

JUBILEE CELEBRATION SLATED FOR FRIDAY

Do you remember how people looked some 20 years ago?

k-k

You will get an opportunity to see them within the very near future.

k-k

Dorsey Looney, right hand man of P. V. Williams at the Roxy Theatre, has dug through files and found some interesting photo slides taken of people a number of years ago. People who are men and women now were shown when they were tiny tots, and among the scenes is one made when the "tallest man in the world" came to Munday.

k-k

In testing out the slides, Looney has shown them to some Munday people. "That's my boy!" they would exclaim as they saw the photo that took them back through the years.

k-k

Looney plans to show these slides at the Roxy Theatre pretty soon. He hadn't set the date Monday, but they will be shown under the heading of "Munday Memories." Some of them are pictures of the "Baby Show" in 1938, and possibly some others date back further than that.

k-k

Our guess is that he will have a large crowd when he does show them. His idea at the present time is to show them during mid-week—possibly on Wednesday and Thursday nights, but he will determine the date in the meantime. People who are now married and have children of their own will see themselves as babies. It'll be a lot of fun.

k-k

That mess and jumbled-up affair you've been seeing at the Rexall Store will straighten out pretty soon, and A. L. Smith will have something special when it's completed, with new fixtures, new ceiling and lighting, new flooring—nearly everything new except the stock and workers.

k-k

Fixtures and trim are of Corina wood that comes from the Belgian Congo, Smith said, and it's in the old spice design. Pop said he would have the distinction of having the first drug store of that particular wood and design, "but I don't think that'll mean a thing!"

k-k

Many visitors and former residents have indicated that they will be here Friday night for our town's Golden Jubilee Celebration. Local residents will have guests for the occasion, to partake of Knox County watermelons and cantaloupes and to see "My Home Town."

k-k

The presentation of this show will be the crowning event of weeks of hard work for the director and members of the cast. It will be an event purely local in idea and presentation—one which only the community can claim credit, and one which will remain long in our memories.

k-k

Just a word to let you know, too, that we're celebrating almost on the same date of Munday's celebration, we are closing out Volume 51 and start Volume 52 next week. That means with this week's issue, The Munday Times is completing 51 years of publication. That's a long time, you know. By the law of averages, we doubt if we'll be here when the last issue of the next 50 is run off!

Voting Places On Wheat Quota Are Announced

Voting places in Knox County for the wheat marketing quota referendum to be held July 20 were designated today by H. H. Partridge, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The polling places are as follows: Benjamin, Truscott, Gilliland, Munday, Goree, Vera, Rhineland, Sunset and Knox City.

Growers eligible to vote in the wheat quota referendum are all those who will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest on a farm in 1957. These farmers (have been or are being) notified of their wheat allotments. Quotas do not affect those farmers who harvest 15 acres or less of wheat for grain on a farm.

If quotas are approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the wheat referendum, the quotas will remain in effect for 1957, and price support will be available to farmers who have complied with their farm wheat allotments at a level between 75 and 90 percent of parity. Those farmers who exceed the larger of the farm allotment or 15 acres will be subject to a penalty of 45 percent of the parity price for wheat on the excess production.

If more than one-third of the growers voting disapproves the quotas, they will not be in effect, and price support will be available to farmers who have complied with their farm wheat allotments at 50 percent of parity.

BRUSH ARBOR TRIO—Time out for a cool glass of water after a singing session, "Brush Arbor Chapel, which the trio sings for Munday's Golden Jubilee next Friday night. Members of the trio are Bud Phillips, Joe Lynn Phillips and Dick Ponder.

Boy Scout Court of Honor Is Held Friday Night; Star Awards Are Made

Munday Troop 76, Boy Scouts of America, held Court of Honor on Friday night, July 13, in the scout hut. W. R. Moore, Jr., district executive, opened court, introducing the Scoutmaster, Boyd Baker, who led the group in the Pledge to the Flag. A skit was presented by Jimmy Lee, Carroll Odell, Joe Ed Pruitt, James Holcomb and Tony Hobert for entertainment.

Advancement of Court of Honor was held by Weldon Smith, and 28 merit badges were awarded. Second class badges went to Tony Hobert, Tommy Dickerson and Billy Frank Fitzgerald. Receiving first class merit badges were Jimmy Lee, John Walter Massey, Allen Eiland and James Holcomb.

Highlight of the evening was presentation of the star award to Jimmy Lee, John Walter Massey and Allen Eiland. A Scout must earn five merit badges to be eligible for this high award, which brings him near the Eagle Scout. There have been only two star awards given to Munday Scouts in the past ten years, so Munday is proud of these boys.

John Johnson, Scout executive of the Northwest Texas Council, was introduced and gave a schedule of coming events for Scouts during the remainder of the year. He stated there has been an increase of from 349 to 535 in Scout membership in the Brazos District since January 1.

Hal Mabry, of Wichita Falls, district field executive, also attended the meeting.

BILLY GRAHAM FILM SHOWING AT KNOX CITY

The Billy Graham film, "Oil Town, USA," will be presented at a meeting of the Haskell-Knox youth at the First Baptist Church in Knox City on Saturday night, July 21, at 7:30 o'clock. All youth are cordially invited to attend.

After the film a get-acquainted fellowship hour will be held on the church lawn, and refreshments will be served. Come and meet with the young people from 20 churches of the association, plus others that will be represented.

ORGANIST—Melissa Lee will be at the Hammond organ throughout the musical interludes of "My Home Town," which will be presented Friday night celebrating Munday's Golden Jubilee. The organ is furnished by Max Kreutz House of Music, Wichita Falls.

Leaders In Goree Revival

Pictured above are Monroe Teeters, evangelist, and Carl Kinnard, singer, who will be in charge of the revival meeting which opens Friday at the Goree Baptist Church. Rev. Teeters is with the Friendship Baptist Church in Lamesa, while Mr. Kinnard is with the Key Baptist Church, Lamesa.

Services will be daily, at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m., with daily prayer meetings being conducted at 7:30 p. m. Rev. C. R. Mathis, pastor, extends a cordial invitation for everyone in this area to attend all services of the revival, which will run through Sunday, July 29.

Notes From Knox Farms, Ranches

By Roy England, Knox County Agent

The cotton insect situation in Knox County has become a little more complex this past week with the entry of the cabbage looper type leafworm into the picture.

In several fields in the Sunset and Munday area, this insect is doing moderate to heavy damage, as noted by the ragged leaves of the cotton.

Effective control of the cabbage looper can be obtained by the use of Endrin at the rate of 1 quart per acre. Endrin is also effective in the control of bollworms and may be used as a substitute for D. D. T.

Red Spider Mites are also increasing in population in a few fields and need to be checked closely for damaging infestations.

A County election board, consisting of the county agent, soil conservation service manager, F. H. A. supervisor, and Farm Bureau president will meet Monday, July 23, in the ASC office at Knox City to appoint committeemen to serve the ASC office during 1957.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Gore of Wichita Falls are announcing the arrival of a son on Tuesday, July 3. He weighed 7 pounds and 13 1/2 ounces and has been named Wayman Travis, Jr. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green of Munday and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gore, Vera, Mrs. Green returned home Sunday after a two weeks visit with her new grandson.

G. L. Pruitt left last Saturday for Fort Worth where he visited W. L. Wentworth. He and Mr. Wentworth left the first of this week for a visit with Grover Wentworth in Eureka Springs, Ark.

Oil Activities

Several people were present when the well on the Kelly Johnson place blowed in last Monday and sprayed oil over a large area. Potential production had not been determined or announced at press time this week.

Texoma Drilling Co. of Wichita Falls last week finished the No. 1 P. V. Cartwright as a Knox County Tennhill sand discovery one mile northeast of Goree. The well pumped 4 barrels of 41 gravity crude per day from perforations at 1659-64 feet. Home was bottomed at 1810 feet.

The following activities were reported in last Friday's Fort Worth Star-Telegram:

W. F. Lacy of Wichita Falls scheduled a 2,000-foot wildcat seven miles northwest of Goree as No. 1 Mrs. H. Birkenfeld.

Six miles east of Munday, Noel Pautsky of Wichita Falls staked No. 1 W. O. Ratliff. Contract depth is 1,990 feet.

Ira Krottinger of Wichita Falls was going to 1,800 feet on his No. 1 B. Coffman, one and one-half miles south of Goree.

A failure reported Tuesday for Knox County was Ada Oil Co. No. 1 W. L. Thornton, four miles southeast of Goree.

VERA COACH RESIGNS FOR RHINELAND POST

Coach E. M. Hughes of the Vera Consolidated Schools has resigned his position to accept the position of principal of the Rhineland school.

The elementary school at Vera also had an opening in the seventh and eighth grades. Supt. M. J. Kirby is now taking applications for the openings. Other faculty places have been filled.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Strickland and children of Fort Worth were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Strickland last week.

"My Home Town" will be presented at 8:15 p. m. Friday at Scruggs Field as the highlight of Munday's Golden Jubilee celebration.

The original musical show is in nine brief episodes which portray some of the heartbreak and humor reminiscent of the last fifty years in the Munday community. Although the story is symbolic, rather than historic, it does contain a number of interesting facts in its attempt to prove to a young couple the value of Munday as their home.

A cast of 60 local people will carry out the production as the story unfolds through the narrator, Gene Harrell. Miss Melissa Lee will play the organ.

The cast has become quite curious about "The Town Loafer," a secret character who is known only to the director, Mrs. Travis Lee, and the make-up committee. The only clue given to his identity has been Mrs. Lee's comment that one of the town's most active citizens was cooperating with the show to make this an excellent example of paradoxical casting.

The cast has been very enthusiastic about the musical numbers of this show. One of the songs entertaining them most is Dickie Morrow's, "Noah Had Nothing on Me," written especially for his bass voice.

The children of "The Lullaby Ballet" have also endeared themselves to the cast in their first experience in natural dancing. The work of Carl Green, who has superintended the school property during rehearsals and for the show, has been especially appreciated.

Watermelons and cantaloupes donated by Munday farmers will be served after the show. The Munday Fire Department is in charge of slicing and serving the melons.

Antique cars used in the production, a 1906 Brush run-about and 1907 Cadillac, will be on display.

The Munday Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the Golden Jubilee celebration, has issued an invitation to everyone of this area. A number of visitors and former residents are expected to attend.

Scruggs Field will be open at 8 p. m., with the Munday firemen assisting in parking the cars.

Library Again Open To Public

According to Mrs. Don R. Combs, librarian, the Munday Public Library is now open to the public. During the time the Chamber of Commerce Office was being remodeled the library was closed and since that time new shelves have been added and new books have been ordered.

Many years ago this library was started by the Munday Study Club as a continuous local project. Through the years the library has been supported locally and many books donated by local patrons. The library has grown until it now has some 2,000 volumes. Through the efforts of the Munday Study Club this library is a member of the Texas Library Association, and in order to conform with association requirements it became necessary to have an active Board of Directors. This board has been elected and each civic organization has representation. The Board members are: Mrs. R. D. Atkinson, chairman; Mrs. J. E. Jackson, J. C. Harpham, G. W. Hawkins, Weldon Smith, Russell Penick, and Mrs. Don R. Combs, librarian. The duties of this Board will be to adopt rules and regulations governing the functions of the library and to work progressively with the Texas Library Association toward improving the standards of a community wide project.

Under the new Board, the method of handling the library will be the same as in the past. The Board of Directors shall appreciate and constructive criticism of suggestion by which they might improve the library or its service to the community.

Mrs. R. A. Clements of Dallas visited her sister, Mrs. Chas. Moorhouse, and other relatives here several days this week.

OUR WEAK AND FLABBY YOUNGSTERS!

Writing in The American Magazine, John B. Kelly asks a startling question: Are we becoming a nation of weaklings?

Mr. Kelly—who was U. S. Director of Physical Fitness during World War II and was a famous athlete in his own right—says that "American youngsters today are weaker and flabbier than those in many other countries, and they are growing softer every year." He cites the results of a scientific study of more than 7,000 children, aged 6 through 16, in this country and in Europe. Almost 58 per cent of the American youngsters failed in one or more of six basic strength and flexibility tests, as against 8.7 per cent for the Europeans.

Why should this be the shocking case when, as Mr. Kelly says, our children "get better nutrition and medical care than those of most other countries?" The answer seems to be that our children are leading increasingly sedentary lives. They ride instead of walking—they devote more time to the TV set than to sports. So, in this case, the blessings of "the more abundant life" can be a danger.

The problem is soluble. Mr. Kelly believes that schools should grade students in physical fitness just as in other subjects—and insist on passing marks. To quote him again, "Our pioneer forebear made this nation what it is because they possessed great physical strength as well as mental and spiritual hardihood. We can become just as strong if only we try."

THE STATE OF SMALL BUSINESS

You've no doubt heard it said that small business is in a bad way these days.

A report from the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, based on government figures, tells a very different story.

In the last year corporations with assets of less than $250,000 have shown the greatest increase in profit margins. They did far better than the average for corporations of all sizes. It is true that business failures have increased since 1950. However, the number of new incorporations shows a greater increase—36 per cent against 24 per cent.

So the Chamber asks this apt question: If the pessimistic reports about small business were all true, how could such large numbers of new businesses spring up?

IN THE INTEREST OF SURVIVAL

In these days when successful farming is a complex business and a highly skilled craft, modern farm equipment is absolutely essential. And many a farmer must sometimes wonder just what kind of industry produces that equipment. Is it a tight little group in which a few concerns are dominant and don't need to worry overmuch about competition?

The answer is an unqualified No. An article in a recent issue of Fortune told the basic story when it said, "Some 1,500 U. S. companies are engaged in farm-machinery manufacture. . . . Although competition for business is rough. . . there seems to be plenty of room for small companies with a good idea and a workable machine." Fortune then named several companies, regional and national, which were practically unknown a few years ago but have forged ahead and made solid successes.

The producers of farm equipment, in other words, are in the same position as the producers of practically everything else in widespread use. There are no monopolies. No one has any corner on ideas and innovations. The consumer, in this case the farmer, is offered a very wide selection when he starts looking around for a new piece of equipment. Each manufacturer and its dealers are competing vigorously with other manufacturers and their dealers. So each must—in the interest of survival—attempt to provide the most efficient and long-lasting machine, at the lowest price.

IMPORTANT WARNING

A Hoover Commission report estimates that changes in the federal government's obsolete budget and accounting practices could save us as much as $4 billion a year.

Obviously, this reform should be effected as fast as Congress can act. However, if and when that happens, the taxpayers should not draw a deep breath and think that all is now well. The Wall Street Journal provides an important warning in these words: "A spend-thrift government could still waste the people's money no matter how the money is counted. The best accounting method in the world will not save money unless the Administration and Congress both are determined to keep down the exorbitant cost of Government."

—SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE TIMES—

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

LEAVEN

Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened" (Matt. 13:13). All of the parables of Christ illustrate some features of the kingdom of heaven. The parables of the leaven teaches the irresistible progress of the kingdom.

A preacher had a very close friend who was a technician in a laboratory. The minister found it interesting to visit with his friend while he was engaged in his work. On one occasion the technician asked the preacher what his subject would be next Sunday. He said he would preach on the parable of the leaven. The technician said, "Come over here and I will let you see what leaven does."

To make it fit the parable he took a small quantity of meal and put leaven in it. A high powered microscope was adjusted to the mixture, and the preacher was invited to look through the instrument. Very quickly a great battle was raging between the leaven and the meal. The preacher saw fires break out, and there were great explosions. There were volcanic eruptions and earthquakes. The meal made resistance, but the leaven was always victorious. It always made the attack. The meal did not attack the leaven, but the leaven attacked the meal. The leaven would not give up till the whole was leavened.

The kingdom of heaven is like the leaven, not the meal. When leaven is placed in meal or flour, it begins to work, and is constantly on the offensive. It never operates defensively. It never stops working as long as there is anything to work on. It preserves till the last particle is detected.

Jesus says the kingdom of heaven is like this. When one is preaching the gospel to a large congregation he may observe expressions of interest in some of his hearers, and apparent disapproval in others; but he cannot see or hear just what is going on in the hearts of those who hear. The leaven is working silently, but positively. Those who show adverse reason are not the kind of material for leaven to work on. The word of God works effectually in those who believe, but not in others (1 Thess. 2:13).

News From The U. S. Congress

Congressman Frank Bcard

The Administration's civil rights program is being considered in the House this week. This bill strikes at the very foundation of our government, in that it would destroy the historic separation of the authority of our States from that of the Federal Government. This bill clothes the Attorney General of the United States with authority that heretofore would have been considered unheard of in any country except one ruled by some totalitarian despot. The Attorney General would have the authority under this bill to disregard any rights that might be given to any individual under the laws of any one of the States to move in whether the person whom he intended to help wanted him to help or not, and through the use of the extraordinary powers granted him under this act he is empowered to control the thought and opinion of every American. Everyone should read the expressions of the Attorney General in support of this measure. They are as revealing as they are amazing. Here is the Attorney General of the United States impatient with our American concept that in order to violate the criminal statutes you must have a willful intent. Here he wants to proceed so swiftly and so quickly that it is impossible to be bound by the rules of the burden of proof and guilt beyond a reasonable doubt and proof that the accused intended to violate the law. The powers and provisions that this bill would bestow are terrifying in their implication and in addition to that, they are witness in their conception and dangerous beyond calculation in their lack of clarity. They can be given as many interpretations and as many defini-

Inherent in this bill are elements of division, of controversy, rancor and disunity. Sponsors of this legislation should realize the civil rights are not won by punitive legislation or through insubstantial law, or oppression by Federal tyrannies.

Visitors from home this week were Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Bartle and their son, Robert from Semour; Truman K. Pennell, Wichita Falls, and Miss Pat Shelton of Denton.

We're Celebrating, Too!

Sometime before the time the City of Munday was incorporated, The Munday Times came into existence, being established by Tom Durham. It has been in existence under several different owners since that time.

And now, along with the City of Munday, we are celebrating our . . .

51st Birthday

This week we bring down the curtain on Vol. 51, and start out with a brand new volume next week—Vol. 52, No. 1—which means the first issue of a new year for this newspaper during all these years. We try to make it a newspaper of and for local people, with news of local interest—news not usually carried in the daily papers.

Our pledge is to continue this effort during the next year, giving you the best local newspaper possible at all times.

The Entire Family Reads The Munday Times

. . . because it carries news of interest to all the family — makes your advertising more widely read!

Mr. Merchant:

Let this newspaper carry that added "Selling Power" for you. The newspaper has been proven the best advertising media for the area it serves.

The Transmission Line Brought Electric Lights To Munday And Area In 1914

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES CO. HAS BEEN SERVING MUNDAY SINCE 1922

It was not an isolated engine plant but a transmission line that furnished electric lights to the citizens of Munday when the lights were turned on for the first time in 1914. Munday has never had a local light plant but has always been served by a transmission line. It was one of the first in West Texas and was a forerunner to the vast network of high voltage lines which now make up the West Texas Utilities Company system.

In the early days most of the new communities in West Texas had privately-owned engine plants that operated only from "dusk to bed-time, and from dawn to breakfast." Few had standby services, and if anything went wrong at the plant the old kerosene lamps were called back into service.

It was in 1915 that W. G. Swenson and Morgan Jones of Abilene started construction of a transmission line from Haskell to Munday. They had purchased the Haskell light plant in 1914; installed additional generating equipment; and began formulating plans to bring electric lights to the Munday area for the first time.

At the time of purchase, the Haskell plant consisted of one 100 hp steam unit and a 75 hp steam unit for standby service. In 1915 they installed a 250 hp Diesel unit which gave the plant a surplus of generating capacity.

Although Munday was a distance of 21 miles from Haskell, that was a long distance to build a transmission line in those days. It was a 13,200 volt, single phase, two wires line and was more than adequate for the few customers who chose to replace the old lamps with modern electric lights. During the first few years of operation, there were never more than 125 customers.

A 13,000 volt line was built from Munday to Knox City the same year to serve about 100 customers; and a 9-mile line was built from Haskell to Rule to serve a few customers in that community. In 1918, a 6-mile line was built from Munday to Goree about 40 customers; and in 1920, the 3-mile line was built to Weinert.

For the past 34 years, Munday, Haskell, Knox City, Rule, Goree, and Weinert have been served by West Texas Utilities Company. It was in 1922 that the facilities, serving the six-town area, were purchased by West Texas Utilities, and made a part of the Company's system.

At the time of purchase, George Scales was manager at Haskell; Abden Holt was bookkeeper; and W. E. (Bud) Reynolds was operator at the plant. H. C. King, WTU manager at Haskell, was working as a lineman and serviceman.

Munday and the towns in that immediate area were growing and the demand for electric service was increasing each month. WTU began making plans to improve the service, and in 1934 started construction of a 33,000 volt line from Haskell to Munday. In 1922, the transmission line from Stamford to Haskell had been completed and the load on the Haskell plant was shifted to the new generating station in Abilene.

When the new line from Haskell to Munday was completed in 1924, Munday began receiving electric service from the central generating station in Abilene.

Munday was destined to become a key spot in West Texas Utilities Company's vast network of transmission lines serving the great West Texas area, and a 33 KV substation was built in 1925. Additional have been built from time to time as new lines were built through Munday, and it is one of the Company's largest substations. At the present time, there are six high voltage transmission lines served by the Munday substation.

The following year, ten miles of 33 KV lines were built from Munday to the Baylor County line to interconnect with the Texas Electric Service Company, as well as a new 33 KV substation.

Since 1922, the district headquarters for the Company had been located in Haskell, and after an addition had been built to the Munday office, the district headquarters were moved to Munday in 1926. The District was designated as District D and consisted of the towns of Munday, Haskell, Weinert, Goree, Rule, Rochester, Knox City, and Benjamin, W. O. Wallace, now District Manager in Ballinger, was the first district manager in Munday.

In 1922, a 66,000 Volt line was built from Throckmorton to Munday, and from Munday to Quanah which connected the towns in the Quanah area with the central generating stations in Abilene for the first time. When the Company's generating station at Lake Pauline was placed in operation in 1928, Munday became the key distribution point for electric energy generated in both Abilene and Lake Pauline. Munday became even a more important link in WTU transmission system in 1951 when a second generating unit at Lake Pauline was placed in operation. A new 66,000 volt line was built from Lake Pauline to Munday so that electric energy from the plant could be switched direct into the system from the Munday substation.

During the past 30 years since the district headquarters were first moved to Munday from Haskell, five men have served as manager in the Munday office.

In 1927, W. O. Wallace, the first district manager, was transferred to Quanah and was succeeded by Carl Mahan. Mr. Mahan is now working in the General Office in Abilene as tax commissioner. In 1929, the Munday district was divided between three districts with headquarters in Childress, Quanah, and Stamford.

Munday was made a sub-district headquarters and was made a part of the Quanah District along with Weinert, Goree, Rochester, Knox City, and Benjamin. Rule and Haskell were included in the Stamford district.

W. S. Dickerson served as manager in Munday from 1929 until 1931 when he was succeeded by the late Mat Dillingham who later became district manager in McCamey. W. R. Cabaness served as manager from 1937 until 1939 when he was succeeded by A. H. Mitchell who has served as manager for the past 17 years. Mr. Cabaness is now employed in the Accounting Department in the General Office in Abilene.

Through the years, Munday has been a very important part of West Texas Utilities Company transmission system. Through the big Munday substation, electric energy, generated in the major steam plants, is dispatched over high voltage transmission lines to the north, the south, the east, and the west. Work is now under way to construct a 138,000 volt line from the Munday substation to the Paint Creek Power Plant near Stamford which will connect the Lake Pauline Plant, near Quanah, with the Abilene Power Plant.

This is just another step on the part of West Texas Utilities Company to build ahead for a growing West Texas, and bring cheap, dependable electric service to 167 communities, towns, and cities in 49 West Texas Counties.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Combs and Luann spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Claud Rogers, Jr. in Abilene.

LOCALS

Mrs. Rose Jones and Debbie McCall are spending this week in Iraan with Mrs. Jones' son-in-law and daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clements, Jeri and Margaret. The grandchildren will accompany Mrs. Jones home for a week's visit.

F. E. Busby of Nolan spent last week here with his aunt, Mrs. A. U. Hathaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haymes visited his brother and wife, Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Haymes, in Childress over the week end.

Miss Anna Sue Phy returned home last Sunday after a week's visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Edgar. Her mother, Mrs. Ray Phy, and daughter, Cathy, met her in Wellington.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorris Tugle and sons of Brownfield visited their parents, Mrs. T. H. Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tugle, over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Tugle returned home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Hardy and children visited her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Dill, in Amarillo and with friends near Amarillo last Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Michael were visitors in Wellington last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Edgar spent the week end in Wellington, where they attended the wedding of their niece, Evelyn Joyce Warwick, to Mr. Joe Lindsey on Sunday afternoon. They also visited relatives near Quanah enroute.

Mrs. Joe Jarvis took her mother, Mrs. Mary Williams, to her home in New Castle last Monday and remained for a week's visit. She is also visiting her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Cooper, in the Graham Hospital.

Mrs. Joe Jarvis and her mother, Mrs. Mary Williams of New Castle, and Jody Renicks visited Mrs. Georgia Mays, who is seriously ill, at Crosbyton last Sunday.

POWERFUL NEW

the insecticide that kills

BOTH

BOLL WEEVIL • BOLLWORM

After years of research, Shell Chemical announces: Endrin — used alone — will control both boll weevil and bollworm. No longer is it necessary to mix insecticides . . . endrin will give you effective control of boll weevils, bollworms, as well as thrips, fleahoppers, cutworms, lygus bugs, and other major cotton insects.

Fast acting. Soon after application, endrin goes to work, killing insects if they touch, taste, or breathe it.

Long lasting. Resistant to high winds and hot weather, endrin's lethal power is effective many days after application.

Easy to apply. Available as a spray or dust, small amounts of endrin will control both boll weevil and bollworm, as well as other major cotton pests.

This season, be sure of effective cotton pest control—use new powerful endrin. See your insecticide dealer for information on the application best suited for this area. He can supply you with a well-known brand formulation containing endrin.

Livestock Prices Show Improvement

FORT WORTH—Mid-July cattle and calf prices showed unexpected strength at Fort Worth Monday. Despite numbers well above the 100,000 mark around the major market circle, the largest run of the season at the Fort Worth, prices were fully steady to strong all through the list.

Fort Worth's Monday offering of cattle and calves was around the 11,000 marker, and a top of $22 was paid for about 125 steers fed by Clyde McClung of Johnson County. It was the best price of the summer here.

Movement of both slaughter and stocker and feeder classes was active, and good and choice steers and yearlings ranged from $16 to $22, while common to medium sorts around $10 to $16. Fat cows drew $9.50 to $12.50, and canners and cutters sold from $6.50 to $9.50, some strong-weight cutters above that range. Bulls moved in the $9.50 to $13.50 bracket.

Good and choice slaughter calves bulked at $15 to $18, with common and medium sorts $11 to $14, and culls around $9 to $10. Good and choice stocker steer calves sold from $16 to $18.50, and steer yearlings sold from $17 down. Stocker cows trade continued dull in view of the hot dry weather.

Marsha Moore, Luann Combs, Paula Thompson, Karen Johnson, Carolyn Michels, Annette Henderson, Cheryl Matthews, Exa Lee Peysen, Rosann Nelson, Millie Moore, Kathy Burnett, Susan Rayburn and Donna Haynie.

Stockers Averaged $88.64.

In the special stocker and feeder sale for Angus and Angus crossbreds held at the Fort Worth market July 13, prices were strong to $1 higher and some of the tops sold around $2 above recent levels.

The quality was generally high in the offering and heavy buying power from Cornbelt areas was on hand for the event.

Top steer calves sold from $18 to $22, with top heifer calves at $15 to $17, with some of the champion heifers scoring $18.50 and $20. A total of 1,745 calves and yearlings grossed $154,668.19 to average $88.64 per head.

Winners in the judging came from a wide area: Grand Champion carlot of steers was from R. E. Pratt, Sulphur Springs, that topped at $22. Cattle from Jim Maddox, Colorado City, were second; third went to Smith & Francis of Honey Grove; fourth to Campbell Ranch Co., Barnett; and fifth to W. W. Rummings, Jacksboro.

Winners in the 20-lot steers were sold at $22 and came from Magic Valley Ranch, Grapevine; second was C. H. McFadridge, third was Circle F Ranch; fourth was Stewart Sewell, Jacksboro; and fifth was Ray McKinney, Goldsboro.

Champs of the 10-lot steers came from Herman Jones, Mullin; second was Marvin Browder, Fort Worth; third was H. D. Ranch, Alvord; fourth was Eugene Tipton, Breckenridge; and fifth was W. A. Moffett, Meridian.

Grand Champ steers were Pratt's carlot, and Reserve Grand Champs were Herman Jones 10-lot, which sold at $21. Grand Champion heifers and first place winners in the 10-lot division were from H. D. Ranch of Alvord and sold at $20; second was T. D. Williams, Jacksboro; third, Mrs. Jake Dearing, Fort Worth; fourth, T. D. Williams; and fifth, Rufus Peeples, Tehuacana.

Reserve Grand Champion heifers and winners in the 20-lot division came from Herman Jones, Mullin, and sold at $18.50. Second were the heifers from T. B. Knox, Parker County; third, Mrs. A. R. Billberry, Jacksboro; fourth, Circle F Ranch; fifth, E. M. Wahlmeir, San Angelo.

Lambs Open Weak $1.00 Or More Higher.

Favorable reports in the dressed meat trade along the Eastern seaboard, enabled salemen at Fort Worth to press for higher prices at Fort Worth Monday. Lambs and yearlings were strong to $1 higher, and tops were $2 above last week's close. Good and choice fat lambs were sold from $17 to $20, with medium and lower grades from $10 to $16. Stocker and feeders drew $13 to $16.

PROGRESS . . .

Is Not Money Alone, Service Also Plays Its Part

Money earned and saved and material things accumulated—plus service to the community—are vital items in progress.

This bank, through the years, has tried to give every service consistent with good banking and to give that financial advise and assistance necessary to the community's progress.

We congratulate Munday upon its 50 years of progress and its Golden Jubilee Celebration. We are proud of the part this institution has had in the community's progress and development through the years.

Marilyn Moore, G. Trollinger Marry June 22nd

Mrs. Marilyn Moore and Gayle Trollinger were united in marriage at 8 p. m. June 22 in the Church of Nazarene in Pampa with Rev. D. D. Elliott officiating for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Cleo Seitz of Pampa, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Trollinger, also of Pampa.

Given in marriage by her brother, Boyd Moore, the bride wore a gown of imported lace over satin. The fitted bodice of lace over satin closed down the back with tiny covered buttons and was styled with a bateau neckline accented with sequins. Her waist-length veil of illusion fell from a lace half-hat trimmed with a tulle ruffle and accented with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses over a Bible.

Miss Mary Immon was maid of honor, and Miss Phyllis Trollinger served as best man, and Leon Bradshaw was groomsmen. Ushers were Traves Taylor and Leo Moore. Nancy Moore was flower girl, and Bobby Trollinger was ringbearer.

Decorations for the ceremony included baskets of pink gladioli, palms and candelabra. Mrs. Lois Fagan was organist, and Mrs. Ray Moore of Clarendon, sister-in-law of the bride, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parsonage. The serving table was covered with a white satin cloth trimmed in pink, centered with the attendants' bouquets flanked by pink tapers. The four tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. John McAllease, sister of the bride, served the cake, and Mrs. Leon Bradshaw presided at the punch bowl. Guests were registered by Miss Jerry Hill, and background music was provided by Mrs. Lois Fagan.

The couple is at home at 719 N. Somerville in Pampa.

The bride is a senior in Pampa High School. The bridegroom was graduated from Pampa High School and attended Frank Phillips College and Arlington State College. Mrs. Trollinger is a former resident of Munday.

13 Students Of County Attend NTSC In Denton

DENTON—Knox County was represented by 13 students at North Texas State College in the school year just ended, the registrar's office reported this week.

Cumulative enrollment for the nine-month session was 6,342. These students came from 207 of the state's 254 counties, from 33 other states and from 11 foreign countries.

Dallas County sent 1,505 students of NTSC. Other counties represented by large groups were Denton 825, Tarrant 630, Grayson 179, Collin 160, Gregg 124, Cooke 112, Harris 104, Ellis 96, Wise 87, Wichita 85, Smith 67, Montague 62, Navarro 62, McLennan 56, Galveston 55, Bowie 51, and Hill 50.

ORIENTAL TOUCH—Inspired by Japanese kimonos and obis, this cotton sateen print dress by Joseph Lee is set off by gold butterfly obi bow in back.

These figures reflect the trend developed in the past three years at North Texas State of an enrollment increase of from 400 to 600 each year.

To serve this steadily growing student body, the college will put into use three new buildings in 1956, complete two others in 1955, and begin construction of five more in 1955, President J. C. Matthews has announced.

WHEAT GROWERS ARE REMINDED OF QUOTA

As a last minute reminder, Chairman R. G. Shrauner of the State ASC Committee, today called attention of wheat growers to wheat marketing referendum set for tomorrow, July 20.

Growers who in 1957 will harvest 15 acres or more of wheat are eligible to vote. Quotas do not effect farmers with smaller wheat acreages.

All growers should by now have their 1957 farm allotments but Shrauner points out if questions on the wheat program or voting places aren't clear, a visit should be made at once to the county ASC office for correct answers.

The issues to be decided by the vote deal with quotas, penalties on excess production and support prices. If two-thirds of the voters favor quotas, then quotas will continue in effect on the 1957 crop. A grower who exceeds the larger of his allotment of 15 acres of wheat will be subject to a marketing quota penalty on his excess production. Under quotas the support price for growers who comply with their wheat allotment will be between 75 and 90 percent of parity.

If more than one-third of the voters disapprove quotas, no quotas nor penalties for excess production will be in effect. The support level will drop to 50 percent of parity for those growers who comply with their allotments. This drop is provided by law.

The vote will not affect acreage allotments. Legislation provides that wheat allotments shall be in effect each year except in the time of emergency. Marketing quotas are proclaimed and voted upon whenever the wheat supply exceeds the normal by 20 percent or more. Right now, says Shrauner, the supply of wheat available for 1956-57 is 1.4 percent above the normal supply.

Petty Graft in The Farm Industry
Petty crime pays off in Texas. At least, for a small percentage of scheming opportunists it does! These men make thousands of dollars operating outside our state agricultural laws and then pay small fine for doing business illegally.

The trouble is with some of our laws as they pertain to farm nursery stock and seed sales. The laws are good—offering adequate protection to buyers and sellers—but the penalties for violation are too light.

State inspected and tagged seed is a case in point. The Texas Seed Act provides that each bag of seed offered for sale must be properly marked as to its quality and content on the tag to let the buyer know what he is paying for.

An unscrupulous operator can mislabel his seed bags, changing a high price for what is actually an inferior and cheap product. The penalty for this action is a nominal fine.

If the seller violates the law on a large scale he can make tremendous profits. The only recourse the law has is to fine him for each illegal sale—a lengthy and expensive proposition, even if it can be proved.

The end result is that small fines serve as a nuisance to legitimate businessmen who accidentally violate the law and only slap the hand of schemers who operate on the outer fringes.

A goal of the Texas Department of Agriculture is to correct this inequality in the next session of the Legislature. For first offenders, the penalty will remain about the same. But for repeated violations, the dealer "should have the book thrown at him".

In the meantime, a drive by agricultural inspectors is underway to offer as much protection as possible to prospective seed buyers. Known offenders of the seed act are being subjected to a "harrassive campaign", to discourage the illegal sales. Fines are being levied fast and frequently.

In addition, wide publicity is being given to cases filed in court on offenders who have been fined repeatedly on other occasions. This is one of the best Farmers are reminded by C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist, that they have until October 1 to file a claim for refunds of the Federal gasoline tax on gasoline used for farming. The claim will cover the period from January 1, through June 30, 1956.

Gulf Coast Prairie soils, especially those east of the Brazos River, and those in much of East Texas could profitably utilize applications of agricultural limestone, says M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist.

methods to discourage such operations. Legitimate dealers have requested this "clean-up campaign". They know that sellers and buyers suffer equally from such disregard of the law by a small percentage of "petty grafters".

IT'S THE LAW in Texas
A public service program of the State Bar of Texas

No Will? State Will Name Your Heirs.

What will happen if you should die without executing a legal and proper will? Who will inherit your property? Your husband, wife, mother, father, children, your wife's relatives? The best way you can say who will have it is to provide a will which protect your rightful beneficiaries and dispose of your property in accordance with your wishes.

When a deceased has no will, or dies "intestate" as the law calls it, the property of that person is distributed according to a detailed formula fixed by law. In some cases this may be way you yourself divide it—but in many cases it is not.

The provisions of the law concerning the distribution of the property of a person who dies without a will are rather complicated, and all of the possibilities cannot be covered by a general statement.

There are different rules for real estate and for personal property, for community property and for separate property, for homestead property, and for all of the many possible combinations of surviving relatives. Each situation must be carefully studied to determine the correct distribution of the property.

For example, here is a general idea of how the community property which you and your spouse have accumulated will be divided if you do not make a will prior to your death.

If your husband or wife survives and there are no children, the surviving receives all of the property.

If, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of deceased children, they would divide one-half of the property, while the surviving spouse would receive the other one-half.

Of course, grandchildren do not share in the estate unless their parent who would inherit is deceased. And when descendants of previously deceased children do inherit, they receive only the portion that the child would have received, regardless of the number of such descendants.

An odd note, perhaps, is that the surviving already owns one-half of the community estate prior to your death, and the law adds nothing to this share where there are children surviving.

When there are only children and their descendants surviving, they divide the entire community estate between them. (This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Representative SOUTHWESTERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Congratulations On Fifty Years Of Progress

The progress of a community, company, or individual is a relative thing. The physical accomplishments in construction and growth are one measure. Another is the advance in social and economic life... and still another is the improvement in the convenience and comforts of individual living.

Munday can be justly proud of its "Fifty Years of Progress." We're proud of our part as your partner in that progress, and the part which dependable low-cost electric service in unlimited amounts has had in making that progress possible.

Serving Munday since 1922, the West Texas Utilities Company has grown with Munday and West Texas. Today, WTU serves 167 towns and communities in forty-nine counties.

The electric business is different from most other businesses. Our product—electric power—cannot be manufactured and stored for future use. We must have power plants, transmission and distribution systems with power to instantly deliver energy whenever and wherever you want it.

That's why we are working now—planning and building ahead—to provide the electric power necessary to spark the continued progress of Munday and the area.

Statement From Rep. Ed J. Cloud

First, I wish to thank the people of Knox County and the people of the other counties that compose the 83rd legislative district, for the vote of confidence that you gave me two years ago in sending me to Austin as your duly elected state representative. I enjoyed the work. There is no better way in which one may serve his or her state during peace time than being an honest, able, and conscientious member of the State Legislature. I may say that during the current session that I received all the recognition that a new member is ordinarily accorded. I served on the following committees which were of my choice: Banks and Banking, Municipal and Private Corporations, School Districts, Education, and Military and Veterans Affairs. These assignments were given in consideration of my past experience and training. I was in the banking business for fourteen years, nine years of which were in an executive position. I was a school teacher for fourteen years; I served overseas as an enlisted man during World War I and saw fifty-seven days of continuous combat service. During the last sixteen years I have been engaged in the operation of farms and during the meantime I served for eight years as mayor of my home town, Rule; in addition to the above, I have served as Independent Executor of at least three Estates, the business of all was terminated without trouble or charge or unfairness; too, I have been actively identified with various civic affairs of our community, and I have been an active worker in the local church of my choice. May I say that I am not asking for re-election on the plea that I need the office financially, though I am not what you call a wealthy man I have always, since I was 20 years of age, made my own way and most years I save money and I make it honestly.

During the past session I supported the old age pension measure without amendments; I supported a bill that would have largely cured, in the future, such troubles as recently experienced by the Waco Guaranty Trust Company, but the bill was defeated; though I am not an authority in the insurance business, I supported other bills that had as their purpose the cure of insurance troubles; I supported most of the educational measures that came up, probably all except one, and I have letters of commendation from educational leaders of the state in which they expressed their appreciation for my work in that field; though the field of agriculture comes under Federal jurisdiction, there are a number of bills that come up that were of only state jurisdiction; I also have in my files letters of commendation from agricultural officials and other leaders in which they set their seal of approval upon my attitude; I supported the Special Schools and the Schools for the Unfortunate; I opposed a two-cent tax raise on gasoline, and was one of the group of House members who went in to a solemn agreement to stay in session all summer rather than vote for a two-cent tax raise on gasoline; I was one of the group who held up adjourning the session, and being called back into special session when we could have drawn pay. We wished to finish the job without strings, for in a special session we could have only considered that which was submitted to us. We worked hard for an additional thirty days without pay in order to be independent and unrestrained.

I may say that I believe that the legislature should meet every year for in no other business that I know do the directors meet as seldom as every two years. There are many problems to come up with the next year's session. Among these are the penitentiary, Conservation, Education, Insurance, and Lobbying. There are too many conflicting interests and ideas that prevented a satisfactory adjustment during the last session. Let me say I favored a water-users pay program unless the districts see fit to levy an ad-valorem tax—I certainly opposed a 3-cent State advalorem tax, for too much of our territory could not have derived any direct benefit.

I am in favor of the segregation of our schools and will do what I can legally to continue this system—but I will not go to open rebellion against the federal government—I believe this is a state right. I oppose federal encroachment upon the states whether in the fields of Education, social life or in business that is more or less local in its nature. I supported a reformed Veteran's Land Bill—with safeguards around it.

In conclusion I may say that Texas is now raising and spending about three quarters of a billions dollars a year and it is the responsibility of the legislature to raise these funds and to earmark the spending. It is the responsibility of the voters to send men and women to the legislature who already are Trained and Experienced, men and women who are without biases and prejudices. Governors and Legislators come and go—but principles remain. Let us go to the polls and vote for whom you think is best qualified for the job. A person should not ask for the job unless he can be on the job. I may say that I am a Democrat—I do not believe that the principles of Jefferson, Jackson, and Wilson should be permitted to die. I supported the Democratic Nominees this year from constant to president. If my experience as a teacher, soldier, banker, mayor, farmer, civic worker, churchman, and as a resident of your district for 56 years merits your consideration to the point of electing me to a second term as a member of the legislature, I shall ever hold in mind your interests; and I am sure that you will hold in mind that all members of the legislature are not crooks as some seem to infer. (Pol. Adv.)

FORMER 4-H MEMBERS CAN BE NOMINATED IN NEW AWARD PROGRAM HONORING ADULTS

Do you know a member of your community whom you consider a notable success in his or her chosen career or who has an outstanding record as a citizen or as a leader in community and public affairs? And is this person a former 4-H member?

And have you often thought that that person should receive some form of public recognition for his or her acceptance of citizenship responsibilities and achievement in life? If so, you now have the opportunity to do something about it, according to G. L. Noble, director of the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, who recently announced that the Plant Food Division of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation would again sponsor the National 4-H Alumni Recognition Program, the only 4-H Award Program honoring adults.

You can help nominate one of your neighbors for these coveted awards by filling out the form below and sending it to your county Extension agent.

The program provides two certificates as awards in each county. Four state winners, selected from all the county winners are presented burnished copper plaques mounted on walnut.

Eight people, four men and four women, chosen from all the state winners, will receive gold and all-expense trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, November 25-29.

Men and women who have previously been 4-H Club members, who have an outstanding record of participation and leadership in community activities and who are a success in their chosen occupation or profession are eligible for consideration. So, if you know any one in your community who is eligible for this award fill out the blank and send it to your County Extension Office. They have official nomination forms.

Many 4-H Alumni are successful farmers and homemakers. Others are leaders in business, government or civic affairs. Some may not have been recently active in 4-H Club work, yet because of the basic training received through the 4-H program, they contribute to the advancement of community, state and nation.

Purposes of the awards are (1) to inspire present-day youth to greater accomplishments by providing them with living examples of dependable purposeful citizenship and (2) to encourage former 4-H Club members to support and cooperate in 4-H work.

Fill in information regarding nominee for National 4-H Alumni Recognition Award, attach any supplementary information which may be helpful and submit to the County Extension Office.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—A disease 2000 years old is still with us according to Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health. The disease is tetanus or lockjaw and is caused by bacteria found in earth, garden mold and manure. The bacteria are normally found in the intestines of animals, such as horses, cows, sheep and goats.

Tetanus bacteria thrive where there is no free air or oxygen. That is why a puncture wound such as that caused by nails, splinters, or gunshot is the most dangerous. Especially is this true when the injury occurs in a barn yard, cow pasture, or where field manure has been used.

All such wounds should be taken seriously. They should be opened, cleansed, and dressed by a physician.

If tetanus develops, such signs as restlessness, stiffness of the neck, a tight jaw and beginning stiffness of the arms and legs may be observed. Usually such symptoms develop about five to eight days after the injury. Children may have convulsions and there will be fever.

It was not until late in the 19th century that a preventive measure was developed. At first, this protection against lockjaw was given separately. As years passed and research continued, doctors perfected a vaccine or preventive measure to protect the

Rhineland Club Has Meeting On Wednesday, June 6

On the 6th of June the Rhineland 4-H Girls' Club met with Miss S. C. Kinsey in the home of Mrs. V. F. Albus, adult leader. Marilyn Albus, junior foods leader, gave a demonstration on baking corn bread. Miss Kinsey presented record notebooks to all entrants in the County Dress Revue. After discussing plans for the annual county camp at Seymour, the meeting was adjourned.

The club met in Mrs. Albus' home on June 27. Evelyn Bellinhausen gave a demonstration on making a salad. The club made plans for attending county camp. After nomination for a gold star candidate for the club the meeting was adjourned.

On July 10 the club attended the county camp. The club registered, joined in the singing followed by a talk by Emilee Griffith on her trip to National 4-H camp at Washington, D. C. Then the club had lunch. At one-thirty the afternoon program started with wildlife followed by craft, safety, swimming, supper and concluded by a talk from Elise McGuire on her trip to 4-H Round-up at College Station. After this the club was homeward bound.

person early in life. Now this protection is given at the same time that immunization is given for diphtheria and whooping cough, and the combination is known as the "triple vaccine." It is given to a child in the last half of its first year of life, or earlier. Booster doses should be given at intervals to keep up the protection and especially after any puncture wound.

ACCENT RUGS WIN DECORATORS' FAVOR

A popular trend in home decorating is the use of lighthearted, gay cotton accent rugs in many rooms, the National Cotton Council reports.

The range of designs in the colorful, small cotton rugs is wide. Some of the novelty rugs feature fruits—a slice of pink watermelon with black, tufted seeds or a realistic, huge strawberry in its natural color.

One quaint rug appropriate for a child's room is of thickly tufted cotton in the shape of a big cat—size thirty-two by forty-two inches—with its features outlined in pink and blue.

Miss Janie Haynie of Fort Worth was a week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Haynie, Sr.

To The Voters Of This District

I would like to ask the support of all of you during the election to be held July 28th. I intended to try to contact each of you personally during the past few weeks, but unfortunately an automobile accident occurred as I was returning to my home from court. The injuries sustained in this accident prevented me from conducting as vigorous a campaign as I would have liked.

During the weeks that I was confined to the hospital and my bed, I got behind in my Court work, but as soon as my doctor released me I went back to holding Court. I have tried several cases in Baylor County, several in Knox County and several in Cottle County instead of running all over the District campaigning for re-election. I did this because I felt that you, the voters who gave me this job, would expect me to stay on the job and attend to it. I have several more cases set down and will be busy most of this month, but between cases and after Court I will see as many of you as possible.

The office of District Judge is an important one since it is the highest judicial job in the State outside of Appellate Courts, and the most important cases in the District are tried here. Experience and sound judgement are two great assets at this post. I hope I have acquired the former and demonstrated the latter during my years as your District Judge.

Most of you know me and are familiar with my record as jurist in your District Court. To the best of my ability I have been just and fair during the time I have served you. If re-elected, I promise to continue performing the duties of District Judge to the very best of my ability.

Your Vote Influence Will Be Appreciated.

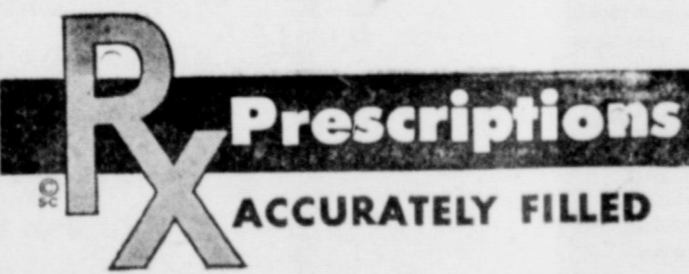

Lewis Williams

District Judge, 50th Judicial District

Miss Pat Garrett of Lubbock, bride-elect of Gerald Russell of Vera, was honored with a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Wesley Trainham last Monday afternoon, from 3:30 to 5:30.

Receiving guests were Mrs. Wesley Trainham, the honoree, Miss Pat Garrett, her mother, Mrs. A. L. Garrett of Lubbock, the groom's mother, Mrs. Ted Russell, and Mrs. Clyde Beck, sister of the groom.

Guests were registered in the bride's book by Mrs. Levoy Kinnibrugh during the calling hours.

Mrs. Maurice Hughes and Mrs. Clelan Russell presided over the service of refreshment. The dining table was draped with a beautiful cut work cloth laid over pink. In the center was a beautiful arrangement of white gladiolus placed on a mirror reflector with ribbon streamers reading "Pat and Gerald". Mrs. Sam Shipman presided over the gift display.

Background music during the calling hours was provided by Mrs. Carl Coulston.

Serving as hostesses were Mesdames Tom Bowdoin, Crilford Robertson, Sam Shipman, Bill Feemster, Levoy Kinnibrugh and Wesley Trainham.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Rogers of Abilene visited her mother, Mrs. R. C. Spinks, and the Lee Feemsters on Sunday. Mrs. Spinks returned home with them for a visit.

Rev. and Mrs. David McCubbin of Fort Worth visited the Vera Baptist church Sunday, where he was speaker at the morning hour.

Virginia Jackson, who is a student at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Jackson and children. She was accompanied home by three friends, Cieta Craighead, Pat Faulkner and June James.

Week end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson were Mrs. Carl Patterson of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Thornhill of Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nix and children of Haskell.

Week end guests in the Ed Allen home were Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes Abernathy of Jack-County.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clark and three children of Olton spent a week's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beck and children of Lubbock visited home folk over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Couch and Patty were called to the bedside of his father, T. J. Couch, in Big Spring Veterans hospital last Thursday. The condition of Mr. Couch was not as serious as reported and he is somewhat improved. Mrs. Tubby Horn, Linda and Vickie of Riverton, Wyoming, came Friday to be with her father and visited with Clyde and family.

Mrs. Mary Coleman and Barbara Ann of Malvern, Arkansas, visited last Friday with Mrs. Coleman's nieces, Mrs. J. A. Fuller and family and Mrs. Grady Hardin and family.

Robert Thorp and Maxine Park of Pecos visited recently with the Beck kin.

Mrs. Nell Thomas of Odessa, visited Saturday and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. A. S. Jernigan. Mrs. Etta Goodrich returned home Saturday after two weeks visit with relatives in Graham.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Christian recently were their children, Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson and little daughter, Mary Pam, of Dumas and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Christian of Seymour.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Hardin, Beverly and Mickey, took Gary to Camp Klebit near Thorp Springs last week end where he will spend the week. The family visited briefly with Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hardin and children in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bohannon and children of Midland and Mr. and Mrs. Newton Richards and family of Wichita Falls have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Richards.

Mr. Richards is a patient in the hospital at Knox City after suffering some bad burns received on his hands while burning trash at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. McNew of Lamesa visited with her sister, Mrs. J. N. McLaughery, last week.

Harold Hurd of Abilene spent last week with his mother, Mrs. Tom Hurd.

Gaylon Scott and his mother, Mrs. Lola Scott, went to Dallas Monday to see Elton Scott of Gilliland, who is a patient in the hospital there. Elton was stricken with an acute attack of appendicitis enroute to Dallas on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Welch were in Wichita Falls Monday to see Mrs. Roy Vehon who it a patient in the General Hospital after undergoing surgery Monday morning.

Visiting recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kinnibrugh were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. McCuiston of Ralls.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerrell Trainham of Wichita Falls visited Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Trainham.

Stanley Ray returned home Monday after visiting with relatives in Abilene for a few days.

Week end guests in the home of Mrs. Jim Hughes were Lyndal Hughes and son, Larry, of Justin, Mrs. Clarence Allen, Janet and Nancy, of Abilene and Mrs. C. D. Tanner, Iona, Iva and Russell of Olton.

A ten day revival will begin at the First Methodist Church on Friday night, July 29th, at 8:00 o'clock. Rev. S. A. Wolfe has announced. Services will be conducted twice daily. Rev. James Futch of Hermleigh will do the preaching and Tom Pennington of Seymour will be guest song leader. Prayer services will begin at 7:30 each evening. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Miss Mozelle McWilliams of San Angelo was a week end guest of her sister, Mrs. Donald Hobert, and family.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Favors Water Being Piped Over The Country From The Ocean, With One Provision

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson farm on Miller Creek apparently has water on his mind, or brain, as you prefer, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
While coming back from town the other day, I found a newspaper some roadside picnicer had used to wrap his lunch in, newspaper are a lot better and a far cry from the models we used to get 25 years ago even if they aren't any more ant-proof now that they were then, I brushed the crumbs and the ants off and brought it on home with me and headed straight for a shade tree in the pasture without going by the house, women have no sense of intellectual values and consider household chores like patching the floor or emptying the garbage as important as mental nourishment.

I hadn't been reading long when I ran across an article that got my mind off the international situation and down to common ordinary living.

According to it, the time may come when man will whip the water shortage situation, not by producing rain but by figuring out a cheap way to eliminate salt from sea water and piping the stuff inland to wherever a dry spot shows up. Have a network of pipe lines running all over the country.

According to the expert making this prediction, it may be around 1990 or the year 2000 be-

BOYCE HOUSE

Even the worst of man is capable of an act of kindness, now and then.

For example, Jesse James, foremost in the field of holding up trains and robbing banks. One afternoon, he and his men rode up to a farmhouse and asked the widow who lived there with her several small children to prepare them a meal. After they had eaten, the leader handed the woman a fifty-dollar gold piece.

She thanked him but he saw that she was worried about something and in response to his questions, her story came out: When her husband died, his partner had claimed that a considerable amount of money was due and thought she did not believe this, he had papers which seemed to bear him out so she had mortgaged the little farm to pay the debt and now she could not pay off the mortgage and the man was going to foreclose. He was to come that night to make the last formal demand for payment of the debt, $1,000, and the poor widow was desperate with hopelessness.

The visitor, who had not revealed his identity, said, "You are not going to lose your home."

In The Dark?

In the dark about the problems of life? Jesus Christ can dispel your darkness and fill your life with light and happiness. Learn of His love for you at our church this Sunday. "God... hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light". 1 Peter 2:9

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

He produced a thousand dollars and handed it to the amazed woman, told her to be sure and get a receipt from the village Shylock, then he and his men climbed on their horses and rode away in the twilight.

Not long afterward, the mortgage-holder arrived and was astounded when the widow counted out the money. He signed a receipt and, still in a daze, got back into his buggy and drove off. On the way back to town, a branch crossed the road and as the horse was slowly climbing the other bank, out of the shadows of a clump of trees stepped a man with a handkerchief over the lower part of his face and a pistol in his hand. He seized the horse's bridle and demanded the driver's money. The terror-stricken man handed it over and then the robber stepped back into the shadows, mounted his horse and rode away.

The widow paid off the debt and thereby saved the little home, and Jesse James had his thousand dollars back—and so the story ended happily for everyone except Old Moneybags.

More than a billion broilers were produced in the nation in 1955. Texas producers raised 79 million birds valued at $60,411,000.

Wool producers will get an incentive payment equal to 44.9 percent of the net proceeds of the wool they marketed during the 1955 marketing year, says A. B. Wooten, extension economist. Payments are now being made to wool producers through county ASC offices.

P. O. Officials Annual Banquet Held Thursday

Curtis Cook, managing editor of the Wichita Falls Times and Record News, told postal officials last Thursday night that free communications of all kinds lift people of the world to a higher plane of existence together. The occasion was the annual banquet of Brazos Valley Postal Association employees held at Haskell.

On a recent trip to Europe, Cook said that he was told by a man from behind the Iron Curtain that "a roll of bread can become so important that a man will tear into cannons and machine guns with his bare hands for it."

"I think that time has come to the enslaved countries of Europe," he declared.

"The world now stands with power-mad dictators on one side and on the other side people with eyes on the stars ready to defend to the death the free exchange of information," he said.

Mrs. Sam Hampton of Goree introduced Cook to the 29 persons who attended the annual banquet.

Frank Pruitt, circulation manager of the Abilene Reporter-News, and Aaron Edgar of the Monday Times attended the meeting.

Postal officials attending included Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Chad Wilson, all of Knox City; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rinn of Old Glory; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haymes and Miss Merle Dingus, all of Munday, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Milam Diggs, all of Weinert; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Beecher and Mr. and Mrs. Hampton, all of Goree; Miss Bobbie Broyles of Aspermont; J. M. Diggs, Buck Kendrick, Pete Frierson and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spain, all of Haskell; C. L. Allen of Wingate, M. E. Trice and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Norman, all of Rule.

Linda Gayle Spain of Haskell provided musical entertainment.

July 20 is the date set for the wheat marketing referendum. The issues to be decided by the vote deal with quotas, penalties on excess production and support prices. A two-thirds favorable vote by eligible wheat growers will continue quotas in 1957.

WHEAT RATES ANNOUNCED UNDER PRICE SUPPORT, SOIL BANK PROGRAM

Farmers voting in the wheat marketing quota referendum on July 20 will have all the basic information they need in making their decision, according to H. H. Partridge, Chairman of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Wheat price supports have recently been announced at an average of $2 a bushel for 1957 production, to be available for those who comply with farm allotments in all commercial wheat States if marketing quotas are approved in the July 20 referendum, the Chairman explained.

This announcement was followed, on July 6, by an announcement of the "unit" rate for determining payments under the Wheat Acreage Reserve of the Soil Bank in 1957. This unit rate has been set at 60 percent of the national average price-support level.

The actual payments which farmers may earn for taking part in the 1957 Wheat Acreage Reserve will be determined by multiplying the base unit rate for the local county by a yield figure which will be established for the farm by the County ASC Committee.

If quotas are approved by at least two-thirds of the farmers voting in the July 20 referendum the wheat unit rate under the Soil Bank's Acreage Reserve in 1957 will be 60 percent of the $2 national average, or $1.20 a bushel, as an approximate national average, with the usual differentials for local areas.

If quotas are disapproved by more than one-third of the growers voting in the referendum price support on the 1957 wheat crop will drop to 50 percent of parity, as directed by law; in that case, the wheat unit rate under the Soil Bank Acreage Reserve would be 60 percent of the price-support level then in effect.

The comparable price-support level for 1956-crop wheat is also at $2 a bushel and the unit rate for determining Acreage Reserve payments is at a national average of $1.20 a bushel. Therefore, both the price-support figure and the Acreage Reserve unit rate are being continued for 1957 at the levels in effect for this year's production.

Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Cagle of Wichita Falls were Tuesday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Phillips.

Sgt. C. F. Wilde Goes To Germany

After serving as the first sergeant of the Food Service Squadron for nine years, M/Sgt. Clement F. Wilde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilde of Munday, is leaving Castle A. F. Base in California for Freising A. F., Germany.

Sgt. Wilde is a veteran of more than 14 years service. His tour of overseas duty include and Azores and Okinawa. He went to Castle in 1947.

During 1951, Castle's dining halls were named the best in the Air Force in a survey conducted by the Air Force. Sgt. Wilde said that the men in the squadron made every effort to keep it consistently at that level.

In leaving Castle, he said: "After being here for more than nine years, I consider Castle my second home. The men in my squadron are the best on the base and our organization has always been the finest."

He is married to the former Doris V. Lambeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lambeth of Goree, and they have two children, Cherie, 12, and Robbie, 8, years old. After spending a leave with relatives in Knox County, the Wilde will leave for Germany.

THAT BOWLEY BOY ARRIVES SATURDAY

Three out of Four is pretty good in any man's language and when it's three boys and one girl as it was for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frank Bowley of Midland when Teddy Mack made his arrival at the Knox County Hospital Saturday, July 14, at 8:37 p. m., it's "Better Than Good" it's "Foremost". He weighed 6 pounds and his two brothers, Butchie and Joey, and sister, Gwynn Ann, think he is a living doll. Teddy Mack along with his mother and brothers and sister are staying at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowley, until he is old enough to go to his home in Midland. His other grandmother is Mrs. T. M. Armstrong, and is also helping take care of the little family.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

Calton Bates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dutton, Jr. of Port Huron, Michigan, is recuperating at home after undergoing a tonsillectomy and adenectomy at Port Huron Hospital. Calton is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Franklin of Richmond, formerly of Munday and a great grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Franklin of Goree.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Edwards and daughters, Christy and Marta of Waco were week end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bowden.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Moore had her family for guests last week end. They were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson of Meadows, Mrs. Charles Pruitt of Lubock, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wenzel and Tommy of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Lowry Wilson and children, Kathy and Lowry Jr., of Lorenzo and Butch Hudson of Amarillo.

Kay Waheed of Kileen visited relatives here the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Cartwright and children of Abilene visited his mother, Mrs. Lola Cartwright, and brother, Al Cartwright, and family over the week end.

Mrs. Bessie McStay returned home last Friday from two weeks visit with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dee McStay and John, in Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Baker of Dallas were week end guests of his mother, Mrs. P. E. Baker.

CARD OF APPRECIATION

It pleases me so much to know that I was remembered by all of you during my illness. My many, many thanks for every remembrance.
