Jones Accepts Appointment As New School Head

G. C. Jones of Abilene announced here Tuesday his acceptance of the appointment of the board of trustees as superintendent of Munday schools during the 1932-33 term.

The appointment was tendered by the school board several days ago and Mr. Jones announced his decision to accept following a conference with G. R. Eiland, president of the board. Mrs. Jones accompanied Mr. Jones for the final conference.

The new superintendent plans to move here with his family during the latter part of August to assume actively his new duties. Mr. and Mrs. Jones have one son, Chester, who is a senior in the Abilene High school and who plans to enter Simmons University there next year.

Other than his assertion that "I can see no reason for any radical changes in the Munday School system," Mr. Jones said that he has made no plans for his administration as superintendent.

"Mrs. Jones and I have been most favorably impressed with the community, and from what I have seen, Munday has an excellent, well conducted school system," the new superintendent said.

Mr. Jones is a native of West Texas, having been born and reared in McCulloch county where his father, a Confederate veteran, served as district judge.

"These were the days of the real west," Mr. Jones asserted. "My father often told of times when, as he called a case to trial, he found it advisable to place a Winchester within easy reach across his desk as a persuasive for litigants to observe order in the court."

Despite the fact that he still is a man of younger middle age, Mr. Jones has observed first hand the transition of West Texas from a frontier to an empire of modern cities, towns and farms.

"I have seen numerous times," he remarked, "when West Texas has been far worse off in a material way than at present."

Mr. Calhoun is the former Miss Blanche Haynes of Munday. They reside in Amarillo.

Mr. Calhoun becomes a candidate for the office now held by James V. Alfred of Wichita Falls, who now is completing his first term.

Calhoun is a native of Grayson county, a world war veteran and a former district attorney both at Hamlin and Abilene, serving in the Hamlin position by the appointment of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson in 1925.

In September, 1929, when District Attorney John A. Holmes of Berger was assassinated, Calhoun resigned as district attorney at Abilene to accept the appointment from Gov. Dan Moody as district attorney at Berger. He resumed private practice a year later.

Renewed 'War' Set For Mar. 23 In Effort To Rid Section Of Rabbit Pests

The rabbit population of the Grasshopper community was reduced materially last Friday when the citizens of that community, together with a number from Munday, joined in an extensive rabbit drive in which several hundred rabbits were slaughtered.

One of the most enjoyable events of the day was at noon, when a bountiful feast was spread by the ladies of the community in the church building, and the rabbit hunters and visitors ate to their heart's content.

The rabbits have in the past inflicted heavy losses to the farmers of this community and it is their desire to rid that section of the pests, and another drive has been arranged for Wednesday, March 23, a which time a more extensive drive will be made and a much larger number are expected to participate. Invitations have been extended to hunters at Wichita Falls, Abilene, Munday, Goree, Haskell and other points to participate, all to meet at around nine o'clock at the home of Alex Branch, and a large crowd is expected. A feature of this drive will be a basket lunch, which will be spread at the church, and if you enjoy a day's outing you will enjoy this event.

Hunters will use only No. 6 shot as a safety measure. The hunters will be grouped into squads, each squad being under a captain familiar with the territory.

The rabbits killed in the drive last Friday were gathered in the afternoon by a representative of the Salvation army at Wichita Falls and carried there for distribution. The representative of the Salvation army enlisted the services of Chas. Mulligan in gathering up the rabbits and this organization has made known its intention of having a truck on hand at the next drive to convey the rabbits to Wichita Falls, where they will be distributed among the needy.

Among those participating in the drive Friday were Walter Patton, Ebb Lowe, Bob Gaines, Edgar Lowe, G. C. Conwell, Tom Gaines, Ernest Lowe, Joe Gordis, Quannah Gordis, Burl Griffith, Tom Price, Woodrow Cowan, Max Price, Tom Price, Del. Price, W. H. Atkinson, Cecil Jennings, Sidney Lee, Dee Mulligan, U. R. Houser, Dr. Joe Davis, Jack Patton, Floyd Carter, and others.

The ladies serving the bountiful lunch were Mesdames Walter Patton, Ebb Lowe, Farn Lowe, J. F. Harris, Tom Price and Edgar Lowe, while Mesdames Joe Davis and J. A. Kennedy were guests.

Readers of The Times are urged to remember the date for the next drive and are urged to come out and assist the farmers in ridding the community of these pests, which threaten to destroy the crops in that community unless they are eliminated.

Ask Cooperation In Getting Full School Census

The name of every resident child between the ages of seven and seventeen years of age is worth $17.50 or thereabouts to the Munday school system.

The closest cooperation therefore is asked in making certain that not a single child is overlooked by H. H. Riley, city school superintendent, who has been designated census enumerator for the Munday Independent school district.

The state will pay to the Munday school district a certain sum of money for each child shown on the census rolls, the money to be used for the operating expenses of the schools during the 1932-33 term. Last year, the state allowed $17.50 for each such pupil. It hasn't been determined yet how much will be allowed for the 1932-33 term, but the expectation is that it will be less than during the past year. Every dollar likely will count as new before in the operation of schools next year, so it is important more than ever before that no children be overlooked.

Last year the scholastic population of the Munday independent district was 693, and from the progress thus far made in taking this year's census, Mr. Riley said, indications are that the figure will be about the same with the possibility of an increase. Mr. Riley has already enumerated some 350 names.

FIRST KNOX APPLICATIONS FOR FEDERAL FARM LOANS RECEIVED AFTER NAMING OF LOCAL GROUP

First of the applications from Knox county for federal crop loans have been sent in, according to Tom Isbell, chairman of the county committee. Other Knox county committee members are H. A. Pendleton of Munday and John W. Smith of Knox City.

Four applications have been sent in from Knox county and about 20 others are awaiting the attention of the committee. Mr. Isbell does not believe that the "rush" has yet started.

Mr. Haney's committee is to make an investigation of employment needs here and to suggest plans as to how they might best be met.

Among several tentative suggestions made at Thursday's meeting was one that spring cleaning and yard work necessary at this time of the year should provide part time employment for many persons.

Lee Haney Heads Legion Committee On Unemployment

Lee Haney was named chairman of an unemployment committee of the American Legion here at the regular meeting of the post Thursday night at which plans were discussed for cooperation with the national organization on a drive upon unemployment.

Mr. Haney's committee is to make an investigation of employment needs here and to suggest plans as to how they might best be met.

88 Cents At City Gate For Gas?

(An editorial news digest.)

"It is necessary that the petitioner's distribution plants in the City of Munday x x be charged with a cost of domestic gas at the point of delivery to said distribution systems equal to 88.2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. x x x Petitioner shows that 88.2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet for domestic gas is a fair gate rate for the City of Munday."

The above are quotations from the petition filed by the Stamford and Western Gas company with the Texas Railroad Commission seeking to establish a higher rate for domestic gas used in Munday.

The following are excerpts from an article in Tuesday's issue of the Wichita Falls Record-News, the explanatory parenthetical notations being those of the editor of The Munday Times:

Repeated clashes between attorneys featured the trial of Judge Harvey Harris' suit against the Municipal Gas company for $4.55 before Judge O. L. Gibbs in justice court Monday afternoon in which introduction of testimony by the plaintiff is to be resumed at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Examination of J. B. McCabe, president of the Municipal Gas company, by Judge Harris, who is conducting his own case, and of Mayor Walter Nelson, Jr., provided the highlights of the hearing during the afternoon.

Judge Harris then questioned the witness (McCabe) with reference to a contract purported to have been entered into between the Municipal Gas company and the Lone Star Gas company in December, 1930, under which the local distributing concern pays the other company 40 cents per 1,000 cubic feet for gas at the city gate.

"Did you know that the Northern Texas Utilities company is delivering gas here for as low as 11 cents per 1,000 cubic feet?" (Harris asked.)

"No, I had no way of knowing that," (McCabe replied.)

"Well, if you had known that another company would have sold you the same kind of gas for 19 cents at the city gates, would you have entered into this contract with the Lone Star company?"

"Well, we consider it a valuable contract because of the guaranteed continuity of supply."

Examination of Mayor Nelson was followed by a lengthy cross-examination by Judge A. H. Carrigan and Marshall Newcomb of Dallas, counsel for the defendant. Judge Harris sought to show by the witness how the city council had endeavored by ordinance to reduce gas rates here for domestic consumption from 75 to 50 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, eliminating prevalent ready-to-serve charge of 50 cents per month per customer. The suit is brought for the computed difference between Judge Harris' gas bill for December, 1931, as figured on the 75-cent rate and the amount it would have shown under the 50-cent rate provided by the city's ordinance last summer.

Mayor Nelson declared the conviction of the city officials here, and of officials of the Texas League of Municipalities, that the railroad commission is under the influence of utilities companies.

R. W. Lindsey, general manager of the Northern Texas Utilities company here, testified that they bring their gas from Wheeler county through a heavy line, and sell it to commercial and industrial consumers in this city for prices ranging from 17 down to 11 cents per thousand. He said they had "lots of gas" and were looking for opportunities to "sell all they can sell."

Wayne Holmes, manager of the Bob Waggoner building, testified that the Northern Texas Utilities company sells gas for the building at 14 cents per 1,000 cubic feet for the first 1,000,000 feet, and 13 cents per 1,000 thereafter. John Ochsner, manager of the Staley building, testified that they buy gas from the same concern on the same price schedule.

Ed Howard, president of The Times Publishing company, was placed on the stand by the plaintiff. He testified that W. C. Grant, advertising manager for the Munday Times, had been charged with a cost of domestic gas at the point of delivery to said distribution systems equal to 88.2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. x x x Petitioner shows that 88.2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet for domestic gas is a fair gate rate for the City of Munday."

Hearing May Be Held In Wichita On Gas Increase

Wichita Falls has been suggested by J. S. Kendall, city attorney here, to attorneys for the Stamford and Western Gas company, as a place for the hearing before the Texas Railroad commission on the gas company's application to put higher gas rates into effect in Munday.

Formal notice that the gas company's application for permission to suspend immediately present domestic gas rates here and to put higher rates in effect has been denied by the railroad commission was received from Austin by city officials late last week.

The gas company contends in its petition, that an equitable charge to domestic consumers in Munday would be the 88.2 cent per 1,000 feet, plus other operating costs and allowances for depreciation and for return upon the investment.

The suggestion was made by the commission that attorneys for the city of Munday and for the gas company agree on a date and date of hearing on the company's application, and it was in that connection that Mr. Kendall proposed Wichita Falls as the place, the time to be within the next 60 days. Should no agreement be reached, a time and place may be set by the railroad commission.

The formal notice that the railroad commission has refused to suspend immediately domestic gas rates here was accompanied by a copy of the petition filed by the gas company with the state body.

The petition asked that in lieu of present rates, it be permitted to charge a schedule of rates scaling downward from $1.50 for the first 1,000 cubic feet of gas used to 50 cents per 1,000 for quantities between 5,000 and 25,000 feet.

Such a rate, it was explained would have the effect of increasing the bills, as compared with present rates, of those using less than 8,000 and more than 1,000 cubic feet of gas during a month.

Numerous figures are included in the gas company's petition in support of its contention that it is not deriving a legal return on its investment.

In that connection, its petition sets out that it suffered an actual operating loss in Munday during 1931 of $2,834.73 without making any allowance for depreciation of property or for return upon investment.

Listed among the operating expenses is an allowance of $14,179.91 for gas purchased by the city at 88.2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet for distribution by it to domestic consumers.

Mrs. W. R. Moore Elected P.-T. A. President Here

Mrs. R. D. Atkinson resigned as president, Mrs. W. R. Moore was chosen to succeed her and the Rev. W. H. Albertson of the Baptist church made a brief talk in which he asserted that misconduct of young people is due in large measure to the improper example set for them by adults as features of the monthly meeting of the Parents-Teachers association Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Atkinson explained in resigning that other responsibilities would forbid her giving the time which would be required as president of the parent-teacher body.

Dr. Albertson, speaking on the subject of "Juvenile Protection," cited bridge, Sunday shows, Sunday golf and diversions of a type provided at the American Legion and city firemen's hall as being improper examples set before juveniles by adults.

Other features were vocal solos by U. R. Houser, with Mrs. Joe Davis playing the accompaniment, and the announcement that Mrs. Harlegrave's third grade class was the winner of the monthly attendance prize. Mrs. J. O. Bowden pronounced the benediction.

The reading of an original poem by Mrs. Jesse Burnison of Munday entitled, "Life Worth Living," and the reading by Mrs. J. M. Diggs of Haskell, formerly of Munday, of a series of poems written by her niece, Margaret Cousins, were other features of the program.

Hearing May Be Held In Wichita On Gas Increase

Wichita Falls has been suggested by J. S. Kendall, city attorney here, to attorneys for the Stamford and Western Gas company, as a place for the hearing before the Texas Railroad commission on the gas company's application to put higher gas rates into effect in Munday.

Formal notice that the gas company's application for permission to suspend immediately present domestic gas rates here and to put higher rates in effect has been denied by the railroad commission was received from Austin by city officials late last week.

The gas company contends in its petition, that an equitable charge to domestic consumers in Munday would be the 88.2 cent per 1,000 feet, plus other operating costs and allowances for depreciation and for return upon the investment.

The suggestion was made by the commission that attorneys for the city of Munday and for the gas company agree on a date and date of hearing on the company's application, and it was in that connection that Mr. Kendall proposed Wichita Falls as the place, the time to be within the next 60 days. Should no agreement be reached, a time and place may be set by the railroad commission.

The formal notice that the railroad commission has refused to suspend immediately domestic gas rates here was accompanied by a copy of the petition filed by the gas company with the state body.

The petition asked that in lieu of present rates, it be permitted to charge a schedule of rates scaling downward from $1.50 for the first 1,000 cubic feet of gas used to 50 cents per 1,000 for quantities between 5,000 and 25,000 feet.

Such a rate, it was explained would have the effect of increasing the bills, as compared with present rates, of those using less than 8,000 and more than 1,000 cubic feet of gas during a month.

Numerous figures are included in the gas company's petition in support of its contention that it is not deriving a legal return on its investment.

In that connection, its petition sets out that it suffered an actual operating loss in Munday during 1931 of $2,834.73 without making any allowance for depreciation of property or for return upon investment.

Listed among the operating expenses is an allowance of $14,179.91 for gas purchased by the city at 88.2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet for distribution by it to domestic consumers.

Baylor County Banner:

The Munday Times carries an article in regard to a statement of the Baylor county home demonstration agent on how a woman can dress on $25 per year. The editor, not being thoroughly up on the needs in feminine apparel, is careful in his comment. He rather believes there might be reductions in a few instances, while in others he might allow a few cents more. Among the items on which he would reduce is 20 cents for two smocks made of gunny and flour sacks. As the material would cost 20 cents might be a fraction high nothing, Editor Kennedy believes for thread and buttons. Also, on the next item of five cents for four flour sack aprons, the Times figures that enough thread might be left over from the smocks to eliminate that item altogether. However there is one matter that gives the Munday editor concern. Observing that the list calls for three additional suits of underwear made of flour sacks, he asks whether there might not be danger of four sacks running short. And if there is a surplus of the sacks, Kennedy wants to know if some of the other garments could not be made of the same material. There is one item that almost arouses the ire of our contemporary. He wonders why 10 cents should be allowed for cosmetics, when that amount would buy the ole man four cans of smoking tobacco or five plugs of "bevin". Considering how little the Munday editor seems to know about the whole matter, it appears to us that his readers would have been nearly as well off if he had not said anything at all.

LIVE AT HOME

We often wonder, as we are informed of the extensive scale on which living at home is being practiced, as to what new problems will be created as the practice becomes more widespread. That there will be problems is definitely established by the fact that some such problems already have arisen. From time to time during the last few weeks, and with increasing frequency, we have read in various of our exchange files, of grocery stores closing or moving because the practice of living at home has reduced their business to such a degree that it no longer is profitable. The result of living at home, for that matter, has made itself felt at establishments in this section of

for ANY BABY

WE can never be sure just what makes an infant restless, but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as baby has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes constipation. Or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy, and give it promptly. Relief will follow promptly, if it doesn't, you should call a physician.

Fitcher's CASTORIA

the country. Almost any grocer will tell one of numerous families who are not buying on the scale of previous years for the reason that they have canned their own fruit, meat and vegetables at home in larger quantities than ever before. The probabilities are that the number who can at home will increase, and that the practice has come to stay.

No one, of course, would desire to discourage the practice of living at home. Rather, it should be encouraged in every way possible. But its desirability does not remove the fact of the new problems rising from it.

It occurs to us that one of the biggest benefits which may arise from the general practice of living at home on the farm will be to put farmers as a whole in position where they will not be forced to sell their "money" crops at just any price which may be offered. We never have believed very strongly that cooperative organizations which rely upon contracts will make much headway in insuring the farmer of a fair profit for what he produces. We believe that it is more an individual problem. If Farmer Jones isn't forced to it, he isn't going to sell what he produces at a loss. If his family must be fed, if there are other immediate, insistent demands for his money, he likely will sell at the price offered regardless of organization.

The problem is to put Farmer Jones in position where he does not have to sell. The first essential to solution of that problem is to make certain that his family and livestock will be fed. Living at home is accomplishing that. There always will be some, of course, who will jump over the traces—but Farmer Jones, as a class, is a pretty shrewd and foxy individual, and if ever he gets in position so to do, he will haul his cotton, wheat, maize or whatever else it might be back to his home to wait for a better market if the price is not right and if he doesn't have to sell.

There is no question but that Farmer Jones raises an essential commodity. He produces those things that everyone must have, regardless of the price which must be paid. The price to the ultimate consumer is governed to some degree by the price the farmer is paid. The price paid to the farmer has been dictated by the fact that too many of the farmers have been forced to sell at any old price to meet problems or obligations which would not wait. And many of those problems and obligations have dated back to a time when the family had to be fed.

Living at home is hastening the time when Farmer Jones and his family will eat—and eat well—regardless whether the crop is sold today, tomorrow or within six months. When the time comes when Mr. Farmer as a class can wait a few months, if need be, to sell his crops, the day of permanent prosperity on the farm will have dawned.

When an individual, town or city faces a problem, helpful suggestions usually are plentiful. Witness the case of Fort Worth. There has been some discussion as to what would be the correct application for a resident of that town, and suggestions have been numerous.

Ahrens comes forth with the proposal that a resident of Fort Worth should be called a "Fort Worthy" as a "Fort Worthian". Lubbock suggests as a helpful idea that "Fort Worse-ian" is more applicable, while Wichita Falls thinks that "Fort Warts" would be apt. Wichita Falls even goes a little further as it speculates upon a fitting name for the city which will result when Fort Worth and Dallas have grown into one vast community. For the combined city, Wichita Falls suggests the name "Dallodia". The "dial" for Dallas, and the "odia" for the rich

Home Economics Club We had our last Home Economics club meeting March 10. For various reasons several members of the club were absent. Some who were on the program were also absent. Ozella Brock gave an interesting discussion of "Health In Business". Myrtle McNeill gave a discussion of "The Effect of Clothes on the Business Woman". Elizabeth Hunter gave a discussion of "Education as a Necessity to Good Business". Our former secretary, Maxine Newcome, sent in her resignation at our last meeting. We elected Elizabeth Hunter as our new secretary. Club members, let's try our best to cooperate with Elizabeth, so her position will not seem so difficult.

English Club The English Club of Munday High school met on Tuesday of last week. The house was called to order by the president, Barbara Eiland. At the meeting Dr. Crowe of the First Methodist church gave a very interesting lecture on disarmament. This lecture proved to be very helpful to the third and fourth year English students, as it enabled them to write a better theme on the subject. A request for us to write these themes was made by the Parent-Teachers association of this city. The best theme of this group will be published in our next week's issue of the Tom-Tom.

LANE'S LOWDOWN After a week of cold weather, the track team will begin preparations for the county meet to be held at Benjamin. This season we will be without Paul Pruitt, the speed man of Munday High, Peasat Thompson, Gilbert Myers and a few others. Chancey Hobert will carry the burden of speedman this year with the help of Everett Thompson. These two ten-second men should win the races this year. Upon Lee Parks will rest the burden of pole vaulting, an event in which Bill King also will be entered. We feel that these boys should make a wonderful showing since Lee Alfred won in the Knox county meet last year, and Bill won in the Haskell county meet. There are many other track men, such as Rid Thompson, who will handle weights; Dick Rayburn, a distance man; and Elmo Cure, a distance man.

towns and cities, but he has acquired all of his high-school education in Munday High School, having entered this school as a Freshman in 1928 and joining our class, of which the "remains" are now the present Seniors. Howard is glad to say that he has enjoyed his four years of life as a youth in Munday. We all agree that one of the outstanding assets of this likable boy is his ability to play the piano well. He will play at any time he is called upon, too, especially at church where he is a regular attendant. Howard says that he doesn't care for piano playing very much, but we all hope that he decides to develop this talent well, as we all feel that he could "do something" in this line, having heard his extraordinary touch on the piano many times. We feel certain that he will be in this, too. Maybe he will when he attends a college or some university to acquire a higher education.

Marguerite Bell, the former Miss Marguerite Stodghill, daughter of Mrs. E. S. Stodghill, of Munday, Texas, was born June 20, 1915, in this town. "I was born in Munday in the same house I am living in and I have lived there ever since," says Marguerite with a wry grimace; although we know that she has enjoyed it and especially is happy here now. We Seniors are inclined to believe that Marguerite has had "romance" in her life! How could we help this when we find that Mr. Curtis Bell, her husband, was one of her school-day "sweethearts"; in fact, "ever since we were in the fourth grade," she tells us with a slow smile. Anyhow, we were agreeably surprised when Marguerite was married to Curtis Bell, on November 1, 1931. But, of course, Marguerite's life all hasn't been just "romance"; she had to receive education for the practical side of it, too, and we must say that she has had a successful school life. She has attended Munday school all her school days, graduating from grammar school in the class of 1927-28. She has been a helpful and good student in all her scholastic work. With her attendance of eleventh grade classes this year, she mixes the fun of keeping house for herself and her husband, too. This is one Senior that has decided what she will do in future life. We wish her all the happiness there is!

Jeanette Campbell, daughter of Mr. R. G. Campbell, was born at Knox City, Texas, on September 30, 1914. She moved to Munday in 1916, at the age of two. During her third year she lived in Floydada, Texas; then she moved back here, where she is now making her home with her family. Jeanette entered school when she was seven years old. (We do not know whether there has been as much romance in her life as her classmate's, Marguerite's, but we do know that she is at present "just interested!" She graduated from Munday Grammar School in the class of 1927-28, and entered High school when Mr. Rhodes was superintendent. Any of her teachers will tell you that she is an interesting student in class and a good one, too. She tells us further that art is one of her hobbies. We know from observation that she has "made good" in this hobby and hope she is able to enjoy this study of art always. Isn't that a good beginning? We feel that we will be able to turn out a pianist, homemaker, and an artist as future citizens anyhow!

There should be more interest shown in the public affairs of the community. They are beneficial in a way because they help to teach responsibility to the student taking part without seeming to. The students have been more interested in their immediate surroundings, things that concern only themselves, and have, therefore, not been taking sufficient interest in public affairs. Owing to the fact that the students soon will be the agents through which the government is executed, they should take more interest in the community affairs than they do at present. Virginia Reid.

High School Students Hear Interesting Lecture

The students of Munday High school were entertained Thursday afternoon by a very helpful and interesting lecture on "Law and Order", by Mr. Dittmore, a traveling salesman. He stated that he was born in the slums of Chicago and was for several years a gangster in Chicago's underworld. He was later employed by the government as a secret service man. He presented credentials proving his statements and giving him the authority to give the lecture to high school students. In brief he said the substance of his lecture was: There is entirely too much crime in America today. The prisons and jails are filled to overflowing. A large percentage of the criminals are young men and boys. This is a result of the training received in childhood. The Boy Scout organization is a wonderful help toward giving the boys the proper training to make law abiding citizens. The prohibition laws have been made a huge joke among the younger people in America. If the number of child-criminals is not reduced, and if the parents are not forced to give their children the 27 MILES ... then another 14 with the CRANKCASE DRY to prove the PENETRATION of Germ Processed Oil and Value of the "Hidden Quart" from Muskogee. Chevrolet mechanics tore down the motor and pronounced it undamaged. The doubters became believers! The oil that protects a motor under such conditions will give you better, safer lubrication in every-day driving! Conoco Germ Processed Oil is the only oil that actually penetrates and combines with metal surfaces. That's why a "Hidden Quart" stays up in your motor and never drains away. It cuts down costly starting wear, saves gas, gives your motor longer life, with fewer repair bills. Change to Conoco Germ Processed Oil for safer, surer lubrication. We neither encourage "dry crankcase" experiments nor guarantee success under all conditions. But unsolicited letters from motorists, now in our files, tell of this and hundreds of other runs with empty crankcases but without damage.

The fact that the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lane had been destroyed with its entire contents by fire several days before provided the incentive for the occasion in which more than 30 members of the society joined in showering the guest of honor with many useful and beautiful gifts.

88-Cent Gas Dresses On $22 Per Year

Principal Gas Company, early last summer asked him to go to Dallas to confer with the president of the Lone Star Gas company. Mr. Howard said he declined, but consented to meet the Lone Star official in his (Mr. Howard's) office here at any time. An appointment was made for the next week, he said, but was never kept, and he heard nothing more of the matter.

Mr. Howard said that about that time it was reported to him that the Municipal Gas company no longer was advertising in The Daily Times and Record News, and that he instructed the advertising department not to solicit any more advertising from the company.

Wyatt Palmer and T. O. Shappell, local oil and gas operators, testified that they have large acreage in Wheeler county, within a short distance of the Lone Star Gas company's lines, but that they cannot obtain a market for the large potential gas supply there.

The following is an Associated Press item of general publication during the past week:

Austin, March 14.—A 20 per cent cut in the gas rates charged domestic and commercial consumers in Burger was ordered by the Texas Railroad commission today.

The city commission had passed an ordinance arbitrarily ordering a reduction in the rate charged by the Panhandle Power and Light company. The company appealed to the railroad commission and after it posted a bond the commission ordered the ordinance suspended pending determination of the case. The bond was to insure rebates to customers in event the commission found the existing rate too high.

This decision is the first of several pending on appeals before the commission.

The Burger rate was ordered reduced from 50 cents for the first 1,000 cubic feet of gas to 40 cents. Consumers will be entitled to rebates on all bills paid since last June, when the city acted to cut gas rates.

Industrial rates were not disturbed by the commission decision.

The following appeared in the Munday Times of Feb. 25 as the rewrite of an item printed in a Stamford paper the previous week:

"An announcement that the Sweetwater division, including Munday has won all prizes offered by the Lone Star Gas company in sales campaigns was made at a general meeting of the Sweetwater division Gasco club held a few days ago at Stamford. The Gasco club membership is made up of employees of the Stamford and Western Gas company."

The following appeared in the Foxland Weekly Record of March 11:

"Judge R. N. Grisham has filed suit in the Justice Court here against the Community Natural Gas Company for an alleged overcharge on a gas bill, plus $50 actual and $100 exemplary damages."

According to Judge Grisham, he paid under protest the charge of more than 10 per cent that is made when a gas bill runs over a day, and then sued for that amount and damages.

"There is no reason," said Judge Grisham, "why the people should not pay the double assessment under protest and, in every instance where the double assessment affects adversely, be able to recover."

"The double assessment affects the small gas users more than the user of greater amounts, on account of a sliding scale which has been adopted. The smallest users and the poorest people are the ones that are affected in the greatest way by this new rate."

"It's just as important to save money by spending wisely as to make a larger income," declared Mrs. Will Young, wardrobe demonstrator for the Elmhurst Home Demonstration club in Taylor county. To prove it she has her clothing account to show that she dressed appropriately last year for $22. She is pictured above fitting a foundation pattern to a neighbor, Mrs. H. R. Clemmer. As a wardrobe demonstrator, Mrs. Young helps her neighbors select lines and colors and materials suited to the individualities, at lowest cost. A total of 176 Taylor county farm women received similar aid from 11 of these community wardrobe demonstrators who in turn have been coached in the art of dressing becomingly at low cost by Miss Caroline Chambers, home demonstration agent.

Grader Scrapes Main and Water Service Goes Off

The street grader scraped a water main and as a result, city water was turned off for an hour late Tuesday night while repairs were made.

However, there was no need for concern. Water service could have been restored within less than a minute had there been fire or other emergency.

The grader snagged the hole in the main Monday. Temporary repairs were made without service interruption. Tuesday night a new section of pipe was substituted for the damaged one.

Mr. Decker came in town for 500 Orpingtons which came out of the hatchery that day.

Three Aspirants Added to List in Congress Fights

Announcements from three candidates who have entered the race for the Democratic nomination for congressman at large from Texas were received during the week. The latest entries are Ben F. Harigel, publisher of the La Grange Journal, and W. E. Lee, an attorney and former mayor of Orange.

Judge B. D. Sartin of Wichita Falls added his name to the list of candidates later in the week.

The announcements increase the list of those in the field for the three congressional places to be filled to upward of twenty.

I have the 11c Gasoline at my station now, and will give you 1c off to come get your Gasoline and Kerosene. Might as well make this extra cent, so bring your barrel along when you come to town.

This cut in price does not mean that I have lowered my quality in any way, I have the same quality at lower prices.

Station prices on all Lubricating Oils will be 15c per quart straight—same quality as ever—all paraffine base oils.

On all Tire sales will charge only 5 per cent above actual cost. Have some real bargains in Tires—and a guaranteed tire too.

Call on me if you want to save money on any of the above products.
