sit, Pops always shows consideration for people, too. For instance, this is a small thing, but he puts a bottle of beer on ice for me when I visit him—though he never takes anything but coffee himself. Even if he doesn't agree with me on a matter of personal choice (which is his right) he'd rather not make a "point" of letting me know.

Plymouth Offers Wide Selection In New 1956 Models

Plymouth offers a wider selection of body types and models in the 1956 line than were available in 1955. The new 1956 models are now on display in the show rooms of Harrell Motor and Equipment, local dealers.

There are now four separate lines and 15 models. Added to the Plymouth line-up are a four-door hardtop in the Belvedere line and a two-door hardtop in the Savoy line. The Suburbans are now a separate line of cars.

Plymouth is building three types of Suburbans—the four-door Sport Suburban, two-door and four-door Custom Suburban and two-door Deluxe Suburban. The four-door models are available with a third seat which increases passenger capacity to eight.

There are five models in the Belvedere line—four-door sedan, four-door hardtop, two-door club sedan, two-door hardtop and convertible.

Plymouth's middle line, the Savoy, is made up of a four-door sedan, two-door club sedan and two-door hardtop.

The Plaza group, priced lower than the Belvedere and Savoy, is composed of a four-door sedan, two-door club sedan and three-passenger coupe.

Plymouth convertibles are powered by V-8 engines. All other models are available with V-8 or six cylinder engines.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore are visiting relatives in Paris this week.

Mrs. Chester Bowden and Mrs. T. A. Brown visited Mrs. O. B. Paulsel in Fort Worth this week.

I guarantee the surplus would disappear completely.

There's something about farming that looks easy from behind a steering wheel while you're driving along the road, but the picture changes completely when you get behind the steering wheel of a tractor.

Of course, the same thing would work in the other direction. Any time this country gets a worrisome surplus of money on hand just put me and a bunch of other farmers in charge of banking and we'll take care of it.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

MASCULINE FAVORITE

Here's what the well-dressed young man will be wearing on rainy days this fall. Radolph Arnstein designed this practical "rain-over suburban coat" in plaid cotton that is crease-resistant and Zelan treated to give both rain and stain protection. The cotton coat has a corduroy collar and side vents. The National Cotton Council says versatile cotton coats are expected to be masculine favorites this season.

Heart Attack Is Fatal For Former Knox County Man

Jimmy (Junior) Jackson, 30, formerly of Goree, suffered a fatal heart attack at his home in Sutherlin, Oregon, on October 4 as he returned from a hunting trip.

Mr. Jackson bagged a buck while hunting, dragged it two miles through the woods, loaded it into his car and drove home. He collapsed as he reached the front door and died a short time later.

He was born at Goree on August 30, 1925, and made his home there until moving to Sutherlin about seven years ago. He spent three and one-half years in the navy in World War II, and was a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Sutherlin.

Survivors include his wife and two children, James Clifford, 7 years old, and Dale, 2, all of Sutherlin; his mother, Mrs. Lessie Jackson of Goree; three brothers and three sisters, Buster of Vera, Loyd of Kerrville, Roy of Goree, Fay of Fort Worth, Opal of Goree and Golda of Wichita Falls.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Saturday, October 8, from the Methodist Church of Sutherlin with Harry Hapton, Presbyterian pastor of Roseburg, officiating. Interment was in Fair Park Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ledbetter visited relatives in Fort Worth over the week end. Benny Ledbetter and Jerry Scott, both students at A&M, met them there for a week end visit.

City Health Programs Keep Pace With America's Growing Families

1948 CHILDREN WILL LIVE LONGER AND HAPPIER AS HEALTH PROGRAMS KEEP PACE WITH AMERICA'S GROWING FAMILIES. 1955

United States government figures for the past seven years show the number of American families having three or more children has gone up more than 47 per cent since 1948.

It is estimated that the population of this country by 1960 will be 176,000,000. People today live longer; a child born since 1950 enjoys an average life expectancy of 68 years, as compared with only 47 years in 1900.

This remarkable population growth would have caused serious health problems had it not been for the foresight and ability of our nation's public health and sanitation officials, The Sanitary Engineering Committee reports.

Many factors have contributed to our improved public health, but not has been more significant than our municipal sanitation successes. Thousands of miles of underground clay pipe mains carry wastes from homes and community centers. Vitrified clay pipe is recognized as the one material that provides all the qualities necessary to satisfy the exacting demands of sanitary structures. Clay pipe resists all the effects of acids and other caustic substances that are found in sewer systems.

Modern sanitary systems constructed of clay pipe play an everyday role as guardian of the health of the people. They are one of the city's lifelines, carrying away deadly wastes, and advancing Public Health—a vital line of defense.

Public Health is America's first line of defense.

Salvation Army Fund Campaign Is Now Under Headway

The general solicitation drive of the Salvation Army fund campaign got underway Tuesday with a kickoff breakfast at the American Legion Hall at 7 a. m.

Charles Baker, campaign chairman, gave final instructions to the workers. Baker spoke of the high regard he held for the Salvation Army and urged each worker to contact every one possible to help this fine program continue. The goal for this drive is $750.

Team captains, and their workers are: Gene Harrell—Jessie Wood, Mrs. Maud Merrell, Christine Burton; Winston Blacklock—Bob Brown, Dr. Alexander, Lee Blivins, Al Cartwright; L. R. Frost—J. D. Gillespie, Bill Morris, Dr. Stewart; J. C. Harpham—R. M. Almanrode, Bill Quattlebaum, Tom Bullington; Charles McCauley—Earl Hughes, Mrs. Jimmie Rodgers, M. L. Wiggins, Nora Broach, Ralph Cypert, Marshall Naurer. Mrs. Francis Jamison is campaign chairman at Goree, Mrs. Milton Kirby at Vera, and Mrs. L. G. McGuire at Gilliland.

Bobby Fay Killian left last Thursday for Lubbock where he has accepted employment with the Wes-Tex Gins.

L. V. Cook of Plainview visited friends here a while Thursday morning.
