Odd Bits Salvaged
By The Editor

Like the group from Haskell, we visited the site of the proposed Miller Creek reservoir — and we like it!

Standing on a point on the west side, which was also a rather high bluff, we looked to the north, east and south, and imagined how it would look full of water. We don't know how wide the lake would be, but they claim it would be six miles long, from 50 to 65 feet deep in places, with an average depth of 35 feet. It's wide enough, long enough and deep enough to hold lots of water for the towns involved in the Water Authority, if you can visualize 25,000 acre feet.

The vote comes up Saturday, September 6, for both the bond issue and the water purchase contract. We're not telling you how to vote. Like we said before, your opinion is as good as ours, but they say this is our last hope for securing water from a reservoir, and underground water seems to be playing out mighty fast.

A story we heard recently is that Aspermont is facing a water problem again. They solved their problem several years ago by digging wells somewhere near Rule. Now the wells are not as they used to be, so Aspermont asked to be included in the group of towns to secure water from Miller creek, but they were too late for this. Their hope is to get a water purchase contract when, or if, the reservoir is built.

Another thing to remember, too, is that failure to vote "yea" on either of the two propositions will put us out of the Authority. Then if we must have water, it's find an underground source or hope the Authority will sell us some when, and if, the reservoir is built.

This is "homecoming week" for the Munday Schools. Ex-students will travel from far and near to be here for the third homecoming which will be held next Saturday and Sunday at the Munday schools. Those in charge expect several hundred people to come back to their home school for this event.

Mayor V. E. Moore has a proclamation in this week's paper, calling on us folks here in Munday to help make the event a success. But there's no doubt about success, if hundreds of people gather, meet in separate class groups, discuss old times and mix and mingle together.

We've heard that "one good turn deserves another," but why should it apply to pests? The crickets must have spread the news of Munday's hospitality! No sooner than they begin to diminish than we're visited with other pests — rats.

Everybody's talking about the rats, and they're seeing dead ones and live ones here in town and wondering what to do about them. Other places are bothered with them, too, Wichita Falls for instance.

Like the cricket, they involve no particular health menace, we're told, but they are unwelcome guests. We are also told they are "field rats" or so-called "cotton rats," and they are being forced from the fields into the populated areas by hunger. Folks here predict they will be coming in in greater numbers when cold weather comes and the food supply in the fields continues to diminish — so get ready to do something.

But hold on a while longer! Plans are being made. County Agent Roy England will announce a plan soon whereby a county-wide war on the pests can be made. Poison will become available to rural people and townspeople alike, possibly through the Farm Bureau and at cost, and then's when we'll want to wage warfare in a big way.

Dr. W. M. Taylor Awarded 50-Year Masonic Emblem

About 25 Masons and long-time friends of Dr. W. M. Taylor gathered at his home in Goree recently to honor him when he was presented the 50-year Masonic emblem by the Grand Lodge of Texas in honor of his 50 years of service to the Masonic fraternity. Lodges represented were Goree, Munday, Seymour and Haskell.

The group met at the Goree lodge hall and went to the Taylor home in a body, since Dr. Taylor was unable to attend the lodge. The special award was made by Robert R. King of Haskell, representing the Grand Lodge as district deputy grand master.

Dr. Taylor became a Mason on June 23, 1908, a member of Golden Fleece Lodge No. 6 at Covington, Ga.

He was instrumental in organizing Goree Lodge No. 1029 in December, 1910, and is one of the few remaining charter members. He served as master of the lodge four times: 1912-13; 1918-19; 1922-23, and 1933-34, and is also past president of the 91st Masonic District Association.

Membership in higher Masonic bodies includes the Royal Arch Chapter at Munday, the Commandery at Seymour, and the Shrine at Wichita Falls. He was made a life member of Goree Lodge on May 5, 1947.

Although he taught the secret work to many young Masons, Dr. Taylor took his first examination and was granted a certificate by the Grand Lodge on December 4, 1947, and he received a renewal certificate December 8, 1950.

C. A. Steinreide Dies On Friday; Funeral Sunday

C. A. Steinreide, 73, well known local man and retired telephone lineman, passed away at 9 a. m. Friday at his home near Munday. He had been in failing health for some time.

For many years, since his retirement, Mr. Steinreide operated a service station on U. S. Highway 277, south of town. He had been a resident of the Munday area for 30 years.

He was born in Missouri on August 18, 1885, and was married to Ethel Selby on May 24, 1910.

Survivors are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Otto Brazell of Munday, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from the First Methodist Church in Munday at 3 p. m. Sunday and burial was in Johnson Memorial Cemetery under the direction of McCauley Funeral Home.

Harold Paden, minister of the Church of Christ in Munday, officiated.

Pallbearers were Earl McNeil, James Gaither, Bill Gaither, Ervin Booe, Lawrence Huckaby and Charlie Smith.

Two commissioner's races drew the attention of voters in last Saturday's runoff primary to account for a heavier vote than expected in the county.

Although the county as a whole reportedly voted about half-strength, voters of Precincts 4 and 2 turned out strong to re-elect George Nix for Precinct 4 and W. W. Trainham for Precinct 2.

Hal Weigel New Manager Of Local Store

Hal Weigel, formerly of Littlefield, came in last week to take over his duties as manager of the Munday Department Store, formerly Cobb's Department Store.

The last of Cobb's merchandise is being disposed of this week, and plans are to have the formal opening of the Munday Department Store in the near future. The store is now in process of being remodeled inside, and remodeling work will also be done on the front before the formal opening.

Mr. Weigel has some 20 years of experience in the dry goods business and served as manager of several of the C. R. Anthony stores during this time. He invites the people of this area to come in and get acquainted.

Weigel succeeds Royce Hanna, who has been serving as manager of Cobb's store. Hanna will remain with Munday Department Store.

The Weigels have two children, Jan, who is 15 years of age, and Steve, 10. They have established residence in the Mrs. Rose Jones home.

Mrs. Weigel will also be connected with the store, serving in the bookkeeping department.

Mr. and Mrs. Benny Ledbetter were business visitors in College Station last Friday, and on Saturday and Sunday they visited with Mrs. Ledbetter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton B. Krahn, in Cypress.

Many Exes Returning For Local School Homecoming

Ex-students of the Munday Public Schools will be "coming home" this week end for the third homecoming, with activities getting under way at 2 p. m. Saturday. Estimates are that between 400 and 600 people will register for this homecoming, with ex-students coming from far and near places.

Registration will begin at 2 p. m. Saturday at the grade school gym and will continue through the afternoon. A parade in the downtown area is scheduled for 4 p. m., with many exes and colorful floats participating.

At 5 p. m., visitors will see the Pony League baseball game on the Little League diamond, while the Little League all-stars have scheduled their game for 7:30 p. m.

It was announced Tuesday that more entries are needed in the parade. The different classes, merchants, clubs, etc., are urged to enter floats in order to make Saturday's parade a large and interesting one.

Saturday night will probably see many gatherings in local homes, as the exes get together for visiting and fellowship.

Sunday morning, the visiting exes are invited to attend church services at the church of their choice, and registration for late-comers will be resumed at the gym at 11:30 a. m. Lunch at noon will be served by Walter Jetton's Catering Service of Fort Worth in the school building.

Class meetings are scheduled for 1:30 p. m. Sunday, with meeting places for the various classes being designated on the programs.

The homecoming program is scheduled for 2:15 p. m., with Charles Baker as master of ceremonies. Group singing will be led by John Phillips, and the program will consist of recognition of visitors and varied entertainment.

Doris Dickerson, president of the exes, will preside at the business session, at which time new officers will be elected.

A number of family reunions are also expected, as relatives of local people gather here for the homecoming and to visit relatives and friends.

First Bale Of Cotton Ginned At Hefner Tuesday

The first bale of cotton to be ginned in Knox County from the 1958 crop was brought in to the Hefner Co-op Gin last Monday evening, it was announced Tuesday.

The gin reported Mr. Haskin weighed in 2,140 pounds of snapped cotton, from which he received a 470-pound bale of lint, and 800 pounds of seed.

Gathering of dry-land cotton is expected to get well under way in the near future.

First Bale at Munday
The first bale for the Munday area was ginned at 8 a. m. Tuesday by the Farmers Co-op Gin, and was brought in by H. H. Partridge, who farms west of town.

From 1,850 pounds of pulled cotton, Mr. Partridge received a 380-pound bale and 780 pounds of seed. The bale, which was from dry-land cotton, had not been sold at noon Tuesday.

Cloud Returned To Legislature

Ed Cloud of Rule will continue to represent the 83rd district in the Texas Legislature as a result of last Saturday's runoff primary election. He won over Donnell Dickson of Seymour.

Haskell county's lopsided vote was a big factor in the 789-vote marginal victory over Mr. Dickson. Both men carried their home county by big majorities, but the heavier vote in Haskell County swung the victory.

Cloud polled 3,160 votes to the 2,371 received by Dickson. Dickson led in Baylor and Throckmorton Counties, while Cloud received majorities in Haskell and Knox. The vote by counties follows:

	Cloud	Dickson
Haskell	2,047	614
Baylor	63	858
Knox	728	553
Throckmorton	322	346
Total	3,169	2,371

TEENAGE TALK

A New York reporter recently wrote a series of terrifying articles about teenage delinquents. He called them "the shook-up generation". In teenage lingo shook-up means emotionally unstable.

Other teenage slang, listed in a glossary at the top of his pieces, includes: rumble — a gang fight; jap — an ambush; pot — drugs; bopping club — a fighting gang; gig — a party; and deb — a teenage gangster's girl.

This is the kind of talk and the kind of life that is bred in big city slums. Most of us, fortunately, don't hear or see much of it.

Not that our teenagers don't have a special language of their own. By now even the most sheltered of us adults are familiar with such phrases as big deal for an important event, cool for excellent, hip for knowing and square for stupid.

Recently we heard of a new addition to teenage vocabulary. It was started by some bright youngsters who were asked to help get their fellow teenagers vaccinated with the Salk vaccine. To polio authorities like the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis they gave this advice: "Make polio vaccination a fad like pony tails, blue jeans and rock 'n roll music. We'll give you some catch words to do it with."

Maybe on this deal the kids are hip. If it helps get our teenagers protected against paralytic polio, we give our sanction to "Roll up your sleeve, Steve" and "Don't balk at Salk."

NORWALK, CONN., HOUR: "Of all the strange quirks in union-management relations being revealed by the Senate inquiry, one of the strangest is the way unionism was forced on Chicago restaurants that paid initiation fees and dues for their employees, without the knowledge of the enrolled workers, who got no benefits from the enforced membership. . . . That is what happens when goons and racketeers take over unions for their own profit."

BRIGHTON, COLORADO, BLADE: "As much as we love peace it would seem much more sensible for us to work and fight, as a last resort, in cooperation with the free nations of the world rather than by ourselves later against a combined communist hoodlum gang. Free men must maintain their freedom else they will lose all."

DOLLARS AND CENTS

"Why should the taxpayers, already burdened with huge government expenditures, be asked to pay for a project which isn't even necessary?" The San Francisco Call Bulletin, speaking editorially, presents that question. And it has to do with a situation which has parallels in every section of the country.

A big water storage project is needed in California, and it will be built. The only question is how and by whom.

The project will provide a huge amount of falling water which will be used for generating power. The public-power groups are fighting hard to have the Federal government undertake the whole job, using money contributed by taxpayers everywhere for the purpose.

However, a California utility company has offered to build the needed power facilities and to pay well for the use of the water. In endorsing the proposal, Secretary of the Interior Seaton has described it as a simple matter of dollars and cents. Partnership, in this instance, would save the taxpayers tens of millions of dollars. It would give maximum benefits to all concerned. And, of no small importance, it would create new taxable resources for all levels of government.

The issue is that simple. All that remains to be seen is whether, in the face of all reason, the socialists will chalk up another triumph.

RIGHT TO WORK

A petition to repeal Nevada's right-to-work law was thrown off this year's ballot by a district judge. The petition had only four more signatures than was legally required, and a handwriting expert testified that 82 signatures were invalid.

Even had all signatures been valid, however, it seems certain that those who sought repeal of the law had small chance of success. The law has been voted on four times in Nevada — and each time it has been approved by increasing margins.

GRANTS, N. M., BEACON: "The American people seem to be growing hardened to international crisis. Only a few years ago, an emergency such as the current turmoil in the Middle East during which U. S. Marines have been landed in Lebanon would have occasioned tremendous excitement in the nation. . . ."

"Maybe it's a sign of growing up. After all, it's hard to get wrought up a dozen times a year by war scares."

MODERN HOMEMAKING

Recipes . . . Household Helps

By Julia Hunter

HOME ECONOMICS DIRECTOR, LONE STAR GAS CO.

That much-looked-forward-to season is here. The fresh peach season! Golden peaches are flourishing and peach desserts as well as other dishes are sure to follow. Much of this delicious fruit will go into preserves, jams, butters and pickles to set aside for future reference, but much of it will be served fresh.

Broil peeled fresh peach halves about 3 inches from a full gas flame for 2 or 3 minutes, quickly slip them into dessert dishes and top each half with a ball of ice cream. Serve them quick! A choice dessert.

Meat platters, especially the barbecued meats, are even better when circled with broiled fresh peach halves. In this case, spoon tomato catsup into the peach hollow before the broiling.

A broiled ham slice brings forth oh's and ah's when topped with thinly sliced fresh peaches just a few minutes before the end of broiling time. Sprinkle brown sugar over the peach slices for extra golden goodness.

Too bad peaches are often left out when it comes to shortcake for they take to it as well as strawberries. Use any favorite shortcake recipe putting it together with sweetened sliced fresh peaches instead of strawberries. The pastry variety, spread with butter or margarine while it is warm from the oven, layered with the peaches and topped with whipped cream sprinkled with cinnamon is sheer delight.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Peach Fritters With Lemon Sauce: Heat 1 quart oil or 2 pounds shortening in deep skillet or 2-quart saucepan over medium gas flame until fat thermometer reaches 375 deg. F. or until an inch cube of bread browns in 1 minute (375 deg. F. dial setting on thermostatically controlled top burner). Sift together ½ cup sifted flour, ¼ teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon sugar. Beat 1 egg and add dry ingredients. Mix well. Stir in 1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine. Mix until smooth. Dip 12 peeled fresh peach halves in mixture then drop into hot fat and fry until golden brown, turning once. Serve with lemon sauce. Makes 6 servings.

A YEAR OF GROWTH FOR THE TEXAS EGG LAW

The Texas egg law — a milestone in Texas agricultural legislation — is a year old this month. And the year that has passed has been a year of growth — complete with growing pains — for the law and for the industry it serves. When the law requiring accurate labeling of eggs offered for sale in Texas became official in August of 1957, it had already suffered pre-natal pains of growth. Heated complaints were heard that, once in operation, the law would ruin the industry. This was somewhat like cussing the cook before the soup was poured. And, fortunately, once the soup was poured, the complaints began to subside and the law continued to develop.

One of the biggest factors in this successful development was the foresight of legislators and industry men who helped to design the law in providing extra months to prepare the industry for actual enforcement. In this respect, provision was made that, although the law was effective in August, those people concerned with licensing under the law were given until late October to do so, and actual enforcement of all the law's provisions was delayed until February 17th of this year.

It was this period of preparation that made possible the ordered development which we can now review. The time was utilized to print licenses and related forms which would be needed in enforcement and to formulate rules and regulations provided by the law.

In addition, a far-reaching educational program was launched to inform interested people as to how the egg law would affect them, and an intense egg grading training program was set up.

Even with these months of preparatory work, however, results of first inspections during the first days of the law's enforcement in late February showed a high percentage of violations — and hinted of growth pains to come.

But the industry responded keenly to the problem and steady improvement was noted. Where as February inspections turned up an alarming 35.5 percent of total violations, in July of this year — one of our hottest months — violations were 7.8 percent, an encouraging change, and an indication that everything will work out well with Texas and the Texas Egg Law.

start Monday.

A few bunches of grainfed steers and heifers were in the run and these moved a bit slowly as packers eyed a sharply increased offering at Cornbelt terminals. However, they cleared steady as the Northern receipts were well absorbed.

Stocker and feeder buyers, including many farmers and ranchmen seeking stockers, were on the stockyards early and set a fast pace on the available stockers and feeders. The trade was strong to 50 cents higher, quality considered.

Slaughter cows, slaughter calves and bulls were strong.

Prices included: Good to choice steers and yearlings $23.00-25.75; medium and lower grades $18.00-22.00; fat cows $17.50-20.50 and canners and cutters $12.00-17.50; bulls $17.50-21.50; fat calves $20.00-25.75; stocker calves $31.00 down; stocker yearlings $23.50 down; feeders $23.50 down.

SHEEP AND GOATS OPEN FULLY STEADY. LAMBS TOP $22.50

Trade was active and prices were fully steady on limited offerings of sheep and lambs at Fort Worth Monday. Several hundred goats sold for slaughter at steady prices.

Good and choice fat lambs drew $21.00-22.50; feeder lambs drew $19.00-20.00; old wethers cashed at $12.00-13.00; slaughter ewes drew $7.00-8.00; slaughter goats drew $5.50-7.00.

HOGS DROP TO $20.50 TOP. OFF 50-75c FROM LAST WEEK
Opening trade at Fort Worth Monday on hogs was a matter of catching up with the severe breaks of last week in the Cornbelt. Choice hogs at $20.25 and $20.50 were in line with Cornbelt tops but were 50 to 75 cents under last week. Sows drew $17.00-18.00.

September 24 Is Deadline To File Soil Bank Request

Texas farmers have until Sept. 25 to file a request with their county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee for a maximum rate for their farm under the 1959 conservation reserve phase of the Soil Bank program.

Then, after the maximum farm rate is determined, farmers have until Oct. 17, 1958, to apply for a conservation reserve contract, according to I. H. Lloyd, who has charge of the Soil Bank program in the State ASC office. Lloyd and the State ASC Committee emphasize that under present legislation, there will be no acreage reserve program in 1959, and they urge farmers to become familiar with the conservation reserve.

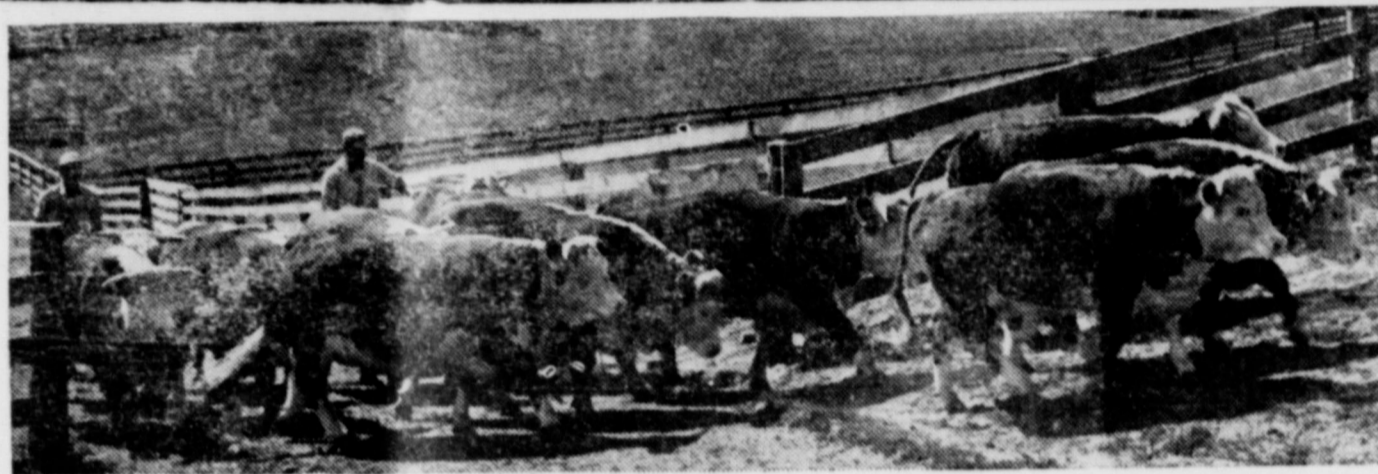

Lloyd said 15 meetings were held in Texas during the week of August 11-15 for the purpose of training county ASC personnel in handling the 1959 program. Since these meetings have been completed, county offices are ready to accept applications from farmers for establishing the maximum conservation reserve rates for their farms. Rates will average $12 per acre in Texas.

MOTOR MAIDS

Driving In City Traffic

By Jeanne Smith, Dodge Safety Consultant

CITY TRAFFIC is the driver's acid test.

Bristling with problems of every kind, the average city mile requires as many driving decisions as many miles of country motoring.

Here are some suggestions for city driving from John J. Hall, safety education expert and winner of the 1957 American Museum of Safety award:

1. Conform to the speed of general traffic. This practice minimizes costly "stop and go" driving and eliminates the need for others to pass or cut in ahead of you.

2. If you're going to stay on the same street for some distance, pick the least obstructed lane and stay in it. Always signal — and look — before changing lanes. When preparing to turn, move into the appropriate lane well in advance, and signal your turn.

3. Always slow down at intersections; your view may be obstructed. And when you stop at an intersection, be sure not to block the pedestrian crosswalk.

4. Never double-park; you'll block traffic, or worse, force other drivers to take dangerous chances. When leaving your parked car, always use the door on the curb side. And when you're driving alongside a line of parked cars, watch for the telltale opening door on the street side — it may be the sign of an accident in the making.

5. Always be alert for pedestrians — a special city-driving hazard. Don't expect them to understand your driving problems.

6. Slow down and be especially alert whenever you see children afoot or on bicycle.

Dove Season Opens Here Next Monday

Hunters are oiling up their guns in preparation for opening of the dove season Monday, September 1. Don't let it cost you a fine for killing too many of the birds!

This year's hunting regulations permit a possession limit of 20 birds after the first day. This does not mean, however, that a hunter can go out and kill 20 birds in one day and get by with it.

The daily limit is still 10 birds. However, after the first day a hunter may have two days' possession, provided he doesn't have them on his person or in a manner to indicate they were all killed on the same day.

Drive carefully. The life you save may be your own!

ADVICE GIVEN TO THE TEEN-AGERS

The following appeared in Glenn Shelton's column, "The Hired Hand," recently and is being reprinted by request:

LETTER TO A TEEN-AGER— "Always we hear the spoiled plaintive cry of the teen-ager: 'What can we do; where can we go?' I can make some suggestions. Go home! Paint the wood-work. Mow the lawn. Wash the car. Learn to cook. Scrub some floors. Repair the sink. Build a boat. Get a job! Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your village does not owe you recreational facilities. The world does not owe you a living. You owe the world something. You owe it your time and energy and your talents. Help the minister, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick. Assist the poor. And when you are through — and not too tired — read a book." — The author of this letter is unknown. It is so good that every teen-ager should have a copy.

THIS TEST PROVES IT!

PLOWS 67 PERCENT MORE ACRES

Allis-Chalmers D-17 tractor

USES A HALF GALLON LESS FUEL PER ACRE

D-17 wins plowing test competing against tractor 1/2 ton heavier. Identical plowing conditions, both tractors driven by farmers who own them, operating under normal speed and load for each tractor. After eight hours, D-17 had plowed 21.6 acres and saved 1/2 gallon of fuel on every acre, compared to 12.9 acres plowed by 1,000-pound heavier tractor. This kind of cost-saving performance can be yours with TRACTION BOOSTER system and Power Director — your machinery dollars will earn more with a D-17 Tractor and Allis-Chalmers implements.

Haskell Group Praises Site Picked For Reservoir For Area Water Supply

A group of local businessmen and city officials who visited the site of the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority's proposed reservoir on Millers Creek Monday afternoon, were enthusiastic in their praise of the location selected.

In the group touring the site, east of Munday on the Portwood Ranch, were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Frazier, Postmaster Harold Spain, Aldermen Jim Byrd, W. H. Pitman and Myron Biard, and Roy Johnson, Theron Cahill, Gaston Hattox and J. B. Duncan.

"It's a 'natural' and will make one of the finest reservoirs in this part of the State," declared Hattox, Haskell cleaning plant operator.

Alderman Jim Byrd, who had checked the site with consultants Freese & Nichols of Fort Worth, explained features of the proposed reservoir. Six miles in length, the reservoir would be 65 feet deep in places, with an average depth of 30 feet, he explained.

Development of the project as a municipal water supply for Haskell and four neighboring towns, Rule, Munday, Goree and Seymour, hinges on a $4,800,000 bond election to be voted on in the five towns Saturday, Sept. 6, and approval of water purchase contracts by voters in the five towns on that date.

Order for the election was issued at a called meeting of NCTM Water Authority directors held in Munday Aug. 11 and attended by directors and interested citizens of the five towns and several visitors, including Tom Craddock, Seymour, a member of the State Water Resources Planning Board.

Roy Johnson, Haskell banker who is president of the Authority, said that all sessions of the board of directors are open to the public and that attendance of interested citizens is invited. Minutes and records of the Authority are always available to anyone interested, he added.

The $4,800,000 bond issue will be retired principally from revenues of the Authority, derived from sale of water. For the first five year period, an ad valorem tax will likely be required amounting to approximately 60 per cent of the 1957 city tax in Haskell. After five years, the ad valorem tax will decline annually to an estimated 4c in 1980. — Haskell Free Press.

How fascinating are chance remarks of strangers overheard in a crowded city! What insight into the philosophy of an individual is revealed by a few words! What dramas are suggested!

having dinner. I heard a musical voice say, "I had trouble making up my mind which clothes to bring" and looked up to see a pretty girl, perhaps 18, her eyes sparkling and her face flushed in the thrill of her first visit to the metropolis. She was speaking to a middle-aged couple, perhaps her uncle and aunt. The girl was in a wheel-chair.

Or this from an occupant of a park bench to a companion as I sauntered by, "You know the whole atmosphere of living has changed."

A woman to another, "It is the will of God."

Quite different: "Nobody is honest; everybody is a crook."

And these — "Yes, she's going to Vienna"; "Ever hear from Bill?" "He's working in the city jail at Walla Walla."

"I wonder how old she really is!"

"She said, 'I hate men.'"

Looking at Wall Street, I found it hard to realize that this small area was the financial center of the nation and the world — only four blocks, I was told. There came to mind the exploits of Jay Gould, whose manipulations produced "Black Friday"; and of "Bet-a-Million" Gates who made $12,000,000 in a coup at the expense of J. P. Morgan (the first) but that gentleman gained full vengeance.

Also recalled was the story of the man who called on Morgan to borrow $100,000. "Let's go for a walk," the great financier said. They walked around the block and then at the entrance Morgan shook hands and said, "Good-by." The other said, "But the loan!" "Oh," Morgan replied, "they've seen you walking with me; anybody will loan you $100,000 now."

Also, I recalled an acquaintance of mine, Clarence Saunders of Memphis, who tried to buck Wall Street, saw $6,000,000 in paper profits melt into air and, more than that, lost his Piggly-Wiggly empire; and another acquaintance, the discoverer of the fabulous Big Lake oil field (which has brought $150,000,000 to the University of Texas) who sold out his holdings, tried to out-smart the pros of Wall Street and, in a short time, had lost his entire fortune — $8,000,000.

Also remembered was a day in October 1929 when the greatest stock market boom in history crashed in that same Wall Street — and the catastrophic effects were felt throughout the nation by every inhabitant, including the editor of the Times in far-away Ranger, Texas.

STATE SOMETIMES "INHERITS" PROPERTY

Made your will? If not, the State of Texas may wind up as owner of your estate upon your death. Under our statutes, the estates of persons having no heirs who die intestate revert, or "escheat," to the State.

Such provisions have been carried over from the English common law. There, under such circumstances, the estate escheated to the British crown. The theory of the process is that the sovereign (or State), having been the original owner of all lands before they were parceled out to individuals, is entitled to a return of such lands when the possibilities of legal inheritance have been exhausted.

This idea has been expanded to include personal property as well as real estate. It also applies in the case of a person absent for a term of seven years and not known to exist, who leaves no heirs and no will.

Presumably, there is hardly a person who does not have some individual or charity that he would prefer to have his estate, rather than have it go to the State by default, so to speak. Yet, surprisingly, estates worth many thousands of dollars do escheat to the various states from time to time.

Now, before you shrug the matter off with the idea that these statutory provisions could not possibly apply to you, better think a minute. Suppose you and your spouse have no heirs besides each other and your children. Many people do fall into this category.

In event of a catastrophe resulting in death for you and your entire immediate family, no legal heirs would remain. Therefore if you had no will, your property would go to the State. In preparing a will, it is possible to provide for such an eventuality.

In this hypothetical case, you would probably want to designate some friend as executor, to take care of all necessary arrange-

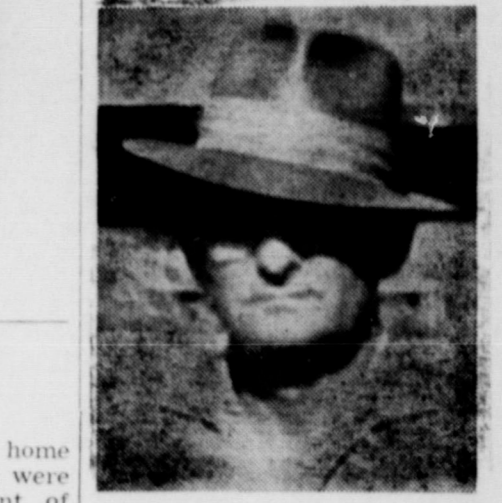

SUCCESSFUL EVACUATION of a large city would leave the downtown area a ghost town, as in this view of Portland, Ore., taken during Operation Greenlight—the largest civil defense evacuation exercise to date. day. Others who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lamb of Crosbyton; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lamb of Rails; Mrs. Alton Lamb and children of Morton; Mrs. Vera Flowers and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flowers and daughter of Cone; Lynn Ross of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Loomie Anderson of El Paso.

"SELL FOR WHAT THEY ARE REALLY WORTH"

Mr. Harry Deaver of the HD Ranch, Alvord, Texas, says—"We are proud of the championship and happy with the top price of $38.75. To the best thing about these special sales at Fort Worth is the fact it gives the men with small numbers but good cattle a chance to sell them for what they are really worth. This has happened the past four years."

You are welcome to enter your cattle and invited to buy here, too!

The next double-header stocker-feeder sale will be Thursday and Friday, September 4th and 5th. Herefords will sell Thursday, September 4th, Angus sell Friday, September 5th. These sales are open to all commercial white-faces and blacks, crossbreds, too! Trophies to winners, nationwide buying power present.

WATER-THEN AND NOW!

It took water, lots of water, to run the old mill back in the old days. When sources of water failed, industry stopped!

Water is just as important to us today as in those days. We need water, plenty of good water, for our every-day existence. If our source of water fails — we're blown up!

We are assured plenty of good water in the Miller Creek Reservoir — a source to supply us for many years to come. Water for our town and homes, water that might invite industry to locate here, water for oil field flooding, water for our every need — we can have it by voting for this reservoir Saturday, September 6th!

JAPAN "BUYS AMERICAN" IN TEXAS AND IN ALL THE 48 STATES

A Survey Shows How Each State Benefited from Trade with Japan in 1957

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A report provocatively entitled "Japan Buys American in All 48 States" has just been released by the United States-Japan Trade Council.

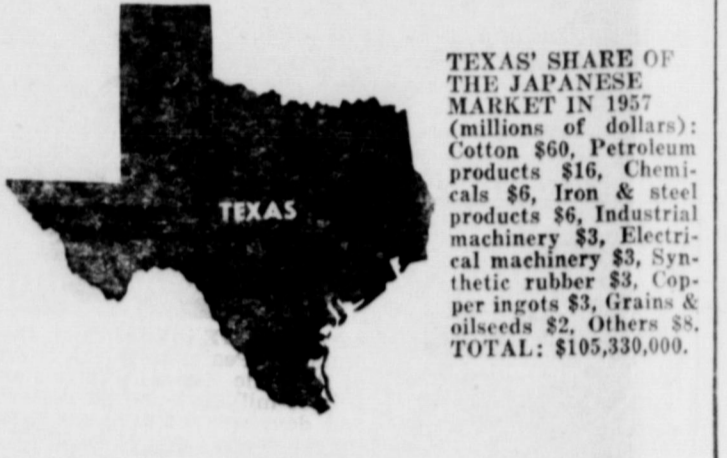

The 12-page report of charts, graphs and text summarizes an exhaustive state-by-state survey. The survey's purpose was to estimate how much "each of the states shared immediately in the benefits from the $1,221,350,000 worth of commodities exported by the United States to Japan in 1957."

Texas with $105 million worth of commodities was the top exporter, but every other state made substantial shipments (see map).

The report points out that, although Japan is fairly well known as our best customer second only to Canada, not many Americans realize the nature and value of exports to Japan from their own state.

The 10 chief commodities exported to Japan in 1957 were (in millions of dollars): Iron and steel mill products $241.1, Raw cotton $217.3, Industrial machinery $121, Grains $113, Soybeans & other oilseeds $63, Petroleum & products $59.1, Bituminous coal $53.3, Copper & products $49.4, Chemicals $36.7, Inedible animal oils $19.6.

In releasing these figures, the Trade Council made two important points: First, that Japan's U. S. purchases have shot up dramatically, by 200 per cent, since 1950—and not simply in several but in all categories of products; second, that Japan in 1957 bought more than twice as much from, as it sold to, the United States.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Wants To Be Foreign-Policy-ed The Same As The Kings Over In The Middle East

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek may be taking a narrow view of the international way of doing things, his letter this week indicates, but you'll have to decide that yourself.

Dear editor:
After considerable reading on the subject for the past few weeks, I have come to the conclusion that the trouble with our foreign policy is that it's used on foreigners more than it is on us folks at home.

For instance, I was reading last night in a copy of a newspaper which an insurance salesman left out here earlier in the day — incidentally, my foreign policy toward all salesmen showing up out here on my Johnson grass farm is to accept their newspapers and free samples but don't buy nothing from em — where the King of Jordan over in the Middle East says his country can save itself if we'll just let it alone, except for one small item.

"We can solve our own problems without outside interference, provided we can get some financial assistance from the United States," the King said.

Now that's the kind of foreign policy I'm talking about that I'm in favor of, if it's used at home.

For example, as a farmer, I don't want any interference from Washington. I can solve my own problems, with of course a little financial help. Me and the King of Jordan see eye to eye on this sort of thing.

Me and the King aren't asking for any Marines, especially me, I like the Marines but I can't think of a thing I could use em for on this farm, don't even have a place for em to land, and further more him and me don't want anybody telling us what we have to do. We'll make our own decisions, let Washington just mail us the money and we'll decide for ourselves what to do with it. This old idea that you have to be dependent on Washington for everything doesn't set well with me and the King of Jordan. If a man can't take some money and spend it like he thinks best, without calling up Washington to find out what to do with it, then the world has come to a pretty pass and old-fashioned independence and self-reliance have disappeared from the earth, but me and the King will stand as a bulwark against this weak-backed trend.

All I'm asking is that Washington foreign-policy me the same time it does the King of Jordan, and me and the King will take it from there. We've got minds of our own, and we can make it on our own, if somebody will pay the bills.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.
