Odd Bits Salvaged

WANTED — One mayor and two aldermen! If interested, apply at the City Hall in Munday.

That's the way the picture was filmed early this week. The city election is coming up for April 5, 1960; and, so far, there is no one to elect.

But we need to elect a mayor and two aldermen to take the places of Mayor V. E. Moore and Aldermen John C. Spann and M. L. Wiggins, whose terms expire. Mayor Moore said when the coming city election was first announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

"But you haven't accomplished all you said you wanted to do when you took the job," we says. "That's just it," he replied, "I haven't done anything." And so far as we know, that's how the situation stands.

The aldermen haven't indicated, so far as we know, that they would be on the ticket again. In fact, one of them sorta indicated Monday he wouldn't.

And time is getting short. Although the election is almost two months away — Tuesday, April 5 — according to the legal procedure candidates' names must be filed at least 30 days prior to the election. And that would make the deadline Saturday, March 5, which isn't so far off, in view of the fact that no one seems very much interested.

In case you didn't get around to paying your poll tax before the deadline, there isn't much point in your becoming interested, one way or the other. But in case you are qualified and interested, forms for filing may be secured from the city secretary's office.

The "lookout" wasn't doing a very good job looking out, according to a story in Monday's Wichita Falls paper.

According to the story, a group was holding an illegal cock fight. The lookout was on top of a barn to warn of the approach of law enforcement officers, but the cock fight must have gotten pretty interesting. Some 15 officers converged on the group and made a number of arrests.

Some 32 churches of the 13th Congressional District have voted approval of the play for the proposed North Texas Boys Ranch in Clay County, and churches that have not taken action on the program, and are interested in doing so, are advised to act immediately.

A 700-acre track of land in Clay County and $50,000 with which to construct the first building or dormitory have been offered by one couple if a sufficient number of churches in the district approve the project.

Leaders in the program have voiced the opinion that if churches in the district would set aside 50 cents per member per year in their budgets for the program, the ranch's perpetuation would be assured. The ranch can be established and constructed if churches will assure its future. The First Methodist Church of Munday has voted its approval.

A "driving factor" in the urge to establish a boys ranch in the district lies in the fact that population at State Training School for Boys at Gatesville has doubled in the last three years. Many of these boys, it is believed, need different training. Vocational training such as woodwork, metal work, welding, agriculture, dairying and other subjects will be provided the boys according to their needs and capabilities, enabling them to go out in society and earn their living.

In case anyone was interested in one of those dust bowl, depression days, dusters that one Tuesday should have filled the needs pretty well. It brought on talk of days of the dust bowl; of how the moldboard plow (which they claimed would soon be obsolete) caused land to blow, etc. It wasn't as bad here as other places — anyway, we didn't have to spread a cloth over the table and get under said table to eat our meals like some did way back yonder. We prefer our meals a-boveboard, please.

A person can get just as drunk on water as on land.

Herman K. Henry Is Candidate For Representative

Herman K. Henry, a resident of Haskell, Haskell County Texas, has announced as a candidate for State Representative in District 83 composed of Knox, Baylor, Throckmorton and Haskell Counties, subject to action of the Democratic Primary May 7, 1960.

A farmer and stockman, he has lived in Haskell County for 32 years except for Army Service. After graduating from Texas A & M College he was for six years Vocational Agriculture teacher in the Haskell Schools. As a Reserve Officer of the Army he had entered upon active duty before the outbreak of World War II. The rank of Lieutenant Colonel was attained in Europe and he reverted to inactive status in 1949. Since discharge from the Army he has engaged in farming and cattle raising.

During his residence in the district he has become well acquainted with the needs of this part of the State. If elected, he states he will assume his duties with equal consideration for all sections of the district. Furthermore, he will welcome suggestions from voters at any time so that the wishes of the people may be carried out.

As the campaign progresses Mr. Henry plans to see as many voters as possible. If he is unable to personally contact each voter, he hopes that his candidacy will be given your careful consideration and he assures you that your vote and influence in the coming election will be greatly appreciated.

Yeah, We Goofed!

Some wondered just how Bill Tidwell at Bill's Trading Post would sell those fishing lures at 60 cents each, or three for a buck. He couldn't.

We just plain goofed in copying off the ad. Those lures should have been advertised at 60 cents, or three for a buck and a half.

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

In country towns everybody knows the Postmaster is Uncle Sam. (He just doesn't wear whiskers and striped pants.)

Most country Postmasters carry tax forms to take care of Uncle Sam's business. In the big cities, however, taxpayers went to the Internal Revenue office, wrote a letter, or called on the phone to get the returns. Our city cousins have been happy to find a tax table in the postal sub-station this week. Maybe the tax forms business has gone suburban.

Our country post offices have carried income tax forms during the filing season for years.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fetsch and family and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Franklin visited Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Hoepfner in Wichita Falls last week end.

Democratic Committee Certifies Names For Primary Election Ballot May 7th

When the Knox County Democratic Committee met at Benjamin on Tuesday, February 9, to file candidates names for the first primary election, members also set the filing fees for candidates at 5 per cent of the yearly salary paid each particular office.

It was pointed out that, that according to a recent law, voters must have their poll tax receipts stamped either Democratic or Republican if they wish to attend any of the party conventions. To save unnecessary trouble voters are urged to bring their receipts with them when they go to vote in order to have them stamped.

The committee announced the following candidates as filing for

GROCERY BAGS—AND PRETTY ANKLES

John Fischer, editor of Harper's magazine, recently wrote an interesting article for the American Petroleum Institute Quarterly. In it, he pointed out that many petroleum products reach the consumer in strange disguises—"as a plastic grocery bag, for example, or a stocking on a pretty ankle." Other petroleum products are seldom seen. In Mr. Fischer's words, "Though my home has been heated by fuel oil for many years, to this day I have no idea what it looks like." And only because of the carelessness of a service station attendant, he goes on, has he ever seen a splash of gasoline.

In the years to come we will be using more and more oil in disguised and hidden forms. The API has turned to its crystal ball and taken a peek into the second century of the oil industry. It sees synthetic food made from oil, asphalt to hold moisture in farm fields, and pipelines to carry solids. It reveals an ingenious system of using oil burners to melt snow and eliminate hauling it away. Also seen are development of a device to turn oil directly into electricity without burning it; a system for keeping northern waterways ice-free in winter, and a big boost for the world's food supply from petroleum-derived fertilizers and insecticides.

In sum, the ceiling seems limitless when it comes to oil's potentialities. The industry has been spending some $300 million a year on research, and this is due for an increase. The result: More discoveries, more miracles.

THAT JAM JAR

The President forecasts a $4.4 billion budget surplus for the coming fiscal year, and urges that it be used to reduce the national debt.

This, if it happens, will be good news indeed after so many years when big deficits were the rule. But it is not going to happen automatically. Indeed, going by the views and statements of some members of Congress, there is grave doubt if it will happen at all.

As one observer put it, the big-spenders in Congress "eve a $4.4 billion surplus the way a small boy eyes a jam jar in the pantry." They want to spend it on more "do good" and welfare state programs, including programs which socialize taxpaying business and make swollen budgets inevitable. The President can propose a budget, but only Congress can make it into law. If the big spenders have their way, the expected surplus will disappear, there may very well be another deficit, and hope for either debt or tax reduction will go glimmering.

ASHLAND CITY, TENN., TIMES: "While everybody is relieved that the social steel dispute has been settled for at least 30 months, it remains to be seen whether the settlement was made without price increases and without new inflationary pressure.

"Roger M. Blough, U. S. Steel Corporation Chairman, says the settlement will cost the industry more than $1 billion . . .

"Undoubtedly the steelworkers won a complete victory, but their victory should be tempered with knowledge that production must be even more efficient, else American-made steel will be priced out of the market. A headless goose cannot lay golden eggs."

BEEVILLE, TEX., BEE-PICAYUNE: "The fate of our nation rests upon you and the people you influence. If you want to make a quick buck above all else, if you would trade security for freedom if you have lost the moral fibre of your ancestors, our nation is in grave danger. For in a free world you do your choosing as to leaders, but they cannot put meaning or purpose of moral standards into your lives. That is up to you. The fate of the world is within each of us."

NEWBERRY, S. C., OBSERVER: "All this time we were under the impression that the American institution known as the coffee break was merely an excuse to slip away from the office . . . Dr. Jean Spencer Felton of the schools of medicine and public health, University of California at Los Angeles, says, 'The results of coffee consumption are seen in clearer and more rapid thinking, forestalling of sleep and fatigue, a prolonged intellectual effort, better association of ideas' . . ."

"If the railroad industry is to grow and serve our future economy, it must be able to develop a policy of service and pricing that will serve the transport needs of the public, not hampered by unreasonable public policies."—John J. Allen, Jr. Under Secretary of Commerce for Transportation.

SUNBURN AND SKIN CANCER
 This may hardly be the time of year to be discussing the effects of too much sun, but an American Association spokesman has again pointed out the extremely high rate of skin cancer among Texas farmers and ranchers.

Dr. Stephen Rothman of Chicago, chairman of the AMA's committee on cosmetics, told a clinical session in Dallas that Texas has six times as high a rate of skin cancer as the northern and eastern states. He attributed the situation to the direct rays of the sun in Texas and the fact that many people in the state pursue outdoor livelihoods.

This extremely high rate, he said, could be reduced to a fraction by the daily use of simple sun-protective creams. A number of products are now available, Dr. Rothman reported, which have been found to be absolutely effective in preventing skin cancer if the individual who works in the sun would apply a thin layer on his hands and face each morning.

But his suggestion to the U. S. Public Health Service for such a preventive program, the Chicago specialist said, met with a response something like this: "If you think you can get a Texas farmer to smear cream on his face every morning, then you just don't know Texas farmers."

Consensus of the clinical session in Dallas was that the sun has been highly overrated as a source of health, and that its bad effects for most individuals may considerably outweigh the good.

For the normal skin, said Dr. Rothman, "I am not sure there is anything good to be said about the sun."

Ironically, he pointed out, the confirmed sun bather, seeking a tan which has become symbolic of youth, is hastening the aging process and prematurely developing for himself an unattractive, old-looking wrinkled skin. The full effects of sun bathing have not yet been completely assessed, because the fad has not been prevalent for a sufficient length of time to provide the required study.

But Dr. Rothman holds to the theory that modern man, provided with plenty of nourishment and vitamins, could live in perfect health for many years in a cellar without ever seeing the sun.

STEP OUT IN IT

Get the quiet proof of Chevrolet's superior performance on the road—No other car in the low-priced three can match the borne-on-the-wind sensation you get from a ride in the 1960 Chevrolet. But that's not surprising when you consider to what lengths Chevy has gone to provide for your comfort at no extra cost to you. As you drive, count the ways Chevrolet has been thoughtful:

Supple Full Coil suspension—Coil springs at all four wheels melt bumps as no other suspension can. Taking the punch out of rough roads is their only function—they don't have to anchor the rear axle.

Butyl rubber body mounts—Thicker, newly designed body mounts further insulate you from the road.

Body by Fisher—Only Chevy in its field offers the polish and craftsmanship of Body by Fisher.

Foam cushioned seats—Chevy offers foam cushioned seats in both front and rear in all series but one.

Safety-Girder frame—X-built and not merely X-braced, the Safety-Girder frame affords greater rigidity to minimize twisting and squeaks.

Hydraulic valve lifters—Oil hushed hydraulic valve lifters reduce engine noise to a whisper.

Cushioned steering shaft—A universal joint and cushioned coupling keep those annoying road tremors from the steering wheel.

Precision balanced wheels and tires—Here again Chevy has shown concern for your comfort by eliminating vibration in this vital area—tire life is longer, too.

Easy steering ratio—Chevy's high ratio Ball Race steering takes the work out of steering for you.

Superior weight distribution—Chevy rides better, handles better and stops better because the car's weight is more equally divided between the front and rear wheels.

Wide choice of power teams—Choose from 24 different power combinations to satisfy the itchiest driving foot—more than any other car.

Now—fast delivery, favorable deals! See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer!

News From The U. S. Congress

By Congressman Frank Ikard

The tempo of Congress' activities is stepping up as we approach mid-February. Committees of the House of Representatives are spending long hours formulating legislation for presentation to the full body, and at the same time issues of National importance are taking shape here which will undoubtedly emerge full blown in the election campaigns this Fall.

For example, the Committee on Ways and Means, of which I am a Member, last week concluded a series of public hearings on the subject of cooperative taxation. This is a complicated topic in which the Committee must consider its responsibilities toward maintaining the cooperatives' valuable contributions to agriculture while at the same time making sure that tax laws are fair to all taxpayers.

In other committees of the House, important legislation also is in progress. The House Committee on Banking and Currency, for instance, is considering a bill which will promote the construction of middle- and low-income housing. The Committee on Science and Astronautics is hearing a series of witnesses from the Department of Defense and the Armed Forces in an examination of our military space and missile programs. The Appropriations Committee is examining the President's budget for the 1961 fiscal year and will soon begin reporting out its decisions on various parts of the budget.

These few brief examples, perhaps, will provide an illustration of the scope of the work confronting Congress during this session. They also suggest the broader issues with which voters will be confronted this Fall. The latter subjects defense and spending — well could be the most important. Our Nation's defense is rightfully the subject of examination by the Congress, since it is a matter of vital importance to the American people. Congress will have to determine if adequate provision is being made to provide new weapons — and maintain old ones — in the face of an ever-present threat from Soviet Russia. We should not allow ourselves to be lulled into complacency by sporadic friendly overtures by the Communists.

Our preparedness is related to another topic which could develop into one of the major issues of this Fall's election campaigns. This deals with our Nation's economic policies, the management of the staggering public debt, and spending in general. All these factors are closely tied in with what is apparently an economic race with Russia and should be examined to provide for our greatest possible growth.

Visitors from home this week were Mr. Harry James and Mr. Gerald W. McComas of Denton and Mr. Bobby E. Riggs of Jacksboro.

Dr. Walter Prescott Webb has been described as having one of the four finest intellects in Texas. He is the immediate past president of the American Historical Association and he is the author of several scholarly books which have won wide respect. For many years he has been connected with the University of Texas where he holds the title of distinguished professor.

So much for the learned educator — and now a little about the man.

The first time we ever met was at an autographing in Dallas for his first book. As I shook hands with him, I said:

"Dr. Webb, something is going to have to be done. I am the author of a book which came out a short time ago and the title of your book is very similar to mine. People are going to get confused and buy your 'Texas Rangers' thinking that they are getting my 'Were You in Ranger?'"

(Actually his volume was 400 pages and sold for $5; mine was less than 200 pages and was priced at $1.50.)

I continued:

"So I suggest that you change the name of your book."

His admirer gasped — but a slow smile lit up his face.

Soon afterward, out of the corner of his mouth, he murmured, "Let's slip out of here and get a cup of coffee" — which we did and had an opportunity to get acquainted.

He read my book on the Ranger oil boom and wrote, generously, "I envy you the ability to get the interest of the reader with your first sentence."

Dr. Webb was especially interested in Ranger because he attended high school there and earned his way by janitorial work. Once when I introduced him as having graduated from Ranger High, he said, "Boyce, they didn't give diplomas then."

He placed me on the program of the Texas Historical Society to speak on the Spindletop oil boom, along with savants.

One time a friend of mine and I entered an Austin cafe and I caught sight of Senator Ralph Yarborough and Dr. Webb at the counter. I said to Yarborough, "Judge, I believe you would be interested in meeting the man who was 'the boy chief of police' in Ranger during the boom."

The learned historian drawled,

"What makes you think I wouldn't like to meet him, too?"

If, from all this, you conclude that — doctor of philosophy and all — Walter Prescott Webb is a real human being, with no snobbery or condescension in his makeup, you are exactly right.

Large Turnout Of Farm Families Is Expected For John Deere Day Event

Monday, February 15, will be John Deere Day in Munday, according to Tommie Harper of Quality Implements, local John Deere farm equipment dealer.

"We'll have plenty of coffee and doughnuts for the crowd," Harper said, "and there'll be seats enough for everybody to have a good view during our film program, which begins at 7:30 p.m."

One film item that's expected to draw a lot of interest and favorable comment will be a report on the new John Deere 435 diesel tractor, shown above. There will be big news, too, on developments in 8-row farming and grain drying.

The entire family will enjoy the varied entertainment scheduled for this year's John Deere Day program. Nationally famous TV commentator Walter Kronkite will "emcee" the film presentation which includes musical numbers, the popular "Oddities in Farming" and an eye-opening visit to the John Deere plow works to see precision automatic production of high speed plow shares.

"Oddities in Farming" will take the audience from Arkansas to Minnesota to see types of agriculture as unusual and varied as these states are far apart. The big feature of the unusual rice farm near Brinkley, Ark., is the rotation crop; carp of a size that would make any angler proud.

The youngsters will especially like a visit to the Halverson Christmas tree farm in Duluth, Minn. They can watch the interesting steps by which tiny seedling trees grow to be come the principal decoration of the Christmas season.

"Novelty numbers and musical features round out the show to make it an evening everyone will enjoy and remember," M. Harper said in conclusion.

Communications were read, and the chapter voted to contribute to the state scholarship fund. A "white elephant sale" was held within the chapter for the benefit of the local scholarship fund of Beta Chi.

Mrs. Cowan, assisted by chapter officers, Mmes. H. T. Wilkinson, Gretchen Colehour and Maxine Klump, presided for the initiation ceremonies. Director of initiatives was Mrs. Otis Cash of Knox City, chairman of the committee on initiatives, Three candidates, Mmes. June Adkins, Aspermont; Joe Canafax, Munday, and Kenneth Langford, Knox City, were initiated into the chapter. Escorts for the three were Mmes. John P. Ward, Aspermont; Ruth Brown, Munday, and E. F. Branton, Knox City.

To close the ceremonies, Mrs. Mary Martin of Haskell, music chairman, accompanied the group as they sang "The Delta Kappa Gamma Song."

The refreshment table was covered with a pink net cloth, edged in ruffles, laid over a pink taffeta skirt. To emphasize the Valentine theme, delicious pink sherbert punch and a variety of cookies and candies were served by the host group.

Thirty-five members attended from Aspermont, Old Glory, Haskell, Munday, Knox City, Rule and Weinert.

ger on the source of the trouble. Regardless of how thrilling it is to see your country's satellites chasing each other around through space, regardless of how exciting it is to see a picture of the backside of the moon taken by your own brilliant scientists, there's nothing that's ever been found yet that's a complete substitute for cash in hand.

A cash incentive is one of the of the most effective tools of agriculture ever invented by the mind of man, and that goes I suspect too for teachers, lawyers, doctors, grocerymen, editors, blacksmiths, and occasionally a Congressman.

Cleaning an
is child's play

Oven cleaning is truly "child's play" in this smart new 1960 electric range. Some of the models are equipped with pull-out ovens. This mother-daughter team can wipe clean any part of the oven, even the back walls, without stretching or straining. And that's only part of the convenience story. Surface heating units tilt up out of the way and porcelain drip bowls go to the sink for washing. Most switch knobs on the back panel are removable, glass surface can be wiped clean in seconds. Ease of cleaning is just one of the advantages of an Electric Range. You will also like the fully automatic features and the "always the same" heat of the surface units—No flame to go up and down. And so economical—Go see your Electric Appliance Dealer. He'll tell you the change is to Electric Cooking.

Early Day History Of Knox County Is Recalled By Pioneer Of This Area

(From The Wichita Daily Times) Schools played a prominent part in location of early-day towns in North Texas. One such school was the first place of learning established in Knox County.

Called the "Reeder School" for the family of T. P. Reeder who donated the land on which the school was built, the family had moved to Knox County before any settlement was established in the area they chose to locate.

The school was located one mile west of where Knox City now stands. It served both as a school, church, and public gathering place for many years.

Mrs. Ida Page of Knox City was a student at the school. She is the former Miss Ida Mitchell, and was born in Alabama. She came to Texas with her parents when seven years old.

They first lived in Comanche County near DeLeon. The family moved to Knox County in 1889 and filed for homestead on what was thought to be school land southwest of Knox City.

Wrong Land
There a house was built and the family lived for a time, only to discover that the land belonged to a railroad. They then moved three miles east, where her father purchased a farm.

Troubles of the day plagued Mrs. Page on her wedding day. Her fiance started on horseback for Benjamin two days before the wedding for the license. Reaching Benjamin, the license was purchased without mishap but the return trip was less successful.

The bridge between Benjamin and "Reeder School" was washed away so he returned to Benjamin, where a friend drove him to Seymour, 30 miles away, only to discover the bridge there also was destroyed.

The pair returned and waited until Monday for waters to recede. In the meantime a fearful bride-to-be anxiously awaited word of her future groom.

Crossed River
By Monday, word had gotten as far as Kosoga Community, that Page had crossed the river and would meet his bride the next day for the wedding.

The ceremony was performed that day, by a Primitive Baptist preacher named Woods.

Mrs. Page, now widowed, lives on Central Ave. in Knox City with a parakeet and good neighbors to keep her company. She in turn entertains them with stories of the early days of Knox County.

Her recollections include the 1910 storm that blew the train off the track between Knox City and Benjamin; the big snowstorm of 1895 when a man named Jack Wade froze to death; and the terrible sandstorms that always came in the spring and the long hot summers without either ice or air conditioning.

Each year on the third Sunday in August all her children and grandchildren hold a family reunion at her home. She has 18 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by the State Health Department

What should you have on hand by way of first aid supplies and medications? There's no stock answer to the question. It depends on many things.

Family composition must be considered. Are there older people? Children? Handicapped persons? How much do family members know about the care of ill and injured? Is there a nurse in the family — or someone with advanced knowledge of first aid? The delicate tools of a craftsman are of little value in the hands of a novice.

Building a useful inventory of first aid supplies and medications calls for first casting out the old and useless accumulations in the medicine chest, the half full and labelless bottles of liquid and pills the purpose of which has long

News From The Moguls' Band

Wednesday, February 3rd, Jack Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Matthews, Sr., and Mr. Jack Geyman, local band master, left Monday for the All-State Band of 1959-60. Try-outs were held Thursday morning and the 200 high school students participating in this year's state band were divided into two different bands, the reading band and the concert band.

Musical exhibits, concerts, music clinics, the University of Texas band, and various high school honor bands provided the students with means of filling what little spare time they had between practices.

Saturday night, February 6, the All-State band, choir, and orchestra gave their concert as their climax to three days of diligent practice. Mr. Geyman and Jack returned home following the concert Saturday night.

Plans for the 1960 Musicade are rapidly progressing. Jimmie Del Peysen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Peysen, has been chosen as vocalist for the stage band. Other ensembles planned for our program include a boys chorus line, a trumpet solo, trombone solo, trumpet trio, and a series of instrumental solos accompanied by the Mogul Band.

Billy Fitzgerald, son of Cecil Fitzgerald, is to be the Master of Ceremonies for this 1960 Musicade. He will introduce two of our special features, the Mid-western "Jug Band" and a re-nowned European conductor who will lead the band in a special selection.

It's hazardous to use old medicines for symptoms that "sound just like Aunt Thelma had when the doctor gave her some stuff in a green bottle like this." Aside from the danger of taking the wrong medicine, even the right one may tend to lose its potency with age.

If someone in the family has diabetes, asthma, a heart condition, epilepsy or other manageable ailment, be sure to have specific instructions for their care prescribed by the family's physician. Having a physician available on call is important to every family. Children especially are bound to require a physician's services more or less frequently.

To care for the usual cuts, scratches, bruises and minor burns you'll need these items on hand: a few sterile gauze compresses, an assortment of hand-aid type bandages, a couple of triangle bandages and a roll of adhesive tape.

You'll also need an antiseptic for cuts and scratches and an ointment for minor burns. To make sure you get the right type, call your doctor and ask him exactly what he recommends.

Some common table salt, some baking soda and perhaps a bottle of plain calamine lotion to soothe insect bites and minor skin allergies will supplement your home first aid supplies to where they will be adequate to handle the majority of mishaps which befall the ordinary family.

Add to the list a copy of a standard first aid textbook to refresh your memory as to the best way to proceed on the various emergencies and you're in business.

Don't forget that a medicine chest is a real challenge to most curious youngsters. The safest place for medications is locked in a box somewhere out of reach of children.

Remember when you used to go to bed with the curfew? Today they just blow it to wake you up.
