

City-County Library Adds New Shelving As Growth Continues

By Cheryl Berryhill
 "Opportunity Knox" has been a slogan adopted by our Chamber of Commerce since early Vegetable days. It appears to be an apt motto because everywhere you look these days, progress is evident.

One phase of the county's rapid growth is shown in the City-County Library in Munday. Originally, the Munday Study Club organized the library in 1920 and it was housed in their club house. Since that time, the library has outgrown its boundaries three times.

On Wednesday of last week the library was in a state of chaos because of the addition of two sections of shelving. The shelves are 18 feet long and 90 inches tall which will provide an abundance of extra storage. One section was purchased from the county revenue sharing funds and the other was donated by a patron of the library.

The present shelving had been inadequate as the library continually added books through purchases and donations. As the library neared 8,000 books, it again appeared to be outgrowing its space. But the new shelving will enable the librarian to display many more books than was possible before.

When the Munday Study Club established the library, its members performed a lasting service for the county. As the demand for books increased, the Study Club asked the Chamber of Commerce to let them move the books into their office on Munday Avenue. Mrs. Don (Callie Ann) Combs, chamber manager, served as the first librarian after the move. The library consisted of 1500 books at that time.

BOOKS, BOOKS, everywhere! The library was in a state of havoc last week when the new shelves were being assembled. It was impossible to check any books out during this period, so the library had to close for a few days.

When the Chamber of Commerce office moved to the City Hall in 1961, the library was also moved, since the Chamber realized its significance and importance. The chief support of the library for the past seven years has been the United Fund. It has included the library in its budget for $1,000 annually during that time. The county also contributed some support for maintenance.

In 1968 the library was established as the City-County Library. In 1969 when the Chamber of Commerce office moved to its present location on East B Street, the library again moved with it. It was once more outgrowing its bounds in the City Hall. At this time the city was petitioned to include the library in their budget for $125 per month for maintenance and for employing a permanent librarian. The city and county entered into an agreement where the county matched the funds supplied by the city. During the past year the library received an additional $2,000 from the county revenue sharing funds.

The first full-time librarian was Mrs. Pansy Hines. When she resigned to pursue other interests, Mrs. Donald (Edith)

NOMINATED FOR WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Miss Renee Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Watkins and granddaughter of Mrs. W. E. Reynolds of Munday, has been nominated for "Woman of the Year" by the Associated Women Students at Midwestern University. Nominations come both from academic departments and student organizations.

MRS. EDITH HOBERT, librarian, is shown working on the new shelves that had to be assembled. Donald Hobert and M. M. Booe were responsible for the major part of the frame work.

Hobert was employed. She has been serving in that capacity since December of 1970.

During the past year the library became a member of the Texas State Library System and is served by the Abilene Major Resource Center, and is on provisional status for further aid. Provisional status requires that a library have 10,000 books, an annual income of $6,000 (or $1.00 per capita population), and be open at least 20 hours per week. Only two of the three requirements are necessary for membership, and the City-County Library has accomplished the last two and is striving diligently for 10,000 books.

The library is continually growing and has added equipment as well as books in the last few years. Some of the equipment purchased by the library includes a typewriter, an adding machine, and a paperback book rack.

Memorial gifts to the W. E. Braly Memorial Fund has provided the library with a card cabinet, dictionary and stand, and children's table and chairs.

Large book donations have helped in the goal to attain 10,000 books. Some of the larger contributors are Charles Baker 41 books, Mrs. Darlene Bellinghausen 33 books and Mrs. Lucille Smith 64 books. The largest donation was made by Mrs. Mauryse Scott when she donated 198 books from the late Dr. A. A. Smith's medical library. Many books from the late W. P. Farrington's medical library are also available and were donated by Mrs. W. P. Farrington. During the year, many more books are donated as memorials.

Some of the programs the library participates in are the summer reading and the children's story hour. An average of 80-90 children enroll each year in the summer reading sponsored by the Texas State Library and City-County Library. The children's hour is held each week on Tuesday morning from 10:00 to 10:45 for pre-schoolers. Mrs. Ina Cowan reads to the children, and they all thoroughly enjoy it.

Members of the library board are Mrs. Darlene Bellinghausen, chairman, Knox City; Mrs. Ann Therwanger, co-chairman, Munday; Mrs. Ina Cowan, corresponding secretary, Munday; and board members Mrs. Nelda Coulston of Goree, Mrs. Sue Clayton of Knox City, Mrs. Emma Fetsch of Rhineland, Bobby Burnett, Clint Norman, and M. M. Booe all of Munday. Executive board members are Troy Gauntt, representing the United Fund; Mayor J. E. Reeves, representing the City of Munday, and County Judge Sam Clonts of the Knox County Commissioners Court.

Last year alone the book circulation was in excess of 7,541 which shows how widely the library is used. Operating hours are from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Mrs. Hobert invites all county residents to come by and take advantage of their ever-growing service to the area.

Scouts Enjoy Campout Sat.

A. L. Awalt, Dr. Wayne Walker and Terry Alexander supervised a weekend trip for 15 boys in the newly organized Boy Scout Troop.

The boys left the City Hall at 1:30 Saturday and hiked the 4 1/2 miles to their camp, the old city park just north of the golf course for an afternoon and night of fun.

After exploring the area and having some fun games, the boys prepared their own supper which consisted of 2 big pots of stew. Reports that the stew was good was evinced by the fact that they ate the whole thing. Adding to the fun, the boys decided to bake apples, some twenty in all, which were also devoured.

A meeting was held around the campfire where summer programs were outlined and discussed. Also discussed was the Scout-O-Rama at Vernon on April 26-27. The boys will be selling tickets for the Scout-O-Rama and will get to keep part of the money here for equipment for their troop.

Plans were also made to have two long weekend campouts later on so that they can earn a camping badge. The scouts will all have uniforms alike in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Joey Bowley and children of Wichita Falls visited his mother and brother, Mrs. Maxine Bowley and Ted, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowley, over the weekend.

celebrated his sixth birthday. The party was held on Tuesday, March 26, even though his birthday wasn't officially until March 30. He said he received lots of presents and a bunch of money. During the interview with Mrs. Brown, Mark was in and out the door getting very impatient because his picture hadn't been taken. His mother had made him get all spruced up and he was wanting to play rather than stay clean for a picture. When asked if he had a dog Mark replied, "No, I don't want a dog, I'd rather have a horse." And to the inquiry of where he would keep it, he replied, "With the chickens, of course."

The Browns have three other children, Cindy, who is 15 years old, Danny, who is 13, and a married daughter, Mrs. Donnie (Judy) Voss of Burnett. None of their other children have any heart defects and the doctors assured them that Mark's ailment is not hereditary.

So, the next time you hear that TV commercial about your health, remember what little Mark has been through. Then you'll realize that you do have "everything" if you're a healthy person.

his letter with the statement that the only way to get rid of the problem was to get rid of the trees.

We'd fight the bugs, then re-read the letter. Then, one afternoon following a light rain and after the warming sun had come out, we glanced into one of the trees. It was plumb solid with the red-colored critters from just above head height upward into the far tips of the branches. We had them sprayed again.

Then we decided we'd had enough! We paid a right size-able sum to get rid of the trees which we had gotten "for free" over 25 years ago. And, now, the words "box elder" cause a disturbance in the pit of the stomach!

LINDA ANN FORD

Linda Ann Ford, Norman Martin Wed In Goree Baptist Church

On March 30 at the First Baptist Church of Goree, Miss Linda Ann Ford became the bride of Mr. Norman Lee Winter in an afternoon service. The vows were taken before an altar decorated with baskets of a variety of daisies carrying out Miss Ford's colors of yellow and white. Rev. Kieley Young officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Linda is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Albert L. Ford of Bluegrove, Norman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Winter of Bowie.

The floor length gown of Wind song worn by the bride had a fitted bodice closed with tiny satin buttons. The dress with gathered skirt was styled with a high-round collar and full length sleeves gathered into buttoned cuffs. Miss Ford designed and made her own wedding dress. A white picture hat held her finger tip organza veil at the hat band. The veil was floxed with white daisies. She carried a bouquet of daisies, baby's breath and red roses. The groom's boutonniere was a single daisy clipped from the bride's bouquet.

Miss Barbara Ford of Bluegrove was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Teresa Campbell of Ringgold and Miss Susan Winter, sister of the groom, of Bowie. They wore lemon yellow picture hats with white ribbons and floor length gowns with short puffed sleeves and empire waistline. They carried bouquets of daisies.

Mr. David Smith of Abilene served as the groom's best man, groomsmen were Mr. Michael Winter, the groom's brother of Bowie and Dr. Lewis Ford, the bride's brother, of College Station. Mr. Paul Robinson from Arlington and Mr. Kelly Autry of Bridgeport were ushers. The organist was Mrs. Gerald Myers of Goree. Mrs. Lewis Ford of College Station accompanied by her mother Mrs. Wayland Alexander of West saw, "Love is Surrender". Miss Angie Lambeth also accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Sandy Lambeth, of Goree sang "They Will Know We Are Christians By Our Love."

Following the ceremony the reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church where guests were registered by Mrs. Jack Brown of Bowie at a table adorned with a candle based with daisies. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth of linen and centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with fresh floral daisies and a gold cross. The cake was served with punch and mints by Miss Gayle Tucker of West, Mrs. Wayne Young of Bluegrove, and Miss Sally Scaling of Fort Worth. At the groom's table Mrs. Kieley Young of Goree and Miss Joe Ellen Massey of Abilene served whole wheat pound cake decorated with grapes and coffee. The reception was planned by Mrs. Mary Davis, the bride's sister, of Dallas, and her two daughters, Jenifer and Elizabeth, distributed the yellow checked grain bags to be thrown as the couple left.

When Mr. and Mrs. Winter left for a wedding trip she was wearing a double knit tangerine suit also made by the bride. They will live in Arlington where the groom is employed by the Citizens Journal. Mr. Winter is also the associate pastor and minister of youth and music of the First Baptist Church in Goree. He is a Bowie High School graduate and a Hardin-Simmons University graduate where he was a member of the Rangers. He plans to attend Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth this fall. Mrs. Winter is a 1973 graduate of Midway High School and attended Hardin-Simmons University. She will continue her education this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Winter, the groom's parents, entertained with a rehearsal dinner at Mitchell's Restaurant in Seymour.

How to avoid future shock.

Tomorrow won't take care of itself. And, deep down, you know that. So you'd better do something about your future money needs today.

There's a painless way. Simply start building your nest egg a little at a time. It's easy when you buy U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

You can save as little or as much as you want. Just specify the amount. And it'll be set aside from your paycheck and used to buy Bonds.

Then, when the future arrives, you'll be better fixed to face it. Because Bonds are the best shock absorber around.

Now U.S. Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

PLANTING TIME AIDS IN BOLL WEEVIL CONTROL

If all cotton planting in Knox County was delayed until May 20 for a starting date many early emerging cotton boll weevil would starve to death before food was produced.

Cotton boll weevil must find 1/3 grown cotton squares before they can survive. A few fields of early cotton in an area can lead to the survival of many early emerging boll weevil that would have starved out if the food was not available. Uniform planting date is one of 3 tools producers have to keep down cotton boll weevil build up.

PARENTS, YOUTH FORM PARTNERS IN 4-H

Parents, would you like to form a partnership with your youngsters? Thousands of parents are doing this every day in the 4-H program.

4-H is a program for youth between the ages of 9 and 19 and is administered by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System.

Through 4-H, parents get involved with their youngsters by helping them with one or more of over 100 projects. By getting involved with the projects, parents help their youngsters learn the basic skills and information and help them to fulfill and obligation. The 'partners' then build on these successes in areas of project work, leadership, community service and many other character building experiences. By spending time with their sons and daughters in 4-H work, parents can overcome the problems commonly referred to today as the 'communications gap' or 'generation gap'. 4-H projects serve as a beginning to start the parent-youth partnership, and the relationship can grow through mutual understanding and trust between parent and child.

SCREWORM WARNING

Screwworms could reach record levels this year due to the unusually mild winter just ended unless livestock producers take special precautions, warns the director of the Screwworm Eradication Program based at Mission, Texas. Livestock surgery is a primary reason for many screwworm cases. Animals should be inspected frequently, all wounds should be treated, and all worm samples should be sent to the Screwworm Lab. A recent screwworm case has been reported from Haskell County.

FLORATAM GRASS SOLVES PROBLEMS

Texas homeowners have a new weapon for battling chinchbugs and St. Augustinegrass Decline (SAD) in their St. Augustine lawns, says a plant pathologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Floratam, a new variety of St. Augustinegrass developed by the Florida and Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations and released in 1972 to commercial growers, is now available at most local nurseries. The new grass is also tolerant to downy mildew and grey leaf spot, but brown patch and rust still pose problems. It is also less hardy than Common St. Augustinegrass.

High Quality Planting Seed Vital To Profitable Cotton Production

"How well we get our crop off to a fast start is often determined by the quality of seed we put in the ground," says a Lubbock Extension area agronomist.

Robert B. Metzger of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service says that all components that make up quality seed are important.

"To an oil mill operator," he says, "it means a high grade which involves oil content, moisture, inert matter, and such. In planting seed, quality is determined by such factors as germination ability, varietal purity, foreign matter and weed seed content. So seed quality means several different things, depending on their end use."

Pointing to germinating seed, or highly vigorous seed, Metzger says that many times a high germination count from a standard test does not indicate that seed are strong or possess high vigor.

What are some of the plus factors in using high germinating, vigorous cotton seed?

Says the agronomist, first, the farmer can expect more rapid emergence and seedling growth. Second, these seed will be more tolerant to cold, wet soil conditions that frequently occur early in the spring.

In other words, vigorous seed resist seed decay and seedling disease associated with adverse planting conditions.

Other attributes of these seed are uniform seedling growth and low percentage of abnormal seedlings.

Many farmers may not realize the lint yields are associated with seed quality, the extension specialist says. A study by USDA engineers at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock which involved tagging of the earliest emerging seedlings produced from high quality seed were followed through to maturity. Metzger notes that these rapid emerging plants produced the bulk of the lint yield.

Frequently, a farmer knows he has poor germinating seed, but due to limited seed supply of a certain variety or for other reasons, he has little choice but to plant this seed. What can he do to help him assure a stand?

First, Metzger advises, he should delay planting until the soil is warm.

"On the High Plains we recommend planting cotton when the soil temperature reaches 60 degrees Fahrenheit for a 10-day average at the 8-inch depth. This is for average to good quality seed. Under no condition should poor quality seed be planted until this temperature level is reached.

"Fairly good stands can be obtained from relatively weak seed in late May or early June when germination conditions become more favorable.

"Other points that help us get up weak seed is to prepare a good seed bed, prevent soil crusting and avoid planting too deep."

Increasing the planting rate to compensate for poor quality seed also helps, if not carried to extremes, Metzger says.

The agronomist advised that treating seed with a fungicide is a good practice and certainly helps with seedling disease problems. However, producers should keep in mind that it is not a substitute for high quality seed. Seed treatment is especially helpful for weak or mechanically injured seed subjected to adverse planting conditions.

"We should remember that seed cost is a relatively small percentage of the total production cost," he adds. "It can become very costly when it contributes to replanting, slow seedling growth and skippy stand. Quality planting seed is the basic ingredient in a good cotton crop. It is just poor management to use anything less than the best."

Screwworms May Be On Increase

Livestock owners of the southwestern United States should redouble their efforts this spring to find, treat and prevent screwworm cases, since the livestock parasite is expected to reach record numbers due to the unusually mild winter just ended.

This warning comes from Dr. M. E. "Cotton" Meadows, Jr., director of the Mission-based screwworm eradication program of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Meadows also cautioned producers to refrain from livestock surgery or other man-made wounds to prevent screwworm infestations.

"Thirty per cent of all laboratory confirmed cases so far in 1974 have been collected from manmade wounds (dehorning, branding, docking and the like), and every effort should be made to prevent wound animals during the screwworm season," Meadows said.

The USDA veterinarian emphasized that the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association also solicits the cooperation of all livestock owners in an all-out effort to eliminate the screwworm fly. In a special resolution approved by the industry organization at its recent annual meeting in Dallas, all livestock owners of the southwest were urged to support eradication effort by:

1. Inspecting their animals frequently.
2. Treating all wounds with an approved product.
3. Collecting and submitting worm specimens to the Screwworm Laboratory at Mission, Texas, for identification. Positive cases then can be given sterile fly treatment, officials reminded.

Screwworm cases are off to a fast start this spring, with 23 new Texas cases confirmed last week from counties as far north as Brown and Haskell. Others reporting 74 cases last week were Atascosa, Brooks, Frio, Jim Hogg, Willacy and Zavala.

Total case tally for Texas thus far in 1974 is 78, while only 59 were recorded through the end of March a year ago. The U. S. total for 1974 now stands at 90, with California reporting 8 and Arizona, 4.

Series Of Interest Locally 'You Can Do It' Television

Knox County "do-it-yourselfers" will have their own television series with the start of a new program on K-TEX (Channel 12, Abilene) at 11:30 a.m., Friday, April 12.

According to Miss Nancy Fuhrken, Knox County Extension Agent, the new series, "You Can Do It!" is a 13-part, educational series on home care and repairs. "It is designed to teach viewers simple, money-saving care and maintenance techniques," she said.

Locally, the half-hour programs each Friday will be sponsored by Knox County Family Living Committee and K-TEX-TV. Created and produced by home economics specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas

A&M University System, through a special United States Department of Agriculture grant, "You Can Do It!" is being aired statewide on an alternating basis.

During the 13-week series, hostess Cindy Kidwell will teach lessons on how to repair leaky faucets, how to caulk and weatherstrip, and how to paint interiors and exteriors, Miss Fuhrken said.

"On the first program, viewers will learn how to do simple electrical repairs.

"Other lessons will teach viewers how to make toilet repairs and adjustments, how to repair walls, and how to care for wood finishes and carpets.

"The series also will include a lesson care and maintenance of ranges and refrigerators and a lesson on how to make storage space," Miss Fuhrken added.

Viewers are urged to check local program listings during the series for any changes in programming.

Energy Saving Methods Given To Lions Club

"We are a people who take comfort and convenience for granted," said Martha Harmon of the Lone Star Gas Company last Tuesday in introducing her program to the Munday Lions Club.

In times of supply and demand, we have reached an era where the demand is greater than the supply, she said, thus bringing about a national program of energy conservation. She presented a film, "Money to Burn," which showed varied methods of conserving energy in the home—by insulation of attic and outside walls in the home, weatherstripping of doors and windows, and proper use of kitchen appliances in order to conserve fuel. Many other ideas were presented to indicate that one can "save enough on fuel bills to take a vacation.

The speaker also pointed out the vast expansion methods, such as building additional pipelines, etc. to insure LoneStar's ability to supply gas when needed. She urged conservation methods, however, pointing out that "inexpensive energy is a thing of the past."

Thirty-one members and one guest, Joe Hughes of Wichita Falls, enjoyed this program.

GOREE: Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Brooks visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Massey, Phillis and Scott in Wichita Falls Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Brooks visited in Abilene on Monday.

Bill's Blabbin

By Bill Bowley

Why is it that sometimes without warning something that happened a long time ago pops into your mind. We remembered, just like that, that when we built our house some 18 years ago one of the visitors made a remark.

She probably doesn't even remember, but it hit us as rather funny. She said, "Well Bill I'll have to say you have made it look prettier on the inside than I ever thought you would, didn't know you had such good taste."

We could have resented that, but we knew she wasn't trying to insult us, she just didn't think how it sounded. Then on another time and place, even longer ago than 18 years, a friend was having coffee with us one afternoon.

We had served her coffee in our pretty blue flowered coffee cups and saucers, when we noticed one of them had a little chipped place. We were grieving over the fact when she said, "Don't worry about it, that is what you can expect from cheap china."

Then when we used to be telephone operator, some man called his wife from a place in town where he worked here, every night or so, until on Sunday, our Sunday to work, he came to the office to place his call.

He was waiting for us to get his call through when he asked us who we were. When we told him, this is what he said, "I thought you would be real pretty because you had such a pretty voice over the telephone."

Then we used to have a saying when anything happened that we didn't care that we wanted to be big and ugly anyway. Well that backfired too, cause our cousin's husband did something and his wife chided him and he said, "I don't care, I want to be big and ugly like Bill."

Could be very moot, as what we say don't always come out like we mean for them, so why not give everyone the benefit of the doubt, until proven otherwise. Right?

ABOUT YOUR SS
Persons receiving social security benefits can earn more in 1974 without having their benefit payments withheld than they could in 1973.

Henry Chustz, Manager of the Vernon Social Security Office, wishes to emphasize that the amount of earnings has been increased to $2400 in 1974. In 1973, the exempt amount was $2100. Anyone who receives social security payments and expects to earn more than $2400 should notify the social security office if he has not already done so.

Chustz also points out that if annual earnings go over $2400 in 1974, social security withholds $1 in benefits for each $2 in earnings above $2400. Additionally, no matter how much you earn a year, you can get full benefits for any month in which you do not earn $200 in wages and you don't perform substantial services in self-employment.

He also reminds those beneficiaries whose 1973 earnings exceed $2100 to file a report with the social security office on or before April 15. Late filing may result in a penalty in addition to the normal withholding of benefit payments.
