Kracker Krumb's

Odd Bits Salvaged
By The Editor

You've heard of "the hard fight with a short stick," haven't you?

k-k

That's what we get into in harvesting this year's pecan crop down at our place of abode.

k-k

The trees aren't strong enough to climb. Our stick is too short to reach the pecans on top branches, and that looking up, reaching high and banging away with a stick while trying not to hit a blow that will injure the limbs is a job that it doesn't take long to get enough of.

k-k

As is the case in most household chores, the pecan harvest is a chore the Mrs. indulges in more than we do. Since her office work is over about an hour before ours, she generally puts in some of that time trying to beat the crows to our pecan crop.

k-k

We get enthusiastic enough to help part of the time after we get home, but during these short days daylight gets away from us pretty fast and soon it's too dark to see the pecans after they hit the ground. And about that time, we'll give an energetic whack with our stick, head thrown back and eyes looking at the topmost cluster, and a falling pecan will hit us square in the forehead. Then's when we decide it's too dark to go any further!

k-k

The windstorm last Monday helped us considerably. At noon the Mrs. showed us a painful she'd picked up that morning, so we went out and gathered an additional two pocketfuls. "That beats a stick clear out of sight," we told her as we came in with results of our labors.

k-k

Now, there's not too many remaining on our two trees. Another good whipping wind, and we figure our pecan harvest will be about over. And we know what'll happen one of these cold, wintry week ends. Just as we settle down to a good TV program, we'll be handed a fruit jar, a bowl of pecans and the pecan sheller! Then's when we'll wonder if our pecan trees shouldn't have been box elders after all!

k-k

There was "frost on the pumpkin" both Tuesday and Wednesday mornings as the mercury dipped below the freezing mark and serving notice that winter is on its way. Cotton and tender plants are showing the effects of the cold wave, and soon summer vegetation will be gone.

k-k

Munday has received better than an inch of rain during the past week, with greater and lesser amounts being reported in various portions of the county. Farmers with wheat they'd like to pasture, and those who had dry-planted, are welcoming this moisture. Cotton farmers are not fussing too much, either, since they'd pretty well caught up until frost.

k-k

It is our plan to "put this paper to bed" a little early next week so we can enjoy Thanksgiving with the rest of you folks, and your co-operation in getting news and advertising to us a little earlier than usual will be appreciated by all of us here at The Times office. If we'll work harder and play less, and if you'll cooperate, we will put her in the mails Wednesday afternoon.

Supper Slated At Rhineland Sunday

A supper, featuring a Thanksgiving menu, will be served Sunday, November 23, at 5:30 p. m. in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Rhineland. Plates will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children. Everyone is invited to attend.

Entertainment for young and old will begin at 2:30 p. m. Prizes to be given away include a boys' bicycle and a hand-made quilt. Hamburgers and soft drinks will be available throughout the afternoon and evening.

NAMED COMPTROLLER OF MEN'S ORGANIZATION

AUSTIN — Gary Floyd Offutt, University of Texas student from Munday, has been elected comptroller of the Arnold Air Society, men's honorary service organization for the Air Force ROTC. Offutt, a senior majoring in chemical engineering, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Offutt, Route 2.

Polling Places For Cotton Vote In Knox Named

Community referendum committees who will be responsible for conducting the cotton marketing quota referendum throughout the county on December 15, 1958, have been selected by the Knox County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. All members are farmers eligible to vote in the referendum. Many of the referendum committees are also elected community committees.

Arrangements for the establishment of polling places in all of Knox County's eight (8) cotton-growing communities have been completed. Notices showing the date of the referendum, the rules governing eligibility to vote, and the location of polling places have been posted in conspicuous places in the county.

All persons who, as landlord, tenant, or sharecropper, engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1958 are eligible to vote in the upland referendum. If there is any question about eligibility, farmers are asked to check with their County ASC Office.

The community polling places in the December 15 poll are as follows:
Benjamin, Court house; Trustcott, Browder Service Station; Gilliland, School; Vera, American Legion Hall; Goree, City Hall; Munday, City Hall; Rhineland, Gin Office; Sunset, School; Knox City, American Legion Hall.

C. of C. Committees Planning Unusual Christmas Events; To Be County-Wide

A Christmas program different from anything ever held here before is being planned by the Retail Trades Committee and the Activities Committee of the Munday Chamber of Commerce. It is expected to draw large crowds into the town for three Saturdays prior to Christmas and during Christmas week.

For the grownups, it will be gifts of money, when $100 will be awarded at 4 p. m. Saturday, December 6, December 13, and December 20.

This is a county-wide event, the names in "the hopper" being secured from automobile registrations in the tax assessor's office in Benjamin. If the auto is registered in the man's name, either the man or his wife will be eligible for the money.

Drawings will be held as follows: Two drawings, one for $30 and one for $20, will be made — and names will be drawn until each amount is given away. A third drawing for $50 will be made but if the person whose name is called is not present the money will go back into the pot and added to the $50 for the next Saturday.

Santa Claus, Too
No parade or program is planned for this year — but it wouldn't be Christmas without Santa Claus.

Old Santa will make his first appearance in Munday on Saturday, December 20, and will sit in a specially prepared booth to talk with the kiddoes and pass out Christmas stockings filled with candy.

Santa will appear again on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Christmas week, and will be at his station from 10 to 11 a. m. and from 2 to 4 p. m. on these dates.

The weather might turn bad, too, but this will be taken care of. In this event, Santa's booth will be set up in the fire station, and there he will be visiting with the kiddoes.

A specially prepared mail box will be erected somewhere on the city hall lawn, so kiddoes may mail their letters to Santa Claus. But in case you want them printed in the paper this year, they must be mailed before Saturday, December 20. The mail box will possibly be erected around December 1.

P. T. A. MEETING IS SLATED FOR TONIGHT
The Munday P. T. A. will meet Thursday night, November 20, at 7:30 o'clock in the High School Study Hall. The program will be sponsored by the science department under the direction of J. H. Bardwell. This promises to be an interesting meeting and one you should attend.

Missionary To Thailand To Speak At First Baptist Church Here On Sunday

DR. RUDOLPH RUSSELL

Rev. Rudolph Russell, missionary to Thailand, will speak at both services in the First Baptist Church, Sunday, November 23. Rev. Russell has served ten years as a missionary for the Southern Baptist Convention. He was first appointed to China in 1948.

When the communists took over China, he was reappointed to Thailand. Since that time he and Mrs. Russell have engaged in rural evangelistic work. Their work has been in central Thailand, north of the capitol city of Bangkok. Because of the many canals in that region, much of the mission work is carried on by boat.

Rev. Russell is a native of Whitehouse, Texas. He was educated at Arlington State College, Baylor University, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. His wife is the former Joy Day of Dallas. The couple have four children.

Everyone is cordially invited to hear Rev. Russell speak. The morning service is at 11:00 and the evening service at 7:30.

Funeral Service For Mrs. Boone Held On Monday

Mrs. S. W. (Summie) Boone died at her farm home seven miles northeast of Weinert Sunday morning about 9:30 a. m.

She was born Sarah Price Jan. 3, 1881 in Navarro County and came to Haskell County with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Marion Price, in 1902.

She was married to Summie Wallis Boone on Feb. 21, 1909.

Mr. Boone, who died in 1949, was a large landowner and stock farmer.

She had been a member of the Baptist Church since early childhood. Funeral services were held from the Weinert Baptist Church at 2:30 p. m. Monday with the pastor, Rev. Carter Tucker, officiating. He was assisted by Rev. Charlie Sargent, pastor of the Methodist Church at Elbert. Burial was in Willow Cemetery at Haskell under the direction of Holden Funeral Home.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Spann of Munday, two sons, Wallace of Weinert and Nored of Haskell; four grandchildren; two brothers, Will Price of Haskell and Tom Price of Munday; and three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Golden of Seymour, Mrs. Dora Bowles of Goree, and Mrs. Mamie Boone of Lubbock. She was preceded in death by one daughter, Louise Boone, who died in 1935.

PREVAILING WAGES ON COTTON HARVEST

Wage findings, effective November 14, on cotton harvest in Knox County, as announced by the Texas Employment Commission, are as follows:

Second pulling, irrigated and dryland, $1.75 per hundred; third pulling, irrigated, $1.75 per hundred.

Mrs. Wilbur Baker of Dallas visited with Mrs. P. B. Baker over the week end, returning home on Tuesday.

Storm At Weinert Demolishes Building, Sends Family Of Eight To Hospital

Weinert was hardest hit by the storms last Monday that harassed communities in several states ahead of the cold front that sent the bite of winter over the area.

Reportedly a small twister, the storm hit Weinert at about 6 a. m. Monday and demolished a frame building near the Paymaster Gin, living quarters for a Mexican family, Mr. and Mrs. Pablo Soto and their six children. All members of the family were injured and taken to the Haskell Hospital.

Soto and four of the children were released after treatment for slight cuts and bruises. Remaining in the hospital were Mrs. Soto, 44, with severe bruises on her hand and a deep cut on one cheek; her daughter, Beatrice, 21, with a fractured collar bone; and Daniel Soto, 3, with bruises on his face and a deep cut on one eye.

All were in the house when the twister ripped the building to pieces, scattering debris over a wide area.

A cotton storage house at the gin also was partially unroofed and 10 or 12 cotton trailers on the gin yard were overturned and wrecked. Force of the wind scattered several 500-pound bales of cotton a distance of 50 or 60 feet.

Several TV antennas were blown down in other parts of Weinert but the main force of the twister apparently centered in the vicinity of the gin located on the north outskirts of town.

In Goree, winds unroofed the homes of Bob Moll and John Goode, along with causing several outbuildings to be blown away. Some trees in the Goree area were uprooted.

Only damage reported Monday in the Munday area was to a battery of oil storage tanks on a lease about two miles north of Munday. The steps to the tank battery were blown down and badly damaged.

Rhineland Has A New Pastor

Father Anthony Schroeder arrived this week to assume pastoral duties at St. Joseph's Church in Rhineland. He succeeds Father John Walbe, who was transferred to Fort Smith, Ark., as assistant pastor at St. Boniface's Church.

A farewell tribute was extended to Father John, well known and loved pastor of St. Joseph's Church for the past three years. Making the gift presentations and speaking in behalf of the parish were: Miss Marilyn Albus, Marion Kuehler, Mrs. Leo Fetsch and A. J. Kuehler.

Vatican Storeroom Clothing Drive To Begin November 23

In St. Joseph's Church, dates to deliver contributions are: beginning Sunday, November 23, and continuing through the week.

H. N. Claus' store will again be the collection depot. Mrs. Claus, social and charitable welfare chairman, will be in charge of packing and preparing parcels for shipment.

THE FIFTH FREEDOM

The four freedoms, made famous during World War II as a philosophical base of Allied purposes, were these: freedom of worship, freedom of speech, freedom from want, and freedom from fear.

Now a fifth freedom, as important as any of the others, should be added to the list: freedom of choice.

This is the point of a leaflet issued by the American Medical Association. It adds: "This philosophy of free choice touches on every phase of your daily life. Certainly not the least of these is your basic right to choose your line of work, the neighborhood in which you live, the church you attend . . . and the physician in whom you have the greatest confidence."

The AMA is concerned, and rightly so, with a recent trend toward programs in which the physician is chosen for you. It is of small moment whether such programs are inspired by government, by a labor union, by an enterprise, or by any other kind of organization. They deprive you of freedom of choice, and they may lead to inferior medical care. When you do not have the freedom to choose your own physician, your individual physical and emotional needs may be neglected—because you and the physician have not had ample opportunity to develop a feeling of mutual understanding and trust.

It's high time we stressed the fifth freedom—in every phase of human life.

NO CAUSE FOR CHEERS

Reports now indicate that this year's federal deficit will probably be well below the $12 billion figure that was forecast until recently. The reason, however, isn't that government spending is declining. It is, instead, that the upturn in business activity and personal incomes are raising tax revenues.

A reduced deficit will be good news. But it shouldn't lead to any cheering. At best, the government will go into the hole by billions. That means more national debt. That means more danger of inflation. That means ever-poorer chances for tax reduction.

If the next Congress continues the spending spree of its predecessors, we'll keep right on moving toward a further debased currency and ultimate national bankruptcy. It's happened all over the world. It can happen here.

MORE FUN AT THANKSGIVING

In the old days, the homemaker's preparations for Thanksgiving amounted to a huge task. Chores often started weeks ahead of time. Some recipes took days to prepare. Gathering the food for Thanksgiving dinner meant a long tour of various shops.

But now, as a house organ issued by First National Stores points out: "The modern 'Cook of the Day' can have a complete Thanksgiving dinner ready in a matter of a few hours. Scientific improvements in the food itself and in packaging have made cooking so easy, beyond any dream of generations past."

Anyone who's ever been in a modern American food market can attest to that. Everything is ready to hand—plainly marked as to price, weight and quality, and attractively packaged. And an ever-lengthening list of foods now come in a ready-for-the-pan or ready-to-eat form.

As the First National's magazine says: "Food shopping for Holiday time or any time is faster, pleasanter, cleaner than in the old days, which, of course, was fun with the family hustling around doing all the preparation work. But today it's even more so because pre-holiday preparations leave more time for the recreation that goes with Thanksgiving."

REAL OPPORTUNITY

Recently a magazine section of a western newspaper carried a story on 17-year-old Marilyn Breese's career in retailing.

She is taking advantage of a Diversified Co-operative Training plan that offers juniors and seniors an opportunity to learn a long list of career skills in afternoon and week-end jobs while they are still in school. Marilyn's choice was retailing which led her to a job in a large retail store in Florida.

Marilyn joined other students of advertising, buying and accounting who had to first experience selling. Co-ordinating her job with her school work, she spends four hours a day and all day Saturday at a minimum wage, clerking.

By receiving training first-hand, Marilyn will receive invaluable experience for a future career in retailing which was made possible through the co-operation of retail organizations and local boards of education.

It is in the tradition of private enterprise to offer opportunity to young America.

NOVEMBER PLENTIFUL FOODS

Turkeys and apples are headliners among foods in abundance during this month of November.

The 1958 turkey placements were not quite so large in Texas as last year but the mortality rate has been unusually low and there will be plenty of the traditional "holiday" birds available at a right price. The bulk of the crop will be going to market in November and December, making more supplies actually available than during last year when sales were spread from the last of September through the Christmas season.

As for apples, they're making history this year. This is the second largest crop in two decades and the largest since 1949. The country's commercial apple trees are expected to yield nearly 127 million bushels.

Along with turkeys, broiler fryer chickens will be plentiful. Generous supplies of pork are also available.

Because so many young hens make up this fall's laying flocks, medium and small size eggs are expected to be most plentiful and are probably thrifty buys.

The fall potato crop also is large. These are the storage potatoes that keep better than the more perishable "new potatoes" and are suited to many different cooking methods.

Another vegetable appearing in quantity on markets is cabbage. Record high yields have lifted crop prospects to 12 percent above a year ago. Because of heavy yields, much cabbage grown for kraut will be sold fresh. Cabbage deserves more attention from shoppers who appreciate high vitamin C value and appetizing flavor, especially for salad use, at an inexpensive price.

The big cranberry crop this fall — the largest since 1953 — will bring plenty of these holiday berries to November and December markets.

Other plentifuls are canned ripe olives and walnuts — the largest production since 1949. Lots of dates and honey are expected which are excellent for holiday cookies, cakes, confections and everyday spreads.

Peanut butter will be in great plenty as will vegetable fats and salad oils.

If you're serving a crowd, you'll want to consider the large size cans of many different frozen berries. Canned berries are in good supply in both extra large and family-size containers.

your path have a claim to the right of way equal to your own.

Obviously, however, in many cases one driver or the other will be legally entitled to the right of way. When it becomes necessary to determine right of way in a particular situation, the driver who reaches the intersection first, or who is going to get there first, is ordinarily favored.

But when two automobiles are an equal distance from the intersection that one approaching from the other driver's right normally has the right of way.

Some intersections are known as "courtesy corners," having a stop sign or a flashing red signal facing each direction of approach. The first driver reaching the corner and coming to a complete stop will normally have the right of way over other vehicles not already in the intersection. However, don't depend too much on the other fellow's courtesy, and be sure to keep a "proper look-out" and your car under "proper control," as explained in an earlier column.

At intersections involving one through street and another street having a stop sign a driver, approaching the stop sign and coming to a full stop is ordinarily said to have the right of way over vehicles approaching on the through street but not already in the intersection.

However, this last rule must be qualified by saying that you should not proceed, cross or turn onto the through street until you can do so without interfering with oncoming traffic. In other words, if an approaching car will arrive within the intersection before you are completely clear, wait just a little longer. The same rules apply to entering a highway from a side road containing a stop sign.

Many drivers violate the rules of right of way covering left-hand turns at intersections. When turning left, you should always be on the inside (or center) lane, displaying the proper hand signal. You must allow all cars coming from the opposite direction, already in the intersection, to pass through before completing your turn. Even when the intersection is cleared, do not proceed unless other oncoming traffic is far enough away to be able to see your signal and slow down to allow you to turn with safety to all concerned.

Stay in the inside lane until your left-hand turn is entirely completed, and only then move gradually over to the right-hand lane if you wish. When turning right, stay in the right-hand lane at all times. Do not swing wide into the center lane as to do so is unnecessary, unlawful and dangerous.

Many detailed rules and suggestions for safe driving are included in the official "Texas Driver to any person requesting same" Handbook" which is available from the Texas Department of Public Safety, Drivers License Division, Austin, Texas.

This column, based on Texas law and prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

"RIGHT OF WAY"
 Rules Explained
 Possibly the most mystifying of all traffic rules to the average driver are those relating to "Right of Way" at an intersection. In reality, however, these rules are quite simple.
 In trying to understand the laws regulating intersecting traffic, it is best to start off with the premise that all streets are of equal dignity, legally speaking. Traffic signs and signals may vary this rule somewhat, but when in doubt it is safest to assume that all drivers crossing six standard Corn Belt feeding programs ranged from $39.00 to $111.00 per head last seasons. These were the highest returns for several years, and were much above average.

Highest profits were in short-feeding of heavy steers for March-May sale. A heavy-steer program is always highly speculative. When sales are made at near peak prices, profits can be high indeed. This was true last spring. Later in 1958, when spring-purchased cattle were sold on the lower-priced late-summer market, profits in short feeding were much smaller.

Noteworthy in profit patterns last year was the favorable showing for feeding of good yearling steers for April-June sale. This program returned $70.00 profit per head. In many years recently this, the most traditional of all Corn Belt programs, has been one of the less profitable. Last season saw it regain status, temporarily at least.

Long-feeding of steer calves on the other hand, was one of the least profitable last year. In most years since World War II it has been among the best. The decline in slaughter prices last summer cut into long feeding profits.

RECORD LARGE IMPORTS OF CATTLE, BEEF IN 1958, IMPORTS TO BE NEARLY AS LARGE IN 1959

Imports of cattle into the United States in 1958 will total more than a million head. This will exceed the previous record of 764,000 in 1939.

From January to September, 466,000 cattle were imported from Canada and 328,000 from Mexico. Last year's totals, according to inspection data, were 393,000 from Canada and 343,000 from Mexico. (Official Census data differ only slightly from these records based on inspection by USDA.)

Imports of beef and veal averaged about three times last year's rate for January - September. Pork imports were up 30 percent.

RECEIPTS LIGHT IN CATTLE YARDS, SLAUGHTER CLASSES STEADY

Much lighter than normal cattle and calf receipts at Fort Worth failed to stimulate trading activity to any degree. Slaughter steers and heifers sold steady and other classes were in relatively small supply but cleared warily with prices on cows strong, some sales 50 cents above last week's close. Stecker and feeder prices ruled strong to unevenly higher, very largely recovering last week's losses.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings sold at $23 to $26, a load of 1150 lb. steers selling at $26 and some good 945-lb. heifers at $25. Common and medium sorts sold at $17 to $23. Fat cows sold at $18 to $21 and canners and cutters sold at $11.50 to $18.50. Bulls cashed at $18 to $23.

Good and choice slaughter calves cashed at $25 to $26.50 with a few choice to $27.25. Common and medium sorts sold at $22 to $24.50 with culls down to $17.

Good grade stocker steer calves sold at $29 to $32.50, medium grades $24 to $28. Several lots of medium and good heifer calves sold at $24 to $28.50. Most medium and good stocker steer yearlings sold at $23 to $27. A few

SLAUGHTER LAMBS 50 LOWER, FEEDERS 50-100 OFF

Slaughter lambs showed a general 50 cent decline while feeder lambs lost 50 cents to $1. Goats showed no change. Trading was generally slow.

Slaughter and feeder lambs formed the bulk of the run but a few goats were on offer. Woolled and Fall shorn slaughter lambs scaling 85 to 103 lbs. sold at $20 to mostly $21. A few head of cull slaughter ewes brought $7.50 and goats for slaughter sold in a price spread of $7.50 to $8.50. Medium and good feeding lambs cleared at $17 to $20 with most short offerings selling downward from around $19.

BOYCE HOUSE
Gives You the Best of Texas

Richmond is a city of charm, glory and greatness.

I knew I was going to like Richmond from the very first impression which was gained when I breakfasted, on arrival, at the Holloway House. A meal of real biscuits (I thought they quit making genuine ones during Woodrow Wilson's first term) an egg, blindfolded, and greaseless; hot cakes, sent to the table under glass to keep them hot; and coffee — all of this for 53 cents!

A taxi-driver said he was from Albemarle County which (as asserted) had a region known as Shiftless Hollow where moonshining used to abound. A revenue officer asked a boy, "Will this path take me to the still?" "Yes," the lad replied, "but it won't bring you back."

Edgar Allan Poe lived in Richmond and what is probably the city's oldest house (built about 1686) is known as the Poe shrine. The small rock structure, with three gables, houses some of his manuscripts and items connected with his life.

In an old cemetery is the grave of the woman who inspired the lines:
"Helen, thy beauty is to me
Like those Nicaean barks of yore,
That gently, o'er a perfumed sea,
The weary, wayworn wanderer bore
To his own native shore."
"On desperate seas long wont to roam,
Thy hyacinth hair, thy classic face,
Thy Naiad airs, have brought me home
To the glory that was Greece
And the grandeur that was Rome."

A stroll in the business region will take you past the house where Lee lived after Appomattox and you will see St. Paul's Episcopal Church where Jefferson Davis and Lee worshipped. It was while Davis was attending a service here that a courier brought the news that Petersburg had fallen, which meant that Richmond would have to be evacuated.

The day I was there was the 150th anniversary of Davis' birth. The windows of Cokesbury's book store featured a large Confederate flag and volumes about Davis and the War between the States.

In the paper that day was a letter from a lady who urged that, when the higher postage rate became effective, people combine a "3" and a "1" so as not to have to use a Lincoln four-cent stamp.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer

If you're looking for something to be thankful for in these ominous times, consider this:

More than one-half million Texas babies were born hale and alert during the two-year period between September 1956, and August 1958. That adds up to an average of some 685 new babies per day.

For the same time period 147,000 Texans died — representing a ratio of more than three births for every death, a fact clearly worth being thankful for.

The figures are revealed in an advanced look at the State Health Department's biennial soon to be published.

The excess of births over deaths during the two years added some 360,000 people to Texas' population. That increase, together with the influx of newcomers now making their homes in Texas, swelled the population past the 9.2 million mark.

Since 1936, infant deaths during the first year of life have dropped from 71 per one thousand, to less than 30 per one thousand today. And during that same period, maternal deaths have been cut from 6.9 per thousand to less than 15 so far this year.

The past biennial also produced these developments:

Some 115,000 Texans, whose births were not registered at the time, found it necessary to file delayed certificates of birth through probate courts to prove age, parentage, and citizenship. Most of these births occurred prior to 1903, the year the Texas vital statistics law was passed to require birth and death registration.

Nine hundred persons changed their names during the two-year period, and court-ordered amendments to birth certificates were duly attached.

Almost a quarter of a million people asked for certified copies of their birth records. Just to process these requests required more than 550,000 trips to the files which now contains more than 11,370,000 records of births and deaths.

And finally, since marriage of the parents of an illegitimate child subsequent to its birth legitimates the child, 1,750 new birth certificates based on legitimations and paternity determinations were prepared and filed.

If being able to prove age, parentage and citizenship isn't worth being thankful for, nothing is. (A weekly public service feature from the Division of Health Education, State Health Department.)

New Savings Stamp In Patriotic Colors

WASHINGTON, D. C. Your local post office has a real bargain for you — a brand new United States Savings Stamp in patriotic red, white, and blue, at the same old price of 25 cents.

For an even better bargain, you can buy 10 stamps in an attractive Gift Book for $2.50 — or 20 stamps for $5.00 — and the book doesn't even cost you that extra penny.

The new stamp a successor to the old 25-cent green Savings Stamp, goes on sale in post offices all over the country on November 18. It marks the first major change in design since the present series was begun in 1942. The other denominations remain unchanged: the 10-cent stamp in red, the 50-cent in blue, the $1 grey, and the $5 brown.

The gift book is an entirely new item, providing a useful, attractive, and inexpensive gift for the youngster who "has everything." Size 4" x 2", the book cover is in red, white, and blue, picturing Uncle Sam wrapping a huge gift, with the wording: "A Gift of U. S. Savings Stamps" and the customary "To" and "From" lines. While especially appropriate at the Christmas season, the gift books are for all-year-round use.

Savings Stamps are accumulated in a special album, available free at all post offices. Filled albums may be exchanged for Savings Bonds at any bank.

More than one hundred million Savings Stamps were sold last year, at a total value of nearly $20 million. Many of these sales were made through weekly Stamp Day plans in schools enrolling more than six million students. Many additional schools are in process of installing the Savings Stamp thrift plan this fall, the Treasury reported.

The American Legion

Youth Activities Program

(a) Next to our Church, The American Legion has the finest youth activities program in the land. It includes Junior Baseball, school awards and oratorical contests, Boy Scouts and Sons of the Legion, Boys' State and Boys' Nation, County Government program, Child Welfare and Back to God and Church.

Past Accomplishments Of Youth Program

(a) Approximately one million teen-age boys have already graduated from American Legion Junior Baseball — approximately 500,000 participate each summer on more than 16,500 teams.

(b) More than four million students have participated in the American Legion annual high school oratorical contests — more than 300,000 each year, more than 16,000 awards each year.

(c) More than a million youths have graduated into good citizens from American Legion sponsored Boy Scouts — over 4,000 units each year.

(d) More than three hundred-fifty thousand high school youths have graduated from Boys' State and Boys' Nation programs — at least 18,000 attend each year.

(e) Since 1925 the American Legion and its affiliated organizations have expended more than $132,000,000.00 in emergency financial aid to children. More of this money went for food, clothing and medical treatment.

Yet the need for this program grows greater each day. We, as Legionnaires, should and must do more to build and instill good character and citizenship in our youth.

Mrs. and Mrs. David Alexander and son of Lubbock spent the week end and the first of this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Matthews, Sr., and Dr. and Mrs. Delmon E. Alexander.

Wesleyan Service Guild's Bazaar And Bake Sale To Be November 25th

"Suddenly It's Christmas" is the appropriate theme members of the Wesleyan Service Guild have chosen for their annual bazaar, which opens to the public at 9 a. m. Tuesday, November 25, in McCauley Furniture store. This will give the wise shopper and opportunity to solve some of the season's gift problems while there is time to plan without panic.

The Guild is a group of Methodist Ladies, who organized in 1937, and Miss Merle Dingus is serving as president.

Proceeds from the bazaar will enable the Guild to carry out projects of the year, the major one being the support of a 14-year-old girl in the Methodist Home.

Mrs. Levi Bowden is general chairman of the bazaar, with the following committees assisting: Mrs. Joe Bailey King, in charge of pricing and display, assisted by Mmes. Erin McGraw, Aaron Edgar, J. W. Massey and Muriel Mitchell; Mrs. C. P. Baker, in charge of the sale of gift items, and assisting her will be Mmes. J. C. Harpham, Bob Hicks, Joe B. Roberts, J. Weldon Smith and Lee Haymes.

Did you ever hear of a "Parcel Post Sale"? Members of the Guild mailed cards to out-of-town friends asking them to send a package for the bazaar. These will be sold for fifty cents just as they come through the mail — that's why it's a "Parcel Post Sale". Mrs. J. T. Offutt will be in charge, being assisted by Mmes. Layne Womble, J. H. Amerson and Miss Ruth Baker.

Another important feature of the bazaar is the bake sale, for which Guild members are well known. This will be ideal for Thanksgiving. In charge of the bake sale are Mmes. Oscar Spann, John C. Spann, Roberta Beck and R. M. Almanrode.

Crowell Blasts Moguls 50 To 6 In Final Game

The Crowell Wildcats made the Monday football team their ninth victims of the season Thursday night by blasting their 1A-11 rival 50-6 in the final regular season game for both clubs.

For Crowell the game will not be the last. The Wildcats go into the state Class A playoffs Nov. 21 against Keller in Olney.

The victory gave Crowell a perfect record in district competition with only an early season loss to 2A Quannah keeping them from the unbeaten.

Gerald Bradford ran the opening kickoff back 64 yards for the first of many Crowell counters. Bradford wasn't finished for the night either as he had touchdown runs of 55, 34, 4 and 60 yards following the first.

Gary Todd ran one Crowell score 34 yards around right end to account for the rest of the Wildcats' points.

Tommy Dickerson went over from four yards out to climax a 60 yard drive for Munday's touchdown.

The District 1A-11 champions ran up a high of 320 yards rushing for the night as against 136 for Munday.

Crowell went to the air on only six occasions but completed 50 percent of these for 67 yards. Their one punt traveled 40 yards.

Notes From Knox Farms, Ranches

By Roy England, Knox County Agent

In the livestock picture, in an unprecedented move, a major meat packer has announced payment of up to $1 per head to cattlemen for the cost of treating their cattle with systemic grub killers. This innovation, which becomes an important factor in a national effort to rid cattle of grubs and to eliminate the annual grub-fly problem, was announced by Entomologist Earle Raun at Iowa State College. Three other packers are reported to be considering similar offers.

Tests conducted by Iowa State College and others with the newly developed systemic livestock insecticides, showed cattle treated with these grub killers gained one-tenth to one-fourth pounds more per day than untreated cattle on the same feed. They returned $1.23 to $6.42 more per head when they were marketed.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Up In Arms Over Congressmen Who Want To Plug Up Some Of Those Tax Loopholes

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek has taxes on his mind, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
Yesterday afternoon I was out here on my farm wandering around hunting for something to read — some people think when I'm wandering around I'm just loafing but if you're going to let what people think influence what you do, you'll wind up tired and the other people no better off than they were to start with, in fact I see so many ways I could improve myself I have very little time left for improving somebody else, although on the whole I'm like most people, I'm fairly well satisfied with my own conduct and if there's any changing to be done it's up to the other people to do it — at any rate, I finally found a newspaper lodged in a fence corner under a pile of leaves and drifted back home and sat down and read it.

One article in it burned me up. According to it, a group of Congressmen, looking around for something to do in the next session in January, have decided they're going to launch a drive to close what they called some major tax loopholes.

This is what burned me up. Close some tax loopholes? Thunder, I don't want em closed, I want em POINTED OUT.

If there are any major tax loopholes, and these Congressmen know about them, and they want to be popular with me, just let them send me a list right away.

What this country needs is not fewer tax loopholes, but more.

As I understand it, these Congressmen are out to prove they're not a bunch of spendthrifts, and by plugging up these holes they'll prove it and still get more money for the government. This may be economical for the government, but it's not economical on me, if there's a loophole I can squeeze through, and I'm calling on you right now to drop whatever you're doing, if you can recall what it was, and get to work on this list of loopholes. I think it'd be the most popular, most thoroughly read news item you ever published.

Yours faithfully,

To his many friends and customers who have been so anxiously inquiring about his reported retirement, we are glad to be able to report that M. L. "Doc" Barnard has reconsidered and has agreed to continue working with us, at least for the foreseeable future.

We all realize that "Doc" is due a long vacation, and as soon as we are able to obtain another pharmacist, we plan to give him such a vacation, but certainly he will not be retired but will continue on in our store, at least in a limited capacity, for as long a time as we can see.

He appreciates the inquiries that have been made about him, as to the management.
