Local Chairman Needed For April Cancer Crusade

The American Cancer Society is in need of a chairman for the annual door-to-door Community Crusade which is held in April.

The volunteer would have a great base of support - the same persons "walk their streets" almost every year, so the crusade has a large number of volunteers already. Sherry Cannedy, a representative for the American Cancer Society, will come to Munday to train the volunteer and assist in forming the committee.

Last year, the American Cancer Society provided services to cancer patients in Knox County totaling $5,489. In addition, public education services, including literature, special programs, and school kits, helped Knox County residents learn about the causes, cures and prevention of cancer. Without the donations given during the Community Crusades, these services would not be possible.

The American Cancer Society is the nationwide voluntary health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem by preventing cancer, saving lives from cancer, and diminishing suffering from cancer through research, education, and service.

Anyone interested in discussing this position can call Shirley Amerson at 422-4030.

GARY SCHUR, PRESIDENT OF FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Following Government Rules Can Be Back-Breaking Exercise

One thing local banker Gary Schur never expected to worry about on the job was getting a hernia.

As pictured above, Gary Schur, who is President of First National Bank in Munday, posed with this stack of current federal bank regulations and compliance manuals that he must contend with daily at the office.

"Most regulations start out as someone's good idea," Mr. Schur pointed out. "But once they enter the political process, they get loaded up with add-ons and extras, and before you know it, one simple idea becomes a 200-page regulation that bankers all across the country are expected to follow."

Putting an exact dollar figure on the size of the burden is difficult. The American Bankers Association estimated that the nation's banks paid out $10.7 billion in 1991 - a whopping 59% of their profits - just to keep pace with industry rules and regulations. Another more recent study, by the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council, placed the total as high as $17.5 billion annually. One banking information services company has stated that the cumulative stack of laws and regulations, updates and changes governing today's financial institutions exceeds 200,000 pages and is growing every day. Moreover, the banking industry could support an additional $20 to $30 billion of lending each year if only 25% of the resources banks now spend on compliance could be redirected to bank capital.

Reflecting on his own experiences, Gary Schur explained how well-intentioned laws often translate into hundreds and hundreds of pages of detailed regulations.

"It is the story of bankers drowning in a sea of paperwork, and of communities bearing the brunt of less and less available credit, as more and more bank resources are shifted away from the core of business of banking and expended on compliance," Mr. Schur said.

While recognizing that "safety and soundness are critical to the industry," Mr. Schur also pointed out that "we must not lose sight of the fact that for the industry to be safe and sound, banks must be profitable. And to be profitable, they must not be weighed down by stacks of unnecessary regulations."

Dr. Jerry Mason, Extension Family Economics Specialist from Lubbock, will be presenting information on budgeting principles and practices in terms that you can understand and relate to.

Sosolik Saves The Day

Bobby Sosolik, office manager of the Munday branch of the Rolling Plains Production Credit Association, became a real-life small town hero, Saturday, January 30, when he helped save his neighbor's house from burning.

Sosolik was summoned by his neighbor, Trent Driggers, shortly after noon to aid in inspecting an electrical problem in Driggers' attic. After the two determined there was cause for alarm due to smoke in the attic, Sosolik entered the attic equipped with a fire extinguisher and flashlight.

While Sosolik was looking for the cause of the smoke the excitement really began. A faulty electrical wire shorted and flames burst in the attic. However, Sosolik was ready. He quickly reacted by spraying the fire with the extinguisher. Driggers called the Munday Volunteer Fire Department while Sosolik came down for fresh air.

During this time, Driggers wife, Dedra, went next door for another fire extinguisher. Sosolik took the second extinguisher and returned to the attic. Once again the flames broke out and he was there ready to stop the fire. He sprayed the fire totally extinguishing the blaze.

The Munday Volunteer Fire Department arrived and took over insuring the fire was stopped. The firemen had to remove some of the insulation that was still smoldering. They also set up a fan to help blow the smoke out of the attic.

Thanks to the quick actions of Sosolik and the Munday Volunteer Fire Department, very little damage was done to the house.

Sosolik escaped without injury, however, he did suffer minor smoke inhalation.

Driggers said he was "very thankful to Bobby Sosolik and the entire Munday Volunteer Fire Department for their quick actions that turned a potentially disastrous situation into a minor problem. Also, I thank all our neighbors and friends for their help and sincere concern."

Situations such as this make us all thankful that we live in a small community where neighbors and friends are willing to lend a helping hand when emergency situations arise.

Local Cemetery Association Receives Memorial Donation

Johnson Memorial Cemetery Association recently received a gift of $22,733.96. James Smith, president of the board of trustees, announced the gift at their January 25 meeting. A bequest of the estate of the late Jewel Morrow, these funds have been contributed to the Endowment Trust Fund, earnings from which are used to maintain the cemetery.

Smith pointed out that, although funds in trust now total $116,684.00, this amount supplies earnings of only half the amount needed for proper development and maintenance, due to abnormally low interest rates.

In addition to discussing the 1992 financial statement and the gift from the Morrow estate, trustees of the association transacted other items of business: election of officers for 1993, extension of contract to Tim Sanders for cemetery caretaker, and adoption of a price increase of all cemetery lots to $200 each.

Officers re-elected are James Smith, president; Robert Hosea, vice-president; and Shirley Amerson, secretary. Other trustees include Larry Thompson, Norene Hawkins, Leona Elliott, Mauryse Stone, Charles Baker, and Barry Ratliff.

Olympic Gold Medalist To Present Program Thursday

Two and a half years of intense Olympic preparation recently paid off for Doug Ray, native of Knox County, as he brought home two individual gold medals, an individual silver medal, and a team silver medal. Ray's training did not require an ice skating rink or swimming pool, just a small bake shop. Ray was one of 12 Texas chefs selected for the United States Olympic team that participated in the International Culinary Olympics held in Frankfurt, Germany last fall.

For the past five years Ray has been employed by the Harvey Hotel/DFW Airport as the hotel's pastry chef. He and his staff of 16 produce close to 100 cakes, pies and cheesecakes daily for about 2300 rooms at five Harvey Hotels in the area. Sculpting in chocolate is one of his favorite activities, partly because of the personal gratification.

Ray created two chocolate sculptures which were several feet high, one of a cowboy and the other of the cowboy's wife for the competition. He also did a needle-point sugar piece atop a 2 foot square chocolate "board". All were made ahead and packed for travel to Germany along with several thousand pounds of food and equipment for the team's displays.

The competition was very intense with preparation beginning in early 1990 and causing many sleepless nights and anxious moments for Ray, but in the end it paid off.

Ray is the son of Susie and Jerry

Ray of Knox City and brother of Mrs. Jerry Lowe (Judy) of Munday.

The Knox County Home Economics Advisory Committee is honored to be sponsoring Doug Ray on Thursday, February 4 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at the Perry Patton Community Center in Munday. Ray will be sharing his experiences from the culinary Olympic competition and of his profession as a chef. In addition, those attending will have an opportunity to see his talent in action as he works with chocolate.

The program is open to the public and is free of charge.

Jane Rowan, County Extension Agent, guarantees this to be a great evening.

Help Cut Red Tape

New jobs and economic growth can be stimulated, and you could save money if bank red tape can be cut back, but your bank needs help.

If banks could boost their loan volume by just 4%, at least $80 billion would be pumped into the economy - all of which translates into jobs, community development and growth. President Clinton has said he's concerned that unnecessary regulations are hurting economic growth.

Today you and your bank are mired in a swamp of red tape, tedious procedures and paperwork. A study by the American Bankers Association has found that banks spend at least $10.7 billion each year on federal paperwork. A few examples:

- When you close a home mortgage, your signature is required on several dozen documents, and each one costs the bank, and you, money.

- If you deposit a large amount of cash, the teller has to fill out a government form with 55 separate pieces of information about you, and send the form in to the government.

- When you take out a loan secured by your home, the government requires you to wait three days to actually get the money (your right of rescission).

- The traditional "character loan", where your good reputation is security enough, is becoming a thing of the past because today loans must be extensively documented.

- Under the new "truth in savings" law, banks' deposit disclosure booklets will mushroom to as long as 20 pages, and disclosure procedures will cost even the smallest banks $30,000 or more per year.

Stupid? Irrelevant? A waste of time and money?

Yes, but it's the law.

America's Full Service Banks® are working hard to cut this red tape and let banks get back to business - lending and investing to create jobs and boost our hometown communities without affecting safety and soundness, and spending more time with our customers.

If you want meaningful banking disclosures instead of confusing, costly mountains of paperwork and delays, please send the postcards which will be included in February bank statements to your Senators and Congressional Representatives. Ask them to pass sensible cuts of this unnecessary red tape this year.

Being sensitive to others doesn't come naturally for most people. We are sensitive to ourselves, but to be sensitive to others is difficult.

But we need others to be sensitive to us. We make mistakes. We do wrong, even when we try to do right. We sometimes say the wrong things. We at times do not do what we know we should have done. Sometimes when we do these things, we hurt, we need support, we need help from others -- we need them to be sensitive to our needs.

Will they be sensitive if we are unconcerned about them and their needs? Will they show us mercy if we show them only anger and judgement? Will they be sensitive to us when we make mistakes if we condemn them when they make mistakes?

The Lord has taught us an attitude to have. An attitude that will make a difference. I WILL BE SENSITIVE TO OTHERS. Jesus said, "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy."

"Lord, help me to be sensitive to others this week -- for I need them to be sensitive to me!"

FRINGE BENEFITS -- Mesquite and prickly pear cactus, long the scourge of South Texas farms and ranches, may turn out to be an unexpected economic benefit.

Congressman Kika de la Garza of Mission has introduced a bill to provide a $140,000 grant to Texas A&I University at Kingsville to research ways these two natural growths could be turned to cash.

JUNIOR GIRL SCOUTS from Munday, Knox City and Seymour earned their Looking Your Best badge last Saturday after completing five special requirements. They were given a facial by a Mary Kay consultant, and were shown a variety of hair styles by Vera Tomlinson, a local beautician. The meeting was held at the community center in Munday.

Scouts Earn "Looking Your Best" Badge At Workshop

Thirty-five Junior Girl Scouts from Munday, Knox City and Seymour met at the Perry Patton Community Center, Saturday, to participate in a badge workshop and earned the "Looking Your Best" badge.

The workshop opened with a flag ceremony. Throughout the day, the scouts completed five requirements needed to earn the badge.

The first activity completed was a fashion show. Seven girls, dressed in the latest fashions from S & L Apparel, modeled for the remaining scouts and leaders.

This was followed by the second requirement: making an accessory. Each girl made a bandana hairbow accented with conches and beads.

The third requirement was met at lunch. Each girl was asked to bring a nutritious snack to the workshop which were then combined to make lunch for everyone.

After lunch, the scouts were treated to facials by a Mary Kay consultant. She discussed with them the importance of taking care of themselves and their skin even at their age.

This seemed to be one of the girls' favorite activities of the day. The scouts asked the consultant several questions which completed the fourth requirement.

The last activity and fifth requirement was a hairstyle party. Several scouts served as models and Vera Tomlinson, of Cherie's Classic Cuts, did different braids and hairstyles on them.

Vera also answered their questions and gave the scouts tips on hair care products and ways to keep their hair looking its best.

The fun-filled day ended with several new friends made and all of the Girl Scouts "Looking Their Best"!

METER TAMPERING NOW A FELONY

The State of Texas has recently adopted an amendment to the State Penal Code making meter tampering a third degree felony. A third degree felony comes with a punishment of confinement in the Texas Department of Corrections for a term of not more than 10 or less than 2 years. In addition to imprisonment, an individual adjudged guilty of a third degree felony may be punished by a fine not to exceed $5,000.

Before the amendment of the new law, it was a class A misdemeanor for meter tampering unless the loss of service was more than $200. Under the new law, any meter tampering regardless of the amount of loss is now a felony of the third degree.

Meter tampering consists of, but is not limited to:

- (1) Diverting electricity from passing through a meter device
- (2) Preventing electric service from being correctly registered by a meter device
- (3) Unauthorized activation of electric service.

As a special note to our members, it will also be considered meter tampering if a meter is reset and electrical service is restored by anyone other than a Cooperative employee.

All Cooperative meters are sealed. This seal should not be cut or broken without special authorization. In cases where the seal must be cut for emergencies, the Cooperative should be notified as soon as possible so that the meter can be resealed.

Order Windbreak Trees From SCS Before February 10

Today we are inundated with information for doing good. What are you doing to improve our community? Have you planted a windbreak? Actually 20 years ago was the best time to do that, but today is always a good time to start.

It's interesting that people realized windbreaks were useful to mankind as long ago as the 18th century. Today, various types of windbreaks are used throughout the world to control drifting snow, sand, and soil; to reduce wind damage to field, garden, and orchard crops; to protect livestock and residences from cold winds; to provide screening from road dust and noise; and to serve as a haven for wildlife.

Each year the Soil and Water Conservation District offers you a golden opportunity to start a windbreak for the kind of protection you may need. Time is running out to reserve your trees. Many species are still available. The last day orders will be accepted is February 10. Call Zo Felts at the SCS office, 658-3066, and put your order in.

Trees will arrive on February 17.

Cotton Final Deficiency Payment Rate

The final deficiency payment for 1992 cotton has been announced at 20.3 cents per pound. If you took an advance payment, you have already received 7.5 cents per pound. This means that your final payment will be 12.9 cents.

The adjusted world price (AWP) for upland cotton is 45 cents per pound with a coarse count adjustment of 3/10 cents per pound applicable to certain grades. This makes the lean deficiency payment (LDP) 7.35 cents per pound (7.65 cents per pound if coarse count applies).

This price will remain in effect until 3:00 p.m. Thursday, February 4. Any cotton received in the office after 3:00 p.m. Thursday will be paid at the price in effect for the next week.

Disaster Deadline

The deadline for filing for 1990, '91, or '92 disaster is February 12. If you filed for disaster under Phase I last spring, you can now file for one more year out of the three listed above if there is sufficient loss of crop production. If you did not file under Phase I, you can now file for only one year of the three. Each farm stands alone.

All required signatures must be in the office by February 12. There will be no extensions. If you think you will qualify for disaster and do not have your crop harvested, you still must sign up and have all signatures in by February 12.

If you are interested in disaster, call for an appointment since sign-up takes a considerable amount of time.

LOCAL FIREMEN were called to the home of Trent Driggers last Saturday to help with a fire in the attic caused by an electrical short. Bobby Sosolik, a next door neighbor, used a fire extinguisher to put out the flames as they broke out. The firemen used a fan to blow the smoke out of the attic. This could have been a disaster, but due to the quick thinking of Bobby and Trent, the damage was minimal.

At Your Service

Minister, Munday Church of Christ

Q: Ephesians 4:30 warns "do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God." How does one grieve the Holy Spirit?

A: Paul quotes Isaiah 63:10 when he admonishes the readers to "not grieve the Holy Spirit of God." The Isaiah passage talks about God's mercy and steadfast love (Isaiah 63:7-9). Then he says that the recipients of this mercy: "... rebelled and grieved His Holy Spirit; therefore He turned to be their enemy, and Himself fought against them" (Isaiah 63:10).

When a person rebels against God's commands, that person rebels against God's Spirit. The specific sins mentioned in Ephesians 4 include: lying, prolonged anger, theft, evil talk, bitterness, wrath, clamor and slander (Ephesians 4:25-31). Instead, a Christian should be kind to others, tenderhearted and forgiving (Ephesians 4:32).

In addition to grieving the Holy Spirit one can sin against Him by: 1. Blaspheming the Spirit (Mark 3:29); 2. Resisting Him (Acts 7:51); 3. Lying to Him (Acts 5:3); 4. Lusting against Him (Galatians 5:16); 5. Quenching Him (1 Thessalonians 5:19); and 6. Insulting Him (1 Thessalonians 5:19).

The biblical terms for "grief" mean more than sadness. They mean to be emotionally hurt (in pain). When we rebel against God's Spirit, it is emotionally painful to Him because He loves us.

If you have a question for Larry, write him c/o Box 211, Munday, TX 76371.

Hester, Irby Wed New Year's Day

Laurie Renae Hester and Paul B. Irby were united in marriage at 2 o'clock in the afternoon on Friday, January 1, 1993, at the First Baptist Church in Weinert. Rev. Donny Harbers, pastor, and Rev. Steve Peace, pastor of Bear Creek Baptist Church of Houston, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hester of Weinert, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Hester and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Miller, all of Haskell. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Irby, all of Harlingen. He is the grandson of Mrs. Grace Garling of Harlingen.

The bridal couple exchanged vows at an altar which featured a brass heart shaped arch and two 17 candle heart shaped candelabras, all entwined with silk ivy. The candelabras were accented with silk flowers of orchid morning glories, orchid statice, purple poppies, and purple crocus. A matching brass candle stand held the unity candle and matching tapered candles. The church's stained glass windows were decorated with evergreen branches accented with berries and tiny fuchsia orchids. Lavender raffia bows with baby's breath served as pew markers.

Michele Copeland of Stephenville registered guests in the foyer of the church. The registry table was draped with a fuchsia glitter satin cloth topped with a crystalline ruffled cloth, and held a crystal bud vase containing roses.

Shelly Hester of Rochester and Brooke Miller of Tulia, cousins of the bride, presented wedding programs to guests as they arrived. They also served as candlelighters.

Ushers were Wayne Hester of Commerce and Michael Hester of Stephenville, cousins of the bride, and Scott Lane of Hurst.

Wedding music was played by organist, Sandy King and pianist, Karen Harlan.

The parents and grandparents were seated as Cindy Guess, cousin of the bride, sang Somewhere in the World. The groom ushered his mother. She wore an emerald green, silk, linen, two-piece suit with a green silk blouse. The mother of the bride was ushered by her nephew, Wayne Hester. She wore a purple two-piece polyester dress accented with gold trim and gold buttons. Mothers and grandmothers wore cymbidium orchid corsages. The mothers of the bride and groom each lit a white tapered candle on each side of the unity candle.

The groom was attired in a black Christian Dior formal tuxedo with tails, white pleated shirt with black studs, white band bow tie and white vest. His boutonniere was a white rose with gypsophila.

The groomsmen, the father of the bride and the ring bearer were attired in black tuxedos with satin lapels, accented with black cummerbunds and black band bow ties.

Kelly Wolverton of Dallas served as best man. Groomsmen were Barry Carter of Brownwood, Scott Arthur of Midland, Bobby Irby of Dallas, brother of the groom, Michael Felkins of Hamlin, and Stacy Hester of Weinert, brother of the bride.

Sharon Graves of Italy served as maid of honor, and Tiffany Thomas of Haskell served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mindy O'Connor of Stephenville, Trina Watson of San Angelo, Stacia Leach of Haskell, and Kelly Hutchinson of Archer City. The bridal attendants wore tea-length dresses of purple moire taffeta featuring a close-fitting, shaped front with a scooped v-shaped neckline, a flared skirt, and elbow-length sleeves. The back of the skirt featured tiered ruffles accented with a large bow. The bridesmaids carried a hand tied bouquet of silk orchid morning glories, purple poppies, fuchsia rosebuds, and fuchsia statice. The bow was made from a purple and iridescent satin ribbon.

Dustin Harbers of Weinert served as ring bearer. He carried a white, satin, heart shaped ring pillow. Emily Miller of Tulia, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. Her dress was fashioned like the bridesmaids and candlelighters. She carried a white basket decorated with fuchsia ribbons and lace, from which she scattered flower petals as she preceded the bride.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, and was given in marriage by her parents. She wore an original gown of white glitter satin overlaid with crystalline. The bodice featured a scalloped neckline and a dropped, scalloped waistline embellished with imported re-embroidered alencon lace, iridescence and pearls. The off-shoulder puff sleeves were accented by rows of curled crystalline ruffles. The full gathered skirt of glitter satin featured an overskirt of crystalline edged with two rows of curled ruffles which draped down creating an apron effect. Scalloped re-embroidered lace embellished with iridescence and pearls topped the ruffled hemline. The cathedral length train was completely overlaid in rows of curled crystalline ruffles. She wore a short veil attached to a satin bow which featured a pouf of tulle accented with tiny satin roses and seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of lavender and white roses, gypsophila, English ivy, and plumosa fern, accented with a satin bow and streamers.

For something old the bride carried handkerchiefs that belonged to her maternal and paternal grandmothers. The were attached to the bridal bouquet. For something new, she wore a gold, heart shaped, pearl necklace, a gift from her parents, a pair of pearl earrings, a gift from her brother, and a diamond and amethyst bracelet, a gift from the groom's mother. Something borrowed was her wedding dress from her friend, Kelly Earp Hutchinson. The dress was made by Kelly's mother for her wedding in 1988. Something blue was the traditional garter. Pennies minted in 1969 and 1970, the birth years of the bride and groom, and a sixpence, worn by the groom's mother at her wedding, were worn in the shoes of the bride.

After Rev. Steve Peace read the Love Chapter from 1 Corinthians 13, Cindy Guess sang Household of Faith. Following the exchanging of rings and pledging of vows, with Rev. Donny Harbers officiating, the couple lit the unity candle while the groom sang I Will Be Here.

The parents of the bride hosted a reception in the church fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a crystalline cloth over white, edged with curled ruffles and scalloped re-embroidered alencon lace embellished with iridescence and pearls. The four-tiered white wedding cake was decorated with fresh fuchsia gladiolas, white cushion mums, baby's breath, and greenery. A frosted punch was served from a crystal punch bowl, which belonged to the bride's great-grandparents, the Joe Hesters. A pair of crystal goblets, which were a gift from the maid of honor, were placed beside the punch bowl for the bridal couple's toast. The centerpiece was a crystal cornucopia which held the bridal bouquet and two white, hand carved candles. A pair of white ceramic kissing cherubs sat next to the centerpiece.

Cream cheese mints were in the bride's chosen colors of purple, fuchsia, and white. Serving at the bride's table were Robyne Stewart of Monday, Michelle Dunnam of Haskell, and Angie Gass of Hale Center.

The groom's table was covered with a white linen cloth and topped with a purple linen cloth. The centerpiece featured a hurricane lamp with a lighted 8" candle. Surrounding the base of the lamp were fresh purple grapes and silk ivy. Next to the lamp was the groom's open Bible, which was a gift from the bride. Chocolate cheesecake and coffee were served at the groom's table by Susan Wolverton of Dallas and Leighanne Arthur of Midland. The silver coffee service belonged to the groom's grandmother, and the silver tray on which it set was a gift to the bridal couple from his grandmother. Hand dipped, white chocolate strawberries and an assortment of nuts were also provided.

Featured in the fellowship hall were pictures of the bride and groom through the years.

Wedding coordinators were Celia Peace and Sheila Harbers. Darlene Walton coordinated the reception, assisted by Marilyn Earp, Jamie Weaver, Alice Yates, and Doris Walker.

Lanona Harbers and Kayla Harbers distributed bell-shaped birdseed bags tied with purple, fuchsia, and lilac satin ribbons. As the bridal couple left the church, helium filled "Just Married" balloons were released into the sky.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by Bob and Sherry Smith at East Side Baptist Church in Haskell. Forrest Garling of Houston, uncle of the groom, provided decorations for the fellowship hall. Randy Perkins of Snyder catered the meal of roast beef, creamed potatoes, broccoli, salad, hot rolls and cake.

The bride is a 1988 graduate of Weinert High School and a 1992 graduate of Tarleton State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Interdisciplinary studies. She is employed by the Abilene Wylie Independent School District as the transitional first grade teacher.

The bridegroom is a 1987 graduate of Harlingen High School and a 1991 graduate of Howard Payne University with a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in Religious Education and a minor in Bible. He is currently working on a Master of Arts degree with a major in religion and a minor in family ministry at Hardin-Simmons University. He is employed as the minister of youth at East Side Baptist Church in Haskell.

Following their wedding trip to Fredericksburg, the couple has made their home in Haskell.

Several pre-nuptial showers and parties hosted by friends and relatives were held for the couple.

A kitchen shower was hosted by Julie Adams in Stephenville on October 24. A bridal shower was held Saturday, November 7, in the home of Bob and Ann Dunkin of Harlingen. On November 27, Bob and Sherry Smith and Grace Garling hosted a get-acquainted dinner party in the home of the groom's grandmother in Harlingen. On December 3 the Wylie ISD elementary school hosted a kitchen gadget and recipe shower. A lingerie shower was hosted by Stacia Leach and Tiffany Thomas on Saturday, December 5, at Stacia's home in Haskell. A bridal gift shower was held at First Baptist Church in Weinert on December 6.
