Odd Bits Salvaged
By The Editor

A little piece of mail that brought back memories of the far-distant past was received recently by Mrs. W. P. Farrington.

It was an announcement that Mr. and Mrs. John William O'Banion, Sr., was observing their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home in Garland last Sunday. To those of us who are not old timers, this announcement had no more than usual meaning.

Mrs. Farrington showed the announcement to C. L. Mayes, after asking how long he had been here, and asked if he remembered Mr. O'Banion. It was before Mr. Mayes' time.

O'Banion served as superintendent of the Munday schools during the latter part of his days of "single blessedness," and boarded with Mrs. Farrington's mother — for there were no hotels or boarding places here, except in private homes. Mrs. Farrington said it must have been during the year 1905-06, for the announcement gave 1907 as their wedding year.

"Much is being written and talked about regarding farming of the future," we read in Agriculture Outlook recently, "of what the farmer can expect in the way of new practices, new methods, new types of equipment, advanced products to insure better production of livestock, crops, fruits, vegetables. It's not idle speculation; many guideposts are here. Some farm experts say that many of today's standards will be in discard in 25 years."

Speaking of 1957, the article said: "Total spendable farm income will be up only slightly, if at all. The difference over the past 12 months may be entirely due to government payments for Soil Bank participation and other direct subsidies. Cash receipts are now running only 1 per cent higher than last year, due to higher prices."

What farmers locally are bothered about right now is a fall harvest. "If we can just get a good rain!"

Cotton is still looking good in most fields, and is fruiting up nicely, but a good rain, and right now, would help the situation no end.

Special notice to Ted Russell and all husbands who didn't appreciate our pea shelling tale: Just the other day the wife came home from visiting a neighbor, gave us that "take a trip to Borneo" look and dumped a sack of peas in our lap. "They're yours," she said, "I mean they are your kind — they're black-eyes." Our tale came just as our pea patch was playing out, and we didn't expect any such repercussions as this!

"Industry, like agriculture and individuals, cannot live without water," writes Senator Lyndon Johnson in his Washington news letter. "And Texas still lacks adequate control of its water resources — in fact, some experts estimate that we are 25 years behind the other Western States." Before too long, Munday and other area towns will have an opportunity to solve their water problems by the Miller Creek reservoir. Not too early to be thinking about it.

Little League To Close Season On Friday Night

Only two more games remain on schedule for the Munday Little League players, these being on Thursday night and Friday night of this week.

The Yanks have won two games during the past week. Thursday night they defeated the Cards 8 to 5, then Monday night took the Cards to task again with a score of 19 to 1.

The Cards seemed susceptible to errors Monday, and they couldn't seem to hit the pitches of David Clark, who struck out ten men in the first four innings. Pete Alcalá was his catcher. Pitching for the Cards was Cloyce Mitchell, with Jimmy Duncan catching. Umpires were Lindal Walling, behind the plate; Austin Moore, on third, and Steve Harrison, on first.

The Red Sox showed superiority over the Yanks on Friday night, defeating them 6 to 0.

CALVES CONTRACTED
Chas Moorhouse has recently contracted for over four hundred stocker calves for fall delivery, but has re-sold all of them for October delivery to northern buyers. He finds good calves very scarce and cost lots of money, but a good demand for them. All the early calves have been shipped out of the country.

Gilliland Girl Gives Suggestions For Use Of Car For Civil Defense

Editor's Note: The following article which appeared in the Wichita Falls Times was written by Miss Sherry Cook of Gilliland, who was a Knox County delegate to the 4-H Roundup at Texas A&M College:

The covered wagon was a home on wheels to the pioneer family in the early settling of our country and that is what the family car might well have to be to us in the 20th century.

The populated areas will be evacuated to the rural areas instead of families banding together to ward off attacks. How well our car serves this purpose depends on a few common sense advance preparations.

Four-H boys and girls should accept some of the responsibilities such as keeping the car in best working order by helping keep check on the tires, battery and gasoline tank (one-half full) and operating the vehicle at a speed of 30 to 40 miles per hour for safety.

If the danger from which we must evacuate is an atomic attack the modern car is a pretty safe place to be with the turret-top construction.

The best source of official information is the car radio. Be sure it is in working order and marked with the Civil Defense frequencies of 640 and 1240. Their broadcasts will tell us which route is open and how to move to it.

A good local map is a must and a first aid kit can be assembled in a cigar box with the instructions from the 4-H First Aid Kit bulletin No. 42.

Food may not be available for purchase. So it is necessary you store a seven-day food supply based on the needs of your family to be used in such an emergency. Dried, canned and instant foods that require little or no preparation, are nutritious and filling, and take up little space are suggested by the Texas State Defense and Disaster Relief Council.

The best tool we have to use against fear is knowledge and the best assurance that we will be calm in any disaster is preparedness.

Notes From Knox Farms, Ranches

By Roy England, Knox County Agent

Due to a shortage of good varieties of oat seed for the coming year, it is likely that seed of many unadapted varieties will be shipped into Texas from other states this fall. Farmers should use caution in the purchase of seed oats, and try and obtain one of the recommended varieties for this area. Varieties recommended for fall or spring sowing are Mustang, New Nortex, Bronco, and Fultex. Alamo is recommended for spring sowing only because of its lower cold tolerance.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has listed 31 varieties of wheat as undesirable because of their inferior milling or baking qualities. These varieties will be discounted 20 cents a bushel in price support rates on the 1958 crop. The varieties concerned with in this area are Blue Jacket, Early Blackhall, Chiefkan, Kan-king, Redchief and Red Jacket. The price-support regulations for 1958 will provide for producer certification regarding the undesirable varieties. Recommended wheat for this area include, Crockett, Westar, Concho, Comanche, Ponca, Quana, and Early Triumph.

Two Accidents In County Investigated

Capt. K. B. Hallmark, Jr., commanding officer of the Wichita Falls district of Texas Highway Patrol, reported that the patrol investigated two accidents in Knox County during July.

The two resulted in $390 in property damage, while no one was injured.

The patrol contacted a total of 3,207 traffic law violators in the district during July. Hallmark reported that 782 of these were arrested, while 2,425 were warned for violation of the state traffic laws.

Speeding was the leading cause of arrest, with passing violations second and defective equipment ranking third.

"THE RIGHT TO KNOW"

Freedom of the press is a basic freedom. It is the mainstay of all other freedoms. Yet there has been a growing fear that this freedom is in danger, because the governmental restrictions on the movement of the press to sources of information both in this country and abroad, because of the withholding of information to which the public and the press which serves it has a right to know, and because of proposed punitive regulations aimed at newspapers and other publications.

The American Society of Newspaper Editors has now issued a Declaration of Principals. This states: "The American people have the right to know, as the heirs of Magna Charta, the inheritors of the privileges and immunities of the English Common Law and the beneficiaries of the freedoms and liberties guaranteed them by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights of the United States.

"To exercise this right citizens must be able to gather information at home or abroad, except where military necessity plainly prevents; they must find it possible to publish or relate otherwise the information thus acquired without prior restraint or censorship by government; they must be free to declare or print it without fear of punishment not in accord with due process; they must possess the means of using or acquiring implements of publication; they should have freedom to distribute and disseminate without obstruction by government or by their fellow citizens.

The Society has pledged itself to resist by every appropriate means every encroachment upon the people's right to know.

WASHINGTON HAS TAKEN OVER

Publisher Tom Anderson of Farm & Ranch magazine points out that "In 1914 state and local governments spent 70 per cent of all money spent by government. Now 70 per cent is spent by Washington bureaucrats." Then, to make a bad matter worse, "A big part of our tax money never comes back to us in services — but is lived up by the swarms of bureaucrats whose hands it goes through."

President Eisenhower has proposed that the states assume responsibility, in whole or in part, for many projects now handled on the federal level. If the states will do that, the taxpayers will find that they will get more and better service — and for less money.

NOT SO SIMPLE

To the uninitiated, running a successful retail store may seem a comparatively simple and routine matter. All you have to do is get a good location, put in an attractive stock of goods, and wait for the customers to flock in.

But in this competitive, ever-changing age, it's much more complex than that. Editor Godfrey M. Lebar of Chain Store Age tells what is going on today in the chain store industry. Meeting present needs and consumer requirements is no longer just a matter of opening so many more new stores for so many new families. As he puts it, "That may have been sufficient 15 or 20 years ago but it isn't good enough today. Not only must more stores be provided, but they must be just the right kind of stores if they are to succeed . . . They must be big enough, attractive enough, convenient enough and new enough in every other particular to meet the expectations of a public which notes the difference between new-model stores and old ones as readily as it spots the latest models in cars."

This is a highly expensive proposition — whether the new stores in question are part of a chain or are independent enterprises. New concepts influence every phase of retailing, all the way from store design to the items on the shelves and in the showcases. The public is both fickle and demanding, and it knows what it wants. It takes an imaginative, vital and on-the-toes retail industry to meet those wants. That's the kind of retail industry this country enjoys at a minimum profit per dollar of sales.

ROSBURG, ORE., NEWS-REVIEW: "The Hells Canyon project has become an exceptionally good political propaganda vehicle . . . This issue has been played out of all proportion to its economic factors . . . Although the differences between the proposed construction plans are of comparatively minor importance, the project puts the principles of public and private power in direct opposition to one another . . ."

CANTON, PA., INDEPENDENT-SENTINEL: "To all those students graduating from either high school or college . . . we say, without qualification, that the United States is still the land of opportunity. It is true that taxes are higher than they were a few decades ago, but it is also true that jobs are more plentiful, and earning power much greater."

FUN FOR ALL

Square dancing is once again becoming a favorite community pastime. "Allemande Left" is the call as this couple swings out dressed in outfits made from colorful cotton fabric originally used for packaging feed. Note that the print of the lady's full-skirted square dance frock is repeated in the yoke of her partner's Western style shirt.

MODERN HOMEMAKING

Recipes . . . Household Helps

By Julia Hunter

HOME ECONOMICS DIRECTOR, LONE STAR GAS CO.

No longer is turkey just a Thanksgiving and Christmas treat. Turkeys are one of the best summer meat buys for southwestern consumers.

Roast turkey dinner with all the trimmings is always good and roast turkey slices, cubes, strips and chunks make dozens of dishes. There are plenty of small size turkeys too, for broiling and frying.

Roast turkey is one of the easiest of all meat dishes to prepare. Just place the turkey, breast side up, on a rack in an open shallow pan. Do not add water. For beautiful golden browning, cover the bird loosely with a clean white cloth dipped in melted butter, margarine or bacon drippings. Roast in a moderate gas oven (325 degrees F.) according to size.

Six to 10-pound birds take 3½ to 4½ hours, 10 to 14 pound birds take 4½ to 5½ hours and 12 to 16 pound birds take 5 to 6 hours. Doneness of the turkey may be determined by whether the drumsticks can be moved up and down easily and whether the thigh meat or thickest part of the drumstick feels soft when pressed with the fingers.

Barbecue seems to be a must in summer months. Barbecue whole turkeys or turkey pieces in the oven, in the broiler, or a rotisserie or out of doors. "Paint" the turkey with a favorite barbecue sauce and start the cooking. Baste with additional sauce about every half hour for whole birds and about every 15 minutes for pieces.

Use turkey for some of the dishes often made only with chicken. Turkey and dumplings for example, or a steaming turkey pie with crisp brown pastry. Chinese dishes take to turkey too; turkey chop suey or turkey chow mein.

Every bit of a turkey can be made into some tasty dish. Don't even throw away the bones! To make a rich flavorful soup, simmer the bones in water to cover for several hours or until every bit of meat has cooked from them. Remove the bones. To the stock, add onions, canned tomatoes, salt and pepper. Simmer over a low gas flame until onions are tender. Add uncooked long cooking rice and continue simmering until rice is tender and soup has a well blended flavor. Serve with crackers or cornbread. One of the best cooks we know prepares the stock in this manner, but rather than making soup, cooks navy beans in the stock. Delicious! Beans have a rich full flavor and there are bits of turkey all through.

Recipe Of The Week

Turkey Salad Supreme: Combine 3 cups diced turkey, 1 cup thinly sliced celery, ¼-cup minced ripe olives, 1 cup white grapes sliced in halves lengthwise, ¼-teaspoon salt and ½-cup mayonnaise. Toss lightly until well mixed. Chill in gas refrigerator. Serve in lettuce cups and garnish with whole ripe olives. Makes 6 servings.

Department of Agriculture. "Hot check" dealers and fly-by-night buying contractors of past seasons are experiencing a crackdown by the Department this year. An Agricultural Protective Act is now in force over the entire state requiring fruit and vegetable buyers to be licensed and bonded unless they operate on a cash basis.

Growers are urged to check an unknown buyer's TDA license before turning over their crops on a "pay-later" basis. Purchase agreements must be made in writing. A licensed buyer is a bonded buyer and the farmer is protected from bad checks or contract failures.

Penalties of up to $1,000 fine and a year's jail sentence are provided to snuff out unscrupulous operators of years past.

Texas Citrus Enters Florida
 A quarantine of more than 20 years' standing against the movement of Texas citrus fruit into Florida has been lifted.

Negotiations by the Texas Department of Agriculture succeeded in removing the barriers which had shut off an important market for state products. Florida citrus has been sold in Texas during most of the nearly three decades that our own fruit was barred there.

Rio Grande Valley fruit growers and the entire citrus industry will benefit from the new agreement.

Regulations Affecting Okra
 The constant battle against the destructive cotton pink bollworm has resulted in the placement of okra under insect control regulations. Okra, like cotton, provides excellent breeding, feeding and hibernating quarters for the pink bollworm. Many commercial fields of okra pose a threat to area control measures long after cotton has been plowed under as a preventive against insect build-ups.

This year, the Texas Legislature placed okra under the same controls that affect cotton and the Texas Department of Agriculture will provide supervisory measures to protect the cotton and okra crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gaines, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gaines and children of Repesville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gaines in Dallas over the week end.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

How To Judge A Witness
 As a juror you are a judge of the evidence presented at a trial. In order to reach a proper verdict, you have to decide what to believe and what not to believe. One person can't believe two diametrically opposed statements.

But alas, there is no fool-proof way to sift out the true from the false. Lacking a surefire truth detector, our jury system is the best method yet found.

So the jurors must consider the factors affecting the witness' credibility so far as the evidence discloses them—age, education, work, or looks and conduct on the witness stand, relationships between the witness and the parties; stakes in the trial's outcome; bias, if it appears; the strength of the witness' memory; the chances they have had to see, hear, and know what they have testified to; their candor; the reasonableness of their testimony.

Witnesses often differ in details due to their different opportunities or powers to observe, or their memory of what they saw, heard, or did. In view of these differences try to reconcile gaps when you reasonably can.

Consider why a witness may make untrue statements: Is it because of confusion, nervousness, mistakes, poor memory, thoughtlessness, lack of intelligence, or evil intent?

The law assumes that the common sense and experience of twelve men will be more reliable than that of only one, in finding the truth among the statements offered by witnesses in a trial. The conclusions of the twelve jurors will be safer and wiser because of the broad background of education, age, profession, and experience brought to bear on disputed matters.

(This column, based on Federal law and prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

newest member, just graduated from high school, to do a feature story. The Gaston was established by a naturalized citizen who was born in France, made a fortune and gave much of it to the people of the city. A hospital and a park were among his gifts.

The hotel had much of the atmosphere of the Old World. Paintings, furniture, draperies gave the lobby distinction. Many famous people—notably of the theatrical profession—had been guests during the hotel's long history.

I turned in an article about a column long and the first that I knew that the city editor had attached my name as author was when Al Wilson, assistant sports editor, said, "Congratulations on the by-line." (I had never even heard the term till then).

Court Square was, and is, inhabited by pigeons and squirrels, as well as by loafers and other visitors. The park is in the center of downtown Memphis. The pigeons and squirrels will flock around anyone who provides himself with a sack of peanuts.

Many years ago, when I lived in that city, a park policeman threw a club at a squirrel. I don't remember why he did it. Perhaps the creature was frightening a toddler. The squirrel received a broken leg. The officer had done an unthoughtful act and should have been punished; a few days without pay would have been adequate.

But organizations of well-meaning ladies got busy and, in the name of humaneness, demanded that the policeman be fired. That would teach him to be kind to animals. So he was discharged. The fact that he was out of work and had a wife and children dependent on him was of no concern to the good ladies.

Hypnotism, when I was a lad, was scoffed at as a fake. Now, it is used in surgery and dentistry.

My name has been signed to quite a few news stories in my time. But the biggest thrill was the first time that "By Boyce House" appeared in print.

Miss Margaret Yandell And Gerald Winston Tidwell Marry Here Sunday

Miss Margaret Yandell became the bride of Gerald Winston Tidwell Sunday afternoon in the First Methodist Church in Munday.

Miss Yandell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Yandell, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. (Buck) Tidwell are parents of the groom.

Double ring rites were read by the Rev. Mart Hardin, pastor of the First Baptist Church in O'Brien, before an archway of greenery sprinkled with lemon leaves and white gladioli. Fan-shaped baskets of white gladioli with branched candelabra of wrought iron burning tapers flanked the archway. Tapers were lighted by Patsy Yandell, sister of the bride, and Patti Patterson.

Mrs. Don Jones of Big Spring was organist and accompanied her husband as he sang.

Mrs. Wendell Moore of Borger served as matron of honor; bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Cammack and Miss Audrey Trammell. They wore ballerina length gowns of bronze celtine with short sleeves and bronze gloves. Bouquets were of champagne carnations with white tapered streamers and bows. Their headbands were circled by nylon tulle and seed pearls.

Barbara Yandell, niece of the bride was flower girl.

Don Yandell, brother of the bride, was best man. Groomsmen were Albert Caram of Gilliland and Kenneth Patterson. J. D. Alfred and Freddie Caram were ushers.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Howard Yandell of Lubbock. She wore a floor length gown of white satin with a chapel train. A portrait neckline accented the fitted bodice and the princess line skirt was styled with white satin ribbon tied in small bows with streamers of love knots. Her two-tiered nylon illusion veil was fingertip length and cascaded from a white headpiece inset with rhinestones and seed pearls. Her bouquet was an orchid tied with silk streamers of love knots carried atop a white Bible.

Reception was in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with white linen and centered with the attendant's bouquets flanked by white tapers in bronze holders. Appointments were in crystal and silver.

Mr. and Mrs. Tidwell are 1957 graduates of Munday High School and both will enter Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene for the fall term. Mr. Tidwell will be a ministerial student.

The couple will live in a student apartment at the University.

News From The U. S. Congress

This week saw approval in the House of the last major appropriation bill which was the money bill to provide for the foreign aid program for next year. The debate on this question was unusually heated on account of the fact that the President had delivered an ultimatum to Congress that unless the appropriations were in line with his request, that he would call Congress into special session this Fall to provide additional money. In spite of this action on the part of the President, the bill as it finally passed the House was over Eight Hundred Million Dollars below the amount that had been previously authorized by the Congress and about One Billion Three Hundred Million Dollars below what had been requested by the President. The program was reduced about one-third below the figure the President had recommended. This bill has yet to be approved by the Senate, but all indications are that the action taken in the House will stand up. There is absolutely no need for a special session of Congress to deal with foreign aid.

Signup Open For Wheat Acreage Reserve In '58

Beginning August 26, eligible farmers who wish to participate in the 1958 winter wheat Acreage Reserve program may sign agreements at the County ASC office, H. H. Partridge, Chairman of the County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced today. The signup period for the winter wheat program extends to October 4 of this year. Rates of payment for individual farms will vary up and down from a county average rate per acre according to the relative productivity of the farms and other factors.

Farmers who are eligible to sign 1958 Acreage Reserve agreements for winter wheat are those who have "old farm" wheat acreage allotments for 1938 and who normally grow winter wheat.

Chairman Partridge explained that, under the 1958 program, each producer will be responsible for furnishing the County ASC Committee with the production history and other information needed to establish a "Soil Bank base" for his farm, and this must be done before the agreement may be signed. The required information should be supplied at least 15 days before the end of the signup period on October 4. The "base" will be determined primarily on the basis of the average acreage of land devoted to Soil Bank base crops during 1956 and 1957; the base crops, in general, are all crops produced for harvest on a farm, except hay crops. If a farm already has a "base" established under the Soil

Farmers who earn payments under the 1958 wheat Reserve Program must reduce their wheat acreage below the farm's wheat allotment, must comply with any

West Texas Utilities Co. To Spend $51 Million In Expansion Program

West Texas Utilities Company has announced plans to spend an estimated $51,000,000 during the next five years for construction of new electrical facilities in West Texas.

Cal Young, WTU President, said the company's expansion plans were based on recently completed surveys and studies which indicate that West Texas will greatly increase its use of electricity by 1961.

"Most of the proposed five-year outlay will go for the construction of new plants and installation of additional generating equipment, new transmission lines and expanded distribution facilities," Young said.

New generating equipment for WTU, including one new power plant, is expected to cost over $22,500,000 and will increase by more than two-thirds the company's system generating capability.

WTU plans to spend almost $15 million during the next five years for the construction and improvement of distribution facilities. Another $11,500,000 has been allocated for the building of new high voltage transmission lines connecting WTU power plants and load centers. The remainder of the planned expenditure will be used primarily for general construction and improvement of WTU facilities.

"Electric power consumption is an accurate barometer of the health and prosperity of any area. Our undertaking this comprehensive construction program is indicative of our continued confidence in the future of the area we serve," Young said. "We are determined to do whatever is necessary to maintain a dependable and adequate supply of economical electric power for the anticipated industrial expansion of the area as well as for the expected increase in requirements of our domestic and commercial customers."

The announcement of the construction plans begins the second decade of the long-range expansion program begun at the end of World War II. Since then, WTU has invested $60 million for new facilities and for enlarging existing facilities to provide electric power for West Texas.

Since 1946, the number of electric customers has increased 43 per cent, from 72,860 to 104,000. The peak load has more than tripled, increasing from 73,400 kilowatts to 243,500 kilowatts. During the decade, the company's generating capability has almost tripled, increasing from 88,180 to 250,500 kilowatts.

Estimates of future growth indicate that by 1961 the peak load will increase to 366,000 kilowatts. The new generating facilities covered by this five-year construction program will add 170,500 kilowatts to the company's system generating capability. Upon completion of the program in 1961, the company will have available a total generating capability of 421,000 kilowatts, almost 70 per cent greater than the current generating capability.

It was pointed out that since World War II, not only has the number of residential customers increased by almost 47 per cent but individual customers, by adding electrical appliances such as ranges, dryers, air conditioning units, television and other new appliances, have doubled their use of electric service. It is estimated that by 1961, the residential customer's usage will have increased another 50 per cent.

WTU is also interested in the development of nuclear power. Paralleling the present $51 million power development, the company is participating in nuclear research activities.

Young pointed out that West Texas Utilities has for some time been associated with the Sargent and Lundy group, designers of nuclear installations at Argonne National Laboratories, Lemont, Illinois. More recently, WTU joined with 10 other private companies in Texas to form the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

This non-profit Foundation recently completed arrangements with General Dynamics Corporation for a four-year, $10 million research program in the field of controlled thermonuclear reactions.

Young added that in the immediate future it was not likely that nuclear fuels would become economically competitive with natural gas for electric production.

This new plant to be located eleven and one-half miles north of Bronte and three and one-half miles south of Blackwell will be approximately in the geographic center of the company's system. Being almost equidistant from Abilene and San Angelo, the plant will be well situated to supply the additional power requirements for both cities and the surrounding areas.

The 138,000 volt transmission line connecting Abilene and San Angelo which is now nearing completion, extends within two to three miles of the new plant location. A 138,000 volt transmission loop will connect the new plant to the Abilene-San Angelo line.

WTU has purchased water rights on Oak Creek Lake from the Gulf Oil Corporation. Gulf had previously purchased the rights from the City of Sweetwater, owners of the lake. A contract between the utility company and Sweetwater regarding future use of water from the lake has been completed.

The increasing of generating capability is only one part of providing electric power. Transmission lines, substations and distribution systems must be expanded and increased in size, capacity and quantity in order to get electricity to towns and customers.

To supplement and strengthen the present 2,652 miles of high voltage transmission lines serving West Texas, WTU plans to have in operation by 1960 a continuous 138,000 volt transmission line from Oklahoma border near Quanah to San Angelo and another 138,000 volt line from the Rio Pecos Plant at McCamey to Val Verde County in southwest Texas.

The transmission line from Oklahoma will provide continuous 138,000 volt interconnection for WTU's Lake Pauline Plant, the Paint Creek Plant in Haskell County, the Abilene Plant, the new Oak Creek Plant and the Concho Plant at San Angelo. This line will also connect with the Public Service Company of Oklahoma's system to provide an additional source of power.

The line from McCamey to Val Verde County will connect at the northern boundary of Val Verde County with Central Power & Light Company's system, providing additional power from that area.

The Oklahoma-San Angelo line will be in service in 1958 when construction of the northern segments of the line are completed. New 138,000 volt lines will be built between Paint Creek Plant and Munday and from Lake Pauline to the Oklahoma border. The existing 69,000 volt line from Lake Pauline to Munday will be converted to 138,000 volts.

In 1959, construction of a second 138,000 volt line from Paint Creek to Abilene will begin.

In that same year, ten miles of 138,000 volt line will be built from the Rio Pecos Plant to McCamey, and the present 69,000 volt line from McCamey to the Central Power & Light Company connection in Val Verde County will be converted to 138,000 volt line.

These 138,000 volt lines will be operated in connection with the 69,000-volt system which interconnects with the Southwestern Public Service Company on the north, the Texas Electric Service Company on the east and west, and the lower Colorado River Authority on the south, in addition to the interconnections with the Public Service Company of Oklahoma and Central Power & Light Company. These interconnections with other utilities provide for a flow of electric power either into or out of the system as needed.

Not included in the present five-year construction budget, but an integral part of future planning, is a proposed new plant in the San Angelo area. Under terms of sale of the water system to the city of San Angelo in 1950, WTU retained water rights sufficient to add approximately 90,000 kilowatts of capacity at the existing Concho Plant in San Angelo or at one of the city's lakes. Current plans indicate the possibility of a new plant being constructed on the Three Rivers Reservoir when completed, Young said that he was confident that satisfactory details could be worked out with the City of San Angelo.

The company also owns water rights for additional generation facilities at the Lake Pauline Plant and at the Paint Creek Plant.

The Abilene and Concho Plants will continue to be staffed and maintained as operating units of the company's generating system.

Additional distribution facilities such as main feeders, additional street lighting, capacitors and conversion of distribution systems to higher voltages account for the balance of the five-year program.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 3 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a section to be known as Section 49-c of Article III, providing for the issuance and sale of bonds of the State of Texas to create the Texas Water Development Fund to provide financial assistance to certain political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas in the conservation and development of the water resources of the State, providing for the payment of such bonds; creating an agency to administer said fund and to perform other duties prescribed by law; limiting the period during which financial assistance may be granted; and providing for the calling of an election and the publication and issuance of the proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of Texas be amended by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49-c, as follows:

"Section 49-c. There is hereby created as an agency of the State of Texas the Texas Water Development Board to exercise such powers as may be prescribed by law. The qualifications, compensation, number of members of said Board shall be determined by law. They shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate in the manner and for such terms as may be prescribed by law.

"The Texas Water Development Board shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000). The Legislature of Texas, upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the elected members of each House, may authorize the Board to issue additional bonds in an amount not exceeding One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000). The bonds authorized herein or permitted to be authorized by the Legislature shall be called "Texas Water Development Bonds" and shall be executed in such form, denominations and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law; provided, however, that the bonds shall not bear more than four per cent (4%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as the Board finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purpose set forth herein.

"All moneys received from the sale of State bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created in the State Treasury to be known as the Texas Water Development Fund to be administered (without further appropriation) by the Texas Water Development Board in such manner as prescribed by law.

"Such fund shall be used only for the purpose of aiding or making funds available upon such terms and conditions as the Legislature may prescribe, to the various political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas including river authorities, conservation and reclamation districts and districts created or organized or authorized to be created or organized under Article XVI, Section 19 or Article III, Section 52, of this Constitution, interstate compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party and municipal corporations, in the conservation and development of the water resources of the State, including the control, storing and preservation of its streams and flood waters and the waters of its rivers and streams, for all useful and lawful purposes by the acquisition, improvement, extension or construction of dams, reservoirs and other water storage projects, including any system necessary for the transportation of water from storage to points of treatment and/or distribution, including facilities for transporting water therefrom to wholesale purchasers, or for any one or more of such purposes or methods.

"Any or all financial assistance as provided herein shall be repaid with interest upon such terms, conditions and manner of repayment as may be provided by law.

"While any of the bonds authorized by this provision or while any of the bonds that may be authorized by the Legislature under this provision, or any interest on any of such bonds, is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount which is sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

"The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Water Development Fund, and the interest and sinking funds established for the payment of bonds issued by the Texas Water Development Board, income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature. The Legislature may also make appropriations from the General Revenue Fund for paying administrative expenses of the Board.

"From the moneys received by the Texas Water Development Board as repayment of principal for financial assistance or as interest thereon, there shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the bonds authorized by this Section sufficient moneys to pay the interest and principal to become due during the ensuing year and sufficient to establish and maintain a reserve in said fund equal to the average annual principal and interest requirements on all outstanding bonds issued under this Section. If any year prior to December 31, 1965 moneys are received in excess of the foregoing requirements then such excess shall be deposited to the Texas Water Development Fund, and may be used for administrative expenses of the Board and for the same purposes and upon the same terms and conditions prescribed for the proceeds derived from the sale of such State bonds. No grant of financial assistance shall be made under the provisions of this Section after December 31, 1962, and all moneys hereafter received as repayment of principal for financial assistance or as interest thereon shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the State bonds, except that such amount as may be required to meet the administrative expenses of the Board may be annually set aside and provided, that after all State bonds have been fully paid with interest, or after there are on deposit in the interest and sinking fund sufficient moneys to pay all future maturities of principal and interest, additional moneys so received shall be deposited to the General Revenue Fund.

"All bonds issued hereunder shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory nature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the 5th day of November, 1957, same being the 1st Tuesday after the 1st Monday in said November, 1957, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon, the following words:

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holt,
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—Those twin menaces—cancer and heart disease—hung up a grim new record for the number of Texans killed last year, a final tabulation of death statistics shows.

Of a grand total of 69,671 death from all causes during 1956, almost half were due either to heart disease or to cancer. Heart disease killed 22,888 while cancer claimed 10,168.

While the number of cancer deaths has increased perceptibly in the past three years, the increase has little real significance. The rate of deaths from cancer in Texas is still well below the rate for the United States as a whole. This state registered 112 deaths from cancer for each 100,000 population, while the rate for the rest of the nation was 146 deaths per 100,000 population.

The disparity between the Texas - U. S. cancer death rate is probably due to the fact that Texas has a younger population. Cancer is a disease that usually strikes people past 50 years of age. Of the 10,000 cancer deaths last year, 8,213 of them were among persons past the half-century mark.

Increases in the number of persons dying of heart disease is becoming bitterly significant. For instance, almost 1,800 more persons died from this cause during 1956 than died in 1955.

Most of the increase is in the age group 55 and over. And therein lies the irony: normal life span has been lengthened to an age where heart disease has a field day.

The same reason—longer life spans—is obviously behind the remarkable gain in the United States death rate from heart afflictions. Almost 15,000 more Americans died of heart disease last year than died in 1955.

As life expectancy continues to increase, more and more people are going to fall victim to heart disease. And although this fate cannot be avoided, it can be delayed. Here is a simple four-point regimen for staving it off as long as possible.

1. Reduce tensions of "modern living," and get moderate exercise. A non-strenuous hobby is beneficial.

2. Eliminate excessive weight that taxes your heart. Do not overeat.
3. If you must smoke, cut your consumption of cigarettes to less than a pack daily. Smoking constricts the flow of blood and places an extra load on the heart.
4. Above all, see your family physician at least once annually for a thorough physical examination.

Mrs. Muriel Mitchell visited relatives in Baird over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Borden visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Borden and son in Odessa over the week end.

Miss Shirley Oats of the Tipton Home in Tipton, Okla., returned home last Sunday after three weeks visit with friends here.

Mrs. Ann McClaran and John of El Paso are visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Mrs. Joe A. McGaughey and son, Tim, of Tyler were week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hill.

Cattle Trade Opens On Uneven Basis

FORT WORTH—Supplies of livestock showed moderate increases at Fort Worth and all around the major marketing circle Monday.

Slaughter steers were very slow. A few early sales were steady, but most bids and sales were 25 to 50 cents off and clearance was incomplete at the noon hour.

Cows were active and steady to strong, spots 25 to 50 cents higher and canners and cutters selling to the better advantage. Bulls were unchanged.

Stockers and feeders were steady. Slaughter calves were mostly steady, some sales of the inbetween grades were steady to weaker by the time a clearance was complete.

Stocker Cattle Scarce; Prices Strong In Sale

The offerings of cattle and calves in the special Hereford Stocker and Feeder Sale at Fort Worth August 16 was an accurate picture of the general situation. Stocker cattle and calves are scarce, at this time, and carrying some flesh. They are worth a lot of money.

There were only 515 head in the sale, and these sold for $60,053.34 and averaged $116.41 per head straight across. The cattle were judged by George Glascock of Cresson and Tommy Humphreys of Graford. The sale was jointly staged by the Texas Hereford Association and the Market Institute.

FARMS :: LAND :: RANCHES

47,426 acres—in West Texas, on paved highway, extra fences, extra well watered, two ranch houses, large barn, REA, butane and telephone. 30,000 acres valley land, good tillable land. 79 per cent minerals are intact, not leased. Oil production close by. Has small balance of an old insurance company loan at 4% of $147,857. This loan can be paid off or raised to $5 per acre. Taxes, $1,142.18 per year. Price $8.50 per acre.

24,800 acres — in West Texas, located 9 miles from town, on two railroads and paved highway. Cut into 7 pastures, 8 traps, all fences net wire on cedar posts and stays; extra well watered. Ranch house and tenant house, good barns, shop, plenty good pens, lots of big flat draws, has heavy turf mostly gramma grass, some low rolling hills that are covered with grass and browse. Can drive nearly all over it. Will run 450 cattle and 6,000 sheep, did in 1956. 18 1/2 sections, buyer gets 1/2 minerals; 20 1/2 sections, buyer gets 3/4 non-participating royalty. 15 sections leased for oil until 1961, brings 50 cents rental. Entire ranch will grass lease for 50 cents per acre if buyer don't want to operate it. Present loan is $131,500, payable $4,000 in October each year, plus 5% interest. Loan can be assumed or paid off and balance cash. This is a good ranch, priced just $10 per acre —very cheap per animal-unit ranch. Nearly solid oil field a few miles north. Think it over! You can't best this deal anywhere. Also irrigation to north and east.

12,800 Acre Ranch—Just off paved highway, all fences are net. Plenty water, improved, about 1/2 in valley, good soil to be farmed, if desired. Owner would take his equity of about $65,000 in trade. Half minerals go, and is oil leased until 1961 for 50c rental. Drilling deep test well about 5 miles north. Lots of production all around. Major oil companies operating all over this part of West Texas. Price, $11.50 per acre, will loan $5 per acre.

SEE ME—If you are interested in any kind of farm, business, irrigated farms. I have three 2 in Knox County, 160 acres, 80 acres and 240 acres on plains, well watered. $280 per acre, $12,000 will handle. Exclusive listings. See me if you are interested in real estate anywhere.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Amazes Even Himself, Coming Out Now In Favor Of Bigger Towns And Cities

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek has discovered a new angle on the farm surplus situation, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:
I don't know whether or not I can wait that long, but if I can hold on to my farm out here for a few more years, things ought to be going my way.

The reason I say this is because of an article I read in a newspaper last night which showed up on this place without explanation. There it was in the front yard when I came in yesterday afternoon and I picked it up without asking any questions. When a newspaper turns up unaccountably, or when your bank balance shows more than you thought you had, or your income tax return goes through unchallenged, a smart man knows it's time to keep quiet and not look back.

According to it, the cities and suburbs of the United States are expanding at the rate of a million acres a year — that's right, a million acres a year — and anybody can see if the process keeps up the problem of farm surpluses eventually will be solved.

It's for this reason I am calling on the farmers of this nation to get off their tractors for a minute and join all the chambers of commerce and civic progress clubs they can in pushing for bigger towns. Every town and city in the United States wants to grow, to expand, to industrialize, and everybody knows the way to make a city man happy is to tell him he's going to be twice as crowded next year as he was last year.

Up to now, I have sat back and let the cities fight for this goal on their own, but it has now occurred to me the more land the cities take up, the less there'll be to farm, and the less there is to farm, the more a farm ought to be worth.

With a million acres a year going into city property, this beats the Soil Bank all to pieces or taking land out of cultivation, without costing Congress a cent.

As I see it, all us farmers have to do to finally get in the rider's seat is sit back and egg the cities on. If you know where I can join a chamber of commerce or a booster's club on credit, let me know.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.
