EDWARDS IS COACH OF THE YEAR

Munday Players Named To All-State, All-Area Teams

Greg Urbanczyk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Urbanczyk, has been named to the Class A All-State football team by the Texas Sports Writers Association. Greg, a senior at Munday High School, was selected as a first team defensive lineman.

He was also one of six Moguls chosen by the Abilene Reporter News for the all-area squad. Munday, Colorado City, Sweetwater and Hamlin dominated this mythical team which was composed of players from all classes in the Big Country. Munday's Jim Edwards was named Coach of the Year in the area, and Jim Earl Dockins won Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Todd Thompson was named one of two all-area running backs, and Dockins and Urbanczyk were selected for the defensive team as linebacker and lineman, respectively. Second team picks include Neil Waggoner, center; Hollis Adams, defensive lineman; and Dent Offutt, defensive back.

Urbanczyk and Dockins are seniors, and the other players are junior students. Parents of the honorees are Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Urbanczyk, Mr. and Mrs. David Dockins, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Waggoner, Alvin Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Offutt.

Varsity Basketball Games Are Tonight

The Mogul and Mogulettes will play Weinert on Thursday (tonight), January 24, in the Munday High School gym. The game date was changed from Friday to Thursday.

Baptists Gain New Minister Of Music

David Williams is the new minister of music at the First Baptist Church in Munday. Rev. Jim Way, pastor, announced this week that Williams will begin his duties here on February 10.

A native of Cross Plains, Williams is 37 years old and has been associated with the Old Alton Baptist Church in Denton. He recently earned a degree in religious education from Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth.

Williams' wife, Larue, is also a Cross Plains native, and they have two children, Darren, 10, and Shona, 8.

Rev. Way commented, "We are very glad to welcome David and his family to Munday and our church, and we are looking forward to working with him."

Vegetable Festival Committee Reschedules Annual Activities

Officials of the Munday Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture and the Knox County Vegetable Festival have announced that this year's festival date has been changed. The festival will be held on Saturday, June 22, which is one week earlier than originally planned. The beauty pageant will be held on Friday, June 21.

Other events to be held in conjunction with the Vegetable Festival are a parade and promotion day on Friday, June 14, and the jail, which will house offenders on June 14 and 21.

Persons interested in participating in the vegetable exhibit, the baking and canning contests and the arts and crafts display should be considering their entries, and those who will sell art or craftwork need to begin working so they will have plenty of items on hand by the day of the sale.

Committee chiefs are urged to plan details for their divisions in advance so the general chairman and publicity chairman can get some idea of what is being accomplished. Anyone who is interesting in assisting with any facet of the festival is urged to call Paula Schur or Cindy Thompson, and they will give your name to the chairman of whatever area you wish to help. Volunteers made the festival a great success last year, and it is hoped that even more people from throughout the county will get involved this year.

Sign Up For 1985 Farm Commodity Programs At ASCS

In an effort to control excess crop supplies and maintain a better balance between supply and demand, the ASCS is still accepting application for the 1985 Feed Grain, Wheat and Cotton reduction programs. The sign-up ends March 1, 1985.

Farmers who meet the acreage reduction requirements will be eligible to receive price support loans and target price protection, in addition to land diversion payments for wheat and cotton.

By reducing planted acreage and production, farmers minimize the possibility of a return to excess supply situations and low prices, and also maintain a level of stocks in line with market demand.

The 1985 commodity programs call for a 30% reduction in wheat and cotton, and a 10% reduction in feed grain. As a part of that reduction, program participants will receive payments for diverting 10% of the wheat and cotton bases. Farmers may request at sign-up, one-half of the land diversion payment and one-half of the projected 1985 deficiency payment for cotton, feed grains and wheat.

Cropland idled by the programs is placed in an acreage conservation reserve (ACR) and planted to certain grasses, legumes or small grains or maintained in other cover to prevent soil and water erosion. The contract also requires farmers to maintain these acres through normal control measures for insects, weed and rodents. Harvesting ACR land is prohibited, and grazing is prohibited during the principal growing months of May 16 through October 15.

Gas Rates Increase In Munday Area

The Railroad Commission has allowed new gas rates for customers of Lone Star Gas Co. in the unincorporated areas (environs) surrounding Munday, Temple and Lakeview.

The new rates are identical to those approved by the respective nearby city governments for customers inside their corporate limits.

In the environs of Munday, an average monthly residential bill for six Mcf (thousand cubic feet) of gas will increase by $4.91. The change was effective January 10.

The railroad Commission has the authority to approve rates for gas service in unincorporated areas of Texas. Proposed gas rates for these areas are examined in light of the company's operating efficiency and the rates that have been approved by the nearby city governments.

Citizens Plan Austin Trip To Question HB 72

Several Munday citizens are planning a trip to Austin on February 12 to meet with area legislators to discuss changes they feel are necessary to the education reform action called for in House Bill 72.

Several groups around the state favor returning policy decisions on absences and extracurricular activities to the individual school systems. Other measures concerning passing and failing situations in elementary school are coming under close scrutiny by parents and educators alike. A great deal hinges on how the new rulings are interpreted, according to school officials.

Local citizens who are interested in joining in this effort will meet in the Munday Chamber of Commerce meeting room at 7 p.m. Monday, January 28. The group will choose a spokesman to air their views to our state representatives during the meeting in Austin.

Parents and other individuals who are not pleased with the new school bill and feel many of these issues should be addressed are encouraged to plan on making the trip. A solid group effort is important if any success is to be met, and it is hoped that both citizens and legislators can gain a better understanding of the reform action, how it will affect our school children and how parents feel about the changes.

Anyone wishing to learn more about the trip to Austin and why persons in charge feel it is necessary should attend the meeting Monday night. For additional information or if you cannot attend the session, call Cindy Thompson at 422-4938, Pam Nelson at 422-4143 or Juanita Nelson at 422-4774. These ladies will be glad to explain their reasons for questioning the parts of the bill they will bring up before the legislators.

Basketball Teams Rack Up More Wins

Munday boys' and girls' varsity basketball teams upped their district records to 4-0 last week with wins over Benjamin and Knox City. Important games with Goree took place on Tuesday after the paper went to press, and this wrapped up the first half of district play. The teams will host Weinert on Thursday, January 24, in a change from the usual Friday night games to accommodate the Haskell County Livestock Show. Next Tuesday, January 29, the players will travel to Rochester.

The Mogulettes defeated Benjamin 79-39 behind the 16 point efforts of Janet and Laura Myers. Ann Kuehler contributed 14, and Holly Hutchinson followed with 11. The Moguls came up with a 94-43 win with Dent Offutt scoring 18 points, Gregg Sanders, Anthony Stinnett and Tim Collier canning 16 each and Reggie Tucker adding 12.

Before a large crowd in an overheated gym, the Mogulettes were 48-29 victors over the Knox City Houndettes. Janet Myers had 11 points and Holly Hutchinson and Laura Myers scored 9 each. The girls had to overcome a slow start, as did the Moguls, who outscored the Greyhounds 81-50. Frankie Stinnett topped the scoring list with 19. Gregg Sanders had 15, Tim Collier 13, Dent Offutt 12 and Anthony Stinnett 10.

The junior varsity girls lost to Knox City last week by a score of 23-21. Eva Escamilla paced her team with 8 points. After losing to the Knox City freshmen by more than 20 points two weeks ago, the Munday ninth grade boys came back for a 26-18 win over the young Hounds last week. Jo-Jo Stinnett, Trey Thompson and Ricky Taylor had six points each. The seventh and eighth grade boys' teams lost their

Tests Part Of Graduation Requirements

One of the most significant changes to result from the new education laws is the requirement that students pass special English and math tests in order to graduate in 1987.

Doug Donoho, Munday High School principal, has announced that beginning in October, 1985, these tests will be administered to eleventh grade students. Pupils who do not pass both the English and math tests will have opportunities in May, 1986, and in October and May of their twelfth grade year to pass them. They may continue to retake the tests after their normal graduation time until they pass, at which time they will receive their diploma.

Therefore, next year's juniors must pass all the required courses as well as the English and math tests in order to graduate in 1987. But the tests will first be given during their junior year, so those who do not pass the first time will have one more chance as a junior and two opportunities during their senior year to pass the exams.

English and math objectives to be tested will be taught in the classrooms before the tests are given. Parents of students in the eighth, ninth and tenth grades this year have also received copies of the objectives so they will understand what their children must learn in order to graduate, Donoho said.

Trustees Accept Construction Bid

Munday school trustees have awarded a construction contract to Benchmark Construction of Abilene for work planned on local school buildings, according to superintendent Doyle Lowrance.

The school board met Tuesday, January 15, to open and discuss six bids for remodeling the elementary school and adding classrooms and a band hall on the high school campus. The low bid was $726,733.

Lowrance said work on the school will probably begin around the first of February.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN for the 1985 Knox County Vegetable Festival met last week to begin making plans for the June festival. They changed the date originally set to June 22. Among those persons attending the meeting were David Tunmire, Bobby Sosolik, Cindy Thompson, Jim Dillon, Callie Ann Combs, Betty Kramp, Jane Locknane and Floyd Reed.

contests with Knox City-O'Brien squads, 47-14 and 43-18, respectively.

In the girls' tournament held here last weekend, the Goree team won the championship game over Munday's eighth grade in a low-scoring 12-9 game. Benjamin won the consolation prize by defeating the Munday seventh grade 32-3. In the first games, the Munday eighth graders beat the seventh grade team 33-10 behind Margaret Harlan's 14 points, and Goree defeated Benjamin 23-21. Castorena scored 12 for Goree and Harris had 10 points. Francene Redder of Benjamin led scoring with 15 points.

The sixth grade purple team defeated the gold team 16-10 in a good game for these youngsters. Scorers on the purple team were Christy Williams 8 points, April Offutt 4 and Kacy Longan and Dixie Reid, 2 each. Angie Offutt had 9 and Tessa Kiser had 1 for the gold team.

Munday junior varsity teams will host an all-day tournament on Saturday, January 26, in the local gym. These players will end their season at Knox City February 5. Munday and Goree sixth grade squads will meet at 5 p.m. Monday, January 28, in Munday, and seventh, eighth and ninth grade teams will play Stamford on Thursday, January 31, with girls' games being played in Munday and the boys' contests in Stamford.

Coach Burks Comments

We were successful last week in both our games even though we were trying some new things. At Benjamin we worked on a new press, new offense and some defensive changes. Everybody got some playing time, which is another important factor in our game plan.

We ran seven different presses against Knox City. We are getting better at changing our defense, and we shot well from the free throw line in both games. Our second team, Regina Jones, Ann Kuehler, Gwen Stinnett, Donna Welch and Mary Jane Kuehler, came in early in the game and got the ball rolling when the starters were a little sluggish.

We have been working on the things we need to practice, hoping it will pay off at the right time. The two games with Goree are probably the most important we will play in our district race.

Our scoring is not outstanding, but it is well balanced. Janet Myers is leading with a season average of 12.6 points per game. Holly Hutchinson is second with 9.9, Laura Myers is close behind with 9.2, and Kelli Smith is scoring 8.2 points per game.

Coach Milson Comments

Our game at Benjamin marked the second time we had played in a small gym, and we did very well in adjusting to the size difference. We played a good game and cut our turnovers down to nine, although we were disappointed in our free throw shooting; we went 10 of 24, which is only 40 percent, much lower than our past games.

Dent Offutt led in assists with 8 and Frankie Stinnett had 5. Tim Collier was credited with 6 steals and 11 rebounds, and Kregg Sanders had 8 rebounds. Dent, Kregg, Anthony Stinnett and Tim all shot 50 percent or better from the field in this game.

Against Knox City, we made too many turnovers and did not improve on our free throws. We made some mistakes early in the game and got a little rattled, but once we settled down we played well against their press and were able to control the game. One big factor was our out-rebounding Knox City 54-25. We were a stronger team than the Greyhounds, and think much of this strength is a result of our daily weight program.

Our freshmen boys played a great defensive game against Knox City last week. They are really coming along on the man-to-man defense. Ricky Taylor came in during the last quarter and sank six important free throws to help with the win.

THIS VEHICLE belonging to Donnie King caught fire at Ralph's Auto Repair early Saturday evening, bringing firemen out into the cold air caused by a front which had come through the area just a few hours before. The car had been brought into the shop for some work, and it was reported that the entire engine burned.

The 12-week program will begin February 12. Enrollment is limited to the first 25 persons to register, and there will be two classes, each of which will meet once a week. Meetings are planned for 1:30 p.m. Tuesdays in Munday and 7 p.m. Tuesdays in Knox City.

DAVID TUNMIRE, COUNTY AGENT

TOP DRESSING OF WHEAT
The time to consider top dressing of wheat will be here soon. There may be some questions whether or not a producer should top dress in spite of the very probably low price.

Al Alexander, Extension Agronomist, points out that it takes approximately two pounds of nitrogen for each one bushel of wheat produced. To produce a 25 bushel wheat crop would require a total supply of 50 pounds of nitrogen.

Split applications of nitrogen have shown a yield advantage of 6.7 bushels over eighteen years of data from Baylor county. A split application means 1/3 to 1/2 of the nitrogen is applied pre-plant and 1/2-2/3 is applied in late winter or early spring prior to joint stage of wheat.

With a 1/3-2/3 split of 60 pounds of nitrogen priced at 25 cents per pound, the total cost of nitrogen would be $15.00 per acre. This would break down to $5.00 in the fall and $10.00 in the spring. With a 6.7 bushel per acre yield increase due to top dressing, with $3.00 per bushel wheat, the additional wheat would be valued at $20.10 per acre. After subtracting in cost of fertilizer applied in the spring ($10) this gives a return of an additional $10.10 net per acre.

Ronnie Simmons of Gilliland is presently conducting a demonstration to evaluate split applications of nitrogen. Plots with 40 and 80 pounds of nitrogen applied at 1/2-1/2 split are being compared to plots with equal amounts of nitrogen applied totally at pre-plant. The plots are located just west of Simmons' house on FM 1756.

Top dressing should be completed prior to first joint or the beginning of the rapid growth stage of wheat development for best response. For many varieties, first joint stage normally occurs between March 1 and 15. A node or joint can be felt on the main stem at this stage.

VEGETABLE CONFERENCE TO HELP GROWERS SEE OPPORTUNITIES

The annual conference of the High Plains Vegetable Growers and Shippers Council is set for Tuesday, January 29 in Hereford. This educational conference begins at 8:30 a.m. at the Hereford Community Center, 100 Avenue C at Park Avenue and adjourns at 4:30 p.m. The $5.00 registration includes a barbecue lunch.

Conference participants will hear the latest information on new potatoes for Texas, growing bell peppers with field-grown, bare-root transplants, disease controls, the Tex Fresh promotion program and the field grading and packing of onions. Other programs will include market development for Texas potatoes, LEPA irrigation for onions and potatoes, growing herbs, closer spacing and overwintering of onions, and how vegetable growers will be affected by the new pesticide regulations.

Co-sponsors with the Council are the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Deaf Smith County Vegetable Crops Committee, Texas Tech and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Range Weed Control May Be Critical Problem In 1985

Last year's drought followed by abundant fall rains has set the stage for a serious weed problem on Texas ranges in 1985.

Loss of grass cover during the extended drought provided an opening for many weed species, points out Dr. Tommy Welch, range brush and weed control specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The rains that followed will provide sufficient moisture for weed germination and growth. Winter annuals already have germinated and are currently in the rosette stage.

A dense infestation of weeds will significantly reduce production of desirable forage on rangeland, notes Welch. In addition to loss in forage production, some weedy plants are poisonous and cause considerable livestock losses.

Although poisonous plants are found throughout the state, some of the most serious problems occur in the Trans-Pecos region of Texas. Poisonous plants are more abundant this year because of the weather - drought followed by rains.

Most weeds can be controlled with herbicides, a practice that will produce substantial returns, Welch points out. Research and weed control result demonstrations have shown that grass production will increase substantially when unwanted broadleaf plants are controlled. In most cases, a pound of grass has been produced for every pound of weeds controlled. Also, control of poisonous plants will reduce livestock losses.

If a weed problem is identified early in the season, herbicides can be applied when control will be most efficient and economical. Thus, ranchers should check their ranges for weed infestations in January and February.

Annual weeds easy to control with properly timed herbicides include annual or common broomweed, camphorweed and bitter sneezeweed. The herbicide 2, 4-D will easily control these plants when they are small and growth conditions are good, Welch explains.

Herbicide mixtures are available for plants that are more difficult to control, including many poisonous plants. These mixtures are available as the commercial formulations Weedmaster (1:3 mixture of dicamba and 2, 4-D) and Grazon P+D

(1:4 mixture of picloram and 2, 4-D). Also, Banvel (dicamba) or Grazon PC (picloram) may be tank mixed with 2, 4-D.

If ranchers are concerned about having weed seeds as food for wildlife, they can use herbicides with this objective in mind. An early application of 2, 4-D will control early germinating annuals such as annual broomweed but will allow later germinating croton and snow-on-the-mountain to survive. Also, ranchers may want to apply herbicides so as to leave untreated strips, adds Welch.

Abilene Cotton Classing Report

Local cotton prices were weak to mostly steady in slow trading during the week ending January 18, according to B.B. Manly, area director of the U.S.D.A. Cotton Classing Office in Abilene. Cotton sold at 200 to 650 points over CCC loan values, mostly at around 500 points over the loan. Grade 42, staple 31, 35 to 49 mike cotton sold at 51 1/2 to 53 cents per pound. Cottonseed prices paid farmers ranged from 85 to 105 dollars per ton.

Producers made good progress harvesting cotton in areas north and northwest of Abilene. In some areas the harvest has been practically completed with the exception of scrapping operations. About 19,000 samples were classed last week, which brought the seasonal total to 168,000 classed.

The quality of cotton classed during the past week was slightly lower than that of the previous week for several quality factors. Grades have been 31 percent white and 66 percent light-spotted this season. Less than three percent has graded as spotted in spite of an unusually high amount of rain fall during the harvest season. Grade 42 accounted for 35 percent of the samples classed this season. Twenty percent were grade 52, 14 percent were grade 51, and 13 percent were grade 41.

About 32 percent of the total classing have been reduced in grade because of bark or grass content. About 76 percent have miked 35 to 49, and the average mike has been 37.4. Fiber length has averaged 32.1, with 25 percent staple 31, 24

Holiday Wedding Unites Miss Shawver, David Ball

Amid a setting of Christmas greenery and poinsettias, Miss Joy Shawver became the bride of David R. Ball at six o'clock in the evening on Saturday, December 22, 1984, in the Bethany Baptist Church in Breckenridge. Rev. Charles West, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Tony and Brenda Shawver of Munday and Ralph and Rachel Ball of Breckenridge.

The church was lavished with poinsettias, wreaths and garlands of Christmas greenery. Brass spiral candelabras holding red tapers flanked the altar and red lace-edged ribbon bows marked pews. Hurricane lamps with red candles were set in each window, and the foyer was graced with a nativity scene.

Mavis Sharpley of Corsicana and Dee Ann Wester of Breckenridge were candlelighters. Their dresses carried out the Christmas theme. Mrs. Keith Davis of Breckenridge registered guests.

Judith Johns, organist, presented wedding music. Wayne and Guyla White performed a duet of To Me, and Keith Davis sang The Lord's Prayer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin designed with a basque bodice accented with Venise lace and simulated pearls. The bodice featured front and back yokes of illusion embellished with Schiffli embroidery and a stand-up collar of embroidered illusion. The long Juliet sleeves were trimmed with Alencon lace and simulated pearls, and the full skirt flowed into a chapel length train. She wore a wreath of miniature white roses, stephanotis, cymbidium orchids and baby's breath with white picot ribbon streamers. Her bouquet of poinsettias, tiny red and white carnations and greenery was carried atop a white Bible carried by her mother in her own wedding.

The Bible served as the bride's something old, she borrowed pearl earrings from one of her bridesmaids, her dress was something new and she wore the traditional blue garter, made by her mother.

Sue Ann Shawver of Megargel, sister-in-law of the bride, served as matron of honor. Her dress of red moire taffeta was fashioned with a basque bodice featuring a deep ruffle at the neckline. The sleeves were puffed to the elbow, where they ended in flounced ruffles, and the gathered skirt extended to floor length. She carried a single poinsettia surrounded by white carnations and greenery with red ribbon streamers.

Bridesmaids were Nancy Diaz of Waco, Philda Dudgeon of Dimmitt, Shanna Welch of Fort Worth and Robin Herring of Munday. Elizabeth Ann Wilson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma was flower girl. She was dressed like the bridesmaids and carried a basket of rose petals.

Mike Pope of Breckenridge was best man. Groomsmen were Jeff Stone, Werth Mayes and Frank Ward, all of Breckenridge, and Thomas Southall of Odessa. Carey Shawver of Megargel, brother of the bride, and Donald Perry of Breckenridge were ushers.

The bride's parents were hosts for a reception in the church fellowship hall. Poinsettia trees stood at the entrance, and a Christmas tree was surrounded with the couple's wedding gifts. The bride's table was covered with white net over satin outlined in red ribbon and centered with her bouquet. Twin red candles in crystal holders complemented the setting. A three tiered cake decorated with fresh holly flowers and berries was circled with a garland of holly and topped with a Precious Moments bride and groom.

Red candles in silver holders stood on the groom's table, which was covered with a red Christmas cloth. Punch was served from a silver service, and the cake was

Elizabeth Ann Wilson distributed rice bells tied with red and green ribbons.

The groom hosted a brunch at The Ridge Restaurant in Breckenridge for the bridal party the morning of the wedding. Christmas decorations were used throughout the restaurant.

Following a trip to Calloway Gardens and Pine Mountain, Georgia, the couple will live in Breckenridge, where the bride is employed by the Breckenridge Independent School District and her husband is a service engineer for the Western Company of North America.

Pre-nuptial courtesies included a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Keith Davis in Breckenridge on November 7, gift teas in the homes of Mrs. F.L. Livingston of Megargel on November 17 and Mrs. Freddie Caram in Munday on December 4, and a miscellaneous shower at Bethany Baptist Church in Breckenridge on December 9.

WE SHOP THE SALES

Americans overwhelmingly pay less than the full price for the vast majority of their general merchandise purchases, but we do it at discount stores just one-third of the time.

That's because major department stores have also gotten into off-price retailing. Sears, J.C. Penney and Montgomery Ward generate 54 percent of the discount volume on the strength of heavily advertised sales. Department stores draw nine percent and the remaining 34 percent is attracted by specialty discounters, catalog showroom firms, and full-line discount chains such as K-Mart and Wal Mart.

Polished brass adds a touch of class and sparkle to any home. Keep brass articles bright with frequent cleanings. Before applying polish, wash brass in warm sudsy water. Use a brass polish or cleaner. Rinse it off with clean water, and then buff the brass dry with a soft cloth. Some brass items are coated with a lacquer finish and require only dusting and an occasional washing in sudsy water. Rinse and dry them with a soft cloth.

Bread has been regarded as the "staff of life" since the early days of man. From its initial stages as a plain-tasting, coarse, unleavened food cooked in the open air, to today's endless flavorful varieties prepared in modern ovens, bread has gone through a remarkable transition. The final result is a storehouse of bread-making possibilities from throughout the world.

These breads range from the Czechoslovakian Hoska and German Stollen to Italian Holiday Bread and Swedish Limpa. All offer insight into old world traditions and culinary history. We will be looking at some of these during the next few weeks.

Baking these international breads can be both a fun and an enlightening experience. These unique, traditional breads offer an opportunity to explore different countries' food and flavor preferences.

Czechoslovakian Hoska

Hoska is a favorite bread of most Czechoslovakians. This braided bread is made with almonds which centuries ago were associated with "good luck" in European foods.

2 packages active dry yeast
1 1/4 cups luke warm (110-115 degrees F.) water
5 to 5 1/2 cups flour
2 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup dry Carnation nonfat dry milk
1/2 cup softened butter
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup chopped almonds
Melted butter
Glaze

2 tablespoons coarsely chopped red candied cherries
2 tablespoons coarsely chopped green candied cherries

Dissolve yeast in water in large mixer bowl. Add 3 cups flour, eggs, sugar, dry nonfat milk, butter, and salt. Beat with dough hooks 5 minutes starting with lowest speed then increasing to medium when all flour is incorporated. Stir in raisins, almonds, and 1/2 cups flour to make a stiff dough. Turn out onto floured surface and knead 4 to 5 minutes, working in additional flour as needed, until dough is smooth and elastic. Place in buttered bowl, turning to butter all sides. Let rise until doubled. Punch dough down. Divide dough in half. Cut one portion into thirds. Roll and pull each third into a 14-inch rope; braid. Place on buttered cookie sheet, tucking ends under. Cut remaining dough into 4 portions. Roll and pull 3 portions into 12-inch ropes; braid. Place on top of larger braid. Cut final portions into thirds. Roll and pull into three 10-inch ropes; braid. Place on top of other braids. Gently press down. Brush with melted butter. Allow to rise until almost doubled. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 35 to 40 minutes or until bread is golden brown and sounds hollow when tapped. Cool on wire rack. Drizzle glaze over top. Sprinkle with candied cherries.

Glaze: Combine 1 cup powdered sugar and about 1 tablespoon water. Makes 1 large loaf.

Winter is a good time to warm up the house and fill it with the aroma of bread baking. Last week we began a series on International Breads. Today we will be looking at a traditional German bread, Stollen. This large loaf of bread is crescent-shaped and filled with candied fruit and nuts. In medieval times, a small figure of Christ was placed on top of Stollen in celebration of Christmas.

To insure that the dough rises properly, keep it covered in a warm place and away from drafts. A temperature between 80-85 degrees F. is just right for rising. Remember to set a time, and check the dough periodically. When rising the dough, avoid placing it in a hot oven or in direct sunlight. If you must help speed the rising process, these methods can be used.

*Turn the oven to 400 degrees F. After one minute, turn the oven off, place the bowl of bread dough on the center rack and close the door for 30 minutes. Repeat if necessary, removing the dough while the oven is on.

*Place a pan of very hot tap water on the lower rack of an unheated oven and place the dough on the center rack until it rises.

*Place the bowl of dough in a sink of warm water (80 degrees F) and periodically add warm water to the sink to keep the bowl from cooling.

*Using a microwave, heat three cups of water to boiling in a glass measuring cup (about seven minutes on high). Place the dough in a glass or ceramic bowl in the microwave next to the cup of hot water, microcook on high for about 30 seconds and let the bowl and cup stand in the oven with the door closed and power off for 20 minutes. Repeat until dough has doubled in size.

To determine if the dough has risen adequately, use the two finger test. When the dough appears to have doubled in size, quickly press two fingers deeply into the dough. If a deep dent remains in the dough, it has risen enough, if the dent fills up immediately, let the dough rise a short time longer.

If the dough has doubled and it is inconvenient to shape the loaves, or if the dough has risen too much (over-proof), punch down the dough, knead it until all the air is removed, cover it and let it rise again. Remember, each subsequent rising period will take less time.

GERMAN STOLLEN

2 packages active dry yeast
1 1/2 cups lukewarm (110-115 degrees F.) water
5 1/2 to 6 cups flour
3/4 cup dry nonfat milk
1/2 cup sugar
2 eggs
1/4 cup softened butter
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon almond extract
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1 1/2 cups (10 ounces) cut-up mixed candied fruit and peels
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup chopped blanched almonds
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
Melted butter
Glaze
Candied fruits and nuts

Dissolve yeast in water in large mixer bowl. Add 3 1/2 cups flour, dry nonfat milk, 3/4 cup sugar, eggs, salt, almond extract, and nutmeg. Beat with dough hooks 5 minutes starting with lowest speed then increasing to medium when all flour is incorporated. Stir in candied fruit and peels, raisins, almonds, and about 1 cup flour to make a stiff dough. Turn out onto floured surface and knead 4 to 5 minutes incorporating additional flour until dough is smooth and elastic. Place in buttered bowl, turning to butter all sides. Let rise until doubled. Punch dough down. Divide in half. Roll each half into 8x14-inch oval. Brush each with melted butter. Combine 2 tablespoons sugar and cinnamon. Sprinkle half over each oval. Make crease down center of each oval; fold in half. Place on lightly buttered cookie sheet. Brush loaves with melted butter. Let rise until doubled. Bake in slow oven (325 degrees F.) 30 to 35 minutes, or until bread sounds hollow when tapped. Cool on wire racks. Drizzle with glaze and sprinkle with candied fruit and nuts.

GLAZE: Combine 1/2 cups powdered sugar and 2 tablespoons water. Makes 2 loaves.

Senior Citizens Report

by Janie Wilkinson

Good morning to each of you. I hope you are all doing fine after our wind storm and cold weather Saturday.

I hope each of you stayed warm and did not catch a flu bug.

I went to see my mother in Lubbock over the weekend, and the wind started blowing hard in Crosbyton about 2 o'clock and it was rough all the way. I was proud to see my mother, and so proud to say I have a mother. She isn't well, but we take it one day at a time, and things are going pretty good for us. Our weather was so bad we did not have a musical Saturday. We hated to cancel but that's the way it was. Hope to have it next month.

We have another afghan. It's beautiful. We are taking $1.00 donations for the afghan. This is one of our fund raisers, so hope to bring it to Munday, Goree, then Benjamin and Truscott one day. Please make as many donations as you can. We've got to make some money to keep our Center open. We all enjoy the meals, so remember, help with the afghan by making donations.

Remember our sick in the community. Send a card, or go by and visit. I hope to see you next week.

'Market-Oriented' Farm Plan Ignores Basic Facts

Exports are essential to a healthy U.S. agriculture but they are not the answer to the present farm problem, according to Elbert Harp, Executive Director of Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

While many economists and Administration spokesmen are proposing that lower "market-clearing" prices will move U.S. production into world markets, Harp believes they are overlooking some of the basic facts of world trade. In a January 15 letter to members of the 99th Congress, Harp said, "Grain Sorghum Producers Association is a staunch supporter of export market development, but to expect exports, alone, to avert the collapse of U.S. agriculture and agribusiness is false and misleading."

"Last year, the U.S. held 71% of the world export trade of corn," Harp said. "If the United States had a total monopoly on the world's corn export trade in 1981, '82 and '84, we would still have produced a surplus of corn. The only exception in recent years was 1983, when the U.S. crop was drastically reduced by PIK and drought."

Former Resident Dies Saturday At Seymour Hospital

Frank Xavier Knapp, 79, former resident of Rhineland, died at 6:30 a.m. Saturday, January 19, at the Seymour Hospital Authority after a sudden illness.

Pallbearers were Quentin Bruggeman, Terence Bruggeman, Dale Peterson, Leo Fetsch, Raymond Redder and Carl Schumacher.

He was born May 12, 1905, in the Black Forest in Germany and moved to Abilene in 1929. He resided in Rhineland from 1933 until 1955, when he moved to Seymour. A retired farmer, he was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church. He married Alma Hannig February 22, 1933 in Rhineland.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Dolores Cherry of Fort Worth; a stepdaughter, Theresa Bruggeman of Rhineland; a brother, John of Black Forest, Germany; ten grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Former Resident Dies In Colorado

Alyce E. Wilhite, 89, died Monday, December 17, 1984 in her Fort Collins, Colorado home.

Mrs. Wilhite was born October 5, 1895 in Marysville, Texas, moving to Munday with her parents, David and Annie Wadlington, when she was a small child. She married Prince Whittemore of Munday August 18, 1917. He died in 1926. She married J. Porter Wilhite in 1934, who preceded her in death by eight years.

Prior to moving to Fort Collins three years ago, Mrs. Wilhite had lived in Houston.

Whittemore of Fort Worth and Robert Whittemore of Houston; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; four nieces, Mavoureen Reeves Martin of Seymour, Betsy Reeves Shytle and Evelyn Reeves of Munday and JoAnn Whittemore Stone of Dallas; and one nephew, Kenneth Whittemore of Munday.

Economic Students Salute National FHA/HERO Week

The Munday FHA/HERO Chapter, Munday High School, an affiliated chapter of Future Homemakers of America, joins with 12,000 other local chapters in a nationwide celebration of FHA/HERO Week, February 10-16. Observed within Vocational Education Week, this annual event gives members an opportunity to show how their participation in Future Homemakers of America, along with their background in home economics, prepares them for their future.

The theme of this year's National FHA/HERO Week is "Future Homemakers of America: 40 Years of Real Learning." Members will carry out activities designed to show the relevance of home economics education to youth development while celebrating the 40th anniversary of Future Homemakers of America.

To highlight the week's theme, the chapter's 43 members are planning a publicity day with balloons, a color day with members wearing red and white, a nursing home Valentine's Day party, a FHA birthday party, and a recognition day of the FFA and FHA chapters members. Future Homemakers of America is a national vocational student organization of 350,000 members, with two kinds of chapters. FHA Chapters emphasize consumer homemaking education; HERO Chapters emphasize home economics related occupations. Both kinds of chapters encourage personal growth, leadership development, family/community involvement, and understanding the dual roles of men and women as wage-earners and homemakers.

Under the direction of president Cheryl Wilde and sponsor, Mrs. Penny Winchester, the officers of the Munday FHA Chapter are Amy Parker, Selwa Choucair, Janet Williams, Laura Myers, Mendie Stewart, Janet Myers, Leann Oustad, Karen Kuehler, Rhonda Redder, Mary Jane Kuehler, Holly Hutchinson, and Lynette Norman.

The officers had a luncheon on January 10 to plan the activities. All of the officers will be working very hard to promote National FHA/HERO Week.

Sports Show Held At Wichita Falls

Northwest Texas Field and Stream Association is expecting a record breaking crowd at its 1985 sports show which runs through January 26 at Sikes Senter Mall in Wichita Falls. Sports show officials are looking for more than 50,000 people to visit the show.

Outdoor-related merchandise and services will be featured in dozens of exhibits representing firms from across the nation. Riley Cook is sports show chairman for this twelfth annual event.

Older Athletes Wanted To Compete In Senior Games

More than 1,500 men and women are expected to compete in the fourth annual Texas Senior Games May 15-18 at the University of Texas at Arlington.

The competition, which has become one of the largest such events for seniors in the nation, is open to any person, male or female, 50 years of age or older. The Senior Games will be open to non-Texas residents for the first time this year.

Participants will compete in 51 athletic and recreational activities, including track and field, softball, swimming, bowling, golf, tennis, horse shoe pitching, dominoes and dancing.

Opening ceremonies will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 15 at Texas Hall on the UTA campus. A prominent Texas sports or government figure will serve as honorary chairperson of the games and will officially open the competition at this ceremony.

Most competitions will be conducted according to the following age groups: 50-54, 55-59, 60-64, 65-69, 70-74, 75-79, 80-89 and 90-over. The 1984 games had three contestants who were more than 90 years of age. Thirty-two contestants were over 80 and 343 were between 70 and 79. The largest age group was 60-69 with 507 registrants.

The four-day event officially is called the Texas Senior Games for Fun and Fitness, and executive director Hal Geldon is quick to stress the "fun and fitness" aspects of the competition.

"We all know how important it is for older persons to remain physically and socially active in order to enjoy the best possible quality of life," Geldon said. "But they also need a chance to show off their achievement in keeping their bodies and minds fit. That's really what the Senior Games are all about. Naturally we are extremely gratified that so many seniors are participating in this event and that the games continue to grow so rapidly."

Registration fees for the games are only $2 for each event entered, plus a facility use fee of $2.50 each for bowling, billiards and tennis and $3 for golf. Deadline for entering the 1985 games is Wednesday, May 2.

Entry blanks are available at most parks and recreation departments throughout Texas as well as most area agencies on aging. Entry blanks and other information also are available by writing Texas Senior Games, P.O. Box 676, Richardson, Texas 75080, or by calling AC 214-369-9206.
