Odd Bits Salvaged
At Random

(By Aaron Edgar)

Postmaster Lee Haymes is going to be a mighty unlucky fellow, if we are to believe in those chain letter things that are being circulated.

Yep, chain letters are making the rounds again, and they're getting almost as many suckers as they did during the depression days.

They come piling into the local post office—and there the chain is broken, if Mr. Haymes or any of his helpers know anything about them.

Of course they can't examine every letter to see if it's a chain, but folks who write them on post cards are just plumb out of luck when they reach Munday.

They never get to the addresses. The chain is promptly broken, and the chain letters are disposed of and proper postal authorities are notified.

And this is all in the line of duty for postal authorities. Mailing of such "tripe" is purely a violation of postal laws, and violators are subject to punishment, although we've never heard of one being apprehended and punished.

And we've never heard of anyone getting filthy rich, or overstocked on some item, because of the chain letter. Here's how they're supposed to work:

Take the tea towel letter, for instance. That's the one P. M. Haymes showed us recently. There were about a half-dozen names on the card, and the idea was the person receiving the card was to send a tea towel to the first name on the list, drop that name, then add his, or her, name at the bottom.

If the chain went unbroken and you sent out six cards with six names on them, then by the time your name worked up to the top of the list you're due to receive a whole batch of tea towels.

And the sucker list grows and grows. The old jinx of breaking the chain seems to get the best of most of us.

But they don't bother Lee Haymes, p. m., a bit. He just breaks the chain, shoos the jinx out the back door, and makes a report to Uncle Sam's post office department.

And some poor Munday persons never know that they were a link in the chain—and are probably better off by not knowing.

We took part in a chain deal once! It called for real money.

That was back in the depression, and we needed some dough, just like everybody else did.

Then along came the four-bit chain letter deal, and it looked like the depression was over for all us poor saps in and around Wellington.

But we were to sell the letters, not mail them. We allowed our name to go on one for four-bits, then we made out our copies—about six or eight of them—and went out to try our salesmanship.

Everybody else was doing the same thing, so the consequent result was that we couldn't find anybody who hadn't already bought a letter and had a batch of them for sale.

We had to let the chain break, and we'd done had bad luck. We'd lost our money!

So we lost faith in chain letters, and we started looking forward to when Mr. Roosevelt would take office and get prosperity out from around that "Hoover corner."

As a matter of fact, the idea was bad on business, too. We possibly could have sold a lot more advertising for our boss if we hadn't put in so much time trying to sell our chain letter.

After that, the chain was always broken when it got to us, and the letter went into the wastepaper

Uncle Sam Says

Regardless of whether you approve the new look in fashion, every one of my nieces and nephews certainly is in the style with the new look in security. How do you acquire this kind of look? There are two great automatic plans, both sure and convenient: 1. If you work for wages or salary—join the Payroll Savings Plan for buying United States Savings Bonds regularly. This is the only installment bond-buying plan. 2. If you're in business, or a profession, or living on an income—sign up at your bank for the Bond-A-Month Plan.

WILDCAT SHOWS OIL

... May Develop Into Paying Field!

"That's oil in that thar hole!" That's the belief of everyone in this section, including the drillers, geologists, and everyone connected with the wildcat well that has been drilled on the ranch of Dr. A. A. Smith, about five miles southeast of Munday.

And it's a wildcat, too! It's such a wildcat that it hadn't been named up until Monday noon, at which time some suggestions were offered but no definite name decided on. Some suggested it be named the A. A. Smith No. 1 well. Others said it should be named the Bob Alexander No. 1, after the man who has worked so long in the belief that there's oil around Munday, and it should be developed. Holes have been punched before, some within a few miles of this well, and then rigs then moved away and oil talk died down. But every since Wednesday of last week folks have known there's oil in that thar hole. Arthur Smith, Jr., came back to town after visiting the drilling site, and he had a tobacco can about half full of oil. It's a British-American well, these people being chiefly interested in the wildcat and development of a field. Mr. Youngblood of the Ace Drilling Co. supervised the drilling and Mr. Douglas Helms of the Coffman Estate of Fort Worth has been looking after the Coffman interests. The drill bit broke through into lime at 5316-18 feet last Wednesday, with a showing of oil. The well is now down to 5333 feet—and it looks like a producer. Casing has been set and the hole cemented. Within a few days it will be determined whether a commercial well and a resultant oil field will be developed. Upon the basis of prospective oil, there's been some brisk trad-

City Election May Be Quiet; 3 Names Filed

City politics seems to take on its usual quietness this year, as only three names were filed for city office by the deadline, which was Saturday, March 6.

The city election will be held on Tuesday, April 6, at which time a mayor and two aldermen for the city of Munday will be elected.

Filing for re-election before the deadline were W. R. Moore, mayor, and Don L. Ratliff, alderman. The name of E. B. Littlefield was filed for alderman, taking the place of Alex Jones, whose term expires and who did not file for re-election.

Ballots for the city election are being printed this week.

Calf Feeding Program Closed For 1947-48

Knox County's 4-H calf feeding program for 1947-48 was brought to a close at the Wichita Falls auction sale where the boys received a total of $4,185.00 for their seven calves.

Prices ranged from $1.30 for the Grand Champion calf, of the District Show, down to 41c. Fred Lewis Crenshaw's calf brought $1.30, Buddy Crenshaw's calves brought 45c and 46c respectively, Max Bradley's calves brought 44c and 45c, and Tom Bush Craft and H. C. Chafins calves brought 41c each.

These sales brought the total for Knox County's calves to $11,035.00 for the year. Knox County boys also brought home a major share of the prizes offered, totaling $346.00 for the five boys with entries.

Excellent support and encouragement were given the 4-H boys on every hand.

The boys state that it took a lot of time, patience, and work to finish the calves, but they feel it was well worth their time; since they learned how to properly care for a calf, met and mixed with the leading stockmen, attended many educational shows, besides the monetary reimbursement. They are looking forward to another year; they hope as successful as this one.

Winter's Fury Halts Arrival Of Spring

Piggly Wiggly Is Observing Its Anniversary

M. L. Raynes and his corps of workers are celebrating! It's the end of their first year of ownership of the Piggly Wiggly grocery in Munday, having purchased the store from Sied Waheed a year ago. They've had an enjoyable year, and a right nice business during this time, and they're saying thanks to their customers with some specials which will be found elsewhere in this paper.

"Our year of business in Munday has been most enjoyable," Mr. Raynes said Wednesday, "and we appreciate the splendid patronage which our customers have given us. We assure you that we're going to continue to give the best service possible and sell you your grocery needs just as cheap as we can, giving you the advantages of any drops in prices which may come our way. Upon this basis we invite your continued patronage and good will."

V. F. W. Post Has Hospital Bed To Loan To Citizens

Don L. Ratliff, commander of the local post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, announced Monday that the post has been successful in securing a new Simmons regulation hospital bed for use if anyone in this area is in need of it.

This bed will be kept by the local post and will be loaned out free of charge as a service to those who need the bed during a period of illness.

Reeves Observe 89th Birthday

S. W. Reeves, well known Knox county pioneer, observed his 89th birthday on Wednesday, March 10, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leland Hannah of Munday.

Mr. Reeves has been seriously ill since suffering a heart ailment several weeks ago, and he received treatment at the Knox county hospital for several days. He was then brought to the Hannah home.

Because of his illness, no celebration was held. The event was only a quiet observance with a few relatives and close friends calling during the day.

Mr. Reeves came to Knox county in January 1904, and was engaged in farming here for a number of years.

Dr. Pepper Boys Returning Monday For Double-Header Game with All-Stars

More fun and an exhibition of basketball at its best will be furnished local fans next Monday night, when the original Dr. Pepper Boys return here for a double-header.

Those who saw last year's games with the Dr. Pepper bunch will be eager to see them in this return performance. They're tops at handling the ball and "looping the hoop," but they're going to have some tough games on schedule next Monday night. As an opener the Dr. Peppers will meet the strong Crowell all-

Old Man Winter touched all of this area with his icy fingers Wednesday of this week and definitely brought a halt to the arrival of spring, for which we'd all been planning a royal wedding.

This was our portion of the cold wave which came down from Canada, so they say, and was believed to be missing this area. It didn't miss, and we all humped our shoulders to take on the worst blast of winter.

Temperatures plummeted Wednesday, first slowly, then rapidly, and the mercury hit six degrees Thursday morning. Freezing rain, sleet, snow and a stiff wind added to the discomfort of the spell.

We're all hoping it's winter's last attack. Farmers have had but very little farming weather in 1948, and they're anxious to get started on 1948 farm operations.

Goree First To Top Quota For Red Cross

Goree was the first community in Knox county to surpass its quota in the 1948 Red Cross fund drive.

H. D. Arnold, Goree chairman, announced that the Goree quota had been reached on Friday, March 5. Workers responsible for the record, other than Mr. Arnold, are: Mrs. Jim Goode, Mrs. George Weber and Miss Berniece Goode.

Munday was the second town in the county to top her quota, as Mrs. H. A. Pendleton, local chairman, announced that Munday's quota had been over-subscribed last Monday afternoon.

Due to severe weather conditions since opening date of the drive, other points in the county had not reached their quota at press time Thursday, according to Wade T. Mahan, county fund chairman.

MUNDAY'S NEEDS FOR 1948

1. A modern and up-to-date high school building, to care for the present and future educational needs of our children.
2. A waterworks system that meets all requirements of health, sanitation and supply.
3. A street sweeper that will keep our pavement clean enough to be recognized as pavement.
4. A clean-up campaign of lasting effect; yea, one that extends even across the tracks.
5. Completion of our drainage and paving program, which will probably be accomplished this year.
6. More activity among our civic organizations, looking forward to, and planning for, a better Munday in the future.

FRIENDS AND ENEMIES

Fire has many friends. Defective heating equipment of all kinds is one of its best. So is defective electric wiring and appliances. Smoking materials and matches are well up on the list. Inadequate maintenance of homes and industrial buildings is another, along with attics and basements and closets stuffed with burnable junk.

Fire's principal enemies are knowledge and watchfulness. Proper precautions, most of which cost little in either money or time, will prevent about 90 per cent of all fires—and save 90 per cent of the 10,000 lives that fire destroys each year. One spark can start a fire that will ruin half a city—as easily as a fire which does minor damage.

It isn't surprising that fire did nearly $70,000,000 worth of property damage last year. We have been so careless, as a people, that it's a wonder the loss wasn't even higher. And the loss will go higher, in all probability, unless we shake off our lethargy, realize the extent of the danger, understand that it is of direct and immediate personal concern to us all, and get down to the job of banishing fire's friends.

IT'S RED CROSS TIME

Disaster strikes! Whether fire or flood, hurricane or tornado, or other catastrophe, the Red Cross is there, sheltering the homeless, feeding the hungry and providing nursing care for the injured. That is Red Cross Time!

The unfortunate, the ill and those in need know its ministering touch. The serviceman, the veteran, and their families see it in action. All know that in time of trouble they can turn to the Red Cross. Then, more than ever, it's Red Cross Time!

Created by the people, composed of the people, the Red Cross serves all people. No day passes without its help reaching someone in every community throughout our land.

To carry on its nationwide program of service, the Red Cross each year calls upon the American people to decide whether it has been a "good and faithful servant," and if so judged, to continue their support. Throughout the month of March the Red Cross is making its 1948 appeal to the public to help sustain its far-flung activities—activities that far every dollar expended bring five to tenfold return in human welfare.

No truer words were ever spoken than those uttered by President Truman when he said: "Many times a year the people turn to the Red Cross. Once a year the Red Cross turns to the people."

Let those of us who are fortunate enough to be on the giving rather than the receiving end, remember that it takes more dollars today to do a job equal to that of former years.

WHERE THE BLAME BELONGS

One aspect of the campaign to bring back price control has been to misrepresent, deliberately or otherwise, the role of the merchant in the price picture. It is unquestionably true that a great many people, who have not had access to the facts, believe that retailers make much more profit than they did in the days of OPA.

The Christian Science Monitor recently carried an article by a staff correspondent which said that the profits of retail stores have been cut to a "paper-thin margin by inflated wholesale prices on the one hand and customer resistance on the other." It cited the case of a grocer who observed that, "Under OPA, we were allowed a 25 per cent mark up. Today we are fortunate if we can clear 10 per cent." Wages, rent, and all the other overhead comes out of that mark up.

This is true of all kinds of stores, and of both independents and chains. The wholesalers and manufacturers, for the most part, are in the same rough spot. Volume of business may be big, but profits are being forced down and the general outlook is uncertain. In many cases the margin between an operating profit and an operating loss is dangerously thin.

Business is not responsible for high prices—it is, like the consumer, the victim of them. Government officials who charge otherwise conveniently overlook the fact that gargantuan government spending is still the strongest inflationary influence. It's time we put the blame where it belongs.

Fires Slow Down Efforts For Peace

Austin—"Fire is slowing down the peace effort in this country," said Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner, in commenting on Governor Jester's proclamation of Spring Clean-Up Week in Texas for April 4-10.

In urging citizens of this State to participate in this program by removing fire hazards from their homes, institutions and places of business, Hall said that fire was destroying valuable property, raw materials, foodstuffs and other materials vital to the recovery of this nation from a devastating war.

"Almost 550 persons were killed by fire last year," he said, "and nearly 21 million dollars in property was destroyed. The 1947 property loss was the highest in the history of this State."

Commissioner Hall hopes that every Texan will consider it his individual responsibility to cooperate in helping Spring Clean-Up Week to be a success and in preventing fires, to build an even greater and richer State.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Ben's Bride Gets Chickenhearted
Ben Ryder was mighty proud of his young bride when she offered to care for his new flock of baby chicks. "Just like a mother with her brood," he boasts.
Then came market time for fryers—and the crisis! Sue simply wouldn't let Ben near her chickens with an axe. She'd raised them as babes... she'd named them... they were her very own!
Ben poured himself a glass of beer, to think things over sensibly. He hated to lose the price on fryers... but he figured Sue had put up with his peculiarities, he guessed he could put up with her fondness for the chickens.
So now Ben has the nicest brood of laying hens in town, and from where I sit, one of the most successful marriages, too. All because he "lived-and-let-live"—literally. And whenever he wants fried chicken, he takes his bride over to Andy's Garden Tavern for a crisp wing and a glass of beer.

THE JOEFFROY "SOIL CONTROL CULTIVATOR"
The Plow of the Past REVOLUTIONIZED for TODAY!
The chisel-type cultivation of the Jeffroy "Soil Control Cultivator" is not new! In fact, the first plows of this type were made over 3,000 years ago by the Egyptians for farming along the Nile River. They used a sharpened stick, while in the Jeffroy machine, silicemanganese steel is required to stand present-day speeds and uses. Down through the ages many plows have been used and discarded, but the chisel-type plow has proved to have less draft, control erosion, and conserve moisture more effectively than any other plow invented!
★ Plows and cultivates the natural way. ★ Conserves the moisture. ★ Prevents blowing. ★ Stops erosion. ★ Cuts plowing cost in half. ★ Constructed to last a lifetime. ★ Pre-war prices. ★ Made in 4 sizes to fit your power: 7 ft. - 10 ft. - 13 ft. - 16 ft.
Hughes-Dayton Imp. Co.
The chisel opens the way for moisture to go into the subsoil for storage.
MOISTURE
Moisture penetrates farther, does not run off. Stubble and trash are worked into topsoil for more effective re-fertilization of the land.
MOISTURE
Disc-type cultivation leaves a smooth surface that quickly seals and causes water run-off.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Amazed At Price Of Steel Going Up When Hogs Coming Down, But Stays Calm

Editors note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is confused by the fall in farm prices, the rise in steel prices, his letter this week reveals. It's not the first time he has been confused.

Dear editor:

With spring weather here, temporarily at least as I still ain't been taken in too soon and it may be freezin again by the time you read this and think is a political year and a man is smart to start refusin to be taken in, though I imagine you and me both will be before the elections is over next summer, I was out wanderin up and down the banks of Miller Creek smellin the fresh air one day last week and noticed a copy of a daily paper lyin on the ground and since I was gonna bend over anyway to tie my shoe I went ahead and bent over and picked it up and took it to a sunny place and leaned against a tree and since the article was on the front page without me havin to turn any pages I went ahead and read it and I would like to have you answer a question.

J. A.

The article announced the big steel companies had raised the price of steel, which means the price of plow points and cultivators and tractors and trace chains and everything a farmer works with unless he's still usin a forked stick to plow with is goin up, yet for the last two weeks I been readin about the price of hogs and cattle and cotton and wheat and corn and everything else a farmer raises except thunder comin down. Now while I figured some folks wasn't gonna be satisfied to let the farmers stay on the upper end of the see-saw, do you think it's good business to let us down too fast?

My neighbor from across the creek says the things farmers ought to do is counter the steel price increases by announcin a increase in the price of corn and cotton and wheat and so forth, effective Monday, and while I agree with him, you reckon anybody'd pay any attention to us? It's a funny thing. A steel man can wake up some mornin, decide what with one thing and another he needs a little more money, and announce that the price of steel is now five dollars a ton higher, and everybody starts payin five dollars a ton more. Many grumble but they pay it, don't never occur to them they would do anything else. But a farmer can wake up some mornin, decide what with one thing and another he needs a little more money, and announce that the price of cotton is now five dollars a bale higher, but don't nobody pay no attention to him. When he hauls it to town, he gets what he was gettin the day before, maybe even less, and people would twirl their fore finger at their head about him behind his back if he explained he had just raised the price of cotton himself, since he produced it, don't figure it out myself.

The way I see it farmers is the only class on earth outside of animals in a bankrupt circus or some country just been taken over by Russia who don't know what they gonna get next, but they got a idea, which is one reason I don't farm no more'n I have to, although understand I wouldn't swap jobs with you.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Fixing Up the Farm by BURTON WILLIAMS

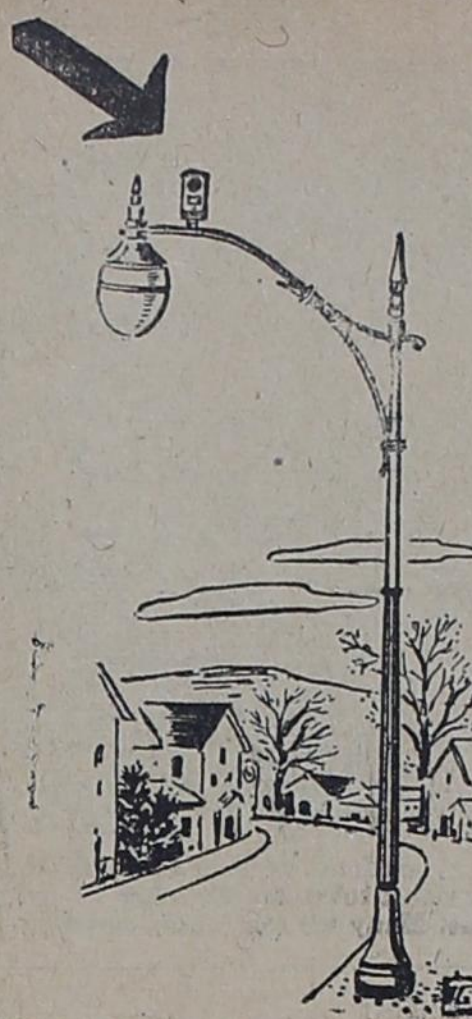

Building New Porch Steps
If your porch has wooden steps that are in poor condition, it may pay you to replace them with new concrete steps rather than undertake repairs. Concrete steps last almost indefinitely and constitute a permanent improvement to a house. They also are safe, since they do not become slippery in wet weather. Constructing forms for the steps should be easy for anyone handy at farm or household repairs. The simple illustration below gives a clear idea of how it is done.

Either 1-inch or 2-inch lumber is satisfactory for forms. They should be so built that the vertical distance between steps is about 7 or 7½ inches and the tread width of each step is approximately 10 inches. It is important that the forms be laid on ground that is level and firm.

Proper mixture of the concrete is essential. Recommended mixtures may vary with climates, so it is best to follow closely the directions of the cement manufacturer or your dealer. This procedure should produce concrete of a rather stiff consistency and containing sufficient mortar to make a smooth surface. When the concrete has hardened sufficiently in the forms to hold its shape, the forms may be removed. Uneven spots then can be filled and troweled smooth.

MIDDLETOWN, CONN. — Science takes another step forward from the old manual lamplighter by automatically controlling individual street lights. Sunswitch, engineered by the Ripley company here, is another industrial application of the "electric eye" and contributes in its own mysterious fashion to the prevention of crime and accidents by better lighting at lowered installation and operating costs. Unaffected by weather or temperature, Sunswitch turns "on" and "off" highway lights at exactly the right time according to foot candle value of daylight.

Sisters Reunited In California After 38 Years; Lived Within Block Of Each Other For Almost A Year

The following article concerning a former Knox county resident, appeared in a recent issue of the Marysville, Calif., Appeal-Democrat:

Two sisters who had not seen each other for 38 years were reunited in Marysville today after discovering they have lived within three blocks of each other for almost a year.

Monday was a big day for Mrs. Isis Dixon and her sister, Mrs. J. A. Gaines, both of Riverside avenue. On that date, the postman brought a letter to each of them from a sister in Texas, Mrs. M. E. Owens.

The letter contained addresses of the sisters. After a little "sprucing up" each started out to hunt the other.

Mrs. Gaines and Mrs. Dixon were separated in 1910. In that year their father died in Texas, where, both of them hail from, and it was at his funeral they said goodbye to each other, not knowing that it would be close to half a century before they would meet again.

They heard of each other's activities occasionally through Mrs. Owens.

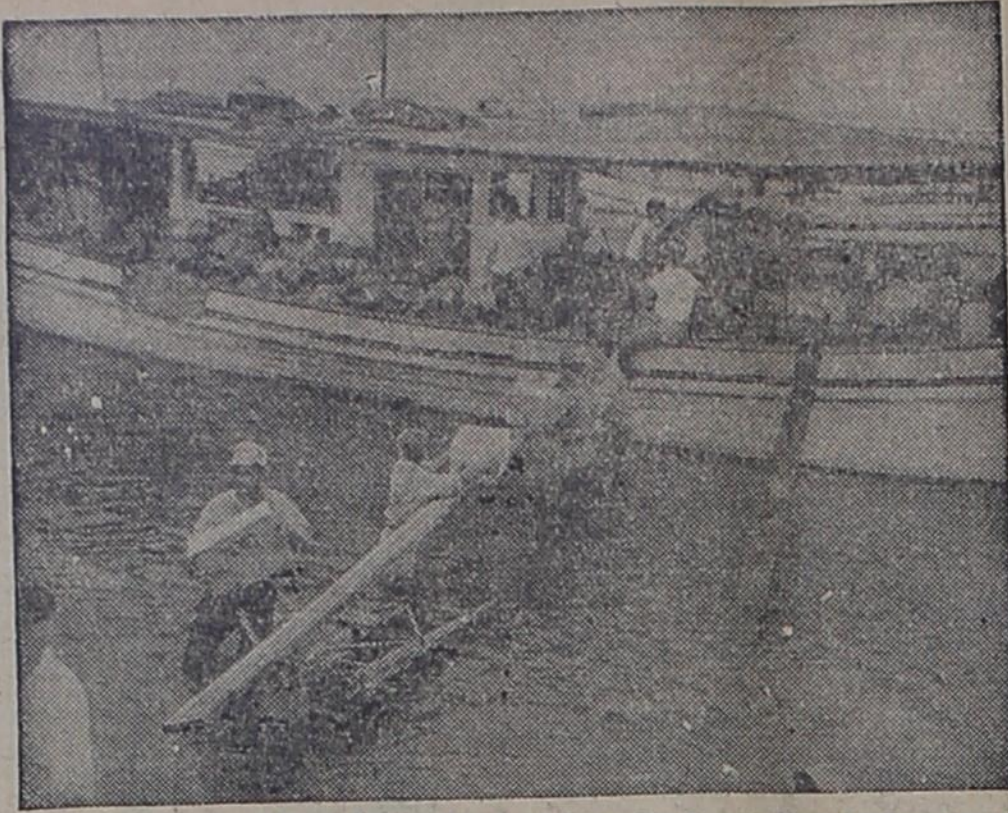

But they met for the first time since 1910, when Mrs. Gaines spotted her sister's house on Riverside avenue, Monday. Both have lived in the community south of Marysville since last July.

The sisters kidded each other a bit about "not being quite as good looking as you used to be," and then they settled down to get 38 years of activities straightened out.

Now that both are reunited, they've got members of the family located. Two sisters and two brothers live in Texas.

One of the sisters Mrs. Gaines hasn't seen since she was five years old. And that, she will tell you without batting an eye, was 51 years ago.

AFTER HURRICANE PASSED

A boatload of Red Cross food and medical supplies arrives at a gulf coast town shortly after a hurricane devastated wide surrounding areas. Many willing hands assist in bringing the supplies ashore.

That was the same trip that a fellow newspaperman imbibed rather freely across the Rio Grande and when he got back to the hotel, gave me his pocket book to keep for him. Next morning, he'd forgotten all about it; told me he'd been robbed and when I told him I'd be glad to make him a loan and he eagerly agreed, I pulled out his pocket-book and handed it back to him to his great surprise and delight.

Then there was another newspaperman and he had just raised the water bottle for a drink when the car hit a chug-hole and he almost strangled. We pounded him on the back and at last he gasped, "Don't tell anybody; they wouldn't believe it was water—or else they'd say I was so unused to drinking water that it strangled me."

Tragedy threw its shadow across the trip. In Del Rio, an attorney gave the address of welcome and we "fell to" on the barbecue dinner. An hour or so after the speech, the attorney was stricken with a heart attack and died.

At Sonora, there was a dance on a platform in the center of town and it was quite a scene to hear the fiddles going and see the cowboys clumping about the dance-floor in their high-heeled boots.

A citizen told a story of a shooting which he said taken place in the town's wild-and-woolly days.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—Pellagra, although not a communicable disease, is one of great concern to public health officials in Texas and other southern states. The disease is caused by the lack of certain essential foods, and as it comes on slowly, it may not be recognized until the victim begins to have the more serious symptoms such as sore mouth, stomach trouble, and reddening and scaling of the skin.

"When these symptoms appear, the disease has been present for some time," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. The longer an individual has pellagra the harder it is to cure. It is advisable, therefore, to watch for the early symptoms such as nervousness, indigestion, and burning and other fresh fruits and vegetables. Including these foods in the daily diet will prevent pellagra, and as in the case of any disease, it is much better to prevent it than to cure it.

Pellagra is not contagious and it can be prevented entirely by including the right kinds of foods in the daily diet. These essential foods are milk, fresh meat, whole wheat products, brewer's yeast, and salmon, as well as tomatoes

Almost 25 years ago, Brady sent out a motorcade to extend an invitation to the sheep and goat raisers to attend the convention which was to be held that year in that city and I went along, being in those days a young newsgatherer for the old Fort Worth Record.

Just as soon as the motorcade—consisting of about 20 cars with nearly 100 persons—came to a stop in the first town, somebody stepped out of the waiting crowd and asked, "Where is Boyce House?" When this had happened four or five times, the other motorcaders—none of whom had ever heard of me until that trip—began to be impressed.

Fact of the matter was, I had written to the mayor or Chamber of commerce manager in each town and said that if he'd see me and give me a few interesting facts about the place, I'd include it in

Former Gov. W. P. Hobby Will Direct Texas Cancer Control Fund Campaign During April

Houston.—Former Gov. W. P. Hobby, publisher of the Houston Post, has been selected state chairman of the 1948 fund campaign of the American Cancer Society.

His appointment was announced by Frank C. Smith of Houston, president of the Cancer Society-Texas Division.

Gov. Hobby will head a month-long drive for funds with which to carry on the Society's program of research, education, and service.

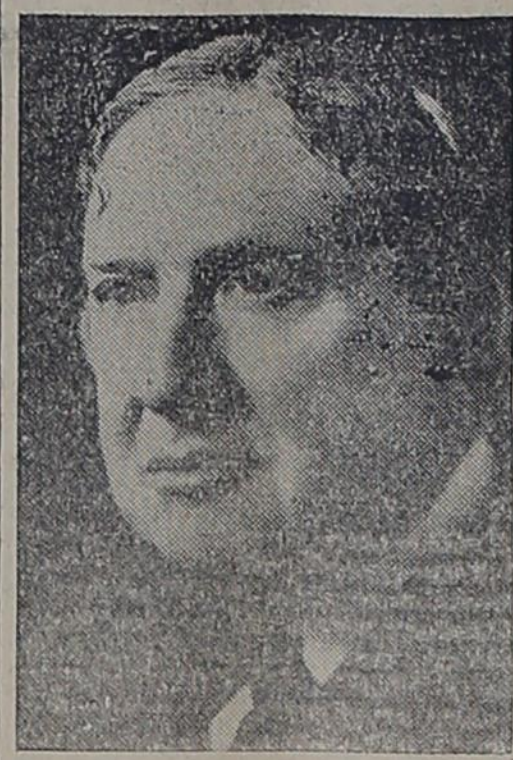

The campaign will open April 1, since April has been designated by an act of Congress as Cancer Control Month and thus is the official annual time for the American Cancer Society's fund gathering.

Governor of Texas during World War I, Gov. Hobby was executive officer at a time when woman suffrage became legal in the state, free textbooks were first furnished for school children, financial aid was given to rural schools, and a state budget system was first set up.

His newspaper career began with the Houston Post-Dispatch when he was 17—and when he worked with a reporter who later became famous as O. Henry. After serving as governor and as publisher of the Beaumont Enterprise, he returned to the Houston Post, as it is now called.

Gov. Hobby is an active civic leader and presently serves as chairman of the Houston Chamber of Commerce Highway Committee. He is a thirty-second degree Mason and a Shriner. His memberships in civic and social organizations include the Houston Country Club,

GOV. W. P. HOBBY

the Bayou Club, and the Houston Club.

An organization is being set up in every part of Texas with district and county chairmen directing the work leading up to the April campaign. Wallace Andrews of Houston has been named campaign director.

Addition of Howard Shannon, a willowy Texan, who back in 1943 shot the North Texas Teachers of Denton to a Lone Star conference championship and third place in National Intercollegiate tournament at Kansas City, has made Kansas State one of the nation's most powerful clubs. Shannon passes neatly, guards well and shoots beautifully from the top of a leap.

$10,000 Contest Is Open To State's Young Gardeners

Texas junior growers whose member won an award in the 1947 production and marketing contest of the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association will have another opportunity in 1948 to improve their stellar records.

In announcing the eighth annual contest, Prof. Grant B. Snyder of the University of Massachusetts, senior advisor to the association, points out that Texas boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 21 are now eligible to compete for the $6,000 in agricultural scholarships offered by A & P Food Stores each year.

"The annual contest, in which junior growers from 48 states participated last year, is designed to make the farmer more effective through improved production and marketing methods," Snyder said. "It takes on added importance during 1948 because of the association's pledge to President Truman to support the nation's food conservation program."

He pointed out that the contest is of special significance to Texas agriculture, which last year produced crops valued at $1,127,233,000.

Junior growers can enroll through their local 4-H Club leaders or agents and instructors in vocational agriculture or directly through Prof. Snyder at Amherst, Mass.

In addition to the production and marketing contest, this year's NJVGA program will again include the junior grower's annual demonstration contest or which funds are provided by David Burpee of the W. Cure For Shortage

Looking Ahead

OIL IS SAID to calm troubled waters. Oil is indeed the key to a good many problems, international and national. Right now there is not enough oil for all who want to consume it in this country, and some domestic waters are not calmed. Some of you have come smack up against this shortage of petroleum products. I hope you are not among those who have had the poor judgment to call for government rationing and control.

I have said in an earlier column that it was government bungling, along with the wastage of war, that laid the ground work for our current trouble in the petroleum industry. The result — our shortage of fuel and gasoline — is here. Now, there are those folks who get frightened, not having the long view of things, every time a slight economic dislocation rears its head. These folks usually holler for the government to do something.

Who's To Blame? OR THEY blame industry. In this instance the oil industry is no more to blame than you are. In fact, you are probably more to blame, especially if you are one of nearly a million householders who have installed oil heating since 1941. Or if you have anything to do with the almost 2½ million increase in motor vehicle registration since 1941. There are 35 per cent more trucks on the road than before the war. They haul food to you that is grown on farms almost 100 per cent more mechanized than in 1941.

All these things take oil. Railroads used 42 per cent more diesel fuel in 1947 than in the year before. Our greatly stepped-up industrial growth has been powered by oil and lubricated by petroleum products. Oil and gas have emerged as the main source of industrial energy. In 1920, coal accounted for 78 per cent of the total energy produced in this country, oil and gas 19 per cent. In 1946 it was: coal, 47 per cent; oil and gas, 47 per cent. (The miners' Mr. Lewis please note.)

What You Can Do THE OIL industry is therefore producing at top speed. Present output of the industry is more than the whole world required ten years ago. The demand is estimated by some oil men to be growing at the rate of 8 per cent a year! This is the kind of situation that government interference and price control can never cure!

Demand is a fine thing, for the whole industry. But there are problems. Oil men tell me it costs three times as much to put up a modern refinery as it did in 1936. They say total exploration costs are about four times those of ten years ago, and wildcat wells cost (per barrel discovered) five or six times what they used to. Then, of course, there's the problem of whether they can get the steel or materials at all.

If you are an oil consumer, you can help get the country through this crisis. You can do it by practicing honest-to-goodness Scotch economy this winter. This voluntary way will prevent government intervention and rationing, which would only make matters worse. Rationing would bring hoarding and ruin present fair distribution channels. The industry through enterprise will continue to put out the goods. Solving problems this way, America will continue to be a great and strong nation.

Hefner H. D. Club Meets Recently With Mrs. Hutchens

Refreshments were served to Mmes. J. E. Cure, J. T. Murdock, Turner Standlee, Homer Lambeth, Clarence Jones, Raymond Smith, George Weber, A. E. Smith, T. H. Jones, R. L. Lambeth, and the hostess, Mrs. Billie Hutchens. The next meeting will be March 16 in the home of Mrs. Turner Standlee. All members are urged to be present and visitors are welcomed.

He revealed that reinstatements of GI policies in the Dallas Branch Area (Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi) now amount to about 5,000 per month with a face value of approximately $30,000,000. This is the highest rate of reinstatement since the war ended.

1 of 3 School Child Deaths An Accident

Of every three children who die during school age, one of them is an accident victim.

And one out of three of these school-child accident victims is killed by an automobile.

These grim facts from the National Safety Council underline the "Watch Out for Kids" slogan of a national child safety campaign during March.

With the vacation season close at hand, many groups and agencies are joining forces to carry across the nation the warning that accidents are the deadliest killer of school children, worse even than nine common childhood diseases combined.

Seek to Arouse Adults The March program is aimed at adults, both parents and non-parents, in an attempt to awaken a greater sense of year-around responsibility for the safety of children.

"It's up to parents, teachers and youth leaders to see that youngsters know and obey the rules of safety, but that's not enough," said Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council. "Four thousand two hundred child traffic deaths in one year prove that it isn't enough. It's up to all of us to 'watch out for kids.'"

The Council asked drivers to remember these things:

1. Drive with extra caution whenever you see children (traffic accidents in one year caused 4,200 deaths and 200,000 injuries to children under 15).

2. Drive at a safe speed (more than half of the deaths and injuries were the result of children being struck down when they were pedestrians).

3. Keep clear of bicycles—right or wrong, they are defenseless against a motor vehicle (about one out of 10 of the deaths and injuries happened to bicyclists).

4. It's up to you to avoid youngsters on tricycles, roller skates, scooters, sleds and coaster wagons. Stop if necessary (one-fourth* of all 5 to 14 pedestrians were hit while playing in the street).

5. Be on the lookout for children darting from between parked cars; reduce speed and increase watchfulness in school zones and residential areas (half of all 5 to 14 pedestrians were struck when crossing between intersections or coming from behind parked cars).

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Huddleston of El Cajon, Calif., are the guests in the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Boqe.

From the cotton seed destroyed annually by insects in Texas, more than 50 million pounds of cotton seed oil could have been produced in the 10-year period 1937-47.
