TEXAS EGG BOARD TO CHECK PACKAGE METHODS

The new Texas egg law which goes into effect late in February, 1958, will seek to check misleading advertising on cartons and containers.

A nine member board of directors was appointed by Governor Price Daniel to formulate and administer the rules and regulations of the law. At the Board's first meeting in Austin recently, one of the first concerns was to protect the consumer from confusing claims on egg cartons in the market place.

Under the law, all egg cartons must be plainly labeled as to grade of the egg, or the word "ungraded" must be clearly visible. In addition, no misleading claims such as "Fresh" or similar wording can be printed on cartons containing eggs below the Grade A. The board contends that certain types of descriptive advertising on the carton can make the customer think the eggs are something more than they actually are.

The Board members do not intend to hamstring commerce by unfair prohibitive measures, but the consensus of the nine men was that a line should be drawn between harmless descriptive phrases and outright misleading wordage on the package.

The result was that a resolution was passed which gives the board the right to approve or disapprove cartons in which eggs are sold. This measure is aimed at protecting the consumer and the producer. The buyer will not be distracted by fancy claims on the package and the producer will be protected from unfair competition.

Egg packers and carton manufacturers are invited to submit their packages to the board for approval if they feel some inspection may be necessary.

Cartons should be sent to: Texas Department of Agriculture, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas. The board will meet once a month to consider current business matters and approve or disapprove carton designs.

Members of the board are: Tom Booth, San Antonio; F. F. Seiber, Burton; Dewey Stringer, Houston; D. W. Reneau, Seguin; George Belk, Jr., Robstown; T. D. Craddock, Hamilton; Frank Ehrle, Childress; Marvin Gilbreath, Weimar; and Jim W. Whitaker of Paris.

NEW MENTAL HEALTH CODE EFFECTIVE SOON

A new Mental Health Code goes into effect in Texas on January 1, 1958.

The new code provides for an emergency commitment to a state mental hospital when a person's conduct makes it appear likely that he is mentally ill and apt to injure himself or others if not immediately restrained. Any health or peace officer may take such a person directly to a state mental hospital. This procedure is designed to protect the public from a violently ill person, and, as well, protect the ill person from the disturbance of being confined in a local jail.

Whenever a person has been taken to a state mental hospital in this manner, he must be examined within forty-eight hours, and notice of the commitment sent to the patient's guardian. Also, there must be a confirming order from the county court within twenty-four hours. The emergency commitment cannot be used to hold a patient more than ninety-six hours.

Non-emergency commitments may be either temporary or indefinite. However, no one can be indefinitely committed unless they have first been temporarily committed. The temporary commitment is begun by filing a sworn application with the county court. The application must allege that the proposed patient is mentally ill and that hospitalization is necessary for the welfare of himself or others.

An informal hearing is held within fourteen days of this application, after notice is given to all concerned, and the court has appointed an attorney if necessary. The proposed patient must be examined by two physicians, both of whom must find commitment necessary. A patient who is temporarily committed can be held no longer than ninety days. Nevertheless, if it is determined that a longer period of time will be necessary to effect a cure, indefinite commitment proceedings may be begun while the patient is under a temporary commitment.

The indefinite commitment is begun by the filing of a petition in the county court. One of the necessary allegations is that the patient has been observed in a state mental hospital for at least sixty days within the last year, and that the patient is mentally ill, requiring hospitalization. The petition must be accompanied by a Certificate of Medical Examination by a doctor stating the patient is mentally ill. Thus there must be at least three independent medical examinations before a person can be indefinitely committed. The court notifies the proposed patient and his guardian of the pending proceedings, and appoints an attorney if necessary.

The hearing is held thirty days after the petition is filed. A jury will decide the question of whether or not the proposed patient is mentally ill, unless the jury has been waived in writing. If the patient is found to be mentally ill he may, under the new code, appeal this finding. Also he may, at any time, apply for a writ of habeas corpus.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

CATTLE OPEN MIXED, PRICES MOSTLY STEADY

FORT WORTH — Trade was active and prices fully steady on most of the 3,800 cattle and calves at Fort Worth Monday. Fed cattle were in small supply again, and some shortfed fleshy two-way steers sold to feeders at a little over packer bids. Typical of the cattle in this category was the load of 940-pound steers at $20.75.

Cows were a little less active and steady to weak as compared with the high, runaway market late last week brought on by rain which cut the receipts. Bulls were steady to 50 cents higher, some heavies to $16.50.

Fat calves were selling steady to 25 or 50 cents higher. Toppie baby beef heavies reached $22 to $22.50. Stocker cattle and calves were steady. Some good lots of steer calves getting up to $23 to $24.50, and their heifer mates selling from $22 down. Steer yearlings sold from $22 down. A few stocker cows cashed at $10 to $16.

Comparative prices: Good and choice steers and yearlings $20 to $22.50, high choice or prime quotable to $24 or $25. Medium and lower grades $14 to $20. Fat cows $13.50 to $15, and canners and cutters $10 to $13.50. Bulls $11 to $16.50. Good and choice fat calves $20 to $22.50, and medium and lower grades $13 to $19.50. Stocker steer calves $18 to $24.50 and heifer calves $22 down.

MISSOURIAN & TENNESSEAN REPORT COWS TO TEXAS

Late last week among the Fort Worth visitors were Bill Bevis of Memphis, Tenn., and John

Rush, Joplin, Missouri, both livestock commissionmen on the terminal markets in those cities. They reported heavy buying of stocker cattle in their area by Texas interests, and said the buying was heavy enough they expected it to cut numbers at their markets next year.

Their reports bore out earlier information from that area that Texas' cattle population was swelling right along with the improved pasture conditions. FEED PROSPECTS SUFFER DUE TO COLD, WET DAYS

Current estimate on the cotton crop reveals heavy losses, up to 200,000 bales for Texas, and more than 600,000 bales for the nation.

That adds up to a lot of cottonseed meal and cake.

Reports coming into Fort Worth also indicate some heavy losses may occur in the grain sorghum crop due to wet fields and frosts. In Fort Worth this past week Gene Gunter of the Livestock Market in Wichita, Kansas, and president of the National Livestock Exchange, reported Kansas farmers were at a dead halt in harvesting their record milo crop due to wet fields and freezing weather. "It is just standing there, too wet to harvest, what the crop will be now is anybody's guess," Gunter reported.

Bill Hare, Oklahoma City Livestock Exchange secretary reported similar conditions in many parts of the Sooner State, too! High moisture content of much of the grain that is being gotten in makes it unlikely to store well, is the report from Texas points. The huge feed supply may be

SHEEP FULLY STEADY, GOATS SELL HIGHER

The offering of sheep and lambs was active and fully steady at Fort Worth Monday. Good and choice fat lambs sold from $21 to $22, and some medium to good stocker and feeder lambs drew $19 to $20. Some slowness in the stocker lamb trade was reported at most points due to the cold, wet weather, which has hindered grain pasture grazing. A few slaughter ewes sold around $9.

A rather large offering of goats arrived and found both slaughter and stocker buyers paying stronger prices. Most of the slaughter goats cashed at $5 to $6.50, and stocker goats sold from $7 to $8, however, some of the goats in the $7 to $7.50 range were similar to slaughter goats sold last week around $1 under Monday's figure.

HOGS OPEN LOWER, TOP BUTCHERS $17.00-17.50

Smaller offerings of hogs appeared at Fort Worth Monday, and the trade was steady to 25 cents under last week. Choice hogs sold from $17 to $17.50, mostly $17.25. Medium and good hogs and packer hogs both sold from $16 to $17.

Trade in stocker pigs remained very slow, and supplies of good stocker pigs or breeding sows for sale were reported relatively small at this time.

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

Planning on the amount of self employment tax you owe can reap big dividends for a lot of farmers and small business men. Congress has provided very liberal benefits to a lot of old timers in the last few years. In many cases a farmer or a businessman in his 60s can substantially increase the amount of social security he will receive by making additional sales on which self-employment tax is due.

The Social Security Administration carefully checks the eligibility of applicants for social security payments. It pays to be careful in determining exactly how much employment tax you owe. The Farmers Tax Guide (free), Your Federal Income Tax (35c), and the Small Business Tax Guide (35c) all give a clear explanation of how much self-employment tax you owe. These publications can be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service after about December 1.

Many County Agents now have or will have a copy of the Farmers Tax Guide for local farmers.

Letters From The People

Editor,
Cotton production means buying power and is good for the welfare of our country. We should all use more cotton every day to help the industry. We need to help the farmer who tills the soil, who clothes and feeds the people. For durability and usage in everything, nothing takes the place of cotton.

Cotton growing is something that gives various industries something to handle and sell, also gives a livelihood to a number of people.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE!

AN ORDINANCE
Prohibiting the keeping of swine, or horses, mules, jacks, jennets, goats, sheep, cows, bulls, heifers, steers calves, or any other equine or bovine animal within the city limits of the City of Munday, Texas, and providing penalty for the violation of this ordinance

AND
Repealing all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith

AND
Providing for publication hereof as provided by law.

AND
Declaring an emergency.

AND
Declaring the effective date hereof.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF CITY OF MUNDAY, TEXAS, AS FOLLOWS:

Section One.
That from and after the date of publication hereof, it shall be unlawful for any one to keep or maintain within the City Limits of the City of Munday, Knox County, Texas, any swine, or horses, mules, jacks, jennets, goats, sheep, cows, bulls, heifers, steers, calves, or any other equine or bovine animal.

Section Two.
Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction be fined in any sum not less than $10.00 nor more than $100.00, and each day any such animal or animals are kept or maintained in violation hereof shall constitute a separate offense.

Section Three.
The provisions of this ordinance shall not be construed so as to interfere with truckers or other individuals in transit through the City with any of the animals prohibited under the terms of this ordinance, nor to the showing of animals at any Stock Show held in the City only temporarily.

Section Four.
Should any section, paragraph, sentence, comma, clause or phrase of this ordinance be declared unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, the remainder of said ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

Section Five.
Any ordinance or any part of an ordinance in conflict with this ordinance is hereby repealed, and this ordinance shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its adoption and publication, as provided by law.

The fact that the City does not have adequate an ordinance protecting the health of the people against the nuisance caused by such animals creates a public emergency requiring that this ordinance be passed finally on the date of its introduction, and the requirement that ordinances be read at three meetings of the City Council is hereby suspended and this ordinance is passed as an emergency ordinance and shall take effect immediately upon its passage and publication as required by law.

UNANIMOUSLY PASSED AND APPROVED this the 12 day of November, A. D. 1957.

Donovan-Galvani
SURPRISE SHEATH
$17.98

DONOVAN - GALVANI has a way with the sheath that insures a smooth and lovely fit . . . and in this dress extra interest in back, because of the unexpected wide, wide belt. In front, two "golden" leaves at the shoulder dress up the nubby texture of the rayon and silk blend fabric. Truly a champagne fashion at working girl prices! Straw, black, bronze. Sizes 8 to 18.
