Odd Bits Salvaged
at Random

"Operation Mudhole" is the name folks living on 13th Street, running north from the Methodist Church, have given their black topped so they can manipulate their motor vehicles up and down it with less difficulty—now that the drouth is in process of being broken. And they say they are having quite a bit of encouragement from most of those living on 13th.

And they're interested in getting "operation mudhole" out of the mud. Some of them have started a move to have the street black topped so they can manipulate their motor vehicles up and down it with less difficulty—now that the drouth is in process of being broken. And they say they are having quite a bit of encouragement from most of those living on 13th.

Have you noticed the "boarded up" space at Stanley Wardlaw's place that used to be plate glass? The story is that a dual-tired truck was passing along that way on Wednesday night of last week when one of the tires came off and rolled right through the plate glass into the building. Some damage was also done to some merchandise on display inside—and the truck driver didn't miss his tire until sometime afterward.

Coming events indicate that spring is just around the corner and Munday people are going to have some of their regular spring activities.

The annual spring revival begins next Sunday at the Methodist church, and "cottage prayer meetings" have been held in various homes for several weeks in preparation for the meeting.

The annual Chamber of Commerce banquet has been set for Friday night, March 22, with Marshall Formby of Plainview, a member of the State Highway Commission, as the principal speaker. Officers and directors are planning this to be a big event, and you'll be expected.

The Lions Club is holding its annual "Ladies Night" as the school lunch room on the night of February 28, with a good program in prospect. (It developed at Tuesday's meeting that this event was postponed so as not to conflict with the Methodist revival.)

City elections for various towns of the area have been set for Tuesday, April 2. People of Munday will elect three aldermen, while the mayor and two aldermen carry over for another year.

School trustee elections will follow closely, we believe on the following Saturday. There'll likely be other events of interest from time to time.

John C. White, commissioner of agriculture, says the drouth is not yet broken, although it may be "bending a little in the middle." That's a "whole heap better than bowing its back and rearing to go like a wild bronc. We reckon most everyone is smiling about the most recent moisture, except the potato farmers who were in the midst of planting, and we doubt if they mind the rain a great deal.

Jeff Mitchell has been carpentering, plumbing, janitoring, acting as errand boy and general flunky at the old Bargain store building, where he will have his new cafe. He hopes to be open early next month.

Goodson Sellers took over his duties as manager of West Texas Utilities Co. on February 15. He has a new job in a new town, and no place to live. In the meantime, he's computing back and forth from Rule daily, and he's hoping the situation won't last long. So does the fellow who's taking his place at Rule and who is waiting for Sellers to move out so he can move in.

Dr. W. M. Taylor, pioneer Gooe doctor, stated last Monday that he is regaining his strength after a spell in a Wichita Falls hospital and is now spending much of his time in his office and carrying on his practice. Things seem more "back to normal" with Dr. Taylor on the job.

Between 350 and 400 acres are being planted to potatoes this year by local farmers who are members of the Munday Vegetable Growers Cooperative.

Mrs. Andrews, who will present the very latest in food preparation and time-saving methods, is a graduate Home Economist with years of practical experience. She has had special training in food preparation, preservation and quick-freezing techniques at the nationally famous Frigidaire Home Economics Department at Dayton, Ohio.

Munday Moguls In Championship Play With Holliday For District Honors

Don Elliott dropped four points in an overtime game Saturday night at Lockett to give the Munday Moguls the District 11-A Western Zone championship in a 69-66 victory over the Crowell Wildcats.

The Moguls had clinched a tie with Crowell by defeating the Chilloothe Eagles on Friday night, 64 to 54.

The local cagers are now engaged in a best two-of-three series with Holliday for the district championship. Munday led Crowell 36 to 27 at the half and had a 50 to 42 edge at the end of the third quarter, but had to ward off a strong Crowell rally to deadlock, 64 to 64, at the end of regulation time. Elliott hit a basket and two free shots and Bob Cude sank a free shot for the winning margin in the extra period.

Glenn Amerson led in scoring for the Moguls with a total of 32 points, but went out of the game with five personal fouls with one minute left in the fourth quarter. Sledges was high for Crowell with 27 points.

Munday's girls also won third Western division and started a two-of-three playoff with Archer City at Archer City on Tuesday night.

Munday girls won from Crowell 22 to 19 on Friday night, with Audrey Trammell of Munday and Marilyn O'Benhaus of Crowell tied for scoring honors with 14 each.

Munday won the B boys game, 33 to 29 with Phil McAfee leading the parade with nine points.

The hard-fighting Eagles downed the Moguls, 60 to 42, at Holliday on Tuesday night in the first of their best-of-three playoff series for the District 11-A-11 championship.

The two teams will battle in the second game at Munday on Thursday night, and if a third game is necessary it will be played at Seymour on Saturday night.

Drouth Not Broken 'Bent In Middle'

Knox County was again a favored spot by the weatherman during the past few days, with more of that slow, soaking moisture coming over a period of several days.

Although not too generous in amount, the moisture comes as another boost to small grain crops and farming lands, added to that which has already fallen. Wheat is greening up all over the area visited by moisture, and prospects continue on the up-grade.

Only objection to the moisture—and this not serious as yet—is voiced by potato farmers who had started their 1957 planting. Some who had made their land ready by irrigation found it still too wet to plant last week, and our present precipitation has delayed planting further.

One potato grower stated: "If it stays too wet to plant potatoes, I'll make more wheat—so what? Let it come."

The welcomed moisture visited virtually all of the state, from the Panhandle to the Gulf, from East Texas to the dry Big Bend area—but not in sufficient amounts to declare the drouth broken. John C. White, commissioner of agriculture, said it's not broken but "bent a little in the middle. It'll take years to replace our underground moisture."

The slow, soaking moisture fell practically all during Sunday night, followed by mist for several days. Tuesday our official reading was .55 of an inch.

March 22 Set For CC Banquet

Officers and directors of the Munday Chamber of Commerce have begun shaping plans for the annual banquet, which will be held at the school auditorium on Friday night, March 22, this year.

Marshall Formby of Plainview, State Highway Commissioner, will be the principal speaker. Mr. Formby recently made an extended journey through Europe, and has indicated that his speech will touch on phases of this interesting trip.

New officers will be installed at this annual meeting. Ballots were going out to the membership this week for the election of three new members of the board, as had been the annual custom. Nine names appear on the ballot, while additional spaces are provided for write-ins.

It is estimated that better than 300 people will attend the annual banquet. The meal will be served by a Fort Worth caterer, stated Charles Baker, president.

Training School Being Taught At Baptist Church

In spite of rainy weather and slippery roads, the opening night enrollment of the Group Training School for Sunday School teachers and officers held at the Munday Baptist Church exceeded that of last year. Seventy people registered Monday night in eleven classes to study more effective methods of teaching in the Sunday School.

Sponsored by the Haskell-Knox Baptist Association, the Group School at Munday serves the northern half of the Association while a simultaneous school at the Rule Baptist Church reaches the southern half of the Association. Rule reported an enrollment of 106.

In charge of arrangements for the school at Munday is the Rev. Billy Frazier, pastor at Knox City. In charge of the school at Rule is the Rev. M. D. Rexrode, pastor of Haskell First Baptist church. The Rev. Marvin E. Burgess of Gillespie is the Association Sunday School Superintendent.

The Group Training School will continue each night this week through Friday.

Celebrate 29th Date Of Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Cure of Stillwater, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Guindell Ritchie and son of Wichita Falls visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Cure, over the week end and attended the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Cure in Seymour on Sunday.

Methodists To Begin Revival Next Sunday

Services will be held twice daily, Monday through Saturday at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., while regular hours of 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. will be observed on Sundays.

Preaching during this revival will be by the pastor, who stated the fundamentals of the evangelical Gospel of Christ will be preached.

Song services will be under the leadership of Rev. Rex Maulding, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Aspermont. Bro. Maulding will also lead the young people in evening services. "The public is most cordially invited to this revival," the pastor stated. "Don't miss a service. Be on time. Tell your friends. Work and pray that the Lord may have His way."

Dorothy Yandell dropped in 32 points for Munday, but the Archer City team spurred ahead with consistent scoring of Carolyn Shanks, netting 22; B. Berry, 21, and Helen Taylor, 19.

DON'T BE A POLIO VICTIM

The polio vaccine is among the greatest of recent medical discoveries. The vaccine is safe, marvelously effective, and it is now in abundant supply.

Yet, despite this, the national vaccination program is lagging.

The situation is so critical that the trustees of the American Medical Association recently called a meeting of state and territorial medical association representatives to plan and promote a gigantic polio vaccine program. The idea was born at a prior meeting between one of the trustees and representatives of the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Academy of General Practice, the Surgeon General of the U. S. Health Service and others. A general program was agreed upon. Points stressed are that the vaccine is both safe and effective; that everyone should be vaccinated, and especially those under 40; that inertia and apathy are primarily responsible for the failure of large segments of the public to be vaccinated, and that the medical profession should go all out in an effort to promote the use of the vaccine. It was also recognized that the principal responsibility for implementation of the program rests with state and local medical societies.

It is certainly to be hoped that the medical profession is successful in this great undertaking—and that public lethargy will be dissipated once and for all. Some 80,000 Americans have been crippled by polio—legions more will be needlessly crippled in the future if the vaccination program continues to lag. Don't be one of them!

NO MAGIC FORMULA

Back in 1948, Labor's Monthly Survey, an AFL publication, said: "Living standards do not rise by any magic formula. They can rise only when workers produce more per hour and per year of work."

In the same year, a resolution of the Executive Council of the AFL said: "We have learned the lesson that when opportunities for profit diminish, opportunities for jobs likewise disappear."

Some labor leaders and groups seem to have forgotten these truisms. It is time they remembered. Increased wages without increased production result in price inflation which often more than destroys the alleged gains. Profitless industry means stagnant, retrogressive industry—and ultimately, depression, unemployment, and widespread misery.

HOW'S YOUR "HOUSEPOWER"?

We Americans have an amazing amount of mechanical power at our command, to use at work and at play. To take one obvious example, today's automobiles pack huge amounts of horsepower under their hoods—more, indeed, than many think desirable.

But there is one area—and a highly important area—in which tens of millions of people just don't have enough power for today's requirements. It is called "housepower". That word covers the adequacy or inadequacy of your electrical wiring, outlets and switches.

The "housepower" problem is a big one. It is estimated that more than 20,000,000 homes need modernization of wiring. And that figure is not just made up of older ones. A great many homes of recent construction are seriously short of electrical capacity.

There are certain definite signs to tell you if you are one of the millions who need more "housepower". If fuses frequently blow, or your electrical appliances are slow to heat, or lights flicker, or the picture on the TV screen shrinks, you're putting more load on your homes' electrical system than is safe and proper.

The reason for the "housepower" problem, of course, is that we Americans want more and more labor-saving and other electrical appliances. A determined effort is now underway to persuade the American home owner to bring his "housepower" up to par if it isn't there now. We can make no better investment—in comfort, convenience and safety.

WARNING FROM THE TOP

Directly after the President presented his proposed $71.8 billion budget to Congress, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey held an unusual press conference. He said that the budget is "the best we can possibly do at present." Then he added a potent warning—that if public spending is not reduced "we'll have a depression that will curl your hair." He expressed confidence that reductions can be made in the next 18 months.

The Secretary and the other officials concerned with this problem must have real public support—which means, above all, that we must approve and accept economy measures that affect us, and not just the fellow next door.

MODERN HOMEMAKING

Recipes . . . Household Helps

By Julia Hunter

HOME ECONOMICS DIRECTOR, LONE STAR GAS CO.

Because of increased production, eggs are in abundance and their quality is excellent. Cool February temperatures are keeping them in top condition.

Most of us buy a dozen, 2 dozen or some certain quantity of eggs each week and that quantity takes care of our usual uses. With supply and quality as they are, it is wise to use an extra dozen or so.

A real staple item in our diets, almost everybody likes eggs and almost everybody can eat eggs. A gold mine of nutrients, eggs are rich in protein and they supply other nutrients, as well.

A luncheon or supper dish may well feature eggs. Egg-rich desserts, such as cream puffs, are always popular. Hard-cooked eggs left in the shell and tucked into lunch boxes are sturdy travelers. Keep them in the refrigerator to be peeled and eaten on the spot. They make a good snack food for dieters!

Add variety to the breakfast eggs by serving creamed eggs. Goldenrod Eggs is a more tempting name for them. For four servings, prepare 1½ cups medium white sauce. Add 4 coarsely chopped hard-cooked egg whites. Spoon the mixture over crisp brown toast. Top with 4 hard-cooked egg yolks which have been forced through a sieve or strainer. It takes only minutes to mix a delicious salad of chopped hard cooked eggs, canned chopped ripe olives, salt, pepper and mayonnaise. Use it in a sandwich, to fill a tomato for a salad main dish, spoon it onto tomato slices or into lettuce cups for a salad to go with a main dish.

Scrambled eggs take well to mushrooms, minced green onion and grated cheese. Add about ¼-cup of one of them to 4 beaten eggs.

Cook eggs at low gentle temperatures. Fast cooking toughens them and overcooking darkens the yolk. For tender hard-cooked eggs with clear yellow yolks, place eggs in saucepan and add cold water to completely cover them. Cover and bring to a rolling boil. Remove from flame and let stand covered, 20 minutes. Immediately cool eggs under cold running water.

For easier dishwashing, rinse egg beater, dishes and pans in which eggs have been beaten or cracked, in cold water. Hot water will cook the egg on, making it hard to remove.

Europe are being substantially met notwithstanding all the statements to the contrary that have appeared in the press. The truth of the matter is that our domestic production has been increased about 600,000 barrels a day since the Suez crisis, and the needs of Western Europe from this country are said to be approximately 500,000 barrels a day. When the smoke all clears away, most people will recognize the fact that the Railroad Commission has done an excellent job through the years in conserving our petroleum resources and the Texas producers have been doing a good job in supplying our Allies with oil.

There has also been a great hue and cry about the recent price increase in crude oil. Just as in the case in the other criticisms, there is really no basis for most that has been said. The last previous price increase in crude was in 1933. Everything that the producer uses has gone up a great deal during that period of time. Since 1947, the price of crude oil has gone up 31% while hourly wages have increased 66.3%. Oil field machinery has gone up 55.6%.

Oil well casing (carbon) has gone up 77.8%, and oil well casing (alloy) has gone up 87.5%. Line pipe has gone up 17.8%. Finished steel products have gone up over 80%, and automobiles 45.9%. It is difficult to understand how these critics of the oil industry could expect that the producers of this vital product could operate at an economic vacuum and not in any way be effected by the increased cost of all the services and goods that are necessarily used to go into the drilling of an oil well.

If the investigations that are going on really wanted to be objective, they should not single out the petroleum industry, but should delve into the underlying causes and effects of the inflation.

Visitors from the home this week were Mr. E. W. Morrison and Mr. Harwell Shepard, of Denton; Major General Edward H. White, Mr. Hal L. Dyer, and Mrs. Herbert Story of Wichita Falls.

TPA has prepared 15 Bills for legislative action. Each bill is designed to correct evils that exist in present Texas laws. "Loopholes in present laws have made possible the scandalous events of the past few years, wherein public monies have been misappropriated," stated Representative Lee. The two Legislators are urging the public to back them in their determination to effect passage of the TPA Legislation. Lee's bill is HB-38, Smith's bill is SB-55. Both bills are known as The Mandatory Publication Act. They do not create any new publication requirements. ### Book Review To Be Sponsored By Munday Study Club

Tickets went on sale this week for a review of the book, "Miracle in the Mountain" by Harnett T. Kane, which will be given at the First Methodist Church on Friday, March 1, by Mrs. L. E. Dudley of Abilene, past president of the first district, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Dudley is an outstanding reviewer, and the Munday Study Club, which is sponsoring the review, is proud to have her on their program.

Tea will be served to guests and members at 3:30 p. m., and the book review will begin at 4 p. m.

This is a true story of Martya Berry, who ministered to thousands of mountaineers, leaving "a record of usefulness which few has equaled in American history." Petite and pretty, she vowed to do something about the poverty of mind and spirit among the mountaineers who had been by-passed as civilization spread across the nation. From a single long cabin on her father's land sprang the Berry School, a unique educational institution. Presidents and leaders of industry came, after many years, to pay tribute to Martha Berry. When she died in 1942, the school campus was the largest in the world—30,000 acres of forest, mountains, fields and lakes—but more important was the richness this woman left behind in the hearts and minds of her people.

Tickets are 50 cents each, and proceeds will be used toward the purchase of a new club house for the Munday Study Club. Members in charge of sales are: Mmes. Don Combs, D. C. Eiland, R. M. Almanrode, J. S. Shannon, Bob Brown, Paul Pruitt, Tommy Harper and Dwight Key.

Hostesses will be Mmes. C. P. Baker, Hugh Beaty, M. H. Reeves and H. F. Jungman.

Corn planting time is just around the corner and that should mean, says B. Spears, extension agronomist, giving consideration to the question of the best corn hybrid for your area. Dry weather cut corn yields in Tex. last year, but adapted hybrids outproduced open pollinated varieties by 25 to 30 percent. Check with the local county agent, advises Spears, for the recommended varieties.

Now, Phone Calls Can Be Made With Use Of Credit Card

Long distance calls may now be made on a credit card plan. J. A. McCrum, Jr., district manager for General Telephone Company of the Southwest, explained that telephone credit cards are now available making it possible for subscribers to call from any phone to any other phone in America and have the charges made to their regular monthly bills.

Cards help calls go through faster and easier. All you have to do is give the operator your credit card number. This eliminates the annoyance of fumbling for change or getting a pocketful before placing a long distance call if you're away from your own residence or business telephone.

As an example of credit card convenience, he cited credit card use for businessmen who must use the telephone while at a customer's office or friend's home. Credit cards save possible embarrassment of asking to use another's phone and paying for the call. Credit cards issued by General are honored by the Bell System and the country's 4,100 independent telephone companies. Requests for telephone credit cards should be made to the local business office.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—The State Department of Health and a newly formed philanthropic foundation are collaborating on studies of infectious hepatitis in an effort to clear up some of the uncertainties surrounding the disease.

Sporadic cases of the dangerous liver ailment, sometimes called "yellow jaundice," continue to crop up at the rate of about 20 per week, health department records show. A total of 949 cases were registered last year.

An investigation of a suspected outbreak in Hempstead is now in progress.

The Zelda Zinn Casper Foundation, chartered in January, will use the earnings of a trust fund to finance a study of the disease by professional personnel connected with the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston.

The foundation was established by Mr. and Mrs. Will Zinn, a Galveston oil man, in memory of their daughter who died of the disease late last year. Medical advisors are Dr. Arthur Ruskin and Dr. M. Patterson, both associate professors of medicine at the Galveston school, and Dr. Carl Nau, professor of public health.

Known to be the exclusive province of man—no other animal is susceptible—hepatitis is thought to be spread through close contact with infected persons. The proposed studies will seek to confirm this, among other things.

Since 1952 physicians have been requested to report all cases they see to the State Department of Health. Since then the number of cases reported has steadily increased.

In the judgement of State Health Commissioner Henry A. Holle and other authorities, the actual occurrence of the disease is probably much greater than the number of cases reported. The reasoning is that in many mild cases the outstanding feature—yellowing of the skin—is not pronounced and the victim neglects to get medical attention. Consequently no report is made.

Present evidence indicates, Dr. Holle said, that persons who recover from attacks of hepatitis usually are infectious for no longer than 7 days but can remain as carriers for as long as 15 months, passing the virus in body wastes.

Epidemics have been related to contaminated food, milk, and water. Transmissions have also been through transfusions of whole blood or plasma, and by accidental contamination of syringes and needles.

Children are the most frequent victims of the virus, but usually suffer only mild attacks. Fatal cases usually occur in persons over 30.

Established control measures consist of special efforts to improve sanitary practice, especially in rural communities, with the purpose of reducing contamination of foods and water.

Golden Esso Extra GASOLINE

prevents the "knock you cannot hear!"

Engineers call it "trace knock," and only the trained ear can hear it.

But trace knock, like any knock, robs your engine of its power, forecasts engine damage.

If yours is a modern car in any price class—especially if it's a 1957 model—prevent trace knock with Golden Esso Extra, the gasoline with the highest octane rating ever.

Use Golden Esso Extra. Added value from full performance offsets the small extra cost. Stop at the golden pump under your neighbor's Humble sign.

If you answer yes to any one of these questions, you should try Golden Esso Extra—world's finest gasoline.

- Does your car knock on "premium" gasoline?
- Is your car air-conditioned? (On an average, the engine pulls a 3-ton air conditioner.)
- Does the engine have a compression ratio of 9 to 1, or higher?
- Does your car have more than one carburetor or a "Power-Pack?"
- Is the engine rated at 200 horsepower or higher?

(These points become even more important as you add miles to a new car; anti-knock requirements increase when you pass the break-in point.)

Knox Prairie Philosopher Claims Way To End Surplus To Substitute New Tractor Bank For The Soil Bank

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek will get nowhere with his idea this week, but we don't guess you can blame him for trying.

Dear editor:
Here of late I have been giving considerable thought to the Soil Bank, since nearly every newspaper you pick up has an article or two on it, and where there are several aspects of the Bank that suit me, for example, I have no objection to leaving land un-plowed—and I never have objected to opening a letter and finding a check in it, it seems to me the Soil Bank idea hasn't been carried far enough.

What I mean is, putting a few acres in the Bank may be fine, but like any modern bank it ought to offer more services.

For example, I can't find any provision for putting my tractor in it.

Now as I understand the purpose of the Soil Bank, it's designed to take land out of cultivation and reduce the surplus, and one of the worst culprits as far as producing a surplus is concerned is the tractor.

What the government needs, if it really wants to wipe out that surplus, is to establish a Tractor Bank. The way I see it, this would be a lot simpler than the Soil Bank. Wouldn't require any measuring, any inspecting, any complicated paper work. All you'd have to do is mail your tractor key to Washington, let them mail you a check back, and when the surplus was down to where the experts figured it was safe to return your key, let em drop it in the mail. If your tractor doesn't have a key, have one installed. After all, a man ought to be willing to do his part to end the surplus, without relying on the government for everything.

Now I know that somebody is gonna say, what about the man with two tractors, or the shady character with two tractor keys? Well, naturally the banking business is not all smooth sailing, you're bound to find dead beats in any enterprise, but on the whole, if the check was big enough to get you through the year, there wouldn't be many people who'd slip around and sort of bootleg a little plowing on the side and after dark. At least you sure wouldn't catch me doing it.

If you think this idea has any merit, I'd like to say I've got my key here in my hand ready to drop in the mail.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

The Future of Texas Agriculture

Texas agriculture, like that of the nation, stands at a crossroads. And there is little doubt as to which path it will take.

The inevitable trend of progress has had a greater effect on Texas farming than any single phase of our economy, and this trend is continuing.

Although the past quarter-century has been a period of market industrial development in our state, agriculture has kept its prominent place in a growing Texas.

During that time the farm labor force has been halved in size and more than doubled in efficiency. Whereas in 1930 more than 38 percent of all Texas employment was in agriculture, it was little more than 16 percent in 1964. Yet, production has increased steadily through mechanization and new techniques and farming has grown by nearly 25 million acres since 1930.

Progress of a Different Kind
The next quarter-century promises to be just as progressive as the last one, but it must be a progress of a different kind.

The swallowing-up of small farms into larger, corporate-type farm operations is not an inevitable part of this progress. This is a trend which must be stopped.

Farming is unique among all occupations in the responsibility involved. He who farms must stay with the land, understand and supply its needs and keep it intact. This can not be done by someone indifferent to the land itself.

The small farmer must stay put to see that proper conservation measures are followed, to supply specialized products which are coming into increased demand and to help care for the population growth Texas can expect.

Texas farming brought $2.1 billion into our economy in 1955. It is expected to increase to $2.9 billion by 1975. Increased efficiency with a heart—will help us

Replacement Cattle Advance On Good News.

PORT WORTH—After a week-end of study of the cattle population figures released late last week, coupled with reports of rain across Texas, the people who buy stockers and feeders donned their rose-colored glasses at Fort Worth Monday. Their optimism carried replacement cattle and calves into new high ground and upset packer strategy which included lower prices.

Feeders interests went after fleshy to fat steers and yearlings with the opening siren, and strong to 50 cents higher prices prevailed, with some feeder cattle 50 cents to $1 ahead of last week. The surge carried slaughter calves along to strong to 50 cents higher prices.

Packers, out on the early rounds offering lower bids, had to pay strong to 50 cents higher prices for fat cattle or face a shutout. Cows also sold on a stronger basis in view of aggressive small packer and shipper demand. Bulls were steady.

Two Percent Fewer Cattle In The Country

The most bullish news of the season was contained in the Crop Reporting Board's estimate of 2% fewer cattle on farms in the United States, as January 1. The USDA in announcing the estimate also pointed out that swine numbers were off 5% compared with a year earlier, milk cow numbers were down 1% and at the lowest levels since 1929. Sheep and lambs were also estimated 2% under a year earlier.

Cattlemen, long critical of the effects of high cattle population estimates, were happy with the figures which revealed 95,166.00 head on farms and ranches, down 1,638,000 from last year and the smallest estimate since 1953.

Thirteen Western states were estimated to have 26,370,000 stock sheep, 5% less than a year ago, and the decline was credited to Texas and South Dakota. Texas stock sheep numbers estimated at 4,374,000 were down 14%.

Hogs on farms January 1 were estimated at 52,207,000 head, down 5% from a year earlier. Cornbelt (12 North Central to exceed these expectations. With the right kind of progress, natural disasters expected, agriculture will keep its position as a principal factor in a bigger and better Texas.

(States) reveals a decline of 7% while Iowa the No. 1 swine state, was off 12% from last year.

Fat Lambs Climb 50 Cents At Fort Worth

Trade was active and prices strong at Fort Worth as light supplies of sheep and lambs arrived and reports of beneficial rains in the big sheep country were coming in. Fat lambs were as much as 50 cents higher in spots, as all grades and classes cleared early at strong prices.

Good and choice slaughter lambs cashed at $16.50 to $19, both woolled lambs and some fancy shorn lambs with Fall shorn pelts at the top. Most of the shorn lambs with No. 1 or Fall shorn pelt, sold from $18.50 down; No. 2 pelt lambs cashed at $18 down; and No. 3 pelts sold from $17.50 downward. More recently shorn types sold from $16.50 down.

Cull to medium lambs cashed at $12 to $16.50. Stocker and feeder lambs sold from $16 to $18.50, woolled feeders at the higher figure, and shorn feeders at $18 downward when carrying No. 1 or Fall shorn pelts. Yearlings muttons sold from $16 down; and old muttons sold from $12 down. Slaughter ewes cashed at $6 to $8. Old bucks sold from $5- to $6.

Hogs Open Steady; On Top Price Of $17.00-17.25

Hogs continued to move in a narrow range at Fort Worth Monday and choice hogs topped at $17 and $17.25. Lighter weights and medium grades cashed at $15 to $16.50, and some pigs sold from $15 down. Sows cashed at $14.50 to $15.50. Stags cashed at $8 to $11.

Special Stocker Cow Sale Set April 12.

Improved pasture conditions in the Southwest are deemed certain to increase the need for replacement cows, pairs and heifers, as plans for the first spring stocker and feeder special event were completed at Fort Worth this week.

The stocker female events, inaugurated last year, are now a fixture in the early Spring season at Fort Worth and are open to all breeds, crossbreds, etc. The sales are jointly sponsored by the Market Institute, the Texas Hereford Association and the Texas Aberdeen Angus Association.

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

A lot of folks start looking for their income tax refund checks a few days after they have filed their tax returns. The tax folks are pretty fast on figuring tax returns and getting out refund checks but it is a big job and takes a long time. There is a lot of checking to do on each return and there are millions of taxpayers.

A lot of taxpayers don't get their refund check because they have moved and forgot to tell the Internal Revenue Service their new address. Let Uncle Sam know where you are if you have money coming to you for a refund.

INSURANCE

Hundreds of years ago, insurance was often a one-man business: One man would insure a ship cargo, say, and in doing so he might lose his fortune. But in 1825 the British House of Commons looked into England's insurance business, and said this: When there's a risk, the best way to guard against it is to join with others; so that each man might lose a little, but no man can lose a lot. Spread the risk.

As a result, insurance today is a big business. We have millions of policies worth billions of dollars in force.

An insurance policy is a contract. The company promises to pay you a certain sum for loss or damage of the thing you insure—your life, your home, your health and the like. And you promise to pay a premium for this protection. Your policy sets out what you have both agreed to. Most of the rules of the law of contracts apply to insurance policies.

There are many types of policies. And individual policies may vary. Check each clause carefully. Then have the insurance man explain it. Be sure all details of the agreement are written into the policy. You and the company are, in general, bound by the written word.

As a home owner, you have many risks, like fire, against which you can insure yourself. Other insurable risks are theft, windstorm, hail, glass breakage, cloudbursts, explosion, and the like.

Other households hazards also cause damage. But people don't expect them and may not insure against them. For example, a tree may fall on your house; or near some crossroad, a car may crash into your home.

Sometimes you can make the person who caused the damage pay. But if he has no money, and neither of you has insurance, you often must pay yourself.

Suppose a guest slips and falls on your floor and breaks his arm, or your dog bites the postman. You could be liable. You can insure yourself against many of these risks under the contracts we call insurance policies.

RARE SUNFISH COMES ASHORE

ROCKPORT—A Texas "first" in the beaching of a baby ocean sunfish was reported to the Director of Coastal Fisheries for the Game and Fish Commission.

The specimen, weighing an estimated two hundred pounds, went aground on North Beach at Corpus Christi, thirty miles below the Marine Laboratory here.

Bob Kemp, Assistant Director, said it was the first authenticated record of an ocean sunfish being seen, dead or alive, along the Texas Gulf Coast.

The sunfish which, apparently had just succumbed when noticed in the surf, was described by Kemp as "peculiar looking." He said it "looks like the head of one's fist, has a small mouth, no tail, "a couple of fins" and was greyish white in color.

Ocean sunfish ordinarily occur in deep water where they feed on jelly fish and other marine coelentrates.

Kemp said it could not be determined what had caused the two hundred pound "baby" to become stranded. He said there was no sign of a wound that could have disabled it.

B. P. Walker of Plainview is visiting relatives here this week. Mr. Walker is the uncle of the Burnison children.

Abilene Writer Tells Of Defense Bus Being Made Ready For Emergency

(Editor's Note: "Ham" Wright, the "Roadrunner" of the Abilene Reporter-News, makes periodic visits to Munday and other towns of Knox County. After these visits he generally spices his paper with news items of this area. The following on Munday's Civil Defense rescue bus is a result of his most recent visit.)

Munday civic and business interests are rigging up a civil defense bus, to respond to tornado and other disasters that might hit Knox County.

The Munday School system recently donated to the Civil Defense Committee a 1942 Chevrolet school bus which is now being transformed into a full-fledged vehicle to respond to any emergency call. Lee Bivins, who is Munday Chief of Police and Munday Fire Marshal, donned overalls and, with other volunteer workers, is getting the bus in tip-top shape. The relief bus will contain four stretchers, a cabinet with first-aid supplies, a butane gas plant, two-burner butane stove, an emergency operating table, two-way radio outfit and electric generator. The bus will be kept at the City Hall, where a siren will transmit warnings to citizens in case of a disaster alert.

"Everybody seems to be interested and helpful," Bivins said. "Hardware stores donated material needed and others gave what we need to equip the bus. We purpose to transfer the pulmotor at the fire station to the bus when we make runs to disaster points."

Bivins, who is also Civil Defense co-ordinator here, says his department will be in radio touch with all central alerting points—Abilene, Wichita Falls and smaller radio stations hereabouts—so that Munday may know when it is menaced.

A new 7½ HP siren has been installed atop the city hall which will sound fire alarms and tornado alerts. It takes place of the old siren that burned out in December, Munday, which has few fires, oddly enough had four alarms during the time the siren was out of commission. "We had to use a small siren on fire equipment," Bivins said.

Bivins, who is active in almost every civic endeavor in Munday, will be available for an emergency call. He and his family on November 1 moved into an apartment in the second floor of the City Hall.

When I finish writing a book, I am reminded of my Uncle Zeno's pants—to be specific, one particular pair of pants he owned. It was a 'summer a long time ago and my father and I were in Del Rio when Uncle Zeno, his younger brother, came down from Missouri.

I do not know whether Uncle Zeno bought the pants in Del Rio or whether he brought them with him. Nor do I know of what material they were made. I do remember, vaguely, the color, which was dark.

Del Rio has a dry climate, also the sun shines bright there, even more so than on "my old Kentucky home." I do not undertake to say the dryness of the climate and/or the brightness of the sunlight in Del Rio played any part in what happened. I can only tell you what did happen.

Uncle Zeno had not been in Del Rio very long before he found that those pants legs had stretched in length, so he went to a tailor and had him put a cuff at the bottom. Not long after that, he discovered that the pants had stretched some more, so he had the tailor fold under a couple of inches. Well, sir, that stretching kept on until such a surplus had accumulated that Uncle Zeno had the excess cut off and had another pair of pants made from it.

When I finish writing a book, there is enough material left over for another one.

Every man has a code by which he lives, or strives to live.

Richard Brinsley Sheridan, brilliant playwright, wit and orator, was always in debt. One day, the grocer came with his bill. Sheridan was seated at a table with stacks of gold coins in front of him. The tradesman said, "I see you can pay me this time." Sheridan replied, "No — this money is for gambling debts—debts of honor." The grocer flung his bill into the flames in the fireplace and said, "Now, mine is a debt of honor." Sheridan smiled and paid him.

Pride in one's ancestors is all right—but making a full-time job out of being a descendant seems to me a rather poor career.

Drive carefully. The life you save may be your own!

SIMPLE ONE-NOZZLE SPRAY UNIT BEST FOR COTTON INSECT CONTROL

Simple one-nozzle spray attachments will control cotton insects as effectively as the more complex arrangements and often tend to produce higher yields, according to Agricultural Engineering Professors at Texas A&M College.

Tests conducted at the Brazos River Valley Laboratory with nozzles producing hollow cone patterns and others producing flat fan-shaped patterns favor the one-nozzle-per-row treatment over a five-year period. No spray arrangement has shown a consistent advantage other than the simple operation and low initial cost of the one-nozzle-per-row system.

Tests were conducted with a six-row rear-mounted tractor sprayer using detachable drops and arrangements varying from one to four nozzles per row. Spray solution was applied at the rate of 4.5 gallons per acre. More details on the tests are given in the Progress Report 1906 which is available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Cotton diseases are estimated to have cut cotton production in Texas during the past five years by more than 2,000,000 bales. Seedling diseases are credited with about 20 percent of the losses. Angular leaf spot or bacterial blight, root rot, boll rots, fusarium wilt, root knot, verticillium wilt, nematodes and rust are listed by Extension Plant Pathologist Harlan Smith as other diseases of great economic importance.
