The medical doctors of this area heartily endorsed an advertisement which appeared in last week's paper, and is running again this week, berating the fact that so many people buy hospitalization insurance from door-to-door salemen. The doctors, we suppose, are called upon perhaps more than anyone else, except qualified insurance men, to fill out forms to help persons collect their insurance claimsand they are appalled at the number of policies on which no money for hospital expenses will be paid. And such experiences, we are sure, prompted the ad.

"There are plenty of honest insurance agents in our local communities," they stated in the ad "who live here and are available in case a policy turns out to be not as represented. Chips From The Carpenter's Workbench

By HAROLD C. PADEN

The reformation principle had its origin in the New Testament (Gal. 1:6-7). Paul pleaded for the Galatian Christians to return to the original gos pel and pattern. This plea is always pertinent because of man's nature to drift away from God's calling and Christ's "way" of behavior.

"Reformation" and "restoration" are closely related terms. reformation carried far enough is a restoration and a restoration is a pattern of reform either congregation-wise or individual-wise. It is usually easier to restore by beginning a new movement than attempting to reform a perverted movement.

The Montanist movement (2nd century) was a reaction to worldliness and indifference in the church. Montanus pleaded for a return to the purity and faith of Christians in the first century. Actually the writing of the early creeds and the meetings of the ecumenical councils were for the purpose of safeguarding the teaching of the Apostles and Christ against false doctrines, (150 to 787 A.D.).

Within the Roman demonination itself reform movements have been numerous. Monasticism was an attempt to go back to the purity of the first century gospel. Savonarola, in the 13th century, an Italian priest, lost his life in attempt-

Every generation needs to reexamine the Bible and rededicate their lives to restoring New Testament Christianity. Through the centuries many independent movements go back to the Bible and restore Christianity in its original form. No group or nation has any priority in this. There are today independent movements of this nature in India, Russia and other nations. This is our plea today! We have no priority on truth. We want only to be Christians, without denominational affiliations, Christians only, without being of a certain type; dedicated only to the cause of restoring the original pattern of the gospel, doctrines of men, and thus being members of the same universal church the New Testament Christians were members of-Christ's church and it alone." OVER BACK-COUNTRY ROADS AT 45 WITH A SKY-HIGH LOAD OF TIMBER

Chevy middleweight shows the big rigs how it's done!

That's a 6303 medium-duty Chevrolet powered by a 283-cu.-in. V8. But there's sure nothing mediumduty about the load. Mr. J. E. Blankinship, Arkansas logging contractor, says both of his torsion-spring 6303's "move along at 40 to 50 miles per hour with 55,000 pounds gross weight and maintain a 5-trip-a-day schedule with no trouble at all." Figure the money you save when you've got a medium-duty truck that can cover 30,000 back-country miles a year with a high-tonnage load!

We've never seen anything like the amount of praise truck owners are heaping on Chevy's new torsion spring suspension. Owners like the fact the truck handles a whole lot easier, can move faster off the road without beating the driver to death and shaking loose all the sheet metal. They like the idea of extra thousands of miles before trade-in! . . . Drive a '60 Chevy just once. It's a whole new experience.

NOTICE

It has come to our attention so frequently in the past several months that a great many people are buying Hospitalization Insurance from door - to - door salesmen, which is often entirely worthless, that we feel obligated to call the matter to the attention of the general public.

There are plenty of honest insurance agents in our local communities who live here and are available in case a policy turns out to be not as represented. We. therefore, urge you to buy your insurance from people you know and can trust.
