IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE!

WINS PRESS' PRAISE—A charming young lady from a 10,000 acre dairy farm near Sandia, Texas, won the acclaim of Texas newspapers at the recent Texas Press Association meeting in Corpus Christi, Occasion was the Awards Dinner at TPA's 83rd Annual Summer Convention, Honor guest was Miss Louise Knolle, reigning American Dairy Princess. On behalf of the Daily and Weekly Newspapers of Texas, TPA Pres. Victor B. Fain of the Nacogdoches Daily Sentinel presented Miss Knolle with a large, wood-mounted, copper plaque. It bore her photograph and a tribute to her beauty, personality and talent . . . and for the recognition she brought Texas during her reign. She traveled more than 100,000 miles over the Continent and beyond its borders, speaking as for mile on behalf of the hatlon's dairy farmers.
