Odd Bits Salvaged
By The Editor

"Mr. Williams, this is Mr. Edgar. Posie, this is Aaron."

Those were the words used in our first introduction to P. V. Williams one Monday morning in November of 1938. We saw him every Monday morning after that, except for times when one of us were out of town.

We sensed at the time that we had just met a wonderful character, one who knew the very heartbeat of Munday and the Knox Prairie. Associations with him during the 20 years that have passed did not lessen, but strengthened, this first impression of him. Friendship increased as we "rubbed shoulders" with him in many and varied activities.

We used to drop in his office just to pass the time of day. We rarely ever found him when he was not busy. Posie did not "just sit" in his office. His mind was occupied, his hands sorted papers, pushed a pencil, pecked the keys of a typewriter or made the "night's take" at the theatre ready for deposit. Yet, he found time to drop everything and visit for a spell. And to visit with him was to leave with a lighter heart and take on a more pleasant smile.

Posie loved a humorous joke or incident of the past, and we often exchanged these in our casual visits. Driving down the highway recently, we heard one that we were remembering to tell him when he got out of the hospital. A man came out of a movie theatre, stuck a gun into the ticket booth and remarked: "That was a lousy picture. Give me everybody's money back!" We didn't get to tell him!

We rubbed shoulders with him in varied walks of life during the past 20 years — as he was on the city council, in the lobby of his theatre, in his office, as members of a civic club, in the church, in his home, in the Masonic Order, as his guest at his Lake Kemp cabin, trolling in his boat hoping for a bass to strike our lures, helping to bait or run a trotline, at the State Fair and a college football game, at his beloved Variety Club in the Adolphus Hotel, gliding down the highway in his automobile.

Posie was president, we were secretary, of a Lions Club that died in our laps. Our concern over the demise of this club was no less than his. Sorrowfully, we agreed that the funds remaining in the treasury should go to help in the upkeep of Johnson Cemetery, and they were so disposed of.

We recall an occasion when he was presiding at the club's meeting. He became so touched by the evangelistic message of the speaker that day that his voice broke, and he closed the meeting with great difficulty. Deeply religious in nature, sound in business judgment, jovial in fellowship with others, fair in all business dealings, devoted to family, considerate of others — these are the impressions of P. V. Williams that remain with us.

He came into our office at one time and purchased a carton of ten boxes of paper clips. Soon he was back with them. "I found only nine boxes in here," he said. "You can count them if you want to, then give me another box. If not, I'll have to sue you!" He received the tenth box, and we had a big laugh over him threatening to sue over a 10-cent item.

Maybe there'd be a lull some mid-week afternoon. "Got time to see Munday in the Movies?" Posie would ask over the telephone. We'd go to the theatre and with a handful of others, enjoy that picture of Munday people which Posie loved so well and preserved so carefully.

These are a few of our many and varied memories of a good and great man. "Well, A," said our partner, Grady Roberts, on a short visit after we'd laid Posie to rest, "we've lost a friend." "Yes," we replied, "and a very good one."

Notice — People are advised to take keys out of their cars when parking them. Harold Paden found a big rat in the rear seat of his auto, and he's taking his keys out, now, as a precaution!

Funeral Service For Mrs. Albus Held Saturday

Mrs. Magdalena Albus, 86, resident of the Rhineland community almost 60 years, passed away at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday, September 10, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. A. J. Kuehler, at Rhineland. She had been ill only two weeks, and her death came rather unexpectedly.

Mrs. Albus was a charter member of the Mother's Society of St. Joseph's Church at Rhineland, and was also a charter member of the church.

She was born at Gilbertsville, Iowa, on December 11, 1871, and was the former Magdalena Mueses. She was married to Joseph Albus on January 16, 1896, at Eagle Center, Iowa, and the couple came to Knox County in 1899. Mr. Albus preceded her in death October 12, 1929.

Salvation Army Fund Drive To Begin Tuesday

Volunteer workers will meet at 7 a. m. Tuesday, September 23, at the American Legion Hall for a kick-off breakfast to begin the annual fund drive for the Salvation Army, announced the Rev. G. N. Allison, fund campaign chairman.

Chairman Allison requests all team captains and their workers to be present for this meeting to receive final instructions and material for the drive. The eastern half of Knox County will participate. Mrs. Helen Penick, treasurer of the Service Unit Committee, reports that many families, local and transients have been given aid here since last September. Services rendered to the needy include grocery orders, clothing, meals, gas and oil for transients, lodging, medication and other varied services.

E. W. Harrell, chairman of the East Knox County Service Unit of the organization said, "We don't have to sell The Salvation Army, for it has been warmly accepted by all who know of its work. We do, however, need to increase our support during this campaign to do all we can to make it successful, since all the funds for The Salvation Army's work here will be raised during this drive."

Already named by Allison to work on this drive in Munday are: Advanced Gift Captain, Jim Reeves and workers, Earnest Horton, Paul Pendleton, J. C. Borden, and Vern Frost. Also named as captains for the general drive are: Doris Collins, J. C. Harpham, Chan Hughes, Charles McCauley, Charles Baker and Mrs. Don Wardlaw. Dwight Key is to head the employee division for the drive.

Workers for Vera and Goree are being contacted today," stated Harrell.

Zone 5 residents of the State's 173 soil conservation districts on October 7 will elect a supervisor from their zone to serve for the next five years on the board of supervisors for their district. Lynn Pittard, extension soil and water specialist, urges every qualified voter to cast a ballot.

Proving in spring and fall training that he is a top hand, Glenn Amerson of Munday is expected to be on the starting lineup with Texas Tech against Texas A&M next Saturday, according to the Avalanche Journal, Lubbock.

Amerson, a sophomore, will likely be the starting quarterback. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Amerson of Munday and a star on the Munday Moguls during his high school days.

Getting 'Big Tex' Ready For Big Welcome

"Big Tex," the towering 52-foot cowboy statue who symbolizes the great State Fair of Texas, is being put together in readiness to welcome some two-and-a-half million visitors to the 1958 exposition, October 4 through 19, in Dallas. It takes a crew of workmen with a 100-foot derrick to put the big boy's head on his shoulders.

Water Authority To Order Election To Include Four Towns In Water Project

Directors of the North-Central Texas Municipal Water Authority held a special meeting on September 11 in Munday. Returns of the bond election on September 6 were canvassed, and it was determined that the district now consists of Goree, Munday, Haskell and Rule.

Since Seymour voters decided against the bond issue and water contract, an order was passed detaching Seymour from the Authority.

Walter Coffman of Goree was elected secretary-treasurer in the place of L. D. Jones of Seymour. Mr. Jones and Mr. Tipton were commended by the board for their unselfish work while serving as directors.

A special meeting was called for September 17 for the purpose of calling another election to vote bonds for the new four-

Election Set Oct. 11
In a special meeting of the Authority held last Monday night, the date for the new bond election was set for Saturday, October 11, with the amount of the bonds being reduced to $3,800,000 due to Seymour turning down the proposal in the other election.

The project will provide filtration pumping and pipeline service for the four towns remaining in the Authority — Munday, Goree, Haskell and Rule.

Notice of the election appears elsewhere in this issue of The Times.

Sandy Brown Named Sweetheart Of F.F.A.

Firemen from ten area towns gathered here last Sunday for the semi-annual convention of the West Texas Firemen and Fire Marshal's Association, with the Munday Fire Department as hosts. The registrar showed a total of 338 registered.

The program got under way at 10 a. m., with registration at the local fire hall, and the meeting proper was opened at 1:30 p. m., with Mayor V. E. Moore giving the address of welcome.

Musical entertainment was by the Mogul Madkats, and the principal address was given by Glenn Shelton of Wichita Falls. Officers were elected, as follows:

Marvin Lasater of Graham, president; Doyle Graham of Knox City, vice president; J. B. Scott of Munday, re-elected secretary and treasurer; Harold Paden of Archer City, mascot, and Rid King of Archer City, mascot.

In the afternoon's contests, Graham won first place in water polo, and Archer City was first in 6-man hookup. The attendance prize went to Seymour, with 74 per cent of their membership being present. The evening meal was served at the school cafeteria by Jetton's Catering Service. Towns represented included Graham, Seymour, Aspermont, Electra, Wichita Falls, Knox City, Goree, Chico and Munday.

Visitors registered from towns outside the association were from Haskell, Stamford, Austin and Colorado City.

Seymour was selected for the next semi-annual convention, which will be in May, 1959.

Heavy Rains Fall In Area

An abundance of moisture, welcomed by many but unheralded by others, visited this area Sunday night and Monday.

About three inches fell at Munday, while heavier amounts of three to three and one-half inches were reported in other sections. The moisture was lighter west of Munday in the Sunset community, and Knox City reported less than a half inch.

Heaviest of the rain appeared to be southeast of town, with three and one-half inches reported by farmers. Goree reported 2.20; Weinert had only .65 but around two inches were reported on the C. P. Baker and Dwight Key farms southeast of town.

Wheat farmers welcomed the moisture, and plans are being made for planting wheat crops when the soil dries. Cotton farmers, many of whom had cotton ready to gather but unable to secure laborers, took a dimmer view of the heavy rains. The moisture delayed harvest and will likely lower the grade of cotton.

Rodent Control Program Planned In Knox County

Representatives from each community in Knox County have been invited to attend a meeting at the County Courthouse next Monday night, Sept. 22, to receive information on methods of controlling rats and mice around the homestead.

A farmstead in each community will be set up as a demonstration and these demonstrations will be conducted by a representative of the Rodent Control Service with the cooperation of the County Extension Service.

Purpose of the preliminary meeting is to plan, with the community demonstrators, the dates and times for the demonstrations in the various communities. These dates will be published next week, and farmers and ranchers desiring information on rodent control are urged to check this schedule and attend one of the community meetings.

The Knox County Farm Bureau will handle the sale of bait, which will be placed on sale following each community program.

Funeral Services For P. V. Williams Held At Methodist Church On Friday

Funeral services for P. V. Williams, well known local businessman and community leader, were held at 3 p. m. Friday from the First Methodist Church in Munday. Officiating were Rev. Rex L. Mauldin, pastor; Rev. Don Davidson of Lubbock, Rev. Luther Kirk of Plainview and Carl Maples of Crosbyton. Burial was in Johnson Memorial Cemetery under the direction of McCauley Funeral Home.

Knox Lodge No. 851 AF&AM was in charge of Masonic services at the graveside, with Lee Haymes, life-long friend of the deceased, conducting.

Mr. Williams passed away on Wednesday, September 10, at a Wichita Falls hospital after an illness of about three weeks. He suffered a liver ailment and underwent surgery while in the hospital.

Posie Virgil Williams was born in Tennessee on October 20, 1893, and was 64 years, 10 months and 20 days of age. He came to Knox County in 1910 and was one of the few remaining Knox County people who attended the old Stamford College, which later became McMurry College.

He was married to Miss Roxie Maples on May 28, 1916 and reared his family in Munday. He operated the Roxy Theatre here from its early beginning until his death, and also owned the Roy Theatre and held an interest in the Sunset Drive-In. During his career, he was interested in several other theaters over this area and was recognized as one of the leading "showmen" of the state. He was also consignee for the Gulf Oil Corporation for about 40 years.

Mr. Williams was a member of the Methodist Church in Munday, the Knox Masonic Bodies, a Shriner and a member of the Knights Templar.

Serving as pallbearers at the funeral were V. E. Moore, Travis Lee, J. Weldon Smith, Clyde Williams of Knox City, Almo Hooser of Seymour, Bruce Burnett, M. L. Wiggins and Paul Pendleton.

Named as honorary pallbearers were W. R. Moore, W. E. Braly, John C. Spann, J. C. Harpham, Worth Gafford, H. A. Pendleton, D. E. Holder, Oscar Spann, Lee Haymes, Tom Hooser of Seymour, "Red" Leathers of Paducah, Ernest Willson of Dallas, C. P. Baker, A. L. Smith, Dr. R. L. Newsom, W. C. Cox, M. F. Billingsley and R. D. Atkinson.

Survivors include his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Jerry Kane of Munday, Mrs. Bill Pierce of Midland, and Mrs. Perry Willson of Dallas; two sons, Col. Jack Williams of Kingsfield, Klamath Falls, Ore., and Rupert Williams of Munday; two brothers, Estel A. Williams and Webster Williams, both of Chanute, Tenn.; five sisters, Mrs. Toter Wynn of Windy Ky., and Mrs. Dona Wilborn, Albany, Ky. Charloeth Kindard and Mrs. Wonnah Brown, both of Livingston, Tenn.; and eleven grandchildren.

Moguls Drop Second Game To Seymour Team

The Munday Moguls dropped their second game of the season last Friday night, 39 to 6, to the strong Class 2-A Seymour Panthers, on Panther field. Entering the game underdogs against the high-rated Seymour team, the Moguls were also without the services of two strong players, Gaylon Allred and John Walter Massey, who are probably lost for the season due to injuries.

The Panthers found the scoring range in the first quarter, added 20 more points in the second and added their final 13 in the third stanza. Munday couldn't find the range until late in the final period.

Travis Clark broke loose for scampers of 65 and 42 yards to pace Seymour's scoring attack. Eldon Welch went 18 yards, Billy Carlock streaked 75 on a punt return. Joe Chandler went for 36 and Billy McLarty streaked 28 to round out the scoring attack for the host team.

Munday's tally came on a 10-yard run by Phillip McAfee.

Throckmorton Next

Not discouraged by a tie and a loss this early in the season, the Moguls are practicing in earnest this week in preparation for their next foes — the Throckmorton Greyhounds. They will be host to the Hounds next Friday night.

This game has always been one of interest, and the teams were pretty well evened up when they were district foes. This will be another non-conference game, but Mogul fans will be on hand urging their team on to victory.

Oil Activities

Glenn W. Cooper of Seymour has completed No. A-5 Hunt and Hunt in the Goree Field, one mile southeast of Goree. The well pumped 62.24 barrels of 37 gravity oil per day from pay perforated at 1752-64 feet. Total depth was 1796, and gas-oil ratio was 200-1.

Lisle Gray of Olney has finished No. 1 Sybilla Andres in the L.M. (Tannehill) Field, six miles north of Munday, for a daily pumping potential of 41.37 barrels of 39 gravity oil from perforations at 1888-94 feet. Hole was bottomed at 1960, and gas-oil ratio was 100-1.

Funeral Held For Harold Loer Here September 10

Graveside rites were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday, September 10, at Johnson Memorial Cemetery for Harold Loer, with McCauley Funeral Home in charge of local arrangements.

Mr. Loer, husband of the former Gladys Voss of Munday, died on September 6 in El Paso, succumbing to a heart attack. He was operating a taxi at the time of his death.

Mr. Loer lived in Abilene for ten years before moving to El Paso. He was a native of Indiana.

Survivors include his wife; his mother, Mrs. Hazel Loer of Covina, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Betty Hatzloff of Covina and Mrs. Ruth Evans of Southdale, Calif.

YOU CAN'T TRUST TO LUCK

During the first 28 weeks of 1958 there were 791 cases of polio reported in the whole United States. In pre-Salk years (1950-54) the average for the first 28 weeks was 5,379 cases. This year's figure shows a drop of some 85 per cent.

Effective as it is, the Salk vaccine cannot entirely account for this drop. Only about 60 per cent of the population most susceptible to polio has had vaccine.

Scientists have two theories about this decrease. Some think the Salk vaccine may have created "herd immunity." Herd immunity is a condition that occurs when a sufficient proportion of a population is vaccinated against a given disease. The "chain of infection" is then broken, and even the unvaccinated get protection.

Other scientists say that Salk vaccine does not create herd immunity, since a vaccinated person may carry polio virus and infect unvaccinated people. They attribute the polio drop of the last three years partly to Salk vaccine, partly to luck. They point out that in certain periods of the past, polio went through cycles of low rate of attack.

Because there is no scientific evidence that Salk vaccine does create herd immunity, The National Foundation (formerly the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis), which spearheads the polio fight, warns that we cannot trust to luck. What we can trust is the Salk vaccine. The safest course, then, for you and your family is to get vaccinated now. Remember, there is no cure once polio has struck.

The Tax Foundation reports that one of every eleven employed individuals works for state or local government. Total payroll cost: $19 billion a year.

The railroads got one-eighth of one cent for carrying a first-class letter an average of 500 miles. And for about an eighth of a cent more they provide the mail cars, workers, terminal services and so on needed to sort and handle the mail en route.

Our human population isn't the only one that's booming. The dog population has soared from 13,500,000 in 1939 to some 26,000,000 today. The pooches consume around $400 million worth of prepared dog food alone each year.

"YOUR MONEY"

The Portland Oregonian prints a letter from a reader which offers an interesting suggestion. He proposes that we stop the "silly practice" of referring to the financing of projects with "government money" or "Federal funds" as though it was manna from heaven.

Instead, he thinks, we should start calling such financing by its right name—that is "your money" or "taxpayers' funds."

There is a world of merit in this idea. A great many people, apparently, don't relate "Federal funds" or government money" to the state of their own pocketbooks. They don't realize that every cent must be paid one way or another by the taxpayers of today and of generations to come. And that term "taxpayers" includes everyone in the country. Even people in so low an income bracket that they pay no direct taxes, must pay hidden taxes every time they buy an article or a service.

The widespread use of such a term as "your money" would be a tremendous help in correcting this sad situation. We'd think twice if we really understood that we must pay a part of the cost of everything government does—whereas now we only think once or don't think at all.

At any rate, keep it in mind next time you read about government spending. It's "your money"—billions upon billions upon billions of it, collected in taxes.

CORTLAND, N. Y., THE DEMOCRAT: "Once in a while one reads an editorial column which, while it certainly isn't aimed to please everyone, is at least provocative and leads to thinking about other things than Nasser, et al."

Fortune says that the upturn in the American economy is underway, and forecasts that within a year's time we will establish new records both in total output and industrial production. It expects the gross national product to rise about $20 billion in the next six months, followed by a further rise of nearly $30 billion during 1959.

The American Medical Association has announced plans for a concerted program to alert the public to the dangers of substituting "food fads" for sound nutrition. A spokesman says: "We feel it is our duty to warn against abandoning the traditional 'three square meals a day' and the principles of sound nutrition for the pills and schemes of food faddists."

TEXAS AGRICULTURE IN BRIEF

BACK IN THE POPCORN BUSINESS — Texas, while not one of the major producers of popcorn, anticipates one of the largest popcorn harvests in recent years. An estimated 6,800 acres of Texas corn are set for harvest, more than twice as much as the 2,840 acre 1947-1956 ten-year average. Total U. S. production estimated for this year 231,000 acres out of 248,000 acres planted.

TEXAS FARMS CHANGING SIZE — There are fewer farms in Texas, but, in keeping with Texas tradition, Texas farms are getting bigger, with larger farm operations taking over an increasingly bigger share of the state's total farm land.

The loss in number of farms is centered heavily in those between 50 and 99 acres in size. In 1920, farms of this size made up 27 percent of the State's farm land, but by 1954 occupied less than 15 percent. Whereas in 1920 farms of 260 acres and over occupied less than 12 percent of all the state's farm land, by 1954 28 percent of Texas farm land was occupied in farms of 260 acres and over.

TEXAS SET FOR 45-MILLION LB. PECAN CROP — U.S.D.A. estimates in August of Texas pecan crop prospects set estimated production at 45,000,000 pounds — 10 million pounds below last year's estimated 55 million pound crop. Still, Texas is picked as the top national pecan producer, 2 million estimated

MODERATE RECEIPTS OF CATTLE AT MAJOR MARKETS FIRMS TRADE

Fort Worth, Sept 15 — Fears expressed in the trade last week that excessive runs of cattle and calves might arrive at points around the major marketing circle proved unfounded Monday. The twelve major markets showed over 14,000 fewer cattle and calves, although Fort Worth had nearly ten percent more.

at all points, although the feeder cattle trade was inclined to shy away from heavyweight yearlings and feeder steers unless some concessions in price were accomplished. Stocker cattle and calves suitable for pasture purposes were in broad demand at all points.

At Fort Worth, the stocker trade was very active and again there were both large and small stockmen from all over the Southwest seeking replacement cattle and calves. Cattle and calves were active and fully steady with some sales on calves strong to 50 cents above the low close of last week. Fed steers and heifers were in small supply and sold at firm rates. Cows and bulls were active at strong prices through out.

Good to choice slaughter steers and yearlings bulked at $24 to $26.50 and medium to lower grades cashed at $18 to $24. Fat cows sold mostly at $18 to $21. A few heiferish kinds higher. Cannons and cutters sold for $13 to $18. Bulls brought $18 to $22 in most sales, odd head outside that range.

Good to choice slaughter calves cashed at $24 to $26.75 and a few sold at $27. Common and medium slaughter calves drew $18 to $23 and culls sold at $16 to $18. Medium and good stocker steer calves ranged from $28 to $33 and common to medium sorts cashed at $20 to $27. Stocker heifer calves ranged downward from $30. Stocker steer yearlings of medium to good grades sold from $20 to $25 and some lightweights drew $26 to $27. A few medium to fairly good stocker cows sold from $18 to $20.

HOGS ADVANCE AS NORTHERN MARKETS OPEN TO SMALL SUPPLY

Trade on butcher hogs was 25 cents higher and packer hogs sold 25 to mostly 50 cents higher at Fort Worth Monday. Local supplies follow the same pattern as the Monday receipts around the major market circle and were

TEXAS BOUND—Texas farmers now are receiving Ford diesel tractors from the largest single shipment ever delivered in the state. supply, packer types of lambs were weak to 50 cents or more lower at Fort Worth Monday. Packers displayed little interest and feeder buyers were active at firm prices. Hence, the bulk of the offerings was sold as replacement lambs.

Stocker sheep found strong prices, quality considered. Slaughter classes of sheep and goats were also firm.

Slaughter lambs were dull and weak to 50 cents or more lower. The trade was lacking an adequate test on fat lambs, as most offerings were mixed fat and feeder lambs and the feeder prices usually outstripped packer offers except on culls.

Medium to good fat lambs drew $18 to $20 and cull to medium lambs drew $12 to $18. Stocker and feeder lambs sold from $19 to $21, a few buck lambs around $16 to $18. Slaughter ewes sold from $7 to $8. Fat goats sold at $7, with light canners at $6 and a few billies at $5. Kid goats sold at $10 to $11.

Solid mouthed stocker ewes sold at $15 to $16 per head and yearling, two-year-old and three-year-old ewes sold from $18 to $21.

Chuckars Being Introduced Into West Texas Area

An attempt to introduce Chuckar into West Texas as a game bird will be made this week on the Black Gap Management Area in the Big Bend.

Approximately 500 adult birds will be liberated there the latter part of the week. They are being brought to Texas from Nevada, according to the executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

Early this year a trade was made by the Texas game group with the state of Nevada. Texas traded 100 javelinas for the 500 chuckars.

Although numerous attempts have been made to introduce chuckars into Texas previously, this is the first major attempt in West Texas. Pen raised birds have done well in certain areas, but these are wild birds and will be introduced to terrain comparable to their home breeding ground.

The altitude and weather conditions of the Big Bend are somewhat similar to those of Nevada, except that it doesn't get as cold in Texas.

Since no bird shooting is permitted in the Black Gap area, and the area is sufficient to provide ample protection, it is expected the birds may do well there.

The Chuckar was first introduced into Nevada in 1925. The number had increased sufficiently by 1951 for the first public hunt. Each year since then Chuckars have been on the legal list.

Recent rains have improved the chances for a successful fall garden. Local county extension agents are supplying detailed information on the varieties which can now be planted.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE!

On the Capitol grounds in Nashville is the grave of James K. Polk. The inscription makes no mention of the fact that, as President, he added Texas to the United States:

"By his public policy he defined established and extended the boundaries of his country. He planted the laws of the American Union on the shores of the Pacific."

As Polk's death occurred less than four years after Texas became a State, the author of the inscription — not gifted with prophecy — did not foresee that Texas would prove to be an empire in itself; first in cattle, cotton, sulphur and oil.

Polk was a "dark horse" for the Democratic presidential nomination. In fact, the telegraph had just come into use and this news was one of the first — if not the first — items ever sent over the wire; and many people thought it was a hoax.

However, Polk had been governor of Tennessee and speaker of the National House of Representatives; furthermore, he had, no doubt, the backing of a very influential man, Andrew Jackson, a Tennessean of course.

An elderly lawyer in Weatherford, the late Judge R. B. Hood, a good many years ago told me that his mother lived in Tennessee and, as a girl, carried a banner in a Polk parade, the words having been written in the juice of polk-berries.

Polk was 54 when he died in 1849. His wife also is buried there. She was eight years younger and she lived to be 88, dying in 1891. So she outlived her husband by 42 years. To one visitor, the dates suggested a story of long and tragic loneliness.

A statue on the Capitol grounds pays tribute to Sam Davis, who was only 21 years old when he died. The carved words relate that he was a member of a Confederate company of scouts and was in uniform when he was captured. In his possession were papers describing the Union forces and fortifications. He was offered his life if he would reveal who gave him the papers. He answered, "I would die a thousand deaths before I would betray a friend." He was executed.

The monument was erected by donations from every State in the Union.

Mrs. M. B. Norvill and children of Seymour visited relatives and friends here over the week end.

Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Alexander and daughters visited relatives in Waco last Saturday night and Sunday.

Farmers May Increase '59 Allotment In New Program

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has announced that alternate (Choice B) farm allotments for the 1959 crop of upland cotton will be 40 per cent larger than the regular (Choice A) allotments for the same farms.

Under Section 101 of the Agricultural Act of 1958 (approved August 28, 1958) the Secretary is authorized to increase regular upland cotton farm acreage allotments by (not to exceed 40 per cent) for those who elect Choice B under the cotton allotment program. The determination announced September 5 means that such farmers may increase their 1959 upland cotton acreage by the full 40 per cent.

As provided by the legislation, if marketing quotas are in effect, each farm operator who has an upland cotton acreage allotment will have the following choice—Choice A and Choice B. (In the event marketing quotas were not approved by the producers, this optional choice plan would not be in effect.)

(A) He may elect to grow his crop in compliance with his regular upland cotton acreage allotment in which case he will be eligible for the full level of price support available for the crop (not less than 80 per cent of parity for 1959); or

(B) He may increase his upland cotton acreage by not more than 40 per cent over his regular farm allotment and be eligible for price support at a level which is 15 per cent of parity less than the level available under Choice A.

For 1960, farmers will have a similar choice but the increase for Choice B farms has not been determined.

If any person operates more than one farm with an upland cotton acreage allotment, he must elect the same choice for all his farms; he may not elect Choice A for one farm and Choice B for another.

For the 1959 crop of upland cotton, each farm operator will be informed of the Choice A and Choice B farm allotments applicable to his farm.

After 1960, farmers will receive their regular cotton acreage allotments, and price support will be available at levels determined by the Secretary within specified limits (from 70 to 90 per cent of parity for 1961, and from 65 to 90 per cent of parity thereafter).

The additional acreage in cotton production on a farm under Choice B will not result in increased future allotments since the law provides that it shall not be considered as cotton acreage history in establishing future acreage allotments for the farm, county, or State. Allotments for farms for which Choice B has been elected may not be released for reapportionment to other farms.

Cotton from farms where Choice A has been elected will be eligible for price support through a Commodity Credit Corporation purchase program only. Price support for cotton from farms for which Choice B has been elected shall be made available through loans, purchases, or other operations. During the period Aug. 1, 1959, through July 31, 1961, CCC-owned cotton must be offered for sale for unrestricted use at not less than 10 per cent above the Choice B level.

Among other provisions affecting upland cotton, the new legislation also includes the following:

(1) Beginning with the 1959 crop, the minimum national acreage allotment for upland cotton is fixed at 16 million acres.

(2) An additional allocation of 310,000 acres over the national acreage allotment is provided for apportionment to States on the basis of their needs to take care of minimum farm allotments, with 1,000 acres of the extra acreage assigned to Nevada.

(3) The minimum farm allotment for upland cotton is permanently established at the smaller of (a) the farm's 1958 acreage allotment or (b) 10 acres.

(4) After 1960, the minimum national marketing quota for upland cotton must be equal to the estimated domestic consumption and exports less imports, subject to such adjustment as will assure adequate but not excessive stocks. However, the marketing quota may not be less than the large of (a) the estimated domestic consumption and exports less 1 million bales, or (b) 10 million bales.

(5) Beginning with the 1961 crop, the escalator clause — under which the minimum support level is determined on the basis of the supply percentage — is repealed, and price support will be based on the average quality of the crop instead of Middling 7/8-inch cotton, as heretofore.

(6) After July 31, 1951, the minimum price for sales of CCC-owned cotton for unrestricted use will be 115 per cent of the support price plus reasonable carrying charges, except that CCC may sell at the market price during any marketing year a number of bales equal to the number by which the national marketing quota is less than the domestic consumption and exports.

MRS. B. R. HOLDER RETURNS FROM TRIP

Well, here I am back in the Lone Star State after spending six weeks in California and Nevada with my two daughters and families. While in California, we went from Oxnard to Santa Cruz, up the coast line, to the famous Begonia Gardens and the Dalaha Gardens, and words cannot tell how beautiful they were. It was a beautiful drive up the coast.

On return to Oxnard, we crossed the mountains to Fresno and visited relatives, then back where Ina Sarbrough lives in Thousand Oaks. While there, Mrs. J. C. Lambeth and daughter took me to San Diego, and we took a boat trip to Hooker Island, where my grandson, Lynn Lambeth, was stationed. It was a thrill to visit his ship.

While in Las Vegas, J. C. and Billie took me to the snowline in the mountains. It was very cold, even if it was in August. It was a wonderful trip — Mrs. B. R. Holder.

Mrs. McKennon returned home on Wednesday, September 10, from Fort Worth where she accompanied Mrs. F. L. McKennon and Angela on a 15 day vacation to South Dakota where they visited the latter's parents and to other points in South Dakota and St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minn., where they visited and vacationed in Minnesota and Wisconsin. The high light of their trip to Minnesota was the scenic drive to Red Wing, Minn., and Lake City where they viewed Lake Pepin and Mille Lacs Lake at Omamia, Minn., and Still Water, Minn., where they crossed St. Croix river over into Hudson, Wis. They returned via Kansas City where they visited in the home of Mrs. Jim McKennon's niece, Mr. and Mrs. John Longfellow and family, and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown and children and friends of Mrs. McKennon. They also visited Como Park and the Conterory with its beautiful flowers and trees. Mr. McKennon accompanied her home from Fort Worth.

Mrs. Della Parnell returned home last Monday from a ten day visit with her sister in Seagraves.

We wish to thank every one for the food and lovely flowers during our recent sojourn.

Social Security To Be Increased

Beginning January 1, 1959, the social security tax rate for employees and employers will be increased to 2½ percent each. The rate for self-employed people will be 3½ percent for next year. These rates are scheduled to increase again in 1960 and every 3 years after that until they reach 4½ percent for employees and employers and 6½ percent for self-employed people in 1969 and thereafter.

Starting next year, the new law provides that the first $4800 of earnings in a year, rather than $4200 as now, will be taxed for social security and will count toward social security benefits.

For more information on the Social Security Amendments of 1958 address your letter or post card to the Social Security Administration, 452 Post Office Building, Wichita Falls, Texas, and ask for the free pamphlet "The Social Security Amendments of 1958 — What They Mean to You".

Breakfast Gives Strength For Day

A good breakfast every day can prevent that empty, shaky feeling that often hits at mid-morning when you "skip" or "skimp" on breakfast. Pattern for a good breakfast goes something like this: fruit, cereal, eggs, toast and beverage. It should contain about one-third of the total daily food needs.

Variety adds spice to any meal, so plan to vary the basic pattern by using different kinds of fruits or juices, different cereals and breads, and by preparing eggs in different ways.

An attractive table and friendly relaxed atmosphere will spark appetites and start the day right. Avoid a rush in the morning by doing some of the preparation the night before.

A center piece of fruit, flowers or a pot plant, and a colorful mat and dishes will brighten breakfast time for all the family.

The heavy stubble from last year's wheat crop is responsible for a situation which makes the use of nitrogen fertilizer more important for this year's crop, says W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist. The situation means that more of the soil nitrogen will be tied up on decomposing the heavy stubble and will not be available for plant use.

Law Governing Mexican Nationals Discussed At Meet

The provisions of Public Law 78 covering the importation of Mexican Nationals were discussed at a meeting of representatives of Knox County and officials of the Texas Employment Commission at the City Hall in Munday recently. Local representatives present were Claude Hill, Ansel Waldrip, and Leo Fetsch. E. K. Krizan, District Director for the TEC pointed out the responsibilities of the Texas Employment Commission under Public Law 78 as distinguished from the responsibilities of the Bureau of Employment Security of the Labor Department.

Krizan said the main responsibility of the TEC is to authorize the use of Mexican Nationals in an area only when a sufficient supply of domestic workers is not available. Even after Mexican Nationals are under contract, should domestic workers become available, the contracted workers are subject to being returned in the event domestic workers are not absorbed in the Labor Force.

The discussion included an estimate of the local labor available, estimated migrant labor, and the expected shortage that may be filled by Mexican Nationals.

Under provisions of Public Law 78 surveys are required covering the wages paid in the area and the TEC gathers the required information for the Bureau of Employment Security. That agency makes a finding on the wages and transmits this information to the TEC for posting purposes. Compliance matters under Public Law 78 are the responsibility of the Bureau of Employment Security.

Requests for Mexican Nationals in the Munday area should be presented to Charles Dunnam at the TEC Farm Placement office in the City Hall. This office was recently opened to assist in referring all available domestic workers to available jobs. Other representatives of the TEC at tending the meeting were Ben Fowler, manager of the Wichita Falls area, and Joe Spears, Farm Placement Supervisor.

MODERN HOMEMAKING

Recipes . . . Household Helps

By Julia Hunter

HOME ECONOMICS DIRECTOR, LONE STAR GAS CO.

Feeding a crowd?
The success of any large quantity meal lies chiefly in planning. Plans should include the menu, the grocery order, the service and the clean-up.

The people who are to be served will partially determine the menu.

Women's groups will best like one type menu while men's groups or mixed groups will like another. The high school set may be impressed with something entirely different.

In the first planning stage, keep well in mind the money to be spent, for a meal planned within the budget is far better than one requiring skimping at the serving stage or a financial report in the red.

Here are some other planning steps you will want to consider:

1. Suit the menu to equipment available; ovens, steamers, refrigerators, working space, cooking utensils and serving pieces.

2. Balance food that takes a lot of work with those that need little time to prepare, so all may be ready on time.

3. Plan foods that will hold up if a delay in serving arises.

4. Consider the time of the year and use what is plentiful.

5. Look over the amount of help available. Determine the speed of serving and decide if foods that take last minute dishing up and garnishing can be used.

If you serve large groups of ten, keep a card file of each occasion with the menu, recipes, amounts of food bought, cost per person served and comments on the success of the meal. Such a file can make quick work of planning. To add variety to future menus, include in the file copies of successful recipes suitable for large groups.

Many family-size recipes are good to serve a crowd, but it is better to repeat the recipe several times rather than making twice or three times the quantity all at once. This is especially true for baked products for in these recipes, proportions may need to be altered when the quantity is increased.

Too many cooks won't spoil the broth if the work is arranged properly. So each person will know what to do, furnish her with her own copy of the menu, recipes and work schedule. Assign each person a job to do and a place to work. The same plan of organization should go into serving the meal and the clean-up.

With a plan of work from the menu stage right through the clean-up, that church supper or club dinner is sure to be a smooth success.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Easy Baked Beans: Combine ten number two cans of pork and beans or two number 10 cans of pork and beans, one cup firmly packed brown sugar, one teaspoon dry mustard, four tablespoons salt, 1/4 cup of molasses, 2 1/2 cups catsup and one finely minced onion. Pour into baking dish and strip top with one pound of salt pork, cut in slices. Bake in moderate gas oven (350 deg. F.) for one hour or until pork is done. Yields 50 servings, 1/2 cup each.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Halle, M. D., State Health Officer

A man in La Pryor in Southwest Texas reports finding 64 dead cotton rats in a single night on the lawn of his home, apparently killed by his dogs. In Crystal City the cantaloupe crop has been severely damaged by rats.

From Austin comes reports of rats in back yards where none have been seen before, and of mice in suburban homes. In Abilene and Wichita Falls increases in rat and mice populations have been noted. Farmers southwest of San Antonio have experienced serious losses to small grains, peanuts and tomatoes due to rodent depredations.

What's behind these unusually high rodent populations? It is impossible to give a definite answer, but State Health Department and Fish and Wildlife Service investigators feel increased rainfall had a lot to do with it.

Rains caused dense vegetation growth where rats and mice could take cover and raise young, safely hidden from natural enemies. Also, farm crops have been good, providing a ready source of food.

State and local health departments have made intensive field investigations, and laboratory tests have been made on live and dead specimens of rats and mice.

There is no evidence at this time of a specific threat to public health. At present the problem seems to be more of an economic and nuisance nature.

While this conclusion is reassuring, it does not mean rodent-borne disease outbreaks are impossible. Rodents can serve as reservoirs for various diseases transmissible to humans, and are hosts to a variety of disease-carrying parasites such as fleas.

Here are some things homeowners can do to control rats and mice around their property:

Search for and close up all portals of entry. One Austin man looked for days for an opening into his house large enough to admit mice. He finally found it—a half-inch space around the pilot control on the floor furnace. A piece of hardware cloth or steel wool make good blocks for places like this.

Set traps and practice scrupulous home and premise sanitation. Get rid of tall grass, stacked lumber or anything else that might harbor rodents. Bites of rodents or their fleas should be reported to local health authorities.

These are strictly preventive measures and do not imply the existence of rodent-borne diseases in epidemic proportions.

State Health Department field investigations and laboratory studies will continue wherever indicated.

IT'S THE LAW
★ in Texas ★
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

FACTS NEEDED TO PLAN WILL

In planning your will, your lawyer will want to know your true wishes; and then, to help you realize them, he will want to know a few vital facts.

Are you married? Any children or grandchildren? Previously married? Widowed? Your age and those of your beneficiaries? Legal residence? Health?

Why these questions?

You'll have to work out your plan in view of the laws governing death taxes, property laws, and, if you are married, separate and community property.

Age? If you wish to set up trusts in the will, your age and those of your beneficiaries may help you to decide whether, for example, to use capital of the trust fund as well as its income for the beneficiaries.

Your residence? Most important, since state laws govern many items of personal property.

Do you plan to move to another state? If so, consult its laws. Many people who come to Texas from other states should see that their wills conform to and take advantage of our laws.

Some people live half the year in Texas and half elsewhere. If you do, take steps to nail down your claim to reside in one state or another, to avoid needless litigation and possible claims to taxes in both states.

Your health? If possible, have your will drafted while you are in good health and clear minded.

Contest, though relatively rare in Texas, still do take place. In some cases, for example where non-relatives inherit, it may be a good idea to give reasons for these bequests in your will and to tell why you may have left some relative out (for instance, where a child has been taken care of by gifts or in other ways).

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

P.T.A. Sets Membership Month

They'll Knock On Igloo Doors In Newest State

When more than eleven million P.T.A. members open their annual Membership Enrollment month this October, they will be urged to "knock on every door" to find new members interested in advancing the welfare of children.

Some of those doors may open to the oldest dwellings in the Western hemisphere—stone igloo homes in Alaska, scheduled soon to become the nation's 49th state.

Here, as throughout the U.S., the National Congress of Parents and Teachers will seek to add some half-million new "parents, teachers or friends of children" to what is already the nation's largest voluntary service organization.

Mrs. James C. Parker, of Grand Rapids, Mich., president of the National Congress, cites "the dynamic potential of Alaska, our newest state," as "comparable to the spirit which has enabled Parent-Teacher associations to contribute so much to the welfare of children."

The variety and scope of P.T.A. activities in the 61-year history of the National Congress are reflected today, Mrs. Parker noted, in the everyday life of Alaskans which ranges in spirit from the quite sophisticated to the "truly frontier."

Alaska's Congress of Parents and Teachers, which became part of the national organization in 1957, today faces problems which can be compared, Mrs. Parker pointed out, with those recorded over the years in tiny American communities or in its largest cities. For it is a land where...

School youngsters may ride for miles in a dog sled to a crowded, poorly-heated quonset hut, or walk across the street to a modern, several story building.

"Home is the child's first school," explains Mrs. James C. Parker, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, whether it's in Point Barrow, Alaska, or the continental U.S. Here, Chicago school children examine picture of Eskimo family standing under strips of caribou meat outside their far north home. In proclaiming October as P.T.A. Membership Enrollment month, Mrs. Parker points out that development of P.T.A.'s in Alaska, soon to become the nation's 49th state, parallels the organization's pioneering days in this country.

teachers and government workers regularly make trips "back in the bush" to hunt and fish for food for their families—and store it in modern freezers.

—Where the airplane is the accepted means of travel between cities, but where the number of sled dogs is increasing.

—Where teachers in schools with large Eskimo or Indian populations must teach a second language—English—to many of their charges, while other schools, especially those on U.S. army bases, maintain typically American libraries, theaters and bowling alleys as part of their recreation program.

Aims of the National Congress membership month will apply that is carried inside the wheat seed and is therefore difficult to control. According to Extension Agronomist R. J. Hodges, the disease causes some damage every year but is usually most prevalent in humid and irrigated areas.

Research workers, Drs. I. M. Atkins and D. E. Weibel of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, in recent years have developed methods for treating seed wheat which can be used on the farm. If properly done, Hodges says effective control of the troublesome disease can be expected.

The most practical control method for farm use consists of soaking the wheat seed in water with a temperature of 70 to 75 degrees for 4 hours then draining off the water and holding the seed in an airtight container, such as an oil drum, for an additional 72 hours. At the conclusion of the holding period, the seed should be dried immediately, advises the specialist.

The addition of a pint of chlorine to each 30 gallons of water used for soaking the grain will reduce bacterial growth and undesirable odors which will develop during the treatment period.

Hodges points out that it may not be practical to treat all wheat planting seed but suggests that enough seed be treated to plant a small seed block. This block should be isolated in order to keep reinfection at the lowest possible level. Seed thus produced can be used to plant larger acreages. This method should be very useful to certified wheat seed producers, says Hodges.

The specialist says that a few wheat varieties such as Ponca, Pawnee and Triumph are resistant to the disease. On the other hand, he adds that Concho and Quana varieties are highly susceptible to the disease.

1/4 INCH DRILLS
Last year over a million 1/4-inch drills were sold. Yet not one of the purchasers wanted a 1/4-inch drill — what they really wanted was 3/8-inch holes!
Likewise, thousands of people in and around Knox County buy insurance policies each year. Undoubtedly you are among them. What you really want, however, is not an insurance policy, but protection. Are you sure you are getting it? "Protection" comes only to those who carefully select the right coverages in the proper amounts. Merely buying "A Policy" doesn't mean you'll get protection.
That's why it pays to put your insurance in the hands of a professional insurance agency. Such an agency can render skilled help, based on experience, in making sure your policies will deliver protection.
Get the "Protection" you think you are buying. Visit our office and talk things over. We will see that you are not just "insured" but "protected". No obligation of course.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Wants To Be Handled In The Very Same Way As "The Mysterious East" Is Handled

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek won't get anywhere with his idea this week, especially with us.

J. A.

Dear editor:
People are always talking about ignorant toiling masses in other countries, but I have about come to the conclusion they may be smarter than we think.

For instance, I was reading in a newspaper last night about the Mysterious East, how over there what's known as saving face is very important, and other countries, especially us, have to consider it very carefully. It's a delicate matter.

Say Red China has taken a few islands away from Formosa and it's up to us to see that she gives them back, although it's not quite clear in my mind why the job always has to fall to us. You never hear anybody saying it's Mexico's turn to solve the Middle East problem, or Spain's, or Switzerland's. It's always us.

At any rate, before we can do it, we've got to figure out some way for Red China to give them back without losing face, because if you solve a problem and cause a country to lose face, the solution is worse than the problem.

This is something we don't understand over here, and it's a shame.

Say I owe the bank some money and the note comes due. Is the bank interested in me saving face? Do the directors go into a summit meeting and say, How can we handle this most delicately?

Say your taxes come due and they're bigger than you expected and you don't have the ready cash on hand. Is the government interested in your face? What happens if you miss the third installment on your television set?

I'll tell you, them Mysterious East people have out-thought us on problems like these. Holding something that belongs to somebody else is a serious matter, all right, but not enough people in this country appreciate this face-saving business. The Mysterious East has maneuvered the thing around to where, if an installment payment comes due on a set of harness for a pair of oxen, it's the store owner that has to do the bowing and scraping and apologizing, not the fellow that's behind with the payment. That's the kind of system we need around here.

I will appreciate you referring hereafter to my farm as the Mysterious Johnson Grass Farm, and I hope every store in Munday will fall in line. Just to lead the way, how about handling my subscription to The Times in this fashion? It comes due soon and you ought to be working on the proper diplomatic approach.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.
