Our little pig didn't win a blue ribbon. Red one, either!

We have made prior reference to Janie, our first and only 4-H Club project pig. She had no pedigree, but was selected from the farrowing pens of our daddy.

He gave us the pig with the understanding that, if we were going to enter this 4-H project, she was primarily and totally our responsibility. We would take care of her upbringing!

We agreed with enthusiasm, mainly because we didn't want our older brother to be the only one in the family with a pig project. We prepared for the necessary bookwork, such as the pig diet and expenses incurred in keeping her alive and happy.

A sort of nice boy-pig relationship developed between us and the little squealer! She'd lay on her side and grunt contentedly as we scratched her belly. She'd fly into a tantrum when she heard our voice calling her from afar as we came in from the cotton patch at noon-time and at night with an armload of luscious careless weeds.

That's one thing we could do on the farm - grow plenty of weeds for the pig's dessert. As we neared her place of confinement, she'd try "climbing the walls" of her pen and emit gusty squeals from hunger pains until we dumped the delectable weeds into her pen.

Finally, the time came to show our Janie. We think it was at the county fair at Memphis. We cared for her as best we could during the stay in the exhibit pen, then reluctantly agreed to place her on the market.

We had a lump in our throat and a tear in the eye as we said the final goodbye to Janie and left the exhibit area. Our dad took care of final arrangement for her sale and disposal.

We received a certificate from the county agent for keeping a good and complete record of Janie's care and expense!

So much for Janie! Recently, we came across another pig story that overshadowed our Janie relationship. It was written by Mike Kelley, columnist on an Austin newspaper. We extend our thanks to him, as we reproduce his story below:

A fellow was driving down the road, in farm country. As he passed a farmhouse, he idly glanced at the animals in the barnyard. Much to his amazement, he spied what appeared to be a pig with a wooden leg. Closer inspection proved this to be the case.

His curiosity winning out, the fellow pulled into the farmhouse driveway, knocked on the door and was met there by the farmer.

"Sir," said the motorist, "I regret to intrude, but I could not help but notice that you have a pig with a wooden leg and I am mightily curious about how that came to be."

"Son," said the farmer, "that is the most remarkable pig you'll ever set eyes on. You know, one day my children were playing out in the yard there, when a rabid dog leaped the fence and was set to attack them when that pig saw the event impending, threw himself between the dog and my kids and saved them from being bit."

"Well now," said the fellow, "that is indeed the most singular thing I have ever heard of a pig accomplishing. I suppose that is how your pig came to lose his leg?"

"And another time," the farmer said, "I was way out in the field yonder, plowing, when my tractor wheels hit a soft spot and the tractor tipped over, pinning me under it. No one could hear my cries for help but that pig, which came running out across the pasture. He burrowed a tunnel right under me, pulled me out and saved my life."

"That is astonishing," said the traveler. "That is an unprecedentedly noteworthy event involving a pig. Then I trust that is how your pig lost his leg."

"And there was another night," said the farmer without pausing, "about 3 o'clock in the morning, when my family

Munday Area Is Spared Worst Of Winter's Fury

It was "stay at home for comfort" weather in the Munday area for the most of last week, as light rain, mist, showers, sleet and snow prevailed for a period of about five days. Temperatures hovered in the 30's for high during part of this time.

Munday and Knox County were spared the worst of winter's fury for this spell, however, with scarcely two inches of snow falling during the period. It was just too uncomfortable to be out during most of the time - but the elements presented little moisture.

Moisture was not especially the "needed item" during the five days of inclement weather, as the county had already been blessed with sufficient precipitation for the time being.

Winter's fury was felt over all of Texas and a greater portion of the nation during the week.

Texas received a new governor in the person of Gov. Mark W. White (Democrat) Tuesday, January 18, as rain threatened to mar the ceremonies. Bill Clements, retiring governor, had already vacated the office and left the area.

Heavy snow blanketed a greater portion of the state on Friday and Saturday, causing highways to be closed for travel in the Panhandle, South Plains and West Texas, where a thick blanket of snow caused power lines to snap, roofs to cave in, and travel to be confined to snowmobiles. The Lubbock area was heaviest hit, with snow covering the countryside to a depth of around 17 inches.

Travel warnings were issued for the Wichita Falls area, the rolling plains and much of the Big Country.

Munday's snow came without much wind, without drifting and without the severity of the big storm. We had no heavy snow, a minimum of freezing rain, no power failures, no heat shortage, and the greatest discomfort was being semi-confined for several days.

Precipitation in Munday during the week amounted to .59 of an inch, falling on the following days: Tuesday .18; Wednesday .06; Thursday .10 and Friday .35.

Surplus Cheese, Butter Available On January 27th

Surplus cheese and butter for Knox County citizens will be given away on Thursday, January 27, 1983, from 3 to 6 p.m. at the community centers in Munday and Goree; also, at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Rhineland.

The commodities will also be given away at the community centers in Gililand and Truscott.

Due to the interest in this program, it is asked that the needy and senior citizens come by between the hours of 3 and 5 p.m. From 5 to 6 p.m. it will be on a first come, first serve basis.

Officials said you may sign for a physically disabled or handicapped person, or one who has no means of transportation, only.

Munday Youngsters Win Conservation Poster Contest

Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District poster contest winners have been announced by district directors L. D. Offutt, Charles Griffith, Clifford Cornett, Louis Baty and Billy Kinibrough. The directors stated they were glad to see so many good posters from the students who participated. Posters were prepared in Knox City, O'Brien, Benjamin, Munday and Goree schools under the supervision of classroom teachers.

The posters were first judged at each school and the first three places in each grade were sent to the district contest. District judges were Mrs. Sam Stone of Munday, Mrs. Hazel Long of Knox City and Mrs. Curtis Casey of Truscott.

Jay Donoho of Munday was named grand champion winner in the district contest. Kacy Longan, also of Munday, had the reserve champion poster. Jay is an eighth grader and Kacy is a fourth grade student in the Munday school system.

DISTRICT PLAY HALF OVER...

Moguls And Mogulettes Tie For Second Place

Haskell and Seymour were the winners for the first half of district basketball play, with both teams having perfect records. Munday's boys' and girls' teams both tied for second place in their respective brackets.

The Moguls had an easy win over Rotan on Tuesday, January 18, in the Munday gym. Johnny and Lawrence Collier scored 14 points each to pace the scoring, with Chris Moore adding 13.

The Mogulettes had to work harder against Rotan, coming back from a 16-point deficit to score a last-minute victory, 51-48. Lisa Myers led the girls with 20 points, and Darla Myers chipped in 18, with 19 rebounds.

Forceful Entry Into Dump Ground Is Major Offense

Walter Hertel, city administrator, is calling attention to everyone in a paid advertisement this week that breaking into the city dump grounds is a major offense.

"Persons involved in forcible entry into the dump ground will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law if apprehended," he said.

Entry was made into the dump ground either Saturday or Sunday, Hertel informed the Courier, by cutting the gate's lock with a torch.

The city is responsible to the Texas State Health Department for operation of the dump ground, Hertel emphasized, and is also responsible for complete compliance with the law.

GREG COVEY

County Hires New Deputy

Greg Covey of Knox City is the new deputy for the Knox County Sheriff's Department. He began his duties with the county last week.

Covey is a graduate of Knox City High School and is married to the former Gaylynn Burkham. He is a welder and will continue to devote a portion of his spare time to this trade. He has been a reserve officer with the Knox City Police Department.

Sheriff Gene Nix said Covey will begin peace officer certification school in March.

The girls were again successful at Hamlin in another tough game, winning 66-61 in overtime. Darla Myers scored a whopping 38 points with 18 rebounds, and Lisa Myers added 18 more points.

These two wins put the girls' record at 3 wins and 2 losses for the first half of district, and they tied with Paducah for second place behind Seymour.

The boys were 3-1 before their game with Hamlin, but could not come up with the needed win. The Pied Pipers defeated the Moguls 57-54, despite Johnny Collier's 26 points and 12 defensive rebounds. The Moguls locked with Paducah and Hamlin for second place in the district, each team having 3-2 records. Two teams from the district will go to the playoffs.

The Munday team faced Paducah here Tuesday night, and will host Seymour for four games Friday, beginning at 4 p.m. Then on Tuesday, February 1, they will travel to Haskell. Everyone is urged to go to the games and support the local teams, as the remaining district games are extremely important.

Date Set For Annual Fashion Show

"Fantasy of Fashion" will be this year's title for the annual Munday FHA fashion show, which is slated for 7:30 p.m. Monday, February 7. Mrs. Penny Winchester and 50 homemaking students are working on plans for the show, and feel it is shaping up to be one of the best ever.

These young seamstresses will model the garments they have made, as well as compete for the Barton Carl Clothing Construction award, which will be presented by M. C. Hurst of Hurst's Department Store, and the Ben Franklin award for the best coordinated ensembles in each of the three homemaking levels, given by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reid. Judging of the garments was done Tuesday, January 25.

In addition to the models, several entertainment acts will be featured. There will be twirling, skits, dance routines and a parade of fantasy characters, and the Munday kindergarten and first grade students will assist in these performances.

Ticket chairman this year is Julie Partridge, and she stated that ticket price is $1 for general admission, and there will be no charge for pre-school children. Tickets can be purchased from any FHA member.

Mark the date on your calendar, and make a special effort to attend and enjoy this evening of "fantasy" entertainment.

Area Youths To Show Animals At Ft. Worth

FIRST IN AREA is the title the tractor mechanics team can claim with pride. These boys represented the Munday FFA chapter at the Mid-Tex competition at Waco last week and achieved the honor of being the fourth place team overall and first in Area IV. They will go to the state competition in March. From left are Steven Smith, Tim Kuehler, Bryan Kuehler and Charles Fetsch, team members, and Greg L. Rawdon, team advisor.

Munday Tractor Mechanics Team Places First In Area

Munday High School's FFA chapter was well represented at the Mid-Tex Farm and Ranch Show Sponsored Contest held Wednesday, January 19, at Waco. Munday FFA's tractor mechanics team won first in Area IV and fourth overall in the bi-area contest, winning the right to represent this area at the state contest in Fort Worth on March 4.

In addition, Bryan Kuehler was seventh high individual for the entire competition.

Seguin's team was the top winner in the contest, followed by Elgin and Teague. Munday and Honey Grove tied for fourth place, and the tie was broken by virtue of Munday's team having the highest score on the components section of the contest.

The boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kuehler, Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Kuehler, and Mr. and Mrs. John Fetsch, respectively.

Rawdon said, "I am real pleased with the tractor mechanics team's performance at the contest, and we're glad to be representing the area at state competition. We would like to express our appreciation to Quality Implements in Munday for their sponsorship of the team at the Mid-Tex contest."

Local Officers Track Down Gas "Leak"

The few Knox County residents who happened to be outside about 5 a.m. Saturday, January 22, experienced an unusual phenomenon for this part of Texas. Natural gas fumes from gas plants in the Texas Panhandle drifted as far south as Haskell that morning.

Police Chief Gerald Saffel received the first report of a strong gas odor in the air at approximately 4:30 a.m. He notified Lone Star Gas Co. manager Leon Ivey, and the men, along with Sheriff Gene Nix, set out to locate what they thought must be a gas leak in Munday.

When Ivey checked local natural gas gauges and found them to be steady, the officers decided to check outside the city, and observed the gas odor was not confined to Munday. Reports from Knox City and Goree of suspected gas leaks were received almost simultaneously, and a third call from a Haskell County officer prompted Saffel and Nix to call the Texas Department of Safety headquarters in Childress to report the strange occurrence. Officers in Clarendon heard the conversation on the police radio, and offered an explanation for the gas smell, saying they noticed the odor often, being much closer to the plants. They confirmed that fumes from the gas plants can permeate the air for several hundred miles if the atmospheric conditions happen to be just right.

So if you woke up early Saturday morning and thought you smelled gas, you weren't imagining things. We can just be glad to not live in the Panhandle, where the unpleasant scent is an ordinary one.

The Parable of The Firetenders

Once upon a time in the land of Shadow, light was not easy to come by. It called for diligence and patience. Someone had to make sure a fire kept burning.

Everyone took his turn at this task, not because it was easy, but because it was so important.

As time passed, some tired of tending the fire, so others had to take their place. But that was alright because some really enjoyed the fire; it was warm there.

Then it became apparent that some were better than others at tending fires, so a custom arose to use only the best firetenders. Others held these folks in high esteem, often asking them to tell stories about every aspect of fire tending. Now that the best workers available were committed to the cause of Light, others could do the things they enjoyed more.

Eventually, fire tending became less important. Oh, it was still necessary, everyone knew they couldn't have light without fire. But as fewer and fewer people actually kept the fire burning, everyone lapsed into the easy assumption that another was doing the job. After all, someone always had. And so fire tending became unpopular. By now only the faithful ones who still remembered the "good old days" when everyone helped with fire, were left to do the job.

Alas, the day came when the fire went out, and there was no more light. Everybody scrambled to and fro trampling one another in the dark. No one had ever experienced darkness before. Hadn't someone always tended the fire? But this was different. You see, in the land of Shadow no one can start a fire.

Goree PTO To Purchase New Curtains

The Goree Parent-Teacher Organization is still in the process of raising funds to purchase badly needed curtains for the stage in the Wildcat gym. Proceeds from the concession stand at the recent volleyball tournament will go toward buying the curtains.

Kathy Boyles, PTO reporter, said, "We want to thank everyone who helped or donated their time or money at the concession stand, and also the Goree Homecoming dance committee for their donation. We still need $200 toward the purchase price, and will appreciate any donations."

Anyone wishing to donate to the fund may call Pat Peek at 422-5160 or Judy Lain at 422-5163.

JV Teams Defeat Rotan

The Munday junior varsity boys won their ninth game against only two losses last week, defeating Rotan 48-26. Scoring in the game was very well balanced with nine of the 11 players making points. Dent Offutt had 12 points and Kregg Sanders added 11 to lead the attack. Todd Thompson scored 6, Ronnie Brown, Scotty Jackson, Terry Shields and Frankie Stinnett had 4 each, Tim Collier had 2 and Robert Hemphill netted one point.

"We played better," Coach Bill Kingston said, "but we still have to work on our execution. We improved our overall offensive performance this game."

"We are very proud of our 9-2 record. This is an extremely talented group of players and we have been working toward more than just winning ball games. We've expected a lot from them, probably more than we would normally expect from a junior varsity team, but we know what they are capable of. A number of these young men will move up to the varsity next year, and they will be expected to carry their share of the load, so we are encouraging them to do a little more than just play well enough to win games. We want them to learn to play up to their capability."

The JV girls were also successful against Rotan, completing a clean sweep of Tuesday night's games. Their score was Munday, 28-Rotan, 20. Laura Myers had 10 points and Regina Jones chipped in 8.

Coach Dan Sloan said, "We played a very good game against a team that was much taller than our girls. We did an excellent job of playing man-to-man defense and were able to create 26 turnovers

Coach Redden Comments

We played well offensively against Rotan. Johnny and Lawrence Collier and Chris Moore led our scoring, and Quincy Adams and Paul Wright did a good job rebounding. Our bench got a good workout in this game, and helped us out.

We did not play as well as we should have at Hamlin. We were out-played, out-rebounded, just out-hustled.

We were down 18-6 at the end of the first quarter but came back later and had a shot at the win. We just didn't play well when we needed to. Johnny Collier had one of his better games, with 28 points and 12 defensive rebounds.

The fact that we tied with two other teams for second place in the first half of district play does not mean we are out of the playoffs. Two teams from the district will advance. Haskell is the first half champion, and if they win the second half also, the second place team will have a chance to redeem themselves at the bi-district level. If another team wins the second half of district, they will play a championship game with Haskell to determine the district winner and runner-up, but both teams will advance to the playoffs.

We are starting fresh now for the second half, and we certainly have a chance to win it. This is a well-balanced district, and just about any of the teams could capture the second half crown.

Crape Myrtle Trees Often Abused

Did you know the crape myrtle, the most popular small flowering tree for Texas landscapes, is the most abused culturally?

The crape myrtle is especially well adapted to Knox County. Often referred to as the "flowering tree of 100 days," it blooms for three months in the hot, dry days of summer when most plants can no longer be expected to add significant color to the landscape.

But the true beauty of the crape myrtle depends entirely on proper pruning methods.

First of all, avoid heavy pruning or dehorning. It's true, heavy pruning does promote large specimen-type blooms, but it distorts the most fascinating aspect of this plant - its unique form. So be selective when pruning.

For three-type specimens, remove all sucker-type growth at the base of the plant each winter. Also, remove weaker limbs within the center of the large, major branches which you're leaving. This tree form is especially desirable since it produces "sculptured" form, beautiful flowers and colorful foliage, making it a plant with year-round charm.

Crape myrtles grow to impressive heights, often reaching 15 to 20 feet or more. But once your tree has a desired form, pruning may then be done well above the unusual branching pattern.

Often homeowners and public ground keepers destroy the esthetic, year-round beauty of many plants by cutting them back to mere stumps. Once this happens, it becomes nearly impossible to keep any of their potential beauty other than the specimen-type flowers.

AT KNOX CITY-O'Brien Middle School, conservation poster contest winners were Karomy Sloan, at left, 1st place in fifth grade; and Kacye Nemir, 2nd place in sixth grade.

and I were asleep in our beds. A fire broke out in the attic. We weren't aware of it, of course, but that pig realized what was happening, flung his formidable porcine corpus through a window, woke us up and led us through the smoke to safety."

"Miraculous," gasped the stranger. "That is nothing shy of a bona fide phenomenon. And without a doubt, then, that is how your pig came to lose that leg."

"Son," said the farmer, a small tear glistening in the corner of his eye, "I'll tell you. A pig that is that intelligent, a pig that is that brave, a pig that is that loyal; a pig like that, you just don't eat all at once."

Sad, if true, don't you think?

Plans for the annual Munday Chamber of Commerce banquet are in the making at the present time, with both the date and banquet speaker being announced.

Outlook Good For Wood Products

Use of wood products will continue to increase for the next 30 years although wood use currently is slack due to a slowdown in the housing industry.

"Use of wood products will not only increase domestically, but exports to foreign countries should improve," says Dr. Mike Walterscheidt, forestry specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

The U.S. exported more than $3.5 billion in wood products in 1981, he notes. According to United Nations studies, world wood demand for other than fuel will double by the year 2000.

Primary world markets will be western Europe and Japan, with other potential markets in the Middle East and Caribbean area, notes Walterscheidt. The European market is expected to increase dramatically as wood use increases in houses. Most houses now are of masonry construction.

Japan currently accounts for about half of all U.S. wood product sales abroad.

Asian demand for U.S. wood products should continue to rise because the ready source of southeast Asian woods is being drastically curtailed, notes the specialist.

"The U.S. can be expected to meet increased world demand for wood products because it has large forest resources," says Walterscheidt.

This nation boasts 488 million acres of commercial forest land compared to 700 million acres in Canada and 1.9 billion acres in Russia. However, U.S. forest growth per acre far exceeds Canada and Russia, with total growth double that of Canada and nearly equalling that of Russia, the specialist points out.

"The southern U.S., including Texas, is in an enviable position as far as total worldwide wood production is concerned," says Walterscheidt. "We have some of the best growing conditions and most accepted timber species. Timber is and will continue to be a good investment opportunity."

Munday Debaters Place Third

Two Munday debaters traveled to Midwestern State University last Friday and Saturday to compete in the MSU Top of Texas Speech Tournament. Julie Dawn Partridge and James Tidwell, district debate champions last year, placed third in the tournament in the senior division.

Munday defeated Archer City, Pottsboro, and Hirschi High Schools on Friday to advance to the finals on Saturday. Munday lost its only debate to the Vernon High School team, who won the tournament.

These debaters will debate again in two weeks at Rider High School.

Coach Sloan Comments

We had two very exciting games this past week. They were two satisfying wins because we came from behind in both games and pulled them out in the last few minutes. Against Rotan, we were pretty sluggish the first half and found ourselves behind by a 30-18 score at halftime. However, with a few adjustments, we were able to come back and catch them for a 51-48 win. We hit a very good 40% of our shots from the floor, but only 41% from the free throw line. Rotan committed 25 turnovers to help us in our comeback. Lisa and Darla Myers carried our scoring threat for us. Our bench depth was very valuable in this game, as several girls came in and did a good job.

The Hamlin game was a little different, in that we jumped out to a lead and were still ahead by a 30-27 score at halftime. However, the third quarter was a bad one for us, and we found ourselves down by 12 points toward the end of the quarter. Again, we were able to catch them, and the game was tied at the end of regulation time at 59-59, then were able to defeat them in overtime by a 66-61 score. Darla and Lisa carried our scoring load for us again, with Darla hitting on 59% of her shots. Again, we hit 40% from the floor and a good 64% from the free throw line.

Our season record is now 16-5, and our district record is 3-2.

77-Year Old Resident No Longer Fuels Hungry Autos!

H. B. Stubblefield, 77, has fed fuel to "hungry" automobiles for almost 30 years, most of the time in the Munday area, but a recent stroke has forced him to relinquish these duties to others.

A resident of Knox County for 62 years, Stub has rubbed shoulders with many people during this time, having spent quite some time in the employ of International dealer before going into the service station business. He came to Knox County with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stubblefield, in 1920, and they lived on the farm until their death.

Stub first became associated with International in 1934, when he became employed by Fred Broach at Broach Implement Co. He remained on the job after Mr. Broach sold to Neil Chastain and still after Chastain sold the business to Claude Rodgers, who now lives in Odessa.

Stub then was employed by Egenbacher Implement Co. in Knox City for a time.

It was then he decided to enter business for himself, becoming engaged in a business that has kept him occupied for 28 long years, off and on. He operated his Stub's 66 Station on Highway 277 just south of the signal light in Munday for many years. For a time, he also owned and operated the other 66 station, which later became known as Pat's 66 Station. He was also associated with Bob Brown in the Munday Tire and Appliance for a time.

Disposing of his local sta-

H. B. STUBBLEFIELD

... Reclining wasn't his idea. He'd rather be servicing automobiles.

tion, he joined his son, Hilton, in a service station in Irving. He said this operation became almost more than both of them could handle. The business was grossing 30,000 gallons per month when Stub and Hilton took charge, and in 2½ years of operation the business had increased to 90,000 gallons per month.

But Munday remained home for Stub and Letha, and they returned to the old home town after disposing of the business in Irving. Stub purchased the Humble station in Munday, which was later changed to Exxon.

After suffering a light stroke in November, Stub spent a week in the hospital in Haskell and another in Abilene before returning home. He soon learned that his health would not permit him to "stay in the harness" at his service station. He sold the station to Ron Laney, who is Exxon distributor at Seymour, and spends most of his time in his easy chair at his home at 361 S. 9th St.

During his business career, Stub has held membership in the Munday Lions Club and the Munday Chamber of Commerce, his interests being in the welfare of his town and community.

Stub insists that he is not retired - that illness has forced him to quit. He still entertains the hope, however, that he may be permitted to become active again, and that his business association with people of this area, that has spanned a period of almost 50 years, has not been terminated.

Farmers Union Head Doubts Usefulness Of PIK Program

Individual farmers and ranchers should sharpen their pencils and calculate what advantages there may be in participating in the Reagan Administration's "Payment-in-Kind" program, for which the farmer sign-up begins next week, George W. Stone, president of National Farmers Union, said here today.

Speaking at the annual convention of the Texas Farmers Union, being held at the Austin Marriott Hotel, Stone observed that "Each farmer will have to make his own decision about what makes sense in his operation, but this ought to be considered in the light of the desirability of reducing stocks for which there is no immediate market."

The Farmers Union official said that if there is heavy participation by wheat, feed grains, cotton, and rice producers, "it could result in some appreciable price increases by mid-1984."

"The tragedy is that price help is needed right now and the new program admittedly will not do that," Stone explained. "If Congress and the executive branch do nothing now about low prices, some farmers will have difficulty getting refinanced for the 1983 crop year and others may not be around for the 1984 season."

Stone noted that because of the lateness of the program and the fact that not enough farmers have sufficient understanding of it, participation may be rather spotty.

He recollected that a "Payment-in-Kind" approach had been tried before, as part of a special agricultural conservation program for feed grains in the years 1961 through 1965.

"At that time, farmers were given the option of taking their diversion payment in cash or in kind," he continued. "Most farmers chose to take the cash payments and only a handful of farmers took the in-kind option."

Stone commented that a cash payment program would have been much more effective, would have assured more participation, and would have been much simpler to understand and to administer.

"The problem is that the program is motivated more by reducing government farm program outlays than by achieving a substantial price improvement for farmers," he added.

"Congress ought to legislate at least a 10 percent increase in the already-announced CCC loan levels for 1983 in order to offset the price damage which will occur in forcing vast quantities of surplus products into an already demoralized market," he concluded.
