Odd Bits Salvaged
By The Editor

The story will be told, come Saturday. And you, Mr. Voter, will have a part in relating the narrative.

k-k
That is — if you vote. And why shouldn't you

k-k
It's the Democratic way of determining those who will serve you in Washington, in Austin, in the district, county and precinct for the next four years.

k-k
It's your money-bought privilege. That little slip of paper you call a poll tax receipt, and for which you paid a dollar six-bits, is your privilege to vote. It's owned by only a select few — those who live in a Democratic country and who are interested enough in affairs of the country to buy the right to say who's gonna run it.

k-k
And if you didn't pay your poll tax — shame on you! You have no right to beef if the proper person isn't elected to office, if the bond election in which you're interested doesn't carry, if some of those state constitutional amendments coming up soon go over in a big way, and you're opposed to them.

k-k
Yes, it's your privilege to vote, a privilege you should honor and cherish, because no person in a totalitarian nation has such privilege.

k-k
NBODY CAN DO THIS FOR YOU!

k-k
But, like we said, the story will be told in a large measure next Saturday — in the July Primary Election.

k-k
For some, it will be the end of the line. That's where they get off the band wagon and become just plain Mr. Citizen again. For others, it will possibly mean another month of the long, hard grind, and their story will not be completely told until the votes are counted in the August primary. They will be in the runoff.

k-k
For the fortunate — those who receive a majority of the votes — it will mean four years of service to their constituents.

k-k
Candidates are in their final rounds of bidding for your votes. Many of them have completed their personal work and are now letting the matter rest in your hands in the hope they will find favor when you wield that pencil at the polls.

k-k
This week's paper is carrying the final appeal of quite a few candidates — from state office to precinct office. Perhaps you should read these ads. They might help you if there are any about whom you have not reached a final decision.

k-k
This paper has always tried to maintain a policy of strict neutrality in all elections. Whether this is right or not, we don't know. Some are of the opinion we should select the candidate of our choice and support him editorially. But what of the other candidates, who are also our friends?

k-k
Besides, we have always supported the idea that our opinion is no better than yours. Perhaps not so good. Our vote counts no more than yours, and we'll wager that we vote wrong, or lose our vote, as many times as you do. So if our opinion is no better than yours, why flash it upon you?

k-k
How we vote is nobody's business — and the same applies to you. In a past election, a friend of ours asked us if we voted and if we voted right. Then he rejoined: "If you voted like you wanted to, then you voted right. That's the way I voted."

k-k
And you may do the same. It's nobody's business how you vote. It's your business to vote. Then vote, come Saturday.

Voters To Select Candidates Of Their Choice Saturday; Heavy Vote Expected

A fairly heavy ballot will be laid before voters of Knox County next Saturday when they go to the polls to vote in the July Primary election. And a fairly heavy vote is expected, as interest continues to grow in several contested races.

Aside from the state races, voters will have their choice in several of the contested races — for state representative, for county judge, county treasurer, two county commissioners posts and the justice of peace job in two precincts.

The legislative race is a three-man affair. Ed Cloud of Rule, in his bid for re-election, is opposed by Leroy Russell of Knox County and J. Donnell Dickson of Baylor County.

L. A. Parker of Benjamin, seeking another term as judge of the county, is opposed by M. T. Chamberlain of Munday and Goree and a former county clerk.

Walter F. Snody of Benjamin is seeking another term as county treasurer and is opposed by Ed Thompson of Munday.

Three-man races are set in each of the two county commissioners posts to be filled this year.

In Precinct 2, W. W. Trainham of Benjamin, seeking re-election, is opposed by Clyde Beck of Vera and Artist McGregor of Benjamin.

In Precinct 4, the present commissioner, George Nix of Goree, is opposed by Billy Mitchell and Wallace Reid, both of Munday.

Running for Justice of the Peace in Precinct 1 are Jesse Jay Driver and V. R. Terry, both of Benjamin.

Candidates for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 5, are W. E. Lovelace and John G. Robin.

Voting will be at all the regular voting places in the county.

Many people will be watching with interest as the vote count begins coming in, which is expected to be soon after the polls are closed.

An election board will be put on the east side of the City Hall Saturday and returns will be posted as they come in.

Where You Will Vote On Saturday

No changes have been made in voting places for most people of Knox County. Most of you will vote at your regular voting places.

However, those in charge of the two voting boxes in Munday have requested notice be given of the places to vote.

Munday, Box 6, M. L. Wiggins, precinct chairman. Election to be held at the American Legion Hall.

Munday, Box 6-A, E. H. Nelson, chairman. Election to be held in Stanley Wardlaw Apppliance Co. building.

Homecoming On August 30-31 To Bring Many Exes

Indications this week are that the third homecoming of ex-students of Munday High School this year will attract many people from various parts of the nation. The dates are August 30-31.

Doris Dickerson is president of ex-students, and J. L. Stodghill is in charge of notifying ex-students of the dates. John R. Rayburn is in charge of the feeds, and many others are working toward making this homecoming a success.

Many who have not attended a homecoming have indicated they will be here this year, to bulge attendance records. The homecoming is for all ex-students and teachers of Munday High School — not just for graduates — it was pointed out.

Class sponsors who have not yet picked up cards to mail to ex-students are urged to get them at the Chamber of Commerce office as soon as possible. The dates are drawing near, and ex-students who live far away need to be notified well in advance so preparations can be made to attend.

Directors Visit And Approve Site For Miller Creek Reservoir Thursday

Directors of the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority met with the engineers, Freese and Nichols of Fort Worth, and investment bankers represented by Frank B. McMahon of Dallas, at Bomarton at 4:30 p. m. Thursday. From there, an inspection trip was made to two recommended sites for the Miller Creek reservoir.

Site No. 1 was on the Stout Ranch, and Site No. 2 was on the Harry Portwood Ranch.

Members of the permanent directors, who were named recently are: E. L. Barger and Walter C. Coffman, Goree; R. W. Herrin and W. R. Johnson, Haskell; C. P. Baker and L. B. Patterson, Munday; Olin Carothers and Morris Neal, Rule, and M. L. Tipton and Lloyd Jones of Seymour.

Freese and Nichols, engineers for the Authority, recommended Site No. 2 with present development of a 25,000 acre-foot lake, with provisions to be made now so that the dam could be raised to increase the capacity to 40,000 acre-foot when needed. Engineers estimated that the additional capacity will probably be needed after the year 2000 A. D.

Present population of the Authority is estimated at 14,000, and it is estimated that by the year 2,000 — with an estimated population of 31,700 — the 25,000 acre-foot lake would have a safe yield after a critical drought period to supply the member towns for one full year. 31,700 population estimate is approximately 2.20 times the present population.

With the plans to increase the water capacity by 60 percent, it is probable that this program will answer the water needs of the five member towns for an indefinite time.

Site No. 2 will have an economic value, inasmuch as it will ultimately cost about $1,500,000 less than the other site.

Directors formally approved the contracts of Freese and Nichols and the investment bankers for the Authority — Wm. N. Edwards & Co., Fort Worth; Frank B. McMahon & Co., Dallas, and Thornton & Co., Dallas.

It is contemplated that an election will be held the latter part of August to vote bonds and approve water purchase contracts. Each city has to approve the bond issue, as well as its water purchase contract, it was stated.

Heading the directors are: W. R. (Roy) Johnson of Haskell as president, Morris Neal of Rule as vice president, and Lloyd Jones of Seymour, secretary-treasurer.

Books Added To Munday Library

"Bending The Twig," by Augustin G. Rudd, an outstanding authority on education, is among the new books which have just been added to the Munday Public Library. In this book, the author, a product of our public schools, presents a parent's view of the so-called Progressive-New Education and its effects on the youth of America. Nearly two decades ago he foresaw disastrous consequences if these unsound and defective theories and programs were maintained. He is generally recognized as the first layman to undertake a national campaign to return common sense to the public education of our children.

MEDICAL ARMOR FOR THE BABY

From the moment an infant is born modern medicine begins to wrap a protective cloak of science about him.

Silver nitrate is immediately dropped in his eyes to guard him against blindness.

At two or three months he is vaccinated against diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough) and tetanus.

At three or four months he is immunized against smallpox.

At six months he is inoculated against typhoid fever.

No wonder the number of deaths among infants under one year old has dropped from 162 per thousand in 1900 to 29 per thousand in 1955.

Since 1955 a new link has been forged by medical science in the infant's armor against disease—the anti-polio vaccine developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk on March of Dimes funds.

Too many parents do not know that even the faintest tots may be stricken with paralytic polio. Nothing is more pitiful than to see a baby bereft of the power of motion, encased in an iron lung before he has even learned to walk. Until three years ago there was little we could do to prevent it. But now that we have the Salk vaccine, it is gross negligence on the part of parents to deny their babies this protection.

Last year infants under one year old showed the highest rate of polio attack. Babies from one to two years old came next.

Many physicians recommend the first Salk shot for babies at the age of two or three months. Consult your doctor now.

A spokesman for the American Farm Bureau Federation, the nation's largest farm organization, voiced strong support of a five-year extension of the reciprocal trade program before a Senate committee. He said: "It is not unreasonable to contend that the high and increasing standard of living enjoyed in our country during the past 25 years can be attributed in substantial part to the fact that we have had the trade program."

If Administration proposals are accepted by Congress, federal employees will receive pay increases aggregating well over $1 billion a year. The largest part will go to officers and enlisted men in the military services.

ONE MORE STEP NEEDED

A news photo shows a huge quantity of 4-cent stamps being carted into a post office. This is symbolic of the fact that next August 1 first-class mail postage goes up a cent. So do the rates for other post office services with one exception—fourth-class matter, or parcel post.

The higher rates were approved reluctantly by Congress. But the post office deficit had gotten out of hand, and was passing the $700 million a year mark. On top of that, post office workers have been given a general pay boost which almost everyone believes is well-deserved. It obviously was essential to increase post office revenues.

The parcel post exception is the black spot in the picture now. It has long been a creator of heavy direct and indirect deficits, and has thus been taxpayer-subsidized. That will continue to be the case so long as its structure of charges is left unchanged.

To make matters worse, parcel post is the only post office service which is a direct competitor of taxpaying private enterprise. Private carriers operate on a national, regional and local basis, providing service by rail, truck and plane. Subsidized parcel post service under these circumstances is manifestly unfair—as well as needlessly costly to the public at large which must make up the deficits.

So one more step needs to be taken in postal rate revision—to put parcel post on a self-sustaining basis of operation.

"EVERY DAY IS COMMENCEMENT DAY"

A short time ago thousands of young people graduated from schools and colleges throughout the Nation. And something said by William Park, chairman of American Stores, should stay in the minds of all of them:

"We must recognize that formal education is not an end in itself. It is rather a period of preparation for the duties of life and the opportunities of a career.

"There is really no time in life where we can say, 'My education is complete'. As we work, we learn; as we learn, we progress; as we advance, we increase in knowledge. So for all of us, whether we are recent graduates from high school or starting retirement, we look forward to new experiences and every day is commencement day."

MODERN HOMEMAKING

Recipes . . . Household Helps

By Julia Hunter

HOME ECONOMICS DIRECTOR, LONE STAR GAS CO.

In most homes there is a jar of peanut butter in the cupboard and most of it will be made into sandwiches for small fry. This is nourishing food for them, but don't confine peanut butter to the youngsters. It's a favorite with adults too.

Hot peanut butter fudge sauce makes a mouthwatering sundae. Combine 1/3 cup sugar, 1/2 cup water, 1 tablespoon corn syrup, 1 one-ounce square unsweetened chocolate and a dash of salt in a saucepan. Bring to a boil over a medium gas flame (225 deg. F. dial setting on thermostatically controlled burner) stirring until sugar dissolves and chocolate melts. Simmer 3 minutes. Remove from flame and stir in 3/4 cup peanut butter and 1/4 teaspoon vanilla. Spoon hot over vanilla ice cream. Makes about 3/4 cup. A tablespoon or two of chopped toasted salted peanuts are a nice addition. Omit the salt in the mixture if they are used.

Try smooth peanut butter swirled on chocolate or yellow cupcakes for a quick frosting. As tasty as it is easy. A sprinkling of confectioners' sugar sifted on the peanut butter is good.

Crunchy and pleasing with cold beverages are peanut butter snacks. Combine 3 tablespoons peanut butter, 2 tablespoons salad dressing and 1 tablespoon grated onion. Spread on packaged or make-it-yourself strips of melba toast. Broil under full gas flame until hot and bubbly. Serve at once.

A sandwich filling of deviled ham and peanut butter is a pleasant surprise. Combine one 2 1/2-ounce can deviled ham, 1/4 cup peanut butter and 1/4 cup pickle relish. Mix thoroughly. Spread on white or whole wheat bread and add crisp lettuce leaves. This is a delicious spicy combination.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Peanut Butter Pie: Combine in saucepan 2/3 cup sugar, 6 tablespoons flour and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Stir in 3 cups milk. Cook over medium gas flame (200 deg. F. dial setting on thermostatically controlled burner) about 5 minutes or until thickened, stirring frequently. Remove from flame. Stir small amount of hot mixture into 3 slightly beaten egg yolks. Pour this mixture into hot mixture remaining in saucepan. Remove from flame. Stir in 1/3 cup peanut butter. Cool. Pour into cooled baked 9-inch pastry shell. Beat egg whites until soft peaks form. Gradually beat in 6 tablespoons sugar, beating until stiff. Spread meringue over pie filling, carefully sealing meringue to edge of pastry to prevent shrinkage. Bake in moderate gas oven (325 deg. F.) 20 minutes.

THE MUNDAY TIMES

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wright of Oxnard, Calif., and Mrs. Jack Gaines of Santa Barbara, Calif., came in last Tuesday for a visit with their mother, Mrs. Etta Webb, and sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wiggins.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jetton and Sherryl vacationed in Sterling and Colorado Springs, Colo., from Saturday until Monday. Their son, Jerry, who had been working in the wheat harvest in Sterling, returned home with them.

VOTERS Of Precinct Four

Go to the polls on Saturday and vote on every office. It is our great American privilege which we often take too lightly.

I want to thank all the people for their time and courtesy to me. If I failed to see you, I am sorry. I tried to see you. Let me solicit your vote in this manner.

Twenty years in the same office is entirely too long. Even our President is limited to two terms.

I would like to have your vote for Commissioner of Precinct Four.

CALVES STRONG, STOCKERS $31 DOWN, FAT CALVES $28

Fort Worth — Opening trade Monday uncovered strong demand for all kinds of calves at Fort Worth. Slaughter and stocker calves were strong, with spots 25 to 50 cents above sales at the close of the previous week. Fifteen thousand fewer cattle appeared at 12 major markets than a week ago.

The strong calf market developed despite some pessimistic reports from northern points, and prevailing prices at Fort Worth Monday were in some cases equal to and above prices at cornbelt terminals on similar kinds.

Slaughter cattle were near steady. Fed steers and yearlings were weak, cows were slow but generally steady with the previous week's close. Bulls were fully steady.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $24 to $27 and common and medium offerings sold from $18 to $24. Fat cows cleared at $17 to $20.50 and a few heiferish kinds sold above that range. Canners and cutters drew $12 to $17.50. Bulls brought $18 to $22.50.

Good and choice slaughter calves cashed at $24.50 to $28 and common and medium offerings sold from $18 to $24. Culls cashed at $14 to $18.

Good and choice stocker steer calves sold mostly from $28 to $33, and heifer calves sold mostly from $30 downward. About three loads of cows and calves sold with the cows at $20 and the calves at $34. Stocker steer yearlings ranged from $22 to $27, some lightweights above that range. Fleshy feeders sold from $25.50 down.

HOGS DEVELOP STRENGTH, TOP $23.25, SOWS $21 DOWN

Hogs were 25 to 50 cents higher at Fort Worth Monday and choice hogs scored $23 and $23.25. Medium to good butchers sold from $21 to $22.50. Sows ranged from $19 to $21.

Twelve major markets showed $11,000 less hogs than a week earlier. Dressed pork trade firmed.

FEEDER LAMBS SCALING 85 POUNDS SELL AT $21

Heavyweight feeder lambs topped at $21 at Fort Worth Monday, a shipment scaling 85 pounds at that figure. Sheep and lamb prices were generally fully steady, quality considered and fat lambs were very scarce.

Mixed good and low choice fat lambs cashed at $21 to $21.50, and cull to medium slaughter lambs cashed at $14 to $20. Stocker and feeder lambs ranged from $17 to $21. Shorn fat lambs cashed at $21.

Shorn fat yearlings of good and choice grades sold from $17 to $18.50 while cull to medium slaughter yearlings sold from $13 to $16. Old ewes sold around $10 to $12. Aged ewes cashed at $6.50 to $7.50 for slaughter. Goats sold at $7.

192 FAIL TO BUY LICENSE FOR FISHING

Texas fishing during June must have been very good, according to the arrest reports from the Director of Law Enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. Only one fish was reported taken that fell below the seven inch minimum requirement.

Further support of good fishing conditions lies in the fact that 192 arrests were made for wettin' a hook without a license. One person tried to get around this by using someone else's license.

Total hunting, fishing, and pollution violations for the month was 265, netting $4,357.95 in fines and court costs.

A Few Extra Tomato Plants Work Wonders With Your Budget!

Even a few tomatoes planted in a small flower bed are decorative and profitable. The average plant will yield up to a half bushel of tomatoes, which can be converted to juice for less than 5 cents a quart.

"Easy" is the word for tomatoes. They're one of the easiest garden crops to grow, and just as easy to put up. Whether in the form of juice, chili sauce, specialties, or canned whole, they make a hit every time, when they have that "home-grown" flavor.

And there's a big saving in every plant. Tomato juice, for example, costs only 5 cents a quart including seed, seasoning, pro-rated cost of jar, closure, fuel, or less than one-third the store price.

That's why wise homemakers are setting out extra tomato plants this year. They'll have plenty to eat, to give friends, and to home-can for economical, vitamin-rich meals next winter! Try it. Like the girl in the picture, you'll be smiling, too!

sioner said. "I am delighted that the V. L. P. helped this fine person get a start."

Allcorn said that Ridgway's success is an outstanding example of the assistance provided by the Veterans' Land Program to Texas veterans.

Ridgway lives in the Loire community near Pleasanton in Atascosa county.

Carroll Odell returned home last Monday after spending the past two months with relatives in Big Spring.

MOTOR MAIDS

If You Have An Accident

By Jeanne Smith, Dodge Safety Consultant

ACCIDENTS always seem to happen to "someone else", but the wise driver is prepared for the day when he may become that "someone".

Clear thinking in an emergency can prevent further accidents and injuries, perhaps even save lives. Remember, even the most careful driver can be involved in an accident, through no fault of his own. The following rules, suggested by the Illinois Bar Association, are good ones to know and follow:

Miss Smith

1. Never leave the scene of an accident without stopping, no matter how slight the collision. Failure to stop can result in criminal prosecution. Pull off the road, and, if necessary, have someone warn oncoming traffic. At night, use flares, a flashlight or reflectors.

2. Give aid to the injured. Do what you can to make them comfortable. If necessary, move the injured to a safe place, but never move anyone seriously hurt. Have someone phone for a doctor or ambulance.

3. Call the police. Don't admit guilt — a later appraisal may prove the other driver equally or more to blame.

4. If another driver is involved, exchange name, address, license number and insurance information. Don't sign anything.

5. Write down names and addresses of all witnesses, accident site, weather and traffic conditions.

6. Report accident to your insurance company as soon as possible.

Veteran Named Outstanding Soil Conservation Farmer

AUSTIN — Land Commissioner Bill Allcorn recently commended the outstanding soil conservation farmer of the year in the Atascosa SC district.

The farmer is Steve Ridgway, who bought a 110-acre farm in 1950 through the Veterans' Land Program.

Allcorn said that the farm was purchased for $6,000 and that, at the time, it suffered badly from erosion.

Through Ridgway's use of aggressive soil conservation measures, Allcorn reported, the farm is today worth four times its 1950 purchase price.

"As chairman of the Veterans' Land Board, I commend Mr. Ridgway for his initiative and hard work which have helped him perform a real miracle on his farm," Allcorn commented.

"As difficult as times were for him, Mr. Ridgway has never been late with a Veterans' Land Program payment," the land commis-

News From The U. S. Congress

By Congressman Frank Ikard

The events in the Middle East during the last week have made everything else seem relatively unimportant. The events that led to the President's decision for America's troops to move into Lebanon focused world attention on the region in the Middle East which saw the beginning of our civilization and through the centuries has been of importance because of its geographic position at the crossroad between the East and the West. Politically, in recent years it has been one of the favorite areas of operation for the Soviets and also has seen the rise of a great spirit of Nationalism among the Arabian Countries. Economically the Middle Eastern Area is semi-arid. Much of it is actually desert, but it possesses a large share of the world's greatest natural resource, petroleum. This combination of Communist activity, the rise in Nationalism, and the presence of oil have been the ingredients that have brought about the explosive situation that exists today.

The events of the last ten days point up the complete failure of our foreign policy in the Middle East among the Arabian Countries and the movement of Nasser completely into the Soviet camp. If the Egyptian Dictator, by beating the drums of Nationalism, should gain control of all of the Moslem Countries in the Middle East, he would then dominate the sources of oil that are so important to the economy of Western Europe and to its defense through NATO.

This Mid East crisis is the greatest challenge that has yet faced the United Nations. If it proves to be impossible to work out some solution in the Middle East within the framework of the United Nations, then that Body will probably gradually cease to have any effectiveness in the settlement of world disputes. On the other hand, if the Mid East difficulties can be resolved there, then the U. N. may develop into the Body that can preserve peace in accordance with the hopes that we all had for it when it was organized.

The developments in the Mid East point up the fact that our Central Intelligence Agency leaves much to be desired, for it is the second time within a few months that it has actually been caught without the information that we so desperately needed. It first failed to give us ample warning on the Vice President's ill-fated tour of South America.

Visitors from home this week were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Boyett and daughters, Darlene and Carolyn, and Dr. R. H. Peterson, of Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cotton, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cotton, Sr., Mrs. Burney and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Brunson and Donna all of San Angelo and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Warren of Amarillo were week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Jetton and attended the wedding of Donna Sue Jetton and George Cotton on Saturday night.

Week end guests in the home of Mrs. Nora Broach were Mrs. Ethel Ratliff of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Broach and children of Snyder.

Mrs. Cecil Horeycutt and John and Mrs. M. J. Gass and Brenda Kay visited Capt. and Mrs. Harold Horeycutt in Abilene last Tuesday.

Wheat Support Price Raised

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced that because of an increase in the wheat parity price, the national average support price to producers for 1958-crop wheat will be $1.82 per bushel — an increase of four cents per bushel above the "advance" minimum price for this year's crop announced in April 1957.

The 1958-crop average support of $1.82 per bushel compares to a national average support of $2 per bushel for the 1957 crop.

When the minimum price was set in accordance with "favored pricing" provisions of law, the USDA announced that the support price would be redetermined as of July 1, 1958, the beginning of the 1958-crop wheat marketing year, on the basis of the current wheat parity price and the percent level of support as indicated by the relationship of the total supply of wheat available to a determined normal supply for the marketing year.

The July 1958 wheat parity price of $2.43 per bushel is higher than the estimated parity price of $2.37 per bushel used to determine the minimum price in April 1957.

No change is indicated in the 75-percent level of support announced in April 1957. At a support level of 75 percent of parity, the July 1958 parity price calls for a 1958-crop national average support at four cents per bushel higher than the minimum support of $1.78 per bushel as announced last year.

This level is determined in a variable range from 75 to 90 percent of parity on the basis of wheat supply relationships. The total supply of wheat available for the 1958-59 marketing year is now estimated to be 187.9 percent of the normal supply. The available total supply is considerably above earlier estimates when the total supply was estimated to be 141.8 percent of the normal supply. Under the law's formula, a wheat supply percentage above 130 percent calls for the minimum 75-percent level of support.

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

The Social Security laws have been broadened to provide benefits for additional groups of workers several times during the past few years.

The rules for paying Social Security taxes on maids, yardmen and other household employees provide that if the employee receives $50 or more in cash wages in a calendar quarter for household services the employer must withhold Social Security taxes from the employee and must pay taxes as an employer on the wages earned by the household employee. If you have a maid, cook, yardman, or other household employee you probably need to review the Internal Revenue Service Publication No. 14, Circular H, which has full and complete instructions on Household Employees' Social Security taxes.

You can obtain this publication from any Internal Revenue Ser-

your invention without your permission. The federal government issues a patent to you if you meet certain requirements.

(1) You must have something useful — a process, a machine, an article, a material, a plant or an ornamental design. The United States will patent only means to make ideas work and will not patent ideas such as new ways to do business, a new mathematical formula or newly discovered laws of nature.

(2) You must have something new. This means you must be the first to make the invention. Before the government issues a patent, the patent office makes a search for related patents and publications to find out if the invention was known to others before you made it.

(3) You must have made an "invention." This means that there must be something unexpected about it and not obvious to others working the same art.

(4) You must apply for your patent in good time. You cannot get a patent if the invention was sold or publicly used in the United States or described in a printed publication in any country more than one year before applying. You can not abandon your invention and then, after someone else has made it, change your mind and get a patent. The other inventor may be regarded as "the first inventor."

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer

Like other living things, bacteria need food, warmth and moisture to grow in numbers. That's why, in the summer months, certain kinds of bacteria so often team up with heat and lack of refrigeration to spoil food.

That's why food poisoning is so much more common in warm weather — and why you need to be especially careful now about preparing food and storing it.

With proper safeguards or cleanliness and cooling, food poisoning can be avoided. Here are a few suggestions to help you make sure that the food you eat this summer will be safe to eat.

It is well known which foods are most susceptible to bacterial growth, as these are especially dangerous unless they are properly prepared, handled, and stored.

Egg and milk mixtures, including custards and mayonnaise type salad dressings, ham, turkey and chicken, either in salads or sandwiches, and potato salad — one of the popular picnic foods — are often quickly suspected, when food infections occur this summer.

Ham sandwiches used to be considered safe because of the slow, salt laden curing methods employed in the past. But, today, most hams are tenderized and are subject to spoilage without proper refrigeration.

Making ham sandwiches and wrapping them in wax paper, then allowing them to stand at room or outdoor summer temperatures for a few hours, has caused many cases of food poisoning. Ham sandwiches are delicious, but they should be refrigerated until time to eat them.

Potato salad can be another trickster, unless all ingredients are thoroughly chilled before mixing, and the salad stored in shallow containers in the refrigerator. Deep bowls filled with the mixture retain the room temperatures in the center portions. This salad usually contains eggs and milk and mayonnaise mixture that encourage bacterial growth.

So, never take perishable foods on a picnic unless you have a way to keep them ice cold until served. When eating out — be particular about the cleanliness of the eating place, and select foods that are not risky in summer. Remember a food can taste and smell good, even though it is loaded with bacteria. And always wash the hands before handling and preparing foods.

ANTELOPE FAWN CROP HEAVY IN PANHANDLE

The Texas Panhandle antelope crop this year is exceptionally good, according to reports of the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

An aerial census just completed indicated a good fawn crop of approximately one and a third fawn per doe. The count showed a total of 1619 antelope, according to Warden Pilot Frank Hamer, Jr. There were 353 bucks, 773 does, and 493 fawns.

Flying with Hamer were Biologist Noral Wallace of Canadian and Warden Jess Feltz. They reported the antelope to be in excellent shape.

The count was made under adverse conditions, according to Pilot Hamer. The census takers had to compete for air space with aerial sprayers working on grasshoppers.

"It was almost like World War II," Hamer said. "Planes were buzzing around at every level. The antelope were badly scattered."

"This may not be the best fawn crop on record but it is the best I've seen since I've been flying."

The figures are now being studied for another possible open season in the Panhandle this year, according to Biologist A. S. Jackson.

Awards Made To Future Farmers

Six Future Farmers of America boys from West Texas and the Panhandle Area have been named to receive educational awards sponsored by the Santa Fe Railway Company. At the same time, eleven other Texas boys were named to participate in the Santa Fe's grant of $2,825 to the Texas Education Agency for carrying out FFA work in Texas during 1958.

The awards were announced at the Texas FFA Convention in San Antonio on July 17, by L. M. Olson, Santa Fe's Vice-President and General Manager at Galveston, after certification to the railroad by George H. Hurt, Texas State FFA Advisor. The boys had been selected on the basis of individual performance by FFA leaders.

West Texas winners are James Mahaffey, Clarendon; Harvey Pat Bradley, Samnorwood High School, McLean; Otis Shearer, Booker; David Hill, Seminole; and Bill Bartlett, Lamesa.

Doyce Graham, of Clarendon, was named as the winner of one of two $350-college scholarships granted by the Santa Fe. Billy Penn, State FFA President, of Lufkin, was awarded the other scholarship.

The Santa Fe educational awards are a continuing practice of the railroad, having been made yearly since the inception of the FFA program.

All winners will receive their financial aid from the Texas Education Agency. Representatives of the Santa Fe Railway will present certificates in honor of their selection to the winners at FFA ceremonies in the areas where the boys lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gage of Dallas visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Voss, and sister, Miss Joyce Voss over the week end.

Collection Of "Honest Errors" In Income Taxes Made

Federal tax enforcement efforts in the Dallas District, covering the north half of Texas, have resulted in the recovery of $70,430,993 in additional revenue during the fiscal year just ended — July 1, 1957, through June 30, 1958.

Mr. C. B. Dixon, Administrative Officer at Wichita Falls said that sum exceeds by $10,660,434, or approximately 18%, the amount the Internal Revenue Service recovered through its audit and collection activities during the previous fiscal year.

Of the total sum, $39,056,656 was accounted for by the regular auditing of tax returns, $3,101,520 came from pre-refund auditing, and $28,272,817 resulted from the collection of delinquent accounts and securing of delinquent returns.

Most of the recovered taxes, Mr. Dixon said, resulted from the collection of honest errors made by taxpayers, brought to light through IRS auditing procedures. These same examinations, he said, also showed returns which contained different interpretations of Federal tax regulations.

A small portion resulted from the work of IRS special agents investigations of cases in which fraud was present.

Baylor-Knox H. D. Camp Scheduled

The annual encampment of the Baylor and Knox Home Demonstration Clubs will be held in Seymour on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week at the veterans hall in Seymour.

Songs, recreation and crafts are planned during the afternoon, with swimming before the picnic lunch is spread at the Seymour park.

A business meeting will be held, at which time new officers will be elected. Skits will be given by all clubs represented.

The noon meal on Wednesday will be served by the junior girls department of the Rebekah Lodge.

CHICAGO — If you drive 8,000 miles in 1957, you're about average, according to the National Safety Council.

The Council, in its recently published statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts," reported that the nation's 80 million licensed motorists drove a total of 650 billion miles — an average of little more than 8,000 miles per person.

Auto accidents, said the Council, injured 1,400,000 drivers and pedestrians in 1957, and took the lives of 38,500 persons.

Funeral Held At Truscott For Mrs. J. W. Rutherford

Funeral services for Mrs. J. W. Rutherford, 78, former resident of Truscott, were held in the Truscott Baptist Church on Tuesday, July 15, conducted by Rev. Jack Davis, pastor, assisted by Rev. Bill Hall, pastor of the Gilliland Baptist Church, and Rev. David Stevens, pastor of the Truscott Methodist Church.

Mrs. Rutherford died in the Foard County Hospital on Monday, July 14, following an illness of several weeks. Her health had been failing for several years. She made her home with her children until she went to live in a rest home in Crowell this year.

Pallbearers were Jim Jones and Bryant Bate of Truscott; Harry Traweck of Crowell; Carl Haynie, J. B. Eubank Jr., and John Bullion, all of Truscott.

Ora Frances Rutherford was born in Piedmont, Alabama to Martha and Joe McClung on July 1, 1880. In 1898 she was united in marriage to J. W. Rutherford, who preceded her in death on August 12, 1950. To this union was born 6 daughters: Mrs. Myrtle Jones of Benjamin, Mrs. Glennie Collier of Thalia, Mrs. Elba Traweck of Foard City, Mrs. Lona Noron of Midland, Mrs. Laverne Holmes of Roswell, New Mexico, and Mrs. Oswald Caddell of Truscott; and one son, Willard Rutherford of Gilliland.

At an early age she joined the Baptist Church in Coleman County. At the time of her passing she was a member of the Truscott Baptist Church.

The Rutherford's lived on Antelope Flats, near Truscott, and lived in Knox City for several years.

Survivors are her seven children; one brother, Joe McClung of Marlow, Okla.; one sister, Mrs. Winnie Studdard, Piedmont, Alabama; 32 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren.

Burial was in the Truscott Cemetery beside her husband. Womack Funeral Home in Crowell was in charge of the arrangements.

4-H Dress Revue Slated August 2

At a recent encampment of the 4-H club girls, plans were concluded on the 4-H dress revue which will be held in Benjamin at the assembly room in the courthouse Saturday morning, August 2, beginning at 9 o'clock.

Clothing reports must be turned in with garments to be entered in the revue, and the Junior and Senior divisions must have their 4-H record notebooks at that time if they wish to enter them.

The revue for the public will be held the following Monday night, August 4, at the Vera School auditorium at 8 o'clock. At this time the girls will model what they have made and the winners will be announced and ribbons awarded. The winner of the Senior division will compete in the district meeting in Wichita Falls.

4-H Members Aid In Health And Service Programs

Summer doldrums don't seem to curtail a pair of state-wide 4-H Club programs that have to do with health and community relations. These year-round activities go hand-in-hand as 4-H'ers strive to improve their personal health habits and those of the community as well.

Among the many projects undertaken are clean-up and rodent control campaigns, various health drives such as chest X-ray, polio, heart, cancer and cerebral palsy. Individual clubs encourage regular dental and physical check-ups for members who are from 10 to 21 years old. Many receive expert first-aid training, and then give demonstrations to local groups. Some qualify for Summer camp jobs in water safety. These health-minded young citizens also learn the importance of an adequate daily diet to build sound minds and strong bodies.

Last year enrollment in the 4-H Health program reached a record high of 754,758, according to the National 4-H Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work which arranges the program in cooperation with Extension Service.

Awards for outstanding 1958 records will be provided by Eli Lilly and Company. There'll be $400 college scholarships for six national champs plus a trip to the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next December. The state winner will also get a Club Congress trip, and county winners will receive gold-filled health medals. Certificates will be presented to 4-H Clubs conducting the best health program for this year.

Awards in the 4-H Community Relations program are being given for the ninth consecutive year by Wm. Wrigley Jr. Co. They consist of a handsome certificate for the top ranking boy and girl in the state; expense-paid trips to the Chicago 4-H Congress for eight sectional winners; a $400 college scholarship each for the boy and girl judged best in the entire nation.

This year's abundant supply of peaches has made them the featured food on the USDA's August plentiful food's list, reports the Agricultural Marketing Service. Other plentiful foods are fresh and processed lemons and watermelons, potatoes, tomatoes, sweet corn, green beans, lima beans, lettuce and vegetable fats and oils.

ACCIDENTS ARE RATED HIGHER THAN DISASTER

CHICAGO — What if a disaster wiped out every man, woman and child in Springfield, Ill.? The Nation would be profoundly shocked.

Yet a total of 95,000 accidental deaths occurred in 1957 in the United States, according to the National Safety Council — about 10,000 more than the population of the Illinois capital city.

Further, accidents in 1957 injured 9,600,000 persons — comparable to the total population of Illinois.

Facts on the number of persons killed and injured accidentally in 1957 are contained in the Council's recently published statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts."

IS THE FARM VOTE STRENGTH DECREASING?

The general opinion in some circles of government today is that the farm vote as a power at the polls is a thing of the past.

Such a misconception has, on occasion, led to neglect of the rural segment of our economy in favor of a more vocal minority. This is known as "oiling the wheel that squeaks the loudest", among unsuccessful petitioners for governmental process. The group which gains its demands usually calls it, "Making yourself heard in Government."

It is true that the farm vote now represents only about 9 percent of registered voters on a national scale. But this does not present a true picture of agricultural strength.

If everyone concerned only realized it and acted accordingly, the agricultural block could still be the mightiest power in effect in our Democratic form of government.

For a total of 63 percent of our population is directly connected with the buying, selling, manufacturing or processing of our farm products. Legislative matters important to agriculture are vitally important to all of these persons.

Here is how it works! If everyone who buys the raw products of the farm would vote with the farmer as a block, the strength of the rural vote would increase to 14 percent. If those who pass these products through the channels of trade were counted, the total goes up to 24 percent. The processors and manufacturers of these goods would swell the total to 37 percent. Retailers of the ultimate product increases the strength to 56 percent.

And finally, those who sell the farmer only those tools and materials needed to produce his crop brings the grand total to 63 percent of our voting strength.

Of course, all of us rely on agriculture for our daily needs. Hardly another single industry affects the entire population so directly.

The primary conclusion to be drawn from this is — that the fate of agriculture, its leaders and its legislation — is of concern to us all.

For this reason, it is very important that every citizen know the men and issues which will guide and affect our agricultural outlook. And then VOTE!

Judge Walter Malone, author of the inspiring poem, "Opportunity," presided over a court in Memphis when I was a schoolboy and I was once a witness before him.

I had been on a street-car when a passenger tendered a bill for his fare. It was a ten and the company had a rule that it was not required to provide change for anything more than a five — or maybe only a two.

The passenger said he had no change and offered to permit the conductor to keep the bill until they reached the center of town but the conductor stopped the car and put him off, giving him a shove as he stepped to the ground.

It was to tell what I had seen that I was called.

Judge Malone was a rather heavy-set man with graying hair, serious in bearing but with a kindly expression and he asked the very nervous young witness a few questions in a quiet, reassuring tone.

(The plaintiff won a verdict for $75 damages, as I now recall.)

Variety is the spice of any program. As Jimmy Walker, the cleverest man who was ever mayor of New York City, used to say, "Never follow a banjo act with another banjo act."

Speaking of Jimmy Walker—

In one of his campaigns, he began a speech: "I came here with the ideas that I was going to express written down. But I don't need a planned speech when I speak here in the good old Forty-Ninth Ward."

And he pulled a piece of paper from his pocket, crumpled it up and threw it in a corner of the stage, then he declared, "I'll just speak from the heart." He made a witty and eloquent speech, which his audience received enthusiastically.

Afterward, a reporter, out of curiosity, retrieved the piece of paper and opened it up. It was a laundry bill.

Life has happenings more incredible than Hollywood scripts.

For instance, a producer was going to make a picture which was placed 10 years in the past and he needed a song for a piano-player to give, more or less as the theme song. He wanted a tune which actually had been written in the period but not one that had been a hit because it would be somewhat shopworn. So he selected one which had attracted almost no attention — and it skyrocketed to a place on the Hit Parade.

But the man who wrote it had died.

First Aid Facts

WHAT TO DO ABOUT BEE STINGS
By Dr. Paul F. MacLeod*

Honey bees, bumble bees, hornets, wasps and yellow jackets all belong to the same family, and they all sting. The female, with the exception of the wasp, leaves her stinger with the victim.

- Remember:
1. Scrape out the stinger with a small knife blade. Don't pull it out. You may cause poisonous fluid to enter the flesh.
 2. Use baking soda paste, Unguentine or calamine lotion to allay the pain.
 3. If a finger or toe is stung, wrap a rubber band around it above the sting and leave it there until the stinger has been removed (but not more than five minutes) to keep the poison from going farther.
 4. Call a doctor if the victim is stung several times. A wasp or hornet can sting repeatedly.
 5. Use ice packs or cold applications to help reduce the swelling and prevent absorption of toxin that may cause a severe reaction.

Caution: Anyone who has experienced severe reactions to a bee sting should consult a doctor. To avoid serious consequences if stung again, he should have ephedrine or adrenaline immediately available.

A Real Tennessee Volunteer

The Volunteer State of Tennessee never produced a more attractive volunteer than Mrs. Dorothy Severance of Nashville—the "Mrs. United States Savings Bonds of 1958." She won the title over a bevy of capable (and attractive) homemakers representing every state in the union at the "Mrs. America" finals in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. As an unpaid volunteer of the Treasury's Savings Bond Program, she will visit various cities during the year in the promotion of Savings Bonds and Stamps. Mrs. Severance needed no indoctrination following her coronation. She and her family have been regular buyers of Savings Bonds and Stamps over the years, and she's already one of the Treasury's best "salesmen." A graduate of Wake Forest College, she is author of two books. She is married to W. Murray Severance, a film producer for the Baptist Sunday School Board, and they have two small children.

Blakley Voices Views On Problems Of Rural People

BRYAN, July 21 — The facts of his position and views on problems vital to farm and ranch people of Texas were reemphasized Monday night by William A. Blakley as he opened the final week of his campaign at Bryan and Hearne.

Because "my position and my views have been misrepresented to you by our opposition," Blakley said he wanted to reiterate the facts of his stand on such problems as rural electrification, water and soil conservation, farm support programs, financing and interest rates. He gave the following as the keynotes of his position:

Rural Electrification: "I know of no greater service that has ever been done for the rural people of Texas than that performed by the rural electric cooperatives. This work must continue and a political environment must be maintained whereby adequate power at reasonable rates will be made available to the cooperatives so that they can continue to supply the needs of the farm and ranch people of Texas."

Farm Supports: "Many times before and throughout this campaign I have said that farmers should have the right to make a living without government controls. But, until the time when a proper solution to the farm situation can be found, the farmer must be compensated to equalize his income and his standard of living with the rest of our economy. The farmer's purchasing power must be supplemented until he can earn a decent living without government controls. This can best be accomplished through price supports until such time as the government can set up a system whereby farmers can be offered adequate financing to set up production and marketing facilities of their own, controlled solely by them, making it possible for them to produce and market the fruits of their labors according to good business principles."

Water and Soil Conservation: "For over 40 years the soil and its problems have been a part of me, and I have been a part of the farm and ranch life of Texas. Soil and water conservation in Texas and elsewhere in America are almost as vital to our economy, to our way of life, as the air we breathe. We have done much. We need to do tenfold more. And when we do it let's do it in such a way that man can build a tank or a lake on his farm or ranch, without a government permit, and be able to use the water without some bureaucrat telling him he has no right to it."

Financing and Interest Rates: "Few farmers and ranchers in Texas are able to borrow enough money at reasonable rates and satisfactory terms to enable them to adequately finance and develop their farms and ranches to the point where they can operate efficiently and at a profit. The availability of money at reasonable rates is as vital to farmers and ranchers as it is to any businessman or manufacturer, or anyone else. As your senator, I will support the creation of a lending institution which would supplement the Federal Land Bank, the Intermediate Credit Bank and other lending institutions, to insure that any responsible farmer or rancher would be able to borrow sufficient money at reasonable rates."

"A nation," said Blakley, "without productive, efficient and prosperous farmers and ranchers cannot long exist." — Pol. Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellie Dickey of Austin visited their niece, Mrs. Muriel Mitchell, last Thursday enroute to California for a vacation.

Special finishes now being used on many fabrics create a problem in removing stains. The best rule to follow, according to the USDA Agricultural Research Service, is to look for directions regarding use of bleaches on the garment. If none are given, avoid use of chlorine bleaches on fabrics with special finishes.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced that because of an increase in the wheat parity price, the national average support price to producers for 1958-crop wheat will be $1.82 per bushel — an increase of four cents per bushel above the "advance" minimum price for this year's crop announced in April 1957.

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is discussing either the foreign policy or the farm policy of this country this week it's hard to tell which.

Dear editor;
According to a lengthy, thoughtful newspaper article I read last night, there more than likely won't be any new farm legislation this year, and I was discussing this with some of my neighbors this morning and one of them said it was a good idea.

"That's fine," he said. "There's no use in passing brand new farm legislation every year. Don't hardly have time to get used to the one we got when they bring out another one."

I can't agree with this idea. In the first place, it's unfair to the farmer, or rather it's inconsiderate.

As I see it, the farmer is just as important, if not as expensive as foreign countries, and you don't catch this country trying to get along on the same foreign policy year after year, do you?

I'm not saying the farmer is entitled to as many changes in the farm policy as the world is to changes in our foreign policy, which as I understand it changes on the average of once every day and twice on Sundays, but what kind of people would the world think we had in Washington if we wound up on the last day of December with the same foreign policy we started out with on the first day of January. The same thing even applies from Monday to Friday.

Anybody can lay out a satisfactory foreign policy on peaceful days, just as it's easy to have a satisfactory farm program when prices are high, the weather good, and you've got an unlimited market for all you can grow, but you have no idea how worrisome it is to lay out a foreign policy in the morning and have to change it by the time the evening newscast comes out. There's nothing wrong with our foreign policy, it's just that the rest of the world isn't made to fit it.

Washington has already seen that what its intelligence agents told it today can be one hundred percent wrong tomorrow, and a friendly dictator who took a hundred million dollars today with a cordial grin can turn up the day after with an empty pocket and a scowl. Naturally we've got to be able to change our foreign policy to meet such a situation, or otherwise we'd naturally be accused of being caught napping.

A foreign policy that can't be changed every time we make a mistake would be one of the most embarrassing things on earth. The same thing is true with our farm policies. You've got to keep changing em year after year, I'm not suggesting day after day, or it'll only result in standardizing the confusion. Confusion isn't nearly as bad if it keep changing.

We live in changing times, and we've got to keep our foreign policies and our farm policies changing too. Well, maybe times don't change really, but as long as Washington doesn't know it, and every day is a brand new one to it as far as what's happening in the rest of the world is concerned, you've got to keep hopping around.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.
